turned in a good performance despite the fact that he was handicapped by his injured foot. Halsey was tapped for twelve bingles, while his comrades earned but five.

Faculty Athletic Committee Drafts Constitution for A.A. Board Monday

A tentative Athletic Association Constitution has been drawn up by the recently appointed A. A. Constitution Committee. The official passing by the Faculty Athletic Committee and the A. A. Board is all that remains to be done for its final adoption. Student objection to any part of the Constitution will be heard at a meeting of the A. A. Board to be arranged for either this or next week.

The committee, whose work has just been completed, was appointed by Dr. Thomas A. Storey, chairman of the Faculty Athletic Committee in response to an editorial campaign sponsored by The Campus. Its members consist of Prof. Thomas A.
Storey, chairman of the F. A. C. and Prof. Walter W. Williamson, faculty manager of athletics as the faculty representatives; Edward Unger '11, as the alumni representative. The student representatives on the committee include Pincus Sober '26, president of the A. A. Board; Isador Seidler '27, vice-president and president-elect of the A. A. Board; Bernard Eisenstein '28, treasurer and vice-president-elect of the A. A.
Board; Bernard Bayer '27, managing editor and editor elect of The Campus; and Sidney L. Jacobi '26, editor of The Campus.

The Campus editorial of Monday, April 19, 1926, asserts that, "The Athletic Association Board of the College owes its existence to the fact that at some time in the past, the F. A. C. regarded the creation of such a student body as fitting and desirable. But never has the F. A. C. seen fit to vest the student board with definite, extensive powers through the medium of a constitution."

The editorial further admonishes the Faculty Athletic Committee to "Immediately set about drawing up a constitution which will grant to the
A. A. Board specific and extensive powers, such as will give it a real significance."

The constitution in part follows:
Proposed Constitution Of The Athletic Association of the College Of The City Of New York
Article I Name

Section 1.—This Association shall be known as the Athletic Association of the College of the City of New York
Article II Objects

Section 1.—To encourage recreational activities, stimulate athletic training, and organize and manage athletic teams.

Section 2.—To establish and preserve sportsmanly ideals.

Section 3.—To promote intramural and extramural athletic competitions.

Section 4.—To provide financial support for the accomplishment of the above named objects.

ent Council paper was referred to the committee on curriculum of ing June and definite action concerning the affair will be taken

Lewisohn Unveiling Recalls Many Gifts

The unveiling of a bust of Adolph Lewisohn which is to take place today in the Stadium recalls the numerous gifts which have been presented to the College by the prominent philanthropist.

Mr. Lewisohn donate the Lewisohn Stadium to the College on May 29, 1915 after having given $200,000 to level off the field and to build the great amphitheatre. During the summer Mr. Lewisohn conducts a series of concerts in the Stadium and to compensate the College for its use, he, each year, gives the College some present. Besides keeping the Stadium in repair Mr. Lewisohn gave the Stadium a new roof last year, when the city refused to do the job and he presented the original lighting system which he has recently given $10,000 to replace.

He also installed a heating system in the Stadium and donated showers and locker rooms under the field on Amsterdam Avenue. Mr. Lewisohn supervised the construction of storage space in the Stadium and installed doorways under it to facilitate traffic from one part of the field to another.

Deutsche Verein Captures First Leg Of Campus Trophy by Winning Sing

An enthusiastic audience of 800 crowded the Great Hall last night to hear the well-trained Deutsche Verein octette capture, by a decisive margin, the first prize-winning trophy in the first Annual Intra-Mural Song Contest which was sponsored by The Campus.

The Y.M.C.A. team won the second cup, and Delta Beta Phi was awarded the third silver cup. By virtue of winning the first prize, the Deutsche Verein was also given possession for one year of a very large silver trophy, which will become the permanent property of the octette winning the annual sing on any three occasions.

Decisions were rendered by a committee composed of Professor Samuel A. Baldwin, chairman, Mr. Edward Walmesley Stitt, Campus Association
President, and Mr. Wasali Lepps, prominent composer.

The competition was presided over by "Big-Bill" Guthrie, who greeted the audience, in his characteristically

COURTMEN TROUNCE FORDHAM PLAYERS

Win Return Match by 5-3—
Kleinfeld Elected 1927
Captain

By defeating Fordham University in a return match, the Lavender tennis team turned the tables on the Maroon in their final contest of the season. In the first match Fordham won a close 5-4 victory, but the playing of the City College netmen was too much for the Maroon to overcome the second time.

Capt Rosenblatt dropped his match to McCauffie in straight sets, 6-0, 6-2. Ruggles came through with a victory over Heeg by 8-6, 6-2. Vin Kleinfeld continued to score for the College by nosing out McCarthy in a close match, 6-4, 3-6, 9-7. King of Fordham squared things for his team by beating Charlie Oshman 6-2, 6-0, but Sisselman put the College in the lead again with a 6-3, 6-2 win over Meyer. Phillips easily trounced Daly 6-0, 0-6, 6-1.

In the doubles, Rosenblatt and Ruggles pulled through with a 3-6, 6-4, 6-2 victory over McCauliffe and Mc-Carthy. The Sisselman and Parsant combination lost to King and Meyer,
6-2, 7-5. After the match, Vin Kleinfeld was unanimously elected captain for next year. Ruggles and Sisselman were the only players to go through the season undefeated.

