Turner Prohibits S.C. Burke Protest Meeting
And Earl Browder Political Campaign Talk

Rules That Other Speakers' Must Be of Senatorial Rank; S.C. Officers Attack Decision

A political symposium at which Earl Browder, Communist Party candidate for the presidency, and Harry W. Laidler, Socialist Party candidate for governor, were scheduled to speak, was banned by Dean John R. Turner yesterday. The dean ruled that the speakers for the Democratic and Republican Parties must be at least of Senatorial rank.

Council Plans to Proceed With Meeting As Scheduled; Other Groups Join Protest

The Student Council Executive Student Affairs Committee and a number of other College organizations late last night voted to hold a demonstration on the campus at noon tomorrow, as a protest against the “arbitrary rulings” of Dean John R. Turner. The demonstration was called following the banning by Dean Turner of the Burke demonstration which had been planned by the Student Council.
The Campus
Official Undergraduate Newspaper of the College of the City of New York
1926 Member 1937
Associated Collegiate Press
Distributors of College Digest
College Office: Room 415 Main Building
Phone: Auditor 1-9271
Printed by Phil Rosen Printing Company, Incorporated
1154 Third Ave., Phone: Sacramento 2-6223, New York
Vol. 59—No. 10 Tuesday, October 20, 1936
MANAGING BOARD
Albert Sussman '37, Editor-in-Chief
Benjamin Feld '37, Business Manager
Irving Balinger '37, Managing Editor
Issue Editors: Milton J. Gold '37, Leonard Zobler '38
Issue Staff: Sheridan '37, Goodman '38, Edelstein '39,
Levey '38, Sussman '37, Utevsky '37, Mirkin '39

MACHIAVELLI TURNER
The case of Robert Burke "is not, in good taste, a proper subject matter for a meeting at which outside speakers could speak, .'

principles of academic freedom. Vested with extraordinary powers by virtue of the Board of

The Dean's action is an autocratic curb of the respect of his students and staff members.

An inability to appreciate the intensities that move a maturing student body.

The widespread opposition to his administration and to his continuance in office.

When his nostalgic inclinations inspire the President on his fifty-third birthday to think back on his life, there will be little to enjoy. If he be

Beaver Moves Ahead

The Beaver gridiron victory over Susquehanna on Saturday should elicit hosannas from cynical upperclassmen who ventured a one-victory season for Benny Friedman's gallants.

Handicapped by meager funds and poor material, the Beaver team mighty little teams to over the muddy range. A Beaver victory with more inelasticity than the Literary Digest puts Saturday's victory as Duquesne's upset because it places the foundation in the heart of Susquehanna is pic here. We go out in february, however, we must NYU still look at

Dean's Statement
(Continued from Page 1, Column 3)

Mr. Burke, Mr. Thompson, or any one else criticized for holding views at variance with those of the authorities of the University, or for holding a meeting on South Field. Difference of opinion in a University is expected and not to be condemned. The fact that Mr. Thompson's letter was accepted as a sincere apology for his part in the affair demonstrates that the question was one of conduct and not opinions.

An attempt to cite this disgraceful incident as a desire to curb the decent expression of opinions differing from those of the majority of the members of the University, or the right to assembly, is not true."

regards questions of academic freedom. discussions or opinions in

Browder Banned From Brooklyn

Earl Browder, Communist candidate for president, will not be permitted to address the Brooklyn College Student Social Science Society as a result of a ruling by the Faculty Committee on Student Affairs made last Thursday.

The committee declared that no candidates for political office would be permitted to address a student group.

The Browder speech was scheduled to be delivered next Wednesday, October 28.

Tattler

Oh my darling! The twenty-four hours that have elapsed since we were last together seem like twenty-four years . . . Do you really think of me always? . . . I cannot believe that you love me. If we should ever I don't know what should happen e... Did you think I was very for... when I told you how much I adored you? . . . You were so kind to name it... my favorite flower... But the l of your voice calling me Gardenia a little shiver of delight run up my spine . . . But I have decided

Theatre

Intemperate attempts to encourage latent talent among the undergraduate playwrights of America are to be crystallized into a nation-wide movement during the coming year, it was announced recently by Francis Bosworth, director of the WPA Federal Theatre Project's Play Bureau.

Taking cognizance of the vast, untapped talent in high schools and colleges, hemmed in by lack of opportunity, the WPA Federal Theatre is assuming the lead in offering students the opportunity of seeing their plays in production.

Plays submitted by college playwrights, which are not produced by WPA Federal Theatre Project units throughout the country, may receive production by the Studio Theatre, a division of the WPA Theatre, where the playwright may see the flaws in his technique or play construction.

The WPA Studio Theatre, which will present the student's play, has no obligation to the aspiring playwright, will, in reality, serve as a laboratory for the young writer. He will be enabled to see the fine points and the mistakes in his brain child, which are not easily discernible when the play is in manuscript form.

In addition to these services, George Terwilliger, who is the official go-between for the student playwright and the Federal Theatre, announced this week that the WPA Theatre is placing extensive lists, bearing the names of plays, published or unpublished, at the disposal of all amateur dramatic organizations and college thespian groups.

The lists include the titles, authors, reviews and complete research data of intrinsic merit, regardless of their subject matter. These lists are broken down by departments of study.