Green Supporters Ambuscade Uprights Despite Special Police Vigilance

By Del Brickman

For the first time since the annual colorful Lavender-Green clash was inaugurated in 1925 the Inwood warriors emerged victorious from the stadium scene of battle when Joe Schwarzer's powerful forward wall and impetuous, charging backs downed a fighting College eleven last Saturday. The Jaspers wreaked full vengeance for their defeats in 1925 and 1926, shattering the Lavender hopes of taking its place in the elite of the undefeated this year.

The Green started with a sweeping rush from the first whistle and led by Bob McBride launched the most sustained and effective charging and running attack that Captain Willie Halpern and his men had to cope with throughout the entire Lavender grid campaign. It was only Lester Barckman's booting that kept the Green from threatening the College goal in the first period.

In the second quarter Bob McBride immediately broke away for the first tally of the tilt with a remarkable slant off right tackle that carried him from his 40-yard stripe past the Lavender secondaries for 60 yards to a touchdown.

A minute later the battle assumed another character with Morty Targum injected into the fray. Intercepting McBride's forward pass on

College Scoring Machine Ranks Near Top in East

Although vanquished in the traditional Manhattan tussle the Lavender eleven still ranks as one of the leading offensive and defensive gridiron machines in the East, having rolled up a total of 132 points against its opponents while being tallied against only to the extent of 26 markers, as follows:

Lebanon Valley	6-6
St. Lawrence	38-0
Drexel	26-6
George Washington	33-0
R. P. I.	0-0
Norwich	19-0
Manhattan	10-14
Total	132-26

Bernie Bienstock is the outstanding individual scorer of the Parkermen with 55 points, and is followed on the tallying lists by Goldhammer and Targum.

JAYVEE ENCOUNTERS ST. JOHN'S RESERVES

Drieband Charges to Conclude Schedule in Stadium This Afternoon

Concluding one of the most successful seasons ever experienced by a Jayvee team, Allie Drieband's proteges will encounter a combination of St. Johns Frosh and varsity reserves this afternoon in the stadium. The game will be the sixth and last of a season during which the Lavender team has scored four victories and one tie.

Captain Munves and his men are in excellent condition for the tussle, which is expected to be the toughest of the year for the College yearlings.

Line Play Improves
After a rather poor start the line has finally hit its stride. This was in evidence in the Montclair and Brooklyn Center games when the line held like a veritable stone wall. The backfield continues to show its ability. The Munves-to-Hochman forward pass combination will no doubt play a determining part in the Jayvee's attack. Gitterman and Podger will constitute threats on attack. Reserve backfield material will be supplied from Coombes, O'Brien and Liscombe.

Saints Coached by Dooley
The Brooklyn Saints are not to be regarded lightly in this afternoon's fracas. Any team coached by Eddie Dooley, former all-American quarterback of Dartmouth can hardly be labelled a set-up.
Coach Drieband's charges are now on the crest of the wave following their four successive victories, but to down the Brooklyn Saints they will have to turn in a sterling performance.

LAST QUARTER RALLY WINS

Cronin's Touchdown Gives Jaspers Unexpected Victory Over Favored Lavender

TARGUM, McBRIDE STAR

Halpern's Field Goal Breaks 7-7 Deadlock to Give College Lead

By Stan Frank

Manhattan College invaded Lewisohn Stadium last Saturday with an earnest desire to take the measure of your own Lavender eleven, a team that had not been defeated in six previous contests this season, and one that had a golden opportunity to make football history at St. Nicholas Terrace by turning in the first unbeaten campaign ever registered. Three hours later, those same fond hopes went toppling with the goal-posts the delirious wearers of the Green had succeeded in uprooting, attesting to the fact that Coach Joe Schwarzer's men had won a hard-earned 14-10 victory in a pulsating, throbbing battle.

Touchdown in Last Minutes
By far the most sensational and well-played game in the four-year series, the encounter between the two metropolitan rivals last weekend marked Manhattan's first victory ever scored on the gridiron at the expense of the College. Ed Cronin's touchdown in the closing minutes of the last period brought the Jaspers from behind after Captain Willie Halpern had booted a placement goal early in the quarter to break a 7-7 deadlock and give the Lavender a short-lived 10-7 advantage.

