Varsity Wins First Home Game

SCORE 4 TO 3

COOPER UNION TEAM DEFEATED
—CLOSE DECISION AT PLATE
—GAME FORFEITED.

Last Saturday afternoon the Varsity met and defeated the Cooper Union nine in its first home game by a score of 4 to 3.

The visitors scored three runs in the first two innings on a wild pitch by Thomas and a wild throw by Krinsky. After that the Varsity held them scoreless. The feature of the game was the pitching of Matty and Thomas, who held Cooper Union to four scattered hits.

Thomas opened the game by fanning Heslin and Spring. S. O'Regan walked, stole second and scored on Krinsky's wild throw to second. Guttman hit to Thomas, who threw him out at first. One run.

In our half, O'Connor singled to center and took second on Saxe's sacrifice. Krinsky was safe on Goldman's error. Shannon fled out. Freehill out at first. No runs.

SECOND INNING. Cooper Union. Goldman hit to right and took second on a passed ball. W. O'Regan got to first on Thomas' error, Goldman taking third. O'Regan stole second. Goldman scored on a wild pitch, and O'Regan scored when Krinsky deserted the plate. Rosen and Rawdin struck out. Rothberg hit to Saxe. Two runs.

C. C. N. Y. Lebo walked and immediately stole second. Taft fanned. Mullen walked. Matty doubled, scoring Lebofsky and putting Mullen on third. O'Connor out. One run.

THIRD INNING. Cooper Union. S. O'Regan got to first on Taffy's error. Guttman fled out to Shannon. Goldman sacrificed. O'Regan stole third. W. O'Regan struck out. No runs.

C. C. N. Y. Saxe walked. Krinsky sacrificed. Shannon forced Saxe at third, but took second on the play. Freehill got to first on Spring's error, Shannon going to third. Lebo grounded out, Heslin to O'Regan. No runs.

FOURTH INNING. Cooper Union. Rosen singled. Rawdin fled out to Mullen. Matty fanned both Rothberg and Heslin. No runs.

C. C. N. Y. Taft got to first on Spring's error. Mullen fled out to Spring who doubled Taft at first. Matty popped out. No runs.

FIFTH INNING. Cooper Union. Spring went out, Taffy to Saxe. O'Regan singled and stole second. Guttman fanned. O'Regan pilfered third. Goldman fled out to Taffy. No runs.

C. C. N. Y. O'Connor struck out. Saxe singled, stole second and took third on Krinsky's hit. Saxe scored on Shannon's roller to first. Freehill fled to left. One run.

SIXTH INNING. Cooper Union. W. O'Regan singled, stole second and went to third on Rosen's out, Taffy to Saxe. Matty fanned Rawdin and Rothberg. No runs.

C. C. N. Y. Lebo doubled and took third on Taffy's out. Mullen fled out to Left, and Lebo is thrown out at the plate trying to score.

SEVENTH INNING. Cooper Union. Heslin grounded out, Taft to Saxe. Spring and O'Regan both fanned.

C. C. N. Y. Matty beat out an infield hit. Taft, running for Matty, stole

New Honorary Society Forms

DISTINGUISHED COLLEGE MEN TO BE ADMITTED.

A new honorary society has been formed at C. C. N. Y. It is already on a firm basis. A constitution has been prepared and ratified.

The aim of the new fraternal organization is to encourage the students of the College to do their utmost in service to their country and College. Only those men will be admitted to membership as have distinguished themselves above all others in service. Eight men are to be taken from the Junior class annually. At the start, eight men will be taken from the Senior class as well, making sixteen in all.

The new society seems bound to have a healthy and long-lived existence. In these critical times no nobler purpose could be imagined for an honorary society.

The names of the men selected to membership will be published in next week's Campus.

MICROCOSM RENEWS ITS ACTIVITIES

The elections for the staff of the Microcosm were held on Wednesday, April 24. Charles Simon was chosen editor-in-chief, and Meyer Goldberg, business manager. The Student Council confirmed the election.

There are several positions open for men of all classes. Although no Microcosm appeared in 1917 or 1918, this publication is an assured success.

1918 Institutes "Liberty Rally"

NOVEL AFFAIR AFTER NUMERAL LIGHTS MAY BECOME PERMANENT TRADITION.

The class of 1918 will demonstrate once more, in the Numeral Lights exercises to be held in the Great Hall on Friday evening, May 3, how well it can put things over. The affair promises to be the biggest thing of its kind ever held in the College, and will rival the social classics of our great universities.

The keynote of the evening is summed up in the title of the speech to be delivered by our popular Prof. Charles Baskerville, "Loyalty, Duty, and Service." These three ideas have been the inspiration of the President of the '18 class, Julius N. Cohen, who has been striving like a Trojan to make the evening a combination of entertainment and true service.

The committee has arranged an elaborate programme with many novel and entertaining features. After the exercises in the Great Hall, the scene of activities is to be transferred to the campus plaza, which is to be magnificently decorated with gay banners and lanterns. Sergeant Arthur Guy Empey of "Over the Top" fame, Burr McIntosh and a well known opera singer will entertain and stimulate the patriotic fervor of the students.

As a prelude to the activities on the campus, there will be the exercises in the Great Hall. After Prof. Baskerville's address, the 1918 quartette will sing the songs so dear to the C. C. N. Y. men. The class poem is then to be read, and then the president of the class, Julius N. Cohen, will dedicate the numeral lights painting.

This masterpiece of art is the product of Jerry Kates, the wonderful class painter. His artistic efforts are seconded by Dave Sonkin and Franz Wille, the class electricians, who have arranged the lighting effects.

The June, 1918 class has arranged to send an invitation to each man of the Feb. 1918 class, for himself and friend or friends. In this way the class of 1918 will be reunited to full strength, and those who have left us will come once again to Alma Mater.

