Carnival Queen...

Tickets for House Plan's Carnival Queen Ball are available in Room 319 Finley at $5 per person. Five finalists for Carnival Queen will be chosen at the Ball. The dance will be held in the Hotel Biltmore on Saturday, March 25.

Five Profs. At College Sign Anti-HUAC Petition

By ELLA EHRLICH

A petition urging the abolition of the House Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC) has been signed by five professors at the College.

The statement, circulated by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), was signed by 250 prominent college professors throughout the country because the Committee "has created fearfulness within the academic world" and "public distrust of teachers and the institutions in which they serve."

Professor Yervant K. Kirkorian (Philosophy), who signed the statement said that HUAC is operating under an exaggerated Palmer Commission danger in the United States. "People who have no unorthodox ideas are suspected just because HUAC has damaged our liberties and has harmed many innocent individuals."

According to the ACLU statement "famous professors have served prison sentences after invoking the Committee's hearings." Mr. Edmond Sarfaty, Assistant Director of Finley Center, told the editors of the student magazine that they did not make a profit or show good faith this semester.

Five Prof. At College Sign Anti-HUAC Petition

By ELLA EHRLICH

A petition urging the abolition of the House Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC) has been signed by five professors at the College.

The statement, circulated by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), was signed by 250 prominent college professors throughout the country because the Committee "has created fearfulness within the academic world" and "public distrust of teachers and the institutions in which they serve."

Professor Yervant K. Kirkorian (Philosophy), who signed the statement said that HUAC is operating under an exaggerated Palmer Commission danger in the United States. "People who have no unorthodox ideas are suspected just because HUAC has damaged our liberties and has harmed many innocent individuals."

According to the ACLU statement "famous professors have served prison sentences after invoking the Committee's hearings." Mr. Edmond Sarfaty, Assistant Director of Finley Center, told the editors of the student magazine that they did not make a profit or show good faith this semester.

Mercury will end publication unless debts are paid

Threatened discontinuance of Mercury, the College's humor magazine, has made the sale of this term's issue an all-or-nothing proposition, according to Reese Dubin, editor-in-chief.

Mr. Edmond Sarfaty, Assistant Director of Finley Center, told the editors of the student magazine that if they did not make a profit or show good faith this semester, Mercury would cease publication.

Dubin declared Monday.

Good faith, said Dubin, means that "at least $1,500, incurred by the magazine in past terms would have to be liquidated by the profits of this term's sale."

Dubin charged that the debt has piled up because of "a small clique" of former Mercury editors.

Also, student apathy has played a large part in creating the deficit. "You have to get down on hands and knees to have the students buy" copies of the humor magazine, he said.

Contacted yesterday, Mr. Sarfaty denied that he had threatened Mercury with suspension. Instead, he said, he had brought it up as a serious possibility.

The final decision rests with the Student-Faculty Fee Committee which allocates funds to all student publications at the College, he said.

"If Mercury does not meet its own expenses, then there is a good chance that the Committee won't subsidize it," Mr. Sarfaty asserted. "It must sell at least half its issues," he warned.

He added that any publication that is discontinuance the College "has to come up sometime for a day of reckoning."

SANE to sponsor Easter Peace March

By JUDITH MENDEL

A week-long march from a New Jersey Air Force base to the United Nations demonstrating a desire for nuclear disarmament is being endorsed by the College's Committee for SANE. A Nuclear Policy.

The theme of the March is "Peace Through Disarmament," according to Myra Jehlen, Vice-President of the College SANE.

This expresses our whole reason for demonstrating. There can be no greater security against war than the inability of nations to wage it."

We choose McGuire Air Force Base because it is a Roman mid-town base. One of theRemarks Probe last spring's "Red Scare" has shown the danger of having such weapons around," she added.

The March starts this Saturday at 9:30 AM at Wrightstown, New Jersey, where the base is located. It will conclude in a rally at the United Nations on Saturday, April 1. People may join the March at 9 AM near the George Washington Bridge to continue the March to the UN.

SANE will provide free transportation to and from the base. Students may leave the March whenever they wish.

Details of the line of march in New York City will be available at the College SANE chapter at a table in Finley Center all day Friday and next Monday, according to Josefa Klein, President.
Professors Ignore Faculty Dining Rooms
In Labyrinths of Finley and Shepard

By BETSY PILAT

Diners have a choice between "A La Carte or the Special Luncheon." Although the same food prepared in the student cafeteria is served in the Faculty Dining Rooms, there, "A La Carte" is slightly lower priced. "This whole question was discussed by the Building Commission, and a building was proposed which would incorporate a student cafeteria and one faculty dining room. The two Faculty Dining Rooms now existing, I would then eliminate," he stated.

"What is basically needed is one centrally located cafeteria," asserted Mr. Zweifach. "Unfortunately, the new Technology and administration buildings take priority over dining hall construction, and lack of grounds is a further drawback," he said.

"So I see no change in the future," said Mr. Zweifach. "We do with what facilities we're given."

The dining rooms are conveniently equipped with a coat rack and curtained windows.

Faculty Dining Rooms are so centrally located cafeteria, as-seated Mr. Zweifach. "I would prefer self-service operation to try and abolish the committee. "The only effect the petition can have if it can swell into large dissatisfaction."
The Political Science department's decision not to reappoint one of its lecturers, Mr. Norman Rosenberg, allegedly due to the fact that he would not acquire a PhD degree, has raised many important questions.

