Weather Keeps Crowd from Soph Carnival

Freshmen Garbed in Nomdescript Tatters Compelled to Amuse Sophomores

The long-delayed and much postponed Soph Carnival was at last run off on the afternoon of Monday, November 22. Due to the inclement weather and the fact that the Freshmen, through a misunderstanding, had not known the carnival was to be held that day, a rather small crowd attended.

The Sophs dressed the Freshies in all sorts of costumes. There were convicts and baby dolls and wild women, and a great many more who were indescribable. With tin pans, kettles, and horns, they made a brave showing.

The yearlings were marched around the college grounds, into the Stadium, and then into Jasper Oval. Here a stop was made, and a little secret was enacted in which a box of decayed eggs played a prominent part. Then, odorous (and odious) with the eggs, the Frosh were taken to the subway. (It is worthy of note that fully three men paid their fares.)

The band got out at 96th Street, and marched down Broadway, raising the neighborhood to a pitch of excitement that it has not experienced in a long time. At 86th Street a guardian of the law approached. The Sophs ducked, and left the Freshies to face the music. That was the end of the Carnival.

It was the end as far as the Sophs were concerned, but it was just the beginning for the Freshmen. Many of them left without a cent in their pockets (they had left their clothes at college), were forced to shift for themselves. They didn't know how to get home, but at last an onlooker kindly volunteered to pay their fare.

"U" Referendum to be Held during Chapel

Students to Speak To-morrow—Club Council to Be Included in Union—Budget System to Be Adopted

The referendum in which the students of the College will be asked to voice their opinion on the question of a compulsory Union will be held next Thursday during chapel. Ballots have been printed, and every man in the Great Hall will be able to register his vote.

The Referendum Committee, of which Franzblau, '21, is chairman, is making final arrangements for the voting. At the last meeting of the Student Council, the committee reported on a plan of organization for the "U." The plan, which was accepted, provides, in brief, that the Student Council shall be the representative body of the Union, and shall be composed of delegates from all the major activities of the College, including delegates from the Club Council. The plan makes provision for the financing of the various clubs by means of a budget system.

NEWMANITES TO HEAR COMMISSIONER ARCHER

The Newman Club which has 150 members at present will hold its next meeting December 11th. Commissioner William C. Archer, of the New York State Industrial Commission will talk on "Social Service in Industry."

All interested are invited to attend. An announcement on the bulletin board will notify where the meeting will take place.

ENGINEERING SOCIETY TO HEAR MR. WILLIAMS

At the next meeting of the Engineering Society, to be held Thursday, December 2nd, at 1 p. m., in Room 126, Mr. Charles M. Manly, Past President of the American Society of Automotive Engineers will deliver an address on the Economic Effects of Power Engineering.

On December 9th, Mr. E. Williams, State Engineer and Surveyor of this State, will deliver an illustrated lecture to the Society on the Canal System of New York State.

On December 17th, Prof. Corcoran, of the Physics Department, will speak on a subject to be announced later.

Seniors Cavort at Gymnasium Dance Thanksgiving Eve

Committee Prepares Unusual Program—College Turns Out in Large Numbers

In an atmosphere of sensuous languor, when it tripped rhythmically to melodious tunes, and hearts beat more feverishly than ever, collegemates of the past and the present assembled. The occasion was the Senior Dance, given at the Gymnasium on Thanksgiving Eve.

It was more than merely a delightful affair. It was a classic. The Dance Committee, composed of Messrs. Horowitz, Sang, Huber, Lichtenstein and Sherman, had taken piano to make the dance an evening of joy.

As is usual, the Senior Dance was also a reunion. Graduates met for the first time perhaps since they had left College. There was a goodly representation of former C. C. N. Y. students.

Many and unusual were the features offered. For one, the dance orders were delicately and daintily prepared, and dowered with verses of unusual charm. The punch (why do they call it such?) was tasteful, though not harmful. The decorations cast an enviable reflection on the artistic taste of the committee.

No—this was not all. The most unusual feature of the entire program was the exhibition dancing offered by Mr. Guernsey and his partner. That the terpsichoreans were recalled again and again, and each time greeted with deafening applause, is sufficient commentary on their ability.

