nich will be entered in up Tournament next be the first time a Oramatic Society has ee in charge of the carnival consists of an, chairman, and Ryan, Ceough and

etball Games and ng Matches AT AT THE IALL PHARMACY 23rd STREET l Students

neon 45c. RY DAY Tea Room Service

umpty-ump

up is See

ED. 41 TO BE MADE ONE YEAR COURSE AFTER FEB. 1932

The College of the City of New York

ED. 41 TO BE MADE ONE YEAR COURSE AFTER FEB. 1932

VOLUME 48, No. 23

NEW YORK CITY, FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1931

VARSITY BALL TEAM TROUNCES PANZER: LOSES TO UPSALA

Parkermen Maintain .500 Average by Beating Panzer, 7-2, and Then Losing

TEAM'S LINE-UP CHANGED

Oglic out of Both Cames with Leg Injury Suffered in Rutgers Contest

Your Lavender baseball team is still having its ups and downs. On Monday, against Panzer, the St. Nick team, playing smart, heady ball, had one of its ups and won by a score of 7-2. But on Wednesday the College outfit had a down and lost to Upsala, 8-3. So the Parkermen still have that now famous .500 average for the season

After the Lavender had downed Pratt, many observers thought the .500 jinx was going to be set down on the seat of its pants on Wednesday.

But the jinx must have worn rubber trousers or something of that sort, for it would not stay down despite the fact that the College got seven hits, only one less than the

Oglio Hit by Pitched Ball

Dr. Parker had to revamp his lineup for both the Panzer and Upsala contests because of the defection of Al Oglio who was hit in the leg by a pitched ball in the Rutgers game.

In the first engagement of the week, Captain Wally Schwartz replaced Oglio at second base, while Hank Berger substituted for Schwartz behind the plate and Mel Levy played third in place of Berger. Against Upsala Berger and Schwartz changed

Four pitchers, Jerry Rauschkolb, "Beats" Jacobs, Nat Seigal and "Lefty" Cohen shared the mound assignment in the Panzer contest. (Continued on Page 4)

"Frontiers" Issued For Second Time

Social Problems Club Urges Student to Contemplate Anarchic Society

Frontiers, publication of the Social Problems Club, whose first issue was sequestered by the College authorities made its second appearance Tuesday. The publication contains articles on current affairs, military science, the cinema, and several contributions by readers.

of the student, urging "contemplation of the anarchic society about him," and an application of "classroom and laboratory methods to social conditions."

In "Current Affairs," Mac Gordon has gathered an interesting array of items of social bearing. The author of "Calculus and Revolution," draws an analogy between mathematical procedure and its application to social conditions. J. P. Lash contributes an article, explaining the his- Downtown '33 class, will soon make Max Weiss, a member of the Social cil. The plan had been abandoned Problems Club who was suspended earlier in the term due to financial for insubordination. By "orienta- and executive difficulties but was reting" itself in undergraduate activities, "however trivial," Frontiers ing. believes the student body can rid itself of "entangling Trustee regula- the paper may be submitted to secre-

Ed. 41 to Be Made One Year Course Beginning With February 1932 Term

so that it must be taken in two successive semesters, three hours per week each term. However, it will continue to be given under the old system, one term, five hours a week or those students who will graduate in either February or June 1932.

Because of this change in Education 41, which follows a sequence of courses, including Philosophy 5, Education 11, Education 16, Education 21, students who intend to teach in the elementary schools of New York City, must plan their elective work well in advance, as the above courses are all prerequisites of Education

Department's Approval Necessary

In addition, the student must also have the approval of the Departcompleted the above courses to Main Building.

Education 41, has been modified | gether with Education 152 and 153 is qualified to take the examination at the Board of Education for a li cense to teach in the elementary schools

The Department of Education has recommended the following arrangement as offering the most satisfactory order in which students may elect the requisite courses; namely Philosophy 5, and Education 11, upper sophomore semester; Education . 16 and Education 152, lower junior semester; Education 21 and Education 158, upper junior semester; first half of Education 41, lower senior semester and the practice teaching required with Education 41.

Students, doubtful of their ability to meet the requirements or desiring information, may arrange an interview with some member of the ment of Education. A graduate of Department of Education at the ofthe College who has successfully fice of the Department, Room 114

LACROSSE MEN BOW TO N.Y.U. TEAM, 4-1

by Fast Voilet Team at Ohio Field

A winning streak, that had stretched through three games was snapped when the College lacrosse team bowed to the New York University twelve, by a 4-1 count. Wednesday afternoon at Ohio Field. The Lavender stick-wielders played a steady but uninspired game and could not match the speed and aggressiveness of their rivals.

The Violet combination, familiar with the playing surface and the ground rules of the field, started with a small advantage over the St. Nick aggregation, but the outcome of the ame and the play of the team, came as a distinct disappointment to College fans, just the same. It had been expected, especially after the great game Ruby Schwartz and his mates turned in, in the 2-0 victory over Hobart, the day after that redoubtable team had conquered N.Y.U. by a 7-0 count, that a Lavender lacrosse team would return victors over a Violet twelve, for the first

Midfield Play Ragged

The midfield play, that had been so much a feature of the previous St. Nick games, was badly deficient in the match with the Hall of Famers. This was mainly due to the absence of George Clemens in the first half of the battle and of Bernie Kushner, in the second. Clemens. one of the main factors in both the An appeal is made to the interest Lavender attack and defence, turned up ill last Wednesday, and did not start. His loss was felt keenly, as he was far from his former self when he was finally injected in the second half. Kushner, meanwhile, was (Continued on Page 4)

DOWNTOWN "SUN" TO APPEAR SOON

The Sun, official newspaper of the torical formation of the Left Wing, its appearance, according to an an-The editorial restates the case of nouncement made by the class counsumed at the last Council meet-

> Applications for all positions on tary Kimmel.

'32 COUNCIL FILLS 'MIKE' COMMITTEE

Elected to the New Positions

The Uptown '32 Class Council last Fuesday elected Harry Rosenfield. president of the class, and Sol Berlad, vice president, the two representatives of the '32 council on the special Microcosm committee which was recently delegated by the Student Council to select two candidates for the position of editor and two for business manager of the '22 Microcosm.

The committee will meet today at 2 p. m., in the Mike office, to select two candidates each for both posi tions. The other three members of the committee recently chosen by the Student Council are Hy Miller '31, president of the Student Council, Morton Liftin '31, editor of The Campus, and Abraham H. Raskin, president of the

32 Class Stages Dance Tomorrow

To Hold Last Informal Event of Season in Gym Tomorrow Night

Now that Spring is here to stay till Summer comes around, the Uptown '32 class will inaugurate the perennial string of Collegiate dances

Features aplenty, including Anita laverne, Broadway's new juvenile star; and a prominent hypnotist, nhose presence will lend a sinister touch to the festivities, will add to the glamor and fun of the cavorting fourth year men. Charlie Binder and his seven-piece "Toe Teasers' orchestra will make an effort to be worthy of their title. As a fitting climax balloon and spotlight dances are promised by the chairman of the arrangements committee. Tickets are being sold for $1.50 per couple by committeemen in the Junior Alcove.

Arrangements are being undertaken by a committee of which Irv-

TRACKMEN TO RUN IN PENN CARNIVAL TONIGHT, TOMORROW

Three Relay Teams Entered-Bullwinkle to Run Anchor in Two Relays

BABOR EXPECTED TO PLACE

vender Represented by Strongest Squad in History-Ready for Keen Competition

One year ago a blond-haired youth astounded the track world by turning in a phenomenal three-quarter mile victory over Leo Lermond in the historic Penn Relays. That feat started George Bullwinkle on his series of outdoor triumphs which culminated in his victory in the Intercollegiate Mile Championship and established him as one of the world's premier runners.

