THE CAMPUS BECOMES THE OFFICIAL ALUMNI ORGAN

Committee of the Associate Alumni Directors
Decide to Accept the Offer of the Quarterly Association. Arrangements Effected between the Campus Association and the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association.

Entire Associate Alumni Body Become Subscribers

At a recent meeting of the Directors of the Associate Alumni, an agreement was arrived at between the Directors' Committee and the Directors of the Campus Association, the result of which will go far toward bringing the alumnus and the undergraduate into a closer relationship than has hitherto existed.

Hereafter, in accordance with the arrangements effected, every member of the Associate Alumni will receive one copy of THE CAMPUS a month. This number will be known as the Alumni Number and will contain at least one page of alumni news, thus enabling the grad to keep cognizant of the doings of his classmates out in the world and to familiarize himself with student activities.

The present agreement had its inception in an offer of the QUARTERLY Association to turn over to the Associate Alumni all its assets, liabilities and other business relations on condition that the Associate Alumni should continue the publication of the QUARTERLY. A committee of the Associate Alumni Directors was appointed to investigate this offer. While these investigations were in progress, several members of the Alumni proposed to the Campus Association that they should in some way affiliate the publication of the QUARTERLY with that of THE CAMPUS.

At the last regular meeting of the Associate Alumni, Mr. Lorenz Reich, '11, the treasurer of the Campus Association voiced the desire of many of the Alumni in the form of a proposition that a part of the money which had formerly been appropriated for the publication of the QUARTERLY, should, in the future, be paid to the Campus Association, in return for which the Alumni would become subscribers to THE CAMPUS. Hon. Justice Greenbaum, the chairman of the meeting, upon the motion of one of the members, decided to refer the matter to the committee, which was investigating the QUARTERLY offer, should make a contemporaneous investigation of Mr. Reich's proposition.

At a meeting of the committee on December 18, 1915, it was unanimously recommended that the Associate Alumni should accept the offer of the Quarterly Association. The Board of Directors thanked the Directors of the Quarterly Association for initiating the enterprise of publishing the QUARTERLY and complimented them for the literary style, dignity and serviceableness of their publication. A committee of six was appointed to continue the publication of the QUARTERLY and care for all alumni matters of publication.

The offer of the Campus Association was next considered. It was recommended that all news features should be omitted from the QUARTERLY, thus permitting a reduction in size and a corresponding reduction in cost of publication. The committee then decided to effect an arrangement with the Campus Association, whereby the members of the Associate Alumni were to receive one copy of THE CAMPUS a month for nine months in the year. This number is to be known as the Alumni Number and will contain news summaries, announcements and other matters of current interest and value to the alumnus. The arrangement was to become effective on January 1, 1916.

JUNIOR "PROM" A HUGE SUCCESS

Grand Ball Room of the Hotel
Majestic Scene of Festivities

Boro President Attends

With all the gaiety and enthusiasm that has always featured the big annual social event of our third year students, the "Junior Promenade" of the Class of 1917, long-heralded and awaited with anxious expectation by all protagonists of the art of the famous Muse, was held on the evening of January 29th. The "Grand Ballroom" of the Hotel Majestic, reputed to be the finest in the city, was the scene of the festivities.

So far as is known, this was the first occasion in the college annals that the "Prom" was given at a place outside our buildings. Another innovation this year was a banquet which was held between the numbers of the dance.

The attendance was very good, numbering about fifty couples.

The Hon. Marcus M. Marks, Borough President of Manhattan, Professors Brownson, Robinson, and their wives, and Professors Guthrie and Cosenza, graced the occasion by their presence. The patronesses were:

Between the two parts of the dance program, the 1917 Microcosm picture was taken. The proof shows a remarkably clear and fine picture, said to be one of the best ever taken at a similar event of the College.

Milton Tannenbaum, Chairman of the Arrangements Committee, and Theodore Greenbaum, of the Reception Committee, deserve commendation for the success of the affair. Raymond Trigger, '16, expert at handling the three varieties of ivories, had his renowned rag-time band contribute to the merriment of one of the most enjoyable "Proms" in the history of the College.

EXTRA CREDITS GIVEN

Seniors Win Great Applause
by Portraying Well Known
Members of the Faculty.

"Enchantingly Charming," "Frivolous yet Serious," ran some of the dramatic excerpts from the big papers on "Extra Credits," as quoted on one of the many posters about the lockers, halls, streets, and engine-rooms of the College last month. Well, if they want to give our brief phrase, they may paste on the billboards high above the town: "EXTRAORDINARILY CREDITABLE"—CAMPUS.

It is not safe to assume that all of us know about the "Extra Credits" venture when up comes a gangrene-brained and soporific "student" to you and modestly inquires what all this "extra credit" business is about—and so for the sake of recording, let us say that "Extra Credits," the February '16, senior class play was produced successfully in every way before large audiences at the two performances taking place on Friday, January 28th, and Saturday, January 29th, in the T. H. H. Auditorium.

The cooperation shown by the committees in charge and efficient business management made "Extra Credits" one of the finest senior productions yet. Even the author of "Gym-Jams" declared it the best so far, but of course an original student play will "have to go some" before it eclipses the fame of "Teddy's."