And now for the dancing! That even a fox-trot may be made sentimental (and who, at a Senior Dance, demonstrated, when the lights were does not relish sentimentality) was judiciously put out, and the gymnasium was illumined by naught save a spot light. A decided innovation? And welcome?

LOWER CLASSMEN TO HAVE LITERARY CLUB

The poets, authors, playwrights, and general literary enthusiasts of the lower classes are hard at work organizing a literary society.

Freshmen and Sophomores are ineligible for either the Clonia or the Phrenocosmia, but some must find an outlet for their pent-up literary enthusiasm—hence the new society. Since the Adelpian died a few years ago, there has been no such society at the College. This one, however, shows signs of permanency.

Any lower classman interested in books, plays, or poetry either as a writer or a reader is eligible to join. Any such man must drop a note with his name and locker number into either locker 1711 or 1735.

Old Timers to Play Varsity Five Sat.

ALUMNI RETURNS TO GIVE BATTLE

SOPHS TO MEET FROSH

To Mark Final Clash for A. A. Banner—Thrilling Game Promised

The ghosts of the past will be with us again. So it seems to the writer as he pictures the coming Alumni-Varsity basketball game which is to formally open the 1920-21 season in that popular sport at the College. The phantom-like figures of the speedy Southwick, shifty "Mussy" and steady "Lefty" are as well impressed upon the minds of the older C. C. N. Y. men as the flitting forms of "Pro," "Ily," "Irv," and "Willie" are fast in the memories of enthusiastic undergraduate basketball followers.

All of the above mentioned stars have been invited to take part in the coming game. It is to be doubted whether even the clever passing and team work of our practiced five will be able to prevent a close, tight, contest with a slight chance of the "Old Grads" winning out.

The varsity will open up the affair with Krinsky, Lamm, forwards; Murray at center and Feigin and Raskin at the guard position. Most of the subs will be given a chance to knock up against our past shining "court sparklers."

The more exciting and most interesting attraction of the evening, however, will be the annual Fresh-Soph get-together. Both classes are determined to win the A. A. Banner, which goes to the victor of this contest.

Whereas, the Freshmen will be benefited by a team well practiced and accustomed to playing together, '23 will have a quintet of experienced basketball players who have seen service either on the Freshman outfit or during their High School days.

Klauber and Hahn, regular members of the varsity squad will be the mainstays of the Sophomore representation. Flechal, Hy's brother and freshman performer last year, will pair off with "Archie" at guard, Langer will duplicate with Klauber at forward, while Miller will knock up against Rasonovitz, present Fresh center. Capt. Nadel, Edelstein, Prager and Salz complete the yearling lineups.

Tickets for the Fresh-Soph and Alumni games are now on sale in the concourse. The lower-classmen will line-up for the preliminary clash at 8 P. M.

Eliscu Varsity Show Business Manager

Plans Extensive Publicity Campaign—Mr. Tynan to Coach Players

Edward Eliscu, '21, has been appointed the business manager of the Varsity show which will be presented Sunday evening, January 9th, in the Greenwich Village Theatre.

Plans have been made for an extensive publicity campaign. Abe Finkel, '21, who is the stage manager, is already at work supervising the designing of the scenes.

The Society has secured the services of Mr. Tynan of the English Department and may possibly secure Miss Muriel Hope, as coaches of the four one-act plays to be presented.

IMPORTANT!

All elective cards must be filed in the Dean's office this week.

BIO CLUB CONDUCTS CAMPAIGN FOR FUND

The Bio Club is managing the finances of the Bio Fund. The purpose of the fund is to enable C. C. N. Y. to send two students either to Woods' Hole, Massachusetts, or Cold Spring Harbor, New York, to study biology under exceptionally favorable conditions.

Interest on the fund will support two students during the entire summer. Every college but C. C. N. Y. is represented at one of these places. An appeal is being launched to the students to contribute to the fund.

Sophs Compel Frosh to Offer Heart and Wealth to Fair Sex

Exciting Hazing Party Takes Place in Bronx, Manhattan and Almost Includes Night in Jail

The Sophs had another rollicking time last Saturday night, when they raised Cain up in the Bronx with the unwilling aid of a few Freshmen. The occasion was one of the many hazing parties the '23 men have run off this term, and it was attended by a large crowd of Sophs and Bronxites.

