Third Annual Varsity Show to be Given Sunday

Varsity Trounces Amherst 42-20; Union Membership to Reach 1600

Varsity Starts New Term by Beating Amherst Badly

Second and Third Teams Outplay Visitors—Raskin and Anderson Star—Four ex-Freshmen Play Fast Game for Varsity—Final Score, 42-20

KLAUBER WORKS WELL IN KRINS PLACE

Fordham loses to Varsity—Columbia and Army win narrowly in Preceding Games

Amherst proved easy meat for the Lavender basketball team in their opening fray of the new term Saturday night. Little trouble was manifested by the varsity in overcoming the Massachusetts players while our scrub team, made up of recent members of the Freshman combination, found no difficulty in wading through the defense of the visiting crew. The purple-jerseyed team suffered a 42-20 defeat.

A fair-sized group of Amherst followers occupied a small section reserved for their special use. They did not cease their cheering until the final whistle ended the game.

The C. C. N. Y. combinations differed slightly from the array of players that represented the varsity last summer. Krinsky was the only one missing from the line-up. Klauber has now been shifted into Nat's berth and seems to work in smoothly with the other members of the team. Capt. Feigen and Raskin displayed excellent defensive tact by preventing the visitors from penetrating their territory. This feature of the tussle caused their opponents to shoot recklessly from the center of the court and was the principle means of holding down the score.

Tubby and Lamm Star

Tubby's offensive ability came to light when he caged the sphere three times, all sensational one hand flips which seemed to enter the net in an uncanny manner. The remainder of the quintet passed quickly and accurately, dazzling the New Englanders with their speed.

Amherst got the scorers busy when Linder counted on a free try. Lamm duplicated this when awarded a similar chance. Klauber followed this up with a dribble and a one hand throw that passed neatly through the iron hoop. The Lavender offensive now began working with mathematical precision. Tubby and Lamm alternated at the scoring. With a safe lead, the regulars were retired.

Before the end of the first session, Coach Holman yanked his regulars out of the game and sent in his second string men headed by Lanky Anderson, Jackie Nadel, Frank Salz, Prager and Hahn made up the remainder of this batch and as a team performed like veterans. Jackie and Frank despite their diminutive size had little trouble in rescuing the elusive bird from the floundering Amherst husks.

Four quick passes to Anderson, from Salz and Nadel, and the inflated sphere was dropped into the basket by the elongated center for a total of eight points.

That Coach Nat now has a host of reliable reserves to relieve his first string players was shown by their brief exhibit last Saturday. Hahn and Prager are capable of forming an iron bound defense, while Edelstein fits in easily at forward or guard. Anderson, Nadel and Salz are another trio of capable players.

The varsity returned to the game at the beginning of the second stanza but after a short stay during which time they boosted the Lavender total by fourteen points, they were sent to the showers. The college rookies then took up the burden of the game. The final basket was caged by Anderson. In Linder, Amherst had a consistent and accurate foul shooter. Thirteen points were gleaned by the visiting forward in this manner. Only three field goals were tallied by the visitors.

The Preceding Games

On Friday evening, January 7th, the Columbia five faced the varsity team in the Morningside Heights Gymnasium in their annual dual on the court. Johnson, the Blue and White colored flash decided the contest, with his accurate foul shooting. Nine of the fifteen points total were scored by the charitable referee. Not so kind to the

Wrestling Finally a Recognized Activity

A. A. Board Recognizes Sport—Chabon, '22, Chosen Manager—Meets Practically Arranged

For the first time in its history City College is going to be officially represented by a wrestling team. This decision was reached unanimously by the A. A. Board at its last meeting.

Not only was official recognition given to the sport, but outfits are going to be provided for the team, and insignia or other recognition of their work will be offered as an incentive.

"Heretofore," Coach Cantor said, when asked about the decision of the A. A. Board, "wrestling was an outside activity indulged in by a few enthusiasts with spare time. Whenever a man had another sport which conflicted, wrestling suffered. Now it can offer to any athlete the same honor and recognition given by other sports."

At its last meeting of the past semester, the Board elected Chabon, '22, as manager.

He began immediately to get in touch with those colleges in the city which have open dates in their wrestling schedules; with the result that tentative matches have been arranged with Stevens, Fritts, and Brooklyn Poly Prep.

Not only are two or three other matches going to be arranged, but plans for an inter-class tournament are being laid.

In the meantime the squad is working overtime in order to get into shape. On Tuesdays, from 1—3, Thursdays 1—3, and Fridays from 3—6, and any lunch hour practice is held in Room 104 in the Gym Building.

New men as well as regulars are being coached by Mr. Cantor.

Y. M. C. A. JOTTINGS

About ten men from the "Y" will attend an intercollegiate conference on February 11, 12 and 13, at Tenafly, N. J. The work of a college "Y" will be discussed.

