

Prof. Cross Awaits Draft As President

Professor Ephraim Cross (Romance Languages) has declared his willingness to become the new President of the City College after the retirement of President Harry N. Wright on August 31. Professor Cross made it clear that he would not actively seek the post but would wait to be "drafted" for it.

While speaking of the inadequacies of the present administration in an interview with OP, Professor Cross outlined his platform as follows:

1. The utmost courage in administration of the College.
2. No words of double meaning be used by the administration.
3. Strict honesty in dealing with students and faculty; the truth to be told at all times no matter how painful.
4. No student or faculty member to be denied rights or privileges on promotions because of private, political or social beliefs or his opposition to administrative policies.
5. Term of office of the president to last one year, incumbent not to be re-elected.

The last point, Professor Cross stated, is designed to make the office of president an honorary post, given each year to a deserving member of the College faculty. The presidency, he added, is merely a titular job, all the actual administrative work being done by a large and capable staff.

Sigma Alpha Inducts 16 At Dinner

Sigma Alpha, the Junior Honorary Service Society, held its induction dinner and service at the Barbizon Hotel last Friday night. The guest of honor at the dinner was Dean James Peace (Student Life). Also present were Dean Ray Corey (Student Life), Mrs. Robert Taylor (Registrar) and Dr. Kurt Lowe, faculty advisor of Sigma Alpha.

Sixteen new members were inducted. They are: Irving Alter, Karl Ambos, Martin Blank, Irving Cohen, Barbara Frankel, Donald Gelber, Blossom Kramer, Janet Kramer, Fern Ma. x, Varda Peller, Ted Rifkin, Edgar B. Schneider, Doris Schwartz, Morton Sternheim, Madeghuna N. Unofgha, and Beatrice Warshafing.

Rally Off...

The safe-driving rally of the Highway Courtesy Club, scheduled to be held in the Great Hall tomorrow has been postponed. Because several of the members of the SFCSA raised questions about the proposed rally, the matter will have to be discussed at the next regularly scheduled meeting on Friday.

Among the stars that were "definitely expected" were Sid Caesar, Peggy Lee and William Gaxton.

NSA to Hold Forum On Academic Freedom

In an attempt to systematically and thoroughly study the subject of academic freedom, The New York Metropolitan Region of the National Student Association, through its Uptown CCNY delegation, will sponsor a conference in Townsend Harris Auditorium next week.

This conference, whose underlying theme will be, "The Challenge to Academic Freedom," will take place on Saturday, April 5.

Jim Berry
Chairman of NSA Delegation from 10 A.M. to 6 P.M., and will be open to everyone. After a short plenary assembly, the conference will break up into panels for discussion of 4 sub-topics: "Loyalty

SC Votes to Co-Sponsor Robeson Program in May

By Fred Boretz

Student Council has voted to co-sponsor the appearance of Paul Robeson in the Great Hall on May 8th and to set up a committee which will invite other campus organizations to co-sponsor his appearance.

The motion, as introduced, at last Friday's SC meeting by Stuart Smithberg '53, stated that "SC co-sponsors with YPA (Young Progressives of America) a meeting on May 8th in

Great Hall at which Mr. Paul

Robeson will sing and speak on "Peace and Civil Liberties." It was passed by a vote of 23-11-4.

Committee Set Up

An amendment, introduced by Edythe Lutzger '54, set up a five-man committee "to invite other chartered campus organizations to co-sponsor this meeting." Those elected to the committee are: Mrs. Lutzger (Chairman), Lisle Greenidge '53, Henry Krisch (SC Vice-President), Ray Hamilton (SC Secretary), and Julian Ramos '53. The committee will report back to Council this Friday.

In another motion, SC requested the Student-Faculty Committee on Student Affairs to repeal its ruling that controversial speakers may use the Great Hall only at forum-type meetings. The SFCSA had cited this provision, among others, when turning down the request of YPA last November for use of the Great Hall with Robeson as speaker.

College Refuses to Release Report on Lanzer's Charges

The College administration has refused to release excerpts of the report made by a five-man faculty committee which investigated charges of anti-Semitism in the Sociology Department lodged by Mr. Irving A. Lanzer.