The yearlings who were on the receiving end of the hazing were rigged up in non-descript costume. They were marched from the Hunts Point Subway Station along Southern Boulevard to Prospect Avenue. There the entire party boarded the subway to Times Square. Here they disembarked, marched along Broadway for a while, and then disbanded.

The Freshmen got what was coming to them, and the Sophs were by no means gentle. They hazed the yearlings in every conceivable manner, and when they were finished started all over again. It was a great night—for all except the '24 men!

A laughable incident occurred in the subway. The Freshmen, under compulsion, were proposing to every "ikely-looking girl they saw. At one time, however, they got down on their knees before two young women who didn't stand for any non-sense. One of them arose and dealt two of the Freshies a stinging slap in the face, and then began to yell for the police. The astonished Freshmen were hurried away by the Sophs in time to be saved from the lock-up.

CLIO'S DANCE IN WEBB ROOM A HUGE SUCCESS

Clio's dance in the Webb Room on Friday, November 19th, was a huge success. Clonians turned out in all their finery with "belles" on. There was a jolly entertainment in the minstrel show; the inimitable "Fef" playing end man and Bloch playing the other end man. Prof. Coleman could be heard to laugh full well at every one of Fef's jokes; then there was Professor and Mrs. Kost, and Mr. Goodman of the Townsend Harris Faculty.

The alumni meeting which had to be postponed because it conflicted with Prize Speaking, will be held December 10th.

STUDENT COUNCIL

- I. Special meeting, Monday, November 29, 1920.
- II. Franzblau reported for the Committee on the "U" Referendum.
- III. Warsoff, '23, moved that Student Council go on record as opposing decision of Fresh-Soph Committee not to award banner to Sophs. Motion tabled.

College Seamen Meet Penn Team Friday

Quakers to Meet Lavender Swimmers in First League Contest—Polo Teams Will Also Be Seen in Action

This Friday night in the College pool, the U. of P. swimming team will engage the Lavender fish in the first dual league meet of the season. The polo team will also face the Philadelphians in a little argument for the Intercollegiate champs.

The Quakers had little trouble with our swimmers last season, drubbing them in home and home engagements. This year, with a set of veterans on hand, things will not be so easy for the red and blue standard bearers. Mac has developed a fast team out of the host of candidates that reported regularly for practice and expects the men to down to visitors. Capt. Ashworth and Leo Lehrman will be the Lavender entrants in the century. The latter will also take care of the 220, his hobby. Leo won this event from the Penn boys last year.

Haas, Levin, Kraus, McTague, Philidius and Dutch Lehman round out a well balanced set of short distance men. McTague has been equalling the collegiate record during several of the recent practice periods.

It must be easier for Thor to float than to walk. Tubby, after diligent practice, can now carry to the 66-foot mark quicker than any one can walk a similar distance and comes up with plenty of wind to spare. He should place first in the "fat man's event." Haas still remains our sole diver but Al is a sure point winner in the graceful art.

The water-polo team will include Menkes, Ornstein, Hayer, Mulready, and "Tubby" Shapiro in its lineup. Its a tough bunch and will rough up things for the visiting university men.

Tickets for the meet are on sale in the concourse. The pastebords will cost the Union members 50 cents and it is hoped that a large undergraduate body will attend the affair to cheer the Lavender natators.

Juniors to Revel in Mirth and Novelty

To See "Irene" at Vanderbilt—Junior Prom to Be Informal—Section Reserved for Toronto Game

The successful accomplishment of the Senior Dance, leaves clearly defined on the College social horizon the much heralded Junior Festival Week. The '22 class, intent on establishing a permanent tradition, sordially invites seniors and juniors to participate in its holiday carnival of merriment and novelty.

One hundred of the best seats of the charming Vanderbilt Theatre have been reserved for Monday evening, December 27. An entertainment which includes so pleasing a musical comedy hit as "Irene" cannot fail to succeed.

The feature of the week's program will be a Junior Prom at the Hotel Astor, Wednesday evening, December 29. Varied and lavish innovations will be introduced. Jazz, in all its syncopated paroxysms, will be rendered by the Sudan Six.