Make no mistake about it. Manhattan brought to the New York stronghold an aggressive, determined squad of gridmen who wanted very much indeed to upset Coach Hal Parker's team, and succeeded in turning the trick in a courageous stand with its captain and best carrier, Vinny Draddy, on the sidelines all afternoon nursing a leg injury. In the absence of his leader, Bob McBride, Jasper halfback, played a stellar role, being directly responsible for the first touchdown with a scintillating 65-yard dash from scrimmage, and later, a 46-yard run that brought the ball deep into the College's territory.

Targum Defensive Star
If Manhattan had its McBride and Cronin, New York had Morty Targum to throw at the Green defenses—and the defenses were not impregnable when this high-stepping, brilliant junior was going places and doing things with a football tucked under his arm. It was Targum who intercepted a Riverdale forward soon after entering the game in the second period to gallop 55 yards for the score. With Bernie Bienstock (Continued on Page 4)

DR. ROBINSON LAUDS URBAN UNIVERSITIES

President, at College Banquet, Discusses Advantages of City Institutions

Declaring that collegiate education in the United States shows to fine advantage when dispensed through urban universities, President Frederick B. Robinson, delivering the Presidential address at the banquet tendered by the College last Friday night at the Hotel Biltmore for the delegates to the fifteenth annual meeting of the Association of Urban Universities, sketched the ascendancy which urban centres of higher learning have gradually assumed over those situated in rural districts.

Urban College Superior.

The President, reviewing the year's work of the Association pointed out that because of the nearness of many mechanical advantages to college institutions stationed in cities, the Association, organized with the essential purpose of investigating educational methods and opportunities peculiarly adapted to city universities, was so regulating its work as to emphasize the natural superiorities accruing to urban college life and learning.

Delegates from municipal and urban universities all over the country attended the banquet and also the six sessions of the convention, which extended over a period of three days, from last Thursday to Saturday. The College, Columbia University, N. Y. U., Fordham University, Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, Hunter College and St. John's University constituted the New York institutions which joined in providing both the material and the facilities for the gathering.

Turner Speaks on Tests.

Morning sessions, which involved lectures and round-table discussions on the various phases of College conditions and teaching methods, constituted the bulk of the technical work of the convention. These were held on each of the three days of the meeting at N.Y.U., Brooklyn Poly, Hunter College and Columbia University. Professor Egbert M. Turner represented the College at the Hunter College session with a paper on "Modern Types of Examinations and Their Uses."

In addition to the banquet at the Biltmore, receptions were tendered to the delegates by the College, Thursday evening in the Great Hall, by the Bronx Board of Trade, by the New York Chamber of Commerce, and by Columbia University.

Resolution Scores Hammond for Present Conditions in Restaurant

S. C. COMMITTEE REPORTS

Finds Lack of Sanitation Particularly Prevalent and Offensive

Public censure of the Hammond management for conditions prevalent in the Student Lunch Room has been declared by the Student Council in a resolution passed at its Friday meeting. The statement followed the Council's acceptance of the investigation report of the Lunch Room Committee, comprised of Meyer Rosenspan, chairman, Jack B. Rosenberg, Harold I. Cammer, Arnold Shukotoff, and Louis N. Kaplan, all seniors. The investigation covered the various complaints of the student body and The Campus as to the quality of the milk, food, sanitation and general conditions of the College Grill.

Complete Resolution

The resolution follows in full:
Resolution of the Student Council Concerning Conditions in the Student Lunch Room as of November 16, 1928:

WHEREAS: The Institution of the Student Concourse Lunchroom exists assumedly for the benefit of the students and,

WHEREAS: Its avowed purpose is to provide wholesome food at reasonable prices amid sanitary and congenial surroundings, and

WHEREAS: The findings of the Student Council Lunchroom Committee have revealed the following unsatisfactory, unsanitary, and offensive conditions:

