In Honor of Cleveland.

MEMORIAL exercises in honor of Grover Cleveland will be held in our Great Hall on the evening of March 18th. President Taft is to be among the large number of distinguished men who will attend. Governor Hughes, Senator Root and Judge Gray will speak on tribute to the memory of Cleveland and Mayor McClellan will act as presiding officers. The music will rival that rendered at our Lincoln Centennial Exercise last month. There is to be instrumental music by the Philharmonic Orchestra and vocal music by the United Singers of New York. Mme. Rider Kelsey will render a solo.

Besides these public exercises in the Great Hall, the Student Council has under consideration plans for a special meeting of the student body in the Hall below. It is expected that President Taft, who will not address the public gathering in the Great Hall, may say a few words to the students. Brief addresses may also be delivered by some of the speakers of the evening and by some of the students themselves. In this way, the college will have an opportunity to join as a body in the tribute to Grover Cleveland.

TO-DAY.

At 1 P. M. to-day the entire Student Body will assemble in the Great Hall. A matter of special interest will be presented. It is expected that Mr. Everett P. Wheeler will be one of the speakers. President Finley is to preside.

Senior Society.

A most cordial invitation is extended to all Seniors to be present at a social gathering to be held to-day at 3.00 P. M. in the Faculty Reception Rooms. It is the intention of the Society to hold at least two more socials this semester and judging from previous affairs they will be well worth while. A week ago Tuesday the Society was reorganized and the following officers elected: Alfred J. Silberstein, president; George Diggles, corresponding secretary; and Arthur Schatteles, treasurer. Robert Steps was elected a member of the Executive Board. The other offices are open to Lower Seniors; the positions are: vice-president, recording secretary, and representative on the Executive Board. The position of historian is to be filled by a member of either the upper or lower divisions of the Class. A course of interesting lectures is being arranged and will be announced within a few days. At the gathering this afternoon a number of professors will be present and a very pleasant time is anticipated.

A Tale Out of School.

Commenting on the rumors associating the name of our Chief Executive with the Presidency of the University of Michigan, an editorial in a recent issue of School, has this to say:

"Dr. Finley's place is in the Presidency of the College of the City of New York. New York has become acquainted with President Finley and ranks him as one of her foremost citizens and speakers. No change is now desired in the Presidency of the College. The plans for its development would arouse a protest. The establishment of a night college next fall will supplement the work of the evening schools, and New York will, therefore, have a great machine, working day and night for the making of American citizens. The future of the College seems to lie within its power to adapt itself to the needs of this metropolis in preparing young men for their life's work after leaving College, rather than through the developing of graduate schools. In this field, the clearing house of America, the 'firing line' of the country, President Finley has no superior and his opportunity is unique."

"Every Little Bit Helps."

Appreciating the work of the Political Science Department in its efforts toward establishing a good working library in Economics, and seeking to do its share in furthering this commendable activity, the class of June 1910 recently made a donation of seven much needed volumes. The formal presentation made by the Class president, Charles Brisk, preceded the regular Economical lecture on March 1. In accepting the gift, Professor Clark suggested that succeeding classes follow the precedent set by the Class of June 1910, in which case the Departmental Library could be kept stocked with the very latest and most authoritative economic and political treatises. The volumes presented are: "Modern Banking"—Fiske; "Money"—Kinley; "Money and Currency"—Johnson; "Money and Banking"—Scott; "Principles of Money and Banking" (2 Vols.)—Conant. President Hepburn of the Chase National Bank contributed his own treatise "Contest for Sound Money."

The numerous friends of Dr. William B. Guthrie, will be interested to learn that he has recently joined the ranks of the "Benedicts." The ceremony took place on March, at the home of the bride, Miss Jennie Kelso, of Bellevue, Iowa. Our heartiest congratulations, Dr. Guthrie!

In the course of his lecture on "Heredity," delivered before an interested audience in the Natural History Lecture Room last Friday afternoon, Prof. Charles B. Davenport called attention to the lack of reliable information on the subject of Human Heredity. He urged the students to help in gathering statistics which would go towards proving the truth or falsity of the present accepted theories on the question. With this end in view, cards have been distributed on which each student is to record the inherited characteristics of the members of his family.

