Voice of the Student Body

SC Appoints Radio Group

Plans for a City College radio station have been approved by the Executive branch of the student government, and an eight-man committee has been named to formulate a constitution and procedure for the student group that will operate the station.

The proposed station would broadcast on an open circuit, but its signal would be so weak that it could only be heard in a six-block radius around the College. Loudspeakers would be set up in the cafeteria and at various other spots around the campus to pick up the programs.

“We will request money from the student activities fee to operate the station,” said SC President Gerald Smetana, a member of the new committee. “Close cooperation between the Student Radio Society (which will handle the technical end of the station), the Public Information and the Speech Department will be necessary if the station is to be successful.”

Columbia University and New York University have experimental campus radio stations similar to the one being set up here. At City, OP has for two years worked for such a station. Four members of the new eight-man committee are members of the OP managing board.

Andrew Meteors, editor-in-chief of OP and a member of the Radio Committee, said: “This new station will lend practical experience to members of dramatic societies as well as to the engineering students who would maintain the station.”

SC Speaks on Carnival

A preliminary screen interview by Paramount Pictures will be given to the winners of the House Plan Carnival Queen Contest before the annual event is held on December 5. Tickets will be sold in the Kiwanis Lounge, at Lincoln Corridor and at Home Plans.

Among the prizes for the carnival will be an appearance by Hambro, the strongbox of the Athletic Association in the Corn Exchange Bank.

The hearing is an outgrowth of a special Board of Higher Education basketball inquiry at the College in 1951. Holman’s defense has centered on his contention that he had been unaware of irregularities which led to the revelation of the fraud.

At the hearing on November 4, he declared that he had immediately fired Harold (Bobby) Sand, former assistant basketball coach, on learning of Sand’s letter, to basketball star Ed Warner, which proposed (Continued on Page Two).

It’s a Drag Affair . . .

Union Ball This Saturday

“The Student Union Ball will be the most successful social event of the term,” predicted Jerry Shats, co-chairman of the committee for this Saturday’s night affair.

The ball, co-sponsored by OP, Student Council, House Plan and the Inter-Fraternity Council, will be held on Saturday, November 31, in the Great Hall at 8:00 PM, to raise funds for the Student Union Building at Manhattanville.

Entertainment for the evening will be provided by Leo Dryer’s dance band, and professional performers, who are being promoted by the Alumni Association. Dr. Allen Lewis, director of the Student Union Building, will MC the program.

The seats usually filling the Great Hall will be removed to provide dancing area, and chairs and tables will be placed along the sides of the room.

Invitations to the ball have been sent to all members of the faculty and to the Alumni, and some of the Alumni who replied that they would not be able to attend sent in checks for the Student Union Building Fund,” said Shats. “Among those attending will be President Gallagher,” he added.

Tickets may be bought in rooms 139 and 205 Main, and at House Plans.

The price, which includes checks or admission, is $3.00 per couple. Over five hundred couples are expected to attend the ball, which is similar to last year’s hit dance, the Inaugural Ball.

—Turk

Buell G. Gallagher
Will be there

Winograd Used Letter As Threat Says Holman

Sam Winograd, former Faculty Manager of Athletics, decided to keep in his possession the letter to Ed Warner in order to “use it someday in the future.”

Nat Holman testified last night under cross-examination at the resumption of the trial board hearing. The suspended basketball coach said that Winograd had not amplified this remark. August, 1950, Holman challenged the statement, contained in a letter of December, 1951, from Winograd to Frank Floyd, then chairman of the Hygiene Department, that Winograd had recommended dropping the Sand-Warner letter to top administration officials. At that time, the letter was put in the Carnival . . .

A prelimary screen interview by Paramount Pictures will be given to the winners of the House Plan Carnival Queen Contest before the annual event is held on December 5. Tickets will be sold in the Kiwanis Lounge, at Lincoln Corridor and at Home Plans.

Among the prizes for the carnival will be an appearance by Hambro, the strongbox of the Athletic Association in the Corn Exchange Bank.

The hearing is an outgrowth of a special Board of Higher Education basketball inquiry at the College in 1951. Holman’s defense has centered on his contention that he had been unaware of irregularities which led to the revelation of the fraud.

