S. C. Refused Right to Hold Anti-War Vote

Acting Dean Gottschall Denies Request for Referendum On Ballot

ALCOVE VOTE PLANNED

Blume Orders Elections to Be Held in Classrooms on Wednesday

Because of Acting Dean Morton Gottschall's refusal to grant the necessary permission for the Student Council to include a referendum on war on the ballot in tomorrow's elections, Jack Blume '34, president of the council, was forced to issue an executive order last Friday directing the Elections Committee to hold the elections for Student Council and class officers. An alcove referendum will be held on Thursday, February 29 between noon and 2 p.m.

This action was essential to furnish a legal basis for the voting. At the meeting of last term's Student Council, this resolution was passed:

Be It Resolved: That the following questions be placed on the ballot for a student referendum in next term's class elections: a). Would you refuse to support the United States in any war it might carry on? b). Would you support the United States in a defensive war? c). Do you favor the abolition of the R. O. T. C.? and further:

That unless Acting Dean Morton Gottschall gives his permission to put these three questions on the ballot, there shall be no class elections next term.

Committee Interviews Gottschall
Last Friday a student council committee of three students, Edwin Alexander '37, Sam Moscovitz '36, and Arthur Neumark '35, had an interview with the acting dean on the matter of the referendum. It was then that he denied the request of the S. C. to place the three anti-war questions on the ballot.

Immediately after the committee reported to Blume, he issued his executive order. It reads:

"In compliance with the charter of the Student Council, which calls for an election of class officers and Student Council representatives of the various extra-curricular groups, I hereby instruct the Elections Committee to run an election in the classrooms on Wednesday, February 21 at 11 a.m.

I do this as president of the Student Council.

Biology Society Accepts Eight Applicants as Club Members

Eight out of forty applicants were accepted as members of the Biology Society at its last meeting, held Thursday in room 319. Those accepted are: Charles H. Fuchsman '36, Maurice S. Hirschhorn '35, Sidney Isaacson '35, Sol Katz '35, Karl R. Paley '34, Harvey Pofiakoff '34, Leonard Schmilowitz '36, and Samuel Zibit '35.

Members are admitted on the basis of personality, initiative, and general all-round ability in the fields of both Biology and Chemistry.

Politics Club Votes To Forward Query To Bar Association

In accordance with the suggestion of Samuel S. Leibowitz, noted attorney, the executive committee of the Politics Club, headed by Robert Schneider '35, president, has presented the following resolution to the American Bar Association:

Gentlemen:
The Politics Club of the City College of New York would like to know if the A. B. A. deems it ethically correct that a son, as attorney general, should argue a case, involving the death penalty, before his father, the presiding judge, as was done in the Scottsboro cases.

Sincerely yours,
The Politics Club

The resolution was adopted last week at a meeting of the club in Doremus Hall, and was approved by the 450 students gathered to hear Mr. Leibowitz, the guest speaker.

Poll to Determine Dram Soc Locale

Students to Decide Between Pauline Edwards and Broadway Theatre for Show

The question of whether the Dramatic Society will hold its musical revue, "Plastered Cast" in the Pauline Edwards Theatre at the Commerce Center with a dance or in a Broadway theatre without a dance will be decided by a student poll to be conducted by the Campus Friday. Casting has been going on all during the past week, and the cast is slowly rounding into shape. Leon Silverman '34, president of the society, announced.

Book, Music Written
The book committee for the show, consisting of Leonard Silverman '34, star of the "Guardsman", Bernard Goldstein '34, who played a prominent role in last season's "Here Comes the Bride", Arthur Bronstein '34, composer of several hit tunes in "Here Comes the Bride"; and Norman Hirschle '34, who wrote last season's hit tune "Sho' Nuff O.K.", has arranged the libretto for "Plastered Cast."

From Hollywood There Comes a Letter Mercurious Look It's Durante! Deses! Doses! Fast and Furious

Mercury, our blase humor magazine, was thrown off its feet last week when a very curious letter arrived from Hollywood. This epistle came from the guy of the elongated proboscis or in common parlance Jimmy "Schnozzle" Durante and was very fustian and anomalous or as the man in street would say, "odd."

After the preliminary riots were over, some soap-box orator began to read aloud, pausing every while for translation. This was what he expostulated or read:

Dear Moicury,
It's mutiny! It's mutiny! My secretary is takin' dis letter and she's puttin' in her own reckonin'. But I put an end to that by Jimminy and I'm

Anti-War Group Places Theatre Tickets on Sale

Party to See "Peace On Earth" At Civic Repertory Theatre

DATE SET FOR MARCH 2

Prices Range from Twenty-five Cents to One Dollar

Cut-rate tickets to "Peace on Earth," a play now appearing at the Civic Repertory Theatre, were placed on sale yesterday by the Arrangements Committee of the Anti-War Congress as a move to further publicize its activities after having obtained faculty support.

The committee has decided on Friday, March 2, as the night for its theatre party, and has obtained several hundred tickets which it plans to sell at prices ranging from $25 to $1.00. Tickets are now on sale at the Campus booth and the Concert Bureau.

An Expose. of War
"Peace on Earth" was written by George Sklar and Albert Maltz. It is described as a smashing expose of war and attempts to answer the question of what the person should do in the event of war. In selecting the play as part of its program for building up anti-war sentiment in the College, the committee stated that the subject and stark reality of "Peace on Earth" make it an extremely appropriate means for bringing the movement before the student.

A meeting of the Arrangements Committee has been called for tomorrow evening at 8:30 p.m. in room 130. It is expected that Dean Paul Klapper will address the committee as head of the Open Forum Advisory Committee in order to offer his committee's aid in obtaining speakers for the Congress.

This action came as a result of the passing last Thursday of a resolution by the Faculty supporting the Congress. The Faculty Committee, which is composed of Dean Klapper and Professors Otis, Overstreet and Mead, is an advisory committee to the Open Forum, which is sponsoring the Congress.