Capt. Rosenblatt, Ruggles Kleinfeld, Oshman, Sisselman, Phillips, Parsant, and Bronstein will receive varsity letters in tennis.

The varsity has set a fine record this season winning five out of their eight matches. With the loss of only Captain Rosenblatt through graduation the next year's aggregation composed of an experienced group should establish an unique record. Manager Sam Rosenstein '27 will again be with the team and he hopes to arrange as good a schedule as the one presented this spring.

Pres. Mezes To Take Leave of Year in Fall

That President Sidney E. Mezes was granted a sabbatical leave of absence for the college year 1926-27 at the last meeting of the Board of Trustees of the College was announced yesterday afternoon by Miss MacCarthy, the President's secretary.
President Mezes has not yet made public the nature of the work he will undertake during the year he shall be away.
The opinion expressed in official circles last night was that he will spend the time in studying and travel abroad.

The man who will serve as the acting president for next year is not yet known as the College authorities must go through the following procedure. A committee of the Board of Trustees will be appointed to report on the person or persons under consideration. Following the recommendations made by the committee the Board of Trustees will officially elect an acting president.

For the past year President Mezes has been unwell. During the early part of the term, his failing health called him away from college duties.
During that time Dean Frederick
B. Robinson served as the acting-president of the College. Upon his return from the short sojourn in the south, President Mezes immediately took his post once more. He was apparently in good health when he resumed his duties and is continuing his work for the remainder of the college year.

Block to Address Assembly

Arthur Block '26 will address the audience on behalf of the student body. Jerome Hyman '27 will make

HAIL, MAECENAS!

Today undergraduates, faculty, alumni, and guests gather to honor the man whose sense of public duty and whose benefactions have stamped him as being among the city's most public-spirited citizens and the College's closest friends. It is men of Adolph Lewisohn's type who have raised and are raising education to higher levels.

ADIEU!

Charter Day and the end of the College year—another milestone in the history of Alma Mater. It has been a stormy one for the College at large, for The Campus in particular, but one which withal has been productive of advances.

Two things stand out preeminently in the earlier part of the year's doings. Compulsory military training is not yet a settled issue. The faculty is even now, slowly and deliberately, contemplating changes which will surprise the student body, but which are at present in too indefinite a state to announce. The question of editorial free speech, the unrestricted expression of opinion in general, has been settled permanently we believe. The action of The Campus Association in its agreement with the student Campus workers, and the opinions emanating from the College officials indicates that, if these expressions become not license, no restrictions will be imposed by the older powers that be; whereas Student Council's doings clearly stamp student control, as now exercised, one that cannot temper its personal opinions with disinterested, impartial action.

The Student Council, we still maintain, has done as much as former councils—very little. The Campus has always been in favor of student self-government and would feel distressed to see the "U" reorganized or disbanded. Its policy to change the ruling body from a debating society to a group that can see student needs, that can proceed, and that can pursue its action to successful conclusions, has not been accomplished as yet. But several chapters will most likely be written to this story before the term officially closes.

The Campus believes it has demonstrated, within the last eight weeks, that considerable constructive work can be done quietly and thoroughly, when effort is exerted, when time is not wasted in quixotic verbal barrage. The A. A. constitution is now an established fact, awaiting but the formality of being passed at the regular meetings of the A. A. Board and the Faculty Athletic Committee, instead of an eleven year dream and hope. Whether it will remedy the existing evils in athletic circles, cannot be stated. At least the basis of procedure and point of departure for improvement is definite. Last night the first organized College sing was held. Successful, well-attended, spirit-producing, enjoyable, it has justified its existence; its continuation depends on its future management. The formation of the joint Faculty-Student Conference Committee has, however,

REVOLT OF THE STARS

It was a stalwart asteroid
That raised a voice of wrath
Careening down the skyeey wall
In a coruscating path;
'Twas Uranus that heard him first,
Then Jupiter, then Mars,
And for an audience he had A host of angry stars.

"Ye servile slaves, ye cowards all That yield to Nature's force
Like any spineless jellyfish
Or any desexed horse;
Awake ye stones, awake ye stocks
Release your potent ire,
And write the lines of liberty
With flaming pens of fire."

He spoke and from the rebel horde
A note of woe arose;
A comet wagged his reddish tail,
And Venus blew her nose;
A planetoid he bit his nails,
Sage Saturn shook his head,
And dipped into the Milky Way
A slice of whole wheat bread.

'Twas "communist" and socialist And "Revolution's tool,"
And back again came "petrified Conservative old fool."
The Dog star barked, the Pleiads screamed,
And Hesper chuckled loud;
Then once again the asteroid
Addressed the starry crowd.

Efficiency! Efficiency!
Nor day, nor night we pause!
We're puppets to the stinging lash
Of Universal Laws!
This Solar System is the bunk;
It's run by profiteers—
By bloody bankers lapped in wealth
Who gorge our toilsome tears!"

He ceased, and lordly down he sat
On Cassiopeia's Chair;
The Seven Sisters clapped their hands,
Then bobbed their silver hair;
The Little Bear danced gleefully,
The Dipper dipped assent,
And forty million astral forms
Arose destruction-bent—

Tra la, tra le, tra la, tra le, the long line plainly tells; the finish of this wondrous tale is found in H. G. Wells.

