Cagers Beat Hunter After Four Years

OPEN SPORTS FETE WITH 69-54 WIN

Breaking a four year losing streak, the College's basketball team beat arch-rival Hunter Saturday, 69-54. The Hawks thus opened Intercollegiate Sports Week to the cheers of a standing room crowd of 1100 students in the Hunter College Gym.

but as the scoreboard clock didn't start the Hawks was equal trouble, as the Beavers went to a 15-3 lead in the opening minutes of play.

Jerry Greenberg led the loop as the Municipal championship with 16 points on 8 fields using his long-distance jump and a lay-up. The Hawks were unexpected help from sophm 8 Freundlich who tallied 14.

The Beavers had complete control of the boards as 6-6 Steve Holden pulled down 14 rebounds of height killed the Hawks the tallest man on the squad, 6-4 Freundlich.

ORE COLLECTS 2000 BOOKS FOR SOUTHERN NEGRO COLLEGE

Two thousand books were donated by students at the two gathered by the College branches of the United Negro College were attack Friday by the newspaper's Associate Editor Sam Eflman.

The special editor-in-chief of the Technology college, Joe Nader, had said that unless enough prospective writers show up for a meeting in Room 207 Shepard at 12 Noon tomorrow the paper would "die."

Eflman denied the staff shortage. He claimed to have five staff members plus a list of ten people desiring to join the newspaper. "Nader and the rest want to perpetuate their paper in their own image or not at all," he charged.

Mell Pfein, former editor-in-chief of the Tech paper, replied, "We have an image of Tech News as a newspaper to cover North Campus. We want it to be Tech News not a school newspaper anymore like Campus and Observation Post."

"ALUMNI FUN" PREMIER

STURDY SONS OF CITY COLLEGE OVERCOME BY FEMALE FRAgiles

The College is $1100 richer thanks to the largesse of the American Cyanamid Company, but lost its first appearance on the TV program "Alumni Fun."

The study sons of City College put three delicate women from Chicago's Mundelein, a Catholic college, during last Friday's taping for the March 3 show. The Mundelein alumnae recorded the first perfect score in topping the College's team, 900-600.

The score was up at 200-200 when the men from City, Stan Lowell, formerly an aide to Mayor Wagner, Milton Halpern, Chief Medical Examiner for New York City, and Robert Stein, editor of Redbook magazine, missed a question on history. They were asked to identify the authors of the following statements: "History is bunk." "We cannot escape history."

"The answers: Henry Ford, Abraham Lin-

Take Hispanic Charge to Court

SPANISH MAJOR HERE DECLARES

Charges of anti-Hispanic discrimination at the College should be tried by a court of law rather than by the accused persons, a student here stated last week.

The suggestion was made by Joel Leffert, a Spanish major and Chairman of the Student Committee for the Creation of a Department of Hispanic Studies at City College.

Leffert said, "any cleverly worded report that omits evidence, and which is designed to confuse and uninstructed and the indefaving cannot solve the real issue."

"Leffert has been a frequent critic of the administration's handling of the Hispanic controversy. In the fall of 1960 he was placed on disciplinary probation for a technical flaw in a Spanish "literary" magazine he published.

The publication contained an article which castigated Professor Gaston Gilv (Chmn., Romans)
Don't Forget

It was gratifying to see the tremendous crowd that rooted the Beaver cagers to victory over our Hunter College rivals Saturday. The next item on the City College Intercollegial Sports Week agenda is the swimming meet against Columbia in Watsag Pool at 4:30 today. Maybe if enough fans show up we can root another metropolitan rival.

Don't forget the weekend either. The College's basketball, fencing, rifle, swimming and wrestling teams all see action — and all will do that much better for a couple of loud allegations.

While we're on the subject of "weeks" our plaudits go to Student Government President Alan Blume for his prescient Academic Freedom Week. As President Buell G. Gallagher said during his TV appearance Thursday, academic freedom must be constantly defended.

37 Here Make 'Who's Who'; Councilmen, OP Editor Listed

Thirty-seven students from the College have been selected for this year's Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Recommendations for the listing were submitted by student and faculty members and are based on academic standing, service rendered to the College, and leadership qualities.

Those selected include Nicholas Alfonterianni, Herb Barkowitz, Ralph Blumenthal, and Edward Brudy.