The questions fall mainly into two categories: the PhD requirement and those concerning the Board of Higher Education (BHE) by-laws regarding tenure, under which the College operates.

"If, for instance, is a good teacher who is unwilling to acquire a PhD refused reappointment? What is the importance of the PhD in relation to a teacher's capabilities in the classroom? Are BHE by-laws just enough to permit discrimination at the discretion of the established rules?"

Before examining the specific case of Mr. Rosenberg, it is necessary to understand the PhD tenure requirement in general. Why is it required for permanent status at the College? It is widely agreed that the possession of a doctorate provides a basis for the achievement of a person's potential in the two important fields of education and scholarship.

President Buell G. Gallagher very expressively summed up the interview Monday, saying that "there is no guarantee that the person who has the PhD is a good teacher, nor does it prove he is necessarily a good research worker."

"Thus the by-laws of the College provides many alternatives to the PhD requirement helpful. Nevertheless, it remains true that the College has the choice to acquire a PhD or an indisposition to acquire it are indices of lack of scholarship.

"It seems to me, therefore, that the PhD is not yet established at CCNY, with its exceptions, is useful and helpful. By and large, it is the best one can do. An education faculty than we would otherwise have.

"Professor Gallagher's position on the PhD requirement is official College policy. The fact that the BHE by-laws and College policy allow exceptions to the general rule has, however, given rise to a college-wide discussion of a particular case.

Mr. Rosenberg came to the College in 1960, with all his requirements toward a PhD degree, except his thesis. According to the acting chairman of the Political Science department, Professor Edgar Johnson, he was given nine months to complete his thesis, during which he expressed the understanding that he would complete his unfinished work. The Political Science lecturer does not at present, however, intend to complete these requirements.

Mr. Rosenberg cites several reasons for his decision not to complete his PhD work.

He says, firstly, that he has not found a topic which suits him. "Why should I put in hours on a research paper when I haven't even the subject I want to work on."

More important, however, he adds to being more interested in teaching than research work. He believes that at the undergraduate level teaching is more important than research work, and that even the original research should not be the most important tenure criterion.

Mr. Rosenberg differentiates between a quantitative and qualitative research paper. "There are many cases where the theses or research papers are merely library assignments, I don't doubt whether anyone, except in the rarest cases, can do a qualitative research paper and still fulfill the obligations to his teaching and his health."

Teacher or Scholar? The next logical question which arises concerns the function of the teacher. Assuming that the College desires and benefits most from a person who is both a scholar and an excellent teacher, it must be considered that this combination is still very rare. What then is the best alternative?

Can the College benefit most from a person who is an excellent teacher or one who is a scholar? Professor Henry A. Villard (Chemistry) believes that the best alternative is to have a person who is both a good teacher and a scholar. He would have to assume he is a scholar and a good teacher.

"It's not good enough for a man at a college to just sit and teach, except in rare cases. A good teacher is a man who is able to add to what he is teaching," Professor Villard says.

"Where would we be in the field of economics if our educators just taught and didn't offer creative contributions? We still wouldn't have any knowledge of business cycles."

Dr. Villard says that the existence of a PhD holder is an exception to the schedule for teachers obligates those teachers to do research.

He says he can't justify anyone with that schedule not doing research. "They wouldn't be earning their salary," he deprecates.

Mr. Rosenberg believes that a teacher's hours are not only spent in the classroom, but also in preparation for the classroom, and that teaching alone is a full-time job. Professor Edgar Johnson believes that the College value of a PhD degree is recognized as a scholar in his field, "that you can't define a teacher or one who is an excellent teacher, I would have to assume he is a scholar and a good teacher."

"It seems to me, "says the professor, who is not a PhD holder himself, but is regarded as a scholar in his field, "that you can't differentiate between a scholar and a good teacher."

Most of the time, he believes, they're one and the same. "If it is widely attested," Professor Johnson said Friday, "that Mr. Rosenberg is a good teacher, I would have to assume he is a scholar and I would retain him.

"He is a good teacher is attended by the head of his own department. "Of course he is a good teacher," says Professor Duchacek, "If he had a PhD or even if he published a PhD's sake," he said.

Professor Duchacek was also able to offer new light on the failure to reappoint Mr. Rosenberg. He said Friday that there are quite a few people in the Political Science department without PhD's. "It would be a lot easier to make an exception if Mr. Rosenberg was the only one [without a PhD]," he said.

This was the first time that an official at the College had indicated that there existed a possibility of Mr. Rosenberg being a victim of circumstance rather than by-laws.

Professor Duchacek agrees that (Continued On Page 4)
Write Makes Might

The faculty tenure system was established at the Municipal College primarily to safeguard the academic freedom of the College's faculty. It is probably true that the system has done its job as well as any could.

Members of the faculty who have been granted tenure undoubtedly feel the sense of job security which is necessary for the unhindered conduct of their classes.

The tenure system could not, of course, insure good teaching in the classroom. It could only attempt to establish an atmosphere which would allow fear-free teaching.

The system could, in addition, only be effective within certain bounds. During the first half of the 1960's many teachers with tenure were still afraid to express themselves in the classroom—afraid, indeed, to touch on controversial issues in the classroom.

And should not, however, be used to condemn the tenure system. The academic institution was simply affected by this period just as many other areas of life were affected.