A certain instructor dismissed a reluctant class
before the period had ended with these sage words:
"Go out quietly, gentleman, for there are other classes sleeping in the building."

Could General Pilsudski's leaping over the hedges of convention be called a Pole vault?

It is vulgarly believed that the last Gargoyles should be the best in order to leave a lasting impression. This is by no means necessary. We chose to make it our worst. That is even more impressive.

Farewell my friends, farewell my foes,
My jokes with these, my puns with those;

been the most important accomplishment. By its very inception, it has already promoted better understanding and feeling between the two groups. The faculty has shown its willingness to cooperate; it remains for the students to take advantage of this committee and see that it functions.

The Campus realizes that it has incurred considerable dislike in certain quarters, but it feels that, for College progress, such dislike is worth while. It feels further that the personal element should not enter into such conflicts, that individually and as a group the contestants can remain friendly. The Campus therefore forgets false and malicious statements made about it, in heat probably; it knows no personal enemies. All college is its friend. And it wishes it success in its coming examination period, thereafter a pleasant vacation. To those who return in the fall, rather enviously, it hopes theirs will be a happy stay; to the seniors, good luck, prosperity and may they always remember and preserve their affiliations with the College.

Chief Pain-in-the-Neck

PIRACY, by Michael Arlen. New York: the George H. Doran Company $2.

As I sit here pounding out this review this turbulent Sunday morning, I cannot help but conclude that, trite as it may seem, Barnum was right. After reading Piracy by Michael Arlen I am convinced that there is a sucker born every minute. And the reading public is the biggest of them all. To spend two good American dollars on a novel by Arlen is the essence of Babbit gullibility. Once let some writer be given as much publicity as Arlen has received and his books must be best-sellers, not because of their worth but because of the halo attached to his name.

So it is with Arlen's novels, Piracy in particular. Of the three romances by this writer which I have read not one measured up at all to the publicity which it received, not from the pens of critics, but from the adulation of readers awed by the line "by Michael Arlen". The present volume is no exception. At least eight times did I take up the novel determined to read it through, and at least seven times did I give up the battle. For it was a battle to finish this overfurnished, over-smart, over-worded "romantic chronicle of these days" (from the words on the title-page).

"This is a novel", says the publisher's blurb on the jacket, "of one man and three women, the tale of a love pirate and how he came to the fate he deserved. In Mayfair lived Ivor Pelham Marlay, and while he was quite young he met these three and wooed them in turn."

A novel with such a theme might have been interesting, but the treatment of the theme was so ragged and so flighty that the reading of it became a dreadful bore. And added to this was Arlen's continual retrospectively and reminiscing, which is one stiff pain in the neck. I have had enough of Michael Arlen for a long, long time.

The New Yorker

ON AN ISLAND THAT COST TWENTY-FOUR DOLLARS, by Irvin S. Cobb. New York, The George H. Doran Company. $2.

As a disciple of O. Henry Irvin Cobb fails. Where Sidney Porter immortalized the four million in a manner full of warmth and life and sympathy, Cobb is merely the reporter, writing of the six million in the straight, interesting but ordinary mode of the newspaper man.

The main fault of the ten stories of the volume is that their conclusions are much too obvious. Take, for example, the tale, "Nobody Sees the Waiter's Face". This is a story of a bit of human wreckage forced to land in a restaurant as an extra waiter. From the description by the author, it is easy to divine that he had once been rich, powerful and happy, and that some great catastrophe had driven him to the depths of despair. His duties as a waiter oblige him to serve a couple in a private dining room. And again we so easily divine that the woman is none other than said waiter's erring wife, who ran away with said waiter's best friend. The waiter tears up the five-spot tip and goes out into the world, a new man. That's all there is, and after reading the first few pages I was convinced that there wouldn't be any more.

Most of the stories, let me say frankly, have nothing of value to them except the name of the author. I include in this category, "The Power of the Press", "The Unbroken Chain," "The Principle of the Thing," "A Coyote in Central Park" and "Button, Button." "Standing Room Only" is perhaps the best story in the volume, except that Edna Ferber has very well taken care of the same theme in "Old Man Minick."

History of Charter Days Recalled By Unveiling of Bust of Lewisohn

The unveiling of a bust of Adolph Lewisohn continues the custom of celebrating Charter Day by honoring some man, who has done a great deal for the College.

In May 1908, the Charter Day exercises were celebrated with the dedication of the buildings in which the College is now housed. The exercises were opened by President Finley, who introduced the Hon. Patrick F. McGowan, a representative of the city government. The latter presented the College with a city flag. A national flag was given to the College by the alumni, who were represented by Edward Lauterbach '64. The flags were then raised above the buildings while the Second Battery fired a salute.

The flag-raising ceremonies being over, the academic procession of over nine hundred gowned persons repaired to the Great Hall. Here the buildings were formally turned over to the Mayor of the city. President Finley then delivered an address and the College Bell was rung by Mr. Cleveland to mark the dedication of the new buildings to their permanent uses. Addresses by such men as Edward M. Shepard, who in behalf of the trustees of the College turned the building over to the Mayor, Mayor George B. McClellan, the late Oscar S. Straus, who was then Secretary of State under President Roosevelt, Mr. James Bryce, Charles W. Eliot, Joseph H. Choate, a well-known lawyer, and by Mark Twain, the great humorist.

