SG Election to Begin Tomorrow; Gov't. Loan Referendum On Ballot

Two In Race For Presidency

Salzman vs. Davis For Sec'y

By BARBARA SCHNEIDER

Six students are vying for four top Student Government positions in the semi-annual SG elections. David Bernheim is running for the President's post on the independent Student Ticket (IST). His MGM Recording Orchestra.

President Buell G. Gallagher clarifies referendum.

Saginaw (IST), Theodore Sende (IST) and Paul Schwartz are competing for two vacant positions.

The Class of '61 have three candidates. Lee Fraidstein, DFU, Anne M. Ginsberg (DFU), Jack Mazelis (DFU), Allan Ornstein and Joel Rudikoff.

In the Class of '63 there are three candidates and two vacancies.

Bill Lentz and Bernard Cyclich for two vacant positions.

Student Council has placed before us a referendum asking for federal loans.

OP Editorial: Dollars and Dignity

Tomorrow the College's student community will go to the polls and, for the first time in many a year its election will be anxiously watched by Congressmen, Senators, educators and the entire student population of the United States.

Tomorrow the student body will be accorded a vanguard role within the student community—a role which it has gradually acceded to other institutions over the past two decades.

Tomorrow can provide the final proof that students will show the sense of responsibility that have to control their own affairs when that sense of responsibility is called for.

The question before us tomorrow will not be an easy one.

Student Council has placed before us a referendum asking that we withdraw from a loan program which has given our students an opportunity to continue their college an opportunity to continue their higher education.

In exchange for the abandonment of these seemingly vital funds, we are being given an opportunity to uphold a principle of freedom and liberty.

But, these institutions have private means for providing loans to their needy students.

City College does not possess the resources, at this time, to provide the funds necessary to help all its needy students.

Perhaps, with sufficient research and effort, additional means can be found. City College has, at present, a student population of approximately 20,000. The College has received $90,000 in loan funds under the Education Act. Students at the College have used $83,000 of that allotted amount.

The mathematics are not difficult. We believe that the student body will be sufficiently impressed to provide the necessary funds for their fellow students themselves, if called-upon. We believe that alumni and other individuals would be sufficiently impressed by both the principles and need involved to also contribute to the maintenance of needy students.

City College is not Harvard or Yale. It is a Municipal college which generally receives students from a far dif-erent economic background than the latter two institutions. City College students, in many instances, need financial aid.

For City College to reject financial aid from a relatively easy source is far different than for Harvard or Yale to reject such aid. It would mean something very real to the next United States Congress.

But I digress. England, I was saying, wants to trade Wales to the United States for a desert. Great Britain

FDU Rally Defeats Beavers 68-57
Groveman High With Twenty Points

By STEVE SOLMON

Rutherford, New Jersey, Dec. 12—Fairleigh Dickinson University rallied in the second performance of the season by the College's basketball team and posted a 68-57 victory.

It was the third straight defeat for the Beavers in as many games and its second Tri-State setback. Fairleigh Dickinson is 1-1 in league play.

The loss also spoiled Dave Polansky's return to the varsity coaching ranks. Polansky is taking over as assistant coach while Professor Nat Holman retains his health.

The Beavers didn't start clicking until mid-way through the first half. By that time Fairleigh Dickinson had a 20-10 lead and looked as if they were going to make a run-away of the contest.

But with Marty Groveman, Guy Marrot and Shelly Bender hitting their shots the Beavers closed the gap and finally spurted ahead 32-31 at the half-time intermission.

Marcot tallied a jumper and Bender added one hand jump but Dickinson couldn't be slowed down. Jim Munneh followed a Morris basket with two of his own and Fairleigh was home safe 58-48 with only four minutes remaining in the game.

High scorers for the Beavers were Groveman with twenty points, Marcot with twelve and Bender with eleven.

The win evened the Beavers record at 1-1. Yale, winner over Connecticut in its first match, suffered its first defeat of the season.

Considering how difficult victories come to the Epee team, (they lost nine out of nine to Pennsylvania) this was quite a moment of elation.