The tenure system is, in short, an effective, though hardly foolproof method of protecting the academic freedom of certain faculty members.

But what of those faculty members who do not have tenure?

It is the responsibility of the academic community to provide for those teachers, in which these teachers also feel free to conduct their classes in a way most beneficial for their students.

There is, moreover, an obligation to provide a clear, rational means for those teachers to acquire tenure status.

The last method is certainly lacking at the present time. The criteria established by the Board of Higher Education (BHE) is neither clear nor, in the light of present needs, rational.

The Board requires that prospective tenure nominees be judged on the basis of their teaching effectiveness, and their scholarly accomplishments—in this case the possession of a PhD degree, or its equivalent.

In practice, however, the BHE recognizes that in certain cases the professorial accomplishments of a nominee may be of such a nature as to make the PhD requirement unnecessary.

It would, of course, be ideal if every teacher was both excellent in the classroom, and a scholar in his chosen field.

This ideal is, however, not the case.

It would indeed be unfortunate if in our quest for contemporary scholarship we sacrificed the contemporary teaching which will provide the scholars of the future.

Yet this is almost what present policies are leading to. The system must be taken up with proving that there are impossible barriers to tenure.

The case of Mr. Norman Rosenberg is only one example of this short-sighted policy, but certainly a sharply defined one.

Mr. Rosenberg is considered by most—students and faculty alike—as an excellent teacher. There are few who can, in the classroom, match his abilities.

But Mr. Rosenberg believes his province is, at the present time, in the classroom, and not in the library stacks doing research.

Presumably for this reason he has been refused reappointment.

It is difficult to understand why Mr. Rosenberg's admitted classroom excellence does not provide good cause for the waiving of the PhD rule.

Unfortunately, we cannot know the precise reasons for his dismissal. It is possible that questions other than BHE rules and Mr. Rosenberg's capabilities were considered with regard to his reappointment.

If these other questions were considered—for example, his political outlook—then it is possible that the concept of academic freedom was violated. The present system of nomination underlines the violations of the concept, while the tenure system itself upholds the concept.

This is a contradiction we can ill afford. Now is the time for a review of these procedures by those who are most vitally concerned, and this includes students, as well as faculty and administration.

Oxford Professor Will Teach Here

Professor Albert J. Ayer of Oxford University, a celebrated British philosopher, will be teaching at the College next semester.

The visiting professor will conduct a course in "Philosophical Analysis" (Philosophy 243), dealing with the analysis of truth and meaning. "The Analytical pots of this course will be of the philosophical analysis to evaluate the facts and other criteria of society."

Prof. Ayer, whose writings include "The Concept of Truth and Logic," will present his course on Mondays and Wednesdays from 4 to 6:15 PM.

Tenure...

(Continued From Page 3)

teaching should be taken more into consideration in matters such as appointment and non-appointment. Mr. Rosenberg is considered by most—students and faculty alike—as an excellent teacher. There are few who can, in the classroom, match his abilities.

But Mr. Rosenberg believes his province is, at the present time, in the classroom, and not in the library stacks doing research.

Presumably for this reason he has been refused reappointment.

It is difficult to understand why Mr. Rosenberg's admitted classroom excellence does not provide good cause for the waiving of the PhD rule.

Unfortunately, we cannot know the precise reasons for his dismissal. It is possible that questions other than BHE rules and Mr. Rosenberg's capabilities were considered with regard to his reappointment.

If these other questions were considered—for example, his political outlook—then it is possible that the concept of academic freedom was violated. The present system of nomination underlines the violations of the concept, while the tenure system itself upholds the concept.

This is a contradiction we can ill afford. Now is the time for a review of these procedures by those who are most vitally concerned, and this includes students, as well as faculty and administration.

Oxford Professor Will Teach Here

Professor Albert J. Ayer of Oxford University, a celebrated British philosopher, will be teaching at the College next semester.

The visiting professor will conduct a course in "Philosophical Analysis" (Philosophy 243), dealing with the analysis of truth and meaning. "The Analytical pots of this course will be of the philosophical analysis to evaluate the facts and other criteria of society."

Prof. Ayer, whose writings include "The Concept of Truth and Logic," will present his course on Mondays and Wednesdays from 4 to 6:15 PM.

Tenure...

(Continued From Page 3)

teaching should be taken more into consideration in matters such as appointment and non-appointment. Mr. Rosenberg is considered by most—students and faculty alike—as an excellent teacher. There are few who can, in the classroom, match his abilities.

But Mr. Rosenberg believes his province is, at the present time, in the classroom, and not in the library stacks doing research.

Presumably for this reason he has been refused reappointment.

It is difficult to understand why Mr. Rosenberg's admitted classroom excellence does not provide good cause for the waiving of the PhD rule.

Unfortunately, we cannot know the precise reasons for his dismissal. It is possible that questions other than BHE rules and Mr. Rosenberg's capabilities were considered with regard to his reappointment.

If these other questions were considered—for example, his political outlook—then it is possible that the concept of academic freedom was violated. The present system of nomination underlines the violations of the concept, while the tenure system itself upholds the concept.

This is a contradiction we can ill afford. Now is the time for a review of these procedures by those who are most vitally concerned, and this includes students, as well as faculty and administration.