The first "Y" freshmen dinner will be held on February 25. Everett P. Wheeler, '26, will be one of the speakers.

Prof. Swenson, of the Philosophy Department, will talk on "Scientific Criticism of the Bible," on February 15, in the "Y" Alcove.

A piano has been purchased and has been placed in the Webb Room. Arrangements can be made with Mr. Roberts to secure the piano for affairs in the Webb Room.

MENTAL TESTS TOPIC OF EDUCATION TALK

Prof. Heckman of the Education Department, a noted authority on psychological testing, will lecture on Feb. 16, to the Woman's Education Club of Pelham, on "Mental Tests and their uses in Schools." Prof. Reckman has recently been elected chairman of the New York Society for the Experimental Study of Education.

"U" Membership Doubles Record

Latest Reports Show the Figures Will Reach the 1,600 Mark

'25 QUICKEST TO ENROLL

Funds Soon to be Distributed Among Various Organizations

Incomplete figures on "U" membership given out by the Busar's office indicate that the number of students enrolled in the "U" will reach the record-breaking total of 1,600. This number is just double that of any previous term, the highest mark, attained last term, being only 800. Final figures will not be announced until the latter part of next week.

All the classes of the College responded heartily, but the incoming class, February 25, was especially quick to enroll.

Enrollment in the "U" will continue all next week, but no membership tickets will be sold after next Friday. Tickets will be on sale in the Busar's office, Room 217.

The "U" Executive Committee, of which Dave Nasanow, '21, is chairman and Sid Emmer, '22, secretary, has announced the method by which the various organizations composing the Union will receive their respective quotas of the fund. Of each two dollars and fifty cents, the Student Council will receive five cents; the Athletic Association will get twenty-five cents; the Club Councils quota will be twenty cents; the "Mercury" will receive fifty-seven cents; the Class with which the member is affiliated will receive nineteen cents. The remainder, $1.19, goes to the Campus in payment of a term's subscription for each semi-weekly issue.

The distribution of the quotas will be made next week by the committee. No provision has been made for taking any part of the "U" funds for the expenses of the "U" Committee. These expenses will be paid by the Student Council.

The Executive Committee has asked the Campus to express through its columns its deep appreciation of the unselfish devotion of those members of the faculty who assisted in the details of the "U" campaign, especially Professor Frederick B. Robinson and Mr. Walter Stalb, and their staffs.

JUNIORS TO INCREASE FUNDS BY CLASS TAX

The '23 class started its first term as a Junior class last Wednesday, when it launched a big drive for financial supports among its members. As a result of its activities last term, the class treasury is greatly depleted, and the Juniors are being asked to pay a tax of twenty-five cents to fill it up again. Men who pay their tax will wear a green ribbon as a symbol.

The tax committee consists of Flamm, chairman; Eisenstein, Garber, Factor, Miller, and Iscolsky.

Junior elections will be held next Tuesday, February 15, at 1 P. M., in the '23 alcove. Candidates for the various offices were nominated at a convention held yesterday afternoon.

A second ballot, if necessary, will be taken on Friday, February 18, at 1 P. M. Among its functions this term, '23 has the rather arduous task of protecting and preserving '25, the entering class. An advisory committee, consisting of Lon Warsoff and Moe Fass, is taking care of this.

PROF. ROBINSON AND PROF. MEAD DEBATE WITH ASSEMBLYMEN

Prof. F. B. Robinson and Prof. N. E. Meade ably upheld the negative side in a debate with Assemblyman C. Solomon and Ex-Assemblyman L. Waldman on "Resolved, That Socialism is an Economic System is Theoretically and Practically Workable." The debate took place last Sunday afternoon at the Park View Palace before an audience that filled the house to capacity.

Plans for School of Education Made

New Branch of College to Offer Separate Degrees—Similar to School of Business.

A radical and progressive step was recently taken by the Board of Trustees when they passed upon a plan to organize a School of Education.

The school will be established upon the same basis as the recently organized Schools of Technology and Business, and will include the Education Department, the Education Clinic and the Extension Courses. It will have the supervision of all courses leading to a diploma or degree in Education. Admission will be open to regular students, teachers, social workers and others who meet the college entrance requirements. Students of the college may, by so adjusting their schedules and electing the proper courses, receive a degree in Education in addition to their regular degree.

At present, however, the plan exists merely on paper. The actual organization and selection of being worked out. As soon as the Board of Trustees ratifies the selection of the curriculum, the matter of degrees, and the composition of the faculty, the school will assume definite workable form.

Embryo Sophmores Plan to Subdue '25

"Words of Wisdom" Distributed to Freshmen—Soph Officers and Committees Chosen

A booklet entitled "Words of Wisdom" containing the Fresh Rules were distributed to every Freshman and care has been taken to see that every rule is scrupulously observed.

The Sophs have drawn up a class constitution. Their program calls for an "Arabian Nights" which will consist of certain social events to be held during the term. The plans for these affairs will soon be made public.

