DAY LINE STEAMER READY FOR ANNUAL VARSITY EXCURSION

Tickets Going Fast for Trip to Indian Point—Price
Now $1.75

COOPERATION REQUESTED

Boat Will Leave 129th Street
Pier at 2 O'clock
Sharp

Final arrangements for the annual Varsity Excursion have been completed by the "Y". Every means has been taken to secure the comfort and pleasure of the 800 students and their friends who will take the trip up the Hudson this Saturday.

According to schedule, the Day Liner "Chauncey M. Depew", which will convey the excursionists to Indian Point, will leave the Desbrosses street pier at 1:30 p. m. and the West 129 street pier at 2 p. m. sharp.

Demand for Tickets Continues

The regular rate of $1.75 per ticket went into effect Tuesday, but the unprecedented demand for tickets has continued despite the new price. According to the present last minute demand for tickets, they may all be sold out today announces the "Y".

Two baseball diamonds and tennis courts have been reserved for the exclusive use of the excursionists at Indian Point. The Hollywood Ramblers have been engaged to furnish the music during the ride. At the Point, music will be furnished by the regular orchestra of the Hudson River Day Line.

The "Y" has requested the cooperation of the student body to help make the trip a thoroughly enjoyable one. They urge all those who are going on the outing to observe the following regulations:

Regulations for Trip

(1) Come on time. The boat leaves Desbrosses street at 1:30 and 129 street at 2:00 and will wait for no one.

(2) Bring no liquor on board the boat. Refrain from gambling or unruly acting during the trip or at the Point.

(3) Leave the grounds and the boat in as good condition as you find them.

(4) Show special consideration to faculty, alumni, and guests who will be on the trip.

Previous excursions have proven very successful financially and the present outing bids fair to outdo the others but the "Y" is taking no chances and is establishing a fund of $500 from the proceeds of this excursion to insure the perpetuation of annual outings.

When the $500 fund has been laid aside the remainder of the proceeds will be equally divided between the "Y" and the College. The College share will go to some worthy purpose which will be determined by a committee composed of the presidents of the College, the "Y", and Student Council.

On the return trip the boat will leave Indian Point at 7:30 p. m. and is scheduled to arrive at the 129 st. pier at 10 p. m. The last stop will be Forty-second street instead of Desbrosses street.

Since final arrangements for an enjoyable trip have been completed, all that remains necessary to insure the success of the outing is good weather.

Re-election for Presidency of A.A. to Be Held Friday

At the primary elections for offices in the Athletic Association held yesterday, T. Bernard Eisenstein with 128 votes and John B. Clark with 88 votes earned the right to run for president on a second ballot which will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Bernard Epstein was elected to the vice-presidency with 181 votes over his opponent Arthur Rosenberg's 132. Heyman Sandy Rothbart was the only candidate for secretary and was hence unanimously elected.

For treasurer Jack G. Deutsch received 183 votes to carry off the election from his opponent, Louis Rabinowitz who received 123 votes. Bert Barron with 144 votes defeated Albert Maisel who received 136 votes for the office of assistant-treasurer.

At a meeting of the A. A. Board last Monday it was decided on technical grounds that Moe Abramowitz '28, Cy Hoffman '29 and Samuel Kan '30 were ineligible to run for the A. A. offices of vice-president, secretary and assistant-treasurer, respectively and hence their names did not appear on the ballot.

Brodman Speaks On Hypnotism

Psychological Aspect and Value to Medicine Will Be Stressed

"Hypnotism" is the subject of a talk that will be given today in room 319 by Keeve Brodman '27, under the auspices of the Biological Society. Brodman, who has already been accepted for admission to the Cornell Medical School, is well versed in his subject, having read many books on the topic of hypnotism. This summer he is employed in the Cold Spring Harbor experimental station as an assistant to Dr. Salant, noted Professor of Pharmacology in the Georgia Medical School.

Will Discuss Hypnotic Stages

There are two classes of hypnotism in general. Brodman will discuss the physiological viewpoint rather than the psychological. He will give the history of hypnotism and methods of inducing and ending it. The various hypnotic stages will be pointed out and the analogies of each particular stage.

