Lone Republican Attends Reception
Given By Alumni ALBANY, FEB. 25 — A single Republican legislator, an alumnus of the College, turned up at an Alumni Association cocktail party in Albany for which thirty-eight Republican acceptances had been received.

The acceptance had been mailed, prior to the district level campaigning by students from the College.

The lone Republican was Hunter Meighan of Mamaroneck, Nineteen Democrats attended, headed by Senator Joseph F. Zaretski and Stevie Abrams, both from Manhattan.

The legislators, and members of the Alumni Association's Albany Chapter Board Association President Max Greenberg declare "A college education is just as nec­

(SG Referendum, Allocations
To Be Considered By Council)

By GENE SHERMAN

Student Council will consider tonight a popular referencuum at the coming special Student Government elections. The electorate decided the ballot in the coming special Student Government elections.

Council will also consider a request from the Inter-Prereatry Council (IFC) to allocate additional funds for the Greek Letter, IFC's newspaper. IFC has asked an allocation of $225 for eight page issue and $110 for four pages.

Treasury produced by the referenduum, however, in that a similar measure was put before the student body last semester in the regular school-wide elections. The electorate decide, then on full-year terms for all executive officers.

Chairman of the SG Internal Ar­ chairs Committee, Jim Balsew, noted that less than 25% students usually participate in "special ballots, as compared with a turn­ cut of over 2,000 for regular elections. He explained that there are fewer people to vote on this than that the proposed referendum is
"substantively identical to last year's." The new referendum was proposed by Stan Lowenthal at the First Executive Committee meeting of the term and was referred to both the Internal Affairs Committee and Executive Committee for further consideration. Both committees will report it out with the National Guard's re­ usual of handling the transfer of its 25th Street army to the Baruch School.

The Baruch School's expansion plans may be stymied for some time to come by the City's earmarking of four State National Guard armories for commercial and housing use, posing Student Government Vice-President Daniel Katkin, the leader of the barnstorming trip. "New students are proving not only that they can exert pressure, but that they are capable of exerting it at any point within the State." Katkin made the trip last week.

SG Referendum, Allocations
To Be Considered By Council

By GENE SHERMAN

Student Council will consider tonight a popular referen­
cuum at the coming special
Student Government elections. The electorate decided the ballot in the coming special
Student Government elections.

Council will also consider a request from the Inter-Prereatry
Council (IFC) to allocate additional funds for the Greek Letter, IFC's newspaper. IFC has asked
an allocation of $225 for eight
page issue and $110 for four pages.

Treasury produced by the referenduum, however, in that a similar measure was put before the student body last semester in the regular school-wide
elections. The electorate decide,
then on full-year terms for all
executive officers.

Chairman of the SG Internal Ar­
chairs Committee, Jim Balsew, noted that less than 25% students
usually participate in "special
ballots, as compared with a turn­
cut of over 2,000 for regular elections. He explained that there are
fewer people to vote on this than
that the proposed referendum is
"substantively identical to last year's." The new referendum was proposed by Stan Lowenthal at the First Executive Committee meeting
of the term and was referred to
both the Internal Affairs Committee and Executive Committee
for further consideration. Both committees will report it out with
the National Guard's re­
usual of handling the transfer of its 25th Street
army to the Baruch School.

The Baruch School's expansion plans may be stymied for some time to come by the City's earmarking of four State National Guard armories for commercial and housing use, posing Student Government Vice-President Daniel Katkin, the leader
of the barnstorming trip. "New
students are proving not only that they can exert pressure, but that they are capable of exerting it at any point within the State." Katkin
made the trip last week.

(SG Referendum, Allocations
To Be Considered By Council)

By GENE SHERMAN

Student Council will consider tonight a popular referen­
cuum at the coming special
Student Government elections. The electorate decided the ballot in the coming special
Student Government elections.

Council will also consider a request from the Inter-Prereatry
Council (IFC) to allocate additional funds for the Greek Letter, IFC's newspaper. IFC has asked
an allocation of $225 for eight
page issue and $110 for four pages.

Treasury produced by the referenduum, however, in that a similar measure was put before the student body last semester in the regular school-wide
elections. The electorate decide,
then on full-year terms for all
executive officers.

Chairman of the SG Internal Ar­
chairs Committee, Jim Balsew, noted that less than 25% students
usually participate in "special
ballots, as compared with a turn­
cut of over 2,000 for regular elections. He explained that there are
fewer people to vote on this than
that the proposed referendum is
"substantively identical to last year's." The new referendum was proposed by Stan Lowenthal at the First Executive Committee meeting
of the term and was referred to
both the Internal Affairs Committee and Executive Committee
for further consideration. Both committees will report it out with
the National Guard's re­
usual of handling the transfer of its 25th Street
army to the Baruch School.

