Dean Skene and Freedom of the Press

We do not intend to take this lying down. We intend to exert every possible effort to preserve the traditional American right of freedom of the press.

It is our inalienable right to speech, to express our thought, opinions, and beliefs publicly.

The American people have a right to hear the views of all men and women who can express them.

The American people have a right to know the truth about their government and its actions.

The American people have a right to be informed about the world around them.

We are committed to fighting for these rights and will not be deterred by any attempt to silence us.

Increasing awareness of student newspapers that is all not well with the world, both inside and out of college walls, must be the first thing that the reader of representative college journals throughout the country notices. "Schools not Battlegrounds," the struggle for Peace against War, opposition to the forces of reaction and repression, and realization of a mounting need for student aid and not only the programs of ambitious students groups as the American Student Union, the Students for a Democratic Society, and the United States R.O.T.C. as the newspaper for the movement, are but a few of the reasons why the reader cannot help but be impressed by the amount of news and analysis that tax collectors are increasing regularly. To the casual observer it would seem that an increase in tax collectors is increasing student aid, and the state institutions as well.

And on another page of the same issue of the same paper: "An increase in tax collectors is increasing student aid, and the state institutions as well.

THE ASU

The meeting to form and organize a chapter of the American Student Union at the College was held yesterday. The charter which this chapter has adopted must be a real and immediate step towards the goal of a nationwide movement for peace and social justice.

The American Student Union is an organization of students which will fight against fascism, against racial discrimination for academic freedom and against war. The American Student Union is one of the most significant world events of the moment. All of our American Unions are absolutely certain and the American Student Union must be a part of that Union.

That was no lady

Berlin, Feb. 9 (AP)—A foreign office spokesman categorically denied tonight the charge by Georges Honecker in Berlin that Germany had sent 40,000 fully armed men into the demilitarized Rhineland disguised as policemen.

The spokesman termed the statement "inaccurate."

He said there was not a single soldier, camouflage or otherwise disguised as a civilian...the voices, not a single soldier, camouflage or otherwise disguised as a civilian...

The spokesman asserted there were probably 40,000 police and customs officials in the area, "of course, all police and military, including machine guns, as all police of heavily industrialized districts."

"A total of 40,000 police," he said, "is not an exaggerated number for such a district with 10,000,000 inhabitants and cities such as Frankfurt, Coblenz and Karlsruhe."—Connecticut Daily News, Feb. 10.

"Since I am not an absolute pacifist I cannot honestly subscribe to the Oxford Chest, but you may rely upon me to defend the student's right to hold his organization and to use as a weapon against war, reaction, and fascism. As to the question of propaganda and other forms of capitalism appeasement wherever they may appear."—Louis Mumford, member of the Board of Higher Education.

Instructor Goes Round and Round

At least one instructor at the College is in "the basement." An advertisement in the notice column of the Student Union newspaper this week called attention to the fact that student organizations are increasing their influence on the academic scene. The advertisement states that student organizations are increasing their influence on the academic scene.

Snyder Traces Rise of Hitler To Suppression

Characterizing the present German situation as that of the retail of centralism and suppression, Dr. Louis L. Snyder, assistant to the History Society yesterday, under the subject of "Hitler and Germany," said:

"While Germany, he first pointed out, has been since the division of the Carolingian Empire a divided nation, it was only since the division of the Carolingian Empire that it was divided into separate nations. The division of the nation, he said, was due to the fact that the great powers of the world, Russia, France, and Germany, were engaged in a struggle for supremacy in Europe.

Moreover, the Germans thought they were being persecuted by jealous nations, and they were being prevented from achieving national unity.

"Hitler," Dr. Snyder continued, "is a man of the present generation, who has spent many years in Germany, Russia, and China, ruled by militarists; and an unsuccessful attempt to encircle the world around Germany." Therefore, Dr. Snyder maintained, it was not difficult to convince a great many of the German people that they were being prevented from achieving national unity.

Robinson Greets Freshman Class

"We discipline you so that later you may discipline yourselves," President Robinson told the freshman class at its first chapel service Tuesday in the Great Hall. "We shall not dictate to you what you shall think, say, or do outside the College, but we shall constantly remind you that you must be loyal to truth, duty and the responsibilities of honorable citizenship in a liberal democracy.

"Growing the incoming class, he said, "will make us entering dental school." He then went on to say that it was the right of a teacher to teach the truth as he sees it, without interference on the part of mediocrity persons who happens to have different views.