Texts Of Proposed Referenda

No. 1

Loans

That City College should withdraw from the Federal student loan program under the 1968 National Defense Education Act and oppose participation in this loan program until the section requiring loyalty oath and disclaimer affidavit as a qualification for applicants is removed.

No. 2

Vacancies

That vacancies left on Council after an election or caused by the resignation during the first eight weeks of the term can be filled by a vote in Student Council by any member of the class in which the vacancy occurs regardless of school. This constitutional change is to be automatically rejected if the class-school referendum fails.

No. 3

Lists

That we, the students of the City College Main Center Day Session, deny the necessity of the compulsory recording of the names of twelve or more members of any legally permissible (according to BHE regulations) club or organization for any purpose other than that of initial chartering and registering. We suggest that the names of the four major officers of any chartered organization be sufficient for the subsequent registering of that organization and use of the privileges thereby accorded so long as these four officers are held financially and legally accountable for the actions of their club or organization. However, any student wishing to submit a membership card may certainly do so if he desires. We therefore request that the General Faculty seek to redefine the requirements for chartering and registering of campus clubs and organizations in accordance with our suggestions as soon as possible.

No. 4

Class & School

That all representatives to Student Council be elected in the fall for one year as follows: The Freshman, Sophomore and Junior Classes would have three representatives from the School of Technology and three from the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences; the Senior Class would have three representatives, two from the School of Technology and one from the School of Education. In the spring, the incoming freshmen would elect three representatives from the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences and three from the School of Technology for one term. At this time all vacancies will be filled.

Vote

It is election time again. The time has come to take out your Bursar’s receipts and derive the little glow of pleasure you deny getting from “tearing along the dotted line.”

But it is also a time to take advantage of a privilege. You’ve all been taught that voting is a privilege. You’ve all been given to you, not using it only leads to a state of inertia. Only power will provide that outside law which will alter that state.

Well, the majority of you are not of age to vote in the municipal, state, or federal elections. But as students at the College you are citizens of a smaller, but certainly no less significant community. It is a community of students, young people with definite ideas, amorphous opinions, and many thoughts which have yet to come alive and take shape.

There is a Student Government which serves as the representative body for the College’s citizens. You have been given the right to vote in that body’s elections.

A plague has hit the College, but it’s a malady whose causative agent is not a microorganism of any sort. Rather the cause is one which is difficult to pinpoint. Perhaps you will venture the guess that it is the students’ feeling that student government is in a futile predicament of not having complete authority over its actions. That belief is not completely unfounded, but simply admitting the comparative accuracy of that opinion and lazily telling yourself that there is no need for you to vote does not constitute a fundamental of progress. It creates a stagnancy of action and veils SG’s inherent potential.

Complaining is a right also, but it is only given to a person after he has exercised every power he has to remedy the situation which draws his antagonism.

To pass up your right to vote is foolish. To say that it doesn’t make any difference is untrue. Student Government is a body which, with the right attitude of the student body, can function effectively. Leaders are needed to give it direction, and although the leadership potential of many of this term’s candidates is one of their outstanding qualities, it is essential that each student vote in the SG elections and strive to make the organization fruitful and significant.

Neither

Observation Post finds itself in a very unhappy situation when it comes to the endorsement of a Student Government President.

We are faced with the problem of having to choose between two individuals both unprepared and ill-suited for the most important position in our Student Government.

Both David Bernheim and Jay Freeman have had extremely limited experience in SG. Although both of them have served a term on Council neither has ever served on a Council Committee, a responsibility of every Council member.

Mr. Freeman has a non-existent knowledge of Student Government. Mr. Bernheim, perhaps, because of a better memory knows the names of a few more of the agencies but he also ranks very low in his knowledge of the purposes and functions of these groups.

Jay Freeman has less knowledge of Student Government, and of what he would be interested in carrying through as President, than any candidate we have had the experience of interviewing in past years. Mr. Bernheim at least has a better understanding of what SG can accomplish although his platform lacks imagination.

It is useless to continue to enumerate the manifold deficiencies of the two candidates. We can not with good conscience endorse either of the two individuals. We bespeak the absence of a qualified person running for this all important office.