February: President, S. M. Chadabe; S. Sone; Treasurer, I. Vladimir; Vice-President, J. Nadel; Secretary, Athletic-Manager, F. Salz; Poet-Historian, M. Berkowitz; Marshal, N. Litowitz; Student-Councillor, J. Fagin. June: Pr. sident, E. F. Corbie; Vice-President, M. Teitelbaum; Secretary, P. Protus; Treasurer, A. Schneider; Athletic-Manager, M. Rabinowitz; Poet-Historian, A. Vogel; Marshal, A. Feibush.

The following committees have been appointed: Fresh Rules, S. Buschnd, I. Kuschner, P. Protus, M. Halpen, M. Feldstein; Constitutional, L. Nelson, I. Vladimir, M. Berkowitz, S. Some, P. Protus.

The names of the members of the other committees will be announced next week.

SCRAPS MARK ADVENT OF THE CLASS OF '25

The Fresh-Soph classes lost no time in starting hostilities for the new term. The Sophs felt exhilarant and hilarious on account of their new position and decided to quickly show the Freshmen their place in College.

The first scraps took place immediately after the Freshmen Mass Meeting and did not end until the Sophs had captured the table in the Fresh Alcove. Blows were exchanged and clothes were torn. Since then the fights in the '25 Alcove have become a daily occurrence.

CIVICS CLUB TO HOLD FIRST MEETING SOON

The first meeting of the Civics Club for the current semester will be held next Friday in Room 204. Officers will be elected and plans formulated for the coming term.

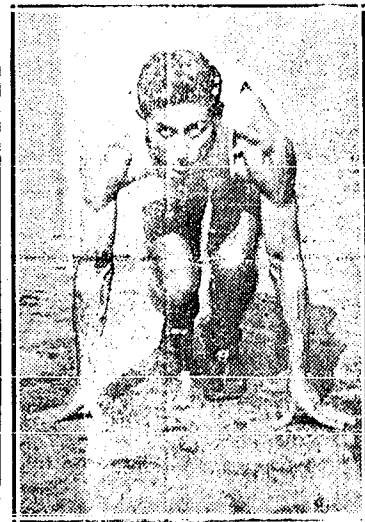

Bisgier Wins 300 Yd. Title

Beats Large Field in Junior Metropolitan Championship

ONE C. C. N. Y. A. A. U. CHAMP

Ran From Scratch Against Noted Sprinters—To go to Buffalo Saturday—Time, 34.1-5 Sec.

Captain George Bisgier of the varsity track team is now the junior metropolitan title-holder in the 300-yard event. At the annual meet, held last Saturday night at Newark by the Metropolitan Association of A. A. U., George easily took first place in 34.1-5 sec.

GEORGE BISGIER

With such men as Stevenson, the Princeton short distance star, DeWitt of Rutgers, Buxbaum of the Brooklyn A. A., and Vincent Lally, the St. Andrews A. C. star, entered in this event, it was hardly thought that the lone City College representative had any chance. All the newspapers conceded the race to either Lally or Stevenson, with Buxbaum and DeWitt as possible dark horses. Contrary to the accepted dope, however, Bisgier not only won the race but did it in so decisive a manner as to it probable that he will be sent to Buffalo by the local authorities to represent New York in the National Championships this Saturday.

Getting away to a poor start in his heat, George was early left far behind the other runners so that the race seemed over as far as the Lavender captain was concerned. But, by a sensational sprint that began at the far turn of the track and that lasted till he had crossed the finish, Bisgier just managed to qualify for the finals by crossing the finish line a scant few inches ahead of Smith who finished in third place.

After but a few minutes rest, scarcely enough to give him a chance to recover his breath, George again faced the starter in the finals. This time, however, the Lavender flash got off to a pretty start and, putting all the strength he could command into his stride, distanced the rest of the field by so large a margin that, as he came down the home stretch, he repeatedly glanced over his shoulder to see whether or not his nearest competitor was even within hailing distance of him. Without any real competition in the final, Capt. Bisgier crossed the line a good three yards in front of Buxbaum who finished second. Lally counted in third place.

Bisgier was the only member of the Lavender team to compete in the meet, but nevertheless, the college finished before both Rutgers and Princeton, each of whom had full teams entered in the meet. The New Brunswick aggregation chalked up two points, while the Tigers were credited with three points. Bisgier's victory gave the college five points in the final scoring.

Sunday Date of Dramatic Plays

Four One-Act Plays to be Given in Greenwich Village Theatre. Matinee and Evening Performances.

The Dramatic Society will present four one-act plays in the annual varsity show to be given at the Greenwich Village Theatre, Sunday, February 13. There will be two performances, the matinee beginning at 2:30 P. M., while the curtain will rise on the evening performance at 8:15.