Forbidden to Demonstrate.

In addition he will speak on the actual phenomena of hypnotism and its different aspects, with stress on its moral and medicinal value. It was originally intended to give a practical demonstration or several students, but President Robinson has forbidden this. In fact, many states have passed laws permitting only practicing physicians to make actual demonstrations.

Hypnotism has a tremendous educational value in biology and medicine. It has been proven by actual experiments that it is a cure for many nervous diseases.

After Brodman's address, Arthur Nathan '28 will make a short address on "Monsters and Monstrous Development." He will use pictures in his illustrations.

NOMINATIONS FOR STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICES CLOSED

Election for Next Term's Executives to Take Place
Next Week

NINE MEN ON BALLOT

Entire Student Body Will Be Allowed to Vote on Candidates

Nominations for all offices of the Student Council closed Tuesday according to Whitey Frank, Chairman of the Elections Committee. The election for the officers will take place next week.

Two Candidates for Presidency
The positions of president, vice-president and secretary are being competed for by nine upper classmen. For the presidency, Hy Sorokoff '28 and Irving Zablodowsky '28 are the candidates. Moe Abramowitz '28 and Philip Sokol '28 are the contenders for the vice-presidency. Five men are seeking the secretaryship honors. All the candidates are members of the '29 class. Is Cohen, Jack Rosenberg, Jack Rothenberg, Charles Shapiro and Arnold Shuttoff are the students seeking this office.

High Records of Service
All claimants for the different positions have backed their nomination up with records of their activities during their stay at school. The following accounts briefly show the outstanding services of each candidate.

Hy Sorokoff and Irving Zablodowsky are the nominees for the office of president. Hy Sorokoff is serving on the Student Council this term as vice-president. He is the executive head of the Frosh Chapels.

NAT HOLMAN'S FIVE FACES VARSITY MEN FOR FLOOD RELIEF

Contest Will Be Staged at 12:30 P. M. in Gym
Today

ROBINSON HON. REFEREE

Former Stars to Appear—Entire Proceeds to Be Turned Over to Red Cross

The only opportunity to help the Mississippi flood sufferers will be offered to the student body today at 12:30 p. m. when Nat Holman's Big Five, composed of the star coach himself and luminaries of former Lavender teams, will clash with the Varsity five, which has recently established itself as a successful City College quintet.

Red Cross Receives Proceeds
The entire receipts of the game, admission to which will be twenty-five cents, will be turned over to the Red Cross.

The appearance of the star athletes, who have made Lavender court history, should be enough of an incentive to see the game. Nat Holman, considered the best basketball player in the world and star of the World Champions, New York Celtics, of course needs no introduction. Mac Hodesblatt and Halsey Josephson, still well known to Lavender rooters starred on the 1926 court team of which Hodesblatt was captain.

"Big" Raskin Will Play

"Big" Raskin, star and captain of the 1924 quintet is judged second to Holman as the best Jewish basketball player and will give the fans much to talk about. Likewise will Leo Palitz, star of the 1925 team and present assistant coach Roy Plaut, also a luminary of the same quintet.

43 Students Elected Into Phi Beta Kappa From '26, '27 Classes

Prof. Fox Granted Leave Of Absence Until Sept. 15

Prof. William Fox, chairman of the Physics Department was granted a leave of absence, to take effect May 15, at the last meeting of the Board of Trustees. The leave of absence is in recognition of long and faithful service. Prof. Fox left Quebec yesterday to tour Germany, examining the Physics departments of the German Universities en route.

A member of the class of 1884 at this College, Prof. Fox received his M. E. at Stevens Institute in 1886. He has since been a member of the Physics Department. Professor Charles A. Corcoran will act as department head until Prof. Fox returns at the beginning of the next semester.

Deadlock, Which Blocked
Three Previous Attempts at Election, Finally Smashed

FELIX S. COHEN EXCLUDED

Former Campus Editor Only
One Rejected Out of Forty-
Four Candidates

Forty-three men from four successive graduating classes of the College have been elected to the Gamma Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. It was announced Monday. The event breaks a deadlock within the chapter which has blocked three previous attempts to hold an election.

