

NAT HOLMAN LEADS FACULTY TO VICTORY OVER REGULARS

Court Coach Scores Eleven Points in Defeat of '28 Regulars, 20-17.

Leading a team composed of his former pupils, Nat Holman, on a scoring spree, trimmed last year's varsity singlehanded in the annual faculty-varsity cage encounter, played in the gym last Thursday afternoon. Holman playing at guard outsmarted the entire opposition scoring eleven points.

When the teams lined up for the opening whistle a bevy of satellites were on the floor. For the varsity, Sam Liss, captain elect, and Hick Rubinstein, departing leader, performed at the forwards. Sid Liftin held the pivot post, while Ted Meisel and Jack Sandak were at the guard posts. The faculty lineup was Holman and Mac Hodesblatt forward guards, Jack Goldberg at center, Weiner and Tubby Raskin, forwards.

After three minutes of snappy passing, Meisel drew a foul, making the first tally. Meisel scored again from the center of the floor with a long heave. Liss counted from the 15 ft. mark. The score stood 5-0 in favor of the varsity. Hodesblatt following a court length dribble passed to Weiner who dropped it in from under the basket.

Then Rubinstein, repeating an oft-performed stunt, put in a long throw. At this point the faculty braced up and Jack Goldberg scored from under the basket. Holman followed with a shot from midfield. Rubinstein increased the varsity's lead on a long shot. Snappy playing was now exhibited as both teams opened up their bag of tricks. Sam Liss tallied on a follow-up.

Holman re-opened the faculty's bid for the game when he faked his way around the right on a feigned pass and scored a field goal. Tubby Raskin duplicated Holman's stunt a minute later. Sandak scored after receiving a long pass. Playing the "basket hanger" game Holman tied the score as the whistle terminating the half, blew.

At the opening of the second half Dave Kosh, last season's manager, subbed for Sandak, Kany played for Liss and Krugman took his turn at center. "Doc" Hauser, of the Hygiene department replaced Wiener. The varsity drew first blood as Meisel's throw from the side went true. Hodesblatt concluded a protracted passing attack when he scored from midcourt. A foul by Hodesblatt brought the faculty within one point of the varsity. Holman gained the lead on a two-pointer.

With the score 17-16 in the faculty's favor, the entire regular team returned to the court but to no avail as Holman was determined to gain the victory. A foul and a goal by the mentor darkened the varsity's hopes. Liftin ended the scoring for the game with a foul tally. The final count was 20-17.

The lineup:

CONTINUE CAMPAIGN FOR "U" BOOK SALES

Slow Progress in Sale of Union Booklets Reported by Committee

Despite the fact that half the semester is over, "U" booklets are still on sale. The price of the tickets remain the same, as more than three dollars worth of value is yet to be obtained. The "U" booklet entitles its owner to baseball events at half price, to copies of The Campus, issues of the Mercury, and to the much awaited Lavender magazine which is destined to resume its appearance shortly, for the first time in more than a year.

Union tickets are on sale by members of the "U" committee which comprise Jack G. Deutsch '29, business managers of the publications, Dave Coral, Robert Harte, Travis Levy and Sidney Ratner. "U" booklets may be procured at the Campus Circulation Desk, from committee men, or from the A. A. office as well as the publication offices.

A report of the controlling board shows that to date only 625 tickets have been sold. The "U" board had hoped that more students would take advantage of the low priced "U" fee, with the added privileges. But it is expected that the present interest in the baseball games will stimulate and encourage the sales of "U" booklets.

MENORAH TO HEAR TALK ON FUTURE OF RELIGION

Professor Mordecai M. Kaplan '00, Will Discuss "Future Religion".

"The Future of Religion" is the topic of an address which will be delivered by Professor Mordecai M. Kaplan '00, at an open forum of the Menorah Society next Thursday afternoon, in room 126, at 12 o'clock.

Dr. Kaplan is professor of Homiletics at the Jewish Theological Seminary, and is Principal of the Teachers' Institute of the Seminary. It is in the latter capacity particularly that he is known to many students of the College. He is also a publicist of national note, and his contributions to the Menorah Journal, notably "Toward a Reconstruction of Judaism" evoked considerable discussion.

Professor Kaplan is one of the foremost modern philosophers of religion. The Menorah has arranged for an open forum based on the subject of the speech.

HIGH GRADES ACHIEVED BY LANGUAGE STUDENTS

Examinations Held Recently For Licenses To Teach In State Schools.

Students of the College attained high standing in the recent statewide examination in "oral approval" for prospective teachers of modern languages, according to the announcement of the results just published. The examination was held, March 16, by the Department of Education to determine the fitness of candidates to teach in the schools of the state.

Among the successful applicants, eight students of the College found places on the German list, three on the French, and two on the Spanish. These men are products of the courses in advanced language study in the College, and their success in the examination, Professor Downer finds "most gratifying" since they demonstrated not only their command of the written and spoken language, but also their ability to teach it.

NEWLY FORMED COMMITTEE FOR COLLEGE CLUB MEETS

Charter Outlined for Working Of Body Contains Several Innovations.

Elimination of conflict in club programs is the principle upon which the Inter-Club Committee will function, it was announced at the meeting held Friday at 1 p. m., at which delegates of many clubs were present. Announcements of all lectures are to be submitted to the committee for approval at the meeting held two weeks in advance.