The members of the Dramatic Society have stopped at nothing to assure the College an excellent performance. Those who attended last year's show still gratefully recollect a pleasant evening, but Miss Muriel Hope and Dr. Tynan forecast an even more brilliant success for the 1921 Varsity Show.

Four of the best one-act plays extant comprise the program. A burlesque "A Short Way with Authors" by Gilbert Cannan, the prominent English novelist and playwright, and a farce "The Bear," by the Russian author, Anton Chekhov, are (to use an exact phrase) the froth of the evening's joyous drink. "He," a stirring drama by Eugene O'Neill, and "Aria La Capo," a tragic fantasy by Edna St. Vincent Millay, compose the more solid elements of the evening's cup of nectar.

Anyhow, Eddie Eliscu the notorious business manager of the show, says all the foregoing and a lot more and anything he says may be taken at face value. He warns those who desire to attend to procure their pasteborders immediately for the seating capacity of the Village Theatre is limited.

Fraternities, clubs and societies have ordered blocks of seats for both performances, so late comers have scant chances of being seated. However, Eddie still has a few choice seats on sale at the College Box Office and at Woolley would put it, "first come, first served."

Tickets will not be sold at the Greenwich Village Theatre on account of police regulations. They may be secured at the Sheridan Square Inn, opposite the theatre.

P. S.—Interested students will find write-ups of the Varsity Show in the New York daily morning papers of February 14.

COLLEGE CHAPTER OF ARISTA STARTS WORK

The first meeting this term of the City College Chapter of the Arista League was held on Tuesday, February 8, at 1 P. M. in Room 221. The chief matter for discussion was the proposed "U" campaign to be undertaken by the Arista members.

The biggest achievement of the Arista up to date has been the Registration Day Service Room. Through the efforts of the committee, Arista members and "Y" men, the Arista League in its headquarters in Room 132 on February 2 was enabled to be of service to several hundred Freshmen and under-classes in helping them with their schedule troubles. Next term the Arista hopes to have much larger quarters for Registration Day.

The Arista has arranged a most interesting program for the term. Meetings will be addressed by prominent High School principals and educators. Prof. Mario E. Cosenza, Director of Townsend Harris Hall, and a member of the Department of Classical Languages, is the faculty adviser and organizer of the chapter. All Arista men are requested to hand in their names to A. Aaronson, Secretary. Arista men of the Freshman Class have been granted permission by the Dean to wear their Arista buttons.

CLUB COUNCIL MEETS NOON EVERY TUESDAY

The Club Council will meet every Tuesday at one o'clock. Delegates from the clubs are requested to be present. Its first meeting scheduled for February 8, was postponed.

THE UNION

Through the effective aid rendered by the Bursar and his staff, the "U" subscription has achieved the unprecedented total of fifteen hundred members.

The feverish and incessant canvassing at the opening of each new semester has been replaced by an orderly, efficient and far more fruitful system. For this relief from annoyance and uncertainty, the student body is indebted to the faculty, which in this matter has shown itself to be actively and unreservedly in support of extra-curricular activities.

The attachment of an almost universal "U" membership has imposed a heavy responsibility upon every student organization which participates in the financial activity thus involved. It is incumbent upon each of the beneficiaries of the Union to prove themselves truly representative of the best endeavors of the College.

The events of the next four months will show whether or not the C. C. N. Y. Union is deserving of continued support.

It was gratifying to note in the recent "fur coat and limousine" controversy how quickly and decisively public opinion repudiated the attacks upon the city's college.

We mourn the loss of our fellow student, Edward J. Cottin, '21, whose untimely death occurred on January 21, 1921.

PHRENO TO MEET FOR FIRST TIME TONIGHT

The Phrenocesian Literary Society will hold its first meeting of the term this evening. There will be an election of officers, and plans will be made for the new term.

Solomon Liptzin, last term's president, and Louis Safferson, the president-elect of Omnia are making formal arrangements for the semi-annual debate between the two literary societies. Weekly gatherings are held at which interesting literary papers are read, followed by informal discussion. Candidates for admission are required to be of the junior or senior year.

CLASSICAL STUDY ROOM

Beginning with the present term, the Classical Study Room, No. 221, Main Building, will be open for the convenience of students from 1.30 to 4.30 P. M. every week day except Saturday. Dictionaries and other works of reference are there available, as well as the Tisdall Library and other books on classical and archaeological subjects. All members of the College who are interested are invited to make use of the Study Room.

FRENCH CLUB TO HOLD REORGANIZATION TODAY

The French Club will hold its first re-organization meeting of the term, at noon Friday, in Room 209.

THE VARSITY SHOW

A dramatic society capable of presenting scholarly plays with adequate skill and setting, is a valuable adjunct to any college. C. C. N. Y. is particularly fortunate in this respect. The Dramatic Society in existence for little more than two years, and further handicapped by lack of proper conveniences, has nevertheless been able to achieve more than merely local success in its first two offerings.

