Nine Prepares for Game
Against Union in Stadium
Tomorrow

Boston College broke the winning streak of the varsity baseball team yesterday afternoon when it outscored them to the tune of 9-3. The game was featured throughout by heavy hitting and the first home run of the season was hit by Costigan of the visitors in the first frame. Captain Tubby Raskin was the star batsman of the Lavender, hitting two two-baggers, one in the first and one in the sixth inning. Tomorrow the College nine meets the representatives of Union College in the Stadium.

The fireworks started in the first inning when Costigan of Boston College hit the first homer of the season over the centerfield wall with McNamara on base. Halsey tightened up however, and the side was retired when Cronin struck out after Weston was walked and Murphy and Mancewitz flied out. The College came to bat resolved to even up the score and Dono started the ball a rolling by beating out a hit toward third. He reached second when Mac Hodesblatt hit a mighty wallon into right field. Tubby Raskin showed his worthiness to be captain by clouting out a two bagger.

At the ending of the sixth Raskin duplicated his feat of the first inning and doubled over the right field fence. He went to third on a sacrifice by Ephron and Jacobson sent him home by a hit to Weston. No more runs were scored since Ephron and Josephson grounded out to Carroll and Rossi flied out to center.

SONG COMPETITION POSTPONED TO 26TH

Contest Sponsored by The Campus Receives Enthusiastic
Response From Fraternities

An important change has been made in the arrangement for The Campus intra-mural Song Contest, which was previously scheduled to take place on Thursday, May 20. Due to the coincidence of the Interfraternity Track Meet, which is scheduled for the same time, it has been decided, instead, to stage the big sing on Wednesday evening, May 26, the night before the Charter Day ceremonies. All concerned have expressed enthusiastic approval of the change, for it has been agreed that Charter Day eve is ideally suitable for this affair.

All fraternities and societies, intending to enter teams in the coming Song Contest, are urged to notify members of the Executive Board, or to leave their entries in The Campus editorial offices.

Though the announcement was only made in last Monday's issue, already the response from the College fraternities has been very encouraging to the sponsors of the contest. Thus far, six fraternities have entered teams. They are: Omega Pi Alpha, Lambda Mu, Delta Sigma Phi, Delta Alpha, Zeta Beta Tau, and Alpha Mu Sigma.

Societies which are also entering teams in the competition are, the Deutscher Verein, the Menorah, and the Y.M.C.A. It is also rumored that the Freshman class is preparing a musical octet which will attempt to capture the winning trophy.

The Executive Board of The Campus has set aside a generous amount of money in order to award handsome prizes to the winning teams. The tentative awards decided upon, are: a silver trophy to the winning octet, and a plaque to the second best team.

Competition in the Song contest is open to all classes, fraternities, and recognized societies and clubs of the College, who are eligible to enter one group of eight men. No entrance fee is required for participation in the contest.

Each team must sing at least one City College song which must be contained in the recently published City College Songbook; and are allowed one optional song. For teams desiring accompaniment on the piano, provision will be made. Others are permitted their own accompaniment. A committee of three will judge the contest, which will be held in the

TRACKMEN LOSE TO MANHATTAN, 60-56

Sober and Levy Break College Records in Half-
Mile and Javelin

Although two College records were broken, the varsity trackmen went down to defeat at the hands of Manhattan College last Wednesday by the score of 60-56. At first it seemed as if the Lavender would emerge victorious but Manhattan climbed ahead by reason of its victories in the 220-yard dash, mile run, 440-yard run and broad jump. Sober and Levy of the varsity broke the two College records. In the half mile Pinkie ran one of the best performances of his career and finished in the excellent time of 1 minute, 58 seconds. The former record was 2 minutes and 2 seconds.

Levy broke the second record of the day when he threw the javelin 139 feet, seventeen feet more than the previous record. Manecz of Manhattan was the high scorer of the meet, amassing a total of twenty-one points three firsts and two seconds. The spectators, of which there were about five hundred present, were very much surprised when Pinkie Sober did not line up at the start of the 440-yard dash.

