

FROSH TEAM BEATS MANHATTAN, 17-14

De Phillips Playing Aggressive Game Is High Scorer With Ten Points

Led by their fighting captain De Phillips, a fighting freshman five playing a steady game of basketball chalked up its first victory of the season at the expense of the Manhattan frosh Monday evening in the Ninth Coast Defense Armory, winning by a score of 17 to 14. The score at half time was 9-7 in favor of the college cubs, and although Manhattan twice tied the score in the second half, the freshman were able to stave off their attempts to win while gathering a three point margin to win the game.

In the freshmen's initial encounter of the new semester with the Brooklyn Collegiate Centre team Monday evening the freshmen lost to the heavier Brooklyn team by a score of 23-16. Although the score was 16 all with three minutes to go, Dr. Parker's boys were unable to score further while the boys from over the bridge led by their captain "Beck" Remer, who went on a scoring spree, garnered eight more points to easily win the encounter.

De Phillips was the individual star of both games amassing ten points in each game, and playing an especially brilliant game in the Manhattan set-off. Offensively De Phillips was by far the best man on the floor, being in the thick of every melee, while also playing a fine defensive game. Although the opposing center Manning was a few inches taller than him, De Phillips continually outjumped him. Brennan scored first for the Green and White, after five minutes of playing featured by close guarding on the part of both teams, when he found the rim from the middle of the floor. Contento soon scored again for Manhattan.

With the score 4-0, the cubs rallied and Entes and De Phillips each scored on a foul try. De Phillips continued the rally by scoring two goals from the side of the basket.

Neuwirth scored a foul and Contento taking the ball off the back board threw in a goal for the Jaspers. Chase threw in a pretty overhand shot and Marky scored on a foul for Manhattan as the half ended with the score 9 to 7 in favor of the college yearlings.

The second half saw the lead see saw back and forth with the college freshmen finally gaining a three-point lead which they were able to hold in spite of the Jaspers' attempts to overcome it.

Manhattan first took the lead by a score of 10 to 9 on a goal and a foul by Manning and Marky. Due to the efforts of De Phillips who scored on a foul and a goal from under the basket, the frosh took the lead. Hydon however evened the score again 12 to 12 on a back hand toss into the basket after cutting in.

Neuwirth on a short pass from De Phillips threw in a goal from the side of the basket. De Phillips increased the lead by tossing the ball through the rim for a goal, reeled out of the basket.

With about two minutes to go, Manning broke through the entire team to score on Manhattan's last rally. Halpern scored while Hydon missed on a double foul and the game ended with the ball just being put into play from the out line.

While Dr. Parker has lost the services of Berger, Weissman, Agid and Demonsky, he still has left De Phillips, Chase, Halpern and Entes, most of whom have played quite consistently with last term's team. Of the newcomers Neuwirth seems to be the best bet to fill the remaining position. He is speedy and although rather light is a good guard and has a fair eye for the basket.

Banners for R.O.T.C. Ball Must Be in By Tomorrow

Fraternity banners to be displayed at the annual ball of the Officers Club of the R.O.T.C. must be handed in tomorrow at noon in order to be used at the dance to be held tomorrow night in the College Gymnasium, according to an announcement forthcoming from the committee in charge. The banners are to be left in the office of the Department of Military Science and Tactics.

Also, these banners, after the dance will be returned at the Military Science Office.

PROF. BURCHARD '77 HONORED AT DINNER

Retires From Faculty After Long Service to College

Several hundred alumni including one member of the Class of '54, paid tribute to Lewis Sayre Burchard '77 on the occasion of his retirement from the College Faculty at a dinner in his honor tendered by the Associate Alumni, at the Hotel Astor on Wednesday evening, February 8.

Speakers of the evening who paid tribute to Professor Burchard as friend and teacher, were: Leigh Hunt '77, Hon. Thomas W. Churchhill '82, Lewis F. Mott '83, Rabbi Samuel Schulman '85, Bernard Naumburg '94, Howard W. Hintz '25, John H. Finley, Frederick B. Robinson '02, and Professor Carleton Brownson. Dr. Sigmund Pollitzer '79, President of the Associate Alumni, was toastmaster.

Professor Mott praised him for his kindness and benevolence. "His reputation among the students is of the highest," he said. "The College may have pedagogical skill but without men like Burchard it would be quite shabby." Professor Hunt, a classmate of the guest of honor, said the prophesy of his youth as friend and scholar was resplendently fulfilled.

