FACULTY COMMITTEE SANCTIONS FOOTBALL—COACH ALREADY CHOSEN—BRICKLEY, MOORE, THORP, AND EDWARDS SPEAK TO-DAY.

The sum received from the College towards the support of the football movement now totals $2,000, with the two biggest days of the campaign still to come and the Alumni to be heard from. The College has caught the spirit, and there is no doubt but that the $50,000 goal will be reached.

"Charley" Brickley, "Tom" Thorpe, "Big Bill" Edwards, "Billy" Moore and Coach Gargan of the New York University football team will speak at a big football rally in the Great Hall to-day. At 1 o'clock to-morrow all students wearing the V. F. F. button will take part in a monster snake dance on the campus, winding up the drive. Both this dance and the rally in the Great Hall will be filmed by Pathe News Company.

Faculty Athletic Committee Sanctions Football

That the college will be represented by a football team in the fall is practically assured by the passing of a resolution sanctioning the sport by the Faculty Athletic Committee at its meeting on Saturday, Dec. 27. The following letter was received by Sidney Unger, chairman of the committee directing the movement:

Dec. 26, 1919.

Mr. Sidney Unger,
Student Athletic Association,
College of the City of New York
My dear Mr. Unger:—

Your communication relative to the establishment of football here in the College was read to the Faculty Athletic Committee at its regular meeting on Saturday, Dec. 27.

In reply, I am authorized to write you as follows:—

The Faculty Athletic Committee is warmly in favor of establishing football as a part of the athletic program of the College of the City of New York. However, the Committee is convinced that football cannot be established unless the following conditions are met in full.

Provisions of the Committee

First. There must be deposited with the Faculty Athletic Committee a sum sufficient to support football training adequately for a period of at least five years.

Second. It must be shown to the satisfaction of the Council of the Athletic Union and to the satisfaction of the Faculty Athletic Committee that the College academic schedule is sufficiently flexible to make it certain that at least 100 students qualify physically and eligible academically; are available for training and will train five afternoons a week during the football season.

Third. Resources must be made available for the regular full-time employment of such additional competent instructors in the Department of Hygiene as may be necessary to train the football squads of the College effectively and in accordance with the

Princeton Swimmers to Be Here Friday

Friday night will see an interesting meet when the Princeton mermen travel over from across the river to meet the Lavender Natators in the College pool. Our swimmers have been putting in some hard work during the holidays and assure a better showing than in the previous meet with the Orange and Black Seamen.

Now that the ban has been lifted, Sophs and Frosh are urged to try swimming. Eight meets still remain on our schedule. If at all interested, "Mac" wants to see you in the pool any afternoon this week.

City College Hands Severe Trimming to Columbia, 25-15

"TUBBY" RASKIN STARTED AT GUARD BY COACH HALMAN—BALL SCORES FIFTEEN POINTS—C. C. N. Y. LEADS AT HALF TIME 10-9—COLUMBIA OUT-CLASSED.

City College handed Columbia University a New Year's gift in the shape of a severe drubbing on the court, the final whistle finding the Lavender on the long end of a 25-15 score, with the Blue and White completely up in the air. Altho the varsity led at half-time 10-9, it remained for the second period to get the Holman machine in good working order, and once the team got going, it was "no hope for Columbia."

"Tubby" Raskin, for whom the Dean lifted the Fresh-Soph ban when Sherman and Wolff were injured started at guard in place of Chick Feigen. It was clearly an experiment to ascertain the chubby one's playing ability.

While Raskin acquitted himself well, he was not yet familiar enough with the team to become a frictionless cog in the machine, and partly because of this the Lavender did not get started in the first half. That Tubby played a good game can be seen from the fact that Columbia was able to bring the score from 9-6 to 10-9 when Feigen went in.

The entire game was replete with bitter feeling, two of the Columbia men being hissed for football tactics. Five hundred Columbia rooters were unable to gain admission to the gymnasium, which accounts for the absence of the Blue and White cheering squad.

