REV. DR. KELMAN ADDRESSES CHAPEL ON THE FAR EAST

Japan Is Faced With the Problem of Expansion—She Will Not War With the U. S.

PARLIAMENT OF TODAY PRODUCT OF MANY YEARS

China, Today, the Greatest Temptation to Aggressive Nations, Asks Only for Protection

Welcomed by a rousing "varsity cheer with three Kelmans" on the end of it, Dr. John Kelman, pastor of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, addressed last Tuesday's chapel on the "Issues of the Conference Upon the Limitation of Armament".

Dr. Kelman spoke vividly upon the past and present conditions in Japan and China on which hinges the failure or success of a Far-Eastern agreement.

At the present time, continued the Doctor, Japan is full of unrest. Japan today is confronted with the same problem faced two hundred years ago by England.

Although the Samurai, or warrior and feudal clan, is still at the head of the government of Japan, the young men in whom lies the hope of the future greatness of Japan, are following the ideals of the late Premier Hara, who was to the last a friend and ally of liberal, open-minded, progressive Japan.

China seems to be in no way to emerge from the depths of revolution and class struggle in to which the death, twenty years ago, of the Dowager Empress plunged her.

VARIETY PLAYERS CAVORT TONIGHT

Teddy Jones Orchestra the Feature of the Evening—Many Notables Will Attend

The Variety Players, after a month of preliminary advertising, will wind up their week of entertainment with a dance this evening in the college gymnasium.

Tonight's affair has been taken by the Variety Players as an opportunity to introduce themselves to the college, and in accordance with this the price of admission has been made low enough to assure a large attendance.

Music will be furnished by the Theodore Jones Colored Orchestra, formerly of Steeplechase, Coney Island. The decorations will be novel, and the dance order, which has been prepared for the occasion, will be entirely different from the ordinary run of programs.

The college has responded in force to the affair, and a large attendance is expected. Tickets will be on sale at the door for those who have not as yet purchased them.

Among the invited guests are Professors Brownson, Stevenson, Otis, Moore, Williamson and Burchard; Dr. Gottschall, Major Herrick and Lieutenant Finnerty.

The committee in charge of the dance is made up of Sid Okun, chairman; Borah Minevitch, Meyer Beriman, Irv Sauber and Sid Fine.

SENIORS HOLD DANCE ON THANKSGIVING EVE

The Senior Class will hold its annual dance on Thanksgiving Eve in the gymnasium. All arrangements have been completed and the committee is working hard to supply the demand for tickets, which are selling with unusual rapidity.

All students are urged to come, especially the lower classmen. The faculty is by no means excluded and some members of the class after hearing how well the Dean sang at one of the "Y" dinners, are hoping that he may see fit to attend.

BAND TO BE FORMED BY R. O. T. C. STUDENTS

Great efforts are being made to organize an R. O. T. C. Band. At a meeting held last week a large number of students were present.

COLLEGE TO HEAR ORATORY CONTEST

Wide Range of Subjects Marks Original Addresses—Poetry Declarations Popular Selections

COMPETITION KEEN AT FALL PRIZE CONTEST

Professor Samuel Baldwin to Give Interesting Program of Organ Selections During the Intermission

The Fall Prize Speaking Contest will take place this evening at 8:15 o'clock in the Great Hall.

The contest for original orations will be opened by Hyman Weissmann, who will speak on "Disarmament and the Far East".

The winner of this contest will receive the "Board of Trustees Prize". This prize has been offered by each successive Board of Trustees since 1852, when Prize Speaking Contests became an established institution at C. C. N. Y.

The second prize in the oratorical contest is the "Freiberg Memorial Prize", established in honor of Hyman Freiberg of the Class of 1915, who was killed in action in France in 1918.

The poetry declamations will be opened by Benjamin L. Spivak, who will recite "Cher Ami D. S. C." by Farrington. "A Birthing Candle" by Dr. Finley, former president of the college, is the selection with which Samuel Rosen will demonstrate his recitative capabilities.

The prize for the best poetical rendition is known as the "Roemer Prize". In 1892, upon the death of Professor Roemer, it was found that for thirty-eight years he had provided anonymously a prize for the declamation of poetry.