Months of tiresome organization and tedious rehearsals have been invested in the preparation of the third annual Varsity Show. The two performances this Sunday afternoon and evening will mark the culmination of a long concentrated effort.

'25, you lost no time in making your presence felt by '24. Let's see the same spirit and pep in supporting varsity activities.

TABLES AND TRADITIONS

Carelessness often employs the term "College Tradition" to excuse conditions which it is too lazy to remedy.

It is gradually becoming customary for the two lower classes to devote the days following the induction of the new Freshmen, to a series of intermittent alcove scraps, the results of which are apparent only in the amount of personal and College property damaged.

The sole bone of contention seems to be the possession of two alcove tables. A year ago, two of these valuable adornments mysteriously vanished. To solve the problem of the pair of unfurnished alcoves the Student Council in its wisdom decreed that tables shall always be lacking from the Freshman alcoves unless the latter are able to procure these articles of furniture from the storeroom of the Sophomores. The tables have subsequently made arduous and stormy voyages across the concourse.

The manifestation of this arrangement makes itself manifest not only in the disgraceful destruction of property, but also in the danger of both classes being excluded from all activities. The memories of a similar catastrophe are too recent to make further comment necessary.

An alcove without a table is practically worthless as a center of goodfellowship and class spirit. If the College cannot afford the expense, the treasury of the Student Council can be enlarged in this emergency.

Campus never stops growing. The new size measured by the standard of the old issue means an increase of fully three pages per week.

NEW CLASS EXHORTED AT FIRST GATHERING

Four hundred strong, the class of February 25 in vaded City College last Wednesday. On their first recitation day, they held a mass meeting in the Great Hall under the auspices of the Junior Class and there, were instructed in the traditions and customs of Alma Mater, by "Big Brother" Burchard, "Chick" Feigin, "Ken" Xines, Lou Wanoff, Johnny Pizgal and a few other celebrities. The class of '25 set the pace by organizing their proteges. This they accomplished by distributing Loyalty Cards which were signed by the freshmen.

Lavender books were sold them, by the '25 men, for the price of ten cents. The proceeds of this sale were turned over to the '25 Class.

Their elections of officers will be held on Wednesday, February 16, at 1 P. M.

DAY STUDENTS TOTAL 1,800 FOR NEW TERM

Registration of Day Student reached a high mark when 1,800 men registered for the various courses. The incoming class of '25 had a registration of over 400 members, two-thirds of whom are taking science courses.

"MIKE" PICTURES WILL BE TAKEN NEXT WEEK

This term's "Mike" will contain a special literary department. All organization pictures will be taken next week.

Tickets which are $2.50 may be obtained from McKelson or Sellinger in the '21 alcove.

ENGLISH LIBRARY OPEN DURING LUNCH HOURS

Day students may borrow books from the English Department Library for a period of two weeks, in the following hours: Monday 1.00-1.45, Tuesday 1.00-1.45, Wednesday 1.00-1.45, Thursday 1.00-1.45, Friday 1.00.

GARGOYLE GARGLES

Introductory
Dear College:

Here we are again. Another term is finished. Our marks—not what they should have been, our troubles—undiminished. We love to dance and sing and joke through columns that are funny, but, Jimmy, we're just as broke for we receive no money for our hard toil and sacrifice. We must resort to chances, so we've turned to shooting dice to increase our finances. They've made the column longer and they come out semi-weekly but we assume a manner bland and condescending quite meekly for what's the use of getting sore because of increased working? Just oil the works a little more and stop that evil shirking. If all the effort in this place that is employed in knocking were entered in some useful race, results would be quite shocking. We do not want your sympathy, we only want your laughter, and let it peel agreeably up to the highest rafters. The tides of columns rise and fall. We hope this is no bloomer.

We're at your service, one and all. THE CAMPUS STAFF OF HUMOR

Rules for Freshmen

- 1. No Freshman is permitted to climb to the top of the flag pole in the center of the campus.
2. No cheating will be permitted at the physical exams. Freshmen caught using somebody else's material will be expelled.
3. No Freshman may talk to the nursemaids on the campus. If addressed by any of them he must bow, and then, pointing with his finger to the sky, must gravely pronounce "Ook!"
4. All Freshmen must take Barney Goldberg and Louie Warsoff seriously.
5. All Freshmen must vote for Steve Brodie, the man who got 95 per cent. in high school, for president of their class.
6. Each Freshman must learn to swim fluently.
7. All Freshmen for the first two years in college must specialize in chemistry—one.
8. All Freshmen must pass the intelligence tests, which consists of three parts:
A. Literary ability—By May 1 each Freshman must have had at least two stories and one poem rejected by the "Mercury."
B. Ingenuity—He must have conclusively proved that Prof. Cohen's views on red herrings are not logical.
C. Endurance—He must have learned to listen patiently and guff-haw loudly when Doc Woll springs:
1. The "civilized world" joke.
2. Statistics of the 100,000.
3. The poor fish story.
9. Freshmen while in class rooms must not spit, swear, chew tobacco, smoke pipes or sing "Lulu." These privileges are reserved for the use of upper classmen only.
10. All Freshmen must wear wings and an aureole, to be purchased in the Co-op store. The Co-op will make no exchanges, so that if your halo does not fit, get into a scrap and change the shape of your head.