Lavender Five Overwhelms Fordham In Fourth Intra-City Victory, 35-21; Jayvees Succumb to Ram Yearlings

Lack of Height Is Chief Factor In Overwhelming 37-20 Defeat

RAMS LEAD THROUGHOUT

Weiss High Scorer for Lavender With Four Field Goals

Height—or, rather lack of it—was the principal factor as the College junior varsity succumbed to Fordham's freshmen, 37-20, in the preliminary to the varsity encounter last Saturday night.

Fordham controlled the top consistently, and the Rams' superior reach was used to good effect in recoveries off the backboard and in general floor work.

The shining light of the evening as far as the Lavender was concerned was the hard-working Ed Weiss, who, besides sinking four field goals to top the Jayvee scorers, turned in his usual spirited, effective performance. Palan, Maroon forward, capped the scoring honors with thirteen points.

Weak in Foul Shooting
As usual, the Jayvees betrayed a marked weakness in foul shooting, converting but two of nine free tries. Weiss opened the scoring with a lay-up shot to send the Jayvees into an early lead. Bobinski's basket for Fordham tied the count, but Weiss's goal and Yeager's foul moved the Lavender into the van again. The Rams tallied eight successive points to run the score to 11-5.

Yeager topped in a follow-up to draw up within four points of the Maroon, but that was the closest the Jayvees came to their opponents during the remainder of the game.

Fordham Increases Lead
Fordham went on another spree to increase its lead to 23-7 before the Lavender found the whip cords again, and led 25-11 at the intermission.

The St. Nick five rallied at the beginning of the second half to cut into the Fordham freshmen's advantage on baskets by Singer and Demarest and the latter's foul.

Paddy Loses Freshman Cap, But New One Fills the Gap

The mysterious disappearance of Paddy's perennial freshman cap greatly alarmed the numerous passers-by who feared that a tradition of long standing was broken. Morose, Paddy refused to comment on the disastrous situation.

However, soon after, Paddy and a new cap were seen in close proximity. Although it wasn't the old standby of countless freshman years, Paddy was cheerful. His sagacious comment was "It's funny, soon as I don't wear the hat, it gets into the Campus." And he was right.

Lunchroom Asked To Donate $3,000

President Robinson Requests Donation for Student Aid Fund

A donation of about $3000 to the Student Aid Fund by the lunchroom was suggested by President Robinson in a letter to the lunchroom committee Wednesday. He also authorized the appointment of two upper seniors to serve with the faculty committee as a joint committee to operate the lunchroom in the future.

The donation to the Student Aid Fund is made possible by a surplus of $4,902.98 shown in an audit and report made by the Bursar of the College, Mr. Walter Stalb, on the accounts of the lunchroom. Although complimenting the faculty committee upon its management of the lunchroom, Dr. Robinson commented on the decline in the lunchroom's profits during the years of the depression.

Lunchroom Surplus Diminishing
"Mr. Stalb's analysis," he wrote, "shows that the surplus earned by the lunchroom has been steadily diminishing during the last three years. Apparently, students have been hard hit by the depression and their per capita purchases have diminished."

"Nevertheless," Dr. Robinson urged, "there is sufficient surplus to warrant a gift to the Student Aid Fund of not more than $3,500, and not less than $2,500 at this time. Probably a safe

Hunter Girls to Act In Cercle Jusserand Play

Students of Hunter College will take the female roles in "Les Surprises du Divorce," the play to be presented March 10 by the Cercle at the Pauline Edwards Theatre of the Commerce Center. Male roles will be taken by Martin Silverman '34, Aaron Rosenthal '34, and others. The proceeds of the performance will go to the Junior Year Abroad Fund, which is supervised by Professor Manckiewicz. M. Ernest Perrin of the Department of Romance Languages at Twenty-Third Street, is directing the play.

Opponents Subdued in Hard-fought Battle at Engineers Armory

PETE BERENSON STARS

Lavender Guard Scores Ten Points with Brilliant Playing

The Lavender quintet added another victim on its victorious march towards the Eastern crown by subduing Fordham 35-21 in a hard-fought tussle at the 102 Engineers Armory, last Saturday. The game marked the 20th renewal of the annual series in which the College has been victorious in 15 contests.

Gathering headway as the game wore on, the fast-breaking St. Nick dribblers led all the way from the opening two minutes of action in handling the Maroon its soundest drubbing of the season.

As has been the case in the last few games, the College couldn't click in the first half. Accuracy in converting fouls enabled the victors to lead 17-13 at the end of the first period. Following the intermission, however, the Lavender horde opened up with its bewildering short passes and sharp breaks for the basket ahead and never left the issue in doubt.

Berenson, a Colorful Figure
Pete Berenson completely carried off individual honors for the evening. The colorful St. Nick guard waged a bitter duel with Tony De Phillips of Fordham and came out on top with flying colors. In addition to scoring 10 points on several brilliantly executed lay-up shots, Berenson was all over the court, harrying the Rams on the offense and giving a fine example of hard, aggressive basketball without incurring too many fouls.

With the College in the van 24-19 midway in the second period, Berenson sewed up the game on a spectacular shot, being fouled on the play and converting. The basket brought the crowd, including Coach Holman, to its

Dinner Date Set By Varsity Club

Formulation of tentative plans for its annual dinner occupied the attention of the Varsity Club in its meeting last Thursday. The hotel in which the dinner is to be held was not definitely decided upon but the night of June 2 was set as the date.

Last year's affair which took at the Washington Hotel was a highly successful one, practically the entire athletic corps of the College attending. As will be the case this year, the gathering was addressed by speakers prominent in their respective fields and insignia was awarded.

Attendance at this year's dinner which is by invitation only will be augmented by representatives of the College coaching staffs and of the staffs of outside institutions.

Robinson Talks At Frosh Chapel

"Be Guided by the True and Just," Counsels President

Opening the first Freshman Chapel yesterday in the Great Hall, President Frederick B. Robinson urged the acquisition of a "free, self-disciplined intelligence," in his welcoming address to the smallest entering class in years.