Professor Samuel A. Baldwin will aid materially in making the occasion interesting and enjoyable by rendering several organ selections in the time intervening the two parts of the contest.

Professors Morse, Whiteside and Mr. J. J. Hughes will be the judges of both contests.

WALSH LECTURES ON DISARMAMENT

As Advisor to President De Valera, He Is Authority Upon Sinn Fein Affairs

MR. WALSH REPRESENTS IRISH REPUBLIC IN U. S.

Was Member of War Labor Board Appointed by Wilson—Taft Co-Worker on Same Body

Frank P. Walsh, the noted labor attorney, will address the Social Problems Club on Friday, November 18 in Room 126.

Mr. Walsh has recently returned to America from a conference with De Valera. He is one of the advisors of the Irish president and has aided in the formulation of the Sinn Fein program.

Mr. Walsh is nationally known because of his connection with the labor movement in this country. He is the counsellor for the United Mine Workers of America and other labor organizations.

During the war, President Wilson appointed Walsh chairman of the War Labor Board of which William Howard Taft was also a member.

Mr. Walsh was also a member of the Commission on Industrial Relations which was organized in 1912. In fact, he has been connected with all matters pertaining to labor conditions in America.

Inasmuch as Mr. Walsh leaves for Ireland again in a few weeks, it was very difficult to procure him to lecture to the Social Problems Club.

FRESHMEN MEET SOPHS IN DEBATE NEXT MONTH

The Frosh debating team will meet the representatives of the Sophomore class in the Great Hall on December 2, the question being: "Resolved, That Congress should suppress all propaganda advocating the overthrow of the government of the United States by force and violence."

Inasmuch as the freshmen selected the topic, the sophomores have the choice of the affirmative or negative. The losing class will present a banner to the victors. The judges have not yet been announced.

PSYCHOLOGY LECTURE Professor Harry Allen Overstreet, of the Philosophy Department, will address the Psychology Club today at 1 p. m. in Room 315.

AFFAIRS COMMITTEES HOLD JOINT MEETING

Lunchroom Situation and Powers of Student Council Main Topics of Discussion

The first joint meeting of the Faculty Committee on Student Affairs, which was represented by a sub-committee, consisting of Professors Moore, Kelly, Burchard and Corcoran, and the Student Council Committee on Student Affairs, was held on Monday, November 14, in Room 129.

A discussion of the scope of the Student Council resulted from the request of that body that its powers be defined, but it was decided that such a definition would accomplish nothing substantial and would prevent the growth of the body.

Another recommendation made by the committee was that the tower bell be rung at chapel.

The Faculty Committee reported that the telephone company had agreed to install an additional booth in the college for the use of students.

The committee also announced that Professor Robinson had completed arrangements for changing the name of the 137th Street subway station to the City College station.

The subject of improving lunchroom conditions was taken up and discussed thoroughly. The committee to enforce the Student Council resolutions on the care of the concourse, headed by Corbie '24, declared that conditions could not be made ideal because of the congestion in the lunchroom and the tables outside, but that if a chapel were devoted to bringing the matter before the students of the college and asking for their co-operation, they could be improved.

It was suggested by Professor Burchard that the placing of the lockers in the subway would improve the appearance of the concourse and the alcove, and would remove one cause for the unsanitary conditions in the lunchroom.

In connection with the discussion of the lunchroom situation, the movement for a co-operative lunchroom, owned and operated by students, was discussed. The decision was made that the Student Council, which recently passed resolutions in favor of the change, draw up definite plans in regard to it, and submit them to the faculty.

FOOTBALL SUPPORT PLEDGED BY ALUMNI AT ANNUAL DINNER

Three Thousand Dollars in Cash Donated by Enthusiastic Alumni to Revive Varsity Football

ALUMNI IN CAMPAIGN FOR SALARY INCREASES

A Resolution Was Passed Commending President Harding for Calling Conference

Three thousand dollars in cash and much more in pledges by classes and individual alumni were contributed for the support of college football at the annual dinner of the Associate Alumni held at the Hotel Commodore last Saturday evening.