Oxford Professor Will Teach Here

Professor Albert J. Ayer of Oxford University, a celebrated British philosopher, will be teaching at the College next semester.

The visiting professor will conduct a course in "Philosophical Analysis" (Philosophy 243), dealing with the analysis of truth and meaning. "The Analytical pots of this course will be of the philosophical analysis to evaluate the facts and other criteria of society."

Prof. Ayer, whose writings include "The Concept of Truth and Logic," will present his course on Mondays and Wednesdays from 4 to 6:15 PM.

Tenure...

(Continued From Page 3)

teaching should be taken more into consideration in matters such as appointment and non-appointment. Mr. Rosenberg is considered by most—students and faculty alike—as an excellent teacher. There are few who can, in the classroom, match his abilities.

But Mr. Rosenberg believes his province is, at the present time, in the classroom, and not in the library stacks doing research.

Presumably for this reason he has been refused reappointment.

It is difficult to understand why Mr. Rosenberg's admitted classroom excellence does not provide good cause for the waiving of the PhD rule.

Unfortunately, we cannot know the precise reasons for his dismissal. It is possible that questions other than BHE rules and Mr. Rosenberg's capabilities were considered with regard to his reappointment.

If these other questions were considered—for example, his political outlook—then it is possible that the concept of academic freedom was violated. The present system of nomination underlines the violations of the concept, while the tenure system itself upholds the concept.

This is a contradiction we can ill afford. Now is the time for a review of these procedures by those who are most vitally concerned, and this includes students, as well as faculty and administration.

Oxford Professor Will Teach Here

Professor Albert J. Ayer of Oxford University, a celebrated British philosopher, will be teaching at the College next semester.

The visiting professor will conduct a course in "Philosophical Analysis" (Philosophy 243), dealing with the analysis of truth and meaning. "The Analytical pots of this course will be of the philosophical analysis to evaluate the facts and other criteria of society."

Prof. Ayer, whose writings include "The Concept of Truth and Logic," will present his course on Mondays and Wednesdays from 4 to 6:15 PM.

Tenure...

(Continued From Page 3)

teaching should be taken more into consideration in matters such as appointment and non-appointment. Mr. Rosenberg is considered by most—students and faculty alike—as an excellent teacher. There are few who can, in the classroom, match his abilities.

But Mr. Rosenberg believes his province is, at the present time, in the classroom, and not in the library stacks doing research.

Presumably for this reason he has been refused reappointment.

It is difficult to understand why Mr. Rosenberg's admitted classroom excellence does not provide good cause for the waiving of the PhD rule.

Unfortunately, we cannot know the precise reasons for his dismissal. It is possible that questions other than BHE rules and Mr. Rosenberg's capabilities were considered with regard to his reappointment.

If these other questions were considered—for example, his political outlook—then it is possible that the concept of academic freedom was violated. The present system of nomination underlines the violations of the concept, while the tenure system itself upholds the concept.

This is a contradiction we can ill afford. Now is the time for a review of these procedures by those who are most vitally concerned, and this includes students, as well as faculty and administration.
TOTAL RECORDER

(Author of "If I Was A Teen-age Decorator," "The Memo" Loves of Dobie Gillis, etc.)

"LOVE IN REVERSE"

They met. His heart leapt. "I love you," he cried.

"Me, too, hey," she cried.

"Tell me," he cried, "are you a girl of expensive tastes?"

"No, hey," she cried, "I'm a girl of simple tastes."

"Good," he cried, "for my cruel father sends me an allowance barely large enough to support life!"

"Money does not matter to me," she cried. "My tastes are simple, my wants are few. Just take me riding in a long, new, yellow convertible and I am content."

"Simple, my wants are few. Just take me riding in a long, new, yellow convertible and I am content."

"But although bad weather is a deterrent to the Messiah, students' ribbons are not. In a thick Tidnish accent, he, who's 'USA name' is Motte A. Eber, angrily declares 'Hoco-Pocs' marriage and distributes sheafs of his oddly-worded leaflets."

"Behold!" reads one such circular, "... NONE is a member of the Messiah who in a hocus-pocus kind of way got inseminated and pregnant." She is "immaculate only then when she lives an Adamic life," and provided she knows also he knows the existence of Elohim, (the Omnificent Deftor) and that he also loves Elohim—loving All His creatures and

