COLLEGE TEAM EXHIBITS STRONG DEFENSIVE PLAYS

Lavender Fielder Come Thru
in Pinches — Rensselaer, Ephron Star.

For the first time in six years and the second in twelve, the varsity ball team triumphed over the N. Y. U. nine. Artie Moder's airtight pitching and a well-nigh perfect defense were too much for the Hall of Famers to overcome. Bill McCarthy, the Violet coach, used three star boxmen, Gallagher, Corbin, and Manfredi, in a vain attempt to check the Lavender, but Doc Parker's men came off with a 3 to 2 victory.

The win over the uptown team came as a most gratifying surprise to the College rooters, and may be accounted as the biggest of the year in Metropolitan circles. The Lavender ball-tossers were at their best, however, and turned in an excellent performance, and fully deserved to win.

Moder Gives 6 Hits

The College team outthit their rivals, 9 to 6, and came through with saving stunts in the field at critical moments. The real hero was Artie Moder, who limited the hard-hitting N.Y.U. stickmen to but six hits. He was especially effective with men on the bases as evidenced by the fact that seven enemy runners were stranded on the bases.

Bud Rensselaer and Capt. Irv. Ephron contributed three excellent catches that went a long way in the sensational victory. Rensselaer nabbed three difficult fouls in the closing innings that were classics. Ephron concluded the game with a fine catch and turned in the best play in the Stadium this year by gathering in Stewart's long drive in the fifth inning. The infield held up their end in great style, Garelick making the only error. All four accepted numerous hard-hit chances in approved big-league style.

N.Y.U. Scores Run

First inning—Roberts tripled to left center. Moder threw Stewart's tap wild, Roberts scoring and Stewart taking second. Corbin ran for Stewart. Madison fled to Ephron. Watson walked on four balls. Strong fled to MacMahon and Corbin was caught trying to make third after the catch on MacMahon's good throw. 1 run, 1 hit.

Garelick out, Gallagher to Briante. Slotkin singled through the box. Slotkin was out in an attempt to steal. Rensselaer out, Roberts to Briante. No runs, 1 hit.

Second inning—Johnson walked. Briante got a scratch hit on an infield pop. Boyd sacrificed, Reich tagging him out on the first-base line. Johnson was caught at home on Gallagher's bouncer. Dono to Rensselaer. Gallagher took second

MITCHELL '27 WINS SPEAKING CONTEST

Gladstone '27 Captures Second Prize—Aarons Awarded Roemer Prize

Harry Mitchell '27, Irving Gladstone and Stuart Aarons '30, were the winners in the Prize Speaking contest held last Friday evening in the Great Hall of the College. The first prize for the extemporaneous addresses, which is a cash award of one hundred dollars, went to Harry Mitchell '27. The second place winner in the same event, Irving Gladstone '27, received the sum of twenty-five dollars. For the poetry declamations, the Roemer Poetry prize, having a monetary value of fifteen dollars, was awarded to Stuart Aarons '30.

The speakers in the extemporaneous addresses were Harry Mitchell, Meyer Velinsky, Lester Lyons, Louis Pokodner, Harris Levin and Irving Gladstone. The competitors were notified one hour before 8:30 p. m., the start of the contest, of that phase of the topic, "The Relations of Government to Business in the U. S.," upon which they were to speak. The question discussed by each speaker was "Is the present system of governmental regulation becoming disadvantageous to the general welfare?"

The second half of the contest was devoted to poetry readings. Henry Heiman recited Joaquin Miller's "Como". Buchanan's "Hans Vogel" was delivered by Morris Anshine. Stuart Aarons concluded the evening's events with Shakspeare's selection of the plea of "Henry V to His Soldiers at Harfleur".

The first part of the program was broadcast through the Municipal Broadcasting station WNYC direct from the platform in the Great Hall of the College. The contest took the place of a talk on Extemporaneous Speaking which was scheduled to be broadcast at the same time by Professor Mosher, who was the chairman of the evening.

The contestants were judged by Professor William Guthrie, Professor Joseph Crowne and Mr. David Grant. The decision was rendered by Mr. Grant '13, a former winner of the contest.

RATES FOR OUTING RAISED ON MAY 17

Special Feature Provided for Excursion by Hudson River
Day Line

Three days remain before the increased price of $1.75 per person for the Varsity Excursion goes into effect. Until Monday, May 16th, the current rate, $1.50 will obtain.