Twenty-eight '26 Men Elected
The Class of June '26 had the largest number of men represented twenty-eight of its members having been elected. Seven students of the June '27 class, six from the January group and two from the Class of September '26 complete the list.

Felix S. Cohen Rejected.
But one man was rejected from the fraternity, Felix S. Cohen '26, son of Prof. Morris R. Cohen of the philosophy department of the College. Cohen who was a former editor of The Campus and leader of last year's protest campaign against compulsory military training, was not on the list made public by Professor Arthur Dickson, secretary of the Gamma chapter.

Cohen Possesses "Magna Cum Laude"
Felix S. Cohen, Vincent Luciani and Louis Jackson were the only three students of the class who were graduated with "Magna Cum Laude" honors last June. The minimum requirements for these second college degree honors are according to the Register of the College: "grade A in 60 per cent. of the students' credits, with no grade below D".

Luciani, Jackson, and twenty-six other men of the '26 graduating class were elected, twenty of whom had been rewarded with "Cum Laude" honors, the others receiving no scholastic insignia.

The meeting at which the deadlock was broken was held last Saturday night in Rumford Hall, at 50 East Forty-first street. It was an executive meeting and chapter members are pledged to secrecy regarding election proceedings.

The forty-three new members are:

Class of June 1926
Robert Gordias, Louis Jackson, Vincent Luciani, Nathan L. Bengis, Edward J. Bernath, Eli M. Spark, David Lorieshter, Walter J. Schmidt, Danter Negro, Max J. Gwertzman, Harold P. Packer, Harold Gluck, Hyman Blume, Nathan Feir, Morris Herman, Morris Watman, Abraham Margolies, Frederick Castrovince, Samuel Frank, Morris Silver, Benjamin S. Geshwind, Irving P. Borsh-er, David L. Cohen, Milton Hanauer, John McConnell, Meyer Case, Samuel D. Wexler and Irving Lorge.

Class of September 1926
Emanuel Feingold and Jacob Kezsborn.

Class of January 1927

Campus Sing Date Set For May 25; Dr. Woll Winds Up Menorah Series

Final Plans Laid for Campus Sing—Guthrie to Preside

The Campus Sing will take place definitely on Wednesday evening, May 25, at 8 p. m. in the Great Hall. This date has finally been set after many delays and postponements. Owing to a mistake in the last issue of The Campus, it was erroneously announced that the Sing would take place May 18.

The Deutscher Verein was the winner of the first contest held last year, and secured the first leg on a large, handsomely mounted silver trophy. This prize is kept permanently by the College organization winning the Sing Contest on any three occasions, not necessarily consecutive.

Three prizes will be awarded to the teams winning first, second and third places. These trophies remain as permanent awards for the winning groups. In addition the first place winner, gets a leg on the large cup.

It is hoped that with the interest aroused in the songs of the College, an active Varsity Glee Club will be formed, which will give regular concerts, besides competing with the clubs of other colleges.

Professor Woll of Hygiene Department Discusses "Reuben Cohen—Athlete"

"Reuben Cohen—athlete" was the subject of an address delivered by Professor Frederick A. Woll, Acting Director of the Hygiene Department, yesterday at 1 p. m. in room 132. Dr. Woll spoke under the auspices of the Menorah Society, which has been having prominent members of the faculty making addresses to the students.

This talk probably was the last of the "Reuben Cohen" series which were planned for the semester. The object of this series was to make an impartial, critical study of the scholarship, character and activity of the typical Jewish student at the College. Included among the faculty who were invited to lecture on "Reuben Cohen" were Professors Otis, Overstreet, Klapper, Von Klenze, Goldfarb and Downer.

This series of lectures has been held before students and each lecture has been attended by large numbers of students. The Menorah Society has been the agent whereby a complete study of the typical Jewish college student has been made.

THE recent trouncing handed to the N. Y. U. ball team once again proves the fact that a much-to-be-desired "big game" complex is steadily developing at the College. It appears that Lavender teams and athletes rise to unlooked for heights with a sterling performance just when it is most needed, and very neatly and efficiently upset the "dope" and incidentally, old rivals.