Willie Ball was the particular Lavender light on the court, tallying a many points as the entire Columbia team—eleven from the foul line and four points from the field. Ball opened the game with three foul goals, and when Captain Farrell caged a field goal, Willie made it 5-2 with a clear basket from Raskin's good passing.

Hy Fliegel came to the fore when he dropped in two from the field, getting the first thru passing the entire length of the court, and the second when Ball intercepted a Blue pass.

Columbia was shooting poorly but was playing a strong game. The Lavender passing was broken up time after time as seldom before.

Tynan made it 9-4 for Columbia. Feigen went in for Raskin after Johnson had made it 9-6. Ball dropped in a foul, Stuts did likewise and Johnson ended the half with a field goal 10-9.

The second period found the Lavender machine at its best. The writer's note book for this half reads as follows:

"Ball shoots corker from past foul line on good work by Fliegel, 12-9—Ball shoots foul, 13-9, when Tynan fouls Feigen—Lipton cages dandy one-handed shoot, 15-9—Ball shoots foul, 16-9.

"Columbia losing head!

standards of the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the modern development of collegiate football.

Fourth. The financial, business, and schedule arrangement of football must be under the Faculty Athletic Committee in conformity with the regulations of the Board of Trustees and in accordance with the provision of the Charter of the College.

Fifth. Academic, physical, and amateur eligibility and all extra collegiate relationships involving the curriculum, academic standing, and the use of the College name must be subject to the Faculty Athletic Committee in conformity with regulations of the Board of Trustees and rulings of the College Faculty.

Sixth. In general, the regulation supported by the National Collegiate Athletic Association must operate. There must be no professional coaching, no training table, no competitor with other than college teams.

(Signed) T. A. Storey,
Chairman of Faculty Athletic Committee.

Zionist Dance Huge Social Success

MOONLIGHT DANCING. JAZZY BAND. ARTISTIC DECORATIONS FEATURE THE DANCE

The informal dance of the C. C. N. Y. Zionist Society held Saturday January 3rd, in the gymnasium was a complete success. The weather man favored the dancers with as brisk and invigorating an evening as one could desire for such an occasion.

Artistically decorated by the art staffs of College Mercury and Campus, the gymnasium presented an appealing panorama to the delighted guests.

The Zionist Society did more than accomplish its aim when it selected "Tashman's Society Orchestra" to add the right amount of pep to the dancing.

As the dancers glided across the Council to Hold Its Semi-Annual Soiree

TAKES PLACE TO-NIGHT IN WEBB ROOM—PROF. DOWNER TO RECEIVE HIS STUDENT COUNCIL INSIGNIA

The semi annual soiree of the Student Council will be held Thursday evening, Jan. 8, in the Webb Room.

At this meeting, the student councillors and other men prominent in the activities of the College, will be present to talk over the events of the term just ending, and also to discuss plans for the future. On this occasion the Council will have as guests President Mezes, Professors Brownson and Donner. Prof. Donner will also be presented with the Student Council Insignia, which was recently awarded to him.

Elaborate plans are being made by the committee, headed by Furman '20. Mr. Hammond of our lunch room will be the caterer for this affair. All councillors and class presidents will attend.

C.C.N.Y. Is Second in Triangle Chess Match

COLLEGE PLAYERS DEFEAT U. OF P. 3-1—CORNELL WINS TOURNAMENT

The annual matches of the Triangular Chess League were held last week at the Manhattan Chess Club. In the opening round, Cornell beat C. C. N. Y. 2½ to 1½. The next day C. C. N. Y. beat U of P. 3 to 1, the one being lost by forfeit due to the non-appearance of Stern. Then C. C. N. Y. drew with N. Y. U. 2-2. Cornell in its other matches acquired a total of 8½ games won and thus for the first time in about ten years won the honors. City College came next with 6½ games won, N. Y. U. third and Penn fourth.