At the hearing on November 4, he declared that he had immediately fired Harold (Bobby) Sand, former assistant basketball coach, on learning of Sand’s letter, to basketball star Ed Warner, which proposed (Continued on Page Two).

increase in activities fee up for sc review today

A motion to rescind the fifty-cent increase in the student activities fee will be considered by Student Council at 6 PM today. The increase was passed by SC by a 13-9 vote two weeks ago, after having been defeated twice weeks before by an 8-11 count.

Amendments will be offered to demand that the College administration contribute to the support of student activities, on the ground that CCNY was set up as a free college and that student activities are an integral part of College education.

SC President Gerry Smetana said he hoped the increase would not be rescinded. “I feel that the student Council made a wise decision when it raised the fee. I hope this will not be changed.”

The fee raise was approved last Tuesday by the Student-Faculty Committee on Student Affairs and is scheduled to go to the Board of Higher Education next month for final approval. Attempts to raise the fee in previous semesters have been defeated by Student Council.

One of the opponents of the fee, Henry J. Stern, said OP that he felt “the fee increase is very unjust, since the students voted against it and most do not feel the extra money is needed.”

Proponents of the fee raise say that SC only that raising the fee can sufficient funds be provided for student activities. They point to the rise in costs since 1947, when a $1.50 fee was set against it, and most do not feel the extra money is needed.

Proposers of the fee raise say that the increase is very unjust, since the students voted against it and most do not feel the extra money is needed.

The hearing was an outgrowth of a special Board of Higher Education basketball inquiry at the College in 1951. Holman’s defense has centered on his contention that he had been unaware of irregularities which led to the revelation of the fraud.

At the hearing on November 4, he declared that he had immediately fired Harold (Bobby) Sand, former assistant basketball coach, on learning of Sand’s letter, to basketball star Ed Warner, which proposed (Continued on Page Two).

Parking Setup Hit by Peace

“Someone will get hurt,” unless the parking situation on Convent Avenue is corrected, declared James S. Peace (Student Life) yesterday.

“If students are forced to stop between parked cars while changing classes, someone will eventually be hit by a car,” he said.

The plan, which was innovated two weeks ago, permits parking on both sides of the Avenue before 11:00 AM and after 3:00 PM.

Gerry Smetana, President of Student Council, last Saturday protested the newly innovated parking plan on St. Nicholas Terrace to the New York City Traffic Department.

The new plan, also permits parking on both sides of the Terrace before 11:00 AM and after 3:00 PM.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1953.

232 UNDERGRADUATE NEWSPAPER OF CITY COLLEGE
Coats Stolen at Home Plan
As Thefts Rise on Campus

Five coats and a wallet were stolen Tuesday afternoon from the cloakroom in House Plan. The students who owned the jackets were watching a motion picture in the adjoining Rumpus Room when the theft occurred.

A door connecting the two rooms had been closed to increase darkness in the Rumpus Room. The other door in the cloak room opens on the back yard.

Carelessness Blamed

Carelessness with personal belongings has been a major factor in the renewed outbreak of petty thefts on the campus this semester.

Ladies' rooms, where handbags are left unattended, remain favorite sites of pilferers. Thefts of five wallets in a day and seven at night have been reported to the Department of Student Life, which is urging students to take greater care of possessions by posting signs in the rest rooms. Unattended articles in class rooms have also been invited thefts.

Four coats were stolen from the Main Building and Army Hall while their owners were out of the rooms. There have been two robberies committed near the flagpole and in Knittle Lounge in both cases of handbags stolen.

Seven cars parked near the College have been broken into and rifled of clothing, books and engineering tools, Student Life revealed.

Here are two points to remember when you buy a car...

CHEVROLET CHEVROLET

VALUE PRICES is the HIGHEST and are the LOWEST of any line in its field!

See it, drive it, and you'll know that it alone brings you all these features of highest-priced cars at the lowest prices and with such outstanding gasoline economy!

Yes, you can get more car for less money in Chevrolet - more beauty, inside and out, with the widest choice of body types and colors in its field.

More driving thrills, with either of Chevrolet's two great high-compression Valve-in-Head engines!

More riding smoothness, more road-stability and more safety protection.

More modern engineering makes this stronger, heavier, longer lasting car - more value throughout, when you buy, when you drive, when you trade!