Starting the meet auspiciously for the College, Brummer came in ahead of Rice of the visitors in the 220-yard low hurdles in 29 4-10 seconds, Schlynsky came in third in this event. Manhattan climbed up on the Lavender in the century when Manecz and Delahanty took first and second for the Green and White aggregation in the fast time of 10 2-3 seconds.

Two champions met in the next event, the half mile, which was the most thrilling race on the program. Sober was content to let Geoghegan, Metropolitan 660-yard champion, have the lead thruout the race, but coming down the stretch, he started that famous spurt which has won him so many victories and amid the roars of the crowd he came in a victor by thirty yards and also broke the College record.

Herrman of the College won the two mile, trailed by Murphy and Leddy of Manhattan. Levy, who was the high scorer for the Lavender, won the shot put with a heave of 36 feet 9 inches. Skidd of Manhattan took second with 34 feet 1 inch with Maurer of the varsity trailing by 9 inches. College rooters were given a chance to cheer in the next event when Karovin, a hitherto unknown sophomore, took first in the high jump with a jump of 5 feet 7 inches. Manecz of Manhattan was eliminated when 5 feet 6 inches was reached and Cohalan also of the visitors was third with a jump of 5 feet, 2 inches.

Manhattan now started on its drive for victory and Manecz came in victorious in the 220-yard run followed by his team mate Dunn and by the Lavender representative Lazarus, in 23 and 4-10 seconds. Geoghegan of the Green and White team romped home first in the mile run trailed by Kushnick and Herrman of the College. Manecz took his third first place in the 440-yard run which next to the half-mile was the most exciting race of the afternoon. Low was leading by about 5 yards when about 25 yards from the tape, Manecz started a great drive to victory and to the great joy of the visitors barely nosed out Low. Third place went to J. Levy of the College.

Delehanty, Metropolitan broad jumping champ, took first for Manhattan.

ROSENBLUTH SECRETARY

Albert Leventhal Wins by a
Big Margin Over Two Opponents

The election of officers of the Athletic Association resulted in the election of Arthur Rosenbluth as secretary, Albert Leventhal as treasurer and Jack Deutsch as assistant treasurer. Isadore Seidler had no running mate in his claim for the presidency.

For the position of vice-president a reelection will be held some time next week. The candidates were Bernard Eisenstein, Arthur Moder and Gus Packer. The reelection will be between Eisenstein who received 249 votes and Arthur Moder who received 164 votes. Gus Packer received 120 votes and consequently drops out of the competition for the vice-presidency.

A total of 500 ballots were cast for the office of secretary. Arthur Rosenbluth received 263 votes, George Schwartz received 157 and Howard Iserson received 80 votes.

Leventhal beat his two opponents by a large margin. He received 278 votes to 100 votes of William Schwartz and 96 votes of Irving Lubroth.

Jack Deutsch received a large return over his opponent. The final tally stood 387 votes for Deutsch and 165 votes for Sidney Boehm.

In an interview, Isadore Seidler intimated to The Campus the policies for his administration which affect the future progress and welfare of the Athletic Association. His statement in full is the following:

"I shall endeavor to secure and maintain alumni interest in athletics, by providing as far as possible for alumni co-operation in the actions of the A. A.

"I shall endeavor to carry to completion the work of the present Constitutional Committee, and to put the new constitution into operation as soon as possible.

"I plan to establish and maintain an organized system of intra-mural athletics, so that it shall be possible for every student to participate in some form of organized athletics.

"I shall endeavor to bring into effect needed reforms in the present managerial system."

The candidates for the vice-presidency are actively engaged in extra-curricular work. Bernard Eisenstein is a sports reporter on The Campus, a contributor to Mercury, member of the Frosh Soph Committee, chairman of the A. A. Soiree and member of the A. A. constitutional committee. He served on the A. A. Board for two years and was recently elected to Soph Skull. Moder has a record in athletics.

Eisenstein's statement to The Campus was as follows: "My platform is based upon the fostering and maintenance of alumni spirit in athletics, the founding of intra-mural activities at the College and the establishment of soccer, lacrosse, and golf teams. I am opposed to the Athletic Association's withdrawal from the Union."