The committee, consisting of Irving Levy, Julius N. Cohen, Nat Solomon, Dave Sonkin and Jerry Kates have worked untiringly and the affair is to be an undoubted success. Every one is invited. Come up and bring your friends to the great patriotic rally. Join hands for service and good fellowship!

French and Belgian Veterans Stir College at Liberty Day Assembly

CAPTAIN DUTHOIT AND CAPTAIN SAND SPEAK. SERGEANT D'OBELLE SINGS IN FRENCH. PROFESSOR DOWNER PRESIDES

"Les Allemands comprennent que l'arrive des Americaines est la fin du militarisme Prussien!" This was the eloquent compliment paid the American army by Captain Duthoit, of the French army, to an audience of students and faculty, whose enthusiasm knew no bounds. Liberty Day was celebrated in the College last Thursday at noon by a special assembly, held in the Great Hall.

Acting-President Brownson, to demonstrate the fact that American patriotism and love of France are one sentiment, dedicated the day of liberty to the most gallant of our Allies—France, and delegated the chairmanship of the Assembly to Prof. Charles A. Downer of the French Department.

Professor Downer introduced the first speaker, Captain Sand, a graduate of the University of Brussels, and a member of the Belgium Industrial Mission. This mission visited the College with the purpose of studying it as a model institution of constructive democracy.

Big Charter Day Celebration Tues.

WILL UNVEIL HEGNEY TABLET IN GREAT HALL—FACULTY-STUDENT BASEBALL GAME.

The Charter Day ceremonies next Tuesday will be marked by the unveiling of a memorial tablet in the Great Hall to Arthur Hegney, the Townsend Harris student who was killed in the French trenches on March 7th.

The Charter Day ceremonies are held in commemoration of the granting of the Charter, when the name of the College was changed from the old Free Academy to The College of the City of New York. Last year the exercises included the unveiling of the statue of General Webb on the campus and a luncheon in the gymnasium. The arrangements are being made by Professor Downer, chairman of the Alumni Committee and Hyman, '20, Kiedrowski, '20, Divinsky, '18, and Cohe, '19. Ten dollars was voted to the committee by the Student Council to notify the alumni.

Prof. Charles P. Fagnani, '78, president of the Associate Alumni will speak and all the classes from '53 to '18 will be represented. In the afternoon a baseball game between the faculty and students in the stadium is being arranged by the baseball management.

The tablet in honor of Hegney is being prepared by the well-known ecclesiastical firm of J. and R. Lamb, the present head of the firm, Charles Lamb, being a loyal former C. C. N. Y. student. The tablet will be similar in form and appearance to the tablet to Edward M. Shephard, '09, which now stands on one side of the platform of the Great Hall and the Hegney tablet will be placed on the other side of the Hall paralleling the Shephard tablet.

"This is the first time," Captain Sand declared, in his charming Belgian manner, "that I have the privilege of addressing an American audience, and you can imagine how deeply I am moved. You are the wonderful people who have saved my country from starvation, and I want to thank the men, women and especially the children, for what they have done. It has not been done in vain. My countrymen know you now, the greatest constructive democracy, and I think the bonds which link Belgium and the United States will never be loosened."

Captain Sand told of his first enthusiastic impressions upon coming to America, and seeing its remarkable, vigorous people. "All my expectations have been fulfilled, and since I have entered 'The States,' all my doubts if I ever had any, of our winning the war, have fled."

Sergeant D'Obelle, a member of the French mission, sang several French war songs, which illustrate the steadfastness and the single-minded purpose with which the French people are fighting, "Le Tricot," or "The Knitting Song," which portrays the heroism of the French women, and their reliance in the bravery of their husbands who are actively engaged on the front, was sung by Sergeant D'Obelle with a pathos which could only be expressed by a Frenchman.

Another patriotic song, "Deux Petites Alsaciens," was followed by "Par Labas," a translation by Prof. Louis Delamarre, of the French Department, of "Over There," which was rendered with such a verve and gusto that it completely thrilled everyone in the hall.

Captain Duthoit, of the French army, and before the war Professor at the University of Lille, so charmed his audience with the mellifluous tones of his voice, that even students who did not understand a word of French, sat enthralled by his miraculous flow of words.

"I am happy to speak in my native tongue," he began, addressing the Assembly in French, "especially since it shows the emphasis placed on the study of my language in the universities of this country."

Captain Duthoit paid a glowing tribute to America when he affirmed that it is a great privilege for France to be united with the Americans in the same cause—to make justice and liberty triumph over the earth, so that no force should ever be able to destroy them.

"It is an agreeable surprise," he said, turning to the officers on the platform, "to meet here in this magnificent college, my Belgian brother in arms, as to tell what we think of glorious Belgium, her heroic king, her magnificent Cardinal Mercier, and her brave burgomaster of Brussels—the finest types of humanity. It is also a great privilege to see here a Canadian, a representative of United Canada, both French and British, which has sent so many brave soldiers across to France."

COLLEGE NEWS FOR OUR SOLDIERS.

Some time ago we offered to send copies of The Campus free of charge to City College men in the service. All that we asked was to be given the names and addresses. The response was rather small. However, we mailed out copies to all those whose names were given to us.

Once more we repeat our offer. We will supply copies of this paper free of charge for mailing to the men in the service. The Student Council has appropriated money to pay for the postage and the Soldiers' Comfort Committee stands willing to take care of the clerical work. It's up to the students to send in the names and addresses. Bring them up to the Campus office, give them to Mr. Bosch, chairman of the committee, or put them in The Campus box in the Dean's office.

Our boys "over there" are surely anxious to hear from home. The Campus to them is a welcome gift. It brings up memories of days now gone and makes them feel they are not forgotten.

