Evening Courses.

THE announcement that the Board of Trustees has formally decided to open a Night College this fall is given concrete form by the preparation of an outline setting forth the details of the proposed organization of the evening courses.

The sessions of the Night College will begin on October 4th, the prerequisite for admission being a High School education or its equivalent. Those who cannot present a High School or Regent's diploma, or the certificate of the College Entrance Examination Board will be obliged to pass the City College entrance examination. Next fall it is planned to offer only the courses of the Freshman year, but if a sufficient number of qualified students apply for an advanced course it will be offered upon the special approval of the Board of Trustees. The number of students for the first year has been limited to two hundred and fifty, and no course will be given unless there are at least twenty accepted applicants.

The evening courses will be patterned exactly after those given in the day sessions—each study being allotted the same number of hours per week, covering the same ground and followed by like examinations. The courses will, however, continue every night of the week except Sunday for thirty-two weeks, and no student will be permitted to take more than nine credit hours of work per week.

Arrangements have been made with the Public Libraries on 135th and 145th Streets to keep upon their shelves a complete supply of the reference books needed. Besides the regular courses aiming at the baccalaureate degree, a number of electives are offered to those interested in special subjects. Applicants for mission will assemble in Townsend Harris Hall at 8 P. M. on May 25th, or on September 14th. Entrance examinations will be held during the week of September 20th.

Joint Debate.

On account of the crowding of events on the collegiate calendar the date for this year's Joint Debate between Clis and Phreno has been set for a much later date than is usual. The debaters will meet in a friendly battle on June 21 in Townsend Harris Hall. Clionia's team consists of Messrs. Applebaum, Kramer and Shatteles with Urdang as alternate. Phrenocosnia's champions are Messrs. Schmalhausen, Pollock and Weiser; Zinner being the alternate. The question is "Resolved, that we favor the open shop in the United States." In charge of the arrangements is a committee consisting of Messrs. Kaltman, Mayer and Langert.

The twentieth anniversary reunion of Class of '89 was held at the Plaza Hotel on the evening of May 7th. In point of attendance and enthusiasm, the banquet of '89 must be classed among the most successful of the many class dinners held recently. Of the fifty men of this class who graduated, forty attended the reunion; of the remainder, three are dead, and the others found it impossible to be present on account of illness or residence far from the city. Professor Horne presided, and he read a pamphlet in which he had recorded the history of each man since 1889. The Class decided to present a memorial to the College, and a considerable fund was gathered for this purpose.

The success of the College's Extension Courses to teachers has been so marked, that the Board of Education has decided to extend the benefit of some of our lecture courses to the teachers and general public in Brooklyn. Professor Horne has accepted Dr. Leipziger's invitation for next year, and he will deliver his series of excellent lectures on "The Novel" in the Brooklyn Public Library. Dr. Guthrie's course on "American History" will probably be also offered.

To-day at 1 P. M.

The Faculty and Student Body will assemble in the Great Hall where exercises will be held in celebration of Arbitration Day. The Hon. Joseph H. Choate will address the meeting.

During the last two weeks, the saloon question has been an inexhaustable topic of conversation among our many public-spirited Juniors—not because of any altruistic desire to correct intemperance evils, it must be confessed, but rather on account of the more practical necessity of preparing for the Public Speaking Department examination debate on that subject. The lecture delivered in Room 315 last Friday afternoon was thus very popular, for Mr. F. H. Whittin, Secretary of the Committee of Fourteen, spoke there in explanation of the recommendations of the Committee with regard to the Sunday opening of saloons. This was the first lecture on political questions conducted by the Civic Club.

A Bright Demonstration.

Last Friday afternoon a number of interested students attended the demonstration given by representatives of the Aluminum Cooking Utensil Co. held in Room 128. The desirable features of aluminum ware were clearly set forth and many valuable pointers given in the art of salesmanship. It is expected that an even larger number will attend the demonstration Friday.

Professor Horne spoke at the closing exercises of the Harlem Evening High School on May 12th, introducing the Night College to the graduates.

The Fresh-Soph Banquet.

A rip-roaring, wonderful success was Saturday's love feast, held jointly by the Classes of '11 and '12 last Saturday night (and Sunday morning). Both classes turned out in force, and for good fellowship and genuine enthusiasm the gathering set a standard which it will be difficult to surpass.