Reelection for Vice-Pres.
To Take Place Monday

Election for the vice-presidency of the Athletic Association takes place Monday between 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. in the concourse, was the announcement made by Ben Daneman, the chairman of elections committee. The two candidates are Bernard Eisenstein and Arthur Moder. Members of the "U" are the only students who are eligible to cast ballots at this election.

STUDENTS TO FORM COMM. WITH DEANS

Faculty Members to Hold Regular Meetings with Student Representative

Definite arrangements for future meetings between representatives of the student body, and the President and Deans of the College were formulated in a conference between five student representatives and President Sidney E. Mezes, yesterday at 12 o'clock in the President's office.

It was decided that the President, the four Deans of the College, the President of the Student Council, the President of the Athletic Association, the Editor of The Campus, the Editor of Mercury, the Editor of Lavender, and one member of the senior and junior classes with the highest scholastic standing in their classes should form a committee to discuss prevailing conditions in the College and attempt to alleviate any unnecessary evils by direct contact between faculty and student representatives.

These student representatives who have been specially invited by President Mezes to meet him regularly were considered sufficiently representative of all branches of student activity to warrant no general disapproval. Arrangements for regular meetings of this committee were also agreed upon. It was decided that beginning next term meetings will be held every alternate Thursday in the President's office at 12 noon. However, two more meetings will be held during the remainder of this semester. The next regular meeting will take place Thursday, May 20 and a special meeting Thursday, June 3. No meeting will be held on Charter Day.

The students who are to be representative of the senior and junior classes have not as yet been chosen but some arrangement will be made before the next meeting. The faculty members of this committee are Deans Brownson, Robinson, Skene, and Klapper.

ORCHESTRA CALLS REHEARSAL

FENSTERSTOCK TRIUMPHS

More Than Doubles Kosh in Number of Votes; Tally
297 to 112

Irving Packer '27, was elected vice-president and Howard Fensterstock '28 was elected secretary in the elections for Student Council officers for the term beginning September, 1926 and ending January, 1927. David W. Kanstoren '27 was the unopposed candidate for the presidency. The elections were held on Wednesday between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. under the auspices of the elections committee headed by Ben Daneman. The total number of votes cast by 'U' members were only about four hundred and fifty.

Vice-Presidency Close

The contest for the vice-presidency was won by a margin of three votes. Packer received a total number of 215 votes and his running mate, Hyman Sorokoff '28, received 213 votes. A recount held because of the close vote, confirmed the vote as official. Packer's extra-curricular record is a comprehensive one. He played on the football team for two years, the baseball team for the 1925 season and is on the Varsity track team this year. He is a member of Soph Skull and served on several committees including the Frosh-Soph Committee, and worked in connection with the Dramatic Society.

In a statement to The Campus Packer said, "The action of the Student Council withholding the appropriation from The Campus is legally justified. However, from an ethical viewpoint, the circumstance was an unfortunate one inasmuch as The Campus, by long established precedent, should be deserving of the whole-hearted support of the student body."

Fensterstock Defeats Kosh.

Fensterstock beat his opponent, David Kosh '28, for the secretaryship by a large majority. The official tally stands 297 to 112. Fensterstock has experience in the Student Council by virtue of the offices he held in the past terms. He was class student-councillor and president of his class. At present he is an editor of Mercury and a member of Soph Skull.

Dave Kanstoren is the incumbent of the vice-presidency of the Student Council. He has served as class student-councillor and class president. Among the advisory positions which he held is also the junior advisor to the freshmen. In a communication to The Campus he outlined the following policies:

"I believe that this term's Student Council is entirely justified in its claim for an equal staff voice in the matter of the election and deposition of a Campus editor. I believe that there is need for a student paper which shall be responsible only to the student body and subject to no other censorship than that based on the usual grounds of courtesy and good taste."