Come in: confirm these facts; and you'll choose Chevrolet - America's finest buy, America's most popular car!

Combination of Powerful automatic transmission and 155-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine available for "Leader" models. Satisfying and 6-Cylinder "Power" Glass available on all models, at extra cost.

CHEVROLET CHEVROLET

MORE PEOPLE BUY CHEVROLET THAN ANY OTHER CAR!

SEE YOUR CHEVROLET DEALER FOR ALL YOUR AUTOMOTIVE NEEDS!

Conveniently listed under "Automobiles" in your local classified telephone directory.
President of Veterans’ Club Becomes US Citizen in Nov.

By Jerry Ludwig

When the end of November rolls around, one of the students at City College will indeed be a very happy man. His name is Gert Kretch, and it is then that he will become a citizen of the United States.

Many of us take our birthdays for granted, but for Gert, who has suffered under forced labor in wartime Germany, and has worn the uniform of the US armed forces, to become a citizen is perhaps the greatest birthday present of all.

Gert Kretch
Happy in November

Marine Corps for two years, this citizenship means a new life.
Born twenty-seven years ago in Hamburg, Germany, he attended primary and high schools. When the war began, Gert was placed in a forced labor group, where he spent four hard years. “All that time,” said Gert, “I was hoping for the war to end.” When it did, he applied for entry to the US, and arrived here in 1948.

With the commencement of hostilities in Korea, Gert, although he was not yet a citizen, was drafted into the US Marine Corps. When asked how he felt about this situation, Gert replied, “I was proud to serve in the US armed forces as I believe that our freedom lies in a strong defense.”

Gert has been elected president of the newly formed veteran’s club, which he helped to start. “Our organization is a non-political one for the aid of incoming veterans,” he said, and hopes that “we will be able to encourage socials and get-togethers.”

As a future Marine, Gert says he is “looking forward to a pleasant and profitable course of study here at City College.”

To Speak . . .
Corinna Lament, a progressive writer and teacher, will speak this Thursday at 12:30 in Townend Harris Hall in room 106. The topic will be “Academic Freedom and the Witchhust.”

The talk is sponsored by the City College chapter of the Young Progressives of America.

How the stars got started...

MARGE and GOWER CHAMPION met as shy schoolkids at dancing school. Their paths crossed in love for years as each worked hard to make a career. Finally, Gower, back from overseas, “champed” up with Marge. After months of strenuous rehearsal, they won a sensation, creating original “dance stories” for TV, movies and stage. They are now Mister and Missus.

GERT KRETCH AIRMAN OF THE YEAR

FAMOUS DANCING STARS

WE TEAMED UP WITH CAMELS
AFTER TRYING OTHER BRANDS. LIKE SO MANY OF OUR FRIENDS, WE CONSISTENTLY PREFERRED CAMELS SMOOTH MILDENESS AND ABSOLUTELY WONDERFUL FLAVOR!
WAY DON'T YOU TRY CAMELS?

For Mildness and Flavor

CAMELS AGREE WITH MORE PEOPLE THAN ANY OTHER CIGARETTE!
Robin and the Reds

By Jerry Reen

You’d better sit down before you read this. Light a cigarette, take a few puffs, and above all be calm. This has nothing to do with Eisenhower meeting Harry Dexter White in a tent in England. This is far more serious, far more relevant to us as College students. The facts I am about to relate to you may just be shattered to bits that people in this country can’t even afford to buy clothes? And this is strictly for the Communists.

Of the world take it when they learn that people in the United States have no visible means of support. I understand he’s got a silver bottle of delicious Coca-Cola. He has sent this poor old fisherman—who should have been retired and living off the fat of the land—out fighting huge fish and to get precious scarce fish. Oh, the horror of it all! That pomp old man, deserted by Wall Street and left to the mercy of the Communists.

Trouble trouble. What are we going to do about Mr. Keen? He’s been tracing lost persons for so long he’s liable to give rise to the notion that these people aren’t really lost at all; they’re just running away, over the back fence to the East Zone of Germany and the Sea. He has sent this poor old fisherman—who should have been retired and living off the fat of the land—to fight huge fish and to get precious scarce fish. Oh, the horror of it all! That pomp old man, deserted by Wall Street and left to the mercy of the Communists.