On New Year's Day, the clash between the Lavender five and the heavy Toronto team, one of the few international court games scheduled among the American colleges this season, will mark the close of the festivities. Back in 1914, C. C. N. Y. gave the Canadians a drubbing to the tune of 28-16.

EMPLOYMENT PROBLEMS AND THE EVENING SESSION

With the organization and operation of this year's Assembly of Delegates comes an unusual opportunity of being materially useful to those whose interests it represents. A strict interpretation of the purpose of the Assembly would, perhaps, not include consideration of a function in addition to its general efforts of advancing a better understanding between the student and the College. A critical industrial condition, however, menaces the very existence of the student himself, and unless some successful attempt be made to maintain his physical identity with the College, this abstraction will be liable to eventuate unfortunately and thus the proper sphere of the Assembly's influence will in each of these cases cease to exist.

Our industrial condition at the present time is decidedly unhealthy. Liquidations are everywhere in progress. Employees are finding it more and more difficult to find suitable employment, some times to find any at all; and it cannot, must not be overlooked that as a consequence, our students are affected. Yet we have resources for remedying this condition in part. Each student can and does know of vacancies existing in his own organization, and with little effort could enlist the co-operation of his employer in soliciting the aid of a committee of the Assembly to select one of our unemployed students sufficiently qualified to fill the position. In this way would not only the students be aided, but the employer and the College as well.

This suggestion is at any rate outlined to a serious trial in all branches of the Evening Session and should it prove even measurably successful, who can say what important changes will be effected in the student's appreciation of his College.

These Committees on Employment should confer with Mr. Rose—manager of the Day Session, Employment Bureau at the Main Building, V. W.

"Y" DANCE IN THE GYM FRIDAY EVENING DEC. 3

The "Y" Dance will be held on Friday evening, December 3rd, in the Gym. All arrangements have been completed and the affair promises to open the eyes of the followers of the Terpsichorean art.

Plans for General Organization for Evening Sessions

The fourth meeting of the Student's Council, which was held last Friday, November 19th, was formally opened by President Orloff, with an announcement that the gymnasium is now open for male students.

A motion was adopted by unanimous vote to send a vote of thanks to Dr. Linehan, in recognition of the part he played in obtaining the gym for the students.

A General Organization is planned for the students. A membership drive will be started within a week. A nominal fee of twenty-five cents will be charged. An overwhelming response to the call is expected because the council feels that the students desire extra-curricular activities.

The Dramatic Committee has formulated plans to work in conjunction with the Dramatic Society of the day session. All those interested are requested to see any member of the Dramatic Committee. The Dramatic Club meets every Wednesday.

The council is endeavoring to get the different alcoves open for the use of the Evening Sessions.

Evening Session Students are advised to consult the Bulletin Board at the entrance.

EVENING SESSION TO ORGANIZE SKATING CLUB

Informal meetings of prospective members of the Skating Club, which will come under the auspices of the General Organization of the Evening Session, were held on Monday and Tuesday, November 22nd and 23rd, respectively.

About twenty-five have already signed that they shall do their best to make the club a big winter success. The Skating Committee is busy making arrangements and outlining the probable program of activity.

A meeting will be held some time next week. The date will be posted on the bulletin board.

There has been a misunderstanding in the minds of a few that a fee will be charged or dues collected. All that the Student Council asks is that the members be active and sociable.

Gymnasium Opens With Great Success

These were the words by which the men who were there expressed their appreciation of the event.

Each man had his own locker. Going up to the gym, the men got to work without the least hesitation.

Later we got together and played volley-ball. But that wasn't anything compared to the scrappy basketball game, in which every muscle had a workout.

The final outcome of the game landed the men in the showers and then to the pool. Here many men who can swim, only in dreams, were given the fundamentals of the art.

From the number of men that came down, great expectations are foreseen in "Putting the Evening Session on the map."

It is not too late; all those who care to take advantage of the gym, still have an opportunity to do so. However, there are only a few more lockers vacant, so make up your mind to come over immediately if you want one reserved.