The individual score:

	Won	Lost
A. Weishard '21.....	2½	½
H. Steinberg '21.....	2	1
N. Stern '21.....	0	3
S. Nelson '20.....	2	1

The dean's ruling barring freshmen and sophomores from participating in varsity activities prevented a substitute from taking Stern's place.

A. Weishard took second place in the individual honors, Dennon of N. Y. U. coming out with a clean slate 3-1.

THE VARSITY FOOTBALL FUND

The campaign for the Varsity Football Fund is meeting with singular success, and while no definite figures are available, it is safe to predict that the fifty thousand dollar goal has almost been reached. Fifty thousand dollars in one campaign is an enormous sum compared with the two hundred dollars collected on Charter Day or the two thousand subscribed to the Union. But the amount of the football fund is in proportion to the spirited co-operation of the professors, alumni and students, and to the expenditures which are necessitated by the introduction of the sport at C. C. N. Y.

Football at the College must succeed because, like all successful movements, it is popular in origin. The spirit, once aroused in the students has spread like wildfire, and the agitation has taken on an organized aspect.

The students have supported football when it required nothing but enthusiasm. Will they give their half dollars and dollars to put the project on a sound financial basis?

Coach for Team Already Chosen
According to information received from a person in a position to know the Faculty Athletic Committee has already decided upon the man to coach the team but deems it advisable to withhold his name until the drive is over. Dean Brownson and Prof. Woll have been working on a revision of the academic schedule for about two weeks. They are not yet ready to announce the results of their work but it is quite certain that some arrangement will be arrived at so that football practice may be held every afternoon next term.

Alumni to Start Drive Jan. 12
Starting next Monday the Alumni Committee will start its drive for funds. At present the committee consists of Prof. Robinson '04, chairman

Lewis Sayre Burchard '77, Jonas Schapiro '17, George Hyman '19, and Donald Roberts '19. Prof. Robinson has asked other prominent alumni to serve on the committee. The complete list of the members of the committee is not yet ready for publication. This list together with the plans for the campaign will be published in the Campus as soon as they are available. The committee expects to collect its quota of about $40,000 very easily because of the great interest all the Alumni have shown in the movement. About $2,000 has already been pledged and several classes have even voted to buy season tickets for the games. The committee is merely waiting for the drive here to finish so that it may show the Alumni with what spirit the students are backing the movement.

Zionist Convention
Meets With Success

The Annual National Conference of the Intercollegiate Zionist Association of America met with surprising results. A gratifying roster of delegates and guests were present in Boston to eat, drink, be merry and discuss.

On Wednesday, December 31st, the incoming delegates and guests were met at the stations and escorted to the Harvard Union, where accommodations were provided.

At 3 o'clock, the Executive Meeting of the Governing Council took place in the Library, Harvard Union.

That night, the delegates attended a theatre party and enjoyed the occasion immensely.

Thursday, Jan. 1st, the first regular Business Session occurred in the Reading Room. Greetings from the Boston Zionist District and from the Department of Education of Zionist Organization of America were extended. Then followed the appointment of committees, the reports of the President and the Secretary, and the discussion of Chapter Problems which followed the reports of activities in the various societies.

Mr. Nachman Arnoff, a member of the Zionist Society of this college and last year's president, represented the College and spoke at the Luncheon held at 12:30.

Among the noted Hebrew scholars who engaged in the discussion of the Hebrew session which took place at 3 o'clock were Louis Hurwich, Chairman, Dr. Nissin Turov, Simcha Rubinstein and Cantor B. Chagy.

In honor of Miss Henrietta Szold, who was leaving for Palestine, a dinner and reception was tendered by the delegates and proved to be one of the most enjoyable incidents of the convention.

The convention came to a close on Saturday, January 3rd. Rabbi Louis I. Newman of the Governing Council of the I. Z. A. conducted Sabbath Morning Services.

Hassam Exhibit
Is Very Popular

WILL CONTINUE UNTIL JAN. 28
SUGGESTED THAT PAINTINGS FORM NUCLEUS FOR C. C. N. Y. ART MUSEUM

The exhibit of the Childe Hassam paintings in the Lincoln Corridor will continue until January 28, 1920. The announcement that these famous canvases were open to public view has brought hundreds of art enthusiasts from all over the city.