Perhaps you can understand their feelings better if you read this letter just received from one of our heroes:

139th Aero Squadron,
A. E. F., France, April 8, 1918.

Dear Mr. Stahl:

I just received the issue of February 27 that you so kindly sent me, and I wish to express my sincere appreciation of the same.

I hope that you have sent me the succeeding issues. Believe me, I shall look forward to their arrival with the greatest of all the joys of expectation.

Again thanking you for your thoughtfulness, I am,

Sincerely,
EDWARD M. MORRIS,
Ex. February, 1918.

The above letter tells it all. It is up to us to do our bit and send the papers. Think up all the addresses you can and turn them in. No nobler work could be imagined for the College "Soldiers' Comfort Committee."

CHARTER DAY.

This year's Charter Day Exercises, which take place next Tuesday, will be one of the most significant and stirring ceremonies ever held to commemorate the founding of our glorious C. C. N. Y.

In addition to other ceremonies, there will be unveiled in the Great Hall the first memorial to the sons of the College who have paid the last debt, won a permanent immortality, by giving their lives for Democracy in this war. Ultimately some great and fitting memorial to all these heroes is to be erected, but for the present, a tablet will be dedicated to Arthur Hegney, the Townsend Harris student, who was the first youth who went forth from these portals to be slain in battle. The new bronze, which will be placed in the Great Hall paralleling the tablet to Edward M. Shepard, '69, will thus symbolically proclaim that each City College man who perishes in this war is honored by his Alma Mater even as our great alumni are honored, and that each one of these heroes, though he be only a boy, has served his College and his City as fully, to the measure of his powers, as did our great benefactor, Edward M. Shepard.

How inspiring it is to feel that for seventy-one years the College of the City of New York, the exponent of democratic education, has sent forth her sons to teach to the world the doctrines learned within these walls, of true Democracy and equal opportunity for all, for which our classmates now go forth to meet the standard bearers of autocracy and class privilege on the battlefield of France.

And as a fitting completion to a day of pride and inspiration we will show the truly American—truly C. C. N. Y.—spirit of

A STUDE'S SONG.

(With genuflections to Hog's, "A Boy's Song.")

Where the pool is bright and deep,
Where the old "profs" never peep,
Up the Gym steps—what care we?
That's the way for Billy and me.

Where the alcoves sing the sweetest,
Where the poker games are straightest,
Where the students chirp and flee,
That's the way for Billy and me.

Where the lecture hall is steepest,
Where the shadows fall the deepest,
There to sleep so peaceful,
That's the way for Billy and me.

Why the boys should drive away,
Little maidens from their play,
The little "maids" we like so well,
That's the thing I never could tell.

But this I know, I love to play,
With the maidens all the day;
Cutting hours, one, two, three,
That's the way for Billy and me.

PROFESSOR OVERSTREET LEADS WAR STUDY GROUP TODAY AT 1:15

The Independent War Study group which Professor Overstreet leads and of which Bernard Hurwitz, '20 is chairman, meets today and every Wednesday at 1:45 P. M. in room 307.

Interesting discussions are held on the moral issues raised by the war. At these war study groups men have an excellent opportunity of meeting the faculty on a less formal basis than in the class room. All interested may join the group at to-day's meeting.

PETERS TO LECTURE IN LAW COURSES

Curtis A. Peters, formerly assistant Corporation Counsel in charge of the Tax Division will lecture on "Law of Municipal Taxation or Local Taxation," in the course on the "Law of Municipal Corporation," being given at the 23rd Street Branch, Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Professor Guthrie, of the Political Science Department, has been appointed a member of a committee of the National Municipal League for the study and agitation of county reorganization in the United States. His work will be an intensive study of county organization with a view towards reconstructing poorly formed counties.

PROF. MOON TO ADDRESS BIO

Professor Moon, Dean of the School of Forestry, will address the Biological Society on "Forestry and the War." The professor will accompany the lecture with lantern slides. The meeting will be held at 4 p. m. on Thursday, May 2, 1918, in Room 319.

In Eng. 2B the other day the Professor gave a short dictation. "Young Collegians" were the words that caused the trouble. The innocent studes wrote "Yonkers Legions." Yea, Bo!

PHRENO.

The Phreno-Clio debate was discussed last Friday, April 19. The following team was chosen: J. Divinsky, chairman; V. Reichert, J. Cohen, J. Brophy, alternate.

The debate will take place on May 31st.

Bernard Schubert, an ex-member of Phreno, now in the aviation service, spoke at the meeting held on April 26th.

Phrenocosmia invites all visitors and members of Junior and Senior classes to attend its meetings held every Friday evening in Room 209.

QUILL CLUB.

At a very interesting meeting of the Quill Club held last Thursday at 12 M., Is. Schneider read the continuation of the story "The American," which is being published monthly in the Mercury.

Discussion then followed upon merits and demerits of his work. Radicalism types of which he so ably depicted in his story was given a critical study.

LECTURE ON SNAKES ENTER-TAINS "BIO"

The Biological Society was favored at its last meeting with a lecture by Mr. Charles Snyder, chief keeper of the Bronx Park Zoo. The interest of the lecture reached its highest pitch when Mr. Snyder displayed his two most poisonous specimens, the rattlesnake and the water moccasin snake. From the latter he extracted a large quantity of venom, much to the amazement of all present. He also presented the College Biology museum with a splendid specimen of a rattlesnake skin.

French Veterans Stir Students Final Arrangements Completed for Columbia

"But the greatest privilege of them all," the Captain exclaimed fervently, "is to be able to say to you, 'Mes Amis,' just as I had said to my own students in 1914, many of whom have fallen heroically for the cause of justice. And it is of them, that I now think. Ah, what a similarity between the ideals of these fallen French youths and the ideals the American youth will have!"