In the afternoon of the same day, the student exercises took place. At the close of a speech by Mr. Everitt P. Wheeler '08, the seniors who had gathered in the Great Hall went out to the St. Nicholas gate. This was dedicated by John Sickles '08. The Hamilton, Hudson and Washington Gates were then dedicated by Messrs. Segal, Hartman, and Finkelstein.

General Webb, President of the College in its old buildings on 23rd Street, and when it was called the Free Academy, was honored at the sixty-second Charter Day celebration in 1909. The Faculty of the College presented two keys to General Webb at these exercises. One was the key to the main door of the buildings, the other to the Faculty Reception Room on the Fifth floor, which has since then, been known as the Webb Room. Near the close of the exercises in the Great Hall, "Urbs Coronata" was sung for the first time in the General's honor. When the ceremony in the Great Hall was ended, the audience marched in a procession to the campus, where the sun dial was unveiled, and the ivy was planted around the College in honor of President Horace Webster, and General Webb.

The Sixty-third birthday of the College was celebrated on May 4, 1910 with Mr. James R. Steers, a member of the first class of the Col-

Promotions and appointments to the staffs of The Campus have been made by Bernard Bayer '27, editor-in-chief for the fall term. He has advanced three men to the positions of News Editors and two to the Associate Board.

J. Kenneth Ackley '27, Hyman Birnbaum '27, and Irving Zablodowsky '28 are the new News Editors. Ackley '27 has served The Campus for the past two and a half years and Hyman Birnbaum for the past year and a half. Irving Zablodowsky '28 has been on the staff since his freshman year and has recently been elected to the honorary society of Soph Skull.

Arnold Shukatoff '29 and Abraham Birnbaum are the newly appointed Associate Editors. Both have been with The Campus for the past year and are on the Editorial Board of the '26 Microcosm.

Jack Ratskin '28 and Abner Morris '29 are two new men to be placed on the News Board.

lege '53, as guest of honor. Mr. Steers was honored because of several gifts which he had given to the College in the form of large sums of money to be expended for the purchase of scientific books.

At the sixty-fifth anniversary of the granting of a College Charter in May 1912, the two city blocks which had been acquired for the erection of an athletic field and a stadium were formally turned over to the College. Mr. Lewisohn whose gift of money made possible the construction of the field and stadium was among the speakers of the day.

President Finley Honored
A set of resolutions expressing the appreciation of the student body for his work for the College were presented to President Finley at the Charter Day exercises in 1913. The representation of the resolutions were made in honor of the president's tenth year of service at the College.

On the seventieth anniversary of the granting of the College charter, the bronze statue of General Alexander S. Webb in front of the College was unveiled by Professor Charles P. Faganini '73, president of the Associate Alumni.

The Charter Day ceremonies in May 1918 were marked with the unveiling of a memorial tablet in the Great Hall to Arthur Hegney, a Townsend-Harris student who was killed in the French trenches during the World War.

Mezes Receives Legion Cross
During the Charter Day celebration in 1922, Ambassador Jusserand, bestowed the Cross of the Legion of Honor upon President Mezes for the work he had done in the international conciliations. This was the seventy-fifth anniversary of the granting of the charter.

The formal unveiling and acceptance of the banner of the University of Louvain was the feature of the Charter Day exercises in 1912. The flag of Louvain, the sixteenth banner of a foreign university to be hung in the Great Hall, was hung in the rear of the Hall next to the Upsala emblem.

The feature of the Charter Day celebration in 1923 was the unveiling of the flag of the University of Strasbourg.

The 1925 celebration of the granting of the College Charter was marked by the unveiling of a Tablet of Townsend Harris by Tsuneo Matsudaira, Ambassador from Japan to the United States.

Varsity Basemen Complete Mediocre Season, Winning 7 of 17 Tilts

RESPICE

Comes the last issue. And goes the senior into the wide, wide world, where the bases are more than ninety feet apart, with a piece of parchment, a baseball and a bat. And soon the doughty diamond warriors will be scooping up the grounders down in Wall Street, where errors are rather expensive, or catching flies in Florida, or making home runs every evening when the sun is low and the rent is high.

Three men who have left more or less of a mark on the book of City College sports will soon leave these mothering portals to take up their residences at some place of still higher learning, where they will endeavor to secure sundry degrees, minutes and seconds in one or another of the arts of skilled labor. Chief among said bachelors to be, from the viewpoint of achievements, is Pinkie Sober, who, when he is, isn't a half-bad miler, or rather isn't a bad half-miler. Pinkie will run for the last time under Lavender colors up at Harvard in the inter-collegiate and here's predicting that the race will be the greatest of his career. Pinkie started a big ball rolling when he began his series of sensational victories last Summer, the impetus of his wins setting the Lavender on the road to a number of other triumphs indoors, and reviving track as a vital College sport. And Pinkie set a mark in the half mile that promises to last quite a while (unless he broke it in the Temple meet, which postdates this writing). His 1:58 half against Manhattan for the Stadium track and for a dual meet, is one that promises to stand.

Our parting advice to Sober is: stay that way.