What class play is complete without Prof. Bulltree, ailar Bluffie, Gushie, etc.; Bean Clown Some, or Quarrelton L. Frownsome, etc.; Prof. Coin, otherwise known as Drone, Bone, and so on.; Prof. La Flog, Fog, Farce, Frog; Dr. Hottairi, alias Spaghetti; Mr. Boosdale, Chew-stale; Mr. Boney, Body; Patty and other janitorial faculty members? Well, "Extra Credits" made no departure from the long-established custom of having impersonations of various of our beloved instructors. Then there was Prof. Blight, guide of the road to 720, Pres. Muzzled ("all work and no play makes Jake a dull boy"), Mooey Let-us-off (whose hasty leave from these portals to join the v. k. manufacturers of perambulators for other shores. THE CAMPUS was prevented by a censorship from reporting in its columns—but anyway the news is out), Dr. Blurtis, and Mr. Pretzel. Other jobholders were Curall, Botchall, Nixon, and the ferocious Weinrobber, bane of students, the Alkali Ike of the Main Building. Besides students there were Betty (Harold Wright) in love with Pete Repeat (James Gould), Miss MacHeartie (Samuel Muldorfsky) and other damsels. Our own Mosenstein was on deck getting a real interview—which, we are sure, would be so eagerly pored over by all THE CAMPUS readers for hours at a stretch.

Individual honors in the acting and impersonation must go to Halpern, as student imitator, the Bean, and Mr. Sulman; Gould, as Pete and Prof. Blight, and Levine who with Prof. Bulltree's part make a great hit.

The choice of scenes gave a fine opportunity of bringing in much local color and familiar associations of our college life. An alcove was represented, the office of the Bean, Presy's room at students' conference hour, and the bookroom.

According to the plot, Repeat in order to inherit a fortune and consequently win his sweetheart, has to be graduated by February '16. Three of the extra credits granted by a new regulation for returning books in the same condition as when issued, new, unused, with uncut pages,

PROFESSOR MCGUCKIN BECOMES EMERITUS PROFESSOR

Professor Livingston Rowe
Schuyler and J. Salwyn
Shapiro Become Associates.

Many changes in the personnel of the Faculty took effect the beginning of the month, notably in the History Department.

After forty-six years of service in various capacities at the College, Professor William George McGuckin was retired at his own request. Former Assistant Professors in the Department, Livingston R. Schuyler and J. Salwyn Schapiro became Associate Professors. The retiring professor will be known as "Professor Emeritus in the Department of History."

Professor McGuckin's length of service extends from 1870 in which year he was appointed tutor in mathematics, having graduated from the College the previous year. In 1881 the Columbia Law School awarded him the Bachelor of Laws degree, and in that year he was transferred to the History Department, becoming instructor, Assistant, Associate, and finally in June last, full Professor. He has been a Board of Education lecturer, and was in 1911 Vice-President of the Associate Alumni.

Professor Schuyler graduated from the College in '89. He was appointed instructor in 1898 and Assistant Professor in 1906. Professor Schapiro was a member of the '04 class. He has been instructor and Assistant Professor in the Department.

Pres. Wilson Thanks Dr. Richter

Dr. K. E. Richter, Chairman of Cooper Union Lecture Center, on behalf of the audience of December 18, 1915, sent a telegram to President Wilson, offering him their heartfelt felicitations, and their prayers that God's richest blessing might rest upon him and Mrs. Wilson. The President's secretary replied as follows:

The White House,
Washington, D. C.,
December 21, 1915.

My dear Doctor Richter:
The President has asked me to thank you very heartily for your kind message of felicitation and to assure you and the Board of Education of New York City that he and Mrs. Wilson deeply appreciate your good wishes.

Sincerely yours,
J. H. TUMULTY,
Secretary to the President.

Dr. K. E. RICHTER,
City College,
New York City.

The Rochester Basketball Team pulled the come-back stunt on our Varsity in the second half of last Saturday evening's game, and came through with a victory in the extra period, winning by a score of 26 to 32. Our quintet had the up-state boys outclassed completely, in the first period, but the Hale's foul shooting kept the two scores close.

Saturday evening was Junior night, in spite of the fact that about ten '17 men were aware of it. In addition to this, the Freshies were supposed to be welcomed by the upper-classmen.

Between the halves of the Varsity game, Otto Tabor, Nat. Lerner, Jimmie Bracken, and several '18 men gathered around Prof. Holton and entreated the '20 men to come their way. Just about seven forlorn-looking Freshies showed up, snook heads with our Faculty-Graduate Manager, and gave him their names. After all which, the said Faculty-Graduate etc. presented the assembled Freshies with an illuminated copy of Kipling's "If" for a '20 creed. The Freshies cheered themselves and shuffled off the court, while the crowd did not sing "Inta-Inta" as revised by Joe Drake.

However, to the game, Coach Palmer started Julian Bronstein, '17, in Dash's place. The Rochester boys looked pretty good, and their playing surely wasn't a denial of their looks.

Joe Drake got the first jump on Witney of Rochester and after several minutes of passing, Referee Deering called a personal foul on Tisch. Hale, foul-shooting for the visitors, missed his chance to score. Dribbling the ball down the field, Mussy Holman scored the first goal of the game. Hale, Rochester's star, came right back at us, coralling a foul shot and a beautiful field goal.

In the first half, we had Rochester on the defensive, most of the time. They simply couldn't take the ball away from us and whatever scoring they did was on the fouts. The visitors had many opportunities for field goals but they didn't seem able to shoot. Time and again, they had free shots, but could not make them. The first half ended with the score in our favor by three points, 16 to 13.

