CAMPUS CONTINUES INDEPENDANT DRIVE FOR SUBSCRIPTIONS

Bellin '28, Manager of Campaign, Reports Progress Towards Goal of 2500.

OLD UNION DISRUPTED

A. A. and Mercury Also Sell Subscriptions to Student Body.

Progress has been reported in the independant Campus campaign for 2500 subscriptions which was initiated at the beginning of the semester because of the disruption of the Union at the close of the Spring term. Although exact figures on the number of subscriptions sold are not available due to the difficulty of obtaining reports from the members of the Business Board, David Bellin '28, circulation manager, reports that substantial progress has been made toward the goal.

Reaches More Students

Because of conditions which were brought about by the disruption of the "U", it was decided to set the price of the subscription considerably below the usual Campus "U" allotment so that the paper might have a wider circulation among the student body. Thirty-six issues of the Campus are sold for one dollar under the new subscription plan.

David Bellin, who is managing the campaign, urged the student body to co-operate with the efforts of the Campus executives by purchasing the subscription stubs. In an interview with a Campus reporter yesterday, Bellin emphasized the fact that the Campus is a non-profit-making paper whose sole purpose is to present student and college news and opinion.

Compromise "U" Fails

Last term, a temporary agreement was entered into between the A.A., the Mercury, the Lavender, and the Campus that a temporary Union be formed and a ticket be sold for three and one-half dollars. This experiment was financially unsuccessful and each of the constituent organizations was faced with the necessity of selling individual subscriptions at the beginning of the term. At the present time, in addition to the Campus drive, the Athletic Association is selling its ticket for one dollar, and the Mercury is selling subscriptions for seventy-five cents. Lavender has not yet been heard from.

MERCURY STARTS DRIVE FOR TICKET SALE TODAY

Mercury will launch its official ticket sale campaign today for the first time this semester. The other principal member organizations of the former Union have already begun their separate drives for student financial support.

The ticket, which is seventy-five cents, entitles the holder to four issues of the college comic and a reduction of ten cents on the issues of last term. The regular price of the magazine is twenty-five cents.

Several positions on the art, editorial, and business boards still remain open. Applications should be left in the "Merc." office, room 412, any day between 12 and 2.

Candidates Wanted For Frosh Swimming Team

All freshmen interested in the Frosh Swimming team are requested to report for practice to Manager Abner Silverman on Thurs., Oct. 6, at the pool. No experience is necessary. Practice will be held daily in the pool at convenient times. Freshmen reporting should have a medical examination card signed by the doctor.

"Y" WELCOMES '31 AT FROSH SMOKER

Yearlings Entertained at Semi-Annual Dinner Held in Webb Room.

Seventy-five freshmen, upperclassmen, and members of the faculty attended the semi-annual frosh dinner and smoker given by the "Y" each term as a welcome to the entering class. The gathering was held on Friday evening at 6:30 p. m. in the Webb Room. The Reverend Noyes presided at the dinner and addressed the newcomers on the "Problems of the Freshman." Some of the faculty were also present, including President Robinson, Professor Burchard, Professor Dickson, and others; each of whom addressed the men of 1931 on the pitfalls and problems they would have to face.

Schilback introduced the officers for the new term. They are: Edward Kohler '28, President; William Stalowsky '28, Vice-President; Benjamin Shupack '28, Secretary. George Oliver has assumed the duties of Wesley Eastman as secretary of the "Y". President Kehler also outlined the program for the coming term. Under his guidance the "Y" will continue its policy of home meetings, Bible reading and discussions. His plans for the "Y" dance are fully completed. An innovation of this term will be interclass athletics within the "Y" itself.

Schools of Business and Technology To Expand Their Fields of Activity

New Building Will Replace Old Lex. Ave. Structure New Architects Courses Offered.

Consistent with its policy of providing its students with the best training possible for business and technical careers, the College has enlarged the scope of the work offered in the Schools of Business and Civic Administration and the School of Technology.