Urges Intelligence
"If you can watch and cooperate in the advance of civilization you have acquired what I call a free, self-disciplined intelligence," said the president. "Be guided by the true and just. Only well-directed enthusiasm in the achievement of affairs reaps happiness and success. By success, I do not mean financial accumulation, but rather the achievement of worthy objectives that you have set before yourself."

Gottschall Speaks
Acting Dean Morton Gottschall, who also spoke at the chapel, called for the cultivation of a "healthy skepticism and critical awareness of the world about you." Stressing the importance of an open mind and of measuring true values, he pointed to an article appearing in the Handbook, apparently student opinion, but actually that of the editor only. "I should regard the matter as amusing if it had happened under other circumstances, but the Handbook caters chiefly to the Freshman class, a group, because of its inexperience, most impressionable."

Jack Blume, president of the Student Council, however, asserted that he need not defend the editor of the Handbook, as the publication "speaks for itself."

College-Notre Dame Game Still Postponed Indefinitely

"No new developments have arisen in the last few weeks on the College-Notre Dame basketball game," declared Professor Walter Williamson yesterday, as metropolitan newspapers revived interest for the proposed contest.

"In the event such a contest should materialize, the two colleges will divide the receipts, with our share going towards the Student Aid Fund," he added. "However, there are a number of handicaps to be encountered. It is difficult to find an open date in the Garden and the College cannot continue its regular basketball season indefinitely."

defeat of the season against Penn. He weakened visibly coming down the stretch, dissipating a two-yard lead and following Everett Weeks of the Philadelphia team to the finish line.

Milton Metzger's supposed heart ailment, which it was feared would prevent him from swimming this season, was found to be non-existent and did not prevent him from taking a first place in the Yale meet and from turning in admirable performances in the Penn meet. His time for the 100-yard free style victory at Yale, 0:58:1-5 was the fastest he has yet done.

Faculty Admits Ousted Student

The faculty yesterday reinstated Henry Hirschberg, one of the twenty-one students expelled last year as a result of the Jingo Day activities, following the recommendation of the Faculty Committee on Course and Standing that such action be taken.

In advocating reinstatement of Hirschberg the committee stated that he had "expressed his regret for the events of May 29 and has apologized for his part in them; he has pledged himself unqualifiedly to abide by the rules of the College in the future."

No action on the twenty other expelled students has been taken as yet but applications for reinstatement are being accepted by the faculty committee which consists of Acting Dean Morton Gottschall, Professor Joseph Babor and Professor Nelson Mead.

S. C. President Issues Call For Committee Candidates

Candidates for Student Council committees are requested by Jack Blume '34, president, to place their application in box 22 in the Faculty Mail Room. Positions are now open on the Alceve, Auditing, Curriculum, Executive Student Affairs, Inter-Club, Frosh Chapel, Discipline, Membership, Open Forum, Lunch Room, Co-op, and Insignia Committees.

a store and inquired about the feeling toward the negroes. "They're gonna hang, they're gonna burn," was the reply. "Are they guilty," inquired Liebowitz. "What's the difference," replied the man. "See that dog outside; if some one shot him, he would go to jail but if someone shot a negro — nothing."

Upon investigation Liebowitz found that the court records for the trial of the nine boys charged with a capital offense were only forty pages thick. "No jury of sane men," he stated, even though they were hottenots, could bring themselves to the point where they could condemn men on such evidence."

Negroes Barred From Jury

Referring to the jury, Liebowitz said that the jury was composed entirely of white men. "For twenty-five years not a negro had been seen on any jury in that country." The jury rolls, when produced, also showed no names of negroes.

The verdict was set aside by the presiding judge, who was then mysteriously removed from the case replaced by W. W. Callahan who declared at the start that he was going to take care of the Jew boy from New York. Liebowitz, however, came prepared for the next trial. Accompanied by "two puny representatives of the law" weighing 300 and 250 respectively, and carrying a brief case with "howitzers which can shoot through two elephants side by side," the defense made a safe arrival and its work pushed forward.

Denounces Lynchings

Explaining the theory of race hatred and lynching in the South, the noted attorney declared that "they lynch the colored race, not the individual negro, when they lynch the negro. One of the Decatur lawyers who represented the defense was himself a Ku Klux Klan member."

Liebowitz stated that the Alabama Supreme Court would probably not allow the case to go to Washington, but that if it ever got there, the verdicts would be reversed. "The prosecution has massed all its forces so that nine scraps of human flesh with black skin might be burned in the electric chair. But the defense will continue its task until hell freezes over. We'll tire them out soon. The state is already in bankruptcy."

An audience of more than 400 crowded Doremus Hall to the doors in anticipation of Mr. Liebowitz' presence. Liebowitz was greeted with cheers at his entrance and the speech lasting almost an hour, was continually interrupted by salvos of applause.

hostile galleries this season.

Nat Holman experimented with a zone defense in the first half against the Scarlet. But the tenor of the game caused a switch to the Lavender's usual man-to-man assignments. The latter arrangement held Rutgers in check throughout the final period.

Sam Winograd turned in the most spectacular exhibition of shooting, but the mainstays of the team were Pete Bereson and Artie Kaufman, who played their usual smart, steady floor game. Bereson also was tied or scoring honors with Winograd.

Goldman Suffered Injury

Mike Pincus, didn't go so well against Rutgers and there is a distinct possibility that Abe Weisbrodt may start in his stead. Weisbrodt gave a grand exhibition while in there against the Raritan five.

Because of Acting Dean Morton Gottschall's refusal to grant the necessary permission for the Student Council to include a referendum on war on the ballot in tomorrow's elections, Jack Blume '34, president of the council, was forced to issue an executive order last Friday directing the Elections Committee to hold the elections for Student Council and class officers. Height—or, rather lack of it—was the principal factor as the College junior varsity succumbed to Fordham's freshmen, 37-20, in the preliminary to the varsity encounter last Saturday night.

Fordham controlled the top consistently, and the Rams' superior reach was used to good effect in recoveries off the backboard and in general floor work.

The shining light of the evening as far as the Lavender was concerned was the hard-working Ed Weiss, who, besides sinking four field goals to top the Jayvee scorers, turned in his usual spirited, effective performance. Palan, Maroon forward, capped the scoring honors with thirteen points.