At the beginning of the second half, Lefty scored five points, on two field goals and a foul, before the Rochester team settled down. Hale garnered a fine shot, and Lefty scored on a foul. Bronstein, Adsit and Witney each caged a field goal, and Hale made two successful tries from the foul lines. The score now stood 23 to 21 in our favor. Adsit tied the score with a beautiful field goal and Lefty, caging a foul shot, put us in the lead again. Adsit's field goal put Rochester in the lead, and Lefty tied the score with another

Welcome

Alma Mater welcomes the class of February, 1920—leaders of a new decade. To the neophyte a few words of advice and admonition: You are now entering upon the most critical period of your life, a period in which the theories and ideals of youth will have to stand manhood's test or be shattered. What will the next four years amount to in the course of your whole life? Will it be the grandest, finest, happiest time of your youth—a period pregnant with memories of hours well spent in developing yourself broadly and sympathetically? Or will you cram your way through College winning, perhaps, scholastic honor and distinction, but failing entirely to obtain the truer values of a collegiate training? The decision lies with you. This is a turning point in your path of life and you must choose your own road.

Our advice to you is to go out for extra-curricular activities. In other words, put your theoretical knowledge and ideas into practice among the men whom you will have to compete with afterwards in the outside world. Meet the men from other Colleges in competition, whether it be literary or athletic, and measure your training with theirs.

Never was the opportunity greater than now. Teams, literary societies and clubs need new blood: Will you permit this chance, which, perhaps, you will never have again, to slip by? Or will you take the best advantage possible of it and make your class outdistance all previous ones. Decide!

Whatever you do, do it thoroughly. In studies, extra-curricular work and the host of other activities in which you will engage, throw your heart and soul into the task. And if, perchance, you fail in any one line of endeavor, like the mariners that the ancient bard sung of, though sorrowing, sail on further.

Campus Competition

The graduation of last term's editor has necessitated the selection of a new Editor and Editorial Board for the coming term. The Editor and Business Manager are elected to office by the Campus Association. Appointment to the other positions on the staff are made by the Editor—the members of the business staff having first been recommended by the Business Manager. The appointments to the Editorial Board must have the concurrence of the Campus Association before they become official.

Because of the great success of the scheme last term, we have again decided to hold an open competition for the following graded positions:

- 1. Assistant Editor.
2. Sporting Editor.
3. News Editor.
4. Assistant Sporting Editor.
5. Assistant News Editor.
6. Assistant Business Managers.
7. Reporters.

Whether you are bursting over with empirical knowledge of scholastic publications or whether you're just a tyro at the game, come out. Hand your name and recitation schedule to the Editor before Friday of this week. Show your spirit! The best men in the College will be on THE CAMPUS staff this term. Are you among the number?

The importance of the arrangement effected between the Associate Alumni and the Campus Association cannot be overestimated. It marks the opening of a new era—an era which will be consummated with the erection of a Social House and Library and the building of a City College Club House, which shall rival those of other universities and colleges. Keeping the alumnus informed of student activities must surely result in the old grad better understanding and sympathizing with his younger brother. And it is a short step from great sympathy to greater assistance.

OFFICIAL

Editor of THE CAMPUS,

Dear Sir:

May I ask you to print in your next issue the enclosed copy of a letter which I am addressing to Mr. Moe Nudell, Upper Sophomore? Yours very truly, Herbert B. Benjamin, Sec'y to the Joint Committee.

M. Moe Nudell, 353 E. 49th Street.

Dear Sir:

I am instructed by the Joint Committee on Student Affairs to write you that the Committee has observed with much pleasure your spirit and demeanor during the past year.

Yours very truly, Herbert B. Benjamin, Sec'y to the Joint Committee.

NOTICE

The Joint Committee on Student Affairs has adjudged Mr. Philip Bernstein, L.S.2, and Mr. Jack L. Miller, L.F.2, guilty of giving and receiving aid, respectively, in a Physics Examination. Mr. Miller has left college. In the case of Mr. Bernstein, the Committee has voted that he be excluded from all extra-curricular activities for the space of one year from this date.

The Committee has also adjudged Mr. George Harrigan, U.F.3, guilty of dishonesty in a French examination. Mr. Harrigan has left college. Carleton L. Brownson, Chairman.

Herbert B. Benjamin, Secretary.

NEW GRADS APPOINTED TO FACULTY

Among the appointees to the Faculty are several recent graduates of the College. Edwin T. Hauser, Feb. '16, and George Holz are assigned as Assistant Tutors in the Hygiene Department. Hauser served several months in the Department last term. Harold W. Austin, Feb. '16, Y. M. C. A. President, and assistant baseball manager last year, and Isaac Kaplan, of the Jpne. class, are now in the Dean's Office. Thomas Coulton, June '15, last year's swimming manager is now in the Public Speaking Department, as Assistant Tutor, and Paul Gross, Feb. '16, of the varsity swimming squad, is assigned to the Department of Chemistry. Philip R. V. Curoe, Feb. '13, becomes a Tutor in Education being transferred from the Dean's Office where he has been since his graduation.

FACULTY CONTROL URGED BY COLLEGE PRESIDENTS

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 1.—After a severe arraignment of many features of present-day college athletics, the State Association of College Presidents decided to appoint a committee to investigate the entire subject of college athletics with the primary view of bringing about faculty control of athletics in all State colleges. The whole question of entrance requirements was considered in order to make the requirements for entrance to the different institutions more nearly uniform.

Dean Brownson and Professor Storey were the college's official representatives.