In a culinary way, Reisenweber did himself proud, and in an oratorical way the various speakers did themselves proud. First came the official burying of the hatchets by the respective Class presidents, and when that ceremony was done with the Muses were let loose. A budding young pianist named Loesser, who resembled Paderewski in everything but the hair, (and he showed some promise there), made a great hit, as did Ysaye Auslander and Co. B. Cochrane Davidson gave vent to some high flights, (not stairs), and Chestnut Frankel lived up to his name. Poet Laureate Jacobson delivered a poem specially composed for the occasion.

There were no casualties, and although the police and fire departments were ready all the evening, there was no call for them. As R. A. Steps, '09, the guest of honor said, "The Fresh-Soph banquet, by reason of its success, is now definitely assured as an annual institution at the College."

To-morrow at 3 P. M. in Room 307, a meeting of the Civic Club will be held to which prospective members are most cordially invited.

The principal numbers of to-days Organ Recital are Rubenstein's "Kammenoi Ostrow," Mendelssohn's "Sonata No. 4," and Wagner's Overture from "Tannhäuser."

The numerous friends of James Balsam, '09, are elated over the success of his first piano recital given recently in the Grand Ball Room of the Waldorf-Astoria. Our gifted senior demonstrated remarkable talent and his debut was highly satisfactory.

In the next issue of the American Journal of Philology will appear an article from the pen of Dr. Emory B. Lease on "Some Interesting Problems in Latin Syntax."

ATHLETICS.

C. C. N. Y. vs. Pratt.

Despite threatening weather conditions, the dual track meet with Pratt Institute was held at Pastime Oval last Saturday morning. Through our weakness in the field events the "stute" boys romped away with the contest by the score of 64-35. Rosenberg was the only man from the College to win a first in the field contest. Pratt made a clean sweep in the shot put and pole vault. But the running races were fraught with excitement. In general, Pratt was superior in sprints and the college excellent in distance events. Reichard established a new college record in the two miles, easily winning the event. Probably the most exciting race was the hurdle, in which Corey overcame a bad start and won by inches from Constance of Pratt.

100-Yard Dash—Koch, Pratt; Corson, Pratt; Coyle, C. C. N. Y. Time, $10\frac{1}{4}$ sec.

220-Yard Dash—Koch, Pratt; Coyle, C. C. N. Y.; Constantine, Pratt. Time, $23\frac{1}{4}$ sec.

Mile Run—Groginsky, C. C. N. Y.; Reichard, C. C. N. Y.; Depew, Pratt. Time, $4.50\frac{1}{2}$ sec.

Pole Vault—Robinson, Pratt; Place, Pratt; Jenkins, Pratt; tie at 9 feet.

16-Lb. Shot Put—Fiero, Pratt, 36 feet 5 inch. Johnston, Pratt, 35 feet 9 inch. Gayton, Pratt, 34 feet 7 inch.

120-Yard High Hurdle—Corey, C. C. N. Y.; Constance, Pratt; Place, Pratt. Time, 20 sec.

High Jump—Rosenberg, C. C. N. Y., 5 ft. 8 inch. Smith, Pratt, 5 ft. 4 inch. Robinson, Pratt, 5 ft. 2 inch.

400-Yard Run—Jenkins, Pratt; Coyle, C. C. N. Y.; Schunk, Pratt. Time, 53 sec.

2-Mile Run—Reichard, C. C. N. Y.; Horton, Pratt; Kappis, C. C. N. Y. Time, 10.30 sec.

880-Yard Run—Constantine, Pratt; Groginsky, C. C. N. Y.; Beckweth, Pratt. Time, $2.09\frac{1}{2}$ sec.

Running Broad Jump—Schunk, Pratt, 19 ft. 6 in. Horton, Pratt, 18 ft. $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. Katz, C. C. N. Y., 18 ft. $4\frac{1}{2}$ in.

C. C. N. Y., 3; St. Francis, 1.

Again on Friday did our diamond celebrities emerge victorious from the field of baseball, and again we sing a paean of praise for our second baseman, Ettinger. The mighty one had a great day both in the field and at the bat. Of the three runs scored two fell to his lot. The entire team again exemplified Mr. Holtan's teachings and in regard to inside baseball, clearly outplayed St. Francis.

Brown allowed the invaders just one clean hit, that one on the first ball pitched. At times he was wild, but very effective with men on bases. The lone tally made by the Saints was the result of a pass, a sacrifice and a wild throw to catch the runner. Our team scored in the first inning when Ettinger received a pass, was sacrificed to third and tallied on a fielder's choice. In the third inning Ettinger leaned against the ball and cleared left field on the line, scoring the second run. Our third run was not earned. In the sixth De Luca made a Texas leaguer over shortstop, stole second and came home when the attempt to catch him stealing third went into the grand stand. Ettinger came into the limelight again in the sixth, when with two men on base, he stabbed a wicked smash which had a two base label on it, and fielded the man out at first. Rain broke up the game in the eighth inning.