Reasons for Complaints Stated

- 1) That the tables are cluttered with filthy dishes and rubbish during the luncheon hours,
- 2) That the floor is offensively filthy,
- 3) That the edibles are exposed on an unprotected counter and are handled by a diversity of hands before they are vended,
- 4) That the milk and cups are exposed to dust, dirt and generally maintained in an unhygienic fashion,
- 5) That odors proceeding from the kitchen permeate the Student Alcoves and produce an offensive characteristic.
- 6) That the dull brown color of the tables present a perennial appearance of dirt, even when they are clean,
- 7) That the color, furthermore, reflects little light and results in a forbidding atmosphere of gloom,
- 8) That the construction of the tables necessitate a standing position which is highly uncomfortable and unhygienic,
- 9) That the sandwiches are unat-

COL. LEWIS ISSUES R.O.T.C. PROMOTIONS

Numerous Vacancies to Occur Next Term Because of February Graduation

Lieutenant Colonel Lewis, in a statement issued Friday, made public the list of promotions of all cadet officers in the College R. O. T. C. regiment. Appointments, which became effective immediately, will continue until further notice of change will be issued at the beginning of the next semester.

Harry A. Heiman '29, has been promoted to the rank of Cadet lieutenant colonel, the highest position in the corps for this term. To the post of cadet major there have been five appointments; the names of the new officers follow arranged according to merit: Oscar Singer, Thomas J. Herbert, Walter J. Degnan, all of February '29; William E. Colford and Edwin P. Curtin of June '29. Although it has been the policy of the department to restrict all major posts to graduating cadets, exception has been taken in the case of the last two officers because of their outstanding service.

Twelve appointments have been made to the post of cadet captain; five men have been raised to the rank of first lieutenants; and forty-six, former cadets in the second year basic course, have been made second lieutenants. All promotions are listed in meritorious order, except those to the rank of second lieutenants which are to appear alphabetically until a substantial record of each man is obtained.

Lieutenant Colonel Lewis added that the post of cadet colonel would be filled next term. Because of vacancies through February graduation, two cadet lieutenants colonels, seven majors, and twelve captains will be chosen for appointment from the present list of officers.

Employment Office Asks Filing of Earning Sheets

Students who have received positions through the College employment bureau are requested to fill out their monthly earning reports and file them with A. L. Rose. Since a yearly report on student earnings must be given to the Faculty Committee on Employment, students not complying with the aforementioned request will be deprived of the benefits of the bureau.

Varsity Courtmen Meet Pro Stars

Quintet Training on Opposition Furnished by Former College Luminaries

With the perfection of a smoothly working quintet as his goal, Coach Nat Holman has been holding strenuous workouts daily for the varsity basketball squad for the past two weeks in the form of practice games which have been played against the Celtics, the Savage School five, and the newly formed Hakoah Club, consisting of Jewish court stars.

With six weeks of practice behind them already, the various teams on the floor are beginning to assume that swiftness and accuracy of play, and that perfect co-operation which invariably characterizes a Lavender court aggregation. Bucking up against strong opponents has done the men a world of good, and the team that will line up against St. Francis on December 1, should, on the basis of its pre-season training rigors, be a finely co-ordinating unit.

Coach Holman, who also captains the Hakoah five, had many aspirants for his professional aggregation present at the Gym last Friday engaged in fierce scrimmage with his varsity charges. Playing with Nat Holman against the Lavender were such luminaries of the court game as Goldberg and Meisel of last year's team, Passon, of the Washington and Philadelphia professional clubs, Schein, Irv Goldberg and Hodesblatt, all former College players, the latter a former Lavender captain and member of the University five, and Schoenfeld, Moskowitz and Karetsky, former Savage stars.

The varsity team composed of Liss and Sandak, forwards, Liftin, center, and Musicant and DePhillips, guards, had an easy time of it in defeating their opponents, every man contributing in the scoring. Only in the final minutes of the thirty minute scrimmage, when the Lavender stalwarts had perceptibly tired, and the Hakoahs had been relieved by fresh men, could Schoenfeld and Garetsky, newly substituted, break through the varsity defense to score. Trupin was unable to play because of a temporary leg injury.