"HONEST ELECTIONS"

Elections may be run honestly and efficiently by those in charge charge. They may be accord, technically, with the rules of fair play. They may be everything that is to be desired from the viewpoint of the mechanics of poll-policing and ballot-counting. But they will never be true expressions of the will of the student body as long as there exists at the College the type of office-seeker and the type of "U" member who participated in Wednesday's election in an incident of the kind to be deplored, an incident which can be prevented by no committees or officials, but only by a wide-awake student body which is sincere in choosing the men who are to represent it in the two major political bodies of the College.

The incident in question occurred in the early hours of the election. One of the candidates for a position on the A.A. Board approached a student, unknown to him, who was sitting in the alcove adjoining the election polls. After learning that the student had not yet cast his vote, the aspirant for office asked the potential elector to vote then and there, without implying, of course, that he wished the student to vote for him. Perceiving that the lethargy of the man for whose vote he was dickering was greater than his interest in the election, (and the student declared that he had only voted twice in three years), the candidate requested the loan of the "U" ticket, and after some persuasion, the request was granted. And the leader had not even learned the name of the man who was running, the office for which he was competing, and the names of the men who were opposing him. No doubt the aspirant did not possess the terminology to use the ticket himself. His admirers must have been numerous enough for him to secure one who would cast the vote. And with that "U" ticket were cast votes for every office on the ballot. Whether or not such occurrences are common is of little moment when the fact that they do occur and that so frequently elections are determined by one or two votes is considered. One such incident is cause enough for the contention that there is something basically wrong with the system.

We are glad to say that the ambitious candidate referred to was unsuccessful in securing the election. The Student Council Elections Committee is to be lauded for conducting a clean election.

To the newly elected officers of the Athletic Association and the Student Council we take this opportunity to extend our heartiest and most sincere congratulations.

Evolution to me is quite simple,
I know where the haunt of the Gnu is,
I can tell you the cause of a dimple,

But what I can't fathom is: who is
This Addison Simms of Seattle

I know the biominial theorem,
That juxtaposition of integers;
Two Epodes of Horace or three of them
Is easy to learn, but not so with this Guy, Addison Simms of Seattle.

Parmecia, Echinodermata,

All find place in my technical data
But I've never been able to trace any Addison Simms of Seattle.

I have gone to the college Librarian,
A pedant and scholar most erudite,
Well versed in all things antiquarian
In vain has he looked up with all his might
The Addison Simms of Seattle.

All in all, I'm a guy of profundity,
And I know more than any young man about
All the Things of a latter day mundity,
So why should I give a—er—rap about

COLLEGIATE FABLES

This FABLE took place at an out-of-town HIGHER INSTITUTION FOR THE ACQUISITION OF CLASSIFIED KNOWLEDGE which had the three collegiate essentials: CAMPUS & JUNIOR PROM, with sub-headings, (A) Wine
(B) Women
(C) Professors (as a matter of form)

It happened that at this Educational Emporium there was an Oscar who was so SHARP and FAST that he had to turn side-ways to keep from flying. This BOY sure did know his CONDIMENT'S; he used a FIVE-FOOT-BOOK-SHELF, CUTEX, BANDOLINE and LISTERINE and he never ordered CHICKEN SALAD, so he was much in demand. Now the night or rather the night and days following the JUNIOR PROM were adpropinquating with seven-leagued boots, and OUR HERO was all SEWED UP for a BLIND DATE. One of his FRATERNITY BROTHERS had begged him to take his SISTER who was coming up to the PROM. Now this Bozo had been stuck with BLIND DATES before and had gotten a LEMON and LIME each time, so he swore he wouldn't take another one...but when a BROTHER asks and SO earnestly too, as if no one else could stand the PRESSURE. But why should he be chosen for the dirty work....?

Quae cum ita essent, OUR BOY FRIEND was greatly perturbed, nor was his equanimity intact. He sought aid and auxilium among his friends, but it was not so easy. Slim Jim Lee laughed at him; Skeeter consoled him by telling of a blind date he had had who was skinny, knock-kneed and wore steel rimmed specs; the specs were not so bad, he said, but the legs....Hank felt for him but couldn't reach him.