Major Herrick was directly responsible for this inflow of gold. He made a stirring plea in support of varsity football at the college, in which he said that the reputation of C. C. N. Y. in matters of scholarship was equal to that of any institution in the country.

The enthusiastic response which the alumni gave him makes certain the appearance of a Lavender eleven in intercollegiate competition next season. After the first one hundred dollars had been contributed the classes vied with each other in swelling the total until more than five thousand dollars was either pledged or contributed in cash.

Disarmament and the important question of professors' salaries and pensions were also given consideration. A resolution was passed commending President Harding for his action in summoning the disarmament conference.

President Mezès proposed a rather startling solution of the problem which is agitating the world today. "How is it possible," he said, "for nations to understand each other when there is no common auxiliary tongue which can speak and understand? There is, however, a language which is being taught in almost every school and college in the world. That language is Latin, but it is a high, technical, Ciceronian Latin. Substitute for it the simple, easily comprehended tongue that the Romans used in their daily intercourse and you will have a universal language ready for use."

Dr. MacCracken, president of Vassar College, expressed an optimistic faith in the outcome of the conference and listed among the great peace documents to which the delegates might refer the official writings of Woodrow Wilson and the Versailles Treaty.

President Thomas W. Churchill, of the Class of '82, and the newly elected chairman of the board of trustees, made an appeal on behalf of the faculty. "It is disgraceful," he declared, "that out of the 25,000 teachers employed in New York City, the handful of men who are training the city's educators, lawyers and engineers, alone should be discriminated against in the matter of pensions and salary increases. We are very hopeful, however, that the deficiency in salary will soon be remedied. There is every indication that the Court of Appeals will sustain the decisions of the two lower courts supporting the mandatory legislation passed at Albany last spring. But the support of every alumnus will be needed this winter to secure the passage of an adequate pension law by the state legislature."

The other speakers were the Rev. W. Warren Giles, '81, who commended them to the faculty.

President's Reply to the Student Council Members

To the Members of the Student Council:

The President has received your letter of November 10th. He asks me to say that he appointed delegates to the Princeton Conference on Disarmament at the request of President Hibben of Princeton University. He was quite unaware that any request to choose delegates had been addressed to your Council; in fact, he had selected the delegates, informed them of their appointment, and transmitted their names to Princeton before he learned that your Council was considering action to the same end.

It seems clear that there must have been a serious confusion of purpose on the part of Princeton.

The President asks me to add that while it is his policy to co-operate so far as possible with your Council, he must at all times hold himself free to take direct and independent action in all matters that concern the College, whether in its internal administration or its external relations.

(Signed) H. L. McCARTIE, Secretary to the President. N. B.—It is the President's desire that a copy of this letter be sent to The Campus for publication.

Team Displays Fine Work in Early Season Match—Outlook for the Rest of the Season is Very Good

In the opening game of the season, the Lavender handball team trounced the Trinity Athletic Club on the College courts last Saturday by the score of 4 to 1.

Sachman Defeated

Sachman put up a hard fight for supremacy, forcing Swertlow to go the limit to win the match.

Visitors Win One Set

In the doubles Mins and Milgram lined up against O'Connell and Stewart and had little trouble in turning away the victims in quick order.

The feature of the day was Swertlow's fast work in defeating Sachman, star handball player.

Summary Swertlow, C. C. N. Y. vs. Sachman, Trinity A. C., 18-21, 21-12, 21-5; Mins, C. C. N. Y. vs. Butler, Trinity, A. C., 21-8, 21-8; Milgram, C. C. N. Y. vs. O'Connell, Trinity A. FIRST TEAM DISPLAYS EXCELLENT TEAM-WORK

Raskin Stars During Practice, Scoring Eight Out of the Nineteen Baskets Tallied by the Varsity

With the opening date of the Lavender basketball season not far off, the varsity pill tossers are fast rounding into form.

Varsity Play Well

The freshman quintet fought against the varsity for a short period of five minutes.

The next tussle with the frosh scrubs resulted in a scoring bee.

Scrubs Fight Hard

The rest of the day was devoted to a keen struggle between the varsity and the varsity scrubs, which produced flashes of spectacular playing.