Professor Baskerville will attend the Seventh International Congress of Applied Chemistry to be held at London on May 27th. Our professor is the Chairman of the Committee on Analytical Chemistry.

Literary Societies Choose Officers.

The election held in Phrenocosmia, on February 26th, resulted as follows:—H. Kessler was elected President; R. Posner, Vice-President; J. Loewy, Secretary; J. Brodsky, Treasurer; H. Kessler, '09, P. Heimlich, '09, J. Langert, '10, F. Kligler, '11, Character Committee; E. Pollack and E. Mayer, Cabinet.

Clonia elected the following officers:—H. Urdang, President; H. Arbus, Vice-President; H. Robinson, Secretary; R. Gotthoffer, Treasurer; M. Landesman, Editor; A. Shatteles, Librarian; M. Lazarus, '09, S. B. Applebaum, '10, J. Goldstein, '10, for '11, S. Oppenheim, '10 for '12, L. Unger, '09 for '13, Character Committee.

Prexy Contributes.

New York, Feb. 16th, 1909.

My Dear Mr. Kaplan:—

I congratulate you on the showing that has been made by the Athletic Association of the College during the past term. It is a cause for genuine satisfaction that you are now entirely free from debt. You will remember that I made a certain promise at a meeting of the Association last Fall. My dues at present under this promise at the rate of ten cents per mile, amount to $10.00. I enclose with this a check for that amount.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) JOHN H. FINLEY.

(To Mr. Ira D. Kaplan, Treasurer, Athletic Association, City College, N. Y.).

Last Thursday evening, a social meeting of the Newman Club, was held at the home of L. E. Hughes. Ex-President Paul J. Haley, '08, addressed the gathering. It was announced that the next public lecture under the auspices of the Club, will be delivered in the Physics Lecture Room, this Friday Evening. Father Fox of the University of Washington, will speak on "The Catholic Doctrine of Civic Authority and Political Power."

ATHLETICS.

Interclass-Track Meet.

Close competition, both in the events and the final scoring, characterized the interclass meet held in the 71st Reg. Armory last Friday afternoon. The best performance of the afternoon in point of time was the 70-yard dash won by Rosenberg, '12, in $7\frac{3}{4}$ seconds, which marks him as a sprinter worthy of attention. Dolan, '12, ran a very well judged race in the 600 and won at the tape. Kappis had an easy time in the mile and a half, and, assisted by a big handicap, won by thirty yards. The climax in close competition was reached when Greenberg of 1911 won by inches from King 1912 in the interclass relay. It was an unfortunate affair for the Freshmen, as they led all the way and nearly lost the Meet as a result of this race. Frankel, '12, finished fifty yards in front of the others in the first relay of one mile and this lead was maintained until the unforeseen happened.

The summaries :

220-yard dash—Rosenblurn, '10; Livingston, '09; Lewis, '11; Judelson, '11. Time, $25\frac{3}{8}$ s.

12-lb. shot put—Rosenberg, '12; Praeger, '11; Katz, '10, Spivak, '09. Winners distance, 39 ft. 2 in.

600-yard run—Dolan, '12; Katz, '10; Leve, '09; Fensterblau, '12. Time 1 m. 21's.

70-yard dash—Rosenberg, '12; Richter, '13; Lattimore, '11; Polley, '11. Time, $7\frac{3}{4}$ s.

$1\frac{1}{2}$ -mile run—Kappis, '11; Rosenzweig, '12; Weber, '11. Time 7 m. 35s.

Interclass Relay—Won by 1911; 1912 second; 1913 third; 1910 fourth. Time, 9 m. 49s.

Score for point trophy—1912-22; 1911-21; 1910-12; 1909-6, and 1913-5.

The Track Management has arranged a dual meet with Pratt Institute for May 1. The meet will be held on some field in the vicinity of the College.