How about Sherlock Holmes? For years he went around sticking his nose into other people’s affairs and most of the time he refused any kin of dafyment. “Art is its own reward,” he said. Who was he kidding?

“Life Can Be Beautiful” is about as subversive as you can get. Can you imagine your own book about that? Sounds like a “workers’ nightmare” theme, where labor manages to take a few puffs, and above all be calm. No, this has nothing to do with Eisenhower meeting Harry Dexter White in a tent in England. We’d never be able to keep this thing secret. Better that everyone know it now.

The facts I am about to relate to you may be quite shocking. That’s why I’m going to ride home with, now that Jerry Ludwig is quitting his job. And what do you suppose Mr. Anthony has been doing all these years? You can’t possibly solve this problem by being an enthusiastic Yankee Ph.D., can you? You’re trying to show how miserable people really are in the United States, a well-known capitalist nation. Just think what John J. Smith’s broadcasts could do if they were heard in China. We’d never be able to live it down.

Perhaps the saddest case of all is Ernest Hemingway. Think for a moment about what he has done in “Old Man and the Sea.” He has sent this poor old fisherman—who should have been retired and living off the fat of the land—to fight huge fish and to get precious scarce fish. Oh, the horror of it all! That pomp old man, deserted by Wall Street and left to the mercy of the Communists.

Trouble trouble. What are we going to do about Mr. Keen? He’s been tracing lost persons for so long he’s liable to give rise to the notion that these people aren’t really lost at all; they’re just running away, over the back fence to the East Zone of Germany and the Sea. He has sent this poor old fisherman—who should have been retired and living off the fat of the land—to fight huge fish and to get precious scarce fish. Oh, the horror of it all! That pomp old man, deserted by Wall Street and left to the mercy of the Communists.

Mr. Joseph Pandolfi believes President, Frederick Bertrand, head of the plurality on the armed forces training committee, that this is a police state. “One false move and Mr. Fisher will be done with us,” he said.

The students of 1932-32 knew Mr. Pandolfi had been assigned, as part of his regular watchman duties, to accompany the President to his home and around the campus. “They knew it was my job. And I was friendly with the kids.”

Nevertheless, the students pocketed Mr. Robinson’s house on 41st Street, and obstructed his path; 300 or 400 carrying signs demanding Robinson’s resignation.

“One President couldn’t do anything about it, couldn’t even get rid of them,” his ex-bodyguard relates. “He must have figured they’d get sick of it someday. I don’t know. I used to say to those kids: ‘What do you get out of it, especially in cold weather?’”

Mr. Pandolfi doesn’t remember how many years he knew Mr. Robinson. He does recall that the President, on their five-minute walks to school, would talk about college conferences, nothing personal. “He always treated me and everyone else all right,” Mr. Pandolfi asserts.

Concerning Memorial Day, 1933, when President Robinson wielded an umbrella at students who were crowding him, Mr. Pandolfi hastens to explain that “I wasn’t there when it happened. I was across the street at the time.”

Mr. Pandolfi recalls City in Post-World War I days as a college of ‘pockets and pamphlets.’ (Continued on Page 8.)

Robin and the Reds

Mr. Joseph Pandolfi believes President, Frederick Bertrand, head of the plurality on the armed forces training committee, that this is a police state. “One false move and Mr. Fisher will be done with us,” he said.

The students of 1932-32 knew Mr. Pandolfi had been assigned, as part of his regular watchman duties, to accompany the President to his home and around the campus. “They knew it was my job. And I was friendly with the kids.”

Nevertheless, the students pocketed Mr. Robinson’s house on 41st Street, and obstructed his path; 300 or 400 carrying signs demanding Robinson’s resignation.

“One President couldn’t do anything about it, couldn’t even get rid of them,” his ex-bodyguard relates. “He must have figured they’d get sick of it someday. I don’t know. I used to say to those kids: ‘What do you get out of it, especially in cold weather?’”

Mr. Pandolfi doesn’t remember how many years he knew Mr. Robinson. He does recall that the President, on their five-minute walks to school, would talk about college conferences, nothing personal. “He always treated me and everyone else all right,” Mr. Pandolfi asserts.