Weak in Foul Shooting
As usual, the Jayvees betrayed a marked weakness in foul shooting, converting but two of nine free tries.

Weiss opened the scoring with a lay-up shot to send the Jayvees into an early lead. Bobinski's basket for Fordham tied the count, but Weiss's goal and Yeager's foul moved the Lavender into the van again. The Rams tallied eight successive points to run the score to 11-5.

Yeager topped in a follow-up to draw up within four points of the Maroon, but that was the closest the Jayvees came to their opponents during the remainder of the game.

Fordham Increases Lead
Fordham went on another spree to increase its lead to 23-7 before the Lavender found the whip cords again, and led 25-11 at the intermission.

The St. Nick five rallied at the beginning of the second half to cut into the Fordham freshmen's advantage on baskets by Singer and Demare and the latter's foul.

Paddy Loses Freshman Cap,
But New One Fills the Gap

The mysterious disappearance of Paddy's perennial freshman cap greatly alarmed the numerous passers-by who feared that a tradition of long standing was broken. Morose, Paddy refused to comment on the disastrous situation.

However, soon after, Paddy and a new cap were seen in close proximity. Although it wasn't the old standby of countless freshman years, Paddy was cheerful. His sagacious comment was "It's funny, soon as I don't wear the hat, it gets into the Campus." And he was right.

Lunchroom Asked To Donate $3,000

President Robinson Requests
Donation for Student Aid Fund

A donation of about $3000 to the Student Aid Fund by the lunchroom was suggested by President Robinson in a letter to the lunchroom committee Wednesday. He also authorized the appointment of two upper seniors to serve with the faculty committee as a joint committee to operate the lunchroom in the future.

The donation to the Student Aid Fund is made possible by a surplus of $4,902.98 shown in an audit and report made by the Bursar of the College, Mr. Walter Stalb, on the accounts of the lunchroom. Although complimenting the faculty committee upon its management of the lunchroom, Dr. Robinson commented on the decline in the lunchroom's profits during the years of the depression.

Lunchroom Surplus Diminishing
"Mr. Stalb's analysis," he wrote, "shows that the surplus earned by the lunchroom has been steadily diminishing during the last three years. Apparently, students have been hard hit by the depression and their per capita purchases have diminished."

"Nevertheless," Dr. Robinson urged, "there is sufficient surplus to warrant a gift to the Student Aid Fund of not more than $3,500, and not less than $2,500 at this time. Probably a safe (Continued on Page 4)

Hunter Girls to Act
In Cercle Jusserand Play

Students of Hunter College will take the female roles in "Les Surprises du Divorce," the play to be presented March 10 by the Cercle at the Pauline Edwards Theatre of the Commerce Center. Male roles will be taken by Martin Silverman '34, Aaron Rosenthal '34, and others. The proceeds of the performance will go to the Junior Year Abroad Fund, which is supervised by Professor Manckiewicz. M. Ernest Perrin of the Department of Romance Languages at Twenty-Third Street, is directing the play.

The Lavender quintet added another victim on its victorious march towards the Eastern crown by subduing Fordham 35-21 in a hard-fought tussle at the 102 Engineers Armory, last Saturday. The game marked the 20th renewal of the annual series in which the College has been victorious in 15 contests.

Gathering headway as the game wore on, the fast-passing St. Nick dribblers led all the way from the opening two minutes of action in handling the Maroon its soundest drubbing of the season.

As has been the case in the last few games, the College couldn't click in the first half. Accuracy in converting fouls enabled the victors to lead 17-13 at the end of the first period. Following the intermission, however, the Lavender horde opened up with its bewildering short passes and sharp breaks for the basket ahead and never left the issue in doubt.

Pete Berenson completely carried off individual honors for the evening. The colorful St. Nick guard waged a bitter duel with Tony De Phillips of Fordham and came out on top with flying colors. In addition to scoring 10 points on several brilliantly executed lay-up shots, Berenson was all over the court, harrying the Rams on the offense and giving a fine example of hard, aggressive basketball without incurring too many fouls.

With the College in the van 24-19 midway in the second period, Berenson sewed up the game on a spectacular shot, being fouled on the play and converting. The basket brought the crowd, including Coach Holman, to its (Continued on Page 3)

Dinner Date Set By Varsity Club

Formulation of tentative plans for its annual dinner occupied the attention of the Varsity Club in its meeting last Thursday. The hotel in which the dinner is to be held was not definitely decided upon but the night of June 2 was set as the date.

Last year's affair which took at the Washington Hotel was a highly successful one, practically the entire athletic corps of the College attending. As will be the case this year, the gathering was addressed by speakers prominent in their respective fields and insignia was awarded.

Attendance at this year's dinner which is by invitation only will be augmented by representatives of the College coaching staffs and of the staffs of outside institutions.

Robinson Talks At Frosh Chapel

"Be Guided by the True and Just," Counsels President

Opening the first Freshman Chapel yesterday in the Great Hall, President Frederick B. Robinson urged the acquisition of a "free, self-disciplined intelligence," in his welcoming address to the smallest entering class in years.

Urges Intelligence
"If you can watch and cooperate in the advance of civilization you have acquired what I call a free, self-disciplined intelligence," said the president. "Be guided by the true and just. Only well-directed enthusiasm in the achievement of affairs reaps happiness and success. By success, I do not mean financial accumulation, but rather the achievement of worthy objectives that you have set before yourself."

Gottschall Speaks
Acting Dean Morton Gottschall, who also spoke at the chapel, called for the cultivation of a "healthy skepticism and critical awareness of the world about you." Stressing the importance of an open mind and of measuring true values, he pointed to an article appearing in the Handbook, apparently student opinion, but actually that of the editor only. "I should regard the matter as amusing if it had happened under other circumstances, but the Handbook caters chiefly to the Freshman class, a group, because of its inexperience, most impressionable."

Jack Blume, president of the Student Council, however, asserted that he need not defend the editor of the Handbook, as the publication "speaks for itself."