MANUFACTURERS DEMONSTRATE APPARATUS TO CHEMISTS

C. O. N. Y. CHEMISTS ACTIVE IN CLUB WHICH PLANS A FOOD SYMPOSIUM

A demonstration of the latest appliances in use at up-to-date laboratories was the feature of the "Apparatus Night" meeting and dinner of the Metropolitan Chemistry Teachers' Club held last month in the Faculty Lunch Room. The club was the guest of the Chemistry Department which takes an active part in the club's work.

A trip was also taken through a large iron plant at the foot of East 138th Street.

The next meeting of the association will be designated a "Food Symposium," and on February 19th, after dining at Reisenweber's, the members of the club will be the guests of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia, 59th Street and Amsterdam Avenue. Among the speakers of the evening will be Dr. B. G. Feinberg of our own college, Dr. Wm. Fettesole, Chief Chemist of the Government Medical Department, Prof. Wm. J. Gets, of P. and S. and others.

THE COLYUMNIST'S L'ALLEGRO

A colyumnist's life is the life for me. A colyumnist, that's what I want to be! To seek for the joy in the lives of men. To yank right out of their cheerless den The cynic cold and the pessimist crew, And those perennially black and blue, To boast what I like and roast what I don't, To start up in folks the contributing wont, In jest of serious things to write, And solemnly take the droll and the trite. To say what I please and in fashion Heigh ho! A colyumnist's life is the life for me.

Ssan, edsixing in T. H. H., tells us of a boy who wrote, "While strolling on the deck of a canoe."

Which reminds us of our youthful endeavors. One day we ended a theme with these verses: "Life, like a dome of many-colored glass, Stains the white radiance of Eternity. 'Till Death tramples it to fragments. Rotten! awful! said our classmates. Metre all awry, said our teacher. Then we explained that that was an extract from Shelley's "Adonais."

POSTMERIDIAN MEDITATION

My classes are empty, my students are gone, I've searched the whole College since fifty past one; It's not that my subject and methods are dry, (For no prof. is more conscientious than I). But my pay I'll wager, by ten thousand demons, I'll round 'em all up at Hurtig and Seamons.

MATHEMATICAL INDUCTION

Trigonometry reminds us, That while it has little rime, It has enow of logarithm.

The difference, obviously, between an examination room and a theatre is that in a theatre the choice seats are in front.

Prof. Schuyler Completes Library Arrangements

Arrangements have been made by Mr. Gaillard, Supervisor of Work with Schools, New York Public Library, and Prof. Schuyler, C. C. N. Y., whereby students in the History courses in the College may have special access to the reference shelves marked "For C. C. N. Y. and Hunter College Students," of the following Branch Libraries: Acular, 174 E. 110th St. 58th Street, 121 E. 58th St. Ft. Washington, 535 W. 179th St. Hamilton Fish Pl., 388 E. Houston St. Melrose, 910 Morris Ave. Morrisania, 610 E. 169th St. 115th Street, 201 W. 115th St. 125th Street, 224 E. 125th St. Seward Park, 192 E. Broadway 67th Street, 323 E. 67th St. St. Agnes, 444 Amsterdam Ave. Tremont, 331 E. 10th St. Washington Hgts., 1000 St. Nic's Ave. Woodstock, 759 E. 160th St. Yorkville, 222 E. 79th St. St. George, 115 Central Ave. Tompkinsville, S. I. 96th Street, 112 E. 96th St. The Brooklyn and Queens County Libraries have also entered the scheme and it is hoped that in this way the work of the students will be greatly aided.

A new course in French I has been instituted, and the following books will be studied: "La Jolie Fait Peur," Mlle. de Seigliere, "Contes Choisis," de Maupasant, Downer's Grammar from lesson 69, and Francois "Elementary Prose Composition."

FACULTY NOTES

Professor Justin Moore of the French Department has taken Professor Shapiro's place in the courses on American government and politics in the Evening Session.

Under the auspices of Columbia University, Professor Clarke began a series of lectures on "Practical Problems in Economics" last Tuesday. The course is given to the New York Chapter of the American Institute of Bankers, and supplements the series of lectures on "Theoretical Economics" given during the earlier part of the year by Professor Alvin S. Johnson of Cornell University.

Professor J. Merlant, of the University of Montpellier, delivered a lecture on La Mennais in the Extension Course in French on January 21st. It is of interest to note that the banner of Professor Merlant's college is in the Great Hall.

Professor George G. Scott, of our Natural History Department, has been elected a fellow of the New York Zoological Society.

Professor Guthrie lectured at the Harlem Y. M. C. A. last Sunday on the "Development of the German Empire."

Mr. Clarence Kaiser, a graduate student at Columbia, has been appointed an instructor in two courses in Economics in the Evening Session.

The Faculty Committee on the procuring of the replica of General Webb's statue, which is to cooperate with the Alumni Association, consists of Professors Kost (Chairman), and Pederson.

Mr. Panaroni, of the Department of Romance Languages, has been appointed to the Committee of Three on the Subject of Italian, in connection with the Regents' examination for next year. He was in Albany on February 5th, on the business of the Committee.

It is gratifying to note that Professor Saurel is rapidly recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia which has incapacitated him for some time. Dr. Saurel's classes have been distributed for the time being among other members of the Mathematics Department.

Robert C. Whitford, '12, son of Professor Whitford of our Mathematics Department, and Instructor in English at the University of Illinois, has an article on Mme. de Staël, in the current issue of the South Atlantic Quarterly.

Dr. Louis S. Friedland of the English Department is an Associate Editor of the Russian Review. The first, the current, issue of the publication will be reviewed in a later issue.

Professor Curtis has been chosen Editor of The Filter Press, a magazine for chemists, published quarterly by the club, the first issue of which has appeared this week. The paper is self-supporting and is highly commended.