THE PUBLIC SPEAKING CLUB

On November 22nd, the Public Speaking Club of the Commerce Building met and organized in Room 101. The earnest enthusiasm of those present at this initial meeting indicated that many of our students realized the importance of the ability to speak effectively, in making for either social or business success. The usual preliminary matters were quickly disposed of, and the following election was held: President, H. Lifschitz; Vice-President, P. Tobias; Secretary, B. Demsey; Treasurer, J. Schwartz.

It was the unanimous opinion that the club would succeed in affording each member practice and training in improving his ability either to speak to business people or to address public meetings. The Club was assured the support of members of the Department of Public Speaking. The next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, December 2nd, in Room 206, at 10:15 p. m.

The adjourned meeting of Delegates will be held Thursday, December 2nd, at 10:15 in Room 101.

EVENING MEN CAN NOW USE CHESS EQUIPMENT

The Chess Club has extended the privilege of using its tables and equipment to members of the Evening Session. Room 219 will be kept open during stated hours for their convenience.

The continuance of this courtesy is dependant, the care with which the club's paraphernalia is handled. Chessmen must be returned to their respective drawers.

Five Students Receive Tremain Scholarships

Student Council Will Announce the Other Winners in Near Future

The following students have been awarded the Tremain Scholarships by the Student Council: Harold P. Seligson, '21; Joseph Meyer, '23; Leo Dressler, '21; Albert Weisbord, '21, of the College of Liberal Arts and Science, and Henry M. Wolfson, of the School of Technology. The Tremain Scholarships are awarded annually by the Student Council to the ten students having the highest academic standing in the various colleges. The scholarship entitles the student to financial help in proportion to his needs, so as to enable him to complete his course of study. So far only five have been selected the winners of the remaining five scholarships will be announced soon.

CLOTHING OFFERED IN LINCOLN CORRIDOR AT EXTREMELY LOW PRICES

He was awarded the Belgian decoration, "Officier de l'Ordre du Roi Leopold II." Sergeants Joseph Siemion and Albert E. Binch of the Infantry have been added to the non-commissioned staff of the department.

PHRENO'S PRESIDENT RUFFLED BY RUMORS

Editor of Campus: Dear Sir: May I protest against the rumors which persist in floating about—to the effect that "Phreno" is dead? Let its pseudo-friends not mourn and waste the fine fruits of their imagination upon schemes for its revival. Phreno is very much alive but, unlike other societies, it does not court publicity nor does it hold dances. Rather it carries out its original purposes and continues its great traditions. Its meetings are attended by the few who are really interested in literature, and programs of reading, discussions, and original work are the rule rather than the exception. SOL. LIPTZIN, Pres.

A fact:

Day in and day out, at the Pennsylvania R. R. Station, New York, the sales of Fatima exceed those of any other cigarette.

Two things might make you want to change your cigarette

FOR example, you might find straight Turkish cigarettes too rich for steady smoking, because of too much Turkish tobacco.

Or you might find ordinary part-Turkish or Turkish Blend cigarettes "thin" and "flat", because of too little Turkish.

In either case (should you decide to change) the logical choice would be a cigarette containing "just enough Turkish."

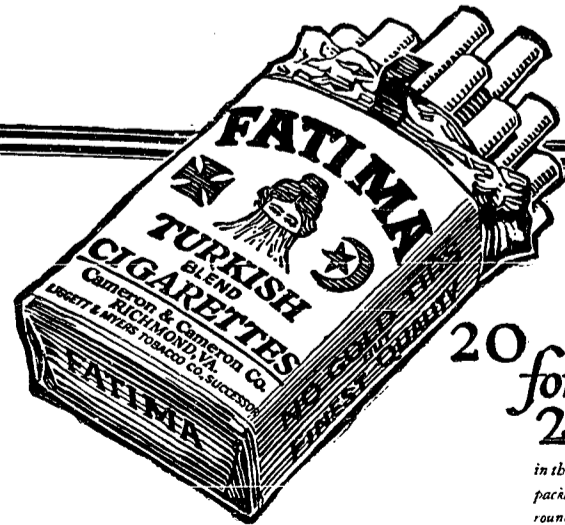

The only cigarette that contains less Turkish than the straight Turkish brands and more than any other Turkish Blend is Fatima.

This is the basis for Fatima's claim of "just enough Turkish."

And scores of sales facts such as the one shown above surely seem to justify Fatima's claim.