College-Notre Dame Game Still Postponed Indefinitely

"No new developments have arisen in the last few weeks on the College-Notre Dame basketball game," declared Professor Walter Williamson yesterday, as metropolitan newspapers revived interest for the proposed contest.

"In the event such a contest should materialize, the two colleges will divide the receipts, with our share going towards the Student Aid Fund," he added. "However, there are a number of handicaps to be encountered. It is difficult to find an open date in the Garden and the College cannot continue its regular basketball season indefinitely."

defeat of the season against Penn. He weakened visibly coming down the stretch, dissipating a two-year lead and following Everett Weeks of the Philadelphia team to the finish line.

Milton Metzger's supposed heart ailment, which it was feared would prevent him from swimming this season, was found to be non-existent and did not prevent him from taking a first place in the Yale meet and from turning in admirable performances in the Penn meet. His time for the 100-yard free style victory at Yale, 0:58:1-5 was the fastest he has yet done.

Faculty Admits Ousted Student

The faculty yesterday reinstated Henry Hirschberg, one of the twenty-one students expelled last year as a result of the Jingo Day activities, following the recommendation of the Faculty Committee on Course and Standing that such action be taken.

In advocating reinstatement of Hirschberg the Committee stated that he had "expressed his regret for the events of May 29 and has apologized for his part in them; he has pledged himself unqualifiedly to abide by the rules of the College in the future."

No action on the twenty other expelled students has been taken as yet but applications for reinstatement are being accepted by the faculty committee which consists of Acting Dean Morton Gottschall, Professor Joseph Babor and Professor Nelson Mead.

S. C. President Issues Call For Committee Candidates

Candidates for Student Council committees are requested by Jack Blume '34, president, to place their application in box 22 in the Faculty Mail Room. Positions are now open on the Alcove, Auditing, Curriculum, Executive Student Affairs, Inter-Club, Frosh Chapel, Discipline, Membership, Open Forum, Lunch Room, Co-op, and Insignia Committees.

a store and inquired about the feeling toward the negroes. "They're gonna hang, they're gonna burn," was the reply. "Are they guilty," inquired Liebowitz. "What's the difference," replied the man. "See that dog outside; if some one shot him, he would go to jail but if someone shot a negro — nothing."

Upon investigation Liebowitz found that the court records for the trial of the nine boys charged with a capital offense were only forty pages thick. "No jury of sane men," he stated, even though they were hottenots, could bring themselves to the point where they could condemn men on such evidence."

Negroes Barred From Jury

Referring to the jury, Liebowitz said that the jury was composed entirely of white men. "For twenty-five years not a negro had been seen on any jury in that country." The jury rolls, when produced, also showed no names of negroes.

The verdict was set aside by the presiding judge, who was then mysteriously removed from the case replaced by W. W. Callahan who declared at the start that he was going to take care of the Jew boy from New York. Liebowitz, however, came prepared for the next trial. Accompanied by "two puny representatives of the law" weighing 300 and 250 respectively, and carrying a brief case with "howitzers which can shoot through two elephants side by side," the defense made a safe arrival and its work pushed forward.

Denounces Lynchings
Explaining the theory of race hatred and lynching in the South, the noted attorney declared that "they lynch the colored race, not the individual negro, when they lynch the negro. One of the Decatur lawyers who represented the defense was himself a Ku Klux Klan member."

Leibowitz stated that the Alabama Supreme Court would probably not allow the case to go to Washington, but that if it ever got there, the verdicts would be reversed. "The prosecution has massed all its forces so that nine scraps of human flesh with black skin might be burned in the electric chair. But the defense will continue its task until hell freezes over. We'll fire them out soon. The state is already in bankruptcy."

An audience of more than 400 crowded Doremus Hall to the doors in anticipation of Mr. Liebowitz' presence. Liebowitz was greeted with cheers at his entrance and the speech lasting almost an hour, was continually interrupted by salvos of applause.

hostile galleries this season.

Nat Holman experimented with a zone defense in the first half against the Scarlet. But the tenor of the game caused a switch to the Laverder's usual man-to-man assignments. The latter arrangement held Rutgers in check throughout the final period.

Sam Winograd turned in the most spectacular exhibition of shooting, but the mainstays of the team were Pete Bereson and Artie Kaufman, who played their usual smart, steady floor game. Bereson also was tied or scoring honors with Winograd.

Goldman Suffered Injury
Mike Pincus, didn't go so well against Rutgers and there is a distinct possibility that Abe Weisbrodt may start in his stead. Weisbrodt gave a grand exhibition while in there against the Raritan five.

The best tobacco for pipes comes from Kentucky... and it's called "White Burley"

WE use White Burley in making Granger Rough Cut. It comes from the Blue Grass region of Kentucky — ripe, mild leaf tobacco that just about tops them all for fragrance and flavor.

From the right place on the stalk we select the kind that's best for pipes. Then we make it into Granger by Wellman's Method and cut it up into big shaggy flakes.

The City College

Vol. 54 — No. 4
NEW YORK CITY, TUESDAY, FEB. 20, 1934
PRICE TWO CENTS

S. C. Refused Right to Hold Anti-War Vote

Acting Dean Gottschall Denies
Request for Referendum
On Ballot

ALCOVE VOTE PLANNED

Blume Orders Elections to Be Held in Classrooms on Wednesday

Because of Acting Dean Morton Gottschall's refusal to grant the necessary permission for the Student Council to include a referendum on war on the ballot in tomorrow's elections, Jack Blume '34, president of the council, was forced to issue an executive order last Friday directing the Elections Committee to hold the elections for Student Council and class offices. An alcove referendum will be held on Thursday, February 29 between noon and 2 p.m.

This action was essential to furnish a legal basis for the voting. At the meeting of last term's Student Council, this resolution was passed:

Be It Resolved: That the following questions be placed on the ballot for a student referendum in next term's class elections: a. Would you refuse to support the United States in any war it might carry on? b. Would you support the United States in a defensive war? c. Do you favor the abolition of the R. O. T. C.? and further:

That unless Acting Dean Morton Gottschall gives his permission to put these three questions on the ballot, there shall be no class elections next term.

