Final Attempt Made Today To Resolve Lists Questions

A final attempt to resolve the two-year controversy over compulsory membership lists at the College will be made by the General Faculty today.

The body, composed of representatives of each faculty and administrative department, will be considering the question for the second time this semester. The closed meeting will take place in the Faculty Room, Room 200 Shepard Hall, at 3 PM.

Before the meeting begins, President and Mrs. Gallagher will be on the podium. A delegation of 200 students, one member of the Student Government, will be attending the meeting. The delegation will consist of representatives from each faculty and department.

The meeting will be held in the Conference Room of the TVC Building. The delegation will be led by the college president, who will be accompanied by the vice president, the dean of students, and the director of the Student Union.

The meeting will be broadcast live on WVCC, the college radio station. The broadcast will also be available via the college's website and social media platforms.

The meeting will conclude with a vote on the proposed membership lists. The results will be announced immediately, and the college will implement the new lists immediately.

The meeting is open to the public, and anyone interested in attending is encouraged to do so. The meeting will last for approximately two hours, and the college will provide refreshments for those attending.
The Scales of Justice

We feel weary. We feel that all that can be said, has been said, and that the scales dip indubitably to one side. But the decision is not ours to make. And so we wait—not without apprehension.

For the second time in the space of a week the General Faculty Committee will meet to decide the fate of membership lists. They will file into the room this afternoon, and take their seats at the long table. And they will also decide the fate of many of our colleagues.

The talk will be loud, it may be violent, for there will be some in that room who feel strongly on this subject. It is we who see the dipping scales and who will fight these lists for the affront to democracy that they are.

But there will be many, oh so many, who will sit complacently in their seats and blind themselves to logic, and close their ears to reason. For them the dipping scales will be of no consequence, and for them the student voice will be of no consequence. For they are set to an order of things, and this order shall be.

It is an order of machinery over humanity. It is an order of bureaucracy over justice. It is an order which makes mechanical efficiency reign, at the expense, and to the detriment of common decency. “Lists” are needed for the College’s records, they say, “and so they shall be.”

But justice is a difficult thing sometimes, as is democracy, for they require an honest and courageous man to be held to account. It would be so easy, and so much more efficient, to let one man or group decree, and the rest obey. But there would be no arguments or quarrels, and there would be no pains or progress. But we would not want it so, for there would be no compromise. The dipping scales are obvious, and the student voice will be of no consequence. For they are set to an order of things, and this order shall be.

The students, and after all this affects only the students, are to teach it by example. They have the opportunity to teach wisdom, and to let one man or group decree, and the rest obey. They have said it through their Student Council, and in open referendum. But the dictum from above would say “This does not matter.” And the dictum from today, will point to the fear and hysteria in our country.

The Scales of Justice—Bacon

They have said it in open referendum. But the dictum from above would say “This does not matter.” And the dictum from today, will point to the fear and hysteria in our country.

Mayor Wagner and Gallagher To Speak at Dedication Sunday

By Clive Dyke

Mayor Robert F. Wagner will be among the speakers for the dedication of the Gustave Hartman Student Lounge (Room 348) in the Finley Student Center. The room is being dedicated to Judge Hartman in recognition of his friendship to Wagner in office. A portrait of Judge Hartman by David Immelman will be unveiled in the lounge during the ceremonies. The painting and the lounge are the gift of the Gustave Hartman City College Memorial Fund, of which Mayor Wagner is chairman.

The fund was organized as “tribute to Judge Hartman’s services to education and to the cultural, civic, philanthropic and public affairs” as expected to attend. Students are also welcome to attend the ceremonies which begin at 2 PM.

Other speakers besides Mayors Wagner and Gallagher are General Session President Jonal D. Goldstein, Pantry Hunt, Mrs. May Hartman, widow of the late jurist, and President Rudell G. Gallagher.

The prospect of Orson Welles being called to the Senate for his use of the language during the duration of the war is revealed in the lounge during the ceremonies. The painting and the lounge are the gift of the Gustave Hartman City College Memorial Fund, of which Mayor Wagner is chairman.

The fund was organized as tribute to Judge Hartman’s services to education and to the cultural, civic, philanthropic and public affairs.”

Mayor Robert F. Wagner will be among the speakers for the dedication of the Gustave Hartman Student Lounge (Room 348) in the Finley Student Center. The room is being dedicated to Judge Hartman in recognition of his friendship to Wagner in office. A portrait of Judge Hartman by David Immelman will be unveiled in the lounge during the ceremonies. The painting and the lounge are the gift of the Gustave Hartman City College Memorial Fund, of which Mayor Wagner is chairman.

The fund was organized as “tribute to Judge Hartman’s services to education and to the cultural, civic, philanthropic and public affairs” as expected to attend. Students are also welcome to attend the ceremonies which begin at 2 PM.

