

SZO To Issue Petition Protesting Arab Boycott

By GRACE FISCHER

A campaign to make students aware of discrimination against Jews by American industry, due to Arab boycotting, will be conducted next week by the College's chapter of the Student Zionist Organization (SZO).

Permission to circulate petitions calling for "a firm stand against the Arab boycott" will be requested by SZO at the Student Government Executive Committee meeting on Monday, according to a member of the executive council of the College's Branch of the Zionist organization.

"Although [the U S] officially condemns religious discrimination against Americans by foreign countries," in practice, the government has failed to voice vigorous objection to the Arab discrimination, with the result that American Jews are no longer equally protected in their rights of citizenship, Morris Anshel, a member of the council, said.

No Jews Allowed

"US forces in Dhahran, Saudi Arabia, are forbidden to maintain chapels," he pointed out, "and American Jews are not allowed to be employed by any private American firm."

"The Arab League has extended its boycott of Israel to include the blacklisting of any American industry that deals with Israel or has connections with any firm which deals with Israel," Anshel said.

"A ship from an Israeli port is not allowed to proceed from there to any Arab land, but has to return to the US and then go to the Arab nation," according to Anshel.

"The cost for this unnecessary trip comes from the American economy," he said.

"In effect, the US Government is bowing down to the Arab nations with the support of the American taxpayers," Anshel asserted.

It is argued that the US must appease the Arab nations for economic reasons. However, the US doesn't need Middle-Eastern oil, whereas nations which really do need the oil, such as France and Germany, are not bowing to Arab intimidation, Anshel declared.

Arab Retreat

"There is ample evidence that when faced with firm resistance the Arabs back down," he said.

If the boycott is extended, Jews won't be able to go into American industry, the Zionist student said.

Circulating the petitions in the College and stimulating public opinion by sending these petitions to Congressmen and State Department officials will "perhaps induce American government and industry to think twice before bowing down to the Arabs," the SZO representative said.

Housing...

Hulan Jack, Manhattan Borough President, and four other prominent municipal officials will speak here today on "The Housing Situation in New York City." The program, sponsored by the Conference of Democratic Students, will start at 12:30 PM in the Grand Ballroom.

Technology Bldg: Work Not Halted By Steel Stoppage

Construction on the new Technology Building is six weeks behind schedule, according to field supervisor Pat Collins.

Mr. Collins said that work has been behind schedule since last summer because of a concrete strike. However, the steel strike has had little or no effect on progress and even if it is resumed work will continue as planned, he said.

"The only thing that might slow us up is the weather. Concrete freezes when it gets cold and this will delay us slightly." However, he estimated that the building will be completed by December 1960 as originally planned.

'Aronow Not Right' For Jazz Soc. Concert

The Modern Jazz Society has canceled a concert scheduled for tomorrow evening, because an auditorium could not be obtained. The concert for Aronow Auditorium, but permission to use the hall was refused by Professor Mark Brunswick (Chmn. Music).

The President of the Society, Aitan Gotthelf, said that he had complained to President Buell G. Gallagher about the refusal to use Aronow. As a result, a meeting will be called between Pres. Gallagher, Prof. Brunswick, and Dean Leslie Engler (Administration) to decide by what procedure Aronow's use will be determined, Gotthelf said.

Prof. Brunswick said that "the use of Aronow is primarily for the Music Department. However, if representative programs need a place, and they are likely to be of interest to a large number of students, the Auditorium can be made available. Among such programs are the Dewey Lectures."

In a second attempt to get a place for the concert, the Society applied for Townshend Harris Auditorium, but learned that the Drama Society had obtained it for tomorrow evening.

The concert, which would have included the Sam Most Five and Teddy Charles, is postponed until a suitable auditorium can be found.

"We want Aronow Auditorium to have a special nature," Prof.

Brunswick said, and small local groups cannot attract enough attention to make it worthwhile to get supervision. "In any case, Aronow is a large, solemn place, not well suited to this type of program." If the Society had not been able to get any other place, and had applied eight weeks in advance, the arrangements might have been made, he said.

