PROFESSOR JOHN J. McNULTY.

1891
2000

Prof. McNulty

HE sad details connected with the death of Professor McNulty are by this time too well known to require repetition.

Professor McNulty was born forty-nine years ago in the section of the city known as Greenwich Village and lived there all his life. He graduated from the college in 1881, receiving the degree of B.S. He continued his studies at Columbia and New York University, receiving from the former his M.A. and from the latter his M.S. and Ph.D.

In 1890 Professor McNulty was appointed a tutor in the Department of Moral and Intellectual Philosophy, and only five years afterward became head of the department.

Professor McNulty was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Gamma Delta. He was a member of the American Economic Association, the American Academy of Political and Social Science, the Statistical Association, the American Dialect Society, the New York Academy of Political Science, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Psychological Association and the American Philosophical Association.

At 9.07 on Monday morning the faculty and student body of the College assembled in the Great Hall to do honor to the memory of our late Professor of Philosophy, Dr. John J. McNulty. President Finley addressed the assembly and recalled the many excellent services rendered to the College by Professor McNulty. The resolutions, which will be found on page 8, and which were sent to Mrs. McNulty, were then read by Professor Mott. After this reading a selection was given by Prof. Baldwin, after which many members of the faculty and students proceeded down town to Prof. McNulty's funeral.

Mr. Oscar S. Straus, secretary of the Department of Commerce and Labor, will be the special representative of President Roosevelt, and will bring a message of greeting to the College from the President.

The Y. M. C. A. Social

On last Friday afternoon the City College Y. M. C. A. held its second informal social affair in the Faculty reading room. Among those present were the patronesses, Mrs. John Husten Finley, Mrs. Charles Baskerville, Mrs. Gustave Le Gras, Mrs. Stephen Duggan and Mrs. Herbert R. Moody. Besides members of the Faculty attended and friends of the society.

The speakers of the day introduced by Mr. Krumwiede, '09, were Mr. Hogan, of Yale, former football captain; Mr. Norman Tooker, of Princeton, football end, and Mr. W. H. Tinker, of Amherst, former first baseman. Mr. Hogan gave a plain and simple talk on the Northfield Conference, the yearly meeting place of the collegiate branches of the Y. M. C. A., and withal his humorous explanation of his conversion and his boon companions', it was felt that he spoke "straight from the shoulder." Mr. Tooker emphasized the fact that a man going to that conference "brought something for the other fellow to take and secured something in return," the basis of sociability. Mr. Tinker then summarized what the other speakers had said, not forgetting to mention as a benefit the spirit imparted by mingling with one's fellow-men, so difficult to explain, yet so easily felt.

Mr. Krumwiede, having urged that C. C. N. Y. be represented at the Northfield Conference, sprang a surprise, yet a pleasant one, when he presented in the name of the society a medal to Mr. John Sickels, '08, out of gratitude for his work. Mr. Sickels, in his usual modest way, thanked him.

After these brief addresses refreshments were served, and when the affair finally came to an end all departed feeling that they had spent a pleasant afternoon.

The Association of Colleges and Universities of the State of New York will hold its annual meeting in the Great Hall on May 15th and 16th. A representative of every college and university in the State will be present.

C. C. N. Y. 36 1-2; Pratt Institute, 62 1-2

Last Saturday our track team suffered an unexpected defeat at the hands of Pratt Institute by the score of 62½ points to 36½. We do not like to assume the attitude of "sore heads," but it is our opinion that if we should meet Pratt again the tables would be turned completely. Larkin, Winderman, Feigus and more of our men whom we relied upon did not make their appearance. Pratt did not act in the manner which would be expected from a collegiate institution. They refused to allow us to run men whom we had sent as entries, but whose names they had, intentionally or accidentally, left off the three copies of the programme which were visible on the field. They also substituted an official other than had been agreed upon and who favored them considerably. The most interesting event was the two-mile run, which was won by Schaffer after a most heartrending race. The following are the summaries:

100-yard Dash—Final heat won by E. C. Dunlap, Pratt Institute; F. Mullen, C. C. N. Y., second, and J. Gaffney, C. C. N. Y., third. Time, 11 3-5s.

50-yard High Hurdles—Final heat won by N. G. Anderson, Pratt Institute; J. Consantine, Pratt Institute, second; J. Gaffney, C. C. N. Y., third. Time, 7 1-5s.