Enumerating these ideals, Captain Dutoit asserted that both the French and American youth were united in the highest and greatest ideal of them all, an ideal of disinterested courage—to save a great cause for all suffering humanity, to obtain a clear and glorious future. "These are also the ideals of the American colleges and universities. It is the ideal of the American army, which has in it a large number of college and university men. This splendid American army, gathered from all parts of the forty-eight states—from the north, east, south and west—this army has been cordially received by France, which regards its soldiers as her own sons. They are over there now, and I am sure they will distinguish themselves. They have come with a will to win, and a real American vigor and courage. They have been received by the rustic families of Lorraine, Champagne and Picardy, and are treated by these simple Frenchmen as their own sons.

GERMANS FEAR AMERICA.

"They are coming in larger and larger numbers. And the Germans realize that the coming of the Americans means the end of Prussian militarism. That is why the Boches tried to begin their drive before the irresistible force of America could be mobilized overseas.

"As a watchword, remember 'Liberty!' Let no personal sacrifice be too great for this great idea. Have a staunch heroism, and a hope in final victory.

SPORTING COMMENT

"BY ALI AND THE GANG"

MUCH HAS BEEN SAID about the A. A. Board and great criticism, some of it justifiable, has been heaped upon it. The first opportunity for real constructive reform is just two days off. We have always maintained that the efficiency of the Board depended upon the men that composed it, and very little upon the formal rules by which they were bound. Now the problem is up squarely before the members of the Athletic Association. The new constitution will contain many needed reforms. If the voters can pick seven men worthy of their positions out of the shindy of mudslinging and Spanish athletics, otherwise known as the A. A. elections, the A. A. will start off on a firm basis. Otherwise—well, we'd rather not say.

There are four candidates in the field for the presidency, and each of them feels confident of breaking the tape first. We must be non-partisan and can't hand out any dope on how to vote. But for Heaven's sake, fellows, don't vote for a man because he is a friend of yours. Think it over. Elect the man who is best fitted to assume the leadership of our athletic destinies. We need a strong leader. Remember, Mr. A. A. voter, it's all up to you.

MAC, GOOD OLD MAC, has been working like a Trojan these days getting the Stadium in shape for the ball games, and fixing the cinder path for our Mercuries. Now he is coaching the Freshman ball players and is largely responsible for their enthusiasm. Our hats off to you, Mr. MacKenzie! We wonder what C. C. N. Y. would do without you.

WE HAVE OVERHEARD on the Campus here of late a good bit of confab on the abolition of the Freshman rule during the war. In view of the fact that after next year's graduation most of our Varsity material will have disappeared, it might be well to work for the abolition of the one-year rule. As one of the bunch sentimentously put it: "It's better to have one good team than to have two bum ones."

LIFE'S LITTLE MYSTERIES—What happened to the Inter-class Water Polo Tournament? Ask Dad—he knows.

IT MIGHT BE WELL for some of our athletes to consider the recent war resolution of the Student Council. You see, a word to the wise will help, before any eventualities crop up.

THE ELECTION OF A CHEER LEADER seems to be causing quite a dispute. The A. A. and the Student Council are squabbling over the right to elect him. We think the matter is simple enough. The Varsity cheer leader gets Varsity letters; only A. A. representatives get Varsity letters, ergo the cheer leader must be an A. A. job. Wherefore the argument?

THE RECONSIDERATION OF THE A. A. BOARD to award minor sport letters to the cross country team was decidedly welcome. Our runners deserve encouragement almost as much as the team needs new material.

"WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH the baseball team?" That is the question asked by the loyal followers of the game. Our pitching staff is small, but good. Garvey and Thomas are both capable and have lots of stuff on the ball. Thomas is still inclined to be wild, however.

We are a bit weak in the catching department. Matthews is getting back into form after his injury. Krinsky has a good build and a fine arm, but he needs practice and coaching.

Saxe at first is a cracker-jack, and could hold down a job on any local college nine. Freehill seems to hold his own at second. At short we have had the misfortune to lose "Robby." Taffy has taken his place. His throwing and fielding could be improved. O'Connor plays fairly well at third, but he is very weak with the stick.

In the outfield Lebofsky is hitting the ball well and his fielding is O. K. Shannon is a little slow, but he's sure and a good batter. Mullen in right is a fair fielder. For utility outfielders we have Corcoran, Greenwald and Haskel, all good men. Corcoran seems to be the best of the three with the stick.

On the whole, the team looks good, and we expect results soon. Luck is against the boys. Half of them are crippled. But just wait 'till they get back in the game.

THAT FRESHMAN TEAM, with Cullen, Feigen and Murry surely looks good. Up and at 'em, boys.

"IRV" HAS PASSED from these columns. Henceforth and from now on, these columns will be written by "Ali and the Bunch."

Frosh Nine Takes Tumble

MANHATTAN '21 DOES THE TRICK.

The Manhattan Cubs took a jaunt up to the Stadium on Tuesday, April 23, and gained the distinction of being the first to scalp our cub ball players.

The Freshmen could do nothing with the pitching of Mangan and suffered their first defeat of the season, 7-0. Our neighbors connected with Chick Feigen's delivery for six hits in four innings, which netted them six runs.

"Charlie" Cullen's hitting was the one redeeming feature of our youngsters. Cullen laced out a single and a double in four trips to the plate.

WILLIE ROSENBERG WINS HOP, STEP AND JUMP AT PENN RELAYS

The Relay Team failed to finish in front last Saturday at the Penn games. Of the six teams entered they finished last. The event was won in time worse than that done by C. C. N. Y. in former years. To say the least, the field was mediocre.

"Willie" Rosenberg won the hop, step and jump, with 42 feet 8 inches, beating his nearest rival by 5 feet. The record is only 46 feet for this event.