Today and tomorrow night Bullwinkle will again compete in the Penn Relays, but this time as a memher of two Lavender relay teams. Coach Mac Kenzie has entered teams in three relays: the mile, medley and College's Winning Streak Broken Harry Rosenfield and Sol Berlad will participate in his specialty, the 440 sprint. Captain Fred Babor high jump.

McKenzie Expects Good Time

In each of these events the College will be represented by the strongest squad that the Lavender. has ever had. While the best teams in intercollegiate circles will be met the St. Nick men have an excellen chance of figuring highly in the final (Continued on Page 4)

Lavender to Make Appearance Soon

Literary Magazine to Be Issued Monday After Lapse of Two Years

After four terms of inactivity, Lav ender wil reappear Monday, April 27 and will be sold for fifteen cents and will be sold for fifteen cents a ROTC Band Plays The feature of this literary magazine will be a review by Leo Abra-ham of Prof. Morris R. Cohen's book, Miss Laura Newell of Capitol also contain about thirty pages of fiction, poetry, and critical essays. Half the Issue Subscribed to

In previous terms, the publication was under the direction of The Campu, and was included in the Union. This issue, however, was taken over perennial string of Collegiate dances tomorrow at the Gym, when the lower schiors turn out to "trip" around on their lady friends' toes, around on their lady friends' toes, around on their lady friends' toes, the six-hundred copies that have been the six-hundred copies that have been by Prof. H. R. Holton of the Military Science department, Lieutenant Erntraining, nor reducation, nor trade. practically all of the copies must be sold to insure financial success, Millhauser declared. If the student body supports this issue, announces the editor, another number will be printed in June. The Union, in all probability, will again offer Lavender as an inducement to its sale, if the book is Lavender's career began in 1923, after Mercury had left vacant the literary field by turning to the humorous. Nat Berall, president of The Campus Association and former editor of The Campus, founded it that year, and it was published twice a term as a literary product of The lication to be stopped.

Intelligent View of Crime Urged by Clarence Darrow Before Great Hall Audience

Downtown Honor Society Receives New Applicants

Applications to Soph Alpha second year honorary society of the School of Business will be received up to and including May 1, 1931.

All candidates have been requested to submit their applications, containing their scholastic achievements and extra-curricular services preformed during the first two years of their stay at College to any of the present members including: Sid Rubin '33, Jack Winocur '33, Seymour Grudin '33, Milt Blum '33, or Dr. Kurt E. Richter.

DOWNTOWN COUNCIL SUPPORTS BOATRIDE

Group Prohibits Distribution of "Frontiers" Downtown Until Constitution is Approved

The Downtown Student Council College Boatride in conjunction with the Uptown Center. The Council has approved of the terms offered by the Uptown group following the negotiations of its newly-appointed Interenter Relations Committee.

The plan as accepted by the Down town Council provides for financial compensation for each ticket sold but mposes no obligations on that group,

The Council withheld permission for the Uptown Social Problems Club to distribute "Frontiers" in the Downtown Center until the society submits its constitution to the Council for approval. The request was made by Leo Sossnof '34, Downtown Circulation Manager of "Frontiers."

At Business Center

Theatre Orchestra is Soloist

Playing to a capacity audience, the College R.O.T.C. Band of 100 pieces and Miss Laura Newell, soloist, entertained the Business Center yesterben subscribed to. There will be no est A. Hopf was introduced. Lt. Hopf advertisements in this magazine, and gave a short history of the band and do something in life, crime will be urged the Downtown men to co-oper- abolished—and not before. Punishate with him by coming out for the ment is a cruel and bigoted word military band.

"Old Glory Passes By" and Shubert's "Song of Love" from "Blossom Time" were the first two selec tions played by the corps. At this academic career. In line with this, point Miss Newell, a member of Mn. he advocated the establishment of or Bowes Radio Family and con- more vocational schools. sidered by many one of the premier harpists in the country, rendered the "Introduction Allegro" by Ravel. Miss Newell was received with a tumultuous ovation and was presented with a bouquet of flowers.

band playing the "Glory of the is the former Miss Louise Stein. The ing Herbert and Joe Michaels are Campus. This continued until 1929 Trumpets," by Brockenshire, and se-child will be called George Frank. when a lack of funds caused the publections from the "Chocolate Soldier" by Oscar Strauss.

Famous Lawyer Advocates Extension of Vocational Training to Lower Classes

INVITED BY POLITICS CLUB

Religion, Politics and Probibition Derided in Fiery Speech Before Students

By Sanford Greenblatt

The characteristic fighting grouch of Clarence Darrow, the old warrior and champion of justice, was transformed into a genial smile as fifteen hundred students and faculty members of the College, who jammed the Great Hall to capacity, rose and cheered as he mounted the platform to address them on the subject 'Crime and Its Prevention."

Mr. Darrow, his shoulders a bit bowed and his voice husky from the many court battles he has waged, was introduced by Professor William B. Guthrie, faculty adviser of the Politics Club, under whose auspices the lecture was given. That society should prepare our people for life in vill undertake the semi-annual City order to abolish crime, was the keynote of Mr. Darrow's address.

Derides Religion

With biting irony, Darrow derided religion as a means of determining right from wrong. "In the last war," he exclaimed, "we killed twenty million men, and the preachers appreciated the ceremony. 'Thou shalt not kill' apparently condemns only retail killing, while wholesale slaughter is without the pale. The fact that we have over five hundred sects shows the ambiguity and uselessness of religion.'

Taking up the idea of law as a bais of our conception of justice, Mr. Darrow declared that we must consider the type of men who are making the laws. "They are not thinkers, but politicians whose sole employment is to make laws for others to obey. One-fourth to one-half of the prisoners in the federal jails are there for something that wasn't wrong fifteen years ago-and still isn't considered wrong by an overwhelming majority—taking a drink!

Stresses Value of Education

"Violation in defiance of law is still is a good way of doing away with laws that are wrong," Darrow vehemently asserted.

"When society prepares everyone to and doesn't deter one from crime."

Emphasis, Darrow maintained, should especially be laid on educating those who have 210 capacity for an

Son to Dean and Mrs. Edwards

A seven and a half pound son was born to Dr. and Mrs. George W. Edwards on Monday at their home, 12 The concert was concluded with the Gramercy Park South. Mrs. Edwards

> Mother and son are reported doing well.

CAMELS n the new ge which and germs

e flavor ┄

The Campus

College of the City of New York

"News and Comment"

Vol. 48, No. 23 Friday, April 24, 1931

FOUNDED IN 1907 Published sixty-four times during the College year, from the fourth week in May, excepting the fourth week in May, excepting the fourth week in January, the first week in February, and the first week in April, by THE CAMPUS ASSOCIATION, Incorporated, at the College of the City of New York, 118th Street and St. Nicholas Terrace, and 21rd Street and Lexington Ave.

College Offices: Uptown Room 411, Main Building Downtown-Room 303 Telephone Edgecombe 4-6408

.....Editor-in-ChiefBusiness Manager

MANAGING BOARD Aaron Addelston '32 Max Benko '31.... Samuel S. Ellman '32.

Philip T. Delfin 31 Arthur Karger 32 Arthur Karger 32 Arthur Karger 32 Anthony Terino 32 Austin J. Bonic 32 Benjamin Kean 33 Austin J. Bonic 32 Felix Oscal 32 Charles Reichnan 34 Milton Sandberg 34 Harry Weinstein 34

Issue Editor:

Harry Weinstein '34

"FRONTIERS" APPEARS AGAIN

THE unmolested appearance of the first legal issue of "Frontiers" in the Student Concourse this past Tuesday should suffice to allay the fears of some who expressed the opinion that, by some technical excuse or another, the College authorities would succeed in continual postponement of their official sanction. Feacefully in-clined individuals might at this point suggest that this official sanction might have been secured two months ago, in which case a good deal of hard feeling and severe disciplinary procedure would certainly have been avoided.