The following charter was outlined for the working of the committee:

1. Inter-Club Committee shall be composed of one representative from each club and society.
  2. The chairman appointed by the Students Council, should have the approval of the committee.
  3. Meetings shall be held every Friday at 1 p. m.
  4. If any lecture is considered by the committee to have student-wide appeal, all other meetings will be called off.
  5. Clubs with limited interest, such as language and scientific groups, shall be taken into consideration in arranging programs.
  6. The Committee of Public Lectures, which arranges talks for Thursdays, shall be conferred with concerning lectures of student-wide appeal.
  7. No club may meet, without approval of the committee.
- The appointment of Nat Schieb '30, by the Student Council chairman was approved.

BATSMEN TO INVADE PENN UNIVERSITIES

Nine to Meet Villanova, Drexel and Temple on Barnstorming Tour.

Coach Parker's sluggers will stage an invasion of Pennsylvania this week to take on the scheduled Villanova, Drexel and Temple teams, on successive days. This difficult assignment will conclude the games away from home this season. The team will return to the stadium Saturday to oppose the crack Lafayette outfit.

Jupe Pluvius frowned upon baseball devotees last Saturday and both the freshmen game and the Rutgers setto were postponed.

With the Lafayette contest the nine enters on the home stretch. The traditional encounters follow successively. On May 12 Manhattan will bring a horde to the Stadium. Jack Coffey's championship Porriham outfit will visit on Saturday May 16. One week later the varsity will play host to the undefeated N. Y. U. aggregation. The closing games of the season will be the St. Lawrence and the Delaware.

BUSINESS SOCIETY DISCUSSES TRUSTS

Dr. Leland Rex Robinson Gives
Lecture on Investment Trust Organization.

Dr. Leland Rex Robinson, President of the International Securities Company, and a well known financial authority spoke on "Investment Trusts", before a meeting of the Business Administration Society, last Thursday.

Discussing the relation of trusts to business needs, Dr. Robinson stated "that Investment Trusts are an academic and business problem which need careful analysis." He described the introduction of the investment trust organization in Great Britain, with its history, and the rapid growth of the American institutions which differ somewhat in scope from those of England. He pointed out "the number of Investment Trusts is fast approaching, or approximates two-hundred now in the United States." After the lecture Dr. Robinson answered questions put to him by the audience.

Before Dr. Robinson's address, the society conducted its business meeting, during which the publication of "The Business Bulletin" was discussed. This Bulletin will appear from time to time and is sponsored by the Society under the editorship of Herbert J. Lachman '29. Plans were also made for the showing of a motion picture on "Power" in conjunction with a talk on "Utilities", to be given in the near future.

This Thursday, the Business Administration Society will be addressed by Professor William R. Shepard, head of the Department of History at Columbia University, and an authority on South American Foreign Trade and Finance. Professor Shepard is well known in the business world for his keen knowledge and for the thoughts which he conveys in his lectures. This meeting of the Society will take place as usual, in Room 206 at 12 noon.

INTERCLUB TOURNEY WILL CLOSE FRIDAY

Berlin Club and Cambridge
Quintet to Contest Cage Championship

The Intramural League Tournament draws to a close as the Berlin Club and the Cambridge quintet meet in the final round next Friday at 4:30 in the gym.

The Berlinites upset the powerful Heidelberg five led by Phil Weissman, high scorer of the tournament by a 25-18 count to gain the finals. Cambridge nosed out Strasbourg by a single point to win 23-22.

The Strasbourg aggregation threw a scare into the Berlin supporters by scoring three consecutive baskets in the first few minutes of the game. At half time, they still held the lead 9-5 although their opponents had cut down the margin.

The Berlinites, rallied in the second half to take the lead after a few minutes of play by 15-13. They were never again headed winning 23-22.

Katz of the Berlin Club was the high scorer with ten tallies. Dud Traeger starred for the losers.

In the other semi-final the losing team, in this case the Heidelbergs, got off to a six point lead. The Cambridge team, however, knotted the score and led at the half 14-10. Erratic shooting and loose guarding marked the second period which ended with a score of 25-18 in favor of Cambridge.

VARSITY RELAY TEAMS LOSE AT PENN GAMES

of him. But the veteran home College star could not stand the pace, and Streng came away in the stretch to win smartly. Urizianus pulled up in third place, Delaware and Temple bringing up the remainder of the field. The time, 3 minutes and 36 seconds, was comparatively good because of the poor shape of the track and the dismal weather conditions. It compared favorably with the times made in the other mile relay matches of the day.

In the quarter-mile sprint relay, a well-balanced College team placed third, in a preliminary heat, to Michigan State and Maryland, while beating out West Point. Lester Barckman, Whit Lynch, Jesse Grossberg and Woody Liscombe ran for the Lavender. Liscombe and Grossberg also participated in the special invitation 100-yard dash, the former finishing tied for second in his heat, and the latter racing in fourth in his preliminary test.

Taking on special significance since it was looked upon as a tryout for places on the American team for the 1928 world-renowned Olympic Games, the 34th annual Penn Relays held several interesting features and results for track and field followers throughout the country. The relay carnival, sponsored by the University of Pennsylvania, steeped in track and field lore and tradition, and annually receiving the entries of thousands of athletes from every sector of the land, featured, as its special attractions this year, Charlie Paddock, famous sprinter, the yearly Penn Relay Decathlon, and the one, two, and four-mile college and university United States relay championships. This year, the carnival was somewhat marred by the continual rain during the two days of its duration, and by the collapse of a section of the grandstand during the running of the races which injured several spectators. However several new records were established and some fine performances were turned in by the small army of participants.

Paddock set a new world's standard in the special invitation 175-yard sprint race, and he was also one of the main centers of attraction at the games. Tony Plansky won the annual Decathlon with a point total of 3,177, City College of Detroit, last year's winner. A group of eight track and field events comprised the Decathlon program.