C. C. N. Y., 8; Columbia 45.

Contrary to expectation our swimming representatives were nosed out in every event by our heavy Columbia opponents last Friday night in the home natatorium. McKinley was easily the star performer of the evening, winning two events and taking second place in two others for Columbia. The surprise of the evening was the easy fashion in which Barker of Columbia outdistanced the other men in the plunge. Captain Stern fought nobly but was unable to do better than second in any event.

The summaries follow:

800-ft. relay—Won by Columbia (with Arkusch, Pulleyn, Matz and McKinley). C. C. N. Y. team consisted of Lyman, Edman, Becker and Stern. Time, 3 m. 4s.

Fancy Diving—Guiteras, Columbia (157½ points); McKinley, Columbia (153½ points); Fielding, C. C. N. Y. (104½ points).

100-yard swim—Pulleyn, Columbia; Stern, C. C. N. Y.; Matz, Columbia. Time, 1 m. 9s.

100-yard swim—(closed to T. H. H.—Rogers (10 s.), Davis (8 s.), Kohn (scratch). Time, 1 m. 8 s.

50-yard swim—McKinley, Columbia; dead heat between Stern, C. C. N. Y. and Coleman, Columbia. Time, 29¾ s.

Plunge for distance—Baker, Columbia (63 ft.); Kinsman, Columbia (46 ft.); Mosseson, C. C. N. Y. (45 ft.)

220-yard swim—Arkusch, Columbia; McKinley, Columbia; dead heat between Bischoff and Stern, both C. C. N. Y. Time, 3 m. 14s.

Water-Polo—Won by Columbia, 2-0.

Base Ball Schedule.

Manager McIlhenny announces the following base ball schedule for the coming season. Negotiations are still under way for a game with Columbia on March 31. The schedule: April 2—Teacher's Training at N. Y.; April 3—Seton Hall, at South Orange; April 7—Manhattan, at N. Y.; April 15—St. Francis, at Brooklyn; April 24—Rensselaer "Poly," at Troy; April 28—Lehigh, at South Bethlehem; May 1—Pratt, at Brooklyn; May 8—Stevens, at N. Y.; May 12—Seton Hall, at South Orange; May 19—Stevens, at Hoboken; May 22—N. Y. A. C., at Traver's Island; May 29—South Orange Field Club, at South Orange.

C. C. N. Y., 12; Harvard, 32.

That our boys were tired from their efforts against Columbia on the previous evening was very evident last Saturday night at the Sportsman's Show in their meet with Harvard. Added to this was what might justly be called some "hard luck." Dame Fortune's absence from our side was particularly noticeable in the 100-yard swim which Captain Stern lost by less than an inch after a splendid battle, and in the 225-yard event when Bischoff just failed of first place by a similar small margin. The 50-yard swim and the fancy diving were other instances, in the former Stern just being nosed out of second place, and in the latter Fielding, after some beautiful diving, scoring only one point less than the winner. On the other hand, Fortunes most favored son was Hoyt of Harvard, who, besides winning two events, swam on the winning relay. The water-polo contest and the relay race (our weakest departments) were rather easily won by Harvard.

The summaries:

200-yard relay—Won by Harvard. C. C. N. Y. team consisted of Lyman, Edman, Becker and Stern. Time, 2 m. 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ s.

225-yard swim—Aspinwall, Harvard; Bischoff, C. C. N. Y.; Becker, C. C. N. Y. Time, 3 m. 24 $\frac{1}{2}$ s.

Fancy Diving—Burham, Harvard (141 points); Fielding, C. C. N. Y. (140 points).

50-yard swim—Hoit, Harvard; Rice, Harvard; Stern, C. C. N. Y. Time, 25 $\frac{1}{2}$ s.

100-yard swim—Hoit, Harvard; Stern, C. C. N. Y.; Aspinwall, Harvard. Time, 1 m. 15 $\frac{1}{2}$ s.

Water-polo—Won by Harvard, 4-0. C. C. N. Y. team consisted of Voss, Becker, Thomas, De Martino, Jacobins and Mossesson.

Our Basket Ball Team.

THE basket ball season just ended has indeed been a notable one in the sporting history of the college. There is not an undergrad but who feels proud of our team's phenomenal record. Athletically and financially, the success of this year's team is unprecedented. We voice the sentiment of the entire college in extending to the individual players and the management, our very heartiest congratulations.