Even a hasty comparison between the present issue, and the outlaw of February makes it quite clear that the April number is calmer in tone, less obviously one-sided in viewpoint, and more interesting to the average reader because of the absence of explicit propaganda. "Frontiers" points out opportunities for improvement in our civilization, and suggests remedies for each, but succeed s in allowing the reader to decide for himself, if he can, what one modern movement promises a solution to all problems.

Continuing their recent policy of less huzzas and more sense, the editors are calm and rational in the presentation of their opinion on the consuspension of Max Weiss, former president of the Social Problems Club. They confess their inability to solve the question of the cause of this severe discipline; since the authoritis firmly deny that discrimination because of political views is entirely absent they seem to say, it is quite difficult, almost impossible to reach any other conclusion but that there is no rational basis for the action taken. In all probabiliy, many other students must find themselves in agreement with this view.

If "Frontiers" can become a real organ of student opinion on modern social problems, it will be a credit to a liberal college; if, through indiscretion, it confines itself to proselying for one particular idea, it will defeat its own purpose.

MORE STUDENT PARTICIPATION

THE Campus carried an article in Tuesday's issue announcing that the one-act play carnival scheduled to be given this term had been postponed until next semester. One of the reasons advanced for this postponement was that there was a conflict of events.

We believe that if the faculty members supervising this undertaking had used better judgment and more tact, there would have been no conflict of events and no necessity for postponement. The carnival would have been held and the various branches of the City College would have been more closely knit together for the

The executive committee, composed entirely of faculty members, is directly responsible, we feel, for the breakdown of preparations for the carnival. It has been asserted that students themselves are incapable of successfully completing the complicated arrangements necessary for such an event. It should be equally apparent that no such arrangements can be made without their participation; whether they can contribute any particular valuable suggestions unthought of by a faculty committee may well be doubted. Nevertheless, were they permitted to attend the mettings of the committee on arrangements, their co-operation would have been secured, and the really minor difficulties which are preventing the staging of the carnival would have disappeared before a will to stage. The committee failed to achieve its purpose because it failed to secure the interest of the students in what they felt was not a student, but a faculty project. Tact and diplomacy in dealing with the student organizations were lacking.

Garqoyles

We used to sit in the darkest dark To us it was all the same. To me, she was the light of my eyes, And I, she said, her flame.

But now the world is dark again, No more I want to shout, I used to be her flame, it's true, But then she put me out.

I respectively submit this as a theme song for the Left Wing.

"Save Your Comments for Commencement."

Of course you've heard of the follow who died of eart failure when he received his diploma. His commencement was his finish.

And when the kazoo proposed marriage to the other little musical instrument, she heard him sing wistfully, 'I'm just a picolo."

Force of Habit

Texas Guinan takes her wrist watch into the jewelry epair-shop an dsays, "Give this little watch a big hand."

On April 13, fellows had another chance to pass exams they might have passed at the end of last term. I mean, of course, the re-exams.

If you make an A, B, C, or D your final mark is D. If you make an F, you get an F.

I've never really given much thought to it, but some thing tells me that there is something basically unsound in such reasoning. I can't exactly put my finger on it

And speaking of exams-cribbing and how to stop it has long been a problem in every institution.

Of course the custom of leaving young children in cribbs might be discontinued, since that may leave a predisposition for cribbing.

DIANA

Dana was so very chaste And easy on the eye, That's the reason she became That silver moon on high.

But when birdies sing and flowers bud, And all the world's in tune; When everybody's making love-Who wants to be the moon?

The teaching of formal grammar-we learn in our Ed. 41 class-is being discontinued in the elementary grades. This has, as a result, brought an added burden to the foreign language departments who have to teach the difference between direct and indirect objects-as witness the following:

Prof. (exasperated)-Well, then, can you give me a entence in English with an object? Student .- I went home.

Prof .- What's the object in that sentence? Student .- "Went" is the object.

Prof .-- And why is "went" the object? Student.-Because I went home to eat-that was the bject of my going home.

Dr. Rivlin, the most popular of the younger men of the College, tells of a similar incident in the yellementary Teacher.-Give me a relative pronoun. Pupil.—She.

Teacher.—And why is "she" a relative pronoun? Pupil.—Because it's a pronoun and it refers to my

EINSTEIN AT HOME

I'm tired of long receptions and of shaking tons of hands. I'm sick of U.S. food that snobs the salivary glands.

I'm weary of the banquets formed on the least pretext. I'm bored with cheery greetings and the ladies oversexed.

The land of jazzy speedings truly is no speed at all; Their pride: their haste and hurry is but relatively small.

I'm glad I'm at my homeland full of sweet Limburger cheese, Where I can squat and chat with iny old pal, Betelguese.

Ad in the American "Boy wanted for delivery in cork store." Sort of light work, eh?

INDORE RICHSTONE

THE ALCOVE

On Diaries

DURING the past few years I have made several abortive attempts to keep a diary. The longest period of time covered by any of these spasms of self-expression was four days-laziness, lack of time, or a realization of the futility of the entire affair always cut my journal short before I had fairly started. But I shall start again soon in the hope of remedying the intolerable situation which exists at present.

My reason for starting the diary was not merely the self-satisfaction of putting down on paper any random thoughts which I may have had. That has always appeared to me to be rather foolish. The idea of flipping back the pages of a book just to find out what you happened to think on a certain day is very unsatisfying. Reading some of my old composition papers assured me of that. Essays which at the time of writing appeared to be the last word on a specific subject were trivial when reread a year later. I had no reason for believing that ideas set down in diary form would be differ-

Neither was I motivated by a deire to increase my facility with the English language. I have always had too much writing to do in my History and English courses to want to burden myself wtih more just for the exercise.

No, my reasons were more altruistic, and unselfish. I was writing a diary for the use of posterity. When some unnamed biographer in the future should discover that public demand necessitated a "Life and Letters of Alexander Faber" should he bethwarted for the lack of authoritative information about my life? Absurd! As the only person apparently aware of the fact that the inmost details of my early career would be wanted some day, I feit it by bounden duty to record them.

But when one looks upon a diary as a future source book for historians the difficulties of keeping it multiply. For one thing, the material that goes in must be carefully edited. Supoose for example that with the years the legends about A. F. grow. School children are taught about the virtues and pristine purity of that great man. And then some one comes along and discovers my diary and in it the tales of several juvenile escapades. Another childish hero would be shattered. The men who write the schoolbooks would either have to rewrite them or else be burdened by a conscience which would be inflicting constant self-torture for the heinous crime of telling lies to school children. And all because I wasn't discreet in writng my personal journal.

While I was confidently expecting that the diary would be opened after my death, it never occurred to me that anyone would dare to read it while I was yet alive. I always believed that this was one of those things, like opening another's mail, boxing seems to be the only sport in that gentlemen just did not do. Yet which City College has defeated St.

inding nothing better to do, sat down and read my diary, which at that time was two days old. When I found out about it through an inadvertent remark of his I thought I had discovered a new low level for human degradation. This particular someone was later elected to the City College chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, which is an B. Guthrie: The Chevalier Treaties practically negligible. I grant that same respect for a P.B.K. key.

23 ST. DEUTSCHER VEREIN TO STAGE BEER FESTIVAL

A beer and pretzel party will be held tonight by the Downtown Deutscher Verein in room 921-A. Dean Edwards is expected to speak.

Several German selections will be sung by club members to provide the proper atmosphere for the affair. The price of admission will be forty cents.

Moment Musical

Another Philadelphia Triumph We, who have within the City of A LTHOUGH I am a candidate for New York no leader in the formation the B.S. degree, I feel duty. eminent conductor and educator, Leopold Stokowski. Once again, on Tuesday evening, did the noted musician and his superb ensemble invade our own Metropolitan Opera House and show how opera could and should be given.