ADSPICE

Second on the bread line is Halsey Josephson, pitcher extraordinary, and the original holder of the B.B.A. (Bacheior of Baseball Antedeluvian). Halsey has done some mean curving in his three years at the Lewisohn Stadium. And Halsey has been the inside baseball expert of the College nine since he first wrapped his long fingers around a baseball. Josephson pitched one of the greatest, if not the greatest, game of his playing here against N.Y.U. recently, but was done out of a victory by two disastrous errors in the last two innings. Perhaps it might be proper to claim a moral victory. Ever since the first moral victory in 146 B.C., it has been the custom of patriotic scribes to hail as a moral victory all losses by the home team suffered by less than ten runs. However, we are not of the moral victorians. We have never been able to distinguish between a moral and immoral victory. But getting back to Josephson, our parting advice is: Strike out the inconsequential and the unnecessary; fan the quuens in the summertime; walk the straight and narrow; and last, but far from least, pass the exams.

PROSPICE

We must not pass up the star Irish athlete, Max Hodesblatt. Hodey has scintillated on the court and on the diamond for three long years. Speaking of diamonds in connection with courts seems to fortell for Hodey an early marriage to a wealthy marquise, if there are such animals still extant. But Hodey, with his teammate Irv Goldberg, will long be remembered as the last of the old guard, the sole survivors of the championship midget combination of 1923-24.

The past year has been quite productive in minor sports. Football and basketball slipped somewhat, but track ran up the grade considerably and minor sports like wrestling, swimming, water polo, and tennis took decided booms.

At last, it's done. The last column (don't be prematurely overjoyed) for four months. Now the patrons of Piker's Peak will have a slight breathing spell. Now issue editors will cease their raving and now we will get a chance to get in a real long visit to our parents, who, no doubt, in their infrequent glimpses between one Campus and another, have quite forgotten what we look like. But we look forward, next fall, to one of the best years in football that the Lavender has ever enjoyed. Of course, in the usual order of events, it is perfectly possible that half of the stars who, we hear, are expected to be back next season, will wander off to dental school or to the open spaces.

See you some more.

VARSITY TRACKMEN DEFEAT TEMPLE U. FOR FIRST VICTORY

Lavender Leads 71-55 — College Records Broken in Quarter and Javelin

Displaying the best form they have shown all season, the varsity trackmen handed temple University a 71-55 defeat yesterday for their first dual meet victory of the season. This contest closed the schedule for the season for the College with a record of three losses and one win.

The Lavender easily distanced their opponents from Philadelphia in the track events, winning seven out of eight races, but Temple was strong in the runner-up positions, and this, combined with fair ability in the field events, made the meet reasonably close throughout.

During the course of the afternoon, two college records were broken. Capt. Pinkie Sober, running his last race for the Lavender stepped the quarter-mile in 52 seconds, lowering the mark he established last year by 2 seconds.

The other record to fall was made by Purcell, hitherto an unknown, who tossed the javelin 140 feet.

Temple showed the spectators two good high hurdles in the first event of the day. Debis and Frank of the visitors ran one-two, with Temple, of City College third. Debis' time, 17.6 seconds was the fastest made this season.

Harry Smith accounted for the century in 10.5 seconds. A poor start undoubtedly prevented Smith from making better time. Fred Kushnick ran his usual race and finished in his usual place, first.

The 220 yard low hurdle race was extremely close throughout, but Julius Siegal nosed out Frank in the final drive to the tape.

Dick Herman and Schoff of Temple staged a pretty duel in the two mile run, but Herman was too strong for his opponent and won in 10:33.4. Fred Kushnick came back in the half mile to score his second victory of the day.

Sam Sober was third. Harry Lazarus surprized with a smashing victory in the 220. Johnny Levy, just failed to nip Bonivicola and was third.

Karovin turned in his usual victory in the high jump with Meisel third. Bernie Levy got off a fine heave for 37 feet 8 inches in the shot put while Elterich was third. Harry Smith could only tie for second place in the broad jump, Santora and Schlynski vaulted well enough to finish second and third in their speciality.

The summaries follow:
100 Yard Dash—Won by Smith, C.C.N.Y.; second Bonivicola, Temple; third, Fischer, Temple. Time—10.5 seconds.

220 Yard Dash—Won by Lazarus, C.C.N.Y.; second, Bonivicola, Temple; third, J. Levy, C.C.N.Y. Time—23.8 seconds.

NINE'S GRADUATING BATTERY

Halsey Josephson '26 and Max Hodesblatt '26, battery on the varsity ball team for three years. Hodesblatt was also captain of the 1925-'26 basketball team.

VARSITY TENNIS MEN END FRUITFUL YEAR

Win Five Out of Eight Matches — Frosh Take Three to Date

The varsity tennis team completed its season yesterday by defeating the strong Fordham University aggregation by the score of 5-3. The game was a return match on the varsity's courts, at the Hamilton Tennis Club, Fordham having previously beaten the Lavender racquetmen 5-4 at their home courts.

By this victory yesterday the varsity has completed a successful year on the courts, having won five of its six sets, tied one, and lost two.

Pratt University was the first opponent of the Terrace players, and was defeated 5-1. The St. Nicholas players, headed by Captain Mike Rosenblatt, started the season in top form, and found no opposition at all in the netmen of Pratt.

