The Student Council Friday night "strongly condemned" the College Administration for its procedure in the arrest of two students accused of painting anti-Knickerbocker slogans on school buildings, in a motion proposed by Ed Sparer, Students for

Tallace, and passed by a vote of 9 to 141/2.

Stanley Pesner and Bernard Teplitzky, against whom charges were dropped last Wednesday by school authorities, are supported by Council in the resolution which asks that "hereafter the administration follow such procedures as would provide for a student-administration conference before arrests are pressed by the College."

Continuing action on the Knickerbocker-Davis case, SC elected a committee of eight to meet with the Board of Higher Education this week and to "take any further action it feels necessary," subject to the approval of SC. The Committee members are: Peter Paulson, Robert Hanser, Lloyd McAuley, Henry Katz, Alan Rosenwasser (chairman), Meagher, Stanley Rothman, and Bob Oppenheimer.

By a vote or 291/2 to 11/2, Council passed a resolution stating that the elected committee shall meet with Mayor O'Dwyer in the event to take steps leading to a review of the case of Prof. Knicker- somewhat automatic. bocker."

The problem of a free competitive press has come to City College. The question, whether one newspaper or more than one should exist on the campus, is now to be decided.

At the Student Council meeting last Friday the problem resolved itself. A Student Council Publication Committee set up last term "charged with a survey of the problems of the school publications and the recommendation of a new charter for the CAMPUS," presented its recommendations to Council last Friday night. In its report it

"While the ideal situation would be one in which all the resources, personnel and material and financial, were put into one publication, it must be recognized that, from time to time, differences with the established policy of the permanently maintained organ might give rise to sufficient demand to justify the chartering of an additional publication. Such organs should be entitled to facilities and support of the student fees equal to, or proportional to, if possible, to that of the permanent publication. They should be equally responsible to the college community and entitled to equal privilege and authority."

The SC Executive Committee, as opposed to the Publications Committee, last week advocated the support of one newspaper for the sake of both efficiency and economy. We cannot see how the efficiency so desired by the Executive Committee can be attained either election held by the College Chap- as a result of their refusal to regthat the BHE "does not promise journalistically or mechanically in a situation where one newspaper ter of AVC last week Nathan ister for the coming semester in without the incentive of competition receives its funds in a manner

A resolution to be presented to the Student Council this Friday night by the SC Exec. Committee will ask that the Student Faculty Fee Committee allot fee plan money to only one newspaper and that, "that newspaper be known as the undergraduate newspaper of the City College."

The resolution is a substitute resolution for a recommendation made by the Student Council Committee on Publications. The committee was established at the end of last term to survey the policies of the publications and to recomment a new charter for the Campus.

The reason given for the resolution is that the fee plan cannot support two newspapers unless the publications are to receive a disproportionate amount of the fee money. (Last term the Campus received 42% of the fee money while OP received 7%).

Resolutions pertaining to publications acted upon and scheduled for action this Friday night are listed on page 3.

As regards any possible duplication which may occur, let us point out that the news covered by OBSERVATION POST extends from Thursday or Friday of the previous week to the Monday before the date of issue (Tuesday), whereas the CAMPUS covers the period from Monday through Wednesday and publishes on Thursday. No overlapping occurs, as can be seen by checking past issues.

The Economic factor revolves around the valid objection made by Henry Katz, S. C. Treasurer, that, inasmuch as campus publications last term received almost 50 per cent of the Fee Plan Fund, an insuffinent amount remained for the other organizations on the campus What has been overlooked is the fact that the CAMPUS received 49 per cent of the amount, OP but seven per cent.

OBSERVATION POST believes that both the CAMPUS and OP can publish weekly for less than the amount requested by CAMPUS alone, last term. Our plan will be explained fully at this Friday night's SC meeting.

The situation as it now exists affords the student reader the complete coverage that can be given in a semi-weekly and present: diverse editorial opinions which reflect differences existent in the stu-

The CAMPUS has shunned the responsibility of presenting this decided divergency of student opinion. OP, on the other hand, has attempted, as is stated in the Charter under "purposes": ". . . to pubiish news and express opinion which reflects the diverse interests of the student body as a whole."