Doubtless Liss, Sandak, Liftin, Spindell, Musicant and DePhillips will constitute a working squad of seven which will bear the brunt of the action during the coming campaign. These men have been working together nicely and potentially are just as strong a group as any that has represented St. Nicholas Heights on the court. A likely varsity lineup from this group includes Captain Liss and either Trupin or Sandak as forwards, Liftin or DePhillips, as center, and Spindell and Musicant as guards.

ship of the Education Club.

A new decision stating that henceforth "all clubs desiring to have major meetings may submit their requests as far in advance as possible" was rendered. However, the final designation of such meetings will be subject to the committee's approval one week prior to the requested date.

will shock those who stopped with the self-satisfying utterance, "Of course, we must educate youth in sex hygiene", for the Doctor is far ahead of them indulging in such pungent aphorisms as: "Virginity is sacrificed to felicity.... We may sum up the quintessence of the sexual revolution by saying the center of gravity has shifted from procreation to recreation." Consequently, "it is incumbent upon us to realize that what used to be called perversion has become the new morality."

Dr. Schmalhausen's book is divided into two parts, of which the second probably will be shunned by the layman, for the first glitters with enticing generalizations about love, Freud and sexual perversion, while the second deals more technically with the problem of the sexually frustrated and the neurotic, running tables showing results of students interviewed at several colleges, City College included.

The author compiles a questionnaire, a Psycho-Sexual Inventory which should become the rage at fraternity smokers, but because of its frankness will probably be evaded.

In the past decade Communist proselytizers have come to the laboring classes of the world with the fervid cry: "A program of political action based upon a Marxian interpretation of history will wipe the evils from the earth. While we admit the attendant complicating factors of religion, racial prejudice, and the human equation, we say that these are all superimposed upon a definite economic evolution that must be hastened by revolution."

Today Dr. Schmalhausen comes

LACROSSE TEAM HOLDS PRACTICE IN STADIUM

While no official lacrosse practice is going on at present, Coach Rody is having his candidates go through a preliminary drill each afternoon at the Lewisohn Stadium in which stick practice is the chief feature.

The College team will encounter Penn State, N.Y.U., Brown and Lafayette in its leading games during the coming season.

Candidates for the assistant managerships of lacrosse, should apply to the A. A. Board, Friday at 1 P. M. in the A. A. office. No previous apprenticeship is required.

charging into the arena, crying: "Where all other panaceas fail, love may yet save the world." Probably the quotation is unfortunate, for Dr. Schmalhausen has a real point to make that not even the most rabid economic Utopian will deny. In a chapter "Psychiatry to the Rescue", he develops the contention that the emphasis must be on psychopathology.

"My opinion is that the next great event in the history of human thought will be the reinterpretation of behavior from the angle of flexible psychopathology.... Climate, geography, religion, politics, economics, biology, sociology, psychology, sex, have all played their predominant and prepotent parts.... It seems increasingly clear that the motives of men (which underlie the meanings of history) cannot be keenly fathomed except by a group of philosophical analysts with an extraordinary equipment in psychopathology, social science, literature, the history of culture.... The stress will fall, I believe, on psychopathology." I can hear the Communists snorting, "Humph, the metaphysician in his glass tower."

FIRST MIKE PAYMENTS TO BE MADE THIS WEEK

All February men who have subscribed to the Microcosm are required to make their first payment of at least one dollar, before the end of this week.

Although a one dollar payment is the only requisite for this week the senior book committee is offering three views of the College, drawn by Si Moscovitz '29, as a special compensation to those who will complete their subscription payments by November 25.

JASPER TEAM SURPRISES COLLEGE ELEVEN

unable to break away throughout the game, Targum bore the brunt of the Lavender's attack and practically dominated the situation when New York had possession of the ball.

Clean crisp tackling was very much in evidence as the two teams struggled all afternoon with honors just about even with the possible exception, of course, of the score. The fast, rangy Manhattan forward wall broke through to nip the College's aerial attack except in the last two minutes when three completed passes brought New York to the enemy 18-yard stripe, where the ball was lost on downs as the final whistle blew.