Varsity Succumbs To Fordham

SCORE 16-2

Last Wednesday afternoon the baseball team suffered an overwhelming defeat at the hands of the strong Fordham College nine on Fordham Field by a score of 16 to 2. The team's fielding was ragged, Matty and Taffy contributing 3 errors each.

At the beginning of the game the varsity fielded and battled well and it looked as though the team might give them a hard fight. This was but for a short while. In the second, after Garvey had struck out Abbott, the Fordham fence buster, with two down, Matty dropped the third strike and threw wild to first. This started things for Fordham and they ended the inning with a five run lead. The varsity got right back in the next inning and gathered in 2 runs.

Garvey started the attack with a single over second, taking third on Saxe's hit and a wild throw by Shankey. This put Garvey on third and Saxe on second. Garvey scored on Freehill's infield out to Shankey. Saxe advancing to third and later scoring on a passed ball. The next inning McQuade was taken out and Judy Martin finished the game with little trouble except a hit by Lebofsky in the ninth.

Evander Childs Trims Freshmen

HIRSHFIELD FANS 15 MEN

"Lefty" Hirschfield was in the box for Evander when they lined up against the Freshmen last Thursday. The Bronx school boy star was in fine form and allowed only six hits. He whiffed 15 men which is some accomplishment. Jordan, the Evander left fielder slammed out a double, a triple and two singles.

INTER-CLASS SWIMMING MEET COMING SOON

The swimming management has arranged another big inter-class swimming meet. The last meet was a sort of a fizzle, because of the lack of entries. It's up to the class managers to get men to come out.

There will be a 400 ft. novice relay (four men, each swimming one length); 800 ft. novice relay (four men, each swimming two lengths); 400 yard varsity relay (four men, each swimming three lengths).

Those men who took places in the last meet, will be considered eligible to swim. No man, under any conditions whatever, will be allowed to swim in two events. Therefore class managers pick out eight men to represent your class on May 9. Remember the date, May 9.

THE enemy we must defeat in this war does not consist alone of armed forces. We fight a determined nation. This is not a war of soldiers, but of peoples.

AN URGENT APPEAL.

The Evening Session Campus is in need of assistance. We must have a staff. The big eight-page paper is rapidly sapping up the small resources at hand. We need advertisements and need them at once. We need volunteers to help sell The Campus. Students of the Evening Session, it's up to you. We are losing money. If we do not get more ads and a bigger circulation, the eight pages will dwindle to six. You do not want this to happen. It means that your space in the paper would be greatly curtailed, if not cut out entirely. It's strictly a business proposition. Eight pages and unlimited space cost money. We know you want to help. See Mr. Shalvey, your Circulation Manager, or Mr. Markowitz, your Business Manager. They need help and need it at once!

THE CLASSIC OF THE SESSION—THE DINNER.

Do you want a feast that will inspire your dreams for months to come? A repast that would tickle the palate of Lucullus? Tempting dishes that will make you eat when your appetite has been lulled? Do you want to have a share in a flow of good fellowship? Joyful communion with the students of the Session on a basis other than that of classroom routine? Do you want to do your duty as a student of the Evening College? To make some return for the bounties which have been showered upon you? You do! And therefore you will come to the banquet of the Evening Session at the Park Avenue Hotel on Saturday, May 11th. You will hear our Faculty crack jokes other than classroom comedy. Here is your chance to enjoy the social advantages of your college career.

City officials will lend an air of dignity to the occasion. We have always made it a point to take this opportunity to show the gratitude of the Evening Session to the leaders of the city for the unselfish and devoted aid they have given the College. Last, but not least, Professor Robinson will be there, our real "chief," the man who is always working for us. Let us respect his endeavors and send a delegation to the Evening Session Dinner that will include every man and woman in the Session.

"THE ALCOVES"

The social life of every educational institution is obviously one of its most compelling features. For that very reason, we find all forms and manners of clubs, societies and social events purposely instituted to develop the spirit of goodfellowship. But these alone are not enough. While a large number of students may engage in things social, there are still some, who, for some reason or other, are unable to participate. Partly for such students, but chiefly for the welfare of the College, we have an institution known as the Alcoves.

It is in the Alcoves where most of the life of the College is fostered. Here students get together to discuss things, to study, and to get to know one another. And to stimulate ambition nothing better could have been devised.

Yet in the Evening Session, where social activities are limited because of the little time at the disposal of the students, this old-time and important institution is being seriously neglected.

It was some two years ago that the students of the Evening Session clamored incessantly for a place in which they could study and develop social intercourse. The Student Council took up the matter with the proper authorities and the privilege of using the alcoves was granted.

At that time the Faculty found cause to interpose an objection: that the students of the Evening Session would not avail themselves of the opportunity of making use of the alcoves. Conditions existing at the present time justify that objection.

Today, because of the failure of the student body to support the privilege, the alcoves are kept open only on the two evenings a week in which the Co-operative Store does business.

Whether or not the alcoves should be reopened to the Evening Session, rests entirely upon the students. If they do not use them it will mean, that the only place in the College where male students are permitted to smoke will be closed. It will also mean that the social life of the Evening College will be greatly affected, and that it will slide back into the rut of a dull, mechanical existence.

However, should the students desire to avail themselves of the alcoves, the Student Council, which is their organization, and as such is always open to suggestions, will go to any extent to help them. It will get a piano for several evenings a week, if it is so desired, provided, however, it is not used in a manner which might disturb the classes on the first floor. It can have the adjacent lunch room opened any time the students wish to sup at the college. If interest warrants it, the Student Council

Evening Session Answers Call

MANY BOOKS AND PERIODICALS COLLECTED FOR OUR SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

The Evening Session is up to the minute in its War Service Work. When Miss Rose Stenzler, the very active and capable Chairwoman of the Soldiers' Comfort Committee, asked Dr. Linehan to set aside the week of April 22nd for the collection of books and magazines for soldiers and sailors, she felt sure of meeting with a ready response.