The list of victories is imposing. Yale, Princeton, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Rensselaer, Polytechnic Institute, Brown, Lehigh and Fordham, were this year represented by unusually strong teams, but they were in every case taken into camp by our clever quintet. Our defeats on the other hand, require a word of explanation. The Columbia game was lost by but a single point in the fastest and hardest basket ball contest ever witnessed in the metropolis and it may be justly remarked that the means to which that institution stooped to gain the victory hardly redounded to its credit. Our defeat by two points at Ithaca was unfortunate and would undoubtedly have been retrieved on our own court. Although beaten by Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute at Troy, there was no question as to the superiority of our team, a fact attested to by the overwhelming score of the return game.

As far as individual playing is concerned, we note, even at this early date, that Heskowitz has been picked as guard on the All-Eastern team, while Kaplan is the choice for the substitute center position. Captain Streusand has been rated as one of the best forwards in the game, and he failed of All-Eastern selection only because of his poor showing, due to sickness, in the last few contests. Perlman has also been very favorably mentioned as a possible choice for guard.

All honor then to Captain Streusand, Perlman, Heskowitz, Kaplan, Barbanell, Goldman, Brill, Brandt, Spivak and Sedransky; to Manager Kleinbaum and his assistant Rabinowitz, and to Coaches Gemson and Palmer. These are men whose names will go down in C. C. N. Y. tradition, as having composed or developed our greatest team up to 1909; as having freed the Athletic Association from debt and, what is more, as having placed it on a solid financial basis; and, finally, as having set a standard for clean sportsmanship and square dealing which it would be difficult to equal.

Professor Baskerville gave a dinner on the evening of February 5, at the Engineers' Club, to twenty of the leading professors of Chemistry and officers of large corporations, to inaugurate a movement to hold the Eighth International Congress of Applied Chemistry in New York. Heretofore, all Congresses were held at the European capitals. Professor Baskerville was Chairman of a committee of twenty to wait on Congress in regard to this movement. On Tuesday, March 2, the bill came before the House, but was postponed indefinitely in the Senate.

Students' Council Starts In.

Elections and routine business was the order of the day at the first meeting of the Students' Council which was held last Wednesday in Room 208 at 1 P. M. Officers were elected as follows:—President, Robert A. Steps; Vice-President, Louis Mayers; Secretary, Abraham Feldman; Cheer Leader, Raymond C. Thompson; Assistant Cheer Leader, Jacob S. Kaplan; Senior Advisory Microcosm Committee, Walter Krumewiede and Alfred J. Silberstein. The time of meetings was set for Tuesday at 3.00 P. M.

The report of the Committee on the printing of the Constitution was accepted; and each class organization is to be taxed $1.00 to cover the expenses of the Committee which amounted to $8.00. The Council decided further, in the case of students registered with "Upper A" taking Freshman work, some of whom desired permission to participate in the affairs of the Lower Freshman organization, that such participation was not to be allowed.

The results of June, 1911's elections were as follows: President, S. L. Samuels; Vice-President, S. Spanier; Treasurer, I. Lehrer; Secretary, C. Kessler; Athletic Manager, P. Groginsky; Marshal, I. Gordon; Poet, L. Potash; Historian, J. Goldberg; Assistant Editor of the "Microcosm," H. Leight; Delegates to the Student Council, I. Eisenberg and J. Shapiro.

A representative number of our faculty and undergraduates attend the organ recital of Mr. Edwin Stodola last Wednesday evening at Carnegie Chamber Music Hall. The affair was a pronounced success.

The class of February, 1912, at its last delegates' meeting, elected an Executive Committee consisting of Berkson (Chairman), Borookov, Apfelbaum and A. Cohen.

About one hundred and seventy-five men have made application for membership in the Students' Club up to date. An encouraging showing.

Lectures at the College.

Thursday, March 11.

Prof. Frederick Starr of the University of Chicago, is to speak on "The Native People of the Congo Free State," in Room 126, at 3 P. M. Professor Starr is a distinguished antropologist. This lecture is the first to be given under the auspices of the Students' Club.