SG Deadline Tomorrow; Few Positions Contested

By BARBARA SCHNEIDER

Only one position for a major Student Government office is being contested with the deadline for returning election petitions one day off.

A new student group, The Independent Student Ticket (IST) has been formed to endorse candidates in the oncoming SG election.

David Bernheim and Jay Freeman are running for SG President. According to an unconfirmed report Jacob Rosen is also seeking this position. He was not available for comment at the time of publication.

Jerome Pitkowsky has announced his availability for SG Vice President. He is unopposed.

Bernheim and Pitkowsky are members of the IST slate.

Neil Salzman is running uncontested for SG Secretary and Irwin Pronin is unopposed for the office of SG Treasurer.

IST Not Political

According to Pitkowsky, IST member and Vice Presidential candidate, IST is endorsing candidates from the Class of '60, '62 and '63 as well as candidates for major SG office.

"IST is not a political party. It is a group of students with similar views who have decided that the only way for something to be done in Student Government is by the work of a concerted majority on Student Council," he said.

Pitkowsky stated that the IST platform is one of reform. They plan to:

- Support the recommendations of the SG Reorganizational Committee if they are workable or to make suggestions of their own.
- Publicize SC agencies so that they will have members.
- See that SC Committees function properly.

Also running on the IST slate are Bob Saginaw SC candidate from the Class of '62 Liberal Arts & Science, and Gus Bennett who is running for Senior Class Presi-

Feinberg Report: 'No Communists'

There were no Communists on the payroll of the Municipal Colleges as of October 31, 1959, according to a report submitted Monday by Board of Higher Education (BHE) Chairman Gustave G. Rosenberg.

The report was the sixth annual report made by the BHE under the terms of the 1953 Feinberg Law. It was submitted to State Education Commissioner James E. Allen Jr.

This was the first report made which did not cite cases under the consideration of the Board.

According to the report, three cases which had been cited by the BHE last year under the terms of the Feinberg Law have been "disposed of." Two of the cases involved the College.

The dismissal of Dr. Warren B. Austin, a former professor of English at the College, "after a disciplinary trial" was upheld by Commissioner Allen in May. Prof. Austin was accused of perjury for denying an acquaintance with members of the Communist Party.

The case of Richard Austin, a former clerk in the Registrar's Office, was also termed by Dr. Rosenberg as "disposed of." Mr. Austin contested his dismissal from the College in the courts. His "complaint" was dismissed by the Court of Appeals in April.

"Under the Feinberg law we had to insure that there were no Communists on the payroll and we have done so," said President Buell G. Gallagher yesterday.

'Outsider' Ads Draw Complaint

Dean James S. Peace has complained about unauthorized literature which has been distributed throughout the campus to advertise the performance of comedian-satirist, Brother Theodore.

Letters have been sent urging Brother Theodore or his representatives to "stop distributing his posters in the school," said Dean Peace. There has, however, been no response to these letters.

According to the College's publicity regulations, posters and notices may be put up only by authorized student groups and placed only on bulletin boards or other specified places. The material can be no larger than eight by eleven inches in size, unless special permission is received.

Brother Theodore often performs at Town Hall in a one-man show which features "humorous and subtly satirical stories," according to one enthusiastic fan.

Drag

Gamma Sigma Sigma and Alpha Phi Omega, service groups at the College, are sponsoring tomorrow night's Student Government dance. The dance will take place at 8:30 PM in the Finley Center Grand Ballroom. SG has been conducting a series of Friday night dances.

All Is Right

Mothers can send their children off to school confidently, members of the administration can benignly smile at one another—all is right at the Municipal Colleges.

Another annual hunting season is over. We're safe for the time being. We can enter our classrooms free of the fear of subversion. Our professors are harmless.

This year's annual report under the provisions of the Feinberg Law has been filed. To the best of the knowledge of the Board of Higher Education's Chairman, Gustave G. Rosenberg, no persons belonging to subversive organizations were in the employ of the Municipal Colleges as of October 31.

In last year's report three matters in litigation were pending before the Court of Appeals or the Commissioner of Education. "These matters have now been disposed of," Mr. Rosenberg said.

