Prom Tickets Now Available At 2 Booths

Ticket booths for all-College Prom will be open beginning today outside the Finley Lounge, Shepley Hall, and in the Finley Student Center. The Prom will be held in the Grand Ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria this Thursday night at 9 PM.

Tickets, at $5 a couple, can also be obtained in the House Plan Office, Room 331 Finley Student Center, or in the office of Mr. Irving Slade, Room 341 Finley.

Two door prizes, including a turkey, will be given away at the affair, sponsored by Student Government.

Entertainment at the Prom will be by Bill Reisfelder and his band. In addition to supplying music for dancing, the band will present a special jazz concert. Miss Gris, winner of the Marian Anderson award, will be the guest vocalist. Miss Gris was in the New York City Center's production of "Carmen Jones" last year.

The music at the Prom is a recent innovation in the tradition of Party College, said President SG, said yesterday. "For the price of the affair, the students are going to get a chance to brush up on their social dancing."

Boards . . .

Organizations seeking permanent bulletin board space in the Finley Student Center should contact Stanley Wisser, Chairman of the House Plan Board for denying House Plan's request.

Mr. Wisser represents the Student Government Public Affairs Forum, his address will be determined by the Board for the exclusive use of the lounge rooms.

Stempel Back on '21 Tonite; Sets His Goal at $100,001

Herb Stempel, the College's version of Horatio Alger, said yesterday that he intends to keep on trying to amass money on "Twenty-One." He will appear again tonight on the NBC-TV quiz program that has made his fortune—$55,500 to date.

The 29-year-old senior, a history major, has announced his intention to keep going until he wins more than anyone else ever has on a television quiz program. The current record is $100,000, won by two contestants on "The Big Bang." The producers of "Twenty-One" have offered to put up $1 million if any contestant can win $1 million.

The current record of $100,000 was set by a contestant on "The Big Bang," who was allowed to go back and win $50,000 a week for two weeks.

Stempel has been in the College's College of Commerce and has been a member of the College's Debating Society. He was also a member of the College's Debate Team.

Blood Drive Registration Opens Mon.

Registration for the College's Blood Drive will begin next Monday, November 26, and will continue throughout the week. Registration will be set up in Shepherd Hall, and in the Finley Student Center's Grand Ballroom.

Any member of the College, sixteen years of age or older, may participate in the drive. A registered nurse will be on hand to help guide members of the family.

Persons under twenty-one years of age are required to have the signature of their parent's or guardian's consent.

Blood Drive Registration

For Lounges

House Plan last night decided to give blood to the refugees, or "blood drive," to the College, according to Mr. Wisser, Student Government President.

Mr. Wisser, Chairman of the Student Board of Managers, argued that a "bad precedent" would be set if House Plan gave blood to the College. Other campus organizations said that they would not agree to give blood.

The Board of Managers will recommend to the Director of the College, Dean James S. Peace, that the College organization should give blood.

A Freshman From India

Richard Nicodemus, a letter freshman, is also a new arrival to the United States. Born in India, to the left of his life, Mr. Nicodemus, in a series of articles for Observation Post, will contrast the life of a student in India with that of a student at the College.

In India, students have much reverence for their teachers. Because the teachers are reserved, it was extremely hard for us to meet on a common level. In turn, they always returned the respect they received.

But sadly, at City, there is nothing to exchange on either side in that field. Everyone believes in equality and so to show respect has become an entirely alien thing.

Moreover, in India, no student would smoke in a class, or in front of his teachers. It is considered dignified not to smoke, and smokers are liable to be punished. And our girls would rather die than be caught in that ignominious act. (Sometimes, it seems to me, that at City, more girls than boys are faithful slaves to this form of wicked bondage.)

At times here, classrooms become filled with the stench of acrid fumes, and non-smokers are compelled to breath it. No one protests—because this a democracy.

Of course, the relationship between teacher and student at City College is vastly different. Student here can approach teachers to discuss their problems and receive the desired help.

I was surprised to see an Indian member of the College's Faculty, Professor Arjan Das Ahuja (E.E. Dept.) so friendly towards me. We spent some en-

Rod and Gun Game Hunt On For Big Shots

The "big shots" at City College will be out after big game this weekend, when the Rod and Gun Club starts its weekend trip to Middleburgh, New York, to stalk bear and deer.

All's Bright in Soccer Future
As JV Holds Varsity to 1-0

Judging from yesterday's Varsity-Junior-varsity soccer game, Metropolitan Soccer Championship should remain at Beaver-leld for at least the next few seasons. The NY State champs squeaked past the Jayvee-freshman squad 1-0, at Lewisohn Stadium, a tune-up for next Saturday's playoff battle against Springfield college.

The JV's just missed tying the score with forty-five seconds left in the game, when high scorer Les Solney missed a kick directly in front of the goal. The varsity dominated play in the second period, too, and at half-time Manager Jean-Pierre Riviere, who coached the jayvees, blasted his charges for their lack of spirit. Riviere's tirade must have hit home, because the varsity had their hands (and feet) full throughout the second half. Minnerop continued to play heads-up ball, Solney got off two shots that missed by inches, * and inside right Aldo Gambardella impressed spectators as a coming star.

Aldo Gambardella was a little incognito market research. He was no cube, so he put Tondelayo under ball and chain contract, set her up in business, and together they founded one of the biggest families and breweries in New England, as well as that noble institution "the short beer."

The varsity squad opened fast, and kept the ball deep in Jayvee territory throughout the first quarter. Center forward Novak Masanovich accounted for the goal, and kept the ball deep in Jayvee territory. Center forward Novak Masanovich hit the only goal of the game at 2:15 of the right of the goal into the left corner post Jayvee goalie Marty Doherty.

For the rest of the period Doherty was kept busy stopping shots by Sund and Masanovich. The jayvee team was in the game for at least the next few seasons. "You're faded, Mac," said the farmer in his quaint New England parlor, "I wouldn't put a Knight out on a Dog like this. I'll even have my daughter rustle us up a pair of small beers."

"Now if any reader has the idea that this is going to be a million bucks, all wrinkled and green."

The official button for the 1956 Stein Fund basketball game against Hunter on December 1 goes on sale next Monday. Proceeds from the sale of the button and gate receipts from the game will be used to meet medical expenses of athletes injured while competing for the College.
Redmen Are Likely To Sculp Just About Everyone in Sight

Joe Lapchick resigned as coach of the New York Knickerbockers last season to take the pressure of big-time basketball too much relaxation coaching the court men with good outside shots, and should see plenty of action spelling the returning guards, Walt Brady and Dick Dukett.

Ducket Sparks Team

Dukett, a rugged driver, is the take-charge guy of the team, and along with Brady, is particularly effective in setting up Parenti's short jump shots, the Redmen's number one offensive weapon.

Thus, with top-flight shooting ability, excellent over-all height, and probably national recognition, Lapchick shouldn't feel too much out of place after ten years in the NBA.

It's that new V8 in the '57 Chevrolet.

It's as quiet as a contented cat and as smooth as cream ... and it's cat-quick in response when you call for action!

No household tabby sitting in a sunny window ever purred more contentedly than Chevy's new V8 engine. You can scarcely tell when it's idling.

But when you nudge the accelerator, you know it's there, all right! Its right-now response keeps you out of highway emergencies. It overpowers steep hills with such ease they seem like level landscape.

This new Chevrolet V8 puts up to 245 high-compression horsepower* under your command! It's sassy, sure—but as tame to your touch as a purring pussy-cat. Come try the smoothest V8 you ever put a toe to.