Two years ago, when we first applied for a charter, there were it was found that all them were strong attempts on the part of members of the CAMPUS to prevent recorded, but that faulty technithe charter from being granted—and this is not an isolated example, ques and lack of experience had

We would like Mr. Norman Zukowsky, present Editor-in-Chief of the CAMPUS, to answer at next Friday night's Student Council meeting the following question: Does CAMPUS still agree with the philosophy it ascribed to in 1945 when he was Managing Editor?

How does this issue affect us, the students of the City College? We elect our student government, and in most cases what is known of the student leaders and their activities is gleaned from the student publications. It is obvious that the ethics involved in publishing a newspaper have great bearing on the outcome of the elections.

To illustrate: In last term's elections the candidates that the CAMPUS attacked were defeated. Election details were presented in so biased a fashion by CAMPUS journalists in their "news" columns that the Student Council was impelled to set up a Publications Committee whose major function was to find a way of preventing a recurrence.

In its first term of existence (Spring 1947), although severely limited by lack of funds and consequently space. OBSERVATION POST initiated it, "Battle Page." There the various parties and independent candidates presented their views, in this way opinions were presented without benefit of editorial sifting. As for our news columan, we can say without fear of contradiction, that at no time whatsoover have we ever been accord of malicious intent in our presentation of the news

This is our side of the story. To hear a more detailed exposition of the issues we strongly urge that you attend this Priday night's Student Council meeting in Room 200 when the OP charter shall be presented to the Council for its approval. Inform your representatives of your views on this basic issue of a free press.

POST College's Seismograph Station Gains Nation-Wide Recognition

By Sy Richman

If a certain Greek god ever has the opportunity to talk shop with Mr. Thor of the Geology Department, both of these gentlemen would undoubtedly find that they have great deal in common. The god supplies the earth with variety in its weather through storms, thunder, lightening, etc., while his namesake endeavors to explain and inform us of the antics of these and other misbehaving elements of the earth.

When an earthquake 10,000 ? miles away in the Indian Ocean, was recorded last Wednesday on the equipment in Finley Hall, Mr. Thor, as Director of City College's Seismological Station, was able to aid the Coast and Geedetic Survey in charting the center (epicenter) of the quake by immediately forwarding the photographic tracings to Survey headquarters in Washington.

The minor quake, which was recorded in spite of the interference of a hurricane sweeping up the eastern seaboard at the time, showed up quite vividly on the seismological apparatus for more than 90 minutes. In view of opinions held by many before the station's construction that such an installation could not obtain readings free from subway, traffic and other disturbances, Professor Daniel T. O'Connell proudly points to Wednesday's recordings. The traces not only indicated the presence of a strong metorological disturbance in the vicinity, but also showed the Indian Ocean quake accurately superimposed on

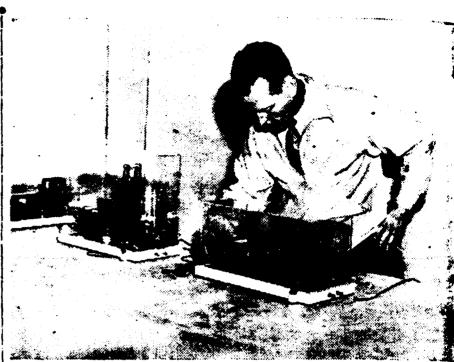

Checking up on several disturbances that the station was believed to have missed since it started reporting to the Survey, caused several oversights. Hownell does not doubt that it soon will be among the top installations of its kind in the country.

TIIC Raps Endorsement

(The following is a release is sued by the THC Executive Committee—Editor.)

TilC strongly protests the free use of its name during the last two weeks by various student groups.

On one occasion, Campus listed TIIC as the endorser of a press release, which had been issued by a Student Council group.

The Committee of Student Liberais placed TIIC on the top of its list of members on two leaflets.

We had nothing to do with any of these actions.

This practice of indiscriminately listing groups as sponsors must stop. It is not only dishonest, but, body through the publications and when issues are critical and verification is impossible, it is also particularly dirty politics.

> TIIC insists on a public apology from Campus, and the Committee of Student Liberals. In the latter more flagrant case, it intends to take further action.

Eleven Meets Lowell Next

Injuries Ruining Team's Chances For Good Year

Lowell Textile at the Stadium this Saturday night. The Beavers last met the Weavers nine years ago.