Special provisions have been made and attraction offered by the Hudson River Day Line for the outing, which will take place on May 21st. The "Chauncey M. Depew" is the only excursion boat going to Indian Point on that day. Two baseball diamonds and several tennis courts have been reserved for the exclusive use of the College.

The cafeteria at the Point and on the boat will be open to accommodate the alumni, undergraduates and friends who will attend. Music will likewise be furnished both at the pavilion on the outing-grounds, and on the boat.

Pursuant to the policy of the "Y," initiated last term, all profits accruing from the field day will be put into a fund to insure the perpetuation of the annual excursion. Money will be accumulated until the sum of $500 will have been put aside. When this quota is reached, all further profits will be divided, share and share alike, between the "Y" and some worthy College activity.

The "Y" has requested the co-operation of the student body in the following manner, to make the outing more enjoyable:

1. No intoxicating liquor should be brought aboard the boat. The excursion committee, together with the officials of the Day Line, will make adequate provision for the enforcement of the law.

2. Students should remember that ungentlemanly conduct reflects gravely on the College. Every attending is requested to act as a reception committee for the guests.

SENIOR CLASS NIGHT TO BE HELD JUNE 18

Pony Ballet and Dance in Gym Scheduled—Tickets
Sell for $2.00

With the plans finally completed for a gala and memorable occasion, the date for Senior Class Night has been set for June 18, the Saturday before Commencement. In place of the usual celebration of their soon-to-be-won freedom by the display of their class numerals in large-sized lights on the campus, the seniors this year have determined to be more exclusive and to present an entertainment which is to be followed by a dance.

The chief feature of the first half of the evening, which will be spent in the Townsend Harris Academic Theatre, will be a rendition by the Pony Ballet, which has had several months of rehearsal under the tutelage of Captain Rees. The Pony Ballet has organized as a permanent fixture, but their first actual appearance will be made on Senior Class Night.

Competitions for the Pony Ballet will be provided by a football ensemble, which will also render some classic dances. Grace has been taken into consideration in selecting the gridmen who will take part in this ballet, and avoirdupois is not the only qualification, as is evidenced by the appearance in the cast of this feature of Is Seidler, captain of the eleven, Johnny Clark, captain-elect, Irv Packer and several others.

A number of unlooked-for surprises are promised by Eddie Gall '27, chairman of the committee in charge. One of these surprises, it is said by one who is in a position to know, will be the appearance (in person and not a motion picture) of the well-known stage beauty, Joan Carrol. This rumour is founded on the fact that a portrait of the famous dancer has been seen hanging in the office of one of the College publications.

Basketball Team to Oppose Holman for Flood Relief

The City College varsity basketball team will play Nat Holman's five for the benefit of the Mississippi flood sufferers, Thursday, May 19, at 12:30 p. m. in the gym.

The game is being staged under the auspices of the C. C. N. Y. A. A. and is being managed by Jack Frank and Mac Reiskind. The tickets, which will be put on sale Friday, May 13, will be sold for twenty-five cents.

History of Charter Day Recalled By Unveiling of Bust of Jefferson

The presentation of the bust of Thomas Jefferson at the Charter Day exercises today recalls some of the more prominent celebrations in the past, which have usually been made the occasion for honoring prominent Americans or those who had been benefactors of the College.

In May 1908, the Charter Day exercises were celebrated with the dedication of the buildings in which the College is now housed. The exercises were opened by President Finley who introduced the Hon. Patrick F. McGowan, a representative of the city government. The latter presented the College with a city flag. A national flag was given to the College by the alumni, who were represented by Edward Lauterbach '64. The flags were then raised above the buildings while the Second Battery fired a salute.

The flag-raising ceremonies being over, the academic procession of over nine hundred gowned persons repaired to the Great Hall. Here the buildings were formally turned over to the Mayor of the city. President Finley then delivered an address and the College Bell was rung by Mr. Cleveland to mark the dedication of the new buildings to their permanent uses. Among those who addressed the dedication were Edward M. Shepard, who, in behalf of the trustees of the College turned the building over to the Mayor, Mayor George B. McClellan, Oscar S. Strauss, then a member of President Roosevelt's Cabinet, James Bryce, Charles W. Eliot, Joseph Choate, and Mark Twain.