Concerning Memorial Day, 1933, when President Robinson wielded an umbrella at students who were crowding him, Mr. Pandolfi hastens to explain that “I wasn’t there when it happened. I was across the street at the time.”

Mr. Pandolfi recalls City in Post-World War I days as a college of ‘pockets and pamphlets.’ (Continued on Page 8.)

Mr. Joseph Pandolfi believes President, Frederick Bertrand, head of the plurality on the armed forces training committee, that this is a police state. “One false move and Mr. Fisher will be done with us,” he said.

The students of 1932-32 knew Mr. Pandolfi had been assigned, as part of his regular watchman duties, to accompany the President to his home and around the campus. “They knew it was my job. And I was friendly with the kids.”

Nevertheless, the students pocketed Mr. Robinson’s house on 41st Street, and obstructed his path; 300 or 400 carrying signs demanding Robinson’s resignation.

“One President couldn’t do anything about it, couldn’t even get rid of them,” his ex-bodyguard relates. “He must have figured they’d get sick of it someday. I don’t know. I used to say to those kids: ‘What do you get out of it, especially in cold weather?’”

Mr. Pandolfi doesn’t remember how many years he knew Mr. Robinson. He does recall that the President, on their five-minute walks to school, would talk about college conferences, nothing personal. “He always treated me and everyone else all right,” Mr. Pandolfi asserts.

Concerning Memorial Day, 1933, when President Robinson wielded an umbrella at students who were crowding him, Mr. Pandolfi hastens to explain that “I wasn’t there when it happened. I was across the street at the time.”

Mr. Pandolfi recalls City in Post-World War I days as a college of ‘pockets and pamphlets.’ (Continued on Page 8.)

Mr. Joseph Pandolfi believes President, Frederick Bertrand, head of the plurality on the armed forces training committee, that this is a police state. “One false move and Mr. Fisher will be done with us,” he said.

The students of 1932-32 knew Mr. Pandolfi had been assigned, as part of his regular watchman duties, to accompany the President to his home and around the campus. “They knew it was my job. And I was friendly with the kids.”

Nevertheless, the students pocketed Mr. Robinson’s house on 41st Street, and obstructed his path; 300 or 400 carrying signs demanding Robinson’s resignation.

“One President couldn’t do anything about it, couldn’t even get rid of them,” his ex-bodyguard relates. “He must have figured they’d get sick of it someday. I don’t know. I used to say to those kids: ‘What do you get out of it, especially in cold weather?’”

Mr. Pandolfi doesn’t remember how many years he knew Mr. Robinson. He does recall that the President, on their five-minute walks to school, would talk about college conferences, nothing personal. “He always treated me and everyone else all right,” Mr. Pandolfi asserts.

Concerning Memorial Day, 1933, when President Robinson wielded an umbrella at students who were crowding him, Mr. Pandolfi hastens to explain that “I wasn’t there when it happened. I was across the street at the time.”

Mr. Pandolfi recalls City in Post-World War I days as a college of ‘pockets and pamphlets.’ (Continued on Page 8.)

Mr. Joseph Pandolfi believes President, Frederick Bertrand, head of the plurality on the armed forces training committee, that this is a police state. “One false move and Mr. Fisher will be done with us,” he said.

The students of 1932-32 knew Mr. Pandolfi had been assigned, as part of his regular watchman duties, to accompany the President to his home and around the campus. “They knew it was my job. And I was friendly with the kids.”

Nevertheless, the students pocketed Mr. Robinson’s house on 41st Street, and obstructed his path; 300 or 400 carrying signs demanding Robinson’s resignation.

“One President couldn’t do anything about it, couldn’t even get rid of them,” his ex-bodyguard relates. “He must have figured they’d get sick of it someday. I don’t know. I used to say to those kids: ‘What do you get out of it, especially in cold weather?’”

Mr. Pandolfi doesn’t remember how many years he knew Mr. Robinson. He does recall that the President, on their five-minute walks to school, would talk about college conferences, nothing personal. “He always treated me and everyone else all right,” Mr. Pandolfi asserts.

Concerning Memorial Day, 1933, when President Robinson wielded an umbrella at students who were crowding him, Mr. Pandolfi hastens to explain that “I wasn’t there when it happened. I was across the street at the time.”