Stevens Institute's varsity players held the Lavender to a tie at 1-1. The match with the Jersey team was interrupted by rain, just as the teams were exactly tied in matches, as well as games. The meet was never finished because of lack of time, playing dates being inopportune for both teams.

The first defeat of the year was suffered at the hands of Fordham University, the Lavender players being nosed out of a victory by a very small score, losing at 5 to 4. Yesterday's game wiped out this former defeat, clearly showing the real playing ability of the College combination.

The Lavender's traditional rival, New York University, presenting one of the strongest net teams on Collegiate courts, defeated the Lavender players by the margin of 7-2. The Violet stars were too strong and experienced, all of its players being veterans of '25 for the Terrace men to compete against successfully; but Karovin, C.C.N.Y.; second, Cresce, Temple, third, Meisel, C.C.N.Y. Height—5 feet, 5 inches.

Discus Throw—Won by Drum, Temple, second, Elterich, C.C.N.Y. third, B. Levy, C.C.N.Y. Distance—99 feet 1 inch.

Running Broad Jump—Won by Al-lison, Temple; tie for second between Smith, C.C.N.Y. and Fischer, Temple. Distance 19 feet, 2 inches.

Javelin Throw—Won by Purcell, C.C.N.Y.; second, Fuller, Temple; third, B. Levy, C.C.N.Y. Distance 140 feet, (new college record).

Pole Vault—Won by Cressey, Temple; second, Santora, C.C.N.Y.; third, Schlynski, C.C.N.Y. Height—3 feet 6 inches.

the College team held them down to a close fight.

The varsity courtmen then traveled to Bethlehem and trounced the netmen of the Moravian Institute 4-2. The victory was turned in without the help of Rosenblatt, the College star, and there is no doubt, but what the score would have been much larger in favor of the New Yorkers, had he played.

St. John's College was the next opponent of the Lavender players, and in spite of the fact that Percy Kynaston plays first singles for the Saints, the varsity trimmed them at 6-1. Kynaston ranks number seventeenth on the national ranking list. Rosenblatt's losing to him is excusable. Kynaston, however, was unable to win in the doubles, Rosenblatt and Bronstein taking his measure.

Manhattan College was the next victim on the list, the varsity handing the Manhattanites a pasting, winning at 6-0. Every event was taken without difficulty.

Manager Sam Rosenstein '27 is to be congratulated for his fine work in securing so good a schedule, and his ability in functioning with Captain Rosenblatt throughout the year.

The freshmen tennis team has had a very successful year, having won three meets, lost two, and in all probability will win its remaining two matches. The cubs will play Concordia Prep today at Bronxville, and Saturday will compete against the racquetees of the New York Military Academy at Cornwall. The yearling combination is confident of its ability and predicts a victory for the Lavender frosh in both contests.

The freshmen started their season by losing to the strong Berkley-Irving team by 5-0. Berkeley-Irving has had the champion tennis team of the private schools for the past few years, and is in a position to take it again this year.

Evander Childs High School one of the strongest of the city's high school teams, defeated the cubs in a strenuous contest by 5-0. However, the freshmen feel that if they could play both of these schools again, the positions would be revised, with City College on the long end of the score.

Defeat Stevens 7-0
In their engagement with the junior varsity of Stevens Institute of Technology, the cubs turned in a complete victory, not even dropping a set, and winning at 7-0.

At the end of this match, the team met and unanimously elected Cy Klein its captain. Klein has been playing first singles all this season, and has clearly demonstrated his ability as a first class player, and deserves the position of captain.

The cubs then engaged the netmen of Townsend Harris Hall and defeated them at 4-1. The freshmen took all the singles matches and dropped the doubles to the College preparatory players.

George Washington, the probable scholastic champions, were defeated by the yearling aggregation at 4-1. This meet was the hardest engaged in by the freshmen, most of the events goit to three sets, each set going to extra games. All the singles were taken by the cubs, only the doubles being dropped.

Manager Harold Schilles is also to be congratulated for his earnest work in providing a fine schedule for the cubs, and his interest in the team's welfare. Professor Whyte, the freshmen coach, is to be commended for his splendid cooperation with the team in endeavoring to bring out the fine games of the frosh players, as shown in the past few matches.

applauded the decision vociferously, and loudly demanded, "encore!" "encore!" The audience was finally rewarded with "Graudeamus Igitur", which the Verein rendered in a manner attainable only after much practice.

The two songs rendered by the Deutscher Verein were: "Levender, My Lavender", and a Viennese love son, titled, "Schliersee-Lied." The members of the winning octette were Leo Taub, Abraham Oppenheim, Michael Pissack, Eli Liftin, E. T. Koehler, Harry Numark, Albert Hoffstadter, and Samuel Cibulsky.

The Y.M.C.A. group sang "Urbs Coronata" and "Kentucky Babe". Their team was comprised of the following men: S. Olsen, E. Zeitlin, G. Adams, R. Wood, Harry Ruh, A. Coombs, Albert Strickland, and O. Principe.

Delta Beta Phi, third prize winner, sang "Urbs Coronata" and "Juanita", a Spanish love song.

GRADUATING TRACK STAR

Pincus Sober '26, captain of the varsity track team and star of the aggregation.