Dr. Wm. B. Estabrooke, of the Chemistry Department, lectured in Yonkers last month on "French Gas as Used in the Present War."

BIO TO HEAR PROF. GOLDFARB

"Experimental Production of Monsters" will be the subject of Professor A. J. Goldfarb's talk before Bio tomorrow in Room 319 at 4 P. M. The program will also include a report by L. Levy, '16, on "Muscular Exercise and Heart Action."

BANQUET TO RETIRING PROFESSOR

A dinner was tendered to Professor William G. McGuckin, by the Department of History, at the Hotel Theresa, 125th St. and Seventh Ave., on Thursday, January 20th. Those present included President Mezes, the members of the History Department, and Dr. Snider, a former member of the Department.

After the dinner, speeches were made by Professor Johnson, who presided, President Mezes and every other member of the Department, closing with a presentation by Professor Schuyler of a silver loving cup to the retiring Professor. The loving cup was inscribed with an appreciation of Professor McGuckin's service to the College.

ROCHESTER TRIMS VARSITY

foul-shot. With the score still tied, the second half ended. The captains of the two teams decided upon a five minute period. In the first 30 seconds of play, Hale and Lefty each scored on foul shots. Rochester immediately pulled away from us, scoring three field goals, which gave them the game.

Jack Tanz appeared on the floor for the first time this season. He seemed out of trim, but a little practice ought to make Jack the good player he was before he undertook the duties of Treasurer. Ben Weinfeld got into the game in Joe Drake's place in the second half; Ben has been ill lately and wasn't up to his usual form.

Mussy Holman played a peach of a game at guard. He stuck to his man all along. The passing of the team as an entirety was excellent at times, but in the second half and in the extra period they were simply swept off their feet.

Hale starred, as usual, for the visitors. His guarding was excellent, and he scored sixteen of Rochester's thirty-two points. Adsit came through four field goals, in the short time he was in the play. The Rochester team is one of the speediest bunch of workers that have appeared on our court. They certainly did star after the ball; some of their men ought to be able to make our Track team.

Coach Palmer is at present on a leave of absence, but is coaching the team, voluntarily, for which he deserves the thanks of the entire student body. The Rochester team brought with them a four-year old boy as mascot; the kid apparently was the property of their graduate manager, but Saul Horowitz, during the presentation to the '20 class of their creed, insisted that he (the kid, not Saul) was a twenty man, to the babe's objection.

Is. Ornstein did the announcing in place of Lou Corrigan. Is. received his usual welcome.

The game proved conclusively that in losing Dash, we have reduced the playing calibre of our team as a unit. Mr. Palmer could make good use of an extra forward, just at present.

The Line-Up
C. C. N. Y. Rochester
 Bronstein—R. F. Woodhams
 Tischinsky—L. F. Harper
 Drake—C. Witney
 Lefkowitz—R. G. Hale
 Holman—L. G. Rowley
 Substitutions—Adsit for Woodhams; Henderson for Harper; Tanz for Bronstein; Schwartzman for Holman; Weinfeld for Drake; Eiten for Tischinsky.

Field Goals—Adsit 4; Hale 3; Harper 2; Henderson, Witney, Bronstein 3; Drake 2; Lefty 2; Tisch; Mussy Holman.

Goals from foul—Hale 10 out of 13; Lefty 9 out of 12.

Time of Halves—20 minutes each. Extra period of five minutes.

Referee—J. H. Deering of Manhattan.

N. Y. U. On Saturday

The N. Y. U. Basketball game takes place this Saturday evening, February 12th. City College—N. Y. U. games have always been exciting. The '13-'14 game resulted in a score of 22—20, with City College on the long end. Last year, N. Y. U. won by a score 17—16. This year, the two teams are almost even. We've lost Dash, while N. Y. U. has lost their crack center. A record crowd is expected, and all people who hope to obtain seats should be on hand early.

We're quoting Jimmie Bracken again (or isn't it Jimmie) when we say "Bet against the dope." The trouble just at present is, in what direction does the dope lie just now?

N. Y. U. beat Rochester; Rochester beat us. Therefore, any good student of Logic (Prof. Cohen's Logic) will tell you that N. Y. U. will beat us.

Princeton worked an extra period in beating us. Cornell trimmed N. Y. U. Princeton gave Cornell a terrible licking. Therefore (you must be a very good logician) we ought to beat N. Y. U.

Wait till Saturday arrives and be up early

FRESHMEN WIN

New Team Surprises All by Doing the Impossible

The squashed-by-the-Faculty-Freshman Team trounced the Clinton Basketball Team in the preliminary to the Rochester-Varsity contest. The '19 team (they were all '19 men, too) won handily by a score 19 to 15.

Considering the short time which he had to turn out an entirely new team, Mr. Hansen seems to have worked miracles. Lipsky and Projansky have been retained as forwards. Schmidt at center played on the second team of some school or other. Kurzman, at guard, was captain of the Eastern District School team, while his mate, Schoen, was at one time a member of the Stuyvesant Team.

The Freshies played well, and passed all around the Clinton bunch. Projansky was pretty weak at foul shooting but that is pardoned when it becomes known that he worked hard for three days preceding the Hallo! you '20 men. Shake! Were you on any team in high school? Yes? When do you intend to come out for your college teams or will you be deadheads and bookworms? If you weren't on a team, don't you think it's about time that you did try for one? These four years will be your last chance to become a famous or near-famous athlete.