Stravinsky's "Oedipus Rex," to which the greater part of the program was devoted, is not, in the strict sense of the word, an opera, but rather an opera-oratoria-that is, the action is plastic and the composition of much of the music is formal, after the fashion set by Bach. At this hearing, the chief protagonists of the ancient Greek drama were represented by heroic puppets while the singers, wearing appropriate raiment, sat with the chorus. In this limited space, I can do no more than state that these men are college graduates that the performance, in all of its phases, was of the highest order, imparting to its full extent, the sombre majesty of Stravinsky's splendid setting of the famous tragedy.

Following the opera came the muchd'Acier." Fitted to a new scenario by to be a satire on modern American industry. The music is brilliant, Board of Trustees' demand that peppery, possessing all the attributes B.B.A. students write a thesis, unless which are customarily attached to a the authorities are of the opinion that score written by the triumphant the B.B.A. curriculum is less rigoryoung Russian. The choreography is ous than that of the School of Liberal of the type which, ten years ago would have been hailed as highly then the purpose of the thesis resymbolic, and therefore artistic. quirement is only to add sufficient dif-There are the conventional downtrodden workers and the down-tread- it on an equal footing with the others ing marines, the Soviet hammer and insofar as direct labor hours consickle projected on a large screen, sumed is concerned. This I consider and other paraphernalia destined to an unwise move. It would be preferarouse cur latent revolutionary spirit. able, in my opinion, to affect the The ballet was performed with a good equalization by adding new subjects deal of energy and brought to a suc- to the curriculum or by changing the cessful close an evening highly significant in the field of modern music. the schedule, rather than resorting to

CORRESPONDENCE

To the Editor of the Campus:

I was no little surprised upon reading last Friday's issue of The Campus to read an article which stated that the Boxing Team had just completed a poor season in which it won only one out of four meets; namely, that with St. John's. This is especially hard to understand in view of the fact that the previous issue carried the story of our recent victory over St. Thomas in Scranton.

With your kind permission, I would like to inform your readers that, instead of four meets, the Boxing Team competed in seven meets this past season, and of these we were returned the victors in four; as follows, St. John's, twice, Brooklyn College, and St. Thomas. May I also call to your attention the fact that room when I was out, and, apparently kind enough to correct your misleading errors.

Leo M. Heimlich,

WNYC Air College

Monday, April 27

7:55 to 8:15-Dr. Seymour Copstein: "Herman Melville." Tuesday, April 28

7:40 to 8:15—Dr. Guy Snider The Nature of Foreign Trade." Wednesday, April 29

7:35 to 7:55—Professor Walter Williamson: "The Changing Perspective of the Purpose of Intercollegiate Athletics."

7:55 to 8:15—Dr. S. L. Sumberg: "German Theatre of Today." Thursday, April 30

7:55 to 8:15-Dr. Rene H. Drioult-Gerald: "Paul Morand."

23rd STREET

of contemporary musical taste, are bound to decry the unfair discrimiindeed fortunate for our proximity nation on the part of the College auto Philadelphia, which harbors the thorities against the B. B. A. students who constitute the major portion of my public.

Three distinct phases of this inequality of treatment have come to my attention—to wit, the thesis requirement, compulsory attendance at two Business Policy Forums per term, and the unjustifiable charging of fees for non-elective courses. From this conning tower these appear to be incontrovertible evidence that the Bachelor of Business Administration degree is being treated like a step-

No other baccalaureate degree in the curriculum calls for the compilation of a thesis. It is true that candidates for Masters and Doctors degrees must produce authoritative manuscripts on some phase of their "major," but it must be remembered and are more mature than the aspirants for the B.B.A. honor. The problems concomitant with the collecting and interpreting of authentic data do not faze the graduate student as much as the undergraduate. hailed ballet of Prokofieff, "Pas The latter has not yet acquired the "sangfroid" and self-confidence which Lee Simonson, the work is purported a sheepskin imparts to its possessor I can see no fair reason for the Arts and Sciences. If such is the case, ficulty to the Business course to place make-up of the subjects already on -Robert J. Cohn, Jr. the energy-squandering procedure of making a thesis a prerequisite for a degree. Frankly I feel that the thesis writer's gain of knowledge is not commensurate with the amount of labor expended in the pursuit of data and the organization of the material. Most Business School theses deal with such petty subjects that they are of little value. The knowledge gleaned from one of these documents is very specialized, and I think that the addition of several courses dealing with broad economic principles would be more valuable to the student and render him more fit to "hold his own" in the business world. Compulsory attendance at Forums, the nightmare of many B.B.A.'s, is another unwise measure. If a student is not interested enough to listen, of his own accord, to the prominent speakers who are secured for these meetings, the fact that attendance is made compulsory will not increase his interest. The result of this rule is inevitably unsatisfactory. During the entire lecture, the disinterested student chats with his neighbor, paying John's for some years? I would no attention to the speaker and serv-Someone once wandered into my greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to bear the greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to bear the greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to bear the greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to bear the greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to bear the greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to bear the greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to bear the greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to bear the greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to bear the greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to bear the greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to be who wish to be a greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to be a greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to be a greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to be a greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to be a greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to be a greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to be a greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to be a greatly appreciate it if you would be who wish to be a greatly appreciate it is not appreciate it if you would be who wish to be a greatly appreciate it is not appreciate it who wish to hear the guest.

Technically, the charging of fees for such courses as Accountancy 201 Manager of Boxing and 202 is not direct discrimination against the B.B.A. student since these classes are open to candidates for all degrees. But this argument is not sound in view of the fact that the there are fees in some of the subjects required for the other degrees, but there is ample justification for these levies. In Chemistry, we are given a set of chemicals in return for our assessment. In Biology, the return is in the form of animals to be dissected for inspection purposes. But what are we given in Accountancy? Nothing! All the material-paper and ink-is supplied by the student. I can see no justification for these fees, especially in view of my having taken Physics 3 and 4 where we consumed enormous quantities of electrical energy without paying a Canadian dime. SOL MAGID boys call th be well-fou reputation viating this not in the athletic au which the (Gate cras tion, but th reached its effecting ad gently over $\mathbf{B}^{ ext{UT that}}$ the crasher, for his slick Age of gate the strong ar nolly, and,

O^{NE son} is tha

crashing wa

tional center College at crasher to le at about two is a very fev football gami And such str O^{NE} syste

When the tick He then daw ticket collecte This method At one foo

peration as t of him get in able, but this buying a ticke

SUDDENL He tore lines. He pre his head, and and succintly:

Dear doo

Kindly friend of The St. Joh It was held in have bought a

to the droves o

at all perturbe the boys turned EVERY know list of availabl little fellow, ha way masterfull to the desk, slaj out: "I'm Posna P.S. He got The big white entrance on the past season, with preliminary gan door and starte that he was Alb MAC looked Albie Boo the two argued door. The dim of persuasive tal The unpreced to gate crashing. est prosperity in easily. In low crowds. And la

There is a mai not draw great th to attempt to for I am talking no crasher has no qu on the afternoon

TREET

I am a candidate for egree, I feel dutythe unfair discrimit of the College authe B. B. A. stutute the major por-phases of this inment have come to wit, the thesis reisory attendance at y Forums per term, ble charging of fees courses. From this se appear to be invidence that the ess Administration reated like a step-laureate degree in ls for the compilais true that candiand Doctors deuce authoritative me phase of their st be remembered college graduates ure than the as-B.A. honor. The nt with the collecting of authentic the graduate stune undergraduate. yet acquired the -confidence which to its possessor r reason for the s' demand that te a thesis, unless f the opinion that ım is less rigor-School of Liberal such is the case, f the thesis readd sufficient difss course to place with the others abor hours con-This I consider would be prefer-, to affect the by changing the ects already on han resorting to ng procedure of l that the thesis owledge is not the amount of pursuit of data of the material. theses deal with nat they are of wledge gleaned ık that the ades dealing with ples would be udent and renhold his own"

ng new subjects

ice at Forums, y B.B.A.'s, is e. If a student h to listen, of he prominent red for these attendance is ot increase his his rule is in-During the iterested stughbor, paying ker and servince to those uest. ging of fees ountanc iscrimination nt since these idates for all ment is not act that the rts and Scise courses is grant that of the subher degrees, ification for try, we are n return for ogy, the renimals to be rposes. But ccountancy? ---paper and student. I these fees, aving taken e consumed ectrical en-

adian dime. MAGID

A Vocational Counsel

ONE somewhat universal complaint against the usual college education is that it does not prepare the student for later life, for what the boys call the stern and stark realities of existence. This complaint may be well-founded, but here on the Heights, along with the College's just patriotic organizations reputation for scholarly attainment and classical learning, a course obviating this educational drawback is slowly being evolved. This course is not in the curriculum, but is being involuntarily offered by the College athletic authorities. I refer to the profession of gate crashing, for which the College student is aptly suited by temperament.