Committee Interviews Gottschall

Last Friday a student council committee of three students, Edwin Alexander '37, Sam Moscowitz '36, and Arthur Neumark '35, had an interview with the acting dean on the matter of the referendum. It was then that he denied the request of the S. C. to place the three anti-war questions on the ballot.

Immediately after the committee reported to Blume, he issued his executive order. It reads:

"In compliance with the charter of the Student Council, which calls for an election of class officers and Student Council representatives of the various extra-curricular groups, I hereby instruct the Elections Committee to run an election in the classrooms on Wednesday, February 21 at 11 a.m.

I do this as president of the Student Council.

Members are admitted on the basis of personality, initiative, and general all-round ability in the fields of both Biology and Chemistry.

Politics Club Votes To Forward Query To Bar Association

In accordance with the suggestion of Samuel S. Leibowitz, noted attorney, the executive committee of the Politics Club, headed by Robert Schneider '35, president, has presented the following resolution to the American Bar Association:

Gentlemen:
The Politics Club of the City College of New York would like to know if the A. B. A. deems it ethically correct that a son, as attorney general, should argue a case, involving the death penalty, before his father, the presiding judge, as was done in the Scottsboro cases.

Sincerely yours,
The Politics Club

The resolution was adopted last week at a meeting of the club in Doremus Hall, and was approved by the 450 students gathered to hear Mr. Leibowitz, the guest speaker.

Poll to Determine Dram Soc Locale

Students to Decide Between
Pauline Edwards and Broadway
Theatre for Show

The question of whether the Dramatic Society will hold its musical revue, "Plastered Cast" in the Pauline Edwards Theatre at the Commerce Center with a dance or in a Broadway theatre without a dance will be decided by a student poll to be conducted by the Campus Friday.

Casting has been going on all during the past week, and the cast is slowly rounding into shape. Leon Silverman '34, president of the society, announced.

Book, Music Written

The book committee for the show, consisting of Leonard Silverman '34, star of the "Guardsman", Bernard Goldstein '34, who played a prominent role in last season's "Here Comes the Bride", Arthur Bronstein '34, composer of several hit tunes in "Here Comes the Bride"; and Norman Hirschle '34, who wrote last season's hit tune "Sho 'Nuff O.K.", has arranged the libretto for "Plastered Cast."

Anti-War Group Places Theatre Tickets on Sale

Party to See "Peace On Earth"
At Civic Repertory
Theatre

DATE SET FOR MARCH 2

Prices Range from Twenty-five Cents to One Dollar

Cut-rate tickets to "Peace on Earth," a play now appearing at the Civic Repertory Theatre, were placed on sale yesterday by the Arrangements Committee of the Anti-War Congress as a move to further publicize its activities after having obtained faculty support.

The Committee has decided on Friday, March 2, as the night for its theatre party, and has obtained several hundred tickets which it plans to sell at prices ranging from $25 to $1.00. Tickets are now on sale at the Campus booth and the Concert Bureau.

An Expose of War, a play "Peace on Earth" was written by George Sklar and Albert Maltz. It is described as a smashing expose of war and attempts to answer the question of what the person should do in the event of war. In selecting the play as part of its program for building up anti-war sentiment in the College, the Committee stated that the subject and stark reality of "Peace on Earth" make it an extremely appropriate means for bringing the movement before the student.

A meeting of the Arrangements Committee has been called for tomorrow evening at 8:30 p.m. in room 130. It is expected that Dean Paul Klapper will address the Committee as head of the Open Forum Advisory Committee in order to offer his committee's aid in obtaining speakers for the Congress.

This action came as a result of the passing last Thursday of a resolution by the Faculty supporting the Congress. The Faculty Committee, which is composed of Dean Klapper and Professors Otis, Overstreet and Mead, is an advisory committee to the Open Forum, which is sponsoring the Congress.

From Hollywood There Comes a Letter Mer-curious Look It's Durante! Deses! Doses! Fast and Furious

Mercury, our blasé humor magazine, was thrown off its feet last week when a very curious letter arrived from Hollywood. This epistle came from the guy of the elongated proboscis or in common parlance Jimmy "Schnozzle" Durante and was very fustian and anomalous or as the man in street would say, "odd."

After the preliminary riots were over, some soap-box orator began to read aloud, pausing every while for translation. This was what he expostulated or read:

Dear Moicury,
It's mutiny! It's mutiny! My secretary is takin' dis letter and she's puttin' in her own reckabulary. But I put an end to that by Jimminy and I'm writin' dis letter meself. I'm even im-buein' my charakter in dese woids, hacha, tcha, tcha, tcha! and I hope you will be able to decipher it.

What I wanted to ask you, Moic, is about sendin' me some back copies of your mag. The jokes down here in Holly are purty stale and I need some good chokes in a chuffy. I am therefore enclosin' one buck and I hope you will oblige me yours truly,
Schnozzola

P. S. I'm holdin' up my picture for your gags so make it quick.
After the secondary riots were over, the Campus reporter made a startling discovery. It seems that in the heat of the moment the orator had been seeing things or that he had been seized by a fit. At any rate, the letter as your reporter read it was as follows:

Business Manager, The Mercury:
Acting in behalf of James Durante, I am herein enclosing payment for a few back issues of your magazine, which Mr. Durante has requested for his personal delectation. I hope you will find his patronage agreeable.
Signed yours,
(signed) .....

At any rate, the preceding is a beautiful example of the oedipus complex or in common parlance the nutty human mind which can translate epistles in such a dopey manner. Or at any rate, to finish up this thing, we congratulate the Merc and Mr. Durante or in common parlance we wash our hands of the entire affair.

Lavender Whips Fordham, 35-21

 feet. A few minutes later, Berenson missed another try for a goal and landed together with De Phillips in the seats behind the basket. Both arose, slightly shaken to play.