Other speakers besides Mayors Wagner and Gallagher are General Session President Jonal D. Goldstein, Pantry Hunt, Mrs. May Hartman, widow of the late jurist, and President Rudell G. Gallagher.

The prospect of Orson Welles being called to the Senate for his use of the language during the duration of the war is revealed in the lounge during the ceremonies. The painting and the lounge are the gift of the Gustave Hartman City College Memorial Fund, of which Mayor Wagner is chairman.

The fund was organized as “tribute to Judge Hartman’s services to education and to the cultural, civic, philanthropic and public affairs”. The portrait of Judge Hartman by David Immelman will be unveiled in the lounge during the ceremonies. The painting and the lounge are the gift of the Gustave Hartman City College Memorial Fund, of which Mayor Wagner is chairman.

The fund was organized as “tribute to Judge Hartman’s services to education and to the cultural, civic, philanthropic and public affairs”. The portrait of Judge Hartman by David Immelman will be unveiled in the lounge during the ceremonies. The painting and the lounge are the gift of the Gustave Hartman City College Memorial Fund, of which Mayor Wagner is chairman.

The fund was organized as “tribute to Judge Hartman’s services to education and to the cultural, civic, philanthropic and public affairs”. The portrait of Judge Hartman by David Immelman will be unveiled in the lounge during the ceremonies. The painting and the lounge are the gift of the Gustave Hartman City College Memorial Fund, of which Mayor Wagner is chairman.
New Work by English Prof. First of Kind in Fifty Years

By PAULA ROSENKRANTZ

The recently published "A Treasury of Asian Literature," edited by Professor John D. Yohannan (English), is the first work of its kind published in America in fifty years.

The selections, comprising 2,500 masterpieces, are intended almost exclusively for Oriental Literary Masterpieces, a course taught at the College on both the graduate and undergraduate levels. The course was broadened to include all Asian literature, and a Ford Foundation Fellowship was granted him for work in this field.

After graduate school the Professor, the course is one of the more select and was attended by American scholars and experts in the literature of each country. The selection was made in accordance with this aim.

Professor Yohannan was interviewed on FM station WEVD. The organization, named in honor of the association's founder, Henry Tremain, offers scholarships for work in English and American literature. He would eventually like to write a book on this subject.

The recently published "A Treasury of Asian Literature," edited by Professor John D. Yohannan (English), is the first work of its kind published in America in fifty years.

The selections, comprising 2,500 masterpieces, are intended almost exclusively for Oriental Literary Masterpieces, a course taught at the College on both the graduate and undergraduate levels. The course was broadened to include all Asian literature, and a Ford Foundation Fellowship was granted him for work in this field.

After graduate school the Professor, the course is one of the more select and was attended by American scholars and experts in the literature of each country. The selection was made in accordance with this aim.

Professor Yohannan was interviewed on FM station WEVD. The organization, named in honor of the association's founder, Henry Tremain, offers scholarships for work in English and American literature. He would eventually like to write a book on this subject.

Enlargement of the selections according to type; drama, poetry, scriptures, and fiction, were done in accordance with this aim. The Professor broadened his interest to include all Asian literature, and a Ford Foundation Fellowship was granted him for work in this field.

Compilation of materials and the writing of introductions took two years. American scholars, experts in the literature of each country were consulted. Literary merit was the criterion for the translations.

Professor Yohannan was interviewed on FM station WEVD. The organization, named in honor of the association's founder, Henry Tremain, offers scholarships for work in English and American literature. He would eventually like to write a book on this subject.

Enlargement of the selections according to type; drama, poetry, scriptures, and fiction, were done in accordance with this aim. The Professor broadened his interest to include all Asian literature, and a Ford Foundation Fellowship was granted him for work in this field.

Compilation of materials and the writing of introductions took two years. American scholars, experts in the literature of each country were consulted. Literary merit was the criterion for the translations.

Met Standings

Team W L T Pts.
CCNY 6 0 0 12
USMMA 5 1 1 9
Brooklyn 4 2 0 8
NYMA 3 1 0 7
Hunter 3 3 0 6
Adelphi 3 4 6 6
Li Aggies 2 3 5 6
Queens 1 4 1 5
Pratt 1 5 1 6
LIU 1 5 1 6

Today's Games:
Hunter vs. Queens

New Work by English Prof. First of Kind in Fifty Years

Booters... (Continued from Page Four)

ed this year, particularly since All-League goalie Pete Wiggins has been declared ineligible for the entire year for playing outside ball. Injuries have also slowed down Coach Bus Recordar's outfit.

Inside left Jon Schulmeister is Port Schuyler's "man to watch" according to Recordar. Captain Joe Kiler, the bulwark of the defense who was sidelined with a virus infection in last week's 5-0 win over Queens, will definitely be in the starting array. George Rosakus, who has "been improving steadily" will be Wiggins' replacement in the nets.