Gate crashing, in one form or another, is probably as old as civilization, but the desire to see something for nothing has undoubtedly reached its peak in modern times with Tammany Young, One-eyed Connolly, and, trailing a few paces behind, the City College student. Gate crashing was once a very crude profession, and the common way of effecting admittance to any particular event was to clout the guard gently over the head and walk in over his prostrate form.

Professional Pride BUT that method, effective as it was, is frowned upon in the best of gate crashing circles today. The rough stuff is strictly taboo, and the crasher, who takes a Rotarian pride in his profession, is now noted for his slick manipulations and sly subterfuges. This is the Golden Age of gate-crashing; a premium is put on the alert brain, rather than the strong arm, and thus the profession flourishes in all the great educa-

College athletic contests offer great opportunities for the budding crasher to learn the fundamentals of his profession. Lewisohn Stadium, at about two o'clock of, let us say, a Saturday afternoon in November is a very feverish place, for practically no student buys a ticket for the football game until he has explored every possible means of admittance. And such strange methods are employed!

Effective Egress

ONE system used by the crasher is to walk nonchalantly backwards, and when the ticket collector is reached, to ask for a return ticket. When the ticket is received, the crasher cooly walks into the street again. He then dawdles around for a few minutes, and returns gazing at the ticket collector frigidly and superciliously as he hands him the ticket. This method is attractive because of its charming simplicity.

At one football game a few years ago, a student grew pale with desperation as the starting time approached. He could not for the life of him get into the Stadium. Of course, there were many tickets available, but this particular fellow was a master crasher, and to be seen buying a ticket would undoubtedly mean his expulsion from the Guild.

A Friendly Note

SUDDENLY his face lost its harried look and his eyes shone brightly. He tore a piece of paper out of his notebook, and scribbled a few lines. He presented the paper to the doorman, who read it, scratched his head, and permitted the student to enter. The message read simply

Dear doorman,

Kindly admit this student to the game. He is a personal friend of mine.

Sincerely yours, President Robinson

The St. John's basketball game two years ago was a complete sellout. It was held in the College gym, and after 7 o'clock, one could not have have bought a ticket for any amount of money. But this meant nothing to the droves of crashers, who never pay anyway, and therefore are not at all perturbed by ticket shortages. On this particular evening, all the boys turned newspapermen and magazine writers.

Complete Coverage

EVERY known publication in the country from the American Mercury to Snappy Stories, was represented at that game. When the list of available publications ran out, the boys invented games. One little fellow, half lost in the folds of a great overcoat, shouldered his way masterfully through the throng surrounding the door, walked up to the desk, slapped the man in charge heartily on the back, and boomed out: "I'm Posnack.'

P.S. He got in.

The big white-haired Mac Campus was put in charge of the players' entrance on the night of the basketball game with Yale University the past season, with strict instructions to keep out all crashers. While the preliminary game was being played, a little fellow swaggered up to the door and started to walk through. He only started, for Mac effectively barred his further passage. The little fellow thereupon declared that he was Albie Booth.

Crashing Into Prosperity

MAC looked him over and guffawed: "What, a half-pint like you Albie Booth! G'wan, beat it before I throw you out." While the two argued it out, at least seventeen crashers slipped through the door. The diminutive chap was Albie Booth, but it took a great deal of persuasive talk to make Mac believe so.

The unprecedented depression in other industries has not spread to gate crashing. As a matter of fact, the gate crasher enjoys his greatest prosperity in times of widespread depression. This can be explained day, Maxwell J. Binder, U.So.3, reeasily. In low periods amusements and athletic contests draw large crowds. And large crowds are necessary for successful crashing.

There is a matter of honor in evidence here also. If a contest does not draw great throngs, then the crasher considers it beneath his dignity shock. to attempt to force his way in. He might even pay in such a case. But I am talking now of the professional gate crasher. The collegiate crasher has no qualms at all. Just stand in front of Lewisohn Stadium dients in a test tube, causing the gineering companies will be presented

LAVENDER R.O.T.C. TO RECEIVE AWARDS

National Organizations Donate 26 Prizes for Efficiency, Progress, and Excellence

Three sabres, two gold medals, rossed-rifle collar insignia, and sixteen bronze medals will be presented of the R.O.T.C. unit, both of the basic and advanced courses, for efficiency, have been denated by various national

The awards in detail are:

Sabre for greatest efficiency in the advanced courses, donated by New York State Society, Daughters of the Revolution; sabre for prize essay on Military History and Policy of the United States, donated by Martin Washington Colonial Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution; sabre for the greatest progress in the advanced course, donated by the New York State Chapter, Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America. America.

One gold medal for excellence in the basic course (winner of Arms Corps competition), donated by the Colonial Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution; gold medal for excellence in basic course (miner of Drill Corps competition).

Silver medal for excellence in Military History and Policy of the United States, decreted by Long Island State Society of the Daughters of the Revolution; two sterling silver medals for excellence in the basic course, donated by Mrs. Ruth Lawrence, past president of the Daughters of the Cincinnati; two pairs of gold isfantry cellar insignat tor excellence in irst year advanced course, donated by Prissilla Chapter, New York State Society of the Daughters of the Revolution; sixteen bronze medals for excellence in respective basic course class sections twinners of company competition), donated by the Daughters of the Defenders of the Republic U.S.A.

Sixtum mon salonted from the con-

Sixteen men selected from the company competition will compete on May with a number of chosen competitors for the awards.

Dramatic Society Selects New Play

The Little Stone House," a Tragedy, to Be Presented May 1

"The Little Stone House," a tragedy in one act, by George Calverton has been selected as the next play to be presented by the Uptown Dramatic Society and will be produced on next Friday, May 1, at one o'clock in the Townsend Harris Auditorium. This will be the fourth production of the society under its new policy of offering one act plays to the student body during College hours in an effort to stimulate interest in the drama. As usual, no admission will be charged.

The fact that the three plays proluced previously, "A Game of Chess," 'Bound East for Cardiff," and "Pierre Patelain," have met with success and approval by the College is evidenced by the fact that the auditorium has been filled to capacity at each performance.

The cast that has been chosen to act in the coming production includes Miriam N. Mishkoff of Teachers Training School, Faye L. Kayne of Hunter College, and a former member of the Academy of Dramatic Arts, Sidney Ment '31, Jules Adolph leading to ability to qualify as a who played in "Bound East for Cardiff," and Murray Rosen.

POLICE SURGEON TO TALK AT 23rd ST

Chief of Police Surgeon Daniel Donovan will lecture at the School of Business on "Methods of Resuscitation" in room 4N Tuesday at 1 p. m.

Dr. Donovan, a specialist and authority in this field for many years, will speak on cases of asphyxiation due to carbon monoxide, electric shock, and drowning. Motion pictures will be shown to illustrate the talk.