Manhattan was forced deep back into its own territory early in the game with Les Barkman getting the ball down the field for long flights and Hank Rosner, Eddie Bok, and Willie Halpern going under the punts fast to down them in, to say the least, embarrassing positions for Joe Schwarzer's proteges. McBride, who did the kicking for his team, was at times very good, and then, sorry to relate, rather weak with his booting. Punting from behind his own goal, the Jasper half-back got off a wretched kick that only travelled 15 yards, but Barkman fumbled, Manhattan recovered, and it was just too bad.

The first score of the game came with startling suddenness. Carrying the ball from scrimmage on his own 35-yard marker, McBride cut back through guard, eluded the secondary defense, and sprinted 65 yards goalward. The same player kicked the goal making it 7-0.

Manhattan began to find the Lavender's line for long gains at this stage, but Morty Targum got in the way of a pass from the enemy and running it back from his own 45-yard line, dived over the last white stripe in a jumble of arms and legs as Ted Stein, pinch-hitting for Vin Draddy at quarterback, made a

Gentlemen:

While in Barff, Alberta, in 1909, I climbed Tunnell Mountain. On top of this mountain there is a cairn of stones where tourists leave their cards with remarks about the scenery, etc. Not having a card with me, I left a tin of Edgeworth Sliced, scribbled my name and address on a piece of paper, and said, "Have a fill on me."

I have kept up a haphazard correspondence with one of three who wrote me thanking me for the tin of Edgeworth. What makes me write you is that today from Australia I received two slices of Edgeworth with the words, "Have a fill on me," so you see Edgeworth keeps friends friendly.

desperate leap to stop the tally. Little Jerry McMahon, sent in expressly to kick the point after goal, came through in splendid style with a calm, deliberate drop-kick that split the uprights and put New York in the game again.

The College was knocking at the invader's goal after the intermission, but Manhattan dug in on its own 4-yard line and took the ball on downs ending the Lavender's bid for a touchdown that had carried the St. Nick gridmen for 65 yards straight down the field in a steady advance that was good for five consecutive first downs. Targum featured in this well-organized synchronization of line and backfield. On fourth down with the goal five yards away, Bienstock and Halpern dropped back for a placement kick that never came, for Bienstock grabbed the ball and dashed around his own right end only to be stopped a scant three yards from the goal.

Once again the plucky Green team held in the fourth quarter, after the Parkermen had marched down to the 5-yard line. Once again Bienstock and Halpern dropped back for a kick which this time came, Halpern sending the ball squarely between the posts from the 12-yard line to give the Lavender a 10-7 lead.

On the first play after the resulting kick-off, McBride again split the line for 46 yards, but New York held. Taking a hurried kick on the local 32-yard line, the aroused Green warriors slashed their way to the goal. Cronin found a stone wall at guard from the six-yard marker, but wheeled and turned left and unmolested for the score that gave his team the game. McBride kicked the point.

In a desperate attempt to pull the game out of the fire, the College squad opened up in the last three minutes. Abe Grossman passed to Bienstock for 10-yards and duplicated the toss to the same player, who fought his way to midfield. A first down through the line and a successful heave, Bienstock to Bok, brought the ball to the Jasper 18-yard stripe, where the inspired Manhattan defense and the final whistle put an end to the festivities—or rather started them as far as Manhattan was concerned.

HIGHLIGHTS OF LAVENDER-MANHATTAN GAME

his own 45-yard marker, Targum raced 55 yards, eluding would-be tacklers to score. Jerry McMahon, hurriedly sent in by Doc Parker, drop-kicked the extra point to knot the count.

In the final quarter with Targum hitting the Manhattan line with terrifying impact, sliding and wriggling off-tackle, or sweeping around the wings, and Bernie Bienstock chipping-in hard earned yardage, the Green seemed to blanch before the impetuous Lavender drive. Five first downs reeled off in a row put Captain Willie Halpern in a position for a placement kick which he planted squarely between the goal posts.

But the Lavender lead was short-lived as Bob McBride again broke away for a 45-yard run that brought the pigskin deep into Lavender territory soon after which Cronin swept around end for the winning tally.

Watching their eleven jump into the lead after Captain Willie Halpern's placement seemed to spell Lavender victory, the Manhattan stands were wrought up to a pitch of frenzy, which changed to fear as the despairing Lavender heroics in the closing minutes of play all but produced a tally.