But there was a GUY on the CAMPUS who owed OUR FAVORED ONE twenty bucks with whom he thought he'd get even by sticking with his White ELEPHANT. So he went to him and offered him cancellation of his antedeluvian debt, five dollars in cash and a quart bottle of BACCARDI out of which—"no kiddin', I only took two swigs, and—oyez—Mac had one...." For such considerations this BIRD would do anything, so he took the money, liquor and BLIND DATE from OUR UNFORTUNATE ONE. So he found THE FRATERNITY BROTHER and told him that he had BONE UP on some MIDIEVAL MECHANICS and COULDN'T take his SISTER to the PROM, but he had gotten another GUY.....THE FRATERNITY BROTHER was real disappointed, but he said it would be ALRIGHT.

On the afternoon of the PROM, when all the FAIR ONES were arriving from to and fro in the world and up and down in it, and HE was sitting at the window of his room looking down at the anticipatorily gay CAMPUS and patting himself on the back for getting rid of his BLIND DATE, he saw the GUY he had STUCK carrying the luggage of a SWEET WOMAN who was MIRABILIS VISU from her pretty shingle-bobbed head to her beautifying moulded, garter-girt neither limb.

While he was marveling at his apparition, his FRATERNITY BROTHER appeared from somewhere and exuberantly hailed,

"Hello SIS....."

Bound in Morocco

For Professors Only

CHIMES, by Robert Herrick. New York: The Macmillan Company. $2.

There is much that is similar between the faculty of Eureka University, the scene of Robert Herrick's novel, and the faculty of this college. At Eureka there is also the go-getter dean, the radical professor interested in student affairs, the great minds in shallow ruts, and the average, humdrum professor who is content merely to provide an education and let the development of the love for learning in his students strictly alone. Almost every male character in the novel reminded me forcibly of some instructor at City College.

Besides the instructors, however, there are other things at Eureka that call this audience to mind. The same conditions that exist here, exist, it seems, pretty near at all centers of higher education, if we are to take Eureka as the average university. There is the same hushing up of unsavory (in the eyes of the faculty) incidents for "the good of the College", the same problems, the same, ordinary, conservative solutions, with the Left wing of the faculty perennially at odds with the members of the Right in matters of the curriculum, the student body, the university itself.

Chimes is not a novel in the sense that it tells a story. On the contrary, it bears very little resemblance to the popular conception of the modern novel. It is, in short, a clear, lucid account of the activities of the faculty of Eureka University (which, I understand, is a pen name for the University of Chicago) from its founding in the Victorian Age, through its adolescence, its youth, up to the respectable smugness of its middle age in the Jazz Era. And, Mr. Herrick shows the same conservatism, the same materialism which obsessed the University in the Age of Victoria still prevails in this Age of Gin and Jazz.

In Beaman Clavercin, professor of general literature at Eureka, we find the intellectual, academic sort of scholar, who teaches because he loves learning. And in Alex Harding, we have an example of the general run of instructors (according to Mr. Herrick) which teaches because of lack of something better to do. Mr. Herrick, perhaps because he has been one for thirty years, is extremely pessimistic concerning professors. He does not, at least as far as I understand, find any solution to the problem of education versus learning. And because of that, perhaps, his novel fails to bring to the reader any sense of the seriousness of the question.

I would not advise any undergraduate to read Chimes. It might make him lose his respect for the faculty (which would be deplorably seditious), might make him think of his professors as the individual members of the cloth think of each other.

MARSH

PROF. BROWNE LECTURES BEFORE BIOLOGY CLUB

At the meeting of the Biology Club held yesterday at 12:45 in room 319, Prof. Browne spoke on the latest advances in medicine, with special reference to the Shiek and Dick tests. The other speaker of the afternoon was Abraham Neworth '26, who discussed the nature of the research work he is now engaged in at the College.

The Biology Club is planning a trip to the Palisades to study reptiles this Sunday. The members intend to bring back some snakes to add to the College collection.

On May 28 the annual banquet of the club takes place at the Hotel Gonerone. The purposes of this affair, is first to meet the alumni, and secondly to send off the graduating members. It is the intention of the program committee to make the evening's entertainment semi-humorous as well as technical. The price of the ticket is $2.50, and is payable to members of the committee.