All four major teams, football, baseball, basketball, and track, have at one time during the recent seasons delighted their followers with excellent showings. In spite of seemingly overwhelming odds, the home teams have refused to be overawed by impressive records presented by their opponents. Metropolitan aggregations have learned, to their sorrow, as a result of recent developments, that nothing can be taken for granted in sports.

Probably the best competitive performance in the last decade at the College was turned in by the 1926 football team in holding Fordham to a 7-3 score. Laboring under the handicap of a 76-0 defeat from the previous year and the fact that the Maroon boasted of an eleven comparable to the best in the East, Doc Parker's men actually led and outplayed Fordham for three periods. It was only by a still-questionable touchdown that the Bronx boys won the game. The true caliber of the local gridmen was once again demonstrated when they reeled off a touchdown on the very first play and rolled up 19 points against Manhattan in the initial period.

Last week's 3-2 victory over N. Y. U. fully compensated for the 1926 2-1 defeat by the Hall of Fame team. Halsey Josephson pitched his heart out for eight innings holding a slim one-run lead, only to see his efforts nullified when the Violet, on the breaks of the game, tallied in the last two frames.

Incidentally, the nine will have a strong claim to the Metropolitan title by beating Fordham next week, as such a victory will entirely discount the early St. John's defeat, the only one suffered at the hands of a local rival. But three games remain on the schedule, those with Manhattan, Trinity, and Fordham. With Artie Moder in his present form, it would not be surprising to see the Lavender come off with possibly three, or at the very least, two triumphs.

When the ball-tossers hit the combined offerings of the three first-string N. Y. U. boxmen, Gallagher, Corbin, and Manfredi, for nine hits and three runs, they accomplished a feat that Columbia, Princeton, and the Army, among many others, could not equal. In holding the Violet batsmen to six hits, Artie Moder turned in pitching that was only excelled by Stribling of the Army and Palmer of Princeton.

Nat Holman's basketball teams have rarely upset the dope for the simple reason that they are invariably favorites. However, N. Y. U. again had the misfortune last season to run up against a disappointed, but capable team, and consequently lost. Holman and his consistently excellent quintets, have gained an enviable reputation throughout the country which, we believe, has gone a long way in lifting the general tone of sports at the College.

Manhattan's defeat by the track team also directs attention to that somewhat ignored squad. Only those in the "know" can tell you that the mile relay at the Penn Carnival turned in the fastest time made by any school in the metropolitan area. The trouncing given to Temple in the first meet was expected, and a victory over Lou Mancz, Phil Delehanty, Jack Geoghan, and the rest of the wearers of the Green was hoped for. The work of the sprinters and middle-distance men has been excellent all season, while the team is strong in the remaining track events. Usual weakness in the field events has been remedied by performers who have broken the College records in the discus and javelin.

THE dormant, but ever pleasant, subject of basketball is once again brought into the limelight by the game today for the Mississippi Flood Relief. Those attending will have the unique opportunity of seeing Nat Holman and a host of former court luminaries in action, as well as aiding a worthy cause. It is only at rare intervals that Nat Holman, coach of the varsity and the star of the world's champion Original Celtics, performs on the home court, but when he does, the boys have something to talk about for quite some time.

Old favorites who have promised to return to the scene of their former triumphs include ex-captains Tubby Raskin, Mac Hodesblatt, and Pinky Match. Other players of equal skill are Leo Palitz, Frank Salz, Sam Cantor, Roy Plaut, and Halsey Josephson. The present crop of players, Captain-elect Hick Rubinstein, Jack Hirsch, Jack Goldberg, Sam Liss, Sid Leschner, Jack Sandak, and Lou Spindell, round out the array of all-star material.

ONE of the gratifying features of the spring sport program has been the fine records made by the minor teams. The tennis team has yet to be defeated with three wins and one tie. Pratt, Rutgers, and St. John's fell before the prowess of the St. Nicholas racquet wielders, while Moravian succeeded in holding them to an even break. The work of the varsity and R.O.T.C. rifle teams has been of the highest order, each having won numerous championships and titles during the recent seasons. Lacrosse, a game that is coming to the fore, has also found favor at the College. A regular varsity squad will in all probability be the result of the present club organized by interested alumni. The addition of lacrosse and soccer, which is now practically assured, will enable the College to present a complete entry in intercollegiate competition for the first time in a good many years.

and now acting as assistant to Coach Parker, show the spectators a fine brand of basketball. Jack Nadel and Salz, both outstanding players on the 1924 team, will probably break into the game as substitutes as will Pinky Match and Coach Cantor.