The students answered the call generously, and many books and periodicals have been collected. A number of the Faculty, also, contributed to the collection.

EVENING SESSION STUDENTS WORKING FOR DRAFT BOARD

Mr. Tuttle, chairman of the Draft Board located in this building, has called our attention to the unselfish work of Misses Olive Lang, Esther Byrnes and Mrs. Jennie Jacoby, who have been devoting a great deal of time each evening to the work of the board.

We hope that all others who have volunteered their services will report for duty.

COMMUNITY KITCHEN TO BE ESTABLISHED IN OLD BUILDING

"The old Twenty-third street building is doing its bit," reports Curator Davis. The ground floor of the historic old pile is being renovated to accommodate the Community Kitchen which will be managed by the Women's Committee of the Mayor's Committee of National Defence. Mrs. William Randolph Hearst is chairman of this patriotic committee of women, who desire to do their all in helping the government win its fight.

Two westerly floors have been prepared to receive the exhibits of the Civic Museum which formerly were in the Lincoln Corridor of the Main Building. The remainder of the building has been "revamped" for the accommodation of the vocational students.

Social Service Com. at Work

AN URGENT CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS IS BEING MADE—MR. SCHWARTZ PROMISES BIG THINGS.

The Evening Session Social Service and Intersettlement Committee, with L. C. Schwartz as chairman, has begun to plan for its campaign in connection with the various Settlement Houses throughout the city.

Mr. Schwartz wishes to impress upon the students the necessity of supporting this committee. Without their support the plans cannot be carried out. While a number of students will even ask that one alcove be set apart for Evening Session students, and that that alcove be decorated with banners, relics and traditions of the Evening Session. All announcements could be posted there.

But the students will have to prove that they are desirous of taking every advantage of the alcoves once they are reobtained, otherwise the Student Council will not feel justified in requesting the Office for a renewal of the privilege.

The alcoves are situated in the center of the ground floor directly under the Lincoln Corridor. Visit them when the Co-op. Store is open, and after looking around let the Student Council know your answer.

have already volunteered, it is evident that the work, to be accomplished, will require many more.

It is the aim of the committee to arrange for courses of study in elementary and intermediate English in such Settlement Houses as are not, at the present time, giving adequate instruction to foreigners. This would necessitate the detaching of two teachers to each of those places for one hour two nights a week.

To aid further the work of Americanizing the foreigner, Mr. Schwartz has conceived the idea of a course of lectures. These lectures, to be given in a simple, comprehensive manner, would embrace all important facts concerning American institutions, beginning, most probably, with the Declaration of Independence.

When asked whether the above were the only lines of action he proposed to follow, Mr. Schwartz said: "Decidedly not. There is much to be done in the various Military Camps, and I am sure that different organizations already engaged there in social work will not object to receiving further help. However, there is only one way to get things done, and that is to do them. The Social Service Committee is anxious to exert itself to the utmost, and will do so as soon as it can rely upon the necessary support."

Dear Gargier:

At the beginning of this term The Campus was in the habit of caring for the religious welfare of its readers by publishing a series of Bible stories. But I notice that of late its policy has become somewhat lax in this respect.

When we asked our artist why he drew such large and "impossible" checks, he said:—

"Well, I thought it might emphasize what relatively small checks our customers draw for their Spring Clothes."

Seriously, there's something in that.

Platforms of A. A. Candidates Presented In Letters to Campus

It has been customary in the past for The Campus to print the platforms of the candidates for the office of A. A. President. Word was sent to each of the present contestants and the following replies have been received:

ELI FRIEDMAN

To the Members of the A. A.,
You are interested in two things; first, what I have done and second, what I shall do. In answer, I have been:

Manager of the Swimming Team; Assistant Manager of the Swimming Team. Junior Assistant Manager of Basketball. Two years on the track team; Chairman of the Insignia Committee.

I have benefited all sports, especially the healthful sport of cross country. Secondly, I shall continue to boost all sports in the College, not only by sitting in at A. A. meetings but by actively helping.

I shall fight for open meetings and get them!

There will be co-operation between the faculty, managers, coaches and the A. A. Board.

I hope you will think these things over fellows and vote for

ELI FRIEDMAN.

NORMAN COHEN

To the Members of the A. A.:
Articles recently published in The Campus clearly show the necessity for reform in the Athletic Association. To the most disinterested observer, it has become quite evident that matters in the A. A. have gradually gone from bad to worse. What is the fundamental reason for this deplorable condition? It is because the chief executive office, the presidency, has, for the last few years, been tendered as a reward to the holder of a less important position, who may or may not have capably filled that office.

What reforms are necessary?
(1) A graduate manager, as considered previous to Professor Holton's departure, should be appointed.

(2) The abolition of star chamber proceedings and the re-establishment of open meetings.

(3) The utilization of the present idle ground west of the Mechanic Arts Building for the construction of tennis courts for the use of the students of the College.

(4) The substitution of a Board of Managers for the present inefficient Board. The assistant managers will be elected by popular vote, and will hold office for one year as assistant, with the understanding that they shall succeed to the managership. The graduate manager will be chairman and treasurer of this board.

Who is the best man to make these reforms? Norman Cohen, June, '19, is a candidate on the above platform. Although he has held many responsible class and college offices, such as class president, student councillor, member of the faculty-student activities committee, charter day committee, he does not depend for support entirely on his past record. Norman Cohen bases his argument for election not on what he has done, but on what he can and will do.