The paintings were placed on exhibition here for the purpose of raising a fund to buy and keep the paintings as a single collection in some art museum in the city. Already twelve of the paintings have been sold to different purchasers over the country for more than $100,000, the amount asked by the artist for the whole set of twenty-two. The above sales will be cancelled only on the condition that New York City buy the collection.

The suggestion now comes that a movement be started by students and alumni of C. C. N. Y. to buy the paintings and bring them here as a nucleus for our art museum. All those interested in this proposition can learn more about it by consulting with Prof. Leigh Hunt in Room 416.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEETING

The next regular meeting of the Student Council will be held Friday in Room 220 at 1 P. M. sharp.

COLLEGIATE CHATTER

Dartmouth soon will be able to boast of having a Stadium in which to play football soccer and lacrosse games. The Alumni Association has donated the money and the stadium will be known as the "Alumni Oval." The seating capacity will be about 10,000.

The student council of Muhlenberg College has passed an enactment that overseas men shall not be required to wear "Frosh" caps.

Six universities ratified the movement started recently to organize an Intercollegiate Boxing League. They are: Temple University, Penn State and Princeton. The teams will represent the lightweight middleweight and heavyweight classes.

Cornell University will erect a memorial museum in honor of its students who lost their lives in the war.

Sophomores of the University of Washington are to adopt a new insignia. Corduroy trousers and woolen shirts for the men and swagger sticks for the girls are soon to appear.

The University of Pennsylvania co-ed freshmen are requested to carry powder for the upper classmen (women), and are fined a nickel for every violation. But the yearling damsels could start a rumpus because the kind of powder is not specified.

In recognition of the fine showing of last year's team, the Athletic Association of New York University has granted official recognition of wrestling as a minor sport. Their first match will be with Columbia University.

One of the greatest athletic fields in the country has just been completed at the University of Oregon, at the cost of $10,000, and a grandstand, costing the same amount, is well under construction. The field will be paid for by the University, and the grandstand by the student body.

It seems that Dan Cupid has taken matters into his own hands. At Washington University three students have already fallen before the terrible onslaughts of Cupid. They are to be married some time in the very near future.

Werner Club Formed to Boost College

ORGANIZED BY PROMINENT MEN OF COLLEGE TO QUIZ ALL INCOMING FRESHMEN

The "Werner Club," an organization comprised of many of the most prominent men of the College, and founded for the purpose of fostering love for Alma Mater and to promote athletics, has been formally recognized by the Student Council.

This organization has for its motto "Pro Collegio" and already has made progress by assuming the task of obtaining Union subscriptions for next term. The entire "U" campaign will be in the hands of the Werner Club.

It is planned to distribute questionnaires to the incoming freshmen in order to obtain a complete record of each man's ability and desires for extra-curricular activity.

The Club has promised Coach Mackenzie a track squad of at least one hundred when the call for candidates is issued next month, in return for which Mac promises a first-rate team. Efforts are being made to obtain an alcove in which to center college doings and talk.

Two hundred and forty men have already promised the Club to go out for football.

Among the most prominent members of the Werner Club are: A. J. Rosenblum, Pres. of the A. A.; Hy Fliegel, Capt. of Basketball; I Lipton, Sporting Editor and 'Varsity player; Nat Krinsky and "Speed" Ball; A. Taft, basketball manager; Hy Cohen, cartoonist; A. Harsany, Capt. of the soccer team; "Fat" Schapiro, the rotund freshman and L Pearlstein, freshman president.

The originator of the club is M Bernhardt '21, 'varsity swimmer.