C. C. N. Y. Mermen Lose To Rutgers Swimmers

Harold Fink surprised the College followers last Friday evening during the dual meet with Rutgers in the pool by taking first place in the plunge. New to the game and a recent product of Mac's careful coaching, Fink, with a mighty leap from the elevated platform, floated sixty-one feet on his initial try, thereby tying Shafer, the New Brunswick entrant. His second attempt took him two feet further, after Shafer had failed to increase his original distance. Fink was the sole five-point winner for City College. Rutgers won the affair by a 39-14 score.

The swimming enthusiasts who attended the meet were treated to an interesting spectacle when Leo Lehrman, the Lavender swimming ace, and Leo Giebel, the Rutgers star, took off at the crack of the gun for the distance swim of the contest. Leo lunged tenaciously to the Olympic champion, but was unable to close the gap opened up by the visiting fish at the start of the race.

Leo Giebel was a member of the victorious United States Olympic team last summer, accounting for many of the American points. Several interscholastic and collegiate records chalked up by the versatile merman have not at yet been equalled. Although lacking the grace of some of the other collegiate stars who have appeared in our tank, Giebel maintains a steady powerful stroke and a rapid choppy kick that carries him through the water with amazing rapidity. He copped the century 220 and 50-yard dash with ease.

The 800-foot relay, the opening event of the evening, was won by Rutgers. Faced by a handicap of about fifteen yards, Lehrman, anchor man for College, gradually regained the distance lost by his teammates as he churned his way towards the head-end of the pool. At the finish, however, "Goldfish" was nosed out by a matter of inches, his final burst of speed bringing the spectators to their feet.

An added attraction on the program was a polo game between the varsity and a combination of old-timers. Both the Chem and Physics Departments were well represented and despite the diligent application of the theory of migrating ions and Newton's three laws, the Alumni were drubbed in a good old-fashioned "see-who-could-hold-the-other-under-the-water-longest" sort of game, to the tune of 15-5. The better team-work of the first string men accounted for their easy victory.

Before the examinations, the Swimming and Water Polo teams each suffered a double defeat at the hands of Princeton and the intercollegiate champs, Yale. The Lavender representatives failed to garner a single first in either of the water contests. The polo games were close and well played, the Nassau lads winning their engagement 15-5, while the New Havenites were held to a 28-15 decision.

The summary of the Rutgers meet:

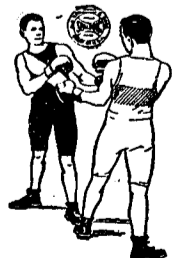

- 800-foot Relay—Won by Rutgers (Redmond, Gardner, Enander, Chase). Time, 2:44 3-5.
- 50-yard Swim—Won by Giebel, Rutgers; second, Enander, Rutgers; third, Ashworth, C. C. N. Y. Time, 26 3-5 sec.
- Dive—Won by Sherwin, Rutgers; second, Joseph, C. C. N. Y.; third, Haas, C. C. N. Y.
- 220-yard Swim—Won by Giebel, Rutgers; second, Lehrman, C. C. N. Y.; third, Chase, Rutgers. Time, 2:53 2-5.
- Plunge—Won by Fink, C. C. N. Y.; second, Shafer, Rutgers; third, Aydolot, Rutgers. Distance, 63 feet.
- Century Race—Won by Giebel, Rutgers; second, Redmond, Rutgers; third, Ashworth, C. C. N. Y. Time, 60 sec.

Lavender players, the college talks had to be registered for scrimmage. Had Lamm riveted the basket, however, our lads would have had another feather in their caps. The final score recorded was 15-14.

The following night, Fordham was engaged to furnish the entertainment in what proved to be the best game played this season on our own court, showing unexpected strength, the visitors were constantly tying the score and at one period in the game, were in the lead by several points. Krinsky, playing his best home game, was especially active in casing sensational shots from all points on the field. Lamm rimmed eight goals from the foul line, also counting on a high loop from the center of the field. Chiel, contributed a brace of counters to further boost the Lavender total. The whistle found Fordham trailing on a 27-23 count.

West Point was met as usual at their up-State home and an extra five

Commercial Bows to Freshman Five

Fahrer, ex-Stuyvesant Captain, Scores 11 Points—New Combination Works Well—Final Score, 19-13

With a team composed of two veterans and three new men who had played together for but twenty minutes on the day before the game, the freshmen basketball team last Saturday night added Commercial to its already long string of victories. The final score was 19 to 13.