CUB NINE CAPTURES 5 OUT OF 8 GAMES

Frank Musicant Luminary of '29 Aggregation—Futterman Also Stars

Closing its most successful season in years the freshman baseball team defeated Dwight Prep by the score of 5 to 2 Saturday. The cubs only lost two games on its entire schedule of eight. A tie game was also played against De La Salle.

Frank Musicant, who was elected Captain after the Boys' High game was the leading light of the team, twirling his way to four victories and losing only one game. He was also on the mound during the La Salle game which ended in a 3 to 3 tie. Futterman was also one of the luminaries of the team, his ability to smack the ball into sunfield coming in handy on several occasions. The team as a whole handed in a very creditable record and the 1927 varsity should have some very promising recruits.

Morris High School was the first victim of Coach Roy Plaut's aggregation on April 3 when the yearlings, giving an exhibition of good pitching, air tight fielding and timely hitting shut out their opponents to the tune of 5 to 0. No difficulty was encountered a week later against Boys' High when the frosh overwhelmed the Brooklynites by the score of 9 to 2. Musicant was in the box in these two encounters. A third victory was gained over Textile on April 17 by the score of 4-1. Musicant allowed six hits to the four allowed by Spiro the Textile hurler. However the latter's frequent gifts of passes, to the initial sack more than balanced this inequality in hits.

The team chalked up its fourth victory by the score of 6-1 on April 24 at the expense of Erasmus Hall. Only two hits were allowed by Captain Musicant who struck out 14 men during the contest. Manning who was on the mound for the visitors allowed five hits. The yearlings came out on the light side of the score for the first time a week later when the Fordham cubs defeated them to the tune of 3-1. Fordham started things going in the first frame when two runs crossed the plate with the aid of several errors. Musicant poled out a homer scoring the only run for the freshmen.

Manhattan Prep also took the measure of the cubs on May 8 by the score of 6-1. The cubs played a very poor brand of baseball garnering not even one hit. Two pitchers, Mezey and Warshow were used by the Laveder. On May 15, De La Salle traveled to the Stadium and engaged the cubs in a 3 to 3 tie. The game was called at the end of the seventh inning in order to round the field into shape for the varsity's tussle later in the day. Futterman led his teammates with the stick pounding out two safeties in four times at bat. Captain Musicant also played a good game allowing only four hits while his comrades amassed seven.

FRESHMEN EKE OUT CLOSE TRACK WIN IN FINAL MEET

Nose Out St. Johns Cubs by 41-40; Conclude Successful Season

By scoring two places in the last event on the program, the running broad jump, the College frosh track team managed to nose out the St. Johns College freshmen by the slim margin of one point. The final score was 41-40, with the Lavender cubs showing the way.

The meet was the closest contested in the Stadium this season. After eight events had been completed, St. Johns led, 37-35, with the broad jump remaining. The local yearlings outscored their rivals in this event, 6-3, and by doing so captured the meet. Capt. Les Barkman won with a leap of 19 feet 1 inch, with his teammate Greenberg garnering the valuable point that went with third place.

The Brooklyn freshmen rolled up a commanding lead early in the meet when they swept all three places in the shot put, and Daly led Barkman home in the 100 with Murtha, of St. John's in third place in 10.8 seconds. The opposing team increased their advantage when Murtha and Sheppard were first and third in the 220 low hurdles, with Jerry Mac Mahon, C. C. N.Y., in second place.

Lee Rossum came through with the College's first victory when he stepped the half in 2:11, followed by Sockoloff of the College in third place. Les Barkman showed his heels to the rest of the field in the 220 in 24.6 while Greenberg was winning third place. The quarter-mile race resulted in a victory for St. Johns, Burns winning, with Rossum second and Daly of the Crimson team third.

Joe Yockel and Pauly tied for first in the high jump at 5 feet 4 inches, closely followed by Stan Frank with 5 feet 3 inches. The mile proved to be a veritable gold-mine for the College when Karp, Lazarowitz, and Hynes ran one, two, three, duplicating their performance of the previous week against Morris H. S. the City College men won as they pleased, leading the first St. Johns performer by 100 yards. As a result of this event the College for the first time came within striking distance of their Crimson-shirted opponents, and the broad jump clinched things.

By winning the last meet, Coach Mac Kenzie's cubs ended the season as they began it. On May 3rd the St. Nicholas yearlings overwhelmed Yonkers H. S. to the tune of 57-15. They ran into a snag when they met the N. Y. U. freshmen, who trimmed them 87-30. This meet casts no reflection upon the Lavender yearlings, for N. Y. U. has a team capable of beating the average college varsity team. Next came Morris H. S. who went home with a hard-gained 40-32 victory. The recent triumph over St. Johns enabled the freshmen to gain an even break in their four meets. The 1926 frosh team was better than the average yearling team and several of its members should gain a place on the varsity next season.

Capt. Les Barkman was high scorer of the team, averaging 11 points each meet. Barkman and Greenberg did all the sprinting for the team, and Rossum and Maurmeyer furnished the opposition in the quarter. Rossum and Sockoloff ran the half, and the star Karp, Lazarowitz, Hynes, trio accounted for all three places in three of the meets. Jerry MacMahon and Stan Frank hurled for the team.

In the field events, Barkman and Greenberg excelled in the broad jump. Yockel, Frank, Cohen, and Barkman all did effective high-jumping. The team was weak in the weights, but Cohen scored consistently in the shot put.