Goldman, Kaufman Also Star
 Captain Moe Goldman contributed 9 points to the Lavender cause while Artie Kaufman again did most of the feeding in an effective manner. The College was without the services of Sam Winograd, who was slightly ill, for half the contest. Abe Weisbrodt filled in for him and did well on the offense but found difficulty in botting up Bobby Reinacher, the flashy little Maroon forward.

Penalty shots gave the Rams an early 2-0 lead but Goldman dropped in a pair of fouls to tie it up. Weisbrodt arched a long toss through the hoop, Berenson converted a free throw, and Goldman followed with a goal underneath the basket as the College rolled up a 7-2 margin. After Kane of the Maroons five tallied from the floor, Berenson sank a brace of fouls and Kaufman another one to make the count 10-4.

Winograd Replaces Pincus
 The ever-dangerous De Phillips looped in a long throw and Berenson took Kaufman's pass to lay-up a beautiful basket. Fordham began to steal the tap and crept up to 12-11 as Brennan scored on a pivot and Reinacher flipped in a one-hander from the side. Weisbrodt's goal was followed by a nice solo cut and lay-up by Reinacher as the score read 14-13. With 3 minutes to go Winograd replaced Kaufman and dropped a foul followed by a long shot to give the College a 17-13 lead as the first session ended.

Winograd was in the starting lineup at the opening of the second half, replacing Pincus. Weisbrodt tallied from beyond the foul line and Reinacher sank a foul. A snappy passing attack ended with Goldman taking Kaufman's pass under the hoop and dropping the ball through the rim.

Midshipmen Beat Lavender Mermen

A powerful Navy swimming team handed the Lavender mermen their biggest setback of the season Saturday afternoon when the Midshipmen came out on the long end of a 58-13 score. The water polo team suffered its fourth straight defeat, bowing to the Navy sextet by a 41-10 count.

George Sheinberg again stood out as the leading Lavender natator, even though he received his first setback in four meets. Competing in both the 220 and 440 yard swims Sheinberg forced Plichta of Navy to a new pool record in both events. In the furlong swim Plichta and Sheinberg set such a fast pace that four and eight tenths seconds were dipped from the old figures. The slowness of the Midshipmen's pool can be seen by the results of the 440 yd. event. The Navy record of 5:19.9 is more than ten seconds behind the College mark of 5:08 set by Sheinberg in the Yale meet.

The Lavender swimmers were unable to capture a single first place for the first time in years. The best the College mermen could do was to take three seconds places in the individual events. Eli Kristol turned in the second best performance for the Lavender by taking runner up position in the backstroke.

The Lavender lost some sure points in the breaststroke by the absence of Lester Kaplan. His teammate, Goldstein, could do no better than third. Lavender and Herbst in the sprints, and Vitaliano in the dive scored the remaining points for the College.

Despite numerous substitutes the Lavender water polo team could not do much against the intricate attack of the Annapolis sextet. Captain O Hiller scored all ten points for the College.

Goldman Called Greatest Center; Rated Over Krause of Notre Dame

According to reports from Philadelphia, Moe Goldman is rated over Ed "Moose" Krause of Notre Dame as the best center in the country.

Followers of basketball who saw both men in action against Temple this season have definitely settled the controversy which has been raging between Eastern and mid-western fans. The supremacy of the giant Krause, chosen all-American center for the past two years, is disputed by Eastern observers who advance Goldman as their choice.

Jimmy Usilton, veteran coach of Temple University, whose team lost to both the College and Notre Dame gives the edge to Goldman.

Usilton Thinks Goldman Speedier
 "We have discussed the question many times since the Notre Dame game and believe that Goldman played a much better game against us than did Krause. Goldman, in my opinion, is speedier, smarter and has a better 'hook' shot than Krause."

"Reds" Rosan, who jumped center against Krause, is less than 6 feet tall, yet was able to get the top nearly half the time. Rosan also played Krause closely on the pivot and was able to stop the Notre Dame man.

"Because of another big man in the lineup, Marty Peters, Krause may appear to better advantage. Goldman, however, is my choice and that of many other prominent basketball players and coaches who have seen both in action."

Geasy Thinks Goldman Smarter
 Bob Geasey, Temple athletic director and a former basketball player of note, has this to say: "I think that Goldman is the better of the two. He is faster, smarter, has a better hook shot, and has no Peters in there to aid him because the rest of the team is small."

Captain Goldman is the mainstay of the Lavender five and has outplayed every opponent this season, averaging close to 9 points a game. In the Temple contest, he tallied 16 points, in spite of a broken nose received in the first half, to enable the College to score a 33-29 victory over the Owls and maintain a clean slate.

F. and M. Mauls College Matmen

The Lavender wrestling team had its budding winning streak abruptly shattered Saturday night when it bowed to a fine Franklin and Marshall squad 29-3, before 1500 spectators in the Biesecker gym in Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

This match marked the tenth anniversary of wrestling in the College, and never in that period have the St. Nick matmen beaten an F & M team. Joe Warren crack 165 pounder chalked up the sole victory for the Lavender in a thrilling battle with Joe Stolarz of F & M. Taking advantage of his opponents overeagerness Warren waged a canny fight to pile up a time advantage of 4:40 in a bout that was replete with action and had the crowd roaring its approval from start to finish.

In the 118 lb. division Irv Maier and Dietrich of F & M put up a terrific fight which saw first one contestant and then the other on top. A late rally by Maier just failed to nip his opponent and the Pennsylvanian had only six more seconds than he needed to win.

S. C. Activity Cards Are Reduced From Ten Dollars to Ten Cents

Drastic reductions in the price of Student Council Activity Cards were announced last week and the student body will make a net benefit of nine dollars and ninety cents. However, the cut did not originate in the beneficent minds of the Membership Committee — it was all a printer's error.

The cards will sell for ten cents and not ten dollars as printed on the ticket. All undergraduates entering in extra-curricular activities will be required to purchase a card, announced the members of the committee, Irving Novick '35, Sigmund Dreilinger '34, and Robert Levit '34.