Construction of the new building which will house the School of Business and Civic Administration of the College will start by the middle of next month on the site of the original building at Lexington Avenue and Twenty-third Street, President Frederick Robinson announced at a dinner of the class of 1911 held on Saturday evening, Sept. 25, in honor of George W. Edwards, member of the class, and newly appointed dean of the school.

Demolition of the building now on the site, which has recently been used as the police academy, will start as soon as the contracts are awarded next month. Completion of the struc-

DEBATING SQUAD ANNOUNCES PLANS

Arrangements Not Yet Completed For Varsity Team Tryouts.

Plans for the Fall debating season, involving engagements with many Eastern colleges, have just been announced by Abraham Singer '28, manager of the Lavender team. Letters have already been sent to Boston University, Harvard University, Boston College, Rutgers University, Temple College, Gettysburg College, St. Johns College and New York University, in order to arrange a debate with the Varsity team.

George Armund '28, and Meyer Velinsky '28, the present captain, are the only veterans of last term's team. As yet no definite arrangements have been completed by Prof. G. Schulz, the Varsity coach, to fill the ranks. However all students of the College, above the Freshman class, will be permitted to take part in the tryouts. An announcement of details will be made later.

The College team completed a most victorious semester last Spring. The Lavender orators did not taste defeat a single time. This team was captained by Irving Gladston. The other members were Meyer Velinsky, Harry Mitchell and George Armund. The representatives of the College scored triumphs over Gettysburg, Rutgers and Boston College. N. Y. U. and Manhattan were met in a no-decision contest.

The debating relations of the College are managed this semester by Abraham Singer '28, Harry Rabinowitz '29, George Bronz '30, and George Siegel '31.

GRID TEAM LOSES OPENER, 19-6, TO FAST WASHINGTON ELEVEN; TRIMS ALUMNI IN NIGHT GAME

STADIUM LIGHTS USED

First Nocturnal Encounter to be Played in Metropolitan District.

Varsity Triumphs, 9-0

Parker's Team Scores Touchdown and Safety Against All-Star Alumni Aggregation.

Under the bright illuminating Cahill lights, Coach Hal Parker's gridmen just back from camp at Lakeville, Conn. defeated a star Alumni team on Saturday, Sept. 24, by the score of 9-0. Despite the fact that the varsity team was handicapped by orders to omit all trick plays included in their training schedule, they succeeded in scoring a safety and a touchdown.

The entire nine points were scored in the first quarter, but the other three periods, were not devoid of interest, as the varsity had the Alumni badly worried and came very close to scoring time and again.

Lester Barckman showed his plunging ability by a five yard drive through the opposing line for the only touchdown of the game. He added the point after goal making the score 7-0. The varsity line broke through and blocked Oshins' kick. As Oshins recovered the ball behind his own goal, he was tackled by Petlock. From then on, until the end, the score remained 9-0.

The lineup follows:

Varsity	Alumni
Rosner	L. E. J. Tubriday
Puleo	L. T. Washor
Halpern	L. G. Rosenbluth
Elterich	C. Williams
Petlock	R. G. Friedman
Clarke (Capt.)	R. T. Seidler
Bokat	R. E. F. Tubriday
Spindell	O. B. Raskin
Bienstock	L. H. B. Oshins
Borckman	R. H. B. Rosenberg
Cohen	F. B. Brower

DEAN'S OFFICE ISSUES LOCKER ASSIGNMENTS

A complete list of additional locker assignments has been posted on the bulletin board of Room 121. Mr. Arnold Moss of the Dean's office advised those students who as yet have no lockers, to see if their names are on the list. The assignments concern those students who are re-entering or who were transferred from the Brooklyn Branch and the Evening Session.

The list has been drawn up according to last term's classification. If, after this latest distribution of lockers there are still any empty ones, an announcement to that effect will be made, and those students who have not as yet been given lockers, will then be assigned to them.