Feb. '20 Very Busy Prior to Graduation

CLASS PICTURES. PINS. BANQUET AND EXAMS TO WORRY ABOUT

All students who expect to graduate in February, and who have not made any arrangements as to their class picture, should attend to the matter by this afternoon. Postponement on the part of a few fellows means a delay for the entire Senior Class. Those concerned should see any one of the Picture Committee, Nadel, Hirsch, Hirsh, and place a deposit and arrange for a sitting at the photographer. The same pictures will be used for the 1920 Microcosm. Further particulars may be learned by consulting the class bulletin board.

The graduation pins are now here. They may be obtained from Lipnick Bloom, or Charos, upon paying the balance of the cost.

All Feb. '20 men should fill out a "personals" sheet, which is for the purpose of making up the Seniors' records in the "Mike." These sheets can be obtained from Goodfriend or Bloom and should be returned to them.

The Feb. '20 Class will meet for the last time as an undergraduate body at a banquet to be held in the near future. Plans are now under way. A committee has been appointed consisting of Nadel, Hirsh and Bloom, temporary chairman. As this is the last issue of "The Campus" this term, the fellows are advised to consult the bulletin board every day, or else meet the members of the various committees in the '20 alcove during the lunch hour.

Tickets on Sale for Big Varsity Show

The sales campaign has already started and the College is responding in a satisfactory manner to the clever advertising campaign that kept every one guessing for an entire week.

The 'Varsity Box Office, which was constructed by the members of the Dramatic Society, has been stationed in the Main Concourse in the vicinity of the A. A. Board. A complete house plan and a ticket rack has been provided for the benefit of those desiring to attend the performances.

Seats are reserved and all societies and fraternities may secure blocks if application is made in the near future.

Orchestra seats are selling at 50, 75 and $1.00. Balcony seats are 50 and 75.

This year's 'Varsity Show will take place at the Washington Irving Playhouse at 17th Avenue and Irving Place.

Four one-act plays will make up the program. "Hunger," by Eugene Pillot "The Jubilee," by the Great Russian realist, Cherkov. "Where the Cross is Made," a melodrama by Eugene O'Neil, and, finally, "Augustus Does His Bit," a biting bit of sarcasm by George Bernard Shaw.

The players are being coached by Messrs. Gustav Schutz and Joseph Tynan, and Miss Muriel Hope, the former leading lady of Arnold Daly's productions and famous as "Juliet" in Shakespearean performances in London and Paris.

CAMPUS DOPE ON COLLEGE SPORTS

WE'VE GOT THE INDIAN SIGN ON COLUMBIA; and they know it. The Blue and White quintet travelled up to the College gym, feeling like the proverbial lamb led to the slaughter. And our boys sure did make short order of them. As an old timer remarked after the game, "When in doubt, play Columbia."

THE GAME STARTED OFF WITH A RUSH; it was kept up throughout the entire contest, and finished . . . well, the College team was still at it but their opponents were left far out in the cold. Our boys completely outclassed their Blue warriors; and let me tell you, that Columbia crowd left even more blue than their uncles.

THE USUAL ROUGH PLAYING PREVAILED throughout the game. It was a regular C. C.—Columbia affair with the usual ending. However one thing is to be noted about the game . . . the losing team was defeated by ten points, a rather unusual occurrence. Still, we always knew that the present combination was all there.

PHILLY SURE AM SOME TOWN, but it takes NooYo'kers to teach them the fine points of the game. Our own basketball team demonstrated the superiority of City ball over that of Slowtown. The score does not tell the true story, or else it would read something like 41-17.

HOWEVER, THE BOYS HAD A FINE TIME while in Quakertown, as Artie Tait will tell you. And the girls . . . well, we sure did have a great time in Philly.

COACH HOLMAN KEPT THE BOYS IN HIGH HUMOR on the whole trip. Even during the halves his remarks were received in great style which helped the team in its final spurt for victory.

WE WERE STRUCK BY THE FOLLOWING SENTENCE in the St. Joseph College write-up, "A furious attack by the St. Joe players tied the score." It would have been more correct to have said, "A furious attack by the UMPIRE etc. etc."