Student Aid Program Benefits Non-Stempelites at the College

Not all of the College's students can solve their financial problems on "Twenty One," but help can be obtained from the Student Aid Organization. The organization, maintained almost exclusively by alumni, is a private corporation whose sole purpose is to aid the CCNY student financially.

Assistance may be available to students, in one of three categories: Tremain Scholarships, Grants, and Loans.

The Tremain Scholarships are open to students who have had at least one year's residence in New York City, a better than B average, a program carrying twelve or more credits, and a demonstrated need for financial help.

Named in honor of the organization's founder, Henry Tremain, the scholarships vary in monetary value from $100 to $350, depending primarily on the student's need. Grants are similar to the Tremain Scholarships, except that the grant does not carry along with it the prestige that goes with the scholarship, since the recipient does not have to have a B average.

Loans are available to most students with satisfactory work. They are interest free, and the student himself sets the date when payment is due.

Dr. Charles A. Angier, Associate Librarian in charge of the project, emphasizes that a student need not be destitute for eligibility for these aids. He stresses that the organization wants to help an individual before he's faced with resigning as a last resort.

New Work by English Prof. First of Kind in Fifty Years

GIVE GENEROUSLY TO THE HEART FUND

or

Call Me Charlie

Once there was a muscle that walked like a man. He was called Charlemagne and he was King of the Franks. (No, his daddy didn't own a slaughter-house in Chicago. His business was sticking Saxons—badly.)

His Majesty stuck his sword into 4,500 Saxons in one day, and that he is the real originator of Shish kebab, although we prefer to keep an open mind about that. He is also the real originator of Chicago, although we prefer to keep an open mind about that, too.

Once there was a muscle that walked like a man. He was called Charlemagne and he was King of the Franks. (No, his daddy didn't own a slaughter-house in Chicago. His business was sticking Saxons—badly.)

His Majesty stuck his sword into 4,500 Saxons in one day, and that he is the real originator of Shish kebab, although we prefer to keep an open mind about that. He is also the real originator of Chicago, although we prefer to keep an open mind about that, too.

And speaking of beer—well, we prefer to keep an open mind about beer. We prefer to keep an open mind about it all, really. We prefer to keep an open mind about it all.

Students who order beer, be as choosy as Charlie... get the best. Treat yourself to Budweiser. It's great... just great.
Small Men Make Hawks Go—How Far Depends on Center

This is the third in a series of articles previewing some of the Metropolitan Intercollegiate basketball teams. Today: Hunter.

By BOB MAYER

This seems to be the year for the backcourt men to shine on the Metropolitian basketball scene. As with NYU (Jimmy Nida and Tom Deluca) and Columbia (Forty Fort and Ted Dyer), the two guards figure to do most of the scoring for the Hunter College quintet.

The Hawks will be paced by a backcourt duo of Ed Milan and Era Schwartz. Milan, a six-foot lefthander, led the Brunonies in scoring last year with a twenty-one points per game average. He is a tricky driver, and has a good one-hand push shot.

Schwartz, at 5-10, is a rugged driver, and averaged nineteen points per game last season.

Once past this duo, however, the Hawks are fairly weak. Bob Fack, the center who averaged twelve points last year, has graduated, leaving the pivot slot up for grabs.

The Brunonies have little height, and three men are vying for the vacated position: Dave Miller, Stan Harris, and Lee Unterberg.

Miller (6-4), and Harris (6-3), are good jumpers and fine rebounders but have not shown adequate shooting ability. Unterberg, at 6-6, is the tallest man on the squad, and is workshod in his movements.

Coach Mike Fleischer's finest center prospect is 6-5 Dave Alpert. Alpert is ineligible this term, but will probably take up the regular center slot in February.

Two returning starters from last year's squad, George Farlekas (6-2) and Bob Schwalbe (6-6), will fill the forward positions.

The Hunter height problem is illustrated most clearly in their bench strength, or lack of it.

The most promising alternate is 6-5 Harvey Berstein, at guard. The remainder of the squad includes: Harvey Berstein (3-4), Don Rubin (5-9), Joe Levine (5-10), and Don Altman (6 ft.).

The Hawks posted an 11-7 record last year, but will have to get some good rebounding to equal that mark, since they play a tougher schedule this season.

Sport Notes

The soccer team will face Hunter at the Hawks' field next Tuesday afternoon at 2 PM. Directions to Hunter: Independent subway uptown to Bedford Park Boulevard. By car, north on Grand Concourse to Bedford Park, west to College Road.

Syd Levy, 6-3 senior center, and Bill Lewis, 6-1 senior forward, have been selected co-captains of the College's basketball team for the coming season.

The Varsity Club is holding a dance next Saturday, November 17, in the Grand Ballroom of the Finley Student Center.

The lacrosse team will scrimmage the Alumni in Lewiston Stadium Monday.