A story in the last issue of The Campus stated that President Harry N. Wright had agreed to release those excerpts which dealt with anti-Semitism, but Dean Leslie W. Engler (Administration) termed the article "premature." He said that releasing excerpts from the report would serve only to confuse the situation further.

Meanwhile, Lenny Lederman, chairman of the Civil Liberties Committee of Student Council, which had requested the report, announced that the committee had since received it from other sources. All material the committee possesses will be presented today at an open meeting in Army Hall, Room 3, at 6:30 P.M.

Pres. Wright Urges School Budgets To Be Divorced From Political Power

President Harry N. Wright called for "a complete divorce between political power and education power" at a symposium on public education in New York City, sponsored last week by the American Association of University Women.

Urging an "independent tax base for the public school system, from the elementary through the university level," President Wright said that at present it is the city budget director who controls the schools.

He called an exceedingly critical problem in New York City the practice of maintaining "line" budgets for schools, whereby city officials, rather than experienced educators, determine the amount of money to be spent and how it is to be divided among different educational activities.

System 'Antiquated'

"The system is antiquated, wasteful and inefficient and control of educational budgets by educators is the only answer," President Wright asserted.

Support for President Wright's viewpoint was given by Louis E. Yavner, who acted as moderator at the symposium. Mr. Yavner is co-director of the recent Yavner-Yavner Education Management Study, which recommended fiscal independence of the schools and elected Board of Education among other reforms.

Another participant in the symposium was Joseph Cohen, dean of teachers education in the four colleges, who noted that there has been much criticism—much of it valid—of teacher-training schools, methods, and courses.

The most frequent charges are that education courses are inflated and repetitious; too much time is devoted to the "how" rather than the "what" to teach; teachers themselves are often of a low order of competence, and that the liberal arts provide as good a training as specialization in education courses.

Dr. Cohen asked for a critical appraisal of teacher training and selection, and the making of changes were indicated.

Flash!

Student Council Executive Committee last night passed a motion approving an APO run poll which would "inform SFCSA of student opinion on the Robeson matter." Polling will take place beginning today at 10 through Friday noon. Army Hall, Knittle Lounge, and Lincoln Corridor will be the scene of the poll. In order to vote, students must have their No. 3 stubs of their student activities card.

established a special committee to confer with President Harry N. Wright concerning the expenditures of Non-Instructional Fee (NIF) Funds. Last semester, the Executive Committee of SC protested the use of NIF Funds to supplement the salaries of administrative help.

$100 Given Book Fund

The Frederick Douglass Alumni Association of City College presented a check for $100 to President Harry N. Wright yesterday to be used for the purchase of books on Negro culture and history for the college library.

Henri Belfon, president of the association, made the presentation in the Great Hall at 12 noon in memory of Lewis E. Waters, former president of the Frederick Douglass Association, who died recently.

The association is composed of former members of the Frederick Douglass Society, a Negro social and cultural group that was once active on campus. The books to be purchased will be chosen by the school librarian.

Help!

There is, in our backyard, a youth center, which is engaged in the struggle against those prime destroyers of youth and life, drug addiction and hoodlumism.

In spite of their limited facilities they go through the neighborhood and seek out these victims of their own weakness and take great pains to bring these youngsters back on the road to a constructive and useful life.

In order to carry on this fine work they are in constant need of funds. In this battle there is no such thing as "enough money." There will be enough only when there are no more misguided youngsters wandering the streets needing the help of the MYC.

Our college is listed as a "sponsor" of this Center, but we are sponsors in name only. We contribute nothing to its support because we receive our funds from the City and are not permitted to reappropriate them. It is for this reason that The Observation Post is taking steps to enlist the financial support of the student body, the faculty and the many student clubs and organizations.

OP will publish a week by week accounting of funds received along with the name of the donating student or group.

Each contribution will help pave the road to rehabilitation for these young people.

Let's all have a share in the reconstruction of this road.

Robeson

In the latest move to attempt to allow Paul Robeson to appear at the College to speak and sing, Student Council has begun sending out letters to clubs, urging them to co-sponsor Mr. Robeson's appearance with Council and YPA. OP is in favor of other clubs co-sponsoring Mr. Robeson's appearance at the College, in order that we may truly say that in our democracy everybody, both those who disagree with the majority and those who agree, is allowed to freely voice their opinions. OP is in support of Council only insofar as we wish to reaffirm our faith in Democracy, and in the basic principles of freedom of speech and Academic freedom.