THE SWIMMING TEAM IS GOING TO LINE UP once more against the Princeton mermen. On the last similar occasion, the College team was beaten. This time . . .

THE BAN IS OFF. Once more the freshman team is going to be seen in the preliminary game every Saturday night. Although handicapped by lack of court experience, they still hope to trim the fast Boys' High Team champions of Brooklyn. Here's hoping.

SYRACUSE IS GOING TO BE ENTERTAINED by the Team this Saturday night. Last year they managed to win out by the very slim margin of one point. This year with the team going great guns, is there any doubt in minds of Lavender Rooters as to the victor?

UP TO DATE, THE BASKETBALL TEAM has beaten Manhattan, Yale, Columbia and St. Joseph's College. It was in turn beaten by Princeton. It has won four and dropped one . . . a great record we say.

THE FOOTBALL RETURNS coming in every minute point to a successful campaign. FOOTBALL IS HERE FOR GOOD!!!

THE HANDBALL TEAM IS PRACTICING DAILY. The men are showing great form in their workouts and ought to make things hum for their opponents, once they get going.

OVERHEARD REMARK PASSED AT COLUMBIA GAME that the cheerers have too much to say about the cheers. What's Bob Sugarman cheer leader for, fellows, if you try to tell him what to do? Looks bad when an outsider notices such things. . . . Let Bob do it!

CHESSMEN, WE WERE SORRY to learn you lost the championship to Cornell. Well, you did your best, so we can say nothing else but better luck next time.

NOTICE THAT PRINCETON'S SMEARING them all on the court? Looks as if the Tigers will cop that old championship.

CAPTAIN FLIEGEL PLAYS HIS LAST GAME for old Lavender Saturday against Syracuse. His going will leave a pretty big hole in the team. So long, Hy!

WELCOME, WERNER CLUB. WELCOME! We have needed just something like you for a long time. Your possibilities are enormous. You are the unifying body of the College. May you see your purpose thru "Pro Collegio" is the right stuff. Go to it.

Freshmen Vs. Boys High Saturday

The Freshman class of 1923 will make its first formal appearance Saturday night when the yearling basketball team will meet the quintet from Boys' High School.

Boys' High is the champion team of Brooklyn and is comprised of crack players. The Freshmen, while having no individual stars, have been playing informally as opposition to the 'varsity team, and play well together. '23 will line up with Glauber and Langer as forwards, Diamond at center, Daniels and Fliegel at guard. The game will be a preliminary to the 'varsity contest and will start at eight o'clock.

PLANS FOR SONG BOOK NEARING COMPLETION

The plans for the publication of a new C. C. N. Y. song book are nearing completion. If the student body continues to support the idea, the book will be out before the end of the school year.

This will be the first song book put out in many editors. Former song books were edited by Prof. Sim and Mr. Burchard.

Those men who have lyrics or melodies to submit for new songs should give them to Harry Ruskin '21, who is chairman of the Song Book Committee.

Pledges to buy the book are still being taken by members of the committee.

Lavender Lowers Colors of St. Joseph's College, 26-22

GAME PLAYED AT PHILA.—BALL SHOOTS 14 FOULS—KRINSKY NETS 4 FIELD GOALS—TEAM PASSES WELL—SCORE AT FIRST HALF 12-11.

The Lavender team travelled to Philadelphia last Friday night to show the Quakers what a good basketball team looks like. St. Joseph's College was the object demonstrated upon and because in every game one team must bear up the smaller end of a score, the Quaker institution gathered only 22 points to 26 for C. C. N. Y.

Fresh-Soph Ban Is Now Thing of Past

IS LIFTED WITH COMING OF NEW YEAR

The ban that has kept the freshmen and sophomores in retirement since the never-to-be-forgotten flooding of the gymnasium after the tug-of-war has been automatically lifted with the coming of the new year. The underclassmen once again may raise their voices to high and may participate formally in all extra-curricular activities.