The game started with neither team working smoothly. Each team would break through the other's defence at intervals, to toss the ball with unavailing aim at the evasive iron hoop. The lack of scoring was due as much to nervousness as to friction between the cogs of a machine which was not well oiled because of lack of sufficient practice. Not one field goal was achieved during the first period, which ended a 3-3 tie.

The second half began as slowly as the first. It took both teams until far into this second stage of the game to get properly warmed up. After ten minutes of the second half had passed the scoring jinx was killed, when Fahrer looped a pretty basket from a difficult angle. The score stood 5-7 in favor of the yearling five. This started both teams out of their lethargy. Promiscuous shooting brought the fresh lead up to 15-11. As the game progressed, the playing grew rather spectacular, with the wild attempts at field goals by both teams. There was some pretty passwork down the field. The ball was fed to Pedman who counted a basket. Another exhibition of passing sent Rosonowitz under the hoop to top the leather sphere in skillfully. Moskowitz, the minute session was necessary to settle their little matter. The future generals got the better of the scrap and romped off with a victory by a three point margin. Lamm accounted for eighteen points, Krinsky also doing well with four field goals.

Teams	C. C.	Opp.
Alumni	23	22
Princeton	12	22
Princeton	21	25
Cathedral	41	20
Seton Hall	28	22
Toronto	27	20
Columbia	14	15
Fordham	27	23
West Point	32	35
Amherst	42	20
Total	267	224

scarlet and gray foul tosser, netted two goals from the line. The final score stood 19-13 with the triumphant freshmen at the long end.

Rosonowitz, the present captain and Pedman, substitute center and forward of the old aggregation, from an excellent nucleus around which a team at least as strong as last term's can be built. Fahrer, captain of last year's Stuyvesant team is a promising forward. Abrevaga, Davis, Levinson and Osterman in the backfield round out the squad.

The line up:

CCNY Freshmen 19 ComHS 13
 Pedman RF Moskowitz
 Fahrer LF Greenberg
 Rosonowitz C Fiearsky
 Abrevaga LG Kovner
 Davis RG Bluttman

Last year's freshman team, under the captaincy of diminutive "Jackie" Nadel, now of varsity fame, achieved a remarkable list of brilliant and important victories. Numbered among its victories are such teams as: Clinton H. S., 19-16; Commerce H. S., 30-24; Youkers H. S., 44-31; Curtis H. S., 35-16; Stuyvesant H. S., 23-22; Fordham Freshmen 2-0 (by forfeit); Stamford H. S., 26-23.

Of all the games played last term, that with Stuyvesant was the closest. Led by Fahrer, now on the freshman team, the Scarlet and Blue team kept the yearlings on edge throughout the game. With two minutes to go and the score 22-21 in favor of the freshmen, Fahrer tied the score from the foul line. "Jackie" Nadel looped a foul goal just as the whistle, ending the game, blew, putting the college ahead, 25-22.

The game with Clinton looked very much like last Saturday's contest. The team had not yet attained the height of its form and was faltering in its stride. At the end of the first half, the score stood 11-5 in favor of the Clintonites. In the last three minutes of play the score was raised from 16-15 in Clinton's favor, to 19-16 with C. C. N. Y. at the long end.

The struggle with Commerce H. S., the present interscholastic champions of Greater New York was expected to be the hardest tussle of all. Nevertheless they were smothered rather easily, the freshmen showing for the first time the organization that made possible the string of victories they rolled up.

HANDBALL TEAM READY FOR DIFFICULT TERM

The first half of the handball team's activities successfully completed, it still faces a very difficult schedule. Several players have graduated, leaving room for men who are willing to come out and practice. No man will be allowed to practice before he receives his green card. There will be a reorganization of the former players and those who desire to try for the team in the A. A. room on Monday at 1 P. M.

DANCE IN GYM CLOSING '24's FRESHMAN YEAR

The Class of 1924 celebrated its entrance into the Sophomore Class by an informal dance in the gymnasium on Friday, January 28. The "Sophs" deserve the commendation of the College for the quality of their affair. Decorations, music, punch, and program were of the highest quality. For a new and inexperienced class, their function was a remarkable success.

Arkwright Banquet Attended by Many

Many Societies Represented at Commerce Building Dinner—Prominent Speakers

Although the active campaign for the sale of tickets for the Commerce Building Banquet was not pushed as in former years, several hundred students and their friends filled the dining room of the Arkwright Club on Saturday evening, January 15. The dinner showed that extra-curricular activities at the Commerce Building had been started in earnest and that the busy students there found time for social activities during their off hours or after sessions. The Senior Class, Accounting Club, Junior Class, The Corks, The Beta Phi Zetas, The Newman Club and the youngest branch of the Menorah Society occupied separate tables and by their respective cheers made themselves known.