Come over to the A. A. Room and meet me. Walk up to me and tell me who you are and where you come from. I'll find a place for you on one of the teams. There's room for all.

—HERBERT MILES HOLTON,
 Faculty Graduate Manager.

game. Lipsky starred for the home team, scoring ten of their points. Proj. Schmidt and Kurzman each scored one field goal.

Klatsky starred for the Clinton team, which is entirely different from the one that met the 1918 Freshman Team.

BASEBALL

Felix Kramer is looking serious, these days. He's parading around College looking for candidates for his Baseball Team. A large number of '20 men have signified their intention of coming out for the team. Of the new men in the College, McAleenan, of Fordham, is most promising. He played short regularly on their team and is sure to push little Felix hard. However, our Captain may switch to second.

Among the men left from last year's team, there are Felix—of course—Rosenberg, pitcher; Rank, catcher; Manz, Smythe, Kid Morris and Ray Lease, outfielders; Tommy Tucker, third baseman.

Coach Holton would like to meet several promising first base-men and some hitters. We never seemed to be strong at the stick-work.

Candidates for the team must be members of the A. A. and must have green cards.

Jimmie Bracken is arranging one of the finest schedules ever, which will include a number of home games. His assistant, John Schroeder is scheduling a series of games for a Freshman team with the high schools.

Tennis

An important meeting of the tennis candidates will be held at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, Feb. 19th on the Gym floor. Candidates should report with gym shoes and racquets.

Manager Herbert Napoleon Herzberg assures us that the College never had and never will have a schedule which can equal his. He has arranged games with Fordham, Manhattan, N. Y. U., Columbia, and Stevens, and has pending matches with Leland Stanford, University of Michigan, Colgate, Army, Lafayette, Hamilton and U. of P.

Of last year's team, we have with us Lou Joffe, J. Isaacs and Joe Drake.

PENN. RELAYS COMING

Invitation Letter Received for the Annual Carnival

The U. of Penn. A. A. have just sent out to the various colleges their invitation letters to the Relay Carnival which takes place this year on Friday and Saturday, April 28th and 29th. Penn's Relay Carnival has come to be regarded as the big athletic meet of the year. Last April more than 80 colleges and over 250 schools competed in this set of games. The entire country was represented both in the college and scholastic events. The meet was the greatest that was ever held in America.

For the last three years our track men have taken first place in their class event. Last year our crack quartet, Schaeffer '16, Moonan '17, Margolis '17 and Vriens '18 smashed our college record for the mile.

In our division, class 11, we have as opponents this year, N. Y. U. Law, Brooklyn Poly Institute, Brooklyn Law, Drexel, Temple, N. Y. Dental &

Oral Surgery, Seton Hall, Stevens' Tech. and Indiana Normal.

With the material on hand, C. C. N. Y. has a fine chance of again repeating in this event. Of last year's relay, we still have Jim Moonan, Jerry Vriens, and Ben Margolis. In addition to these men there are Albert Skelding, Saul Horowitz, Landis, Fisher and Murray, besides a number of '20 unknowns.

C. C. N. Y. Man Beats Drew

Louis S. Wettels, '19, won the 70 yard handicap at the annual indoor games of the 71st Regiment, against a strong field which included Howard P. Drew of the University of California, and Roy F. Morse, of the Salem-Crescents. Wettels, had a fifteen foot handicap, and his actual time was 7 and 2/5 seconds. He will be unable to run in the Indoor Meet of the I. C. A. A. A., owing to poor academic standing.

Property Managership Open

Phil Bernstein's resignation has left open the Property Managership, for which all Sophomores (by registration) are eligible. The Track Managership and Assistant Managership are open to Seniors and Juniors, respectively. Dutch Schaffer, former manager managed to graduate and Teddy Greenbaum is too busy to attend to his duties.

HURRAH!!!

The Executive Board of the Athletic Association passed a motion at its last meeting that hereafter, a member of the College Press may be present at its meetings on invitation of the Board.

A C. C. N. Y. Football Team?

The various colleges in the East have obtained the impression that City College has a foot-ball team. As a result of which, the A. A. has received requests from Georgetown and Lafayette for games. The latter want us to play them at Easton, Penn., September 30th. Mac thinks that he ought to be able to pick up a team by that date.

Saul Horowitz is acting as Manager of the Swimming Team in Johnny Schulman's absence. The latter, in all probability, will not return to College.

Lost on February 1st, a real basketball player, one Dash, '19, who departed from these regions through some slight persuasion on the part of the faculty.

Harold Wright, our cracker-jack cheer-leader and left-fielder, is now teaching at Drexel Institute, Phila.

Joe Scariata has landed a position—too much salary attached to call it a job—with John Wanamaker. He'll be running, in the future, as a member of the Millrose A. A.

FRESHMAN TICKETS OUT

New Ticket Gives Many Privileges to the New Freshmen

The Athletic Association has issued special rate tickets for the 1920 class; these tickets at 75c. per, entitle the purchaser to membership to the A. A. and all the privileges thereunto adhering, such as free admission to Inter-Class games, reductions on Sporting Goods, votes at the general elections in May, besides others. This ticket also admits the bearer to the last four events of the Indoor Season, the Rochester, Rutgers and Washington and Lee Basketball games and the Penn Swimming meet. At the end of the season, the tickets may be exchanged for an Outdoor Sports ticket which will admit the bearer to at least eight Baseball games and Track meets in the Stadium. All this for 75c. Get busy, Freshmen, and see our big team clean 'em up.