OVERSTREET ANNOUNCES TOPIC FOR PRIZE ESSAY

Professor Harry Allen Overstreet, Head of the Department of Philosophy, has announced that the Britton Prize in Moral Philosophy will be given to the undergraduate of the College who writes the best essay on the topic, "The Ideal of the Gentleman; Historically and Critically Examined."

The Britton Prize is offered regularly to the student writing the best essay on some phase of character or moral philosophy. It consists of a cash award of fifty dollars. Men graduating with the class of June, 1926, are eligible for the competition as well as other students of the College.

Essays must be placed in the hands of Professor Overstreet on or before December 15, 1926. Each manuscript should be signed by a designating mark and accompanied by an envelope containing the name of the author.

CAMPUS ASSOCIATION GIVES DEBATING $25

Herbert A. Bloch '26 Acknowledges Receipt of Gift for Debating Council

The Campus Association recently presented the sum of twenty-five dollars to the Debating Council to further and assist debating and forensic activities at the College.

The donation of this money for the betterment of debating activities is in keeping with the policy of the Campus Association of using the fund accumulated from the profits realized from the publication of The Campus "to aid, foster, maintain, promote, realize or encourage any aim which shall go towards the betterment of College and student activities." The letter sent by Herbert A. Bloch '26, Chairman of the Debating Council acknowledging receipt of the donation of the Campus Association follows:

Gentlemen: The Debating Council of the College wishes to publicly thank the Campus Association for its timely donation of $25, to further debating and forensic activity at the College. This sum of money will be used to further the formation of the proposed Tri-City Debating League and to make up the deficit encountered this semester.

With a spirit of generosity which has always typified the Campus Association for stimulating activities at the College, the Association has once more responded nobly and the Debating Council looks forward to having the Campus Association act as patron to one of its home debates next semester.

(Signed) Herbert A. Bloch '26,
Chairman of the Debating Council

The Debating Council ran a tag drive last fall in order to collect funds to conduct its season properly. This drive netted them about seventy-five dollars, a sum which was insufficient to complete the schedule.

Tickets for the dance are still on sale and may be secured from members of the dance committee this afternoon in the freshman alcove. The tickets are priced at one dollar and a half and may also be purchased at the door before the dance begins.

TRUSTEES NAMED FOR BROOKLYN U.

Mayor Walker Appoints Three Prominent Persons According to Recent Statement

Three trustees of the prospective Brooklyn University have been appointed by Mayor Walker in pursuance of the Nicoll-Hofstadter Bill. These persons are Mrs. Alice Campbell Good, Ralph Jonas and Arthur Howe.

Under the provisions of the bill signed last month by Governor Smith the appointees automatically become members of the Board of Higher Education.

The Board of Higher Education is composed of the trustees of the College of the City of New York, of Hunter College and these three Brooklyn residents recently appointed.

The Nicoll-Hofstadter bill provides that the first duty of the Board will be to establish a free College in Brooklyn entirely separate from the College of the City of New York. Mr. Ralph Jonas, President of the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce secured the passage of this bill. Mr. Jonas himself is the donor of $500,000 which is to go toward the building of the university. In a later statement he said that if $9,000,000 was raised for the proposed Brooklyn University he would donate $1,000,000. Mr. Jonas has received a letter from Walter Kraslow, Brooklyn builder, offering to build the proposed university with practically no profit. The saving, according to Mr. Jonas is to be Mr. Kraslow's personal contribution to the fund.

Mrs. Alice Campbell Good is a trustee of the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and a director of the Women's City Club. She was formerly Chairman of the Parks and Playgrounds Committee of the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce.

Arthur M. Howe has been editor-in-chief of The Brooklyn Daily Eagle since 1915. He is a member of the Advisory board of the Columbia University School of Journalism, National Civic Federation and the Pilgrim Society. Recently he was elected a member of the Board of Trustees of Packer Collegiate Institute.

Ralph Jonas has resided in Brooklyn his whole life. He was one of the organizers of the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce and served in some official capacity ever since it was founded. In 1921 he was Chairman of the Brooklyn Committee to raise $400,000 for the Salvation Army. He helped to underwrite the $1,000,000 endowment drive for Adelphi College and aided in raising the first $50,000 for the Jewish Hospital.