Student Injured in Lab

As a result of an explosion in the Downtown chemistry lab last Monceived several cuts on his right arm and was taken by ambulance to the Girls' Club Fetes Mothers Downtown

Visitors Addressed by Dean Edwards and Members of Business Personnel

The mothers of the members of the Downtown Girls' Club were feted three silver medals, two pairs of gold last Tuesday at an Athletic Exhibition and Tea tendered jointly by the Women's Hygiene department and on Charter Day, May 14, to members Mrs. Ruth C. Wright, adviser for women. The girls from both the frosh and soph classes performed in the progress, and excellence. The awards gymnasium while their mothers watched from the balcony. The '34 girls executed a fencing drill which was followed by an apparatus exhibition performed by the '35 group. There was also a cage-ball game between the two classes.

Following the athletic display, mothers and daughters were escorted to the Girls' Club room where tea was served. Mrs. Wright greeted them cordially and expressed her appreciation of the large number of parents who had attended. She introduced several people who were instrumental in the proper functioning of the many departments of the College; namely, Miss Gleisner, Miss Roth and Miss Cooper.

Dean Address Parents

Dean Edwards spoke to the mothers about women's studies and social life at the College. He stressed the fact that the College has always maintained high scholastic requirements and urged the girls to live up to them. He also officially announced that the College would give courses in commercial education leading to a certificate permitting the graduate to teach High School subjects.

Dr. Walter Hervey Speaks to Frosh

Board of Education Head Gives Yearlings Requirements for Teaching

Stating that a teacher must be an expert salesman or else he had better not become a teacher, Dr. Walter L. Hervey, chairman of the Board of Examiners of the Board of Education of New York City, addressed the uptown Freshman Chapel in the Great Hall Tuesday.

Calls Profession Permanent

Dr. Hervey stated that in his opinion there are seven requirements for the success of a teacher, including a knowledge of the English language, correct pronunciation, a classified knowledge of literature and fine arts, an agile and comprehensive mind, sympathy and understanding of the world in which we live, and the ability to adapt oneself to new conditions.

"Teaching is a permanent profession and it will remain so until a new-born baby will have an adult's educated brain," stated Dr. Hervey in setting forth the advantages of teaching.

Information sheets concerning the School of Educatoin and its courses teacher, were distributed to the

ENGINEERS MEET FOR CONVENTION

The College chapter of the A.I.E.E. will participate today in the annual convention of the Eastern section of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, student division.

An addition to the program, announced Wednesday by the society, is a trip to the S. S. Pennsylvania by the College group at 9:30 a. m. A guide will take those present through the ship.

The program also includes a dinner at Chin Lee's, 49th Street and Broadway, at 1 p. m., and speeches at the Engineering Building, 29 West 38th Street, in the afternoon. Tickets for the dinner are $1.10. The rest of the

at the dinner

MOTT ISSUES RULES FOR ESSAY WRITERS Apple Selling Declines — Candy

May 21 Chosen as Final Date for Handing in Manuscripts

Regulations for four of the prize department have been issued by Professor Mott, head of the department. All manuscripts must be in the faculty mail room before midnight on May 21, signed with a pen name. The tuted in his stead a branch store author's real name is to be placed in situated in the Townsend Harris a scaled envelope to accompany the script. Prose essays are limited to

Subject of Essays

Juniors and seniors who plan to enter the Riggs contest must write an essay on "Progress and Poverty." No necessary connection between the subject and Henry George's book of the same name is implied.

Members of Clionia and Phrenacosma are eligible to compete for the Kelly prize, by writing a critical essay on Walt Whitman's "Leaves of Grass." The Meyer Cohn prize will be awarded to the author of the best estay on the "Nobel Prize in Literature." Candidates, who must be of the '31 class, are to defend the 1931 choice or propose another selection.

All students may compete for the Weinberg Memorial Prize in poetry. The subject of this year's poem is to be "Joffre."

Co-op Hits Vendors

Merchants Routed by Co-op Subdivision

Apple selling, with its added fivecent sweet attractions, was once a fruitful business on the campus. Today, the only vestiges of this once contests connected with the English promising trade are these same redcheeked apples. The co-op, be it known, does not stoop to sell those juicy fruits of the apple orchard.

The College Co-op has driven away the unemployed candy man and instiante-room. Freshmen with loose change in their pockets, wasting 2,000 words, and poems to 100 lines of desires here. Also, other yearling neaway for sweets, may satisfy their sessities such as hygiene uniforms and text books, fountain pens and pencils, and sporting goods are on sale at the frosh Co-op store.

One of the reasons for founding the new branch is the desire to protect freshmen from the traffic dangers of Convent Avenue or, perhaps, to keep the yearlings away from the healthy sophs.

The New York Law School (Chartered 1891)

Three-year course leading to degree of L.L.B. Dwight System of instruction. Late afternoon and evening sessions offering special opportunity to students who must or desire to support thems. It would be some business activity during the day. Freliminary education requirement—satisfactory completion of at least two years leading to the degree of A.B. or B.S. et a college recognized by the New York State Board of Regents.

-ROYAL SOCIETY CLOTHES

After Many Years Selling From Coast to Coast We Are

RETIRING FROM BUSINESS

Liquidating $100,000 Spring Stocks

MEN'S SUITS Tuxedos TOP COATS $1000 $1300 $1750

Retail Values to $50.00

72 SAMPLE Spring Topcoats $7.50

Odd Pants $7.50

Suit Lengths To Your Measure $23.50

All New Spring Garments in every wanted STYLE, FABRIC and COLOR — at half of actual WHOLESALE PRICES.....

Royal Society Clothes ENTIRE SECOND FLOOR

123 FIFTH AVENUE Bet. 19th & 20th Sts.

hairman of une JUNIVA Open Daily 9 A.M. to 7 P.M. DBBB Sunday Till P. M.

VARSITY BALL TEAM DIVIDES TWO GAMES

Four Pitchers Used in Winning Contest-Cohen Shows Best Form

(Continued from Page 1)

Cohen in particular showed up very well. The slim lefthander, in his two innings in the box, displayed a wealth of speed and control, striking out five of the six men to face him.

Singal Relieved on Mound Seigal and Rauschkolb did the pitching against Upsala. Seigal started and for four of the first five innings yielded a run an inning. Then in the sixth, with a man on base and two strikes on the batter facing him, Seigal blew up completely and passed two men on eight successive balls.

Rauschkolb went in to relieve him, but before he could retire the side, he was reached for two singles which drove in three runs and just about cinched the game.

face the Providence team which lost in his singles maten over Stone and score of 5-2. With four games won year. and four lost, there is some doubt about just which foot the .500 jinx will get off tomorrow.

Old man .500 is in a very bad pre dicament. If he allows Dr. Parker's young men to beat the Friars, he must, in the natural course of things, make them lose to Brooklyn College on Monday,-a feat which should be a pretty tough one even for such a formidable chap as Mr. .500.

Trackmen to Run In Penn Carnival

winkle to Run Anchor in Two Relays

(Continued from Page 1)

results. The mile relay team, which will compete against Fordham, Manhattan, Maryland, Union, and Franklin and Marshall, will be composed of Bill Bloom, Monroe Sheinberg, Milt Feinberg and George Bullwinkle. Milt Speiser is going along as an alternate. Last year, in a different division, the St. Nick men finished behind Detroit C.C. and Temple. Coach McKenzie expects the team to do 3:24, which compares favorably with the best times done by College aggregations.