Yours truly,

THE NORMAN COHEN CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE,

GEORGE LEHRMAN

To the Members of the A. A.:
In announcing my candidacy for the office of A. A. President through these columns, I wish to state a few facts which must be taken into consideration. They are as follows:

(1) I was a member of the A. A. Smoker Committee during my Freshman year.

(2) I was Assistant Treasurer and later Treasurer during my Sophomore and Junior years.

(3) I am in favor of the new constitution which is to be submitted for ratification to the members of the A. A.

(4) I am in favor of closer co-operation between

(a) Managers and A. A. Board.

(b) Coaches and A. A. Board.

(c) Faculty and A. A. Board.

(d) Players and Managers and A. A. Board.

(e) I am in favor of closing the sale of A. A. tickets on a set date each season.

Two years' of worthy service as testified by Mr. Williamson's letter now on view in the Concourse deserve another year of such service.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE LEHRMAN.

HENRY DAVIDOW

To the Members of the A. A.:

As secretary of the A. A., I have always looked out for your interests on the Executive Board. When the other members tried to railroad through a constitution, without submitting it to the student body for a two-third vote, as is provided in the constitution, I strongly opposed this infringement of your rights. I appealed to the Faculty Athletic Committee and they nullified the constitution that the board had passed. I have done most of the work for the A. A. and am the largest individual seller of A. A. tickets.

My work in the past in looking out for you and your interests is the test for the future. I assure you that, if elected, I will keep up my constructive work and do all in my power for open A. A. Board meetings, so that the members of the A. A. may attend to offer suggestions, if they see fit.

Sincerely,
HENRY DAVIDOW.

Seniors Hold Last King Cole

CLASSIC '18 FUNCTION TOOK PLACE IN WEBB ROOM LAST WEDNESDAY.

The boys of 1918, true to their time-honored traditions, held, with the able assistance of Old King and his merry old souls, their last smoker in the Webb Room last Wednesday evening. "Al" Levitt was chosen chief jester of the evening and his jokes and his short and snappy stories set the boys of 1918 roaring with laughter. College songs and cheers were given their proper place on the program. Eats and smokes were in abundance.

The feature of the evening was the speech, or rather the attempt at a speech by the famous—or is he the infamous—Julius N. Cohen, president of the 1918 class. The applause which greeted Julius N. when he mounted the rostrum so overwhelmed him as to make it possible for him to toss his well known verbiage supply at the admiring audience. PROF. HILL, OF N. Y. U., TALKS TO CHEMISTS

Several interesting problems, including the determination of impurities in T. N. Chemical Laboratories, to the members of the C. C. N. Y. Chemical Society, last Thursday. Dyes, photographic developers, flavoring compounds, and soaps were also discussed during the course of the talk.

The meeting was attended by more than seventy students, and by members of the Chemistry Faculty, and was by far the most successful meeting held by the Chemical Society this term.

'20 And '21 Enter Into Peace Gaily

PROFS. OTIS AND MAC LEND CHARM AND PEP—ALL ARE HAPPY—WATCH OUT
NEXT TERM '22.

Last Sunday night at the Holly-wood '20 and '21 buried the ax forever. No burial was ever attended with so much joy, fun and frolic. Something unusual happened, too, the eats were good.

The guests of the evening were Professors Otis and Mac, and "Iron" Rattner acting as chairman.

After dancing and singing with and without the fair sex, Hecht, of '20, led a smake dance to the feed hall. During the courses jollity reigned supreme. Each table gave peculiar songs and still more peculiar yells. March, '20, and Frank, '21, were the goats. "CH4" and "Jackass" were applied to each respectively, and were the theme for many a come-back. A song sung at Table No. 3 was particularly good, especially in as much as it was written spontaneously. Rabbino, '21, is its composer. Here it is:

To the Tune of The Dixie.
Volunteers, Let's all give three cheers
For all the eats and beers.

See those great big Soph'more laddies
And these Freshmen here, by gollies,
They are glad to be,

At peace again, you see.
They've fought hard,
They've fought hard.

Since September, seventeen.
Freshmen here have shown their spunk,

And now they're going to be
Soph'more men and lick the classes
Down to twenty-three.

When they hit that line,
As big Sophomores they'll shine,
You'll wish you came to college
With the class of twenty-one.

"Iron" Rattner with a few opportune remarks, introduced the leaders of the classes, who spoke. "Murry"
Stoll, '20; "Chick" Feigen, '21;

"Artie" Taft, '20; Jonas, '21, and Clarence Hornung, '20, represented the four classes. Jonas paid a fine tribute to the fairness and character of '20.

Mac was introduced next and the heavens resounded with the cheer he received. Mac was there with his usual pep. He pleaded earnestly that C. C. N. Y. boys act like boys.

Noise, and even roughness, are the heritage of youth. Mac wished that he was young again. He said that this August will make him 40 years old, "and it's the freshmen," he said,
"that keep me young."

George M. Hyman, '20, spoke next.
He made a forceful appeal for C. C.
N. Y. traditions. His new hobby, the A'lma Mater Club, was brought to the limelight again. But George had the spirit, and the applause proved that his remarks took effect.

Then the gentleman from Iowa,
Professor Otis was introduced. A goodly number of new and timely jokes made the banqueters roar with laughter. A note of seriousness was effectively added and the topic was American and Allied victory. Professor Otis gave an inspiring reading of Longfellow's "Ship of State," and a glowing tribute to the man at the helm, the beloved Wilson. It took a reverberant cheer to break the spirit of solemnity Professor Otis had created.

In addition, the former speakers of both classes promised absolute cooperation in forcing '22 to obey all rules. Caps, uni-colored ties and likewise socks will be the rule, not the exception. Class '22 will realize, if no

KEHILLAH WORKERS STRIVE TO PUT C. C. N. Y. IN FIRST PLACE

The Menorah Society is working its hardest to put C. C. N. Y. in the first rank of the colleges participating in the Kehillah (Jewish Community) drive for 20,000 members.