C. C. N. Y., 2; Manhattan, 6.

The same splendid brand of ball which was displayed by our boys against Stevens and St. Francis was in evidence last Saturday at the Catholic Protectory Grounds, when we lined up against Manhattan. Neither team scored in the first five innings, and then Manhattan, in some sterling playing, slowly forged ahead. Praeger and Polley each scored a run for the College in the ninth inning, while Dub was called out at the plate on a poor decision. De Luca pitched a grand game.

The score by innings:

Manhattan	0	0	0	0	2	3	0	1—6
C. C. N. Y.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2—2

"What Are the Points of Appreciation in a Work of Art," was the subject of an address delivered by Professor Hunt before the Baltimore Art Club last week.

Inter-Class Lacrosse.

1912 vs. 1911.

The Fresh-Soph contest, which was scheduled for Monday of last week, was postponed indefinitely because of the non-appearance of certain of the '12 players.

1911, 1; 1910, 0.

On the following day, Tuesday, an unusually interesting contest was witnessed between the '10 and '11 aggregations. Neither side scored in the first half, Heskowitz, Drady and Gell proving a stone wall which '10's attack could not penetrate. Norman and Katz did some spectacular work for 1910, but their efforts were of no avail. Hoffman scored the only tally of the game in the second period, shoving in the ball when Paster-nack left the cage.

1909, 3; 1912, 0.

1912 surprised the superior '09 team on Wednesday by not allowing them to score in the first half, but in the second interval the better playing of the Seniors began to tell. Despite the brave but fruitless efforts of the Freshies, 1909 scored three goals. Toward the latter part of the game the playing was entirely in '09 territory. A little rough work was indulged in, but was promptly squelched by Umpire Rosenblatt. Hughes and Geismar showed up particularly well for '09, while Etler and Parnes did good work for '12.

A. A. Elections.

The re-elections of the A. A. which were held last Wednesday resulted as follows: A. Katz, Vice-President; Jesse Perlman, Property Man, and Richard Toep-litz, Assistant Treasurer.

Isn't it about time for the interclass basketball series for the Baskerville cup to get under way? Wake up, you Athletic Managers.

Next time you see "Tommy" ask him of how much assistance El Capitano can be in a lacrosse game. There's a reason!

Entre Nous.

WHILE it is quite true that an institution of learning is ever in the public eye, it is not unreasonable to suppose that it is subjected to even closer scrutiny when its undergraduates assemble in public. The occasions on which we gather in the Great Hall are few indeed and they are of more than ordinary significance. Ergo, it behooves us to be exceedingly circumspect in our comportment during such exercises. Although, in the great majority of cases this word of caution may be superfluous, we have noticed—and this is strictly entre nous—a number of individual breaches of etiquette. If there is one infraction of the conventions which is more conspicuous than another it is the persistence of some of our more youthful brethren to be the first to withdraw from the Hall.

To take precedence thus of the Academic procession and the honored guests is, to say the least, hardly in good form; it may even give rise to obloquy involving our good reputation. There may be other ways in which we might appear to better advantage, but there is no necessity for dwelling further upon the matter. The mere mention of the circumstance ought to be sufficient commentary. We content ourselves, therefore, with the suggestion that here is an opportunity for each student to make some return to Alma Mater by doing his small part toward making her public exercises more truly representative.

Are You Interested?

With the end of the term but a few weeks off it will soon devolve upon us to make provision for next year's Board of Editors. It is more than probable that there will be several vacancies to be filled, and we are desirous of securing the very best material in college. If you have ambitions in this direction, or if you are only mildly interested, a call on the Managing Editor at your earliest convenience might prove mutually advantageous. We desire to emphasize, however, that prospective candidates must demonstrate some ability before they can hope for appointment to the literary or business departments of our publication. Ample opportunities to qualify will be afforded any likely applicant and we trust a considerable number of embryo Greeleys and Danas will manifest interest in our proposition.

Our Freshmen-to-be, the class of June, 1913, elected the following officers last Friday: J. Sullivan, President; J. Lewis, Vice-President; M. Meyer, Secretary; M. Magin, Treasurer, and N. Johnson, Historian.