Now that all subversive elements in the faculty have been disposed of we can all sit back and relax. And perhaps if we relax long enough they won't even bother to start "disposing" of students.

Free Publicity

Publicity is not always an easy commodity to obtain either in everyday life or within the realm of the College community. The methods, of course, are very different and in the later case are comparatively primitive, but the same essential purpose is served.

Recently, "unauthorized" announcements of performances to be given by Brother Theodore have been illegally circulated around the campus. Before any announcements are permitted to be posted within the College, they must pass sundry requirements which can become tedious. The task of getting publicity for the clubs on campus is one which is a difficult one.

It is aggravating to see that someone who is not connected with the College, can, in effect, override the present rules and take advantage of any "free" space on the bulletin boards to be found in some of the buildings on campus. The practice cannot be condoned, nor can it be casually noted and then half-heartedly laughed at.

Rather, the people who are illegally using the bulletin boards should be made to realize that they are using space which is valuable and essential to the lives of the College's clubs. The comparative vastness of the College's area makes contact among students difficult at times, and these somewhat inefficient methods of communication must not be stifled.

"CONTACT-ETTE" News For House Planners

Although the period for pledging blood is over, you can still donate a pint when the bloodmobile gets here next week. Let's see everyone donate what may mean another human being's life.

On Saturday, December 12, House Plan will run a leadership training program for all HOUSE officers. It will be an all day affair at which these officers will be able to learn the most up-to-date methods in helping their HOUSES be as dynamic as possible. Everything will be held in the Finley Center free of charge including lunch.

This Thursday will see the House Plan lounge hopping to the strains of folk singing and square dancing at 12:30. Admission will be by House Plan card only.

At its 8th semiannual student-faculty dinner last Wednesday, Wittes '59 presented the City College Library a gift in recognition of the debt its members owe the College for the education they received here. Prof. Wilcox, Head Librarian, was there to accept this gift which was an unabridged Webster's International Dictionary. It will be located in the new Life Sciences room to be opened this Spring.

A couple of hundred children will converge on the Finley Center, Saturday morning, December 19, for House Plan's 3rd annual Christmas party for underprivileged children and orphans. Every HOUSE may adopt two of these children for the day and make it a truly merry Christmas for them. More information is available in 326 Finley.

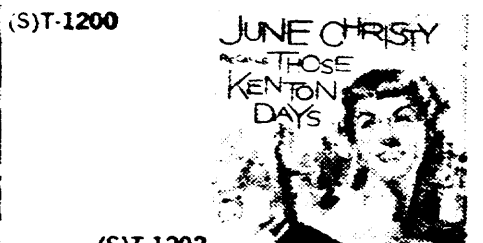

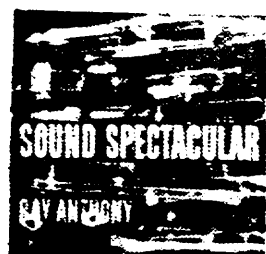

On that same evening, the 25th Anniversary Ball will be held at the Biltmore Hotel for $5 a couple. Besides entertainment, dancing, and the song contest, each couple will receive free a color picture of themselves. Tickets may be purchased in 319 Finley.

Starting this Thursday nominating petitions will be available for the House Plan elections. Nominations will be accepted until December 11.

The Wiley Dynasty will staff and program for the House Plan lounge for the remainder of the semester as its project. This will make Wiley eligible for a Dynasty room.

And finally, there will be a regular House Plan Council meeting Monday, December 7, at 4 P.M. in 121 Finley.

LUCKY STRIKE presents

Dear Dr. Frood:

DR. FROOD'S MORAL OF THE MONTH:
Make the most of your college days. (The nights will probably haunt you the rest of your life.)

Field-goal expert kicks about classes

(See below)

Dear Dr. Frood: I want to get married, but I don't like children. What shall I do?

Dear Dr. Frood: How can I keep people from borrowing my Luckies?

Surly

Pestered

Dear Surly: Marry an adult.

Dear Pestered: Put them in a Brand X pack.