Friday, March 12.

Dr. A. B. Lamb, Professor of Chemistry, at N. Y. U., is to speak on "The Present Status of the Theory of Electrolytic Dissociation," in the Doremus Lecture Theatre, at 2 P. M.

Lectures by the Faculty.

Thursday, March 11.

Dr. Taafe will speak on "Goldsmith," in P. S. 6, Brooklyn, at 8.15 P. M.

Saturday, March 13.

Professor Clark will speak on "Transportation," at the N. Y. Public Library, 121 East Fifty-eighth Street, at 8.15 P. M.

Monday, March 15.

Mr. A. Arbib-Costa will deliver a lecture in Italian on "Italian Art," in the Tozzi studio, 57 West Fifty-seventh Street, at 3.30 P. M.

Last Friday the college was honored by a visit from ex-Ambassador White.

The "Times" Competition.

It is interesting to note that twenty-one Townsend Harris students were successful in the recent competition held by the New York Times, for the best essays on "Lincoln." Of this number, two are attending the Twenty-third Street Annex. The winners of medals and five dollar bills were: R. L. Dickey and S. E. Samuelson. Messrs. Sexton and Green, their instructors, were also the recipients of five dollars each. The names of those who won medals together with those of their instructors are as follows: L. Markel—Mr. Grendon; A. Mayer—Mr. Crawford; J. Drogin—Dr. Crowne; D. Mason—Prof. Thompson and W. Pels—Mr. Galway. Those awarded certificates, together with the names of their instructors are: A. Bookbinder and M. Lewis—Mr. McClelland; L. Coleman, J. Tracson and P. Rosenauer—Mr. Klein; J. Ginsberg, G. Kantsky and F. Newman—Dr. Crowne; G. Hirsh and J. Lipshitz—Mr. Green; M. Lewonheim—Mr. Galway; D. Liebowitz—Mr. Stair; A. Rocklin—Mr. Crawford and A. Symands—Mr. Otis.

Practically the whole track team is entered in the Hamilton School's Games, which will be held on March 27, at the Twenty-second Regiment Armory.

Our Swimmers.

Two of our premier swimmers, Rogers and Kohn, have been winning more medals and glory recently. Rogers took third place in the 150-yard swim at the Sportsman's Show last Tuesday night, while Kohn won third place in the 75-yard swim on Wednesday in the same pool.

It was wonderful to see the ease with which Rogers won the 300-yard handicap at the Sportsman's Show last Saturday. Davis took third in his heat, but didn't figure in the finals.

A. A. Notes.

A meeting of the Faculty Athletic Committee took place on March 3. Professors Allen and Burke and Messrs. Crowne, McClelland, Mendelsohn and Newton being present. The schedule of the swimming team was changed, but as a number of the members are ineligible, some of the meets will probably be cancelled. The schedule as it now stands is as follows: March 13—Boys' High School; March 20—Barringer High School; March 27—De Witt Clinton; April 2—St. John's Prep. School. The Boys' High and Barringer meets are to be held in connection with the C. C. N. Y.—Yale and Princeton meets respectively.

Among other business, M. Shaverin was elected temporary Lacrosse Manager, the Committee having been unable to decide as yet, as to whether the Association can finance the sport.

Our Literary Society.

The Progressive Literary Society has recommended its sessions for this term; the first meeting having taken place on February 19. The following officers were elected: J. Polstein, President; J. Heller, Vice-President; J. Osserman, Secretary; A. Green, Sergeant-at-Arms; and A. Green, Editor. Mr. Grendon, of the English Department, was present.

The second meeting took place on February 26. At this session an original poem was delivered by Mr. Meyers. The production was very creditable. All students interested in literature and debating should be present at the meetings of the Society on Friday afternoons in Room 12.

The Third meeting was held on March 5. A spirited debate was the principal feature of the program.

L. Nason has been elected Foot Ball Manager for next season. He has already begun work on the schedule.

A. Hauser has resigned the Track Managership, because of press of outside work. Hauser has done some good work for the team and deserves hearty thanks.