Bullwinkle to Be Anchor

This year marks the first appearance of the College in the sprint medleys. Bloom in the "440" division, Sheinberg, in the "220," Ted Klisto or Feinberg in the "220" and Bullwinkle in the "880" will carry the Lavender's colors in this event against Navy, N.Y.U., Harvard, Princeton, Manhattan, Georgetown Ohio State and other equally strong

In the "440" relay Ted Klisto, Joe Schwartz, Al Leichman, and Ed Frankel will pass the baton. Last year the Lavender was leading Army, Navy, and N.Y.U., when Bill Bloom pulled a tendon and was forced to drop out. Bullwinkle will run anchor in both the mile and sprint medley relays and, if the Lavender leade baton too far be-

ENGINEERS HEAR CORBETT

Noted Architect and Designer Speaks on the "Future of the Skyscraper" designers of Rockefeller Radio City, ment and Prof. Snider of the Econonow under construction, addressed a combined meeting of the A.S.C.E., the A.S.M.E., and the A.I.E.E., yes terday, on the "Future of the Skyscrapei." The speaker was introduced by Dean Skene of the School of Technology. Mr. Corbett is also chairman of the Architetual Com- selected as a number of applicants members hiked to the Newark Airbe held in Chicago.

Netmen to Meet Springfield Team

Lavender Tennis Team to Encounter Massachusseus Men Here Tomorrow

The College tennis team, with ecord of two victories in three starts, meets the Springfield College netmen tomorrow morning at the Hamilton courts. Nothing is known of the strength of the Bay Staters, but the Varsity has already shown strength and balance in its matches this season.

Coach Wisan's team has thus far scored easy victories quer Villanova and Stevens, and has bowed to Co. lumbia University. The College this year has two great players in Captain Reginald Weir and Shelly Morganstern. These men are excellent individual players and form one of the strongest double combinations in Lavender history.

Weir and Morganstern defeated Dave Jones and Ray Stone of Columbia in the match last week. Mor-Tomorrow the Lavender nine will ganstern, like Weir, a senior, scored in turning in a victory.

Weir and Morganstern are the only veterans on the team, which contains, however, many promising newcomers. The other two singles men are Ben Bragman, who got his start playing ping pong in the alcoves, and Lew Aranson. Both these men won their matches against Stevens last week

Bragman and Aransen make up a doubles team, and the third combination is made up of Adler and Frosch. The netmen met Fordham University yesterday on the Ram courts.

Three Relay Teams Entered—Bull. Menorah Will Hold

Program to Include Marionnette Show, with Dancing and Refreshments

The Menorah Society will hold a party at the Marionette Studio at 10 East Eighth Street, on Saturday, May 16, at 8:15 p. m. A marionette show, dancing and refreshments are on the program for the evening.

The marionette play to be presented, with painted translucent shadow Junior Varsity lacrosse team out-ran figures as characters, is "Esther," by and out-gamed the New York Mili Meyer Levin, a novelist. The play is in eight scenes with several comic interludes, and presents two versions of the famous Purim play. The shadow figures are the handiwork of Louis Bunim, who runs the studio in co-operation with Mr. Levin. There will be music, dancing and refreshments before and after the perform-

As there are only a limited number of tickets, they will be put on sale next Monday for members of the Menorah only, at one dollar each. If there are any left at the end of the week, they will be offered to the student body. No tickets will be sold at the door on the night of the

Dean Edwards Speaks To American Academy

Dean George W. Edwards was hind other anchor men, the Lavender guest speaker at a meeting of the will have to be reckoned with in American Academy of Political and Social Science held in Philadelphia last Friday. Dr. Edwards advised-his audience to devote more of their time trying to remedy the home troubles of the United States instead of those of the world.

The general topic of discussion at the American Foreign Policy." Among and made the final score 9-3, when Mr. Harvey Wiley Corbett, pro- those present, were Professor Nelson minent architect, and one of the Mead of the College History departmics department, who attended the meeting as delegates of the College,

LOCK AND KEY MEETS

Lock and Key, the senior honorary fraternity, met last Tuesday and April 17. From the station the

J.Y. NINE TO MEET MANHATTAN FROSH

Yearlings Confident of Victory in First Collegiate Test Tomorrow

With a record of two victories and one defeat, the Lavender junior varsity baseball team turns to the Manhattan College freshmen for its opposition tomorrow morning at the Lewisohn Stadium. The game will be the first collegiate test for the yearlings, all former games having been played against local high school contingents.

Davis or Spanier on Mound The strengthened cub team will face the Green confident of atoning for last year's 9-1 setback. The only appreciable weak spots in the lineup, second base and right field, have been considerably bolstered by the conversion of the team from a freshman to a jayvee nine last week and, if the pitching is as good as it has been in the past, there should be no difficulty

Coach "Jerry" McMahon will start to Manhattan on Wednesday by the is undefeated in competition this either Phil Davis or Irv Spanier on the mound. Spanier's debut last Saturday against Washington High was highly impressive and Davis' two victories have already stamped him as an excellent hurler. Since both of these men are good batters, McMahon will probably use the one that does not pitch in right field instead of Zlotnick

Insler to Replace Lopatin

The only other change in the lineup will be at second where Insler, formerly on the varsity squad, will replace Lopatin. The rest of the team will be the same as it has been in the the three games played. Schulman at first, Gainen at short and Solomon at third base will be the lineup of the rest of the infield. Miller will be be-Studio Party in May usual, Davidson will play left and Kupperburg center.

J. V. Twelve Beats Military Academy

Unleashes Powerful but Ragged Attack to Win at Cornwall

A potentially powerful College ROBINSON VISITS tary Academy twelve to win its opening game of the season by a 9-3 count, last Tuesday afternoon, at Cornwall, N. Y. The Lavender seconds unleashed a ragged but effective attack, which suddenly started functioning about twenty minutes after the game began, and kept them in control of the play for the remainder of the contest. Lou Detz and Carl Taperoff were the main factors in the Lavender's victory.

Defeat Cadets 9-3

The St. Nick defense also performed creditably for the major part of the battle, but only after a shaky start, during which Hutton, the cadet first attack, scored twice for his team. The Lavender scrubs tied things up however, when both Abe Mittelman and Al Schwartzenfeld on "Drying Oils," yesterday. eluded the Academy defense to score, and went on to take a 5-2 lead a half-time, on goals by Joe Curran, Detz and Taperoff.

The College team was still going at top speed, when the second half opened and Curran scored two more goals in quick succession. Detz came in on a lone sortie from mid-field to he slammed the ball in from a he will present: the meeting was "The Elements of scrimmage in front of the Academy net. Brooks counted for the cadets he beat Davis, shortly before the final whistle.

Radio Club Visits WOR

The Radio Club visited and was shown through Radio Station WOR mission of the 1933 World Fair, to from whom a final choice will be port, where they inspected the Administration Building.

Y.M.C.A. HOLDS ELECTIONS

Professors Guthrie, Overstreet, and Haley to Speak at Discussions

Gaston Babini, Charles O. Kates and Henry Freimuth were elected president, vice-president, and secretary respectively, of the Uptown Y M.C.A. at a meeting last Monday. The newly elected officers will be installed on Wednesday, May 13.

Preparations are now being made for a combined dance of the Uptown and Downtown Y.M.C.A., and the Hunter Y.W.C.A., to be held at the George Washington Hotel on Friday, May 22.

Prof. William B. Guthrie, Prof. Owen Haley, and Prof. Harry Overstreet are scheduled ho speak at club discussions. The first of the these will be delivered next Monday.

PROF. ELIAS SCORES SPANISH REBELLION

Expresses Surprise at Attitude of Spanish People in Turning Against Alfonso

Professor Alfredo Elias, of the Spanish department, expressed surprise at the attit ude of the Spanish people in turning against Alfonso XIII, their abdicated king in an interview granted The Campus

The recent revolution was characterized by Prof. Elias as "a cunning piece of political strategy, and nothe Spanish Cabinet cannot, at its best, improve general conditions in Spain beyond the natural course already started under Alfonso's direc-The Spanish people, Professor Elias claims, turned their sympathy for the king into dislike for "no reason whatsoever." Alfonso's personal qualities should be taken into account when weighing his mistakes, he says. He also expressed the belief that not all Spaniards and Spanish-born Americans are in sympathy with the new regime. The warm hospitality accorded to Alfonso abroad is cited by Professor Elias as evidence of this

In closing, he stated that "The new regime will increase difficulties with Catalonia as regards the problem of Separatism.