"Liberal Thinkers"

"Your professors are liberal thinkers. They are protected by all the authorities at the College in the exercise of what we call academic freedom," the president declared.

Dr. John R. Turner, Dean of Men, also addressed the freshmen before the first chapel. Representatives of the Menorah-Avukah and the Students' Administration, Chemistry Societies spoke and explained the aims of the organizations.

NYA Rolls Include Only One in Eight

One eighth of the eight thousand students enrolled in the day session are employed by the National Youth Administration, according to Dr. Arthur Compton. Though the government allocates $142,000 to the College in monthly installments, it stipulates that not more than twelve percent of the student body can receive relief.

Dr. Compton is trying to increase this minimum eligibility since many students are being denied relief under existing regulations. Qualification requires that an average grade of C in at least twelve credits be eligible for the student to earn an honor, thirty hours in the work program.

Beavers Beat Union, 32-30, After Leading 21-4 at Half

Al Demarest Paces Team to Victory; Closeness of Contest Place Quinet at End of Odds for Fordham Game in Madison Square Garden Tonight

With Al Demarest, ranger reserve center performing in heroic fashion, the Beaver quintet managed to eke out a 32-30 victory over Union College last Wednesday night. The Thundering Herd was the only team thus far this season to lead the Beavers, but the St. Nicks had frittered away a preeminent point lead collected in the first half.

In view of the chances of Wednesday's score, the Fordham contest tonight promises to be a thriller with the Beaver waiting for the opening whistle on the long end of the odds. The players fear this will be the most stimulating and visible play under the Garden double bill featuring the N.Y.U-Natal Duke gane.

For the first time in five years, the Ham has gone under to its court, and the Fordham quintet is said to be the best combination ever around A001.

With the opening whistle Wednesday day the Beaver face started off with it hanging. Everything clicked. The run down was completed by the running as tight as a new pair of shoes. St. John's and Phil Lavender tied last night's point total and won all three.

Consequently, the upset quintet was completely unprepared. With Lavender the College was deserted-the desperate Dubs were reduced to long shots with miserable results. At the end of the first half the score was 21-4 in favor of the Beavers.

Paced by none of those unknowable Polks, Podbielniak, who was high scorer with eighteen points, the Baker boys began an onslaught of the Beaver's lead. Please into the St. Nick second team the Union aggression began to tally on almost every play. They gained the better to impregnable Beaver defense with incredibly fine.

With Podbielniak throwing up the half every time he got his hands on it, not even the superb was able to hold the scored in the basket. With his eye on the tramp, he was able to hold the scored on the basket. With his eye on the tramp, he was able to hold the scored on the basket.

Jayvees Defeat
Grand Streeters

Featuring a band of half outstanding, Phil Keenan, the Jay-vee basketbals consumed an aggressive Grand Streeter quintet Wednesday night. The 23-5 Amy Reuther ranger reserve center, was the high scorer with a total of one point.

Although both teams were aggressive and well matched, the game was marred considerably by sloppy passing and poor floor work. Time and again the Beaver five would get a smooth play order only to lose possession of the ball through bad passing. Throughout the first half, this dif-ficultly hampered the St. Nicks and at the end of the session they trailed 17.

In the second half the Lavender came back with a bang and aided by some lucky shooting on the part of Reuther, quickly ran up to five points to place them. St. Nicks maintained throughout the duration of the game.

On the whole Wednesday's game could be summed up by the following words: "If we had better luck in the L.I.U. game several weeks ago they might have a tough time getting past the New York Rocksy Club as Feb. 12.

ED 43 MEETING

Handbook Payments

Freshmen who have not yet paid for their handbooks should make their final payments by noon Friday, February 14, according to an announcement by Sam Megavola '36, business manager of the Hand-

By mild ripe tobacco we mean just this

FIRST—ripened in the sunshine... and picked leaf by leaf from the right part of the stalk when fully ripe.

THEN—each day's picking cured right by the farmer... at the right time and in the right way... no "splotching" or brittleness, but every leaf of good color and flavor.

FINALLY—bought in the open market... re-dried for storage... then packed in wooden hogheads to age and mellow for two years or more until free from harshness and bitterness.

That's what we mean by mild, ripe tobacco. And that's the kind of tobacco we use to give Chesterfields their milder, better taste.