Dear Dr. Frood: My husband teaches at a girl's college. I know it's silly, but since I'm middle-aged and stout, I am very jealous and worry all the time. What should I do?

Plump, Tired

Dear Plump, Tired: Keep worrying.

DR. FROOD ON HOW TO BE A BEATNIK

I've drawn up instructions for becoming a Beatnik: Let your hair grow until your hearing is noticeably impaired. When beard covers your tie, discard tie. Hang your shoes and socks in effigy. Sell your sink for scrap. Stock your room with cigarettes—because you won't be allowed on the street any more. (Better make 'em Luckies and enjoy your isolation!)

Dear Dr. Frood: Is it all right to study with the TV on?

Distracted

Dear Distracted: Better not. You might miss some of the story.

Dear Dr. Frood: The Dean is trying to force me to go to classes. I think this is unfair because last season I scored 16 touchdowns, intercepted 18 passes and kicked 22 field goals in 23 attempts. What should I do?

Letter Man

Dear Letter Man: I fail to see how going to classes will help. Better practice your kicking.

Dear Dr. Frood: I am a very plain girl and I don't have much personality. All I want is a man who will love me. Why can't I find one?

Sad

Dear Sad: You're too particular.

Holman's Hoopsters Face Problems Soph Players Short On Experience

By JOE LOWIN

This is the third in a series of articles on the College's winter sports teams.

Nat Holman is looking forward to coaching his thirty-seventh basketball team here at the College with the anxiety of a Broadway producer whose leading man and leading lady are both leaving after the second act.

Coach Nat Holman
"An Obvious Problem"

Just as the theatrical man does not know how his understudies will fare, so too, the Beaver hoop mentor cannot know how his substitutes will react to the pressures of playing varsity ball.

"We have quite an obvious problem," said the coach. The squad will be losing its two top performers, Marty Groveman and Guy Marcot, to graduation this January and the coach is not sure if he can give enough game time to his subs.

Hoping to fill in for the two varsity stalwarts is a group of capable basketball players. But the knowledgeable Holman still has his doubts. "They need what we call additional clinical experience. They all must get a lot of work on the varsity level or we'll really miss Groveman and Marcot."

"They need more games. That'll be the test-how they react under real pressure."

The two men who are leaving are more optimistic than their coach. According to Guy Marcot, "the bench is more than adequate. I think they'll do fine." Marty Groveman was concerned with the team's height problem. "I think a lot depends on the big men," he said.

But Prof. Holman feels that sophomores, no matter how much natural basketball ability they might have, must learn to combine their talents with the pressures of court play and team play.

"These boys are trying to play together as a team. But they'll have to make their own decisions on the court. After all I can't play the game for them once they get onto the court. At the moment, let's say that I'm in a spirit of waiting."

Holman thinks that this year's team has it over last year's. Because they have no one star, "every game is going to be a contest. They'll have to be up for every game, and, consequently, will have to play together as a team."

We'll see if they do starting Saturday night.

Potpourri...

Baseball coach John LaPlace will meet Freshmen baseball candidates for the 1960 squad today at 1 PM in Room 106 Harris.

Stein Fund buttons are now being sold around the College and in the Athletic Office.

Female Five Lose 35-33, Alumnae Stave Off Late Bid

Too little too late was the story of the women's basketball game Tuesday night.

The distaff version of the College's basketball team showed a lot of hustle in the last quarter of their annual game with the Alumnae, but their rally fell one basket short of their opponents. They lost a squeaker 35-33.

Trailing 26-17 at the end of the third period Miss Laura Ham, who returned to coach the varsity for this one game, sent in guard Sylvia Schechner to play forward. Rachel Singer took her place in the backcourt. These two girls led the team to a 30-30 tie with only minutes remaining in the fray. Miss Schechner scored nine points in her only quarter as forward.

After a foul shot by Judy Cicak, however, the Alumnae sent in Betty Castro and Helen Wong who scored two quick baskets to bring the score up to 35-32.

With only seconds remaining, Co-captain Ruth Wasserman was awarded a foul shot and converted it for the varsity. They then took the ball out, but the buzzer sounded before the girls could get a shot off.