Others were Tim Brown, Ted Brown, Wendy Chevrier, Daniel Davis and Suzanne Esner.

Howard Glenn, Joel Kamer, Howard Kober, Joseph Lederman and Joseph Nadan will be listed.

Kenneth Lehman, Jayne Bege, Marc Treadway, and Richard Weisbord are also included.

Poor Governor Rockefeller has had a rough week. 700 students from Albany State Teachers College descended on the State Capitol protesting the imposition of tuition fees at the school, an unexpectedly large and resolute group of New Yorkers met to map plans to keep the college tuition-free, a statewide Democratic Party "tax-force" to preserve free higher education was formed and New York's Bar and Restaurant owners rose up in rebellion and threatened the Governor with half a million signatures protesting his move to increase the cost of liquor licenses.

Congress Gets School Aid Bill; Little Hope For Passage Seen

By REBEL OWEN

Anthony Celebreze, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, laid the Administration's single-package school aid bill before Congress last week.

The bill, among other things, would provide for the expansion of the National Defense Education Act and aid to colleges and universities for classrooms, laboratories, libraries, and technical facilities.

In his statement before the House Labor Committee, Celebreze maintained that the colleges and universities would be unable to handle the increasing flood of enrollments without the immediate financial assistance of the Federal Government.

Adam Clayton Powell, chairman of the House Labor Committee, told Secretary Celebreze that there was no chance for passage of a single package bill this year. The Administration's bill will be split into three parts, with that for the universities enacted.

President Kennedy Wants More Federal Aid possibility that one or two will be enacted.

Coach Dave Polansky's seen so many games slip by that he put his top five back in. The well-rested starters sent up a solid barrage of shots and when it was over, they were 177-89 over Adidas. This was the first and last time they were to hold it.

Within the first seven minutes everyone on the starting five had some scoring under their belt. The coach's feeling was a true one as the Lavender grapplers defeated a favored Fairleigh Dickinson squad by a score of 17-13.

Beaver Matmen Defeat FDU; Taylor Regains Winning Form

The last person to get on the bus which was to take the College's wrestling team to Fairleigh Dickinson University last Saturday, was the Coach, Prof. Joe Sapora. With an optimistic glow he turned to the other passengers and bellowed, "I want this one and I feel we're going to get it."

I'm sure the coach's feeling was a true one as the Lavender grapplers defeated a favored Fairleigh Dickinson squad by a score of 17-13. FDU did jump off to an eight-point lead. Harvey Taylor set out to do something about the 8-0 deficit. In one of the closest matches of the season, Taylor outpointed the very tricky Howie Rudolph 3-2.

The Beavers were on the come back trail now and Mark Miller in the 147 pounds, outpointed Charles Wilson 9-8. Chasen fought very well and Coach Sapora later termed this match the decisive battle of the afternoon. In the middleweight bout, Bev- ver All Rydheker claimed his man in roughly five minutes.

With the score standing 14-8 in favor of the Lavender at mid-point, 177-pound Al Fein clinched victory as he masterfully outpointed his FDU opponent 5-2. It was a good win for the College. It was an uphill victory over a favored opponent. It was a happy victory as the face of Coach Sapora induded.

Fordham Wins In Last Event; Mora's Streak Snapped At 5

Wingate Pool was the scene of a tight aquatic battle between the College's swimming team and Fordham, Friday.

Ahead until the last event, thevers finally succumbcd 49-48.

Off to a fast start in the 400 yard medley relay, the matasmen led the next four events. Notable among the losers were the divers Al Carter, who lost to Larry Duf- fy and freestyler Danny Mora.

Mora lost his try in the 50 yard freestyle to Fordham's Bob Perri. the loss broke Mora's winning streak at five, but they were flipped around and beat Perri in the 100 yard freestyle with a time of 58.8.

Going into the final event the Lavernder held a 3 point margin. But the Beavers had moved in on the monstrous effort of their top freestyler Ken Rand. Rand.

Zinkand gained three firsts out of the bag in the freestyle events. Zinkand was unstoppable in the 200 and 400 yard freestyle and the 200 yard medley.

The relay team was composed of Jim Steehler, Gerard Pessis, Ron Gregor, and Bob Wahlecker.

The close score would decide the meets winner on the last event. Konos, Possee, Ma- ra and Hooper took the Beau-