President Welte introduced the toastmaster, Dean Robinson, who humorously introduced the speakers. Dr. Joseph J. Klien suggested levying an income class tax instead of an income tax class and observed that he would enjoy repeating his course if all the beautiful young ladies present would register for it. Mr. Frederick P. Bellamy, member of the Board of Trustees, expressed his keen interest in the work of the Commerce Building, and commended Dean Robinson for his perseverance in developing the Evening Session. Mr. Thomas W. Churchill, President of the Associate Alumni, entertained the diners, and then Mr. Greenberg, President of the Senior Class, and Student Representative, thanked Dean Robinson and the faculty for their earnest efforts on behalf of the students and outlined in detail the various student activities of the Fall term.

EVENING MENORAH TO HAVE STUDY CLASSES

The Commerce Building Menorah plans to organize study circles in Hebrew, Jewish History and Jewish Folk Song, as well as bi-weekly open forums. All students of the Commerce Building are invited to attend.

The officers of the Menorah this term are as follows: President, Joseph Warnoff; Vice-President, Nathan Engel; Secretary, Rose Bloom; Treasurer, Paul Tobias.

PROF. SCHAPIRO GIVES COURSE ON H. G. WELLS

The Evening Session will offer an attractive course in history this term by Prof. Schapiro which will be based on H. G. Wells' "Outlines of History." The tremendous interest shown in the book and the great mass of conflicting comment about it has led the department to introduce this course in the evening session. Registration will be open to all, but no college credit will be allowed. A fee of twenty dollars will be charged for the course, which includes Wells' "Outlines of History," two volumes. Prof. Schapiro reviewed Wells' work in a recent issue of the "Nation."

AUTOMOBILE COURSE NOW SIXTEEN WEEKS

Registration for the automobile course given by the School of Technology is now open. The course has been lengthened to sixteen weeks.

There are afternoon and evening classes which are open to both men and women. The fee for course one is $50.00, starting on February 9th. Further information can be obtained in the office of the Engineering Department in Cooper Hall, registration is in Room 226 of the Vain Building.

COMMERCE PLANNINGS

The Spring Semester will see the development of all extra-curricular activities which were initiated during the Fall Term. The Senior and Junior classes will continue their organization and hope to organize a Freshman Class. The Accounting Club proposes to prepare a booklet which will contain previous C. P. A. problems and their solutions. The Y. M. C. A. will form a permanent organization and the Newman Club will continue its fixed program of holding social and educational gatherings. The Menorah Society has secured the services of capable men to lead study circles in Hebrew, Jewish History, Antiquities, and Jewish Folk songs. The Public Speaking Club, the Economics Club and the Girls' Club will re-organize for an active spring program. On account of the extended registration student activities will not begin until late in the week of February 14.

New students at the Commerce Building are invited to join the Student Organization and secure a green ticket, which is one condition of membership in the various clubs. The Student Bulletin Board for club notices has been prepared on the left wall in the basement hall of the 23rd Street entrance. This, and a bulletin board at the foot of the north stairs on the first floor will be the only places for student announcements. All are urged to consult these boards. The Senior Class will continue to make announcements on the bulletin in the corner of the west hall in the basement; and official notices of the school will appear on the movable bulletin board in the basement, and on the boards in the north hall on the first floor.

New students and old students are reminded of the Dean's order with respect to SMOKING in any part of the building and the observance of the college tradition that men remove their hat in college.

The re-organization of the Student Assembly of Delegates will take place during the week of February 21.

DR. CROWELL TO GIVE COURSE IN COMMERCE

Dr. J. F. Crowell, an eminent economist who was formerly Professor of Trinity College, North Carolina, will give a course in World Commerce in the Evening Session this term.

He has been head of the Department of Economic and Sociology at Smith College and has been an expert on the United States Industrial Commission for the Treasury Department and for the Chamber of Commerce. For some years he was on the editorial staff of the Wall Street Journal. He will explain the great influences that affect the commerce of all the leading nations of the world, and indicate what should be the American policy in the matter of foreign trade.

FORM NEW SOROITY IN EVENING SESSION

The girls of the Commerce Building have formed a new social club, the Sigma Epsilon Sorority.

This society does not intend to compete with the others, but its purpose is simply to further the spirit of good fellowship.

Three meetings have already been held and the following officers were elected: Pres., Miss Ruth Raphael; Vice Pres., Miss Katherine Kerestesy; Secretary, Miss A. Ottenberg; Treasurer, Miss Miriam Ducoff.

CELEBRATED POET TO TEACH VERSE COURSE

The Brooklyn Branch of the Evening Session will give a new course in Poetry Writing, by Elias Lieberman, a graduate of the College, who has made an enviable reputation for himself as a poet. He is the author of "Paved Streets," a volume of poems, one of which is "I Am An American," a poem that attracted nation-wide attention. Mr. Lieberman's course will be a practical course in versification.