Dr. Schulman spoke of his sincere admiration for Professor Burchard in a glowing speech. "It was my privilege," he said, "to sit at his feet as one of his pupils. One of the most precious memories I carried away from college was the contact with this teacher and man of culture. We love him as one of the finest products of our college."

Howard W. Hintz '25, former editor of The Campus, praised him for his interest in the undergraduates. "He has the idealism of youth," Hintz said, "and the spirit of our generation more than any other. I looked for an ideal teacher, a guide, philosopher and friend, and found in Burchard that ideal."

"As Daniel Webster put all his legal talent at the service of his Alma Mater," Prof. Brownson declared, "so did Lew Burchard remain devoted to his college." President Robinson, speaking on behalf of the College, expressed regret that Professor Burchard was leaving the Faculty.

SCREEN SCRAPS

THE LAST COMMAND with Emil Jannings and Evelyn Brent. A Paramount picture presented at the Rialto.

Emil Jannings is once more playing the tragedian. This time it is in a story of the Russian Revolution in which Jannings, in the role of Sergius Alexander, Duke of Russia, general in command of the armies of the Bear, is eventually relegated to the position of movie extra in the studio of a revolutionist who he has once struck with the knout.

And what a panorama is unfolded! Jannings, both in Variety and in The Way of All Flesh proved that he is one of the most capable actors on the screen. He showed that he was capable of portraying all the human emotions — forcefully, naturally and without excessive melodramatic gesture. It is the opinion of this reviewer that he has surpassed his performances of both the aforementioned films in The Last Command.

Evelyn Brent, playing the revolutionist lover of the general is for the most part immobile, except for the one magnificent scene in which Duke Alexander is stripped of his badges of office by the rebels. Here Miss Brent, in order to save her lover, stages a sham feeling of emotions in which she reaches almost superb height.

The movie director—revolutionary is portrayed by William Powell who appears all too frequently for so fine an actor. The remainder of the cast is of a minor character with no one in particular standing out.

Baggy Knees

If your trousers bag at the knees, it means one or two or three things. To wit: 1. You've been dangling a dame on your knees; 2. The fabric of your suit is not all it should be, 3. Your "trou" are too narrow.

If you're afflicted with "bags on the knees" for Reason 1 we can't do a dog-gone thing for you. But if you've got the knee malady for Reasons 2 and 3... then Dolph-Murray are the doctors for you!

was fouled, but he made the goal and the two resulting fouls to give his team a 4-0 lead. The College was fumbling a bit but no harm was done. Liss and Horan each drew fouls for fighting, but neither of the tries was successful. Horan missed two more fouls, as did Hayes, but the latter finally put one in. Mazurki came through with a long shot from the floor, but Goldberg made two fouls count.

Spindell cut prettily for a goal, and Keber, Manhattan's hero of the N.Y.U. game, went in for Shand. Liss shot a foul, but Hinchcliff and Keber caged long goals after the Green was unable to break through New York's tight defense. Goldberg made another foul, but Hayes brought the Jaspers dangerously close with a goal to make the score 10-9.

Meisel came through with a beautiful overhead basket after a long dribble, and Liss followed up his shot to score from the floor. Fouls by Spindell and Horan brought the tally to 15-10 at half time.

Liss went out of the game shortly after the intermission on personal fouls, Sandak coming in for him. Manhattan came back with a rush to make the score 15-14 on two fouls by Keber and a goal by Hayes. Hick retaliated with a perfect long shot. Captain Horan also went out for personal fouls, Noonan substituting. Meisel made a foul and Rubinstein tapped the second one in for a field goal. Keber again caged a long heave, but Sandak took Goldberg's pass and sneaked through for a goal.

Captain Rubinstein again bobbed up with two fouls and a field goal, and Sandak closed scoring activities for the evening with a foul. In an effort to save the game Coach Muller of the Green sent in Maloney, the Cohalan brothers, and Whalen, but they could do little for their cause.

This is Parker Pressureless Touch

This pen's feather-light weight alone is sufficient to start and keep it writing. No effort, no fatigue.

Doubly remarkable because the new Duofold is 28% lighter than when made with rubber, due to Permanite, a new material 100 times as strong as rubber—in fact, Non-Breakable.

But Pressureless Touch is most important because of its effect of taking all the effort out of writing.

3 sizes, 6 graduated pen points, 5 flashing colors, to suit men's and women's hands and tastes.

Parker Duofold Pencils to match pens, $3, $3.50 and $4.

Look for "Geo. S. Parker—DUOFOLD" to be sure of the genuine.