Class Office Elections To Be Held Friday, 12-3

The semi-annual election for class offices will be held Friday between the hours of twelve and three in the concourse. Each class will elect, as usual, a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and athletic manager. In addition, all June classes, the February '28 class, and the February '31 class will elect student councilors. However, the February '31 delegate will serve for only one term. Only Student Council members will be permitted to vote.

Candidates for any of these offices may have their names printed on the ballot by paying a twenty-five cent fee to any member of the elections committee before Wednesday. Dave Coral '28 is heading the committee and is assisted by Howie Iserson '28, Jack Rosenberg '29, Mac Reiskind '29, Clem Finkelstein '30, Bert Barron '30, Mike Halpern '31, and Bob Turefsky '31.

NEW CAMPUS BOARD TO PLAN EDITORIALS

Caputa, Shukatoff and Birnbaum Comprise Reorganized Staff—Maisel New Gargler.

Introducing an innovation to The Campus in the form of an Editorial Board, John K. Ackley '28, editor-in-chief, announced the names of the men who are to comprise the new department. They are Joseph J. Caputa '28, Arnold Shukatoff '29, and Abraham Birnbaum '29.

The duties of these men will be to supervise the various issues put out during the term, and to assist in the writing of editorials. This work will be in the nature of preparation for the higher position on The Campus staff.

The appointees to the Editorial Board have left three positions open on the Associate Board which will be filled in about one month by the editor-in-chief.

Candidates for the editorial, sport and business board of the Campus should leave their names in Room 411 during this week. Previous experience on high-school sheets while desirable, is not an essential requirement.

OWEN ABC SHORTHAND TO BE OFFERED AGAIN

Classes in Owen abc Shorthand, the new system of shorthand using the alphabet instead of hieroglyphic symbols found in other standard systems, which was taught here with great success last term, will begin Monday, October 10. The course will be completed in one term of two hours per week, for a speed minimum of 100 words per minute. The schedule of classes is posted on various bulletin boards in the College, together with other information. Further inquiries should be addressed to Mr. Horry Horowitz, in the mailroom of the College.

BARCKMAN LAVENDER STAR

Colonials Win by Taking Advantage of Breaks and College's Errors.

BIENSTOCK RUNS 70 YDS.

Scores Home Touchdown With Brilliant Dash After Receiving Forward Pass.

Opening the football season with George Washington University is becoming a habit with the Lavender gridmen, and a commendable one, but inaugurating the season with a defeat by the Colonials is one of those things that must be stopped. For the second successive year the Capitol City team defeated the College in a torrid affair, played in Lewisohn Stadium, by a score of 19-6. Last year the final count was 10-7.

Fumble Upsets College

The visiting team won by capitalizing on the numerous breaks the C.C.N.Y. team gave them. Their first score came as a result of a fumble on the home team's ten-yard line, the second through a blocked kick, and the third on an intercepted forward pass in the last twenty seconds of play. Bernie Bienstock tallied for the College on a beautiful seventy-yard run through a broken field.

Last year "Terrible Ivan" Stehman yelled defeat for the New Yorkers, but last Saturday it was Fred Sapp, who certainly was not one. This talented young man is a tryle-threat performer of considerable ability. His long, booming punts could always be depended upon to drive his team out of danger, and his passing and running with the ball was well above the average. Stehman and Loymn also did their share in vanquishing the Lavender.

Barckman Gains Off-tackle

Lester Barckman, as usual, played a bang-up, sensational game in the home backfield. He was the only man able to make consistent gains against the strong, heavy Orange eleven.

His off-tackle sweeps were usually good for substantial advances. Bienstock surprised with an excellent performance. He was especially effective on the defensive and his long run for a touchdown was the best individual effort of the day.

The Washington line had slightly the better of the argument with the College's forward wall, although the loss of Capt. Johnny Clark, who was out with a bad cold, was a hard blow to the Lavender. The absence of Lou Spindell was another tough break, although Jack Grossman, his understudy, did well enough at times.