The weakness in depth of the Lavender eleven is becoming more evident as the season progresses. A good year had been predicted for the squad, on the condition that Ol' Man Injury stayed away from the Stadium gridiron. He didn't.

A jinx has struck Sam Welcome, the lines 235 pound mainstay, for the second straight year. Sam, a la DiMaggio, missed last season's opening games because of leg injuries. In last week's Rider slaughter, he sprained his ankle and will probably have to sit out the next two games. Another firststringer, Claud Winter, has finally rejoined the squad. The hand fracture he suffered in pre-season training has mended, and he will probably switch from guard to Welcome's tackle spot.

Farbo Still Out

Italo Farbo, a regular end. has not fully recovered from a sprained! back and is expected to be available only for limited action.

In the backfield, newcomer Ed Sturman, who looked good in his; debut in the Susquehanna tilt, is on the sick list. He is being replaced by Monroe Morris, the hard driving back who starred at fullback for the junior squad last year. This opening in the backfield will give him a chance to get that much needed experience, which is the chief factor remaining in his development.

A group of twenty-eight prospects, including thirteen lettermen, has initiated workouts. Konnie Nadell, Herb Holstrom, Mel Rothbart, all standouts on last year's freshman squad, plus Seymour Chadroff (a loose-jointed 5'3" forward who starred with the 1946-47 J.V.) have been added o the squad. They will attempt to fill the gaps left by the graduation of Lionel Malamed, Phil Farbman, Everett Finestone, Sid Trubowitz and Sid Finger.

Although it is too early to form any definite quintets, indications still seem to show that Coach Holman will build his squad around co-captains Sonny Jemeson and Hilty Shapiro, and a team of fast, experienced players, such as Irwin Dambrot, Norman Mager, Mason Benson, Mike Gittlin, Paul Malamed, and Joe Galiber. Other letter men who should give the Beavers depth are Arnie Millman, Moe Chefec, Dan Markoff, Moe Brickman, and Leroy Watkins (at Preliminary play in the Intra- 6'7" the tallest man on the squad). form a combination of adequate height and fine ballplaying which St. Nick's already great history.

Our Football Fame . . .

Every so often, the cry is raised by various malcontents that City College should have a winning football team. I have long suspected that these dichards are spies sent out by an envious NYU.

Over the years, our football Beavers have built up an admirable reputation. We are known for our football teams in every literate community. We have perhaps the "losingest" team in the country, and everybody knows it. It is an axiom taught to every tot and assimilated by every housewife. It took years to build this reputation Recognition does not come easily. Our losing tradition was developed slowly and paifully over the years (and over the prostrate bodies of scores of our football players and an undetermined number of neurotic coaches). Yet, these radicals seek to destroy all this in a single year.

Our college is among the best known in the world, and much of the credit for this should go to our football teams. Many seriousminded sports writers have linked our team with that of Notre Dame. comparing and analyzing both squads as to their relative reactions to headwinds and breakfast foods. In fact, City College and Notre Dame are on top of their respective categories. They represent the ultras. All others are condemned to the obscurity that inevitably befalls the

During the war years, the Beavers hit their peak, going through an entire season without scoring a point. We received loads of free publicity from Hollywood, Broadway, and the radio world. Each week football scores were anxiously scanned, and sighs of relief went up when the familiar zero was noted beside CCNY, signifying that our phenomenal record was still alive. Later, Red Gebhard attempted to flaunt our tradition by walking under ladders and chasing black cats in an infomous bid to bring down upon us the wrath of the evil spirits. He succeeded, however, in little more than denting our reputation. He became disgruntled and left us.

New Peril

A new peril appeared early this season when Coach Harold Parker sought to blast the status quo through the introduction of the "T" formation. That plot was symied by the alert City College Football team in the season's opener through the use of strategic fumbles. Nevertheless, the situation took on a grim aspect when it was learned that we were to meet a Rider team which had not won in years, and was obviously trying to move into our territory. Our boys, however, were equal to the task and came through handsomely.

Thus far, our reputation is relatively unscathed. We remain in a class by ourselves, but our position will always be a precarious one as long as this nonsense about athletic scholarships, inducements, etc. keeps coming up.