Mr. Pandolfi recalls City in Post-World War I days as a college of ‘pockets and pamphlets.’ (Continued on Page 8.)
The Right to Know

The report of the Presidential Committee on Student Faculty Relations, kept secret for five months, has now been sent to the General Faculty Committee on Student Affairs. Although this report is of vital importance to student organizations and the student body, nobody seems to know just what it says.

Secrecy was defended while the Presidential Committee itself was meeting last Spring to allow mature, calm consideration without pressure on the group. This was not condemned.

Secrecy was defended during the summer, when the report was on President Gallagher's desk, and he was in India, on the ground that the report was to advise him and he should be the one to release it. This was not attacked.

But now it is November. The report has been submitted to a new committee, the GFCSA. It is still secret.

The seasons pass. Students graduate. Only the report remains, still unavailable for student comment, still an item for rumor and gossip.

Let's grow up. If the Congress of the United States can

...
Crime at the College?

BY BRUNO WASSERTHEIL

Take a half dozen pocket book editions, add a wallet (spiced with a dollar bill, a silk and a match), and you have the least served to the denizens of the Main Building several weeks ago. The afore-mentioned ingredients were not suspiciously sprinkled about Main, dropped in conspicuous places, so many honest souls would return them.

One might say that gratifying results came quickly and fast. In that case one might be called a downright liar. Thus, the wallet, complete with dollar, was returned almost immediately but by an owner whose name was not recorded by the Lost and Found. The wallet was therefore "lost again."

Identification, clearly written inside the wallet, and books (the name used was Mogens Luchow), seemed to be of no avail. The "lost" articles are a black wallet, the books, "Rus, Life, and History," "The Last of the Conquering Hero," "The Journeyman," "Winner-Center," "Omnibus of American Humor," and "The Luckies--Are They Made Better to Taste Better?"

The No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better.

Luckies lead again over all brands, regularly smoked by students in regular colleges—shows that Luckies are made better to taste better.

Students in regular colleges—shows that Luckies are made better to taste better.
The City College Cross Country team will close its season this Saturday when they face a powerful Rutgers University squad, at Van Cortland Park.

This year's Rutgers team is the rated No. 3 team in the country, and it will be the Beaver Harriers last season. The team is currently ranked in the top ten nationally, and it will be sold at Tech Cross-roads; Lincoln Corridor; near entrance. At the end of 15 A Main, as well as in Tech classes.

Thomas F. Reilly, clerical assistant in the AA Office, is an inspiration to all those who have found the going a bit rough and are unable to find a useful place in society for themselves.

A Haz High School outlander, Tom graduated from West Hamp- ton Beach High School in Suffolk County in 1945, after a short transition to college took fourteen years. During that span he "had a rough time making ends meet" working mostly at seasonal jobs.

In 1942, he was drafted and served as a cryptographer in the signal corps until his discharge in 1945. Included in this period were two years overseas in North Africa, Sicily and Italy.

Deciding to acquire the education he wanted to receive last year, Tom took advantage of the opportunity offered him by the GI Bill of Rights Program, and enrolled in the evening session of St. John University, last year in attempting to get a BBA in accounting. He was admitted, however, that his forte is English.

Now an integral part of the workings of the AA Office, whose staff he joined in 1946, Tom Reilly listed these as some of his main duties: "making arrangement for injured athletes under the Stein Fund Program, orienting the student managers, on the athletic roles of the college, writing the minutes for the Faculty Committee on Intercollegiate Activities as well as for its Student-Faculty Committee, putting together the budgets and ranging for team photographs, answering all correspondence."

Memories

"Since I have worked in the Athletic Office, the idea of a civil service and in military serv-

The City College Fencing team is expected to have a much better squad than last year's array. "Although the nature of my work is supervised by the Athletic Office, there is no sense that athletics at CCNY, I think that it is axiomatic that athletics be placed in the academic curriculum. Personal pursuits from these personal endeavors emerge two qualifications that make life worthwhile: a sound mind and a healthy body. Therefore, I think that athletics can have a beneficial body without actual participation in athletics, but it is rare to have a mind and body in a beneficial conver-

Next week the City College Basketball team will open its sea-

The Dodgers have as their hatchet man, Carl Furillo and Ike Mc-Intyre. Instead of Joe Sapora.