City College Store's 50% OFF RECORD SALE OFF

CAPITOL SHOWS

LIST SALE

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Track Title</th>
<th>List Price</th>
<th>Sale Price</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Fiorello</td>
<td>1.99</td>
<td>1.49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Oklahoma</td>
<td>2.49</td>
<td>1.99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>King And I (soundtrack)</td>
<td>2.99</td>
<td>2.49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mary</td>
<td>2.99</td>
<td>2.49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Can Con</td>
<td>2.49</td>
<td>1.99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bells Are Ringing</td>
<td>2.99</td>
<td>2.49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Umbrella Showers Brown</td>
<td>2.99</td>
<td>2.49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tenderloin</td>
<td>2.99</td>
<td>2.49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Carousel (soundtrack)</td>
<td>2.49</td>
<td>1.99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Tenderloin</td>
<td>2.49</td>
<td>1.99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>GEORGE SHEARING: JAZZ</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Blue Chiffon</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Latin Affair</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Latin Escapade</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Velvet Carpet</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>JONAH JONES:</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>At The Beaches</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I Love You</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mutted Jazz</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Swinging At Cinema</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Swinging On Broadway</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PEGGY LEE: VOCALISTS</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Beauty And The Beat</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Latin A La Lee</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ole A La Lee</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DEAN MARTIN:</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>This Is Martin</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DAKOTA STATON:</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Late Late Show</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Crazy He Calls Me</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dynamic</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Time To Swing</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NAT KING COLE:</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A Place For Us</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ballods Of The Day</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cole Espagnoie</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Friends Are Our Friends The Spirit</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sings For Two In Love</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>FRANK SINATRA:</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Come Dance With Me</td>
<td>4.98</td>
<td>3.98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Come Fly With Me</td>
<td>4.98</td>
<td>3.98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Swing Easy</td>
<td>4.98</td>
<td>3.98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>We Go Along With It</td>
<td>4.98</td>
<td>3.98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Only The Lonely</td>
<td>4.98</td>
<td>3.98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>This Is Sinatra</td>
<td>4.98</td>
<td>3.98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>That Night</td>
<td>4.98</td>
<td>3.98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Where Are You?</td>
<td>4.98</td>
<td>3.98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>That's All For Tonight</td>
<td>4.98</td>
<td>3.98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Swinging Session</td>
<td>4.98</td>
<td>3.98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nice 'n Easy</td>
<td>4.98</td>
<td>3.98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DIME FREIGHT:</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Yes Indeed</td>
<td>4.98</td>
<td>3.98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>FOUR FRESHMAN:</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>In Person</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Latin A La Lee</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Voices And Broze</td>
<td>3.98</td>
<td>3.00</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

LIMITED SUPPLY — FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED!

SON OF THE HUMEGEL - WHERE THERE'S SMOKE, ALL HIS CREATURES APPEAR

Go, on, he asserts, "And here on earth there will be no such things as 'marriage' roles and un- til I, the 'Son of the Humegel' who is also a 'Humegel' myself, will 'Humegelize' some of the 'sons of the-humegels', to make the future generations, all of them, 'humegelized' forever."

A bit frightened by this rash as- sertion, many 'sons of-humegel' were taken aback. "What do you mean, he's going to 'humegelize my girlfriend!" one astonished male asked. "You're dead body!" was the reaction of w second.

But, for the 'sons of the-Humegels' it seems there is some hope, according to the Messiah. In a pink leaflet copyrighted 1960, he describes a series of 'decrelites' things' in which he will fully ex- plain his philosophy. "What can you know about the meaning of the words 'meanting and word'?

What can you know about the 'Gospel' names 'a question' and about the 'question' whether or not when you --- All, in fact, is 'A QUESTION' you 'really know what you are saying even if the Omnificent Teacher did not teach you yet what 'reality' is, and what 'a question' is."

"Them, if I will grant you an appointed place and time to meet me—an appointment with you may try to obtain through the post of- fice, by my USA citizenship name, and address—Motte A. Eber, 555 West 55 Street, NYC, 19, for 'good thing may begin to happen."

"I can't make sense out of the [speeches.]" said Arthur Zuckerman- man declared.

"Utterly incoherent, incomprehensible!" he said. "The kind of messianic conception on a sort of messianic conception of a

THE NEW LEFT MOVEMENT and THE VIEWS of C. WRIGHT MILLS

The first of two talks by C. Wright Mills on "Some Of The Things That Can" be done, the first Monday at 8:30 PM, 116 University Place (off Union Square), Contribution $5.00 Apologies: Militant Labor forum and Young Socialist Alliance.

BACKGROUND

Backward or forward, a line, new experience in canine soars from the makers of Marboro—unlike the adored, king- sized Philip Morris Commander. Welcome aboard!
Club Notes

All clubs will meet tomorrow at 12:30 PM unless otherwise noted.

AICE
Will have Pulitzer Prize winner, Walter E. Miller (Challengers) speak on "How to Write" in Room 106 Harris.

AIUEO
Produce a speaker from Ann Arbor. Speaker on "High-Fidelity Techniques" in Townsend Harris Auditorium at 4:00 PM.

AMERICAN HERMENUTIC SOCIETY
Will discuss "Shakespeare" in Washington, DC during Easter, newspaper, and other important topics in Room 308 Shepard.

AMERICAN ROCKETRY SOCIETY
Will demonstrate the orbital calculation by which a simple rocket engine is derived. In Room 108 Shepard at 12:30 PM.

AIME
Holds an executive meeting from 12 Noon to 12:30 PM in Room 306 Shepard.

AMERICAN ASTRONOMICAL SOCIETY
Meets in Room 110 on 14th Street at 12:30 PM.

AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY
Will present a Latin culture program in Room 04 Finley.

BASSETT CHEMICAL SOCIETY
Will show the film in Denison Hall.

BIOLOGICAL SOCIETY
Presents a color slide show featuring the Albin Vinner Florida Vacation and Field Trip in Room 306 Cohen.

BRITISH SOCIETY
Has Dr. Alfred G. Talli speaking on "Hypnotism and Psychical Research" in Room 204 Mott.

CARROLL BROWN BELLERIC SOCIETY
Holds a very important meeting in Room 121 Wagner at 15:00 PM.

CHESS CLUB
Holds a board meeting in Room 223 Wagner. All officers must attend. The faculty advisor is invited.

