Professors Have Right In Political Life—Prexy

By Jerry Beene

President Buel G. Gallagher, speaking before the Fall Conference of the New York Teachers' Guild at Pawling, New York, charged that the teaching profession not only have the fundamental right to be active in politics, but they have every possible and logical right as a citizen.

Teachers Exceptions

In his address before the teachers' group, President Gallagher estimated that while almost every professional group "from Astronomy to Zoology" in the state is in some measure politically active, the school and college teachers were singled out as the shining exception.

The City College President admitted that there are "legitimate reasons" why teachers leave politics alone, principally the fear that a man who is active politically is too partisan for the classroom.

But President Gallagher explained that there are greater considerations which must be studied. He stated that a teacher must teach citizenship, and questioned a student: "Can a teacher teach citizenship and refuse to hold in suspension his own rights as a citizen?"

The President continued: "This is why I hold that he must, himself, exercise his citizenship. Not merely to insure the health of the democratic process today—important as that—but he must also hold a candle of hope for the future. Among his responsibilities, as a citizen, are the political processes which through the decisions of the ballot box determine our rights. (But) he cannot be a partisan propagandist."

Freda Hennock

President Gallagher also discussed the exclusion of communists, fascists and racists from the teaching profession, an exclusion which he upheld as essential.

Registration for the annual blood drive will continue until Tuesday, according to Vincent Stahle, the assistant director of the Bloodmobile. Those who wish to give blood are urged to give blood to better the total collection of 750 points.

John White Named Chmn. of New College Athletic Comm.

The newly-elected Student Faculty Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics met for the first time last week and elected Professors Gottfried Stahle, John White, and Henry Pincuswayer as its members. The committee also contains three non-voting members: Arthur Des Grey, Faculty Manager of Athletics; Howard "Chippy" Spear, athletic assistant; and a representative of the administration.

A December election will be held for the election of next semester's A. A. officers. The A. A. constitution requires that the president be a major-leaguer holder, and that the officer must be re-elected at least one year on the student A. A. board.

Recently the General Faculty elected Professors Morris Kolodny (Astronautics), Lester Leblon (Chemistry), and Irving J. Chaykin (Accountancy) to the committee. Professors Raymond F. and Gottfried Stahle, Arthur Des Grey, and Vincent Stahle were re-elected to the committee.

Forum Rule Looked Into By SFCSA

The Student-Faculty Committee on Student Affairs decided to re-examine their forum rule, which requires that in order for students to speak in the Great Hall a "forum-type" program must be presented.
Letters

De UBE:

It's cold they say. This is the modern way of selling your books. This new technique sounded good.

So I brought 10 books to the UBE— they took only one. Then they gave me a number, which I have no idea what good will come of.

And when I come back, my book has been sold.

So, now I go back to that place, that's cool.

And what do I see? Guys shooting pool, or playing ping pong. Now, I ask you, Dear Editor to fill this leak.

And tell me, please, where can I get my jack? I used the money. Frustrated '54.

On Tidelands Oil

OP believes that the tidelands should be turned over to the Federal Government with the profits from the oil on those lands being used for education.

In the last City Council meeting the bill to this effect was introduced. The principal sponsor of this measure was Senator Laster Hill of Alabama. We make mention of the state Senator Hill is from in order to show that even a senator from a tidelands state places a national interest above local interest. But one high-minded senator was not enough; the resolution was defeated. That fact in itself was disheartening, but the measure that was passed was even more unfortunate. It was a bill which the oil companies wanted to do: it would have turned the tidelands over to the states to sell to the highest bidder. Fortunately, the president vetoed this bill.

Some students may wonder why we bother to write an editorial about something which happened last spring. Our purpose is a vital one. The nation is approaching one of the most significant elections in history. It is important that voters are aware of the issues and candidates running for office. Many "northern liberals" or rather those who like to be called liberals voted against using money from tidelands oil for much needed Federal aid to education and in other public works supported by the oil companies.

Of urges all voters to look up the record of the candidates for office on tidelands as well as the other issues of this important campaign, and to vote accordingly. It is only by the availability of knowledge on issues, policies and records that the voter can make intelligent choices for Federal, state and local officials.

OP would also like to remind students of voting age that this week is registration week in New York City. If you do not register you cannot vote and if you forfeit your voting privilege, you don't deserve the right to those who are elected.

On Book Lines

A situation which had been steadily growing worse, had been heading this term with the appearance of a ridiculous long lines which extended from the book store to the Cafeteria's entrance.

The problem has largely been a result of the students' inability to buy all of their books during registration week because some of their instructors did not list the texts they intended to use. Even if they only had one book to buy, they still had to stand on line.

There is, we believe, a simple solution to this problem. If all instructors were contacted and made known their selections, the titles could be published and circulated in the same way as the names of all instructors and the classes they were teaching was made available, this term, at registration, by a committee of student Council.

The availability of this information would go a long way toward making the beginning of a new semester a formality rather than an ordeal.

Blood Needed

Once again, as in previous semesters, the call goes out for blood. Now, at the beginning of the term, when we have just started to get over the excitement of registration and the rush of textbook-buying, such a call is troublesome—but not quite as troublesome as being on a battlefield or on a hospital bed—waiting for the blood you didn't give.