In all, during the entire period of the practice the first quintet tallied nineteen baskets, proving its ability as a scoring team.

CHESS TEAM TO HAVE VERY ACTIVE SEASON

The third round in the tournament to select the Varsity Chess Team is now completed.

LAVENDER HARRIERS TO MEET LAFAYETTE

Hill and Dalers Compete Against Pennsylvanians Today and in the Intercollegiate Monday, November 21

The varsity cross-country team will run Lafayette College in Lavender's last dual meet of the season today at 3 p. m.

The Lavender hill and dalers have been training a great deal in the Stadium during the past week and should be in excellent form to compete with their rivals today.

Wolcott until recently was ill, but he has recuperated entirely and will sport the Lavender colors against Lafayette, while Bayer, who is unable to participate in meets on Saturday, will take part in today's engagement.

These two men have run for the college several times this season and have finished the six-mile race in early places.

On Monday, November 21, the intercollegiate Cross-Country meet will be held on the A. A. U. course at Van Cortlandt Park.

DRIVE FOR BIO FUND IS VERY SUCCESSFUL

Two or Three Students Will Be Sent to Cold Spring Harbor Marine Laboratories for Summer

The final drive for the Bio Fund this term has netted $40, making the total to date $1,179. If $70 more is collected two students will be sent to one of the Marine Laboratories this spring. If $100 is received before the drive closes, the college will be able to send three students to Cold Spring Harbor to take the advanced biology courses there.

The Bio Fund was started a few years ago in order to make it possible for the college to send men to the marine laboratories during the summer at Wood's Hole or Cold Spring Harbor. Almost all the colleges in the East except C. C. N. Y. have been able to send their representatives every summer. Up to the present time the lack of funds made it impossible for the college to have its representatives at these laboratories. There is no doubt, however, that at least two men will be selected to take the advanced courses this spring.

As soon as the required sum is collected two men will be chosen by the Bio Faculty to take the advanced courses in Biology. The students thus selected will be given a splendid opportunity to study the science in natural surroundings.

The drive has been very successful so far. The first quota was easily passed in the first week of the drive and a new one for $1,500 was set. It seems that this higher quota, also, will soon be passed.

The Bio classes and the alumni have helped considerably to boost the fund up to its present quota.

The Bio department is sure that before many more weeks the new quota will be passed and City College will be able to have at least three men represent her at the laboratories.

The Bio Club is still soliciting the classes. Others who wish to contribute may leave their contributions in Professor Goldfarb's office, Room 319A.

JUNIOR FESTIVAL WEEK TO BE GREAT SUCCESS

The '23 Banquet, which is part of the Junior Festival Week, is going to be original in every detail, according to Sidney Okun, chairman of the Banquet Committee. Although the hotel where this will be held has already been decided upon, he refused to divulge the name. However, some of the features of the plans are now known.

A three-room suite consisting of a reception room, smoking room and banquet chamber, has been engaged at one of the leading hotels in the city. Chairman Okun stated also that it is not the purpose of the committee to engage a long list of speakers to bore the men, but that instead real entertainment will be provided.

The food served will be of the best quality and will not be lacking in quantity. Instead of an elaborately printed menu, the committee has decided to have a simple bill of fare and a better grade of food.

MERCURY TO BE OUT FOR THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY

The Mercury will be out before Thanksgiving. This issue promises to be unusual throughout. Because of the unusual darkness that pervaded the last issue, The Mercury assures us that there will be plenty of light on the subject this time.

The various departments that compose the staff of The Mercury report that ample material has been obtained for the coming issue. A good number of remarkable cover designs, cartoons, stories and poems have been presented to the staff. The entire staff is hard at work, and the next issue will probably be one of the best that the college has ever seen. All contributions are being given full consideration.

LOST—A light-brown overcoat. Will finder please leave note in locker 1106, or see Reich in 24 alcove. A liberal reward is offered.

LOST—A Waterman fountain pen. Will finder kindly bring it up to "Campus" office. Morton Handler, "Campus" staff.