BALTIMORE TODAY

President Robinson will attend the installation ceremonies of Mr. David A. Robertson as President of Goucher College, in Baltimore, this afternoon at 2 p. m.

Last night, Dr. Robinson was pres ent at the celebration of the Class of '84, which started with the viewing of "Tonight or Never" at the Belasco Theatre, and ended with a banquet at the Manhattan Club.

M. SOCKLOFF ADDRESSES BASKERVILLE SOCIETY

Continuing a series of discourses on the industrial side of Chemistry, Mr. M. Sockloff spoke before the session of the Baskerville Chem. Society Pictures of the Baskerville Societ be taken for the "Mike," it was announced by Selig Willner, president of the organization.

BALDWIN TO GIVE RECITAL

Professor Samuel A. Baldwin will of Joe Klepper. continue his series of concerts on make the score 8-2 and Dubin Sunday afternoon, April 26, at 4 scored the last St. Nick goal, when p. m. In this, his 1332nd concert, 1. Sixth Symphony (two move ments)-Charles Marie Widor. 2. Solloquy with the Swallows-Marco Enrico Bossi.

3. Prolude and Fugue in B. Minor-J. S. Bach. 4. a. My Inmost Heart Doth Yearn, b. A Rose Breaks Into Bloom

-Johannes Brahms. 5. Nocturne-Edward Grieg. 6. Scherzo, opus 2 — Maurice Duruble.

7. By the Sea-Franz Schubert. 8. Finlandia, op. 26 No. 7-Jean Sibelus.

LAYENDER TWELVE SUCCUMBS TO N.Y.U

Lacrosse Men Lose to Traditional Rival by 4-1 Score

(Continued from Page 1) hurt in the first period but continued playing. In the locker-room, between halves, it was discovered that his injury would not permit him playing in the second half.

It was apparent from the opening whistle that the College team was not in the best of shape. The Bronx aggregation kept control of the ball this Tuesday at the meeting of the most of the time, and it was the Violet men who usually emerged with the ball from the frequent of the upper senior council. mix-ups that occurred in mid-field. However the College defense held up well and, with Ralph Singer guarding the cage in beautiful style, N.Y. U. failed to score, while, about ten minutes after the opening whistle. Sam Gise sifted through the Violet inner defense, to take a pass from Irv Mishkin and score with a beautiful shot. Both teams lost several good scoring chances through poor passing and both played rather raged lacrosse. The College held a 1-0 lead at half-time.

College Team Cracks

The Bronx team opened the second half with all guns in full blast. They kept up a sustained attack thing else." He also maintains that on the St. Nick goal, and Schachter intercepted a pass to score and tie things up after about five minutes, Roth got free twice to score both times, when Singer was forced to leave the net in order to attempt to avert the goal. Bernstein made the final score 4-1 when he received a pass from Manit, and countered shortly before the final whistle. In this period, the St. Nick outfit again slipped up on some good scoring chances through poor passing.

N.Y.U. (4)
Lichtman
G.
Neuman
G. C.C.N.Y Neuman Marshall

Roth (2), Bernutions — C.C.N.Y., Taperoff for Curran for Fuller, Clemons for Hildebrandt for Vance, Detz for Füller for Curran, Vance for Hil-Curran for Fuller. N.Y.U.—Ches-

Department of Labor To Aid College Men

To facilitate the attempts of students at the College in obtaining jobs Student Relations Committee yesterduring the summer vacation, the Employment Bureau has made arrangements with the State Department of Labor whereby the latter organization will assist it in its work, it was announced last Wednesday by Al Rose, director of the bureau. Students desiring employment in hotels will be particularly aided by the arrange-

Applications for jobs should be nade to the Employment bureau on Wednesdays between the hours of 2 affair will be topped off by a dance and 5 and on Saturdays between 9 which will continue into the wee and 12, according to Mr. Rose.

The Uptown '34 dancing class has been changed from 12 o'clock, as was previously announced in The Campus, to 1 p. m., when it meets daily in room 20 under the direction

BRADSPIES QUITS AS '31 TREASURER

Vacancy to Be Filled Tuesday at Senior Council Meeting

The resignation of Leo Bradspies '31 as treasurer of the Uptown upper senior class has been accepted by the class council according to Abraham H. Raskin, president of the seniors. "The pressure of studies at Columbia Law School" was the reason given by Bradspies for the surrendering of his Elections for the position vacated by Bradpies' resignation will be held '31 council. Applications for the position will be received by the members

Finalist Changed In Speech Contest

Gershenson Resigns Because of Ineligibility—Ross Chosen In His Place

Edward Ross '31 has been selected as finalist in the Extemporaneous Speaking Contest in place of Harry Gerschenson '33, who resigned from the competition when he discovered that he was ineligible because he has not yet taken Public Speaking 5-6. The finals will take place next Friday night, May 1, in the Great Hall, at 8:15 p. m

The general subject of the contest this year is "The Business Depression of 1930-31." The specific topic in the preliminary trials was "The Causes of the Depression." The special aspect of the subject to be discussed by the speakers in the finals will be posted one hour hefore the opening of the speaking. The finals of the Roemer Declamation Contest will likewise be held in the Great Hall the same evening.

Besides Ross, the men who will participate in the Extemporaneous Speaking finals are: George Rabinowitz '31, Abraham Tauber '31, Jacob Zack '31, Morris Mellinger '31, and Louis Levy '32.

23 ST. FACULTY TO FETE SENIORS

The Downtown members of the graduating class will be the guests of the Business Center faculty at a gala send-off festival to be held in the Twenty-third street building next Saturday night, May 2. The affair, which was suggested to the Facultyday by Dr. Canute Hansen, will be athletic and social in nature. Following the semi-annual basketball game between the Seniors and the Faculty, the assembled guests, including the officers of the Downtown Student Council and A.A. and the class presidents, will adjourn to another room where refreshments will be served. An extensive program of entertainment, provided by the instructors, is being arranged by Dr. Hansen. The hours of the morning.

6th MONTH The World Acclain ZWEIHERZEN IM 3/4 TAKT ("Two Hearts in Waltz Time")
EUROPA 55th Street E. of 7th Ave.
(Near Mecca Temple)
Continuous 12 Noon to Midnight
Popular Prices Circle 7-0129

LET US ELEVATE YOU

Our high-speed elevators travel umpty-ump feet per second. Six stories up is See Level-and what a sight!

Suits are all $26, manufacturer's (sincere) price. Worth about $15 more-not$95. Topcoats $26 too.

MERVIN S. LEVINE

Manufacturing Devonshire Clothes for Men 85 FIFTH AVENUE AT 16TH STREET, NEW YORK

board (2 t sports staff committee; assistant ma Manager of cury editoria itorial board

Forum; Ph:

VOLUM

14 IN TW(

ADVISO

Fourtee

signia ir

were gra

graduatin

class and culty. H

awarded

S. C. fact

B. P. Gil

Major 1

PHILIF

1931 Micr

'31: Chair

ior adviser

smoker to

chairman

(twice); ( years), ne

cosm edito

ender Han

committee;

Campus; F

ciety; Can

terms), n

Dramatic S

retary, assi

sistant stag

Society one-

board of S.

'32 junior

president,

president (

athletic ma

ior and seni

to '33; Chai

Frosh-soph

elections con

pus news ed

critic, music

BENJAM

HY MIL

MORTO

term).

Society. ABRAHAN of The Camp editor (1 ter terms), news editor of 1931 -managing ed itor; Editor (Lavender con dent of senior (Contin

DR. G. S. CO BEFORE I

Dr. George of Education Columbia Univ Education Clu 30, on the sub cation," in roo

Dr. Counts nent in the fie one of its best