Condemn Manhattanville Campus; Called 'Unfit for Human Occupancy'

Ex-SU Director Lewis Now Working for AFL

Upon receiving news of the unfitness of the Student Union building for human or animal occupancy, Dean Alton Lewis, director of the newly opened Student Union, last night that he has accepted a new job with the American Federation of Labor. A statement issued by the Department of Student Life to clarify this position said, "Dr. Lewis has submitted his resignation and it has been duly accepted. In a request for release from his position, Dr. Lewis noted that he had done nothing illegal, but had ordered the guide people on tours of SU since the Manhattanville Campus was purchased as an average of one hour of this work per month. He added that he was "restless. We realize that no new person will be needed to fill Dr. Lewis' position."

Two OP Balloons Found!

Two of the balloons sent aloft by Observatory Post to end last January have been found. The first report of a find came from Sheets Altf Leilah and Nelson Bab el Mandab, Saudi Arabia. The Sheets, in a letter to OP, wrote, "Ten thousand camel drivers are of it spilled on your newspaper. We not being a wasteful people, proceeded to eat it with relish, and I was happy to find that it tastes excellent well." If you would be so kind, I would appreciate your sending me future issues of your publication, packed in linseed oil, preferably, via the Camel Express Company. In return, I am forwarding by parcel post, one of my wives in almost mint condition. Her name escapes me at present, but she will tell you, I am sure, when she arrives."

The second report came only yesterday when Kubba Koaliang, his brother George Koaliang, and a yak, turned up in Jasper Oval. The three, it seems, had been so impressed at finding the message in the sky, that they wished to return the greetings in person.

They began their journey from Lhasa, Tibet in early February, enduring extreme hardships on the way. Mr. Koaliang said, "Had we not all been students at the University of Lhasa, we might never have thought of undertaking such a perilous journey. The brothers Koaliang are seniors at the University and the yak, a sophomore."

The travelers' only food on the journey was yak butter, a delicacy in their homeland. The stretch across the Tibet Sea was made on the yak's back.

Cafeteria Now Sells Edibles—Students Irrate

By JAYLORD HAUSER

Changes in food being sold in the cafeteria were criticized against George N. Shyster, Cafeteria Manager, yesterday by an irate student.

According to the student, Jere-my Kranz, "I walked into the Cafeteria and purchased a cheese sandwich and a slice of bourbon. Going over to my table, I unwrapped the sandwich and found cheese and a couple of slices of bread. The initial shock to my metabolism was just too much!"

When questioned as to the veracity of this accusation, Shyster (Continued on Page Two) Condemned...

Dean Daniel F. Brophy (De¬ dpartment of Lost Person) de¬ cared, "At last the foolhardy ex¬ pedition into Manhattanville's wilds has been abandoned. Most of those stupid boys have got¬ ten lost in the girls' Hygiene Building..."

Happy Joe Packalavender, the Immaculate Nun and leader of the Army Hall Men's Shop said, "It's a great financial... oops, Immac victory School."

Guiseppe Stromboli, owner of the Alf Barber Shop, declared,"It's been a great joy to give City College students a chipping. Instantly, I would like to raise our rates.

We also believe that the average student will welcome the return of Army and Finley Halls. There is too much tradition connected with the buildings to ever necessitate a change.

As for the apparent abandonment of the Student Union project, all we can say is we must remember the immortal words of the old "Rough Rider." Theodore Roosevelt, when confronted by a similar delay in the construction of the Panama Canal, said "#&*!"

CSLCCCNYUDS

Mervin Struberg, Student Council Vice President (SCVP), had this to say regarding VC Presidential report suggesting that the name of Student Council (SC) be changed to the Council of Student Leaders of the City College of the City of New York, Uptown, Day Session, CSLVCY.

Mr. Struberg's plan is one that should be readily approved by the student body since, as he himself has so aptly put it: "There is already too much confusion regarding the role of Student Government (SG) at the College, and its legisla tive branch Student Council (SC). My proposal will put an end to all this unnecessary confusion and will finally clarify the name of the SC..."

Struberg is absolutely right. Students have never been able to distinguish the difference between SG, SC, SCPSA, GPCSA and SGPC. Now at least when someone walks over to SC, he will know how to prove the identity of CSLCCCNYUDS, you will immediately realize that he is speaking of the Council of Student Leaders of the City College of the City of New York, Uptown Day Session. There will be no doubt in your mind.

Mr. Struberg, we thank you.

Must the Girls Suffer?

We have had our differences with the venerable paper down the hall, honored in its derelictude, but we must speak out at injustice wherever we find it.

The suspension of Edwin S. Trottman, The Campus' Editor-in-Chief, is not only unfair, but illogical. Trottman has been carrying on the activities branded as "lewd" by the authorities in Mount Kisco, New York.

In spite of his plea, SC took a strong stand against crime last night. SC voted against legalizing crime ten minutes after the TAM rules sitting in on Trottman's case.

The vote was 5-6, with eighteen abstentions. SC Secretary Gloria Queenley cast the only vote. The eighteen abstainees were male.

Council's action came in spite of the presence of thirty armed guards during the trial. The robbers, brandishing twenty-two caliber pistols, were granted permission to speak for legalizing crime. The vote for permission was 16-1, with Miss Queenley casting the only dissenting vote.

"Black Jack" Bottorfrost, leader of the thieves, said that legalizing crime would "take all the kick out of it and so reduce crime."

In spite of his plea, SC took its firm action. Final votes for Miss Queenley will be held to morrow at the Beneficent Student Union Board (B.S.U.B.) in Mount Kisco, New York.

The suspension of Edwin S. Trottman, the friend of co-curricular activities, is a travesty of justice. Therefore I urge that Edwin S. be reinstated imme¬diately as a student at a school with all rights of "necking" anywhere, anytime and anywhere.

Save Edwin S.

I believe that the punishment meted out to Edwin S. Trottman, the Editor-in-Chief, is a travesty of justice. Therefore I urge that Edwin S. be reinstated imme¬diately as a student at a school with all rights of "necking" anywhere, anytime and anywhere.

TRIP TICK
The City College Jai-Alai team will make its way to Palo Alto, California, to meet the University of Stanford in a match to be held at 3 tomorrow morning. The City College Jai-Alai team has held the first prize in the City of New York since last year, and it rolled over the goal line to score the winning touchdown!

But it was not so much this great run that made Charlie famous. It was Charlie as playing under a handicap. He had no arms, no legs, and no head.

 Truly a once in a lifetime!
