SC Prepares Student Aid, Job Listings

Directories to both student financial aids and employment opportunities at the College will be available to students. It has been announced by Sy Richman, chairman of SC's School Affairs Committee.

The directories were compiled by separate sub-committees, the Scholarship Sub-committee, under Ted Zimmerman, has made a complete list of loan funds and scholarships available at the College. Five hundred copies will be printed and distributed throughout the College, including its departments and administrative offices.

An Employment Sub-committee, led by Ed Spechler, will take available a comprehensive guide to all possible sources of undergraduate employment at the College. Such details as qualifications, salaries, hours of work, and other important factors will be listed.

In order for ballots to be tallied, the "Student Council Elections" stub of the green Student Activity card must be attached.

Missing in Action

Major Bert Santora, former instructor in the College's Department of Military Science and Tactics, has been reported missing-in-action in Korea.

Major Santora taught at the College for two years until he was killed in action at the end of this past September. Serving as advisor to the ROTC unit, he was reported missing since November 1950.

Sixty Per Cent of Male Students Slated for Khaki by Autumn, 1951

By Mildred Bernhard

Sixty per cent of the male students at the College are expected to be in khaki by the start of the fall semester.

Calculations by Registrar Robert L. Taylor, based on the hypothesis that the present draft status of the male students, and a substantial portion of the sophomores, will remain in khaki by the start of the fall semester.

Out of the 7,015 men enrolled in the 1950-1951 freshman class, it is estimated that 4,200 will be drafted, 2,500 will be in khaki by the start of the fall semester, and 1,300 will be in khaki by the end of this semester.

Negro ‘Bias’ Charge Hurled At The ‘College’ Barbershop

Camp Marion

Three members of the faculty have been appointed by President Ordway Teed to a student-faculty committee to secure a camp site for the College. Paul Greenidge, Civil War historian and President of the Board of Directors of the Rhode Island Civic Center, Mr. Jesse Sobel, Student Life, are the new members of the Marion Committee.

At the present time the committee has raised over $1,000 for the proposed project. It is hoped that the profits of the camp and the Civil War will also be earmarked for Camp Marion.

House Plans inaugurated the idea of forming a camp dedicated to a former member, Marion Walschberg, who was killed on camp last year.

The Executive Committee of Metropolitan National Student Association urged last Sunday that the atom bomb be withheld from the present conflict in Korea.

Acting under its emergency powers for almost every student government in the area, the NSA body considered requests by various newspapers, the Congress of Racial Equality, and the United Nations without the express permission of the United Nations was passed unanimously.

A resolution urging that "the decision of the General Assembly of the United Nations be respected and not be used in any manner to start a new conflict in Korea or in any other conflict involving the United Nations without the express permission of the United Nations" was passed unanimously.

The investigation was touched off by the statements made by John Haidasch, a Negro Evening Session student, who claimed that he was denied services because of his race. Mr. Haidasch was advised that John's Barber Shop didn't know how to cut "his type of hair." Furthermore, Greenidge was informed that if someone-anyone went to John's City College Barber Shop, opposite the Tech Building, and asked him to cut his "type of hair," they would be charged more for "special haircuts." He told of a court case in which he refused to cut a Negro's hair.

Charges of discrimination have been leveled against John's City College Barber Shop, opposite the Tech Building, by the Congress of Racial Equality, and the United Nations, without the express permission of the United Nations. The NSA body considered requests by various newspapers, the Congress of Racial Equality, and the United Nations without the express permission of the United Nations was passed unanimously.

Student Groups Pressing BHE on Women's Rights

Four campus organizations have begun a campaign to secure a hearing before the Board of Higher Education on the question of admitting women to the School of Liberal Arts and sciences.

Initiated by Equal Rights for Women, and co-sponsored by Student Council, House Plan and Hillel, a post card campaign has been launched, calling for open hearings at the BHE's meeting next Monday. Addressed to Dr. Ordway Teed, chairman of the BHE, the cards urged the admission of women into the Liberal Arts, establishment of co-education in all the city colleges, and for open hearings with student representatives allowed to speak.

Shelby Kohn, SC representative of the BHE, said, "We will see that both the Uptown and Downtown centers of the College are considered, not just one campus." The cards urged the admission of women into the Liberal Arts, establishment of co-education in all the city colleges, and for open hearings with student representatives allowed to speak.