We strongly urge that SFCSA reconsider its ruling on Mr. Robeson, and allow him to be heard at the College.

YPA Poll

In an effort to discover the true feelings of the student body on whether they would like to hear Paul Robeson speak at the College, YPA is shortly going to begin circulation of 3000 questionnaires throughout the school. OP is very much in favor of every student possible filling out one of these sheets, since it will serve as an indication as to how the student body feels on this vital issue. We do have one reservation, however. The first question asks: "Do you think that Paul Robeson has the right to speak at the College?" OP wants every student to ignore that question completely. Nobody, not YPA, not SFCSA, not the Congress of the United States has the right to ask such a question of any American. Paul Robeson, no less than any other citizen, has the right to express his opinions. WHETHER WE AGREE OR DIS-AGREE.

YPA has asked APO to help tabulate the results, so that APO's experience in handling bulk tabulating of this size may be used in the interests of speed and fairness.

'Mercury' Hits Stands Today; Ape Perelman

The Spring issue of the College "Mercury" will be on the stands Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of this week.

For the first time in its history the college humor magazine is printing four thousand copies and expects another sellout.

The issue will feature a fine parody on the humor of S. J. Perelman, a story by Gerry Gross which pokes fun at City's banjo playing, Levi wearing liberals plus pages of more satire and parody.

The picture article, "Alumni News," again takes a few jabs at illustrious graduates.

After a bitter battle the editors have again selected another beast for Miss Mercury.

Idiot's Delight to Bow At P.E.T. April 4 & 5

War and its futility is one of the central themes of Robert E. Sherwood's "Idiot's Delight." The play was produced in 1936 on Broadway at a time when the world was on the brink of plunging into the most destructive war in history.

The play was very successful at that time because its mood was in the tempo of the times—the uncertainty of the future of the world. As a result, the play was awarded a Pulitzer Prize in 1936.

Today the world is in very much the same condition, a fact which makes this play appropos. Dramsoc has picked up the beat and will present "Idiot's Delight" at the Pauline Edwards Theatre on April 4 and 5.

The Dramsoc production boasts a fine cast in such veterans of the college theatre as George Feigelman, Naomi Rey, Ed Zang, Ignatius Mercurio, Ted Rifkin and Zara Anelian. The play is being directed by Bernard Landou and produced by Naomi Bergere.

This is an opportunity to see an excellent and timely play performed by a most capable group. Tickets are now on sale at the booth in the rear of the Cafeteria for $1.20 and $1.00 in the orchestra and balcony respectively.

Letters...

Dear Editor,

Prof. Diffie's statement that the Communists caused the downfall of the Republican government of Spain was a gross distortion of recent history. The news story certainly did not back up this statement by offering any proof. All it said was that "the Reds sold arms to Spain." How was this causing the downfall of Republican Spain? Diffie then says that "they insisted that Spain fight on after they pulled out their international brigade." How could urging the Spanish people to continue fighting be construed as causing the downfall of the Republic?

The truth is that Russia sent arms, money and generals to help Republican Spain while at the same time they urged the great powers in the League of Nations to unite to defend France.

The fact is that the communists played a big role in organizing the International Brigade which helped to hold off France for 3 years. Willefred Mendelssohn, chairman of the CCNY Young Communist League, died in Spain fighting for the Republic.

Fencing Champs Taught By Jimmy for 22 Years

By Joe Marcus

"Builder of Champions" is the title given to Mr. James Montague, coach of the City College Fencing team. Coach Montague, now in his early sixties, was born in London, where he learned the ancient art of fencing. He attended the University of London where he participated in several collegiate tournaments. In 1919 he came to the United States.

For eleven years he taught fencing to students of the New York School of Drama and members of the New York Theatrical Guild. In 1930 Prof. Montague was appointed Junior Varsity coach of the Beavers' Fencing team. His duties also included being mentor of the highly regarded Townsend Harris Fencing squad, where he trained some of the City's greatest lancers.