Varsity Will Oppose

Opposed to these shining lights of past teams, the star players of last season's Varsity will take the floor. Jack Goldberg, Hick Rubinstein and Captain Tubby Raskin, were regulars, Sam Liss, Sid Lechner and Jack Sandak distinguished themselves for their exceptional relief work. Lou Spindell, brilliant leader of the freshman quintet will probably contribute his talent.

President Frederick B. Robinson will lend his personality to the contest by acting as honorary referee. He will probably throw up the first ball. Professor Wohl and Williamson will also serve as honorary referees. The official posts will be filled by Jim Panen and St. Shuman.

Gay Gridiron Gallopers Become Temperamental; Burlesque Show Causes Uproar on Broadway

A sudden case of temperament, afflicting simultaneously half a dozen members of the football ballet, halted a rehearsal that had been going at full gallop in the Townsend Harris Hall Monday afternoon, and almost disrupted a cast, the members of which entered the College after having received cum laude's from fourteen shows on Broadway. However, the capable Miss Joan Carroll, who is lending her aid to the tutelage of the heavyweight hoppers who will grace the occasion of Senior Class Night, called upon her hard-won experience with the Greenwich Village Follies and soon had every one of the gridiron gallopers eating out of her hand.

The finish of a barrage of words which Miss Carroll fired at the embryo artists found Johnny Elerich weeping piteously on the shoulder of Al Drieband. Irv Packed puffed violently at a cigarette grubbed from the Campus reporter. Johnny Clark bit his lips to keep back the tears, while Artie Rosenbluth declared vehemently, "This is no block party", and the dancers once more became firm and rocked the Townsend Harris floor with their thunderous hoofs.

Only the two leaders of the ballet were unaffected by the uproar, and by sheer physical strength, subdued their underlings. These were the well-known entertainers, Hy Elman and "Rubber" Rothstein. Both pointed out to the reporter the marvelous exhibition of grace and skill furnished by the aesthetic interpretation of Iz Seidler. When asked how his sinuous legs had acquired the verve which they flashed with so much life, Seidler modestly declared "It's all due to Doc Parker".

The one thing that marred the debonair performance was the fact that the injury sustained by Irv Packer, business manager of the senior affair, in the mad rush by one and all for tickets, priced in the vernacular of the chairman of the committee, Eddie Gall, at "$2.00, ladies and gentlemen, and any others who care to come, for you, the frau and the little kiddies, two bucks, ladies and gentlemen, I repeat, for a musical comedy, burlesque show, six vaudeville acts and one Sophoclean drama, topped, gentlemen and ladies, by a dance in the gymnasium, and by the personal appearance of Miss Joan Carroll, the star now in the ascendant in Broadway's milky way"

BIO CLUB CONTINUES SCHOLARSHIP DRIVE

The Biology Society will continue, during this week, its drive for funds for the establishment of a permanent research table at the Marine Biological Laboratory at Wood's Hole, Massachusetts.

A sufficient amount has heretofore been raised by the drives conducted by the Society in previous years, to enable two students of the College to study in the laboratory at Cold Springs during the summer.

Members of the society will solicit contributions all week in the alcoves and classrooms of the College. The alumni and faculty have also been asked to contribute. Contributors will receive one of three different colored ribbons, each of different denominations; the donor of a $1.00 contribution receiving a lavender ribbon, a blue ribbon to designate a $.50 donation and a green ribbon signifying a $.25 contribution.

The table will be endowed for the use of an undergraduate, alumnus, or faculty member who will be chosen by the staff of the Biology Department. The man who is appointed will take courses of instruction in marine experimental biology under noted investigators in zoology, protozoology, embryology, physiology and botany at Wood's Hole. The courses will be given this summer from June 28 to August 8.