You are asked to register this week for the current Red Cross blood drive. You will be asked on October 23 and 24, which represents your first contact. Then you will be directed to City College, not to give your blood, but to lend it. You will not give your blood but picking it in a bank, until such time as you, or any member of your immediate family has need for it. Sign up now to make your deposit. The interest is paid off in lieu.

Matmen Feature Many Returning Vets; Coach Montague Faces Rebuilding Job

By Joe Marcus

Now that the City College athletic program is getting into full swing, Beaver roseters can look forward to a fine year. The Soccer and Cross Country teams have already started their seasons, and many other Beaver squads are holding practice sessions. Last year the City Collegearsity

Soccer Teams compiled a record of sixty-three victories as against fifty-nine defeats and two ties.

Wrestling

Wrestling Coach Joe Sapora is looking forward to a very successful season, despite the fact that last year the wrestlers were victorious in only two matches while losing five. The great majority of last campaign’s performers will return to action. In the 123 lb. class the Beavers will be represented by Jack Gerlend, Herman Walzer and Reco D’Angelo will handle the duties in the 130 and 140 lb. classes respectively. Other outstanding performers for the Beavers will be Mickey Diamont, Harry Goldman, George Psaras and Bernie Lloyd.

Fencing

Prof. James Montague, coach of the City College Fencing team, has had the hard task of rebuilding a team that had several top men. The foil squad has lost the services of Hal Goldsmith who sparked the Beavers to the Eastern Iron Man Championship. Charles Piperno, who was the second man on the foil squad, has enlisted in the Air Force. Bobby Byron, the other member of the squad that won the title, will be unable to compete.

The top man of the Saber division has graduated. Norman Itztstein will be severely missed by Coach Montague. The Saber team will be built around the greatly improved Roy Schwartz. Coach Montague also faces the problem of building up an epee squad. Jack Benozie and Lenny Bloom have been graduated. Returning members from last year’s squad will include Al Gordon, Harvey Miller, Shelly Myers and Murray Reich. The Beavers will face the same teams that they compiled a 4-3 record against last year, with the exception of an extra match against Yeshiva College.

Lacrosse

Coach Leon Miller of the City College Lacrosse team is looking forward to do a lot better than last year’s one victory as against six defeats. Co-captains Joe Man and Freddy Reeg have graduated. The Beavers will also be without the services of Steve Major, Bob Hanson, Harry Cooner and Gene Goldman. But Hal Friedland and Stan Naram are the two men available for goal-tending duties. Friedland will not be able to practice this fall because of his Soccer duties. The attack will be centered around Aaron Brownstein, Arnie Levinson and Don Citrin. Other outstanding performers from last year are John Mahon, Vic Campo, Mike Yessis, Paul Gugliatto and Bob Greenberg.

The Beaver rooters can look forward to a fine season.

A.A. Board Discusses Athletic Setup: Football Talk Revised; Bruce Fears X-Country Team in for 'Very Rough Season'\[\ldots\]

"The City College Cross Country Team will have a very rough season," declared Head Coach Harold Bruce. Dr. Bruce added that the majority of the teams that the Harriers competed against last season have improved.

The Beavers will open their season this Saturday against Montclair State Teachers. Montclair has a very strong team, centered around Donald Ganter and Bill Rams, each of whom believed thirty minutes for the tough five-mile race in their first meet this season. Other standouts of the team are James Nicholas and Bill Green. Iona is another newcomer to the City College schedule this year. They boast several good runners who could beat Beaver ace Lou Cascino. The top three men on the team are John Mahoney, John O'Donald and James Smallwood. On the same program with CCNY and Iona, there will be Fairleigh Dickinson, whom the Beavers easily defeated last season. They key five men are John Mowatt, Phil Silvestri, Edward Laird, James Muller and Peter Fittschi.

New York University will be severely weakened due to the graduation of their top four men. The top runner for the Violets this year will be Vince Chiappetta.

The Fordham University dual meet will be one of the highlights of the season, according to Dr. Bruce. The Rams have lost the services of Donald Anderson, last year's captain. In addition to the beavers, the Rams have the additional services of several outstanding members of last year's freshman team.

One of the most improved teams on the Beaver schedule this year will be Queens College. The Queensmen have the same team as last season with the exception of George Merilli, last year's captain. The key men of this year's squad are Bob Sierras, Bob Gardner, Stan Griffiths, Wally Gorton and Bill Powell.

The Beavers will also face powerful Rutgers University. The Scarlet has seven men who can better thirty minutes for the five-mile race including Tom Gaffney, last year's chief performer.

One additional meet has been scheduled, the Jr. AAU meet, Championships at Van Cortland Park on Oct. 26.

Coach Werner Rothchild's 1952 edition of the College's Soccer Team will officially open their season this Saturday by playing host to the Long Island Aggies in Lewisohn Stadium. In a pre-season match last week, the hooters defeated the Alumni by a score of 4 to 1.

The line-up will be the same as last week's. Leading the booters will be co-captains "Polly" Polansky, who will team with Herb Aschenasy at the fullback positions, and "Pinky" Pincover, who will combine with Tommy Holm and Ted Atkinson at the halfback posts. Three lettermen, Gus Naclaris, Lucien Doucet, and Bill Saites will be the mainstays of the forward line.