We feel that if Jay Freeman is elected, SG will have inexperienced, unqualified, impotent, person with perhaps more force and vigor than qualified for the post.

Neil Salzman is precisely the kind of person who SG will need in the coming term and in the terms to come. The fact that he is a sophomore, far from disturbing us, only makes us thankful that he still has so much time left in which to serve the College’s student community. Perhaps in the years to come he will have more of a Student Government with which to work.

Packed into his relatively short career, at the College, Salzman has given a fine record of activity and success. During his year’s service on Student Council he has shown a true capacity for understanding and leadership.

Perhaps a better indication of Salzman’s leadership abilities may be judged from his performance in areas outside of the College. In truth, we must admit that any individual’s services in SG are limited to a great extent, circumscribed by the present limits of that organization.

Salzman served as one of the College’s six delegates to the National Student Association Congress in Illinois last summer. The Congress provides one of the most severe tests for student leaders. The Congress gives one of the most severe tests for student leaders. The Congress provides one of the most severe tests for student leaders.

Complaining is a right also, but it is only given to a person after he has exercised every power he has to remedy the situation which special qualities were recognized by his fellow delegates.

During the next semester SG will have to place a premium on leadership. With the appearance of the long awaited report from the Committee to Reorganize Student Government should come a focus for SG and for the entire student body. Unfortunately, it appears that neither of the two top officers of next semester's SG will be able to effectively lead the student body in its fight for increased powers and responsibilities.

Neil Salzman is the individual who can provide that necessary leadership. His opponent, while enthusiastic and apparently very sincere, simply could not provide that top-flight direction.

The student body's secretarial choice tomorrow may have a grave effect on the future course of student government at the College. A vote for Neil Salzman, for this SG Executive Committee post, will be a vote for the right of all students to control their own affairs with a minimum of outside interference.

Pronin

Although Irwin Pronin is unopposed for the post of Student Government Treasurer, we feel that he is worthy of the endorsement of Observation Post. This is the first time in recent terms that we find an individual running for the Treasurer's position who is both qualified because of his experience on the Student Government Fee Committee and because of his sincere interest in Student Government.

Mr. Pronin has been a very active member of Student Council and the Student Government Executive Committee this term. He has also revamped and revitalized the College international relations. We are proud to have the opportunity to endorse Irwin Pronin. A person like Mr. Pronin should be encouraged and given the opportunity to continue his fine work.

F or the first time in weeks, the Contact staff is ready to issue a statement about the status and needs of its committee, and it is to this end that this issue of Contactette is devoted, in part. Briefly, for those in the House Plan Association who have complained about the lack of circulation of our small publication, Contact, we would like to tell you that form, known as photo-offset, will henceforth cease to exist (except for the Election Issue for this Thursday). It was terminated in October of this semester due to various problems: we lacked staff cooperation and circulation. To cut costs and overcome the problem of circulation, we took our present form with the cooperation of our full-sized college newspapers for the rest of this semester. But the problem of next semester was upon us. Should we continue this form? Many thought not. Our staff agrees. But what could we do? We appealed to the Managing Board of House Plan, and these are the results: first, our staff wants a full-sized, newspapered issue to appear in alternate weeks; therefore, we will require a large staff, perhaps thirty members; at the moment we have nineteen, but we need more experienced personnel, perhaps people from high school newspapers. Second, we require experience; we need more experienced personnel, perhaps people from high school newspapers. Second, we require experience; we must show the Board that we have what it takes, that we can actually write a paper. Therefore, we need people who are experienced in laying out a paper. And, finally, we need a paper for next semester. Your support will get it. Pitch in and help. If you can help us, simply call the present editor, Joel Stern, at TA 3-3595, evenings after 7, or Stan Moll, personnel manager, at TU 2-6918. You can meet any staff member during the 12:2 PM break on Thursdays. Thank you. Remember, today we have a problem; tomorrow is too late! !