FOUND—Chemistry note-book belonging to Kaminsky, Philip. This book may be obtained any lunch hour in The Campus office.

"U" MEMBERSHIP DRIVE NETS ELEVEN HUNDRED

June '23 Heads List With Membership of 63 Per Cent—54 Per Cent of All Students Subscribe

The results of the "U" campaign which terminated on Tuesday, November 1, 1921, show that 1,090 students have purchased "U" tickets. The Class of June '23 has the largest proportionate membership in the college, sixty-three per cent of its members having subscribed to the Union.

This year's membership fell short of record subscription of 1,350 of last semester. This falling off can be ascribed to the delay of the Union committee in commencing the membership drive and the widespread economic depression.

The record of the respective classes is as follows: February '22, 30 members; June '22, 63; February '23, 82; June '23, 111; February '24, 64; June '24, 111; February '25, 120; June '25, 495; unclassified students, 5; special students, 6; faculty, 3; making a total of 1,090 members.

The showing of the Upper Freshmen was particularly disappointing. Only thirty-seven and six-tenths of the members of this class joined the "U".

The Lower Junior Class had the highest proportionate membership in the college. The Lower Freshman Class comes next with a percentage of sixty and three-tenths. The other classes had the following percentage of "U" members: Lower Sophomore, fifty-seven and seven-tenths; Upper Junior, fifty-five; Lower Senior, fifty-three; Upper Sophomore, forty-six and six-tenths; Upper Senior, thirty-seven and five-tenths, making a total of fifty-four per cent in the college.

The Union Committee is at present making plans for next term's campaign, when an intensive effort will be made to break all previous records.

DR. KELMAN'S ADDRESS

for the British Parliament to attain its present state of efficiency and influence. Since its birth, it, as well as the American Congress, has served as a model for the Russian Dumas, for the Persian government, for Turkey and now for Republican China. In no single instance is there a trace of success. Republican government is the result of no sudden change, but the result of gradual evolution and increased education. There are now three forces at war in China and therefore stable government in the country is an impossibility. The only hope for successful government in China is the education of young China to the point where it can take the reins of government and successfully cope with the superstitious ignorance of the masses.

This, remarked the speaker, is the situation with which the Washington Conference is face to face. There are people both in America and Japan who carelessly and criminally speak of war between the United States and Japan. To these people it is only necessary to say as did the late Theodore Roosevelt, "Any sane and reasonable man knows that the friendship of Japan is the best asset America can ever have in the Orient." The intellectual men of Japan and those in positions of public trust say that war with America is inconceivable. The Samurai, who are the old fighting men of Japan, say it is better to commit national suicide by fighting America than to submit to any frustration of national expansion.

In spite of this warlike utterance Japan is decidedly unwilling to commit national hari-kari by war with the United States.

China, which stands today as the greatest temptation to aggressive nations, asks only protection until the time comes when she alone, and unaided, shall be able to develop her resources, govern her people and take the place in the council of nations which is deservedly hers.

"Thank God, gentlemen," said Dr. Kelman, in concluding his address, "Thank God for the conference which is sitting in Washington today!"

FIRST FRESHMAN DANCE PROMISES TO BE SUCCESS

The Class of 1925 in the first social event of the united class, the Freshman dance, expects to delight the college with a most spectacular and elaborate program. The dance will be held in the college gymnasium Friday evening, November 25. In view of the fact that the dance occurs the night before the final football game of the season, the affair gains added significance.

Because the Senior Dance takes place the 24th, the committee will cooperate with the upper classmen to make the decorations worthy of the occasion. Curtains will be used to drape the walls for the first time.

The music will be furnished by a famous selection of Broadway artists whose reputation is unquestioned.

Beautifully decorated dance orders will be distributed to each of the dancers. Between the dances surprise novelties will be presented.

The feature of the affair will be moonlight dancing. This will be worked up to a point never attained before. Two powerful machines will rival the moon itself in soft, rich light. Refreshments will be served.

The committee, consisting of Bluestein, chairman; Ginsberg, Nicholas, Abbrevaya, Spiegel and Krasner, advise the early purchase of tickets as the limited amount may be soon sold out, due to the large class this year.