This Friday evening, the Varsity Swimming Team meets the Princeton bunch at Princeton. The last time we met the Jersey huskies they copped the Swimming Meet by a score of 39—14; the Water-Polo result was 5—0, with the zero in our possession. The following evening, our natators meet the Middies at Annapolis. The Naval Academy team trimmed us last year but we ought to be able to hold our own this year.

Freshman Team Disrupted

The Nineteen Basketball Team has been disrupted by the loss of eight men of their ten-man squad. One or two of the men flunked themselves out, while the other six were declared ineligible, because they are registered as Lower Sophs.

The F. A. C. dug up an ancient ruling which says (according to Mac) that only registered Freshmen may play on Freshman teams. Mac tells us that the team is not a '19 team but a Freshman team, and hence Sophs may not play on it. In answer to Mac, we proved that the ruling had never been executed before, inasmuch as the F. A. C. permitted lower Sophs to play on the '17 and '18 Freshman teams. But you can't argue with the F. A. C.

However, a large number of men have turned out for the Freshman team, and the chances are that the new team may be almost as good as the "'19" bunch.

On Thursday, January 27th, the long-expected elections to the A. A. Board took place. M. Experience Greenberg, who had previously resigned his Vice-Presidency, beat Bill Jones out for O. Vivien Tabor's old job. Jack Tanz left the Treasury Department in the lurch to run against Vic Smith for the Vice-Presidency, and Jack is now happy but useless. Yes, Vic got it. The Board chose Solon Bernstein to fill the gap left by Jack's resignation.

but alas! The terror of the book-vault will only grant two and twenty-four twenty-fifths. At the psychological moment enters Boney, Janitor and Diplomat, who proves to be a fraternity brother of Repeat's, in the time-honored, non-exclusive Pop Eta Mazzo—and orders the arch-villain, while the scenery men on both sides are wildly gesticulating to each other to close the curtain, to give the full three credits. (Not such a bad idea: the writer would have long been an alumnus were the rullin in force, with extra credits enough for posterity.)

The play was written in four acts by Halpern, in collaboration with Good and Wolfe. Joe Solomon was the Business Manager, Gutowitz, Treasurer, and Strumpf, Tabor and Landy looked after the property and scenic effects. Wolfe, Tinsley, Shauer and Muldorsky were responsible for the lyrics and music of the play. Between the acts, the College Orchestra rendered selections. Singer, June '15 conducting; Tinsley's prophecy was read at Friday's performance while Strumpf cartooned the class' celebrities as they posed before him on the stage, and Tabor and Nelson gave exhibition dances. The cast was coached by Dr. Tynan, Philip R. V. Curcoe, '13, and Ted Goodman, '15, who assisted at "Gym-Jams" and "The One Best Bet."

Socialists Engage Prominent Speakers

As the first lecturer of the new term for the Socialist Study Club, Professor Overstreet will address the club on "Socialism and the New Spirit of Philosophy," to-morrow, at noon in Room 126. A reorganization, elections, and introduction of new members will follow.

Many prominent speakers have been engaged to speak during the course of the term, among whom are the Hon. Meyer London, the U. S. Congressman, Morris Hilquit, Prof. Charles Beard of Columbia, Henry Clews, the banker, and Felix Adler, active in the ethical movement. Several of the speakers will present the side against socialism.

The organization of a voluntary course, open to all, in the fundamentals of the subject of Socialism, to be conducted by faculty members interested in the movement, and the usual soiree at the close of the term, are among the Society's plans for the current semester.

MENORAH PLANS ACTIVE TERM

The following men have been elected officers of the Menorah Society for the spring term: President, Moses H. Gitelson; Vice-President, Bernard Jaffe; Treasurer, Bernard Spiegel; Corresponding Secretary, William Walden; Recording Secretary, Saul Pulver.

The Society has opened its activities with the aim of vigorously executing the policy which was so successfully instituted during the past term: the emphasis on quality rather than quantity of its membership. The work of the Menorah Society this term will be divided into the following activities:

The lectures, at which prominent men and women address the students on topics of interest; Thursdays at 12. The weekly Forums, every Tuesday at 1 P. M., in the Menorah Alcove. At these Forums, members of the Faculty, Alumni and outsiders will lead the discussions.

At the Study Circles, the members themselves discuss Jewish topics. On Sunday evening, February 20, at 8 P. M., a joint meeting of the Menorah Societies of C. C. N. Y., Hunter College, Columbia, and N. Y. U. will be held in the T. H. H. auditorium.

The Menorah Society is instituting a contest, open to all, in which a large money prize will be offered. Full details will appear in a subsequent number.

A lecture on "The Songs of the Cowboy," illustrated with vocal selections, was given last month by Professor John A. Lomax of the University of Texas. The emotions and sentiments of the rovers of the vast western prairies were most vividly presented in the lonely cowboy's poetical expression.

PEACE TALK COMING

Winner of the Local Contest will speak in Intercollegiate Competition.

Are you a 'pacifist'? Have you the 'gift of gab' and an educated hand? See Professor Palmer.

Even tho the term has just begun, preparations are already being made for the City College Peace Oration contest, the winner of which is to speak in the competition held by the Intercollegiate Peace Association.

That this is worth while is seen in the fact that the winner of the local contest receives a money prize of twenty-five dollars, and the privilege of entering the state-wide contest, the prizes offered in the latter, being $200 for the winner and $100 for second best.

The contest is open to all students of the College. There are no restrictions except that no speech is to take longer than 10 minutes. All men who are interested should see Professor Palmer in Room 226A some day during the week of Feb. 9 to 16.