WHO'S WHO? "Chick" Feigen BASKETBALL

When Capt. Fliegel graduates this month the burden of the defensive of the court will fall on the shoulders of "Chick" Feigen. It will be difficult to replace such a sterling player as Hy but Feigen, it is felt, will strive his utmost to fill the gap.

Chick has had an active career at City College, his extra-curricular work consisting of athletic and non athletic endeavors. As a freshman he played guard on the basketball quintet, captaining the team in the second semester. He also twirled for the yearlings and since his first year he has been one of the 'varsity pitchers.

Feigen has been class president, student councillor, a member of the "U" executive committee, and he now is secretary of the Student Council and the Athletic Association.

He has learned much about 'varsity basketball since the opening game and each week finds him improving. Strong, steady and fast—so far a guards go—he promises to become a court star of the first light before he bids au revoir next year to his Alma Mater.

The clever passing game uncovered by the Lavender players won the applause of the crowd, which had been looking forward to this game with the conquerors of Yale. Their quick and accurate passes, followed by rapid shooting, were clearly the feature of the game.

The contest was a hard one and was keenly fought by both teams. The Quaker quintet jumped into the lead shortly after the start and played like a whirlwind. The Lavender team soon overcame this lead by dint of Willie Ball's shooting from the foul line and Nat Krinsky's field goals. The first half ended with City College leading, 12-11.

The final period found the Lavender team ahead 19-14 with seven minutes to play. A furious attack by St. Joseph players tied the score, Duff the Quaker forward, doing some excellent shooting, especially from the foul line.

The victory, however, was not to be denied the visitors, and the Holman machine went ahead at full steam. The final whistle found the ball in City College's possession with the score 26-22.

Nat Holman expressed his evident delight at the victory of his charge because the St. Joseph team is considered a formidable aggregation around Quakertown.

Educational Clinic Employs Novel Methods to Test Children

C. C. N. Y. POSSESSES FINEST EQUIPPED CLINIC—MENTAL, PHYSICAL, AND MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS GIVEN—PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTS VERY INTERESTING.

The Educational Clinic of the College of the City of New York, which is the finest equipped clinic of its kind in the country, was established in 1913 when the Board of Estimate of New York City appropriated two thousand dollars for its equipment.

The purpose of the clinic is to render service to the city in the treatment of children, especially of children who exhibit exceptional traits of some sort in their mental development or in their behavior.

Exceptional children differ widely. There are those who fail to develop normally because of defective cerebral conditions. Other children show backwardness in their mental development and retardation in their school progress due to a variety of causes which are subject to correction.

It is necessary for the welfare of both the above types of children that a careful discrimination be made between them, as each requires a different care and a different education.

There are other children who show no indications of variation in mental development from the average child, but whose behavior is irregular and unusual in school and elsewhere. Then, too, there are children who develop mentally at a much more rapid rate than the average. They, too, need and deserve a proper understanding of their attitude and their actions, so that they may receive proper treatment.

The mental examination proper varies considerably in content and in method depending upon the age, the development and the condition of the child. Before any mental examination can be begun, the child must be gotten into the proper attitude for it. He must be at his ease and in rapport with the examiner, otherwise the results may be wholly unfair and unreliable. Sometimes a child is timid and afraid, or he is nervous or suspicious or defiant. Any such attitude must be removed, and the child's confidence secured. This often taxes the resources of the examiner. In the case of a timid or frightened child, funny toys or enticing pictures are useful in leading him into a happier frame of mind, and making him think that the subsequent examination is only part of a game.

A complete record of each case examined in the Clinic is compiled. This record includes the significant fact of personal history, of school record of physical condition, of mental status, and the recommendations made for care and treatment. A brief of such record is furnished to those responsible for the child's welfare.

In order to understand the nature of the child and the characteristics which made him exceptional or different from other children, he is given a thorough and comprehensive examination. This examination entails a great deal of time and care and consists of several parts, each of which is essential for the final diagnosis.