John Haidasch agreed to cut his "type of hair." He was told he would have to pay $1 for an item listed as a "special haircut," and was advised that John's Barber Shop didn't know how to cut "his type of hair." Furthermore, Greenidge was informed that if someone-anyone went to John's City College Barber Shop, opposite the Tech Building, and asked him to cut his "type of hair," they would be charged more for "special haircuts." Dear Editor:

During the OP staff meeting at which they interviewed the candidates for major office, the following occurred:

Urban 18, Schiffres 9, Mazur 4, Buckman 1 Total: 24

Since a plurality is not accepted, another vote was held immediately afterwards, the results of which were:

Schiffres 11, Urban 10, Total: 21

Due to the negligence of the chairman, Dave Weinstein, three people walked out of the room within a matter of seconds. The fact that another vote, a vote to find a majority should have been announced. One of the people who walked out was a sure vote for Urban. I say this with definite proof. This 11 to 10 vote binds 3 out of a possible 8 votes for Schiffres. I feel that the voting procedure was ethically wrong, however, technically I admit I have no argument.

A Negro's hair. "You know how it is," he said. "Italians go to an Italian neighborhood, Irish take to white."

Biagi explained that his employer's training was to cut a Negro's hair, although he admitted that it takes twice as long and special equipment to do it. There were "some tests" which members of R.A.C.E. and CORE were entitled to pass by members of R.A.C.E. and CORE.

Determined that a "gentleman's agreement" existed between his establishment and the "Negro only" shop, Mr. Haidasch said that "these things worked out naturally."

Mr. Haidasch said that he was questioned by the "Negro only" shop. Mr. Haidasch was legally entitled to name his shop "John's Cut College Barber Shop," but he did not. He was asked whether he was a member of the NAACP and whether he was a member of CORE. He was asked whether he was a member of CORE and whether he was a member of the NAACP.

Mr. Haidasch has vented his opinion that the represented CORE and NAACP were "Communists and trouble-makers."

The students of all the metropolitan schools are cordially invited to attend the various events scheduled for the week.

Tomorrow's school-wide elections will be highlighted by a torrid four-man presidential race. Jerry Levinrad seeking to succeed himself will be met by stiff opposition, Mary Drucker, Ramos, Betker Battle Jerry for Reelection in Tomorrow's S.C. Ballot.

By Fred Boretz

The goal of the Elections Committee on the grounds that he had not been a student at the College for the year prior to his taking office as stated in the Student Council constitution. Mr. Andrews, who returned to City this term, appealed his disqualification. Both the SC Judiciary and Student Council upheld the Elections Committee's ruling, the Council by a vote of twelve to seven.

Four candidates will oppose each other for the Vice-President. Irwin Schiffs, Council Secretary, is running on the Lavender slate. He will be opposed by Mary Mazur (DSD); Walter Urban, '53 President; and William Buchman. Ardor a Write-in Abe Linn (Lav) is unopposed in his bid to become SC Secretary.

There are eight vacancies for the National Students Association, four delegates and four alternates. Students will be able to choose from these eight candidates.

This semester's elections are in the hands of four candidates for President. Jerry Levinrad is the current incumbent and is running for an unprecedented third consecutive term. He has the record of a successful president. He has the ability of an outstanding student leader. He has the program that will make next term's Student Council a memorable one.

To succeed himself, Jerry Levinrad is easily the outstanding candidate for President. He has the record of a successful president. He has the ability of an outstanding student leader. He has the program that will make next term's Student Council a memorable one.

At the beginning of the semester, JERRY LEVINRAD found Council's committees, the guts of any legislature, in a deep freeze of inactivity. Building from the bottom up, he found the men to guide the committees. Under his leadership, often his personal guidance, the committees started to bring in results—a directory of part-time jobs at the College, improved student-faculty relations, a shot-in-the-arm to the loan and scholarship set-up. Many of the committee projects got off the ground.

Many of the committee projects got off the ground. JERRY LEVINRAD was needed in the Presidency to make sure that these projects are hot.

JERRY LEVINRAD has the personal drive and vigor that is needed to keep Council operating. The Council has been plagued by petty obstructionists. A personality that can keep the little men of Student Council under control is needed. Such a personality is JERRY LEVINRAD.

This semester's ballot for NSA on a preferential basis. The candidates for NSA are: Sy Richman, current Chairman of the College's delegation; Henry Kirsch, Irwin Schiffs, Marvin Silverman, Martin Dubin, Arthur Kaen and Beverly Rabin.

them to better rooms upstairs. Of the other two candidates, one would make the Student Council a sounding board for his own ideas, while the other would re-elect the incumbent President without providing publicity for his pre-planned retirement at the office.

Marvin Drucker

Marvin Drucker is the only candidate for the President position who requests the Student Council to mean something by putting into effect his very concrete proposals.

An Editorial:

For Student Council Vice-President

We are happy to endorse Irwin Schiffer for vice-president. Irwin Schiffer is one of the most qualified individuals to run for that office. His campaign shows his understanding in his term as president of Hillel and Student Council that he has the drive and the executive ability to do the job of the position.

In his term as secretary, he has shown a willingness to work that promises well for next semester.

Against this record, his opponents can offer nothing that is even slightly comparable. We urge you to cast your vote for Irwin Schiffer for the superior candidate, Irwin Schiffer.