The first score came within three minutes of play. Grossman fumbled on his own ten-yard stage and Washington recovered. After two futile thrusts at the line, Sapp tossed a short pass to Capt. Allhouse who received it over the line. Stehman drop-kicked the extra point.

A few plays later the Lavender broke into the scoring column. Ber-

WATCH THE TEAM

Football is with us again. The College is back of the team and team looks good. In spite of the defeat at the hands of George Washington University Saturday afternoon, The Campus looks forward to a successful season. The Lavender eleven went down at the hands of one of the most powerful secondary teams in intercollegiate football.

Unlike many other colleges, C.C.N.Y. did not book a team below its class for the opening game. Saturday's test was a fair one. It proved that we have a powerful line, an almost green backfield, with great potentialities, and a combined eleven that can show flashes of extraordinary playing. Saturday's game showed the team the costliness of errors and gave some of the new men valuable experience. Fears of a one man backfield may be dispelled and hope for successes in our big November games encouraged.

FRESHMEN, CHOOSE WISELY

Given a short breathing spell by the six weeks pledging rule of the Inter-Fraternity Council, the members of the class of 1931 are warned not to make too hasty a decision in their choice of their most intimate companions for the next four years. A mistake in the selection of a freshman's fraternity may ruin an entire college career.

Remember, freshmen, that you are not only selecting companions for the next four years but also friends for all the years thereafter. All of the fraternities of the College are in duty bound not to offer you bids before the non-pledging period expires and you are likewise obligated not to give your promise until Wednesday, November 2. Choose deliberately and always bear in mind that a man is known by the company he keeps.

More than a week of school has passed and still only about one tenth of the student body has subscribed to this paper. Men of the College, The Campus is yours—your review of what has occurred, your calendar of what is happening, and your index of future events. It is in your power to bring our campaign to a speedy and successful close.

LIMITATIONS

Oh would my soul could break its microcosmic cell,
And soar far off into the realms
Where time and space transcend infinity.
See the strange mad whirligig of God,
Where fierce indomitable force and boundless energy
Perform their task!
All subject to an universal law.
But vain, alas, poor feeble soul,
To be the epidermis of thy cell.
Content thy lot must be
To view with microscopic care
The wall! In endless, fruitless search
For universal law!

A La Cal

While strolling the campus the other day, we collided with Johnny Levy. "Where ya goin'?" we queried. "For a walk," he answered. "Why don't you run?" we continued. "I don't choose to run," he replied.

From the slipshod manner in which Fra Tubby Raskin performed in the alumni game last week, many of the Lavender sport enthusiasts registered a sigh of gratification. It sure did seem as if he was still playing for the varsity.

Assist. Prof. Goodman: "Do you know the King's English?"
Sophisticated Frosh: "Vell, if he ain't, he should be!"

We learn with a degree of consternation that Bill Cohen, erstwhile star half-back on the Lavender football team, has left his happy home and is now en route to Edinburgh University in Scotland, where he will study the gentle art of doctoring. We sincerely trust that the change of atmosphere will bear no ill effects upon Bill's unquestionable generosity, but it really wouldn't prove a bit astonishing if after a few months he starts commuting in order to save the rent.

A lot of funny things have been happening of late. A number of mysterious upsets to say the least. First Tunney stopped the Manassa Mauler, then Trudy conquered the stormy Channel, Lindy then skipped the broad Atlantic, and only the other day a Fifth Avenue bus turned over. Now all that has to happen to cap it all, is that we flunk Guthrie's course.

Ben Daneman, who is physicianing it at P. & S., is reported to have taken his woman to the movies the other evening. The flicker flicked away for some fifteen minutes. John Barrymore was just kissing Dolores Costello in the middle of the French Revolution, when the girl friend turned to Ben. "Some one's fooling around with my foot," she gasped.
Our hero gazed about searchingly. "Sssh!" he chirped. "It's me and I'm not fooling!"