The Baruch School's expansion plans may be stymied for some time to come by the City's earmarking of four State National Guard armories for commercial and housing use, posing Student Government Vice-President Daniel Katkin, the leader
of the barnstorming trip. "New
students are proving not only that they can exert pressure, but that they are capable of exerting it at any point within the State." Katkin
made the trip last week.

(SG Referendum, Allocations
To Be Considered By Council)

By GENE SHERMAN

Student Council will consider tonight a popular referen­
cuum at the coming special
Student Government elections. The electorate decided the ballot in the coming special
Student Government elections.

Council will also consider a request from the Inter-Prereatry
Council (IFC) to allocate additional funds for the Greek Letter, IFC's newspaper. IFC has asked
an allocation of $225 for eight
page issue and $110 for four pages.

Treasury produced by the referenduum, however, in that a similar measure was put before the student body last semester in the regular school-wide
elections. The electorate decide,
then on full-year terms for all
executive officers.

Chairman of the SG Internal Ar­
chairs Committee, Jim Balsew, noted that less than 25% students
usually participate in "special
ballots, as compared with a turn­
cut of over 2,000 for regular elections. He explained that there are
fewer people to vote on this than
that the proposed referendum is
"substantively identical to last year's." The new referendum was proposed by Stan Lowenthal at the First Executive Committee meeting
of the term and was referred to
both the Internal Affairs Committee and Executive Committee
for further consideration. Both committees will report it out with
the National Guard's re­
usual of handling the transfer of its 25th Street
army to the Baruch School.

The Baruch School's expansion plans may be stymied for some time to come by the City's earmarking of four State National Guard armories for commercial and housing use, posing Student Government Vice-President Daniel Katkin, the leader
of the barnstorming trip. "New
students are proving not only that they can exert pressure, but that they are capable of exerting it at any point within the State." Katkin
made the trip last week.

(SG Referendum, Allocations
To Be Considered By Council)

By GENE SHERMAN

Student Council will consider tonight a popular referen­
cuum at the coming special
Student Government elections. The electorate decided the ballot in the coming special
Student Government elections.

Council will also consider a request from the Inter-Prereatry
Council (IFC) to allocate additional funds for the Greek Letter, IFC's newspaper. IFC has asked
an allocation of $225 for eight
page issue and $110 for four pages.

Treasury produced by the referenduum, however, in that a similar measure was put before the student body last semester in the regular school-wide
elections. The electorate decide,
then on full-year terms for all
executive officers.

Chairman of the SG Internal Ar­
chairs Committee, Jim Balsew, noted that less than 25% students
usually participate in "special
ballots, as compared with a turn­
cut of over 2,000 for regular elections. He explained that there are
fewer people to vote on this than
that the proposed referendum is
"substantively identical to last year's." The new referendum was proposed by Stan Lowenthal at the First Executive Committee meeting
of the term and was referred to
both the Internal Affairs Committee and Executive Committee
for further consideration. Both committees will report it out with
the National Guard's re­
usual of handling the transfer of its 25th Street
army to the Baruch School.

The Baruch School's expansion plans may be stymied for some time to come by the City's earmarking of four State National Guard armories for commercial and housing use, posing Student Government Vice-President Daniel Katkin, the leader
of the barnstorming trip. "New
students are proving not only that they can exert pressure, but that they are capable of exerting it at any point within the State." Katkin
made the trip last week.

(SG Referendum, Allocations
To Be Considered By Council)

By GENE SHERMAN

Student Council will consider tonight a popular referen­
cuum at the coming special
Student Government elections. The electorate decidd Theory and Practice

The spirit of the recommendations made in the long-awaited Report on Student Personnel Files is indeed fine. The efforts of the Ad-hoc Committee to extract from the College any barriers to academic freedom appear sincere. When the issue is reduced to its crux, however, it becomes clear that strict adherence to both the theory and practice of the General Faculty regulations will prove difficult. The committee is naive to think that the Federal Bureau of Investigation will stop in its tracks when confronted with a sheet of micrographed rules.

The entire issue of the FBI, the original motivation behind the committee's formation, has, in fact, been skimmed over rather lightly. The report notes that "Dean peace does not have occasion to consult one of the chief administrative members necessary for chartering. This method seems to have one of the proposals reconsidered in the upcoming special elections which will fill Student Council vacancies."