FROSH TRACKMEN BEATEN BY N. Y. U.

Win Only Two First Places
—Barkman High Scorer
for Lavender

Winning but two events out of thirteen on the program, the freshman track team lost to the N.Y.U. yearlings by the decisive score of 97-30 at Ohio Field last Wednesday. The all-around superiority of the strong Violet cub team accounted for the victory.

The only first places the College garnered were in the 100 yard dash and the pole vault. In the former, Leo Barkman romped to victory on the miserable track in the time of 10 4-5 seconds. Barkman was the team's high scorer totaling 12 points.

In the pole vault, Joe Yockel turned in a creditable performance leaping 10 feet. Yockel was second high scorer with eight markers. Stan Frank with three third places, "Mac" MacMahon with a second place, and Bob Maurmeyer tied for second in the quarter, were the only performers to score more than one point.

Things started inauspiciously for the College when Veit and Schapiro of N.Y.U. led Rossum to the tape in the half-mile in the time of 2:06. Phil Edwards followed up for the Heights team by winning the mile in the excellent time of 4:36. Roth, N.Y.U. was second and Lazarowitz, City College, third.

Utterbach accounted for the first of his three victories by winning the high hurdles. Frank, of the local team, followed Feinstein across the line. After Barkman annexed the century, Wormsley, N.Y.U., led the field home in the 440. Bob Maurmeyer ran a game race and finished in a dead heat for second place with Cox of the Violet.

The College annexed two places in the low hurdles when MacMahon and Frank were second and third respectively. Heidberg of the rival team won in 27.5 seconds. The 220 was won in the phenomenal time of 23.1 seconds by Williams of the University team. Barkman was right behind his opponent.

Utterbach leaped to victory in the high jump with Yockel second, and Frank third. Feinstein, N.Y.U. just bettered Barkman's throw in the discus on his last heave of 108 feet, 11.5 inches. The Violet swept all three places in the javelin, shot-put and broad jump with marks of 141 feet, 7 inches; 40 feet, 1 inch; and 20 feet, 8 3-4 inches respectively. Yockel won the concluding event of the day by vaulting 10 feet in his specialty. Barkman rounded out an active day with the third place.

Although the defeat was decisive, it was not a disgraceful one, for the N. Y. U. freshman combination is composed of scholastic stars from every region of the country. The next meet for the Lavender yearlings is with Morris High School next Monday.

GOLFERS PLAY ST. JOHN'S ON SATURDAY MORNING

The Lavender Golf Club, which contains the nucleus for a future Varsity golf team, will try to emulate its 1925 achievement when it meets the St. John's College golf team on the Leewood links on Saturday morning. Last year, the Lavender linksmen scored a decisive 4-1 victory over the Brooklyn golfers.

The same team is still intact, and has been practicing steadily, both indoors and, of late, on the links, for any encounters it can get this season. The St. John's team is headed by Mark Stuart, who starred in the 1925 Intercollegiate Golf Championship.

The probable line-up for Saturday's match is: Mayer, '28 — 1; Miller, '27 — 2; Goodman, '28 — 3; MacAndrew, '27 — 4; Settel, '27 — 5; Cohen, '28 — 6.

LACROSSE MEN SHOW GREAT IMPROVEMENT

Games Being Arranged with Boys' High and Other High Schools

A decided improvement has been noticed in the work of the Lavender Lacrosse Club in its practice with the New York Lacrosse Club. This is in the main due to the excellent tutoring of Coach Meyer Rody, Al Brissotti and Mr. Knight of the New York Lacrosse Club, ex-Capt. Miller of the Carlyle Indians and Professors Panaroni and Baum of the College faculty.

The various members of the Lavender squad have taken an active part in the scrimmages of the N. Y. Lacrosse Club. This has materially affected the speed and stickwork of the men.

Due to the inability of the men to leave New York City because of classes, games requested by the New York Military Academy, at Peekskill and Lehigh University could not possibly be arranged. However, the Lavender team will meet one or two of the city high schools in the very near future. A game with the Boys' High School of Brooklyn is now being arranged.