One-mile Run—Won by J. O. Swanson, Pratt Institute; M. Stander, C. C. N. Y., second; A. R. Johnson, C. C. N. Y., third. Time, 4m. 52 2-5s.

220-yard Dash—Won by E. C. Dunham, Pratt Institute; E. Johnson, Pratt Institute, second; E. Coyle, C. C. N. Y., third. Time, 25 1-5s.

Two-mile Run—Won by A. M. Schaffer, C. C. N. Y.; K. Horton, Pratt Institute, second; A. J. Rosenberg, C. C. N. Y., third. Time, 11m. 18s.

440-Yard Run—Won by E. Coyie, C. C. N. Y.; F. Mullen, C. C. N. Y., second; N. G. Anderson, Pratt Institute, third. Time, 56 1-5s.

16-pound Shot Put—Won by J. Flannery, Pratt Institute, with a put of 33 ft. 6 in.; P. Schultz, C. C. N. Y., second, with 20 ft. 6 in.; N. Fleming, Pratt Institute, third, with 5 ft. 1 in.

880-yard Run—Won by J. Constantine, Pratt Institute; L. Weissman, C. C. N. Y., second. F. Stingle, Pratt Institute, third. Time, 2m. 11 3-5s.

Running Broad Jump—Won by R. Harris, Pratt Institute, with a jump of 19 ft. 10½ in.; F. Lattimore, C. C. N. Y., second, with 19 ft. 3 in.; E. Harris, Pratt Institute, third, with 18 ft. 8 in.

Pole Vault—Won by C. H. Fleming, Pratt Institute, with a vault of 9 ft. 6 in.; F. B. Rogers, Pratt Institute, second, with 9 ft. 3 in.; E. Juna, C. C. N. Y., third, with 9 ft.

C. C. N. Y. 3; Stevens, 1

Revenge! We have met the enemy on their own grounds and defeated them. With the memory of our defeat at the hands of Stevens on April 1st, our team met the 'Stute men again on April 27, and "trimmed" them to the tune of 3 to 1. The game was a cracker-jack from beginning to end and showed that our team can deliver the goods.

In the first inning, after Streusand had singled and with two men out, Rosenblum walked and they scored on Dub's long fly, which was dropped by the center fielder. After two were out in the fourth inning Scoppa singled and scored on De Luca's long drive for three bases. With none out in the ninth inning, a man on second and the Stevens' rooters trying to rattle Streusand, the latter pitched six strikes in succession, striking out two men, squelching the Hobokonites.

The feature of the game was the pitching of both twirlers, Streusand and Sturgis.

Score by innings:

C. C. N. Y.2	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0-3

On Wednesday our team played a practice game with the nine from New York Dental College. Score by innings:

C. C. N. Y.0	3	0	2	2	*-7
N. Y. D. C.0	0	0	0	1	0-1

C. C. N. Y. 4; N. Y. U., 10

After such good work on Monday the team somehow or other played loosely Wednesday in the game with N. Y. U. The main feature of the day was "Tommy" with some husky-voiced rooters urging the team on with might and main. As for the game itself nothing much can be said, except that the umpire, as is said in common parlance, "smelled," as he killed any chance that our team had to win, by his rank decisions. As for the N. Y. U. team it had some good sluggers, and this fact coupled with some costly bumbles on our part gave the "habitual strikers" the game.

Score by innings:

C. C. N. Y.	0	0	0	0	0	4	0	0	0	—	4
N. Y. U.	3	1	2	1	2	0	0	1	*	—	10

This afternoon we play Columbia. Let every man turn out for the game, which is to be played at American League Park, and root for our team. Tickets will be 25 cents each. Show your loyalty to our nine and turn out strong. Don't forget!

In the baseball game with Pratt on Saturday afternoon we made up for the defeat of the morning by winning 2 to 1. Our team played an excellent fielding game, and this, coupled with Lowenthal's fine twirling, earned for us the victory. Score by innings:

	R.	H.	E.

The events for the athletic portion of the students' dedication exercises for May 14 have been decided upon. These will consist of a baseball and a lacrosse game between the Alumni and Varsity teams. Permission has been obtained to exclude the public from Jasper Field for the day, so that admission may be charged. All those who have baseball lapel tickets will be admitted free; all others will have to pay 50 cents a ticket. The north stand will be reserved for the students and the west stand for the Alumni. Ladies will be admitted free.