No comment is made in the report on the Marxist Discussion Club's charges that it was "clear from the questions asked of all the students that information about their attendance at Ad-hoc Committee meetings and opinions obtained from spies at the meetings," that "agents working [at] Donoso indicated that Dean Peace had told them that Mr. Donoso had attended MDC and other political club meetings," or that students called by the FBI were "asked to be come paid spies and give names of students who attend certain club meetings at City." The report's omission indicates at least two things: that these allegations are true and would be preferable to be forgotten, or that the FBI statement was not believed. No mention is made of testimony to the Ad-hoc body by three of the students called other than the fact that they did appear. Their charges seem too serious to dismiss by dint of silence.

Considering the uneasy ability of the FBI to get the facts they desire, it seems obvious that the only way to restrict their access to membership cards of student organizations is not to have any cards at all. It is for this reason that we previously supported Student Council's recommendation, and reaffirm that stand now. The revision suggested by GC was that: "No indication of an individual's membership in any organization be filed in a student's personnel folder." Under this desirable system, only the four officers would be required to give their names to the DSL, while the club's general advisor would attest to the existence of the additional members necessary for chartering. This method seems to deal with the problem in terms suited to its characteristics.

It would be delightful if we were now able to sit back and smugly consider ourselves safe within the ivy walls of academia. The FBI, however, has been here before and probably returns. One can only hope that strict observation of the Committee's well-meaning recommendations will hinder their efforts.

Hundreds Of Thousands

Two or three hundred students usually vote in special SG elections. Two or three thousand students usually vote in regular SG elections.

Better than 2300 voters passed a SG reorganization plan last December; now Councilman Stan Lohewiant wants to have one of the proposals reconsidered in the upcoming special elections which will fill Student Council vacancies.

Need we say more?

---

EVOL SPELLED BACKWARDS IS LOVE

They met. His heart leapt. "I love you!" he cried.

"Me too, hey?" she cried.

"No, hey," she cried. "I am a girl of simple tastes."

"Good," he cried, "for my earl father sends me an allowance barely large enough to support life."

"My tastes are simple; my wants are few. Just take me riding in a long, new, yellow convertible and I am content."

He knew he must forget this girl, but lying on his pallet at the dormitory, whispering and moaning, he knew he could not.

At last an idea came to him: though he did not have the money to buy a convertible, perhaps he could rent one! Hope reborn, he rushed on his little stumpy leg (curious to tell, he was six feet tall, but all his life he suffered from little stumpy leg) he rushed, he said, to an automobile rental company and rented a yellow convertible for $10 down plus ten cents a mile. Then, with many a laugh and cheer, he drove away to pick up the girl.

"Oh, bully!" she cried when she saw the car. "This suits my simple tastes to a T. Come, let us speed over rolling highways and through rocky clumps."

Away they drove. All that day and night they drove and finally, tired but happy, they parked high on a wind-swept hill.

"Marlboro," he said.

"Yum, yum," she said.

They lit their Marlboros. They smoked with deep contentment. "You know," he said, "you are like a Marlboro-clean and fresh and singing.

"Yes, I am clean and fresh and relaxing," she admitted.

(Continued from Page 3)

Club Notes

(Continued from Page 1) negative recommendations at tonight's Council meeting.

Baltaxe argued that the new referendum would "block the implementation of the students' desires in last year's referendum" and "confuse the issue of general presidential renewal."

Councll..." (Continued from Page 1)

Postnotcs...

* The Meaning of Maaanx will be read only after serious consideration of the chances of its acceptance.

* Seniors must pay for the forthcoming by February 25 in Room 207 Finley. Please see also "Cigarettes goad as they are, should not be smoked backwards. We, the makers of Marlboro, earnestly urge you to light only to the tobacco end. Otherwise your smoking pleasure will be substantially diminished.

On Campus with Max Shimelon (Author of "Rally Round the Flag, Boys!" and "Barrymores With Cheek.")

"We have driven 200 miles, and this car eats ten cents a mile, and I have only $20 left."

"That is easily enough, she said.

"Yes, it is, but we still have to drive home."

"Oh," she said. They fell into a profound gloom. He started the motor and backed out of the parking place.

"Hey, look," she cried. "The speedometer doesn't move when you are backing up."

He looked. It was true. "Eureka!" he cried. "That solves my problem. I will drive home in reverse. Then no more miles will register on the speedometer and I will have enough money to pay!"

"I think that is a smashhig idea," she said, and she was right. Because in their car is the only toilet which food, lodging, and housing are provided for free charge, and his allowance is piling up so fast that in two or three years he will have enough money to take a girl for dates again.
Reception ... (Continued from page 1) sary today as a high school or grammar school education was."

The Democratic legislators in general agreement that the di-test campaign sponsored by Student Government were the most effective methods of influencing the Legislature.

Republicinc legislators held a collection today at which it was rumored the tickets had been discussed. Any conclusions reached were not made public.