New candidates are requested to see either Herb Bloch '26, Eddie Curtin '29, or Jack Ratsbin '28, manager.

When the straight-8 blows a shoe

BEFORE you even look for the jack or tire-tools, tuck a neat wad of Prince Albert into the muzzle of your jimmy-pipe. Light up . . . and get yourself in the frame of mind where a flat tire is "all in the day's work." Talk about a gloom-chaser!

P. A. simply knocks troubles for a row of polished-steel mudguards. Its cool, soothing smoke percolates into your system, the sun crashes through the clouds, and everything is hotsy-totsy. Yes indeed, Fellows, Prince Albert is great tobacco.

And paste this in the fly-leaf of your thesaurus: P. A. can't bite your tongue or parch your throat, no matter how hard you hit it up. The Prince Albert process flunked Bite and Parch on their first examination. Get a tidy red tin of P. A. now and see.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half, pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

RITTENBERG SPEAKS BEFORE BASKERVILLE CHEM. SOCIETY

Gives Interesting Talk on the Stability of Atomic Structure

Speaking on the "Stability of Atomic Structure," David Rittenberg, delivered his initial speech before the members of the Baskerville Chemical Society last Thursday at 12 o'clock.

In his introduction, Rittenberg gave a history of the atomic theory, discussing the theories held by the ancient Greek philosophers and chemists and comparing them with those of the present day scientists. The most recent theory promulgated, that of the Danish scientist, Boler, was explained and its plausibility shown by mathematical formulae.

The stability of atomic structure as proven through laboratory data was next shown. In expounding upon this, Rittenberg gave a very interesting illustration showing how it is possible to calculate from this data the amount of energy required to break up one atom of hydrogen in the formation of one of helium.

The talk was concluded by an analogy between the atomic structure and the stellar system. This was shown by comparing the eternal whirling about in space of the stars in their fixed orbits to the revolution of the electrons about the protons of the atom.

HIGH SCHOOLS TO ATTEND ALT, HEIDELBERG OPENING

Balcony of International House Will Be Occupied by High School Students

As a result of a Deutscher Verein quartet's visiting the various high schools of the city the entire balcony of the International House, that is 200 seats, will be occupied by high school students on the evening of May 29, the opening night of Alt Heidelberg.

The play will also be attended by a number of the faculty of the German and other departments who have been invited as guests. Quite a few German professors of other colleges and of the staffs of the high schools will also be present at the opening.

Every Tuesday night for the past few weeks fifty students have been rehearsing on the stage of the theatre, the International House, at 123 Street and Riverside Drive opposite Grants Tomb. Commenting on the rehearsals Hugo Bergenthal, president of the Deutscher Verein declared "Little was it realized when the idea was first originated how stupendous the performance would be."

The costumes for the cast will be supplied by the Shubert Company which is now producing on Broadway the American version of the play "The Student Prince in Heidelberg". The scenery has been painted especially for this production by the artists of the Verein.

VEREIN WILL CONDUCT BOAT TRIP UP HUDSON

The Deutscher Verein will conduct its annual excursion up the Hudson to Poughkeepsie on Sunday at 9 a. m. when the boat will start from the pier at the foot of 129 Street.

MEZES REFERS PETITION TO BOARD OF TRUSTEES

President Replies to Committee Appointed by Student Council

The publication committee appointed by the Student Council to promote recognition of a new student paper at the College has communicated with President Mezes in the form of a petition. Upon receipt of this communication the President informed the committee that it would be referred to the Board of Trustees. The letter to the committee from the President follows:
To the Members of the Student Council:

Your Committee, consisting of Messrs. Hyman, Block, Rossman and Orange, handed me your petition asking permission on your behalf to issue a tri-weekly newspaper on and after September 15, 1926. At that time I said to your Committee that I thought such a petition would have to be acted on by our Board of Trustees, and I find on looking up their by-laws that that is the case. I am therefore transmitting the petition to the Board for such action as it may decide upon.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) S. E. Mezes