The first part of the examination consists of an inquiry into the child's family and personal history for the purpose of obtaining information about illnesses, accidents and any irregularities of development and behavior; about hereditary traits of ancestry which may be contributory to the child's condition; about the character of the home and the parental treatment of the child as well as the child's attitude toward the parents; and about his environmental and economic conditions. This part of the examination makes an inquiry also school course and are seeking employment are given an examination for the purpose of determining whether they have any aptitudes which would specially fit them for certain positions, or any negative characteristics which would preclude them from success in others. The employment agencies are aided thereby in placing them in positions where they will best succeed. This service gives large promise of being especially helpful.

Branches of the Educational Clinic of the College of the City of New York have been established in different parts of the City in order to extend its service as widely and as effectively as possible. Three of these branch clinics, one of which is in the Bronx and two in Brooklyn, are planned primarily for the help of the Bureau of Attendance. Another branch clinic, situated in the Bronx is for the use of the schools in that vicinity. A fifth branch is located in Manhattan and is planned especially for co-operation with the employment bureaus.

The interest in the welfare of the children who visit the Educational Clinic extends beyond the examination and the advice for treatment. Subsequent inquiries are made, and personal visits to the home and school are made by a social worker connected with the Clinic, in order to ascertain whether the recommendation for the child have been carried out, whether he is improving, and whether further service would be advisable and helpful.

The staff of the clinic is as follows:
 Samuel B. Heckman, Ph. D.,
 Director

 Examiner
 Gustav F. Boehme, M. D.,

 Thomas J. Harris, M. D.,

FOR GEOGRAPHY COURSE

To the Editor of the Campus, Sir:

In going through the historical courses given in C. C. N. Y., I have been struck by the utter lack of geographical knowledge possessed by the students. Geography is absolutely essential to even a superficial knowledge of history. This has been acknowledged by quite a large number of universities, especially of late. More and more courses in geography are being given everywhere. It was only last year, I think, that the Campus put out a list of universities and colleges giving geography courses.

Why cannot C. C. N. Y. have a course in geography? I am sure it will be welcomed by the student body, especially those specializing in history. We still hear the amazing remark that Columbus discovered America in 1492, when if the geography was clearly understood, we would learn that no man in one year could discover a vast bulk of land like America. Why, it was not till Balboa crossed the Darien and Magellan circumnavigated the world that people even found out that the "new world" was really an island.

And there are rivers and mountains that to-day, despite numerous historical and other allusions are mystic ground to the students thoughts. It seems to me that if a large enough number of students should offer to take the course geography would become a permanent and important influence in our academic studies. Let us hear from others on the subject.

Harris Students Surprise Prof. Sim

PRESENT THEIR DIRECTOR WITH WATCH CHAIN

Wednesday afternoon December 24, 1919, at 12:30, the students of Townsend Harris Hall, together with their instructors, thronged the auditorium to take part in a special assembly in honor of their former Director, Professor Sim.

The ceremonies were opened by an address by Prof. Cozenza on the work of Prof. Sim at the College and the character of the man. He also presented a folio of letters from members of the faculty expressing their good wishes and congratulations.

Addresses were then delivered by the Presidents of the Senior Class and the General Organization on behalf of the Seniors and the student body respectively.

Professor Sim was then presented with a gold watch chain, which he accepted in an inspiring address. As his last official act the Grand Old Man of Townsend Harris dismissed the school until January 5, 1920.

Solemn Assembly Marks Anniversary of Roosevelt's Death

The first anniversary of the death of ex-President Theodore Roosevelt was celebrated Tuesday morning by a short solemn assembly attended by the entire student body.

Prof. Mezes opened the assembly after a selection by Prof. Baldwin, and explained briefly the purpose of the assembly. He called upon Professor Turner, who read the Proclamation of President Wilson of the day after Roosevelt's death.

Dean Brownson then read a poem by President Coles of Whenton College on the death of Roosevelt.

Prof. Downer then read a poem by Rudyard Kipling dedicated to the memory of Roosevelt.

Prof. Baldwin closed the exercises by playing Chopin's Funeral March.

Families have been buying their clothes here for generations.