In the afternoon of the same day, the student exercises took place. At the close of a speech by Everett P. Wheeler '08, the seniors who gathered in the Great Hall went out to the St. Nicholas gate. This was dedicated by John Sickles '08. The Hamilton, Hudson, and Washington Gates were then dedicated by Messrs. Segal, Hartman, and Finkelstein.

General Webb, President of the College in its old buildings on 23rd Street, and when it was called the Free Academy, was honored at the sixty-second Charter Day celebration in 1909. The Faculty of the College presented two keys to General Webb at these exercises. One was the key to the main door of the building, the other to the Faculty Reception Room gathered in Strong's foul. Moder got Johnson on a tap to the box. Moder got a fine ovation from the stands. No runs, 1 hit.

Garelick fanned. Slotkin fouled to Briante. Rensselaer hit a single over second. Ephron out, Manfredi to Briante. No runs, 1 hit.

Ninth Inning—Briante flied to Donstein. Boyd hit one to right field, and Donstein's throw made the play at first very close. Umpire Cummings called Boyd out, but after much discussion, he was permitted to keep his base. Werner ran for Boyd. Manfredi forced Werner at second, but Manfredi took second on Garelick's wild-throw to first. Ephron took Roberts fly ending the game. No runs, 1 hit.

on the fifth floor, which has since been known as the Webb Room. Near the close of the exercises in the Great Hall, "Urbs Coronata" was sung for the first time in the General's honor. When the ceremony in the Great Hall was ended, the audience marched in a procession to the campus, where the sun dial was unveiled, and the ivy was planted around the College in honor of President Webster and Webb.

The Sixty-third birthday of the College was celebrated on May 4, 1910 with James R. Steers, a member of the class of '53 as guest of honor.

At the sixty-fifth anniversary, the two city blocks which had been acquired for the erection of an athletic field and stadium were formally turned over to the College. Adolph Lewisohn whose gift of money made possible the construction of the field and stadium was among the speakers of the day.

On the seventieth anniversary of the granting of the College charter, the bronze statue of General Webb in front of the College was unveiled by Professor Charles P. Faganini '73, president of the Associate Alumni.

During the Charter Day celebration in 1922, Ambassador Jusserand bestowed the Cross of the Legion of Honor upon President Mezes for the work he had done in international conciliation. This was the seventy-fifth anniversary of the granting of the charter.

The formal unveiling and accepting of the banner of the University of Louvain was the feature of the Charter Day exercises in 1912. The flag of Louvain, the sixteenth banner of a foreign university to be hung in the Great Hall, next to the Upsala emblem. The following year, a similar ceremony was performed in 1923 with the flag of the University of Strasbourg.

The 1925 celebration was marked by the unveiling of a tablet of Townsend Harris by Tsuneo Matsuda, Ambassador from Japan to the United States.

At the Charter Day exercises last May, a bust of Adolph Lewisohn was unveiled in the stadium in honor of the benefactor of the College.

VARSITY CHESS TEAM PLAY ALUMNI SATURDAY

Varsity-alumni chess play will feature the annual banquet of the College alumni to be held Saturday night at the room of the City College Club in the Hotel Imperial. Nelson S. Spencer '75, president of the alumni association, has arranged a varied program of speakers and entertainment in addition to the aforementioned feature.

The varsity chess team, composed of Dan Bronstein '28, A. Fajans '28, A. Pinkus '29, R. Williams '29, and L. Kurtz '27, will attempt to duplicate their victory last year when they defeated the graduates for the first time in five years.

Since the alumni representatives have been reinforced this year by players of local renown, captain Bronstein is issuing a call for candidates. All aspirants for the squad should see him at the Seven Arts Book Shop any day at 12 o'clock.

Me and the joy-friend... Prince Albert

WHEN my father was in college, "Put that in your pipe and smoke it!" was considered snappy conversation. I'm ready to take this old line literally when the talk centers around Prince Albert. Because P. A. makes two of what I like in a pipe.

All wise-cracking aside, P. A. is the money when it comes to deep-down satisfaction in a smoke. It's got everything! Cool as the trail of the ice-man across the kitchen. Sweet as vacation. Fragrant as a pine forest.

Think up your own similes. You'll write them all in the column headed "Superlative Degree" when you learn the joys of a jimmy-pipe and Prince Albert. If you don't know this grand old smoke, come around to my room and I'll give you a load.

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and punch removed by the Prince Albert process.
