Benjamin Davis, barred from speaking at the Municipal Colleges, will address a rally at Columbia University this evening protesting the City University Speaker Ban.

Assemblyman Mark Lane (Dem., Man.) and Professor Samuel Hendel (Chmn., Political Science) will appear along with Communist Party National Secretary Davis.

The rally which is being sponsored by a Columbia political party, ACTION, will be held in the McMillin Theatre (Broadway) and 116th St.) at 8:45 PM.

NSA Hits Speaker Ban At Regional Conference

By ERICA MANFRED

A resolution condemning the speaker ban was passed by the National Student Association (NSA) Regional Conference at New York University Monday.

The resolution originally composed by SG Treasurer Wendy passed, nevertheless, 14 to 11. Cherwin, one of the College's delegates to the Convention. stated that "it is the basic right of the student to be able to choose any speaker of his choice, independent of administrative authority."

Opportunity

Observation Post urges all students at the College to attend the Student Government Ban the Ban rally on South Campus Lawn at 12 Noon today.

Several organizations called meetings for the same time, despite the SG request that they be postponed. This was in part due to a functional mix-up in the College mail. However, we are convinced that no meeting could be of more importance to the College community than today's rally.

You must all come out and rally . . . protest the speaker ban. This is your first opportunity to exhibit your opposition to this negation of your student rights.

Roar, Lion.

The issue presented by the City University speaker ban extends beyond the confines of the seven colleges at which it was directed. The sympathetic interest taken by students at Columbia University in inviting Benjamin Davis to speak before City University students is indeed welcome.

We must show our gratitude to Columbia by attending their meeting tonight at 8:45 PM in McMillin Theater, 116 Street and Broadway.

Sustained Action

Sustained action is the only answer to action unheeded. If the Administrative Council takes no notice of the protest on South Campus lawn today by refusing to rescind the speaker ban, we must protest again.

If the seven municipal college presidents put still another blindfold over their eyes and refuse to recognize other demonstrations—as they have blindfolded themselves against the attacks of legislators, educators, students, student governments, civil liberties group, and at least one highly respected metropolitan newspaper—then we must demonstrate again.

Rallies, petitions, test cases, legal studies, letter-writing campaigns, boycotts—these are our tools. We can and must use them well. We can and must pressure the Administrative Council until our pressure outweighs that placed on the seven presidents to institute the ban by outside interests.

Hopefully the Administrative Council will heed our rally. Hopefully the Communist speaker prohibition will be an angry but short interlude in the infancy of the City University.

For we know, from historical experience and common sense, that invasions of free speech do not stop with one set of ideas. If the Council does not heed us now, we must continue to act until they do.

OPoll . . .

It is significant to note that twenty students who back the Republican contender are able to vote and will register their choice at the ballot box Tuesday. Only seventeen undergraduates who support Mayor Wagner are over twenty-one.

When asked to predict the winner of the mayoralty election 238 students chose Wagner while only fifty-one ventured a Republican victory.

Evidently, most of those who endorse Lefkowitz believe that they are taking a unique stand and that fellow citizens of NY, adhering to tradition, will vote for the Reform Democratic and Liberal Party aspirant.

Polling his Political Science classes, Mr. Stanley Feingold (Pol. Sci.) has found the same contradiction: while a majority of his students favored Lefkowitz for mayor, nearly all of these students predicted a Wagner win.

The breakdown of votes for the minority party candidates were the following: Comptroller Lawrence Gerosa (Citizens Party)—twenty-four; Vito Battista (United Taxpayers Party)—nine; Richard Garza (Socialist Workers Party)—eight; Eric Haas (Socialist Labor Party)—four; and Stephen Kennedy (not on ballot)—three. Thirty-eight students listed no preference. Twenty students who are either undecided or support minority candidates said they can vote.

Several students indicated that they would vote for a third party contender as a protest against the blandness of the major party candidates.

Questions designed to measure the political efficacy of the College's students revealed that more than fifty per cent of those queried do not believe that the individual citizen can have an effect on NYC politics.

Two-thirds of the students uphold the contention that the administration of NYC is basically corrupt. This dark picture of city government might be an important cause of the pessimism concerning the ability of an individual to reform the existing political set-up.

A majority of students rated their interest in NYC politics as medium, on a scale of high, medium, and low. On the national political scene, most undergraduates classified their interest as high.

Corroberating these findings, only twenty-six out of 221 students said they were active in any political group, on or off the campus.

Beaver Booters Blank Adelphi 3-0; Scarlett Scores 2 Goals Unassisted

The College's soccer team, led by Earle Scarlett and captain Andy Houtkruyer, shut out the Brown and Gold of Adelphi College yesterday by a score of 3-0.

Scarlett, playing a heads-up offensive game, scored two unassisted goals for the Beavers. The first one came at 6:25 of the opening period as Earle taking a pass from midfield boomed a shot toward the Adelphi goal mouth. The ball hit Adelphi goalie Ted Brewer's chest and bounded back onto the playing field. Scarlett, playing for the second shot, picked up the ball and put it in.

Scarlett Dribbles

His second goal was something of a rarity to be seen on a soccer field-and a beauty too. Three minutes after the opening of the final period, Earle picked up the ball at midfield and dribbled it to a point near the Adelphi net with only the defensive fullback and goalie between him and a score. Scarlett dribbled neatly past the fullback, kept right on going for a shot on goalie Brewer, got the rebound and this time put it into the net.