The Faculty Resolution

Print herewith the Faculty resolution passed last Monday morning, which we are sure expressed not only the feeling of the Faculty, but of the students as well, and in fact of every one who ever knew Professor McNulty:

"The sudden death of Professor John J. McNulty under peculiarly sad circumstances comes as a great shock to his colleagues of the Faculty of the College of the City of New York. He was a man of fearless and vigorous personality, of high integrity both of character and intellect, a tireless worker, a devoted teacher, a widely read scholar, and an ardent lover of books. His firmly held views, his skill in argument, and his broad and exact learning in many departments gave him a prominent place in the deliberations both of the Faculty and of the associations of scholars which he attended; while his kindness, his humor, and his frank and hearty manner endeared him to pupils, friends and fellow teachers alike. The variety of his interests was unusual, and yet thoroughness was one of his prominent characteristics. Always prompt at the call of duty and tenacious to the end, he demanded of his students the same promptitude and tenacity of which he was so conspicuous an example. His death will be felt, not only as a personal bereavement, but as a grievous loss to the College."

To-morrow the College Quarterly will be ready for sale to the students. The new issue will contain the usual quota of interesting articles and notes. All those who are unable to secure the Quarterly from the regular student salesmen may obtain copies from Mr. Green, Room 206, T. H. H.

The Political Science Department Reference Library has recently received over fifty additional volumes from the United States Department of Labor, and a score of other valuable special government publications, sent to it through the courtesy of Congressman William S. Bennett.

Tomorrow evening at Mendelssohn Hall Mr. Stodola, of the President's office, will play two piano compositions at the concert in aid of the Hotel Farm—the F sharp Romanza of Schumann and the Finale of the E flat Concerto of Beethoven. In the latter he will be assisted by an orchestra from the New York Philharmonic Society.

More than sixty students of the Upper Freshmen class still have entrance conditions standing, and twenty Upper Sophomores have not yet acquired all their Freshman counts. We should like to call to the attention of these students to the Faculty rule that no student shall be enrolled as a Sophomore until he has removed all entrance conditions, nor as a Junior until he has acquired all his Freshman credits. It would, in fact, be well, for every student who has the slightest doubt as to whether or not he has a condition in a subject, to see Professor Brownson and have his record looked up.

T. H. H., 9; Stuyvesant, 14

As a result of the hard practice, through which they had been put during the previous week, the baseball team showed a great improvement in the Stuyvesant game which was played on Saturday. The result was never sure until the very end of the game, and the shadow cast by the Commerce game was partly removed.

Stuyvesant owes her victory to the six runs scored in the first two innings before the team had settled itself. We then took a brace and made matters lively for the rest of the game. Fleck, a new player, was indisputably the star of the game, for he made two runs, by a home run and a three-bagger, and brought in four others. Doodensing, a newly discovered pitcher, although not as good as Gerstel, managed to fool the Stuyvesant men rather well. Miller, also an addition, played a good game.

The score by innings:

T. H. H.....	2	4	0	2	0	2	0	4	0—14
Stuyvesant	0	0	2	1	3	0	3	0	0—9

The annual basketball tournament of the P. S. A. L. is in danger of being dropped from the list of P. S. A. L. sports. At a recent meeting of the High School Games Committee it was decided to ascertain from the coaches the advisability of continuing high school basketball next year and ask for suggestions that would assist in making the game cleaner and fairer.

Last Saturday DeWitt Clinton defeated T. H. H. in tennis by 3½ to 1½ matches. The summary: Gottlieb defeated Slater, T. H. H., 6-0, 6-2; Winkler defeated Sternberg, T. H. H., 11-9, 6-0; Gottlieb defeated Sternberg, T. H. H., 6-0, 6-1; Lieberwitz and Schlesinger, T. H. H., defeated Bernstein and Sabel, 6-3, 6-3; Winkler vs. Slater, 8-8, unfinished.

The T. H. H. lacrosse team was defeated on Saturday by the Columbia Freshman team by the close score of 4-0. The team played well considering the roughness of the game. The Columbia team behaved in a very sportsmanlike manner.

For the first time in twenty years the Class of 1868 held a reunion dinner at the Hotel Astor last Wednesday evening. Fourteen members of the class from far and wide who had graduated from the College, four members who had left the class before 1868 and Professors Werner and Compton, who had been two of the instructors of the class, were present. There were numerous speeches and songs. Professor Sims spoke upon the work that the College was now doing. Those present had such a good time that it was decided to hold hereafter a reunion every year.

On May 16th the class of 1858 will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of its graduation from the college, in the new buildings.