You'll get a free color photograph of your date and yourself, and witness the finale of the song and cheer contest held earlier this semester. Tix are 85 per couple, but there are very few left. Those whom you may purchase may be gotten in Room 317, Finley.

The money can be gotten, but a little effort will be required, but a little effort will be required.

We are all well aware that the powers of Student Council are limited and poorly defined. For this reason I cannot propose a SG revolution. However, through Council's control of funds and Council's prerogative to expose injustices through newspapers both on and off the campus, some accomplishments may be realized.

I believe the cafeteria could serve better food at lower prices considering the volume of business. The locker room, expanded into hallways, unclean and squalid. Admission to our important games should be free and held during club hours so that all students attend, irrespective of ability to pay; classroom conflicts. These reforms, a portion of my platform, are well within the realm of Student Council powers. If elected I shall preside over Council, free of political strings, responsive to the wishes of the student body.

David Bernheim

I am an independent running for Student Government President. I am running because I believe that the student body is for the most part the body which has the authority to express the opinions and wishes of the student body. Its power to incorporate these is, however, nil. I have participated in Student Government for the past year to try to fulfill the representations of the opinions and wishes of the student body to the best of my ability. This, however, should not be the limit of a representative's duties. It should also be within his jurisdiction to actively change situations and alter conditions in the name of the students he represents. This is the ultimate end that I seek for Student Government at City College.

I stand firmly against the following conditions now before the students of the College:

- The utilization of mandatory membership lists.
- The participation in any way of the City College in the National Defense Education Act.
- The absolute power now held by the administrators of the College in areas which should be under the jurisdiction of the Student Government.

* IRWIN PRONIN *

Despite the fact that I am running uncontested for the position of Student Government Treasurer, I wish to make known my views on certain issues. As far as the referenda facing the student body are concerned, I am opposed to the compulsory recording of more than four names for purposes of organization reregistration; I favor withdrawal from the National Defense Education Act because of its loyalty oath and disclaimer affidavit; I am opposed to the maintenance of class-school representation on Student Council. In addition, I would like to see Student Court revitalized; the number and strength of Student-Faculty Committees increased; and an end to the Smith Act Speaker Ban. As the SG Treasurer and Chairman of the SG Fee Commission, I will do my best to stretch the limited amount of student fees over as wide a range of deserving club and organizational activities as possible.
Dear Dr. Frood: My roommate continually steals my Luckies. What should I do?

Sinned Against

Dear Sinned Against: The most successful defense is the traditional African one. Mold a small wax image of your roommate. Then, at full moon, insert half a dozen common household pins into the hands of the image.

Dear Dr. Frood: If I were demented enough to want to write to you, how would I go about it?

Pen Pal

Dear Pen Pal: Address your letter to: Dr. Frood Box 2990 Grand Central Station New York 17, N.Y.

No phone calls please. Thus far I've been unable to have a phone installed here in the box.

Dear Dr. Frood: Our football team has lost 8 games a year for the last 6 years. How can we improve our record without letting the old coach go?

Alumni Pres.

Dear Alumni Pres.: Schedule fewer games.

Dear Dr. Frood: I was out with my girl and I saw this old lady and I laughed and I said, "Did you ever see such a worn-out old hag?" and my girl told me it was her mother. What can I do now?

Outspoken

Dear Outspoken: Take your left foot in your right hand and jerk sharply until it comes out of your mouth.

Dear Dr. Frood: I told my fiancée we can't afford to get married until I finish college. She insists that two can live as cheaply as one. Is this true?

Dubious

DR. FROOD ON HARASSING HABITS OF ROOMMATES

Roommates resent these common faults in roommates: Staring at my girl's picture. Not staring at my girl's picture. Studying when I'm not. Having a homely sister. Having no sister at all. Only one thing is more annoying than having a roommate who always runs out of Luckies: Having a roommate who doesn't smoke Luckies.

COLLEGE STUDENTS SMOKE MORE LUCKIES THAN ANY OTHER REGULAR!

When it comes to choosing their regular smoke, college students head right for fine tobacco. Result: Lucky Strike tops every other regular sold. Lucky's taste beats all the rest because L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike—means fine tobacco.