For Student Council Secretary

Although he is in the happy position of being an unopposed candidate, we wish to have the opportunity to put in a word about Abe Linn, whom we are heartily endorsing for secretary. He has shown himself to be one of the hardest working and most respected students on the floor of Council and its committees. Both on the floor of Council and in his committee, he has been one of the most valuable of SAC reps. As a vote of confidence in an able man, we urge a heavy vote for Abe Linn for secretary.

For Senior Class President

The sight of a short but dominating individual roaming the campus with the title of "Senior Class President" is not a pleasant one. However, with the right man in this position, the years could be made as pleasurable as possible. We believe that the Senior Class President should be a friend and guide to all seniors, who should be interested in their interests and problems. We believe that the Senior Class President should have the ability to get things done and be an effective leader.

Vice President

Yehuda Jaffe

Yehuda Jaffe is a dedicated student leader who has shown his ability to get things done and be an effective leader. He has been a member of the Student Council and has demonstrated his leadership qualities. His ideas and proposals are well thought out and practical. We believe that he is the right man for the job of Senior Class President.

In Defense of Julian Ramos

We who know Julio Ramos as a fellow student were astonished to read the vicious attack against him in the newspaper, "Campus." An ugly assault of mud-slinging was used against him. We who know Julio personally are not deceived by such slander.

Although, some of us may not agree with Julio politically, we have no doubts about his integrity of character. We are not concerned with the outcome of this election for Student Council President. Our chief concern is for the good name of City College as well as the reputation of a student and a friend.

What will people think of us if a college newspaper resorts to filth and falsehood?

Where can we find ethical journalism if not in our own College?

We know Julian Ramos much better than those scribblers who insulted him. We regard Julio neither as a political opponent nor a political ally. He is our friend.

It is a shame that in our own College there is a newspaper which has no scruples about ruining the reputation and the future career of a student. How many of us have the courage of a Julie Ramos to stand up for his convictions against such smear tactics?

No one wants to dictate to Campus how to support or oppose any candidates. Nevertheless, those journalists should realize that the end does not justify the means.

We paid for this ad not because we can afford the price of newspaper space; we surely cannot afford to let pathological propaganda run wild in our College.

Dr. Page, Expert on Russia, Holds Dim View of U.S.-Soviet Relations

By George Greenfield

Considered by many to be the outstanding authority on Russia at the College, Dr. Stanley M. Page, professor of political science, maintains a realistic view of world affairs. He expressed this opinion for years. It is his belief that standing with Russia would be extremely difficult because of the ring of suspicion which surrounds the Soviet mentality. The Russians do not believe our promises; they fear us; they can see no middle ground, only world revolution in which either conquer or be conquered, Russia considers the United Nations an anti-Soviet bloc, and has no intention of making it work for any purpose but to publicize her views.

On the other hand, reveals Dr. Page, "I do not believe that the United Nations is entirely on the side of the angels. Our size is a powerful weapon other than of comission. It is not that we have any aggressive or strong armies. It is that we simply have nothing but military power with which to back our ideological weapons. These are as powerful and unpersuasive, and simply cannot be combated by military means. We should face the fact that the only real international unit in the world is not the United Nations, but the Soviet bloc. If we hope to cope successfully with them we will have to find some formula for bringing into ideological conformity the dictatorial dissident portions of people to trust and love us, we must be prepared to show what we have, completely and clearly, and separate the real world, and thereby bring about an anti-Soviet unity which will be based on international equality and a really rock-bottom world democratic ideal.

It was during the Second World War that Dr. Page developed an interest in Russian history. He was drafted into the Army in 1942 and placed in the Army Specialized Training Program because of his knowledge of German. As a child, he had lived in Central Europe, and went to school in London. He was sent to Harvard by the Army in order to learn the Russian language. Shortly after he was discharged from the Army, he was urged by members of the Harvard staff to continue his graduate studies as a civilian.

Dr. Page the world which calls itself the United Nations. This may necessitate a re-evaluation of our own policies in the United Nations. Particularly as it affects our attitude toward the rest of the world.

"Our success has given us a superiority complex. Instead of waving the American flag and

Washington State in MSG Against Lavender Tonight

By Mary Kitman

More Cougars are coming to town. Still breathing hard from a two-point squeaker victory over Brigham Young, the first mountain lion delegation to visit Ned Irish's palace this season, the Lavender will meet another bunch of pumas tonight. This time it's Washington State in the first game at the Garden.

The whole business of throwing the Beavers into the MSG with "easy" on the schedule seems to have tickled what with BYU's near-perfect season when they lost to St. John's.

Washington State, from faraway Pullman, Wash., gets the first chance to whack the no-longer invincible Lavender can be beaten. Washington State in the first game at the Garden. Sending his report he touted City as rough because, "they have the greatest forward I've ever seen on a college team."