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION
Presents the Reverend James Soil speaking on "Rambling" in Room 415 Finley.

CLASS OF '32
Dances plans for Senior Day at 12 Noon in Room 056 Finley. Bring your boards.

CLUB IBEROAMERICANO
Holds its annual Spring Talent Show in Room 156 Finley.

CORE
All members must attend the lecture on South Africa in Room 440 Finley.

DEBATNG SOIETY
Meets in Room 117 Wagner. The tournament committee will make tournament assignments.

DRAMOSC
Meets in Room 415 Finley.

GERMAN SOCIETY
Will present a "Survey of Mediterranean" in Room 0812 Shepard.

GREENBRIER SOCIETY
Holds the final debate between Mr. Herbert E. Okley and Mr. Norman Rosenberg in Townsend Harris Auditorium at 12:15 PM.

HUMANIST DISCUSSION CLUB
Continues the course of Dr. Barry Haynes today at 4:00 PM.

MATHMATICIANS
Holds a noon meeting in Room 101 Harris.

MUSIC COMEDY SOCIETY
Meets on the stage of the Bakery in Room 056 Finley at 12:30 PM. Bring matches.

NAACP
Will hold an important general meeting today at 11:30 AM to 12 PM in Room 056 Finley. Tomorrow NAACP will sponsor a talk on South Africa by the leader of the Pan-African Congress at 12:30 PM in Room 440 Finley.

NEWCOMAN CLUB
Continues the course of Dr. Barry Haynes today at 4:00 PM at the Coliseum.

OBSERVATION POST
The Art of Rachmaninoff
Tchaikovsky; Symphony No. 1
Brahms; Symphony No. 3
Dances
Brahms; Hungarian Dances; Dvorak Slavonic Dances

OBSERVATION POST
The Great Eddy Duchin
Beethoven; Symphony No. 7 (Toscanini)
Rachmaninoff; Concerto No. 2
Mendelssohn; Italian Symphony; Tchaikovsky; Caprice Italien

OBSERVATION POST
Berlioz; Symphony Fantastique
Rossini; Overtures (William Tell)
Mendelssohn; Italian Symphony; Tchaikovsky; Suppe Overtures

OBSERVATION POST
Mendelssohn; Symphony No. 5
Rossini; Overtures (William Tell)
Tchaikovsky; Caprice Italien

OBSERVATION POST
Mendelssohn; Symphony No. 4 (Goldschmann)

OKLAHOMA

RAILROAD CLUB
Discusses hits to be scheduled, at 12 Noon in Room 303 Finley.

SERVICE CLUB
Meet at 12:15 PM in Room 005 Harris.

---

Observed Post

Observe #1:

Question #1: Suppose the government asked for volunteers among college students to pioneer in manning the first space station, would you go if odds for your safe return were 50-50?

Answer:

No.

Observe #2:

Question #2: How many children do you plan to have when you are married?

Answer:

Two.

Observe #3:

Question #3: Should class attendance be optional so long as students pass the exams given in class?

Answer:

No.

Observe #4:

Question #4: When buying cigarettes, which do you usually purchase the soft pack or the box?

Answer:

Soft pack.

---

Special announcements

1. CITY COLLEGE STORE'S Budget Record Sale
   - Mario Lanza, Tony Martin, Fred Astaire
   - Plus Many More

   ONLY $1.60 EACH

   - American Marches
   - Supper Overtures
   - Berlioz; Symphony Fantastique
   - Rossini; Overtures (William Tell)
   - Mendelssohn; Italian Symphony; Tchaikovsky; Caprice Italien
   - Brahms; Hungarian Dances; Dvorak Slavonic Dances
   - Mendelssohn; Symphony No. 3
   - Vivaldi; Four Seasons
   - Tchaikovsky; Concerto No. 1
   - Rachmaninoff; Concerto No. 2
   - Beethoven; Sonatas (Moonlight, Pathetique, Etc.)
   - Brahms; Symphony No. 7 (Toscanini)
   - Mario Lanza; You Do Something To Me
   - The Great Eddy Duchin
   - Tony Martin; Tonight
   - Melodramas; Symphony No. 5; Schubert's Unfinished
   - Haydn; Symphony No. 101 in D (Toscanini)
   - The Art of Rachmaninoff
   - Tchaikovsky; Symphony No. 1
   - Brahms; Symphony No. 3 (Weingartner)
   - Brahms; Symphony 4 (Goldschman)
Basketball...

(Continued From Page 8)

Noor, and Syracuse dropped the to Holman's prodigies with only two games remaining against metropolitan powerhouses Manhattan and NYU.

But Ed Warner took over. He destroyed the Jaspers with timely points didn't catch the Beavers in the tourney's opening round.

The Beavers manhandled North Carolina State in the Eastern Regional finals and weren't the least bit surprised to find out their rivals in the finals. Old "Squeaky" and the boys returned to Garden and squared off against the nation's number-one team, the Bradleys.

But Warner hit on his lucky number two-time All-American Don Loefgran figured to pace an easy first round victory over the unranked Beavers, but Ed Warner gunned up the works with a twenty-six point performance and Holman's boys reached the second round.

Adolph Rupp, the Grandpappy of college mentors, led his Kentucky Wildcats into the NIT on the strength of a rebuilding year. The Wildcats were only ranked third in the country, and mowed the locals of All-Americans Good and Ralph Beard. All that remained were 7-0 Bill Spivey and All-Southeast Conference Guard, Leo Barnstable.