Sylvan Sidi scored the other goal for the Beavers at 8:25 of the second quarter, on an assist from Bob Salernie.

Sidi and Wolfgang Scherer arrived to the game ten minutes

In 21-37 Triumph Over Maritimers

Cross-country star Lenny Zane didn't finish first yesterday, but he didn't mind it too much as the Beavers' 21-37 victory over the New York State Maritime Academy was led by teammate Paul Lamprinos.

Lamprinos, in beating Zane for the first time this season, also broke Lenny's record of four days by one second with a time of 28:42. Zane ran the five-mile course at Van Cortlandt park in

The victory was not as easy as the score indicates. The sailors, led by Ed Leonard (29:45), took third, fifth, seventh, ninth places.

Four Beaver harriers besides Lamprinos and Zane, finished among the top ten. Mike Didyk (29:47), Billy De Angelis (30:32), Bill Casey (30:40), and Julian Offsay (31:02) finished fourth, sixth, eighth and tenth respectively.

This victory in the last regular meet of the season brought the ream's record to 8-1-1.

The harriers will now be working out every day in preparation for this Saturday's Municipals, and for the CTC's and the IC4A's later in the month.

Brooklyn's Eddie Blanco will be Zane's chief opponent in the Municipals. He has already beaten both Zane's and Lamprinos' top times with a 28:08 earlier in the season.

The defense, led by Tom Sieberg and Irwin Fox, was unbeatable, and seldom let any threats on the goal go through. Among goalie Houtkruyer's ten saves were three beauties, as Andy shut out Adelphi for the third year in a row.

Lavender Dominate

The Lavender dominated the play throughout the game, and particularly in the second half. In fact in that second half, the only time that Houtkryer got his hands on the ball was when his teammates passed it to him for defensive purposes.

As Coach Harry Karling put it, The boys had a very easy game and knew they were never in trouble."

The victory put the Beavers in a three-way tie for the league late and didn't start. They had lead with Brooklyn and Pratt, come by car and it made a wrong each team now with a 4-1 con-

Team manager Steve Fleishman warned though that "We still have to play and beat Pratt and hope that Brooklyn loses" in order to take the championship.

HUSBANDS, ANYONE?

It has been alleged that coeds go to college for the sole purpose of finding husbands. This is, of course, an infamous canard, and I give fair warning that, small and spongy as I am, anybody who says such a dastardly thing when I am around had better be prepared for a sound thrashing!

thirls go to college for precisely the same reasons as men do: to broaden their horizons, to lengthen their vistas, to drink at the fount of wisdom. But, if, by pure chance, while a girl is engaged in these meritorious pursuits, a likely looking husband should pop into view, why, what's wrong with that? Eh? What's wrong with that?

The question now arises, what should a girl look for in a husband. A great deal has been written on this subject. Some say character is most important, some say background, some say appearance, some say education. All are wrong.

The most important thing—bar none—in a husband is health. Though he be handsome as Apollo and rich as Midas, what good is he if he just lays around all day accumulating bedsores?

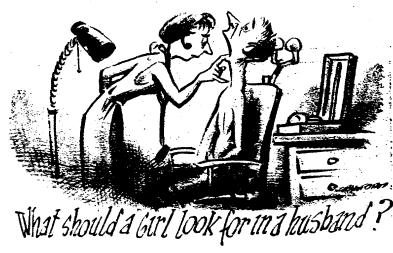

The very first thing to do upon meeting a man is to make sure he is sound of wind and limb. Before he has a chance tosweet-talk you, slap a thermometer in his mouth, roll back his eyelids, yank out his tongue, rap his patella, palpate his thorax, ask him to straighten out a horseshoe with his teeth. If he fails. these simple tests, phone for an ambulance and go on to the next prospect.

If, however, he turns out to be physically fit, proceed to the second most important requirement in a husband. I refer to a

A man who can't take a joke is a man to be avoided. There are several simple tests to find out whether your prospect can take a joke or not. You can, for example, slash his tires. Or burn his "Mad" comics. Or steat his switchblade. Or turn loose his. pet raccoon. Or shave his head.

After each of these good-natured pranks, laugh gaily and shout "April Fool! If he replies, "But this is February nineteenth," or something equally churlish, cross him off your list and give thanks you found out in time.

But if he laughs silverly and calls you "Little Minx!" put him to the next test. Find out whether he is kindly.

The quickest way to ascertain his kindliness is, of course, to look at the eigarette he smokes. Is it mild? Is it element? Is it humane? Does it minister tenderly to the psyche? Does it coddle the synapses? Is it a good companion? Is it genial? Is it bright and friendly and filtered and full of dulcet pleasure from cockerow till the heart of darkness?

Is it, in short, Marlboro?

If Marlboro it be, then clasp the man to your bosom with hoops of steel, for you may be sure that he is kindly as a summer breeze, kindly as a mother's kiss, kindly to his very marrow.

And now, having found a man who is kindly and healthy and blessed with a sense of humor, the only thin; that remains is to make sure he will always earn a handsome living. That, fortunately, is easy. Just enroll him in engineering.

Joining Marlboro in bringing you this column throughout the school year is another fine product from the same makers—the king-size, unfittered Philip Morris Commander. Here is pure, clean smoking pleasure. Try a pack. You'll be weicome aboard!