IN CONCLUSION

Perhaps you've found, we've clowned around,
And have recorded pride
Immodestly. But honestly,
We hope you'll not deride

Our mirthless quips, and mocking lips,
Our verses so eratic;
Our shameless poems, and senseless proems,
In strains so harshly static.

For with this tune, we vanish soon,
Unless we rear officious;
Though gargler next, might find a text,
Like this from us propitious.

And when we're gone, please do not morn,
Or register remorse;
The Law School grind, and Ede we find,
(Aside from Guthrie's course)

Demand our time, and though acclimated
We must repress
Our garling trait, become sedate,
And duty ne'er distress.

Now that we part, we bare our heart,
It was a rare delight;
Amuse we tried, and often sighed
Your praise we might requite.

Our fervent prayer, is that you'll bear
A frequent thought of me;
Our hat we doff, we're signing off,
From station T. B. E.

HER FIRST AFFAIRE, a Comedy in three acts by Merrill Rogers. Presented by Gustav Blum at the Bayes Theatre

There is nothing exceptional in the current offering at the Bayes except that the word 'affaire' in the title is spelt with an 'e'. And that it tries hard to be one of those smart, sophisticated, Frenchy farces, bordering on the risque, which are always supposed to be great popular successes. Something like the affusions of Avery Nopwood or Elinor Glyn in the silent drama.

Not so, however, with Merrill Rogers' play. Though your reviewer was ever so slightly amused at the antics of Grace Voss as the 'her' in Her First Affaire, we could see nothing in either the play or the players which would tend to make this anything more than ordinary and mediocre. It is true that Aline MacMahon as Nildegarde Maxon, the broad-minded wife, turns in a performance worthy of a better play, but the rest of the cast is very usual.

Improvements unknown until recently are introduced in the New Model Parker Duofold—Non-Breakable Barrel, and Pressureless Point by means of capillary flow, combined with gravity feed. We spent 35 years on 47 improvements—made 16,000,000 pens—own 32 Pen Patents besides 12 on Pencils and Desk Sets.

How would you advertise this pen? Give us your ideas. Write an ad and win a prize.

Seven well known advantages of the Parker Duofold are told here. The new one—announced April 1st—Factor number 8—is missing. If you find it—if you write an advertisement including it with the following seven—you may win as much as $100 cash or one of nine smaller prizes.

Here Are 7 Factors!

Can you find number 8?

- Pressureless Point—starts and writes at feather-weight touch—extra strong because of extra thick gold. But tempered so it yields to any hand yet never loses shape.
- Non-Breakable Barrel—now made of Parker Permanite—28% lighter than rubber formerly used—hand sized, and perfectly balanced.
- Instant Ink Flow—tip always moist. Capillary attraction combines with gravity to produce pressureless writing.
- Over-Size Ink Capacity—writes longer on one filling.
- Duo-Sleeve Cap—a positive safeguard against leakage when cap is kept on tight.
- Press-Button Filler—concealed inside the barrel out of sight, out of harm's way.
- Beauty Rivalling Colorful Jewels—lustrous Black-tipped barrels in Jade, Lapis Lazuli, Mandarin Yellow, or Lacquer-Red. Also plain Black and Gold.
- The Missing Factor! . . . What is it?

Try Parker Duofold at your dealer's and ask him about the missing factor. You do not have to buy unless you can't resist. Either way—write an Ad and win a prize. Note conditions of contest.

To smoke wisely and well, choose Camels

THERE'S an irresistible reason for choosing this famous cigarette. Not for its popularity alone, but for that superior quality that produces it.

Camel wins its prestige with modern smokers by forthright value. It is rolled of the choicest tobaccos that money can buy, and its blending is the taste and fragrance triumph of tobacco science.

The Camel smoker is tobacco fit. He has the best, with no scrimping or denial of cost. There are no four-wheel brakes on Camel; no brakes at all. It is full speed ahead, straight for quality.

Select Camel for smoking pleasure, and you'll join distinguished company. Particular, modern smokers have elected it on the principle of superiority.

"Have a Camel!"