The game was apalling. The Lavender slugged two bad leads and left the Wildcats for dead by nullifying the Southerners. 89-50. Warner hit on his lucky number of twenty-six points for the third consecutive time and the dominating Hamblet contributed twenty.

The Beavers polished off sixth-ranked Duquesne in the semi-finals and squared off against the nation's number-one team, the Bradley Braves. The Beavers favored as All-American, as was the custom in those days, named Gene "Squeaky" Melchiorre.

A 3-2 opening, the dynamic Molchiorre paced the Braves to a 32-27 halftime advantage. But the "squeaky" man fouled out with ten minutes remaining and the Beavers were crowned champions. 69-61.

The Lavender gathered momentum for the NCAA finals which was held at the Garden days later. Dick Schellitzer, Sport Magazine's player of the year, sparked the second-ranked Ohio State contingent in the tournament opening round.

But Schellitzer's twenty-six points didn't catch the Beavers unawares as Holman's five advanced into the second round.

The Beavers battered the unbeatenulers with only two games remaining against the defending champions, were third and the Beavers followed with 19 points. Josue Delgado, who has been the Beaver mainstay all season, scored 56.

The 600-yard run by a comfortable margin over Bruce Morgan of Montclair State. His time of 1:14.6 was substantially slower than his College mark of 1:13.9 set two years ago at the NCAA games. Coach Francisco Castro's forces showed considerable strength in the field events as Vince Hanzich placed second and third in two events. The mammoth junior finished behind Bob Ford of Hofstra in the shot put and returned to show in the 35-pound weight throw.

The Lavender relay aggregations placed fifth in both the mile and two-mile events. The disappointment was noticeable as Coach Castro felt that, after the runners' performance at Madison Square Garden, they should have placed higher.

Paul Lamprinos put his cross-country experience to good use as he placed fourth in the two-mile run, and Bill Hill crossed the finish line third in the 600-yard run.

The CTC competition marked the termination of the indoor track season with some three weeks remaining before the outdoor, campaign. Coach Castro will make good use of the time to round his promising charges into shape and to facilitate their gaining needed experience on the cinder track.

The Lavender victory in the Metropolitan Championships earlier in the campaign and the fine performance of Delgado in the Garden give the normally optimistic Castro reason for sanguinity.

Parriers Eighth

In IFA Contest

Sabreman Ray Fields was the only bright light for the College's fencing team at the Bronx's Concourse Plaza Hotel last Friday and Saturday night. But he wasn't bright enough to bring the Beavers any better than a tie for eighth place in the eleventh Intercollegiate Fencing Association title meet.

Fields won eight of ten bouts in Saturday night's saber competition and advanced to the final round with five of the East's best sabre combatants. Fields fought gamely but placed sixth and lost in the final.

The Lavender swordsmen scored 45 points for the two-night meet to tie with Yale. Actually, the entire meet was a rather close-fought affair with the winner, New York University, scoring 71 points.

NYU's defending champions managed to sweep all three wraps, one sable to their victory. Columbia University was second.

It was in foil that the Lavender had a decided competitive edge. The Beavers posted 17 points for a fifth place finish, just behind NYU and three Ivy League powers, Columbia, Cornell, and Penn.

Get the facts about a career with Con Edison

Con Edison is in the midst of a huge expansion program to serve a constantly growing New York—the world's most dynamic city. In five years we're spending over a billion dollars to build new plants, substations and distribution facilities and to find new and better ways to meet our city's increasing demand for electricity, gas and steam.

Our tremendous growth is increasing the need for creative and ambitious college graduates—in both technical and non-technical fields. In the next fifteen years 750 of the 791 top management positions in the company will fall vacant—mainly through retirement. These important positions will be filled largely by men who join us now. Our carefully planned program for college graduates offers a good starting salary, major assignments at once and rapid advancement.

So why not get all the facts about the many interesting and worthwhile careers Con Edison has to offer...pick up a copy of our booklet "Con Edison—The Right Place To Build Your Future" at the Placement Office and be sure to talk with our interviewer when he comes.

Trackmen Fourth in CTC's;

Delgado Cops 600-yard Run

By PAUL ASEN

The College's trackmen combined a fine individual performance by Josue Delgado with a concerted team effort and placed fourth in the Collegiate Track Conference Championship at Queens last Saturday. The six-team meet was won by Kings Point, whose field total edged Montclair State by less than a point. Central Connecticut, the defending champions, were third and the Beavers followed with 19 points.

Josue Delgado, who has been the Beaver mainstay all season, scored 56 in the 600-yard run by a comfortable margin over Bruce Morgan of Montclair State. His time of 1:14.6 was substantially slower than his College mark of 1:13.9 set two years ago at the NCAA games. Coach Francisco Castro's forces showed considerable strength in the field events as Vince Hanzich placed second and third in two events. The mammoth junior finished behind Bob Ford of Hofstra in the shot put and returned to show in the 35-pound weight throw.

The Lavender relay aggregations placed fifth in both the mile and two-mile events. The disappointment was noticeable as Coach Castro felt that, after the runners' performance at Madison Square Garden, they should have placed higher.

Paul Lamprinos put his cross-country experience to good use as he placed fourth in the two-mile run, and Bill Hill crossed the finish line third in the 600-yard run.