Columbia, N. Y. U. and Hunter are participating in the drive, and C. C.
N. Y. is organized into a "flying squadron," which meets daily and checks up results. Last Wednesday
Mr. Chipkin, '14, addressed the lieutenants at the Menorah Forum. Arrangements have been made whereby C. C. N. Y.
will be credited by the members turned in by students working with outside institutions. All such men should mark "C. C. N. Y." on their membership slips and give the amounts sent in to George M. Hyman '20, captain of the C. C. N. Y. division.
A boat-excursion is to be given to all those bringing in ten members.

The lieutenants are as follows: M.
Zemansky, '21; A. Ginsburgh, '20; I.
Rattner, '18; C. Berger, '19; N.
Cohen, '19; J. Mannheim, '19; H.
Schorr, '19; N. Zipper, '21; S. Unger,
'19; M. Goodman, '19, and M. Sabar,
'19.

'21 Council Decides Smoker

At a meeting of the '21 Council final arrangements were made for the stag to be held May 17 in the Webb Room.

Leo Linder reported for the debating committee that the debate with the '21 class of Columbia will be held on May 11, probably in the Doremus Lecture Theatre. The question is:
"Resolved, that the United States have the power to restrict the expression of free speech during war-time."
The freshmen of the College have chosen the affirmative. A sum of money was voted to defray half of the expenses; the '21 class will play
the other half.

Toward the end of the meeting,
Julius Cohen, president of the Senior Class made a strong plea for an appropriation. The council decided to vote on the matter the following week.

Council Plans Many Activities

PASS PATRIOTIC RESOLUTIONS—MONEY VOTED FOR NEW WORK.

A considerable amount of money for various college activities was appropriated by the Student Council at its meeting last Thursday. This semester is proving an exceptionally busy term for the Council as several new varsity functions have been inaugurated and the work of the War Service Bureau is supplementing the other activities.

The Student Council has sanctioned the 1919 Microcosm and Charles Simon, '19 and Meyer Goldberg, '19, will stand sponsor for the book as editor and business manager respectively. For the War Work Committee Martin Meyer, '18, announced that the Liberty Loan Scholarship Fund exceeded last term's Liberty Loan Library Fund by over a hundred pledges. A large number of Four Minute Men have enrolled for work in the city and the Council was thanked for its co-operation with the War Service Bureau.

George M. Hyman, '20 reported for the Joint Faculty Student Committee on Student Affairs that the Tower Bell will again be rung and that the committee is co-operating with the Alumni Association on the Charter Day Celebration, May 7. Ten dollars was voted to the committee for defraying the expense of the affair.

Rudolph Pelonis, '18, reported for the Interclass Debating Committee that a schedule of debates is being drawn up for two or three debates a week. Schlesinger, '21, moved that five dollars be appropriated for the 1921 debate with the Columbia '21 class. The motion was passed.

RASTALL CLASSES WILL HEAR TALK ON RETAILING TONIGHT

Dr. Rastall's classes in Business management (Political Science 9) will hear the various phases of retailing discussed by Mr. E. A. Dodd, director of the Retail Research Bureau at the City College Club tonight.

This is the second of a series of talks which the Business Management Classes will hear from prominent business men, experts in their respective fields.

Dr. Rastall lectured last night at the Washington Square Branch of N. Y. U. on "Some Special Fields of Civic Work."

CLIO TO HOLD DANCE MAY 4.

Clio will hold the biggest dance in its history on Saturday, May 4, in the Webb Room. Alumni and former members are cordially invited. Refreshments will be served.

Rosenzweig, '19, reported that all arrangements had been made for the Finley Hike.

Albert G. Stahl Jr., '18, asked the Council to appropriate five dollars to provide postage for sending copies of The Campus to men at the front. The motion was carried.

The following resolution proposed by Martin Meyer, '18, chairman of the War Service Bureau was unanimously adopted by the Student Council:

Be it Resolved, That any man who has by any act, expressed or otherwise, indicated that his sentiments are not absolutely and unqualifiedly in unison with those of the Nation at this hour, or any man who has not given his support to the activities of the War Service Bureau of C. C. N. Y. be prohibited from holding any representative office, appointive or elective, in student activities.

C. C. N. Y. Cheered In Liberty Parade

OVER 300 FACULTY AND STUDENTS MARCH IN PATRIOTIC DEMONSTRATION.

Immediately after the stirring Liberty assembly of last Friday, faculty and students hurried down town to take part in the Liberty Day parade.

The College, together with all other city departments was restricted to a faculty representation of only 20 members. Many more than the required number desired to parade, and every department of the College had at least one member of its staff in line.

The Student Battalion of over 200 men completed the C. C. N. Y. contingent of the parade, and outranked, in attendance and spirit, the numerous other colleges participating.

As the sons of C. C. N. Y. came swinging by, the faculty carrying their service flag of 27 stars, and the students with the large flag of close to 300 stars, preceded by the big varsity lavender and black banner, cheer after cheer arose, showing with what pride the people of our city regard their College. And many bystanders remarked that it was truly an inspiring sight to see those men, who had taken advantage of the best that democracy

Saks Suits for Men

Despite the fact that manufacturing costs are higher than at any previous time, woolen prices especially jumping ahead by leaps and bounds, we still offer a very good suit at twenty-five dollars.

Suits that have a certain exclusiveness of line, and a degree of quality in the woolens from which they are made that really lifts them out of the popular priced class.

We design and tailor these suits right here in New York. We know just what goes into them from start to finish. And we also know that you will find more genuine value in these suits than is possible in clothing sold through middlemen.