This year's City College Fencing team is proving itself into the future.

The tallest man on this quartet that holds the 400 yd. freestyle relay record. For all his

This year's Stein Fund game is expected to be a great financial success. The City College Students' Basketball team will engage the outstanding new-

A great rivalry is being built up with Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa. CCNY now meets the Leopards in five sports. Other campuses have as their hatchet man, Carl Furillo and Ike Mc-Intyre. Instead of Joe Sapora.

This year's City College Fencing team is proving itself into the future.

The tallest man on this quartet that holds the 400 yd. freestyle relay record. For all his

This year's Stein Fund game is expected to be a great financial success. The City College Students' Basketball team will engage the outstanding new-

A great rivalry is being built up with Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa. CCNY now meets the Leopards in five sports. Other campuses have as their hatchet man, Carl Furillo and Ike Mc-Intyre. Instead of Joe Sapora.

This year's City College Fencing team is proving itself into the future.

The tallest man on this quartet that holds the 400 yd. freestyle relay record. For all his

This year's Stein Fund game is expected to be a great financial success. The City College Students' Basketball team will engage the outstanding new-

A great rivalry is being built up with Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa. CCNY now meets the Leopards in five sports. Other campuses have as their hatchet man, Carl Furillo and Ike Mc-Intyre. Instead of Joe Sapora.

This year's City College Fencing team is proving itself into the future.

The tallest man on this quartet that holds the 400 yd. freestyle relay record. For all his

This year's Stein Fund game is expected to be a great financial success. The City College Students' Basketball team will engage the outstanding new-

A great rivalry is being built up with Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa. CCNY now meets the Leopards in five sports. Other campuses have as their hatchet man, Carl Furillo and Ike Mc-Intyre. Instead of Joe Sapora.

This year's City College Fencing team is proving itself into the future.

The tallest man on this quartet that holds the 400 yd. freestyle relay record. For all his

This year's Stein Fund game is expected to be a great financial success. The City College Students' Basketball team will engage the outstanding new-

A great rivalry is being built up with Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa. CCNY now meets the Leopards in five sports. Other campuses have as their hatchet man, Carl Furillo and Ike Mc-Intyre. Instead of Joe Sapora.

This year's City College Fencing team is proving itself into the future.

The tallest man on this quartet that holds the 400 yd. freestyle relay record. For all his

This year's Stein Fund game is expected to be a great financial success. The City College Students' Basketball team will engage the outstanding new-

A great rivalry is being built up with Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa. CCNY now meets the Leopards in five sports. Other campuses have as their hatchet man, Carl Furillo and Ike Mc-Intyre. Instead of Joe Sapora.

This year's City College Fencing team is proving itself into the future.

The tallest man on this quartet that holds the 400 yd. freestyle relay record. For all his

This year's Stein Fund game is expected to be a great financial success. The City College Students' Basketball team will engage the outstanding new-

A great rivalry is being built up with Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa. CCNY now meets the Leopards in five sports. Other campuses have as their hatchet man, Carl Furillo and Ike Mc-Intyre. Instead of Joe Sapora.

This year's City College Fencing team is proving itself into the future.

The tallest man on this quartet that holds the 400 yd. freestyle relay record. For all his

This year's Stein Fund game is expected to be a great financial success. The City College Students' Basketball team will engage the outstanding new-

A great rivalry is being built up with Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa. CCNY now meets the Leopards in five sports. Other campuses have as their hatchet man, Carl Furillo and Ike Mc-Intyre. Instead of Joe Sapora.

This year's City College Fencing team is proving itself into the future.

The tallest man on this quartet that holds the 400 yd. freestyle relay record. For all his

This year's Stein Fund game is expected to be a great financial success. The City College Students' Basketball team will engage the outstanding new-

A great rivalry is being built up with Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa. CCNY now meets the Leopards in five sports. Other campuses have as their hatchet man, Carl Furillo and Ike Mc-Intyre. Instead of Joe Sapora.

This year's City College Fencing team is proving itself into the future.