The local contest will probably be held on March 15th, so obey that impulse and see Professor Palmer this week.

The success of Mortimer Cohen in last year's Peace Contest may be regarded as a favorable indication of another C. C. N. Y. victory.

T. H. H. ALUMNI ORGANIZE

The last Senior Class of Townsend Harris, now the 1920 class of the College, has banded itself into a class member of the Alumni Association of T. H. H. Its plan is to spread the movement to all classes that have graduated from Harris, so that a large Alumni Organization may be formed. The officers are as follows: Howard Meyerhof, President; George M. Hyman, Vice-President; Henry Kiedrowski, Secretary; Maurice Stoll, Treasurer. All interested may consult these students in the '20 alcove.

JOIN THE ADELPHIAN!

The Adelpian, the Fresh-Soph literary society, will open the new term on Friday night, February 11th, in Room 14, at 8 o'clock. The club is now beginning its sixteenth year. Many former members have gone on and are now members of Clio and Phreno, so there are a number of places vacant for new members. All Freshmen and Sophomores of any literary inclinations are invited to join. All 1920 men are especially looked for at Friday's meeting.

ELECTIONS IN SOCIAL CLUB TOMORROW

The newly organized Social Club will meet in executive session for election of officers to-morrow in Room 126. This will be the last closed meeting of the club, being for members only. Hereafter, all meetings of the organization will be open to all. Everybody is invited to join and further the three aims of the club: College Spirit, Sociability and a Social House.

HEAVY REGISTRATION IN CHEM.

Due to increased registration in Chemistry 2 courses, two sets of lectures will be given, one by Professor Baskerville and the other by Dr. Estabrooke.

There are now 14 sections in Chemistry 2 whereas the number in Chemistry 1 has been reduced to 10 and Chemistry 3 is all out of proportion having only 8 sections.

Heavy enrollment has been had in all departments and great work has been shifted onto the existing staffs, the C. C. N. Y. appropriation not being adequate to cover the expense of engaging new men in the various departments.

Professor Heckman Lectures

Professor Samuel B. Heckman, of the Education Department, spoke on "The Function of Educational Clinics to the Schools" before The Conference of Visiting Teachers of the City on last Monday, February 7th, at the Public Education Association.

Professor Heckman is now in charge of two active branch clinics for school children's defects, one in the Bronx and the other in Manhattan. The Bronx office is located in the rooms of the Bureau of Education, P. S. 9, Bronx, and is open on Thursdays; 224 West 34th Street is the address of the local clinic which is held on Fridays.

FRESHMAN MASS MEETING

Members of the new '20 Class to be Officially Welcomed by the Student Council.

A monster mass meeting of welcome will be held for Lower Freshmen, in the Great Hall, at 12 o'clock, to-morrow, under the auspices of the Student Council. This is in accordance with established custom, and the Freshmen will be informed of their rights, privileges and duties as college men. Students prominent in College affairs will address the meeting and all 1920 men are urged to be present. A large gathering is looked forward to and all Freshmen must be present.

Professor Baldwin Secures Funds

As no appropriation has been made for printing programs for the organ recitals during 1916, Professor Baldwin has been forced to raise the required amount, three hundred dollars, by private subscription. Notices regarding the situation have been circulated among the audiences at the semi-weekly recitals since the first January concert. The notices stated that any amount from ten cents up could be forwarded to Prof. Baldwin or placed in the boxes provided at the Great Hall entrances.

Contributions toward this printing fund are reported to be sufficient for the present purposes.

Charles E. Lydecker, '78, was re-elected Chairman of the Trustees at the last meeting, and James W. Hyde received a re-election as Secretary. Elections are held annually for these positions on the Board.

Chem Society Holds Semi-Annual Banquet

The semi-annual banquet was held in the Faculty Lunch Room on January 31st. Professor Friedburg gave an account of his early experiences in chemistry and was followed by Professor Baskerville who gave a brief resume of the present American situation. He exhorted American chemists not to become "war babies," but to stand on their own feet and show our friends across the water that they can be and are being surpassed in America.

Peter G. Daschavsky, '16, former Manager General, has been elected president in the place of Paul Gross who is now an instructor.

Arthur Schroeder, '17, now occupies the office of Manager General.

Dr. Estabrooke will speak this Thursday on "History of Chemical Fighting and French Gas." He has made a special study of this subject. On Thursday, February 24th, Jerome Alexander of the National Granite and Mica Company, will speak upon colloidal chemistry and some of its applications.

Leaves of absence were granted to Prof. Morris R. Cohen of the Philosophy Department, whose recent illness caused an extended absence during last term, Leonard L. Palmer of the Hygiene Department, coach of the varsity basketball squads, and Kenneth Groesbeck of the English Department, whose leave is renewed.

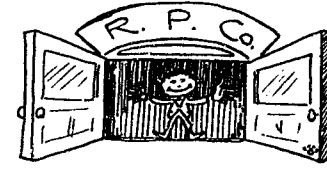

Dr. H. M. Scheffer has been appointed a special lecturer in the Philosophy Department, in Professor Cohen's place for the Spring term. The new appointee has studied at the University of Wisconsin, Missouri and Harvard.

BENJAMIN SUCCEEDS DOMBROW

The desire to devote his entire efforts to the work of his last semester has led Sim Dombrow to resign the editorship of the College Mercury. Herbert B. Benjamin, formerly Associate Editor and a member of the staff of long standing succeeds him. Philip Reichert continues as Business Manager.