In 1937 he became Varsity coach at City College, where he has had several major tournament winning teams. In 1947 his squad captured the Intercollegiate Saber Championship, which signifies the outstanding saber squad in the nation. 1948 saw the Beavers pull the grand slam of Fencing by capturing both the IFA and NCAA tournaments. In 1948 the Lavender Fencing team also won the Iron Man Trophy, symbolic of foil superiority and the Eastern Intercollegiate Three Weapon title. In the following year the Beavers tied with NYU for the Iron Man. Two weeks ago the City Foils team again captured the Foil Trophy for the third time within a five-year span.

Seven members of the present United States Olympic Fencing squad have been coached by the capable Mr. Montague. Dan Bukantz, who captured the National Foil Championship in 1939, is one of this country's leading prospects for an Olympic berth. Nat Lubbel, who captained the 1937 team, is rated as one of the top fencers in the United States. Neil Lanzern, National Three Weapon title holder in 1943 and James Strauch, the National Epee Champion in 1943, all possible candidates for the Olympic team. Albert Axelrod, winner of the Eastern Individual Foil Chamampionship and National Foil Title holder, is assured of a spot on the squad. Abe Cohen, of the Saber squad in 1948, and Hal Goldsmith, member of this season's team, are bidding for a position on the team that will travel to Helsinki.

Sapora, Matmen Coach Former AAU Champion

By Herb Nager

Television has brought the American home into contact with many things. Prominent among these is the grunt and groan business, known as Professional Wrestling. Due to watching these theatrical performers, many have come to think of wrestlers as something Frank Buck brought back alive. As a result many students are surprised when they meet the College wrestling coach, Joseph Sapora.

Sapora started competing in the 123-pound class while an undergraduate at the University of Illinois at a date which he doesn't wish to divulge. While competing for that institution, he won the National Intercollegiate championship for his weight.

Sapora came to City College as assistant coach in 1930. Seven years later, he moved into his present post. Since then, he has developed many fine wrestlers, most of whom had little or no experience prior to coming under his instruction. His proteges include such competitors as Jerry Steinberg of last year's squad, Dave Lesky who was undefeated in four years of college competition, and Jay Twersky, now a professor of history at the college.

Although the past campaign was not too successful, Sapora has many fond memories to reflect upon. However, with many fine freshmen candidates, the mighty mite with the mighty grip can look hopefully forward to another season.

Nimrods Seek Ninth Victory Over Redmen

By Les Derfler

With but one match against St. John's to go, the College Rifle team has compiled a league record of eight victories and two losses. The Riflers were victorious in their first five matches of the season. The future seemed bright to the Riflers due to the excellent shooting of Al Moss, Bert Mayer and Bill Betker.

But fate was to deny the Beavers a perfect season as Bill Betker graduated and both Moss and Mayer were declared ineligible. The Riflers dropped two out of their next three matches. John Callahan, Sherwood Waldmen, Henry Bachhagen, Howie Fiedler and Henry Chaskin have performed in great fashion in recent weeks to get the Lavender forces back into winning ways. In their last two meets of the season the Beavers have defeated Brooklyn Poly Tech and Seton Hall.

The R.O.T.C. members of the team have been successful in taking third position in the First Army match, and finishing in ninth place in the Nationals.

Former Lacrosse Greats Organize Alumni Squad; Will Play 7 Games

By Ed Lipton

A group of ex-lacrosse stars from the College are forming an Alumni team this year. Coached by assistant mentor of the College team, George Baron, they will play a seven game schedule against other athletic clubs and colleges.

The formation of the team will mean that future graduates of the College will have something to look forward to after they leave school instead of simply leaving their lacrosse days behind them.

The team is shaping up well and while not too many have come out for it, those that have are all top-flight stickmen and will still give any opponent a busy time of it. Some of the men are a little out of condition and may tire easily, since they have not played the game lately, but once they begin to come around, the other teams had better watch out.

There is only one man on the team who didn't attend City College. He is Dick Havel, a former assistant coach here. Otherwise, the team is composed of such former greats as Baron, who was an All-American goalie in his undergraduate days, but who will play defense on the alumni team; Sy Colman, former football star; Seneca Erman, one of the highest scorers in the history of CCNY; Mel Weinberger, a midfield man; Al Chasin, goalie, who was mentioned for All-American honors last year, and Don Wasserman who also drew honorable mention last season.

The alumni team has high hopes of taking the varsity this year, in the annual season opener. The caliber of the alumni coming out for the game has improved greatly in recent years and the match this year should be a real rough tussle.