The tallest man on this quartet that holds the 400 yd. freestyle relay record. For all his

This year's Stein Fund game is expected to be a great financial success. The City College Students' Basketball team will engage the outstanding new-

A great rivalry is being built up with Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa. CCNY now meets the Leopards in five sports. Other campuses have as their hatchet man, Carl Furillo and Ike Mc-Intyre. Instead of Joe Sapora.

This year's City College Fencing team is proving itself into the future.

The tallest man on this quartet that holds the 400 yd. freestyle relay record. For all his

This year's Stein Fund game is expected to be a great financial success. The City College Students' Basketball team will engage the outstanding new-

A great rivalry is being built up with Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa. CCNY now meets the Leopards in five sports. Other campuses have as their hatchet man, Carl Furillo and Ike Mc-Intyre. Instead of Joe Sapora.

This year's City College Fencing team is proving itself into the future.

The tallest man on this quartet that holds the 400 yd. freestyle relay record. For all his

This year's Stein Fund game is expected to be a great financial success. The City College Students' Basketball team will engage the outstanding new-

A great rivalry is being built up with Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa. CCNY now meets the Leopards in five sports. Other campuses have as their hatchet man, Carl Furillo and Ike Mc-Intyre. Instead of Joe Sapora.

This year's City College Fencing team is proving itself into the future.

The tallest man on this quartet that holds the 400 yd. freestyle relay record. For all his

This year's Stein Fund game is expected to be a great financial success. The City College Students' Basketball team will engage the outstanding new-

A great rivalry is being built up with Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa. CCNY now meets the Leopards in five sports. Other campuses have as their hatchet man, Carl Furillo and Ike Mc-Intyre. Instead of Joe Sapora.

This year's City College Fencing team is proving itself into the future.

The tallest man on this quartet that holds the 400 yd. freestyle relay record. For all his

This year's Stein Fund game is expected to be a great financial success. The City College Students' Basketball team will engage the outstanding new-

A great rivalry is being built up with Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa. CCNY now meets the Leopards in five sports. Other campuses have as their hatchet man, Carl Furillo and Ike Mc-Intyre. Instead of Joe Sapora.

This year's City College Fencing team is proving itself into the future.

The tallest man on this quartet that holds the 400 yd. freestyle relay record. For all his

This year's Stein Fund game is expected to be a great financial success. The City College Students' Basketball team will engage the outstanding new-

A great rivalry is being built up with Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa. CCNY now meets the Leopards in five sports. Other campuses have as their hatchet man, Carl Furillo and Ike Mc-Intyre. Instead of Joe Sapora.

This year's City College Fencing team is proving itself into the future.

The tallest man on this quartet that holds the 400 yd. freestyle relay record. For all his

This year's Stein Fund game is expected to be a great financial success. The City College Students' Basketball team will engage the outstanding new-

A great rivalry is being built up with Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa. CCNY now meets the Leopards in five sports. Other campuses have as their hatchet man, Carl Furillo and Ike Mc-Intyre. Instead of Joe Sapora.
City Riflers to Face Columbia And Weak Cooper Union Fri.

This Friday evening the City College Rifle Team will participate in a triangular meet held with Cooper Union and Columbia University as the opponents. This will be the first triangular meet ever held in the Metropolitan League.

The Beavers last Friday night defeated St. Peter's by a score span of sixty-seven points, bettering their score of a previous match with Manhattan College by thirteen points. The five top scores were: John Miller, the captain, scoring 282 out of a possible 300; Henry Brockhage scoring 279; Al Moss scoring 271 and Sorbera achieving 270.

Coach Sargeant Richard S. Hoffman said: "Our schedule favors us since it allows us to meet our weakest opponent first. This gives us a chance to prepare for the tougher teams.

Basketball Schedule
Nov. 28—Hunter
Dec. 5—Adelphi
Dec. 9—Queens
Dec. 13—Lafayette
Dec. 16—Fordham
Dec. 19—Brandeis
Jan. 9—Rutgers
Jan. 20—Wagner
Feb. 1—Rider
Feb. 4—Montclair Teachers
Feb. 6—Manhattan
Feb. 11—St. Francis (Penna)
Feb. 13—Hofstra
Feb. 17—St. Francis (NY)
Feb. 20—Ithaca
Mar. 4—NYU
Mar. 6—Brooklyn

*Indicates Home Game.