LIGHT PLANS SUMMER COLLEGE TRACK TEAM

A track team that will represent the College in A.A.U. Competition this summer is being planned by Manager Sidney H. Licht '28. A series of dual meets is also being arranged.

All men interested should see Licht as soon as possible. Cy Hoffman, Harry Smith, and Dick Herman of the varsity, and Les Barkman, Lee Rossum, Joe Yockel, and Bob Karp of the freshmen are among those who will represent the summer team.

VARSITY TRACKMEN WIN ONE OF FOUR

Sober Stands Out Among Individual Stars—Levy Also Shines

Although but one meet was won out of four contested, the 1926 varsity track team was one of the strongest aggregations assembled at the College in recent years. The Lavender was especially strong in the track events, but habitual weakness on the field offset this advantage.

The redoubtable Captain Pincus Sober, one of the favorites to win the I.C.A.A.A. half-mile at Harvard this Saturday, was the outstanding performer of the team. Sober was undefeated all season and lowered the track record for the half-mile from 2:00, the mark he set in 1925 to 1:58.1.

As usual, the Penn Relays opened the season. At this annual carnival the College runners enjoyed more than their usual success. In the Class C Mile Relay Championship, the quartet consisting of Capt. Pincus Sober, Johnny Levy, Fred Kushnick, and Elmer Low ran second to the City College of Detroit team. Coach MacKenzie's men surprised in the Sprint Medley Championship of America by finishing fifth in a star field of eight, the first time this race was ever contested by a C. C. N. Y. team. The local combination led such star teams as Syracuse and Occidental College of California to the tape in this race.

The following Saturday the St. Nicholas aggregation once again traveled to Pennsylvania to meet Muhlenberg in the first dual meet of the season. The Allentown boys gained a 72 1-2-52 1-2 victory mainly due to their superiority in the field events. The next meet saw the local team nosed out by Manhattan College, 60-56. This contest was so close throughout that the result was in doubt until the last event was completed.

A strong Fordham University team visited the Stadium and went home with a well-earned 70 1-6-55 5-6 victory. The strength and speed of the Maroon was too much for the Lavender to overcome, but every event was keenly contested throughout. The Temple University combination was defeated by the score of 71-55 for the first victory of the season.

Most of the men who served this season will be available next season. Captain Pincus Sober will be lost, but Cy Hoffman and Harry Smith will be back for the sprints, while Johnny Levy, Elmer Low, and Harry Lazarus all quarter-milers will be back again. Fred Kushnick who starred in the half-mile and mile runs and Dick Herman, another distance man will be back again.

Bernie Levy, the best man in the weights will be lost, but Johnny Elterich will be available. Karovin and Meirel in the high jump, and Santora and Schlyndic in the pole vault are returning. Brunner, Temple, and Sigal are hurdling next year.

During the past season Coach MacKenzie had great success in developing Hoffman, Smith, J. Levy, Low, Kushnick, and Herman.

HODESBLATT LEADS LAVENDER HITTERS

Mac Hodesblatt, catcher on the varsity nine, has won first place among the Lavender sluggers, according to the results obtained from the compilation of the statistics in the possession of Manager Louis Maier. He leads Capt. Tubby Raskin, his nearest competitor, by thirty-one points. The results of the Fordham encounter were received too late to figure in the tabulation. The averages are as follows:

	Batting Averages
	AB.	R.	H.	Average
Hodesblatt	54	10	20	.370

CLEANLINESS

In a cooperative organization like ours, cleanliness is a matter for both management and patron.

A little thing like putting wast papers in the proper receptacles, for example, means a great deal. Thank you.

When comes that day of days—and suddenly you know you're a Senior, at the top of the world —have a Camel!

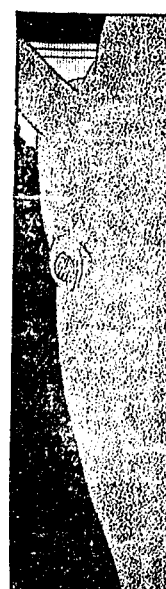

WHEN comes the day that can come but once. And as a Senior you've reached your place at the top of the world—have a Camel!

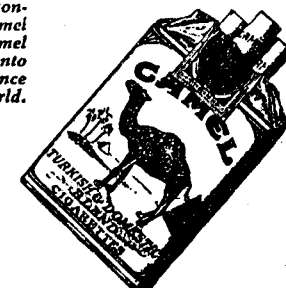

For Camel shares of its own enchantment with life's memorable events. Camels are of such choice tobaccos that they never tire the taste or leave a cigarette after-taste. Regardless of the money you pay, there is no mellow, friendlier or better cigarette made than Camel.

So this day as you've safely passed all the hazards to life's sublimest moment—know the taste, the contentment that is the due of the world's experienced smokers.

Have a Camel!

No other cigarette in the world is like Camels. Camels contain the choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos. The Camel blend is the triumph of expert blenders. Even the Camel cigarette paper is the finest—made especially in France. Into this one brand of cigarettes is concentrated the experience and skill of the largest tobacco organization in the world.

Our highest wish, if you do not yet know Camel quality, is that you try them. We invite you to compare Camels with any cigarette made at any price. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company Winston-Salem, N. C.