Armory ... (Continued from Page 1)

Business Society

At first she brings the last drop of Paradise. As it is willing to forfe.

it the guarantee for the use of the facilities. If the City sold the ground or demolished the falilies, the $6 million would go to the State to build a new armory.

This, in effect, leaves the City free to use the buildings and grounds for "whatever it sees fit," as it is willing to forfeit the guarantee.

New Paltz ... (Continued from Page 1)

To vote for the discharge of the free tuition mandate from committee to vote for the disburse.

ment to the Assembly bill mandat.

ing free tuition. The bill applies to both City and State Universities.

The group also received promises of support from Pat Serra, the student government president at Albany State Teachers College.

Seven colleges of the State University have sent telegrams to the Assemblyman urging him to vote for the discharge of the free tuition mandate from committee in Albany on Thursday.

The telegrams were sent in response to a Student Government request that the update college support the anti-tuition struggle.

The success of the movement "depends on their support," said

Assemblyman Driscoll.

The Brothers of

ZETA BETA TAU

invite you to a

RUSH - HOOTENAN Y

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 8:00 PM 16 HAMILTON TERRACE

(refreshments - folksinging - fun bring your guitar.

The Chorus & Orchestra to Play A Forgotten Schumann Work

The College's chorus under the direction of Frits Jahoda (Music), will have a performance of an infrequently heard Schuman work.

The first complete New York performance in more than half a century of Schumann's "Das Paradies Und Die Peri" will be presented by the College's chorus and orchestra this weekend.

The choral work, composed of Schumann's major compositions, was last given in this city by the New York Oratorio Society in 1910.

No commercial recording of the work is available.

Based on the English romance, "Taliesin Rook," by Thomas Moore, the work tells of the Peri's struggle to be re-admitted to Paradise.

The angel who guards the gate requests the Peri to seek "the gift that is most dear to Heaven."

At first she brings the last drop of a hero's blood shed for liberty and then the last sigh of a lover who has sacrificed life for his beloved. These gifts are rejected as insufficient.

Finally, the Peri offers the first

For information: See RICHARD COE.
Blackbirds Nibble Beavers, 56-44: Grant And J’son Can’t Be Stuffed

By HARVEY WEINBERG

With a brand new gym floor in Brooklyn's old Paramount Theater as the background, the College's basketball team dropped its eighth decision of the season against seven victories to the Long Island University Blackbirds, 56-44.

Spearheaded by its superstars Albie Grant and Ed Johnson, the Birds flew to a quick 23-2 lead before the Lavender could corral a field goal.

But the Beavers are a proud team and could not take the defeat lying down. Two quick jumpers by Alex Blatt and a three-pointer by Ira Smolow put the Lavender back in the game.

Then Bob Kleinman, who replaced Steve Golden at the center slot for the Lavender, began to click. He scored six beautiful points mostly on fighting follow-up shots over the fantastically strong Grant and equalized the game after scoring with solid defense and great rebounding.

The Beavers drew within one point of LIU with Alex Blatt’s jumper with 2:25 left to play in the half but the Blackbirds managed to put the score at 27-27 at the intermission.

With the second half began, the Lavender offense consisted of Ira Smolow. The burly forward scored the Lavender’s first thirteen points and was the only reason that the intermission.

The last time Mishkin was the Lavender coach for a full season, the Beavers won the league championship — and left the same day at six o’clock. It won’t be long before the warm breezes of spring blow down Convent Avenue.

If you happen to enter Goethals Gym any time around 5 PM, you can see the coming of spring in the flash. Actually it has been brewing for some three weeks already as the College's basketball team is that far progressed in its annual spring training session.

The season will not begin until after the Easter vacation and Coach Sol Mishkin has his boys hard at work. "We have a good team," the coach said the other day. Mishkin said that the Beaver diamond crew should be sound in every area. The one doubt is pitching but the Lavender coach expressed optimism about his mound crew.

Mishkin also said that the ambition of the squad is to look good in the tough Metropolitan Basketball Conference. "We will be playing the tough, scholarship schools that make up the league," the Beaver coach remarked.

Diamondmen Work Out In Goethals

The Intercfraternity Council can't finish its football tournament because there is covering Jasper Oval. The south campus lawn is "unusable" because of the same tree and it's still cold as the food in the cafeteria when you get up in the morning for your 8 A.M. class — and leave the same gum in the sport of their choice. The player on the left has a picture such as the above, and then move rapidly away lest you terfe with play?

If you wish to be in on all the action, why not drop by to Observation Post office in Room 306 Finley, or come to candidate classes in 311 Downer during the Club period on Thursdays. Just for our sports editor ... mad Ivan.

IT'S THAT TIME AGAIN:

ABOUT THE SENIOR CLASS ESSAY CONTEST — "My Four Years At City College."