Then psychologically prepared the Manhattan mob proceeded to stage a victorious demonstration in celebration. Overwhelming the few uniformed guards it besieged the stadium goal posts, uprooted them, and bore them around the track and out of the grounds behind the Green.

Lavender Harriers In Met. Title Run

Hill and Dalers to Present Full Strength for Metropolitan Championships

With its list of dual meets completed, the College cross-country team is all set for the next engagement of the season, the Metropolitan Intercollegiate, which will be held tomorrow afternoon over the Van Cortlandt Park course. This run marks the harriers' last appearance of the season before the National Intercollegiate.

Last year the hill and dalers finished in third position behind New York University and Fordham. This season the team's progress has been considerably hampered by injuries and illness, but tomorrow Coach Mackenzie hopes to put his strongest array on the field in an effort to lift the title.

The main hopes in tomorrow's chase center about the shoulders, or feet of Captain Hynes and Sam Goldberg. Both these men have finished well up in the various dual meets, and a victory by either of them is not very unlikely.

The other harriers in the run, Dlugatz, Lazarowitz, Halsband, Berckman, and Becker, are all primed for a fine effort, and it is upon them that the chance of a team victory rests.

In last week's Fordham engagement, the Lavender placed three men in the first five to finish, but the incapacitation of Lazarowitz and Berckman spelled defeat in the final team score. However, both of them have recovered, and are fit for the hard going which is sure to be encountered.

Besides Hynes and Goldberg, the favorites for capturing individual honors are Roth and Lerner of N.Y.U., Portier of Manhattan, and Brennan of Fordham.

Three programs of diversified appeal constitute the offering of the College's engineering societies to the student body at large for this week. Four motion pictures and one educational trip will make up these programs, which are sponsored by the A. S. C. E. and the A. I. C. E.

Thursday at 1:00 P. M. the A. S. C. E. will present two films in conjunction with the Du Pont De Nemours Company in Compton Hall. These pictures, "Digging the Largest Tunnel" and "Building the Largest Span" form a part of the societies' program to generate interest in the work of technologists. Since both of these reels are non-technical they are expected to be interesting to the student body.

Immediately preceding this feature at 12:30, the A. I. C. E. will also present two films at Compton Hall. One "Big Deeds" will show how castings and large machinery are made. The other will treat with the making of Mazda lamps.

The students of telephony will make a trip to the Audubon Telephone Exchange, Wednesday at 1:45. Other students interested can attend.

'32 DEBATE TEAM CHOSEN FOR TERM

After two weeks of competitive tryouts the Freshman debating team was chosen last Thursday at 12 o'clock in room 222. The '32 men who were temporarily picked for places on the aggregation are Schwartz, Levy, Rosenfield, and Manner.

Ben Nelson '31, manager of the Frosh Debating Team, announced that candidates are still needed. The present choice is not definite and changes will probably be made. Those freshmen that are interested in debating may apply for tryouts to Mr. Pennington in the Public Speaking Department Office.

The first intramural debate has been arranged with the Soph Debating Team. This is scheduled for December 13. The members of the '31 team who will oppose the frosh are Leo Bradspies, A. Glickstein, and John Porter.

The Frosh Team also contemplates an ambitious winter schedule containing debates with Fordham, N. Y. U., Rutgers, Upsala, and Manhattan. Dates for these meetings will be announced very soon by the Debating Council.

FROSH SWIMMERS DEFEAT TOWNSEND HARRIS, 33-29

Lavender Cubs Open Season Auspiciously; Richman Wins in Fast Time

The Freshman swimming team defeated the Townsend Harris tankmen in their first dual meet of the season by a score of 33 to 29, in the College pool last Friday afternoon.

Outstanding among the exhibitions of the contest were the 50-yard backstroke swim won by Sid Richman of the Frosh in 34 and 4-5 seconds, and the 50-yard breaststroke competition which was captured by Blain of Harris in 34 and 1-5 seconds, with Gall of the College, but a fifth of a second behind.

The relay was a close, exciting event. The College cubs led during the early stages of the race, but were overtaken on the final lap when Mortimer of Harris sprinted his fifty yards in fine time to covet eight points.