Five Members of Cadet Club Elected to Governors' Board

Five men were elected to the Board of Governors of the Cadet Club at its meeting yesterday in the R. O. T. C. armory. The men are: Fred Silverman '36, William Faberman '36, Max Lieber '36, Clifford Muller '36 and Herbert Isenberg of the Evening Session.

Heymann, Stern In N.Y.A.C. Meet

Gus Heymann and Marvin Stern, representing the College, participated in the New York Athletic Club track meet held last Saturday night at Madison Square Garden. Both men failed to place in their respective events, Heymann never leading the finals in the 60 yard dash and Stern following the leaders over the finish line in the two mile run.

A pulled tendon accounted for Heymann's failure to qualify for the 60 yard finals. By capturing second place in his heat, Heyman was entered in the semi-finals and was making a strong bid for second place, a qualifying position, running neck and neck with Ben Johnson of Columbia who ultimately won the event, both men a step behind Earl Wedmyer of Maryland when Heymann pulled his tendon a foot from the finish line.

It isn't cowardice — it's jangled nerves

No one likes a sudden, unexpected noise. But if you jump or even wince uncontrollably at such a time—check up on yourself. Get enough sleep—fresh air—recreation. And make Camels your cigarette. For you can smoke as many Camels as you want. Their costlier tobaccos never jangle the nerves of the most constant smoker.

COSTLIER TOBACCOS
 Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS than any other popular brand of cigarettes!

How are YOUR nerves?
 TRY THIS TEST

Take a pencil in your right hand, hold it about two inches above the point. At the space marked "start," begin to draw a continuous line backward and forward (touching the little markers on either side). Stay within the side margins—your lines must not cross. Be sure neither hand nor arm touches the paper. Average time is 7 seconds.

Bill Cook (Camel smoker), famous hockey star, completed the test in 4 seconds.

Varsity Fencers Beat M.I.T., 15-2

The varsity fencing team was host to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology swordsmen last Saturday and the Lavender scored a 15-2 victory, its first of the intercollegiate season, at the expense of the New Englanders. The contest, which was staged at the 23 street gym, was preceded by an intra-College match in which the Commerce foils team, defeated the junior varsity by a 9-0 score.

Coach Joseph Vince's men were invincible in foils, winning all nine bouts by overwhelming scores. The sabre and epee matches were both captured by the home team by 3 to 1 scores.

High scoring honors for the St. Nicks were shared by Bernard Frechtman and Nathaniel Lubell, each of whom scored three victories in foils and one in epee. These two men bore the brunt of the battle for the Lavender, instead of the usually hard-working captain Emil Goldstein, who competed only in one foils and one sabre bout, winning both.

Gerald Ehrlich who made a delayed varsity debut, also performed brilliantly, winning two foils contests and defeating his opponent with the sabre. Ehrlich took the place of Cornel Wilde, who has been representing the College consistently.

Sternberg's Grumbling Ended; Senior Summarily Suspended

Hartley Sternberg, '34, took a long time to get it off his chest, but finally muttered those unpleasant little somethings under his breath to the man at the window of room 100. After standing on line for a long time, Sternberg reached the fateful window, presented his case, was curtly dismissed. Walking away, he uttered his cheerful little earful just loud enough for the clerk to hear. The clerk, however, had the last word, and presented that to the acting dean. Result:—Sternberg was suspended for one week.

"News" Sponsors Field Trip To Historical Battlefields

Fourteen students majoring in History, together with a similar group from N. Y. U., will visit the battlefields of the American Revolution in a bus tour through New York and Pennsylvania this Saturday and Sunday, under the sponsorship of the "Daily News."

The route of the historical caravan includes Saratoga, West Point, and Valley Forge. Professor Howard C. Green of the History Department will also make the pilgrimage and will lecture on the various points visited.

sum to transfer to this benevolence would be $3,000."

In addition to the taking over and renovating for lunchroom use of the alcoves of the C. D. A., Menorah, Y. M. C. A., and Newman clubs, Dr. Robinson suggested that the partitioned-off storeroom space at the northeast corner of the student concourse should be cleared out. He urged the faculty committee to take up this matter with the Curator of the College.

President Robinson authorized the faculty committee to invite the Student Council to appoint two upper seniors to serve with it on a joint committee to operate the lunchroom which will function like the joint committee on the Co-Op store. "I hope," he declared, "that you three, namely, Professor Browne, Professor Autenrieth and Professor Babor, will continue to serve, together with the two students who may be designated by the Student Council. It might be well to have one student from the Liberal Arts College and one from the School of Technology. It seems wisest to have upper seniors because these gentlemen who have been longest in College have had the most experience and will be of most service to the committee."

Social Students Discuss Prison

The Social Research Laboratory, holding its initial meeting of the term yesterday, heard the "Conditions of Welfare Island discussed by Judah Shapiro, '34.

Shapiro who is working under the supervision of Dr. Herman Schulman, gave a graphic description of the state of affairs in city prisons and briefly explained the cleavage between the poor prisoner and the rich, despotic "residents."

Joseph Seldin, '36, Philip Reichlue '36, Morton Zuckerman '36, Leonard Zneinal '35 and Harry Silverman '35 were elected to the editorial board of their publication, the Social Research.

The first issue of "Social Research" will be distributed gratuitously to all government classes today. "The Social Hobe" and "East Side", by Gilbert Millstein and Leonard Zneinal respectively, are articles giving inside views of the shacks and of the ghetto. Professor Joseph, head of the laboratory, also added a note to the issue.

Each year Turkey and Greece ship us thousands of bales of fine tobaccos—

But why send 4,000 miles for tobacco?

... because spicy, aromatic Turkish is the best seasoning there is for a cigarette.

It adds something to flavor and aroma that no other tobacco can give. Chesterfield uses Turkish tobacco—from Samsoun, Smyrna, Cavalla and Xanthi.

Then it blends and cross-blends them with various kinds of choice home-grown tobaccos in the right balance to give you a cigarette that's milder, a cigarette that tastes better.

A leaf of Turkish tobacco—smaller than the palm of your hand—800 or more to the pound. There are many thousands of these leaves in each of these bales below, ready for shipment to America.