The Class of 1907 held its second annual re-union last Saturday night at Reisenweber's in a room next to that in which the Fresh-Soph banquet was being held. At one period of the evening, the connecting doors were thrown open and alumni and undergraduates saluted each other with songs and cheers. Handsome class flags were souvenirs of the occasion.

T. H. H. NEWS.

FRED S. BAILEY, T. H. H. Editor.

T. H. H. 1; Morris, 24.

Watched by the biggest and most enthusiastic crowd of rooters seen at a game this year, Townsend Harris went down to a terrible defeat before Morris last Saturday at American League Park. The teams showing was inexplicable and they are still pinching each other to see if it wasn't only a bad dream. Newton officiated for us during the first inning and let the whole Morris team make the circuit. Then Dudensing went in and in his four innings the entire Morris team ran another Marathon race around the diamond. For the remaining four innings, Mullen held them down to six additional tallies. Bengert made one lone tally for T.H.H. through Morris' errors in the third inning. Ex-Captain Polley of T. H. H. played good ball for Morris while Yule and St. John were invincible as a battery.

T. H. H. 7; Commerce, 18.

Well, there was some improvement over last year's slaughter of 27-0, and although we came out with the short end of the score, the team played good ball, outside of that sixth inning. Mullen, who was on the slab, pitched well up till then, but tiring, the first four men hit him safely. Then "Doc" Newton was called in to stem the tide, but with three men on the bases and no one out, he was up against a tough proposition. But they got only ten runs. Fleck played the game of his life, in spite of the injury that he received in the Curtis game. "Babe" had seven put outs, five assists, a homer and a three-bagger to his credit. That is "going some." We will grin and say, "wait until next year."

Last Friday Stuyvesant forfeited in Tennis to T. H. H. on Saturday T. H. H. was beaten by Morris by a narrow margin. This makes a triple tie for first place between T. H. H., Morris and Commerce.

Our Swimmers at Philadelphia.

In the contest for the Scholastic Championship of the United States held at Philadelphia last Saturday, Townsend Harris took fourth place. The Championship was won by Lawrenceville, with Central H. S. second, and Haverford third. Kohn took third place in the 100-yard swim, Davis third in the 200, Kohn and Davis tied for fourth place in the 100-foot event, while little Peoli won fourth position in the fancy diving. Our relay, consisting of Kohn, Fisher, Davis and Rogers, came in third, being narrowly beaten by Lawrenceville and Central H. S. Record time was made in nearly every event, and our boys are to be congratulated for their splendid work.

On Friday, the day before our game with Morris, the enterprising Committee on Mass Meetings succeeded in getting about 350 Harris fellows in the Chapel, where an enthusiastic meeting took place. Hess and Pollock started the fireworks with a Harris cheer (?). We should say an attempt. But after the first two speakers, the enthusiasm rose rapidly. The Track Team was much in evidence, and we hope that if any German instructors were present, they will give the fellows an extra boost in their marks for their "Umlant" yell. Mr. Mendelsohn's and Pollock's addresses were appreciated and duly applauded. Results of the rally were quick and satisfactory, about a hundred fellows buying tickets as they went out. Everyone would like to see more of these meetings, and there is sure to be a large attendance at the next rally.

It was found necessary to postpone the Inter-Class Swimming meet indefinitely, as so few entries were received, and such small interest was evinced by most of the fellows that to hold the contest would have been utterly impracticable.

Dr. Grendon's address on "Oscar Wilde," which was delivered to the Progressive Literary Society on Friday, was received with great enthusiasm. More of these interesting lectures will be given.

Hajek is showing great form now that the outdoor season has begun. He went the 220 in 23 4-5 seconds on Thursday. This is certainly fast time.

BROKE?

No City College man need be financially broke if engaged with Aluminum Cooking Utensil Co. during the summer.

$2048.42 profit is a record made with our goods in 42 days last summer by D. E. McClain, of Harvard University.

Seventy-five men made an average profit of $12.35 per day during June, July and August, 1908.

In the same period of time, the average profit of all our salesmen was $6.92 per day. We had over 2,700 college men engaged during last summer. Common every day hard sense led them to realize the difference between an actual household necessity and those things for which there is no real demand.

For particulars see S. R. Banks, 99 John street, or care Aluminum Cooking Utensils Co.

A demonstration will be given Friday afternoon, May 21st, in Room 128, at 3 P. M.

This is an exceptional opportunity for those desiring profitable employment during the summer.

Members of the Faculty are invited to this demonstration.