The CTC competition marked the termination of the indoor track season with some three weeks remaining before the outdoor, campaign. Coach Castro will make good use of the time to round his promising charges into shape and to facilitate their gaining needed experience on the cinder track.

The Lavender victory in the Metropolitan Championships earlier in the campaign and the fine performance of Delgado in the Garden give the normally optimistic Castro reason for sanguinity.

Parriers Eighth

In IFA Contest

Sabreman Ray Fields was the only bright light for the College's fencing team at the Bronx's Concourse Plaza Hotel last Friday and Saturday night. But he wasn't bright enough to bring the Beavers any better than a tie for eighth place in the eleventh Intercollegiate Fencing Association title meet.

Fields won eight of ten bouts in Saturday night's saber competition and advanced to the final round with five of the East's best sabre combatants. Fields fought gamely but placed sixth and lost in the final.

The Lavender swordsmen scored 45 points for the two-night meet to tie with Yale. Actually, the entire meet was a rather close-fought affair with the winner, New York University, scoring 71 points.

NYU's defending champions managed to sweep all three wraps, one sable to their victory. Columbia University was second.

It was in foil that the Lavender had a decided competitive edge. The Beavers posted 17 points for a fifth place finish, just behind NYU and three Ivy League powers, Columbia, Cornell, and Penn.
Holman, Polansky View Revival of Scandal
Call to Law for Protection from Gamblers

Polansky Scores Laxity in Law

Dave Polansky was an in¬ conspicuous member of the College's Physical Education department when the 1951 scandal broke. The evening service to basketball here has all been under the influence of the situation that scandal created.

Now with the sport facing its greatest danger period since the early months of 1951, Polansky is ready to do battle with what some turn harsh suggestions. But he doesn't want to see basketball fall under suspicion.

"What basketball now needs is a very strict policing agent—a state society perhaps. Maybe,
something permanent, but nothing un¬ dercover," he remarked. "It should be out in the open, so that every¬ one will know what they're trying to keep quiet. It shouldn't be like the FBI, which works strictly un¬ dercover. But it should get some important things done.

Polansky's experiences with the boys who were implicated in the original scandal have also taught
Dave what significance they may have as living examples.

Floyd Layne, Ed Roman, and Ed Warner, three of the Beavers' greatest stars during the 1949-50 season who have played in the Eastern League for several years,

The Others Say:

Ken Hunter, Columbia (recently dropped from the head basketball coaching job). It's become too easy for the gambling gamblers to do their dirty work now that it wouldn't surprise me if they get into base¬ ball next.

Lou Rossoni, Varsity basketball coach, Manhattan, chairman of the NIT Committee: The District
Attorney's office is handling this case. It's become torture just sitting around waiting for them to say when reached at his Bronx
apartment Monday afternoon.

"What basketball now needs is a very strict policing agent—a state society perhaps. Maybe,
something permanent, but nothing un¬ dercover," he remarked. "It should be out in the open, so that every¬ one will know what they're trying to keep quiet. It shouldn't be like the FBI, which works strictly un¬ dercover. But it should get some important things done.

Polansky's experiences with the boys who were implicated in the original scandal have also taught
Dave what significance they may have as living examples.

Floyd Layne, Ed Roman, and Ed Warner, three of the Beavers' greatest stars during the 1949-50
season who have played in the Eastern League for several years,

The Others Say:

Ken Hunter, Columbia (recently
dropped from the head basketball coaching job). It's become too easy for the gambling gamblers to do their dirty work now that it wouldn't surprise me if they get into base¬ ball next.

Lou Rossoni, Varsity basketball coach, Manhattan, chairman of
the NIT Committee: The District
Attorney's office is handling this case. It's become torture just sitting around waiting for them to say when reached at his Bronx
apartment Monday afternoon.

"What basketball now needs is a very strict policing agent—a state society perhaps. Maybe,
something permanent, but nothing un¬ dercover," he remarked. "It should be out in the open, so that every¬ one will know what they're trying to keep quiet. It shouldn't be like the FBI, which works strictly un¬ dercover. But it should get some important things done.

Polansky's experiences with the boys who were implicated in the original scandal have also taught
Dave what significance they may have as living examples.

Floyd Layne, Ed Roman, and Ed Warner, three of the Beavers' greatest stars during the 1949-50
season who have played in the Eastern League for several years,

The Others Say:

Ken Hunter, Columbia (recently
dropped from the head basketball coaching job). It's become too easy for the gambling gamblers to do their dirty work now that it wouldn't surprise me if they get into base¬ ball next.

Lou Rossoni, Varsity basketball coach, Manhattan, chairman of
the NIT Committee: The District
Attorney's office is handling this case. It's become torture just sitting around waiting for them to say when reached at his Bronx
apartment Monday afternoon.

"What basketball now needs is a very strict policing agent—a state society perhaps. Maybe,
something permanent, but nothing un¬ dercover," he remarked. "It should be out in the open, so that every¬ one will know what they're trying to keep quiet. It shouldn't be like the FBI, which works strictly un¬ dercover. But it should get some important things done.

Polansky's experiences with the boys who were implicated in the original scandal have also taught
Dave what significance they may have as living examples.

Floyd Layne, Ed Roman, and Ed Warner, three of the Beavers' greatest stars during the 1949-50 season who have played in the Eastern League for several years,