Beaver Five Faces McGill Tonight

Scranton Fracas Scheduled For New Year's Eve

By Harold Mendelsohn

Now that it has polished off Oregon, an outfit whose publicity build-up was mightier than its play, the College basketball team is preparing to celebrate the holidays by meeting McGill University of Toronto tonight and Scranton University on New Year's Eve. Both games will be played in the College gym.

Although neither team has the record or physical superiority of the Webfeet, there has been no letting up for the St. Nicks. Just over the hill in 1939 is the St. John's five which, with its great set shot artists, will require the best of any team.

McGill, the Beavers' opponent tonight, have been visitors to Convent Avenue three times without being able to win once. This year the prospects are that the Canadian five will be forced to make its fourth consecutive unsuccessful trip to the College gym. The Red Birds started off their current New York visit on the wrong foot by losing to LIU by a score of 77-39 Wednesday night on the winners' 2 x 4 court at the Brooklyn College of Pharmacy.

Once again the Lavender team will be shorter than its opponents. But this time the visitors' tallest man is Neville Wykes, 6 feet, 2 inch forward. There are absolutely no men on the squad a la Oregon's Slim Wintermute, seven inches taller than Al Soupios, the Beavers' big man. Wykes, who was the Montreal team's high-scorer last year, has been slow rounding into his top form this season.

But against LIU, he broke out in a scoring rash with eight field goals and three free throws for a total of nine.

'Monthly' Retains Position As Best College Magazine

By Sol Goldzweig

The Monthly is still the best magazine in the College as the December issue, out this week, shows.

The poetry, though not without traces of typical 'college poetry' obscurity, is better than usual. Fiction is at the normal level, while there is a fascinating essay on "Lumina," an art of light.

Not one of the stories is excellent, but they are all good. The featured piece, "Respite," is about a young man with an abnormal resentment against the College. My objection, however, is not to this, but to certain falsities in characterization.

"Respite" is written smoothly, much more smoothly than "Not for the Doctrine" or "Fifth Floor Front." "Not for —" is a sincere but stiffly written defense of the Ivory Tower.

Another fault in writing is demonstrated in "Fifth Floor Front," the

College to Be Host to ASU Convention; 1000 Delegates Expected to Attend

'Santy Claus' to Reign Over Freshman Hop

"Toby Wing will not attend the Freshman Hop but Santy Claus will," declared Bernard Goltz '42 of the Freshman Class Council. Scheduled for tomorrow night in the Exercise Hall, the dance will feature the Yuletide spirit, with Mistletoe and girls galore included, he said.

"The hottest band on this side of Harlem," and several novelty dances, are also promised by Goltz. Headlining the bill of entertainment is a dance team of "Jivey Jitterbugs" who are guaranteed to "pull down the roof of the Exercise Hall."

F & S Proposes College Movie

A petition, asking support of a proposal to make a documentary film about the College for exhibition at the World's Fair, as part of the "Build City College" movement, has been signed by more than 1,000 students and faculty members, according to Edward Shustack '39, president of the Film and Sprockets Society.

The petition, supported by thirteen College organizations, is still being circulated by the society, he declared.

"Our college, the foremost example of a municipal college in the world, should certainly be represented at the Fair," the petition states: "The accomplishments of our faculty, the quality of our scholarships, the thoroughness of our training and our fitness to help build the World of Tomorrow, are all worthy of the widest publicity."

Downey, Mead, Lash to Address Hippodrome Rally and Jamboree

"Keep Democracy Working by Keeping it Moving Forward" will be the theme of the fourth national convention of the American Student Union to be held Christmas week, December 26-30. The College will be host at this year's convention, the first in New York City.

One thousand delegates from two hundred chapters of the ASU from the entire country and from Hawaii, are expected to attend.

The five day conference will deal with four general topics: "The University or School We Want to Study In"; "The America We Want to Live In"; "The World that Will Give Us Peace"; and "The ASU We Want to Make." Sessions will be held at the Commerce Center.

Sheridan F. Downey, senator-elect from California, Acting-President Nelson P. Mead of the College and Joseph P. Lash '31, National Secretary of the ASU, will address the Student Rally and Jamboree Tuesday evening at the Hippodrome. The rally will present a satire on the Dies Committee, Unamericana, written and produced by the Mob Theater and its ASU members, and a new swing dance and song, "The Student Stomp."

Speakers who will take part in the regular sessions and panels include Jay Allen, former Chicago Tribune Spanish correspondent; Roger Baldwin, director of the American Civil Liberties Union; James Carey, national secretary of the Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO); Dr. Clark Eichelberger, director of the League of Nations Association; Professor Max Lerner of Williams College, former editor of The Nation; Ordway Tead, chairman of the Board of Higher Education and James Wechsler of The Nation and author of Revolt on the Campus.

Subdivisions of each of the main topics of the convention will be discussed in commissions and panels. Groups on "The University We Want to Live In" which will be discussed on Tuesday, will include: curriculum, control, campus health and housing, student self-government, the undergraduate press, campus cooperatives, and student workers and NYA. The Wednesday topic, "The America We Want to Live In," will consist of: social insurance, the Negro question, civil liberties, political action, labor's bill of rights and the situation in the profession.

Joint Chem-Tech Meeting Discusses Job Placement

Means of improving the employment outlook for Tech and Chemistry graduates were discussed yesterday by Dr. Frank A. Schaefer, secretary of the Municipal Civil Service Commission, and Millard H. Gibson, College Placement Director, at a joint meeting of the Baskerville Chemistry Society and the Tech Seminar.

"A regular sales campaign" was recommended by Gibson as the best way to obtain jobs for College graduates. "253 corporations sell materials and equipment to City College. If each of them employed only one technically trained College graduate, your employment problem would be licked," Gibson stated.

The placement director discarded the possibility of anti-College prejudice among industrial concerns. "Before I came here I heard about a City College type, and that industry wouldn't take that type," he said. "I didn't believe it then, and I don't believe it now."

Christmas Recess Library Hours

The schedule of library hours for the Christmas Recess is as follows, according to Professor Francis Goodrich, College Librarian.

All divisions of the library will be closed tomorrow, Sunday and Monday, December 25 and 26 and January 1 and 2. Only the Main Reference Room will be open, from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m., on Saturday, December 31.

The schedule for the other days of the recess is:

Main Reference Room: 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday; 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. on Friday; 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. on Saturday.

Circulation Department: Tuesday to Friday, from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.

History Reference Room and Periodical Room: 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. from Tuesday to Friday.

The Technology Reading Room: Tuesday and Friday from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m.; Wednesday from 12 p. m. to 5 p. m.; Thursday from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

300 Students, Faculty Sing Christmas Carols

Christmas carols reverberated through the marble expanses of the Hall of Patriots Wednesday as three hundred students and staff members sang to the accompaniment of a bassoon, a flute, an ocarina and more prosaic violin and piano. Directed by J. Bailey Harvey (Public Speaking Department), the carolers gathered at the east end of the corridor near the fourteen-foot Christmas tree.

The mass outpouring of yule spirit was enthusiastic, but not always harmonious. Judged by the gusto by which the various selections were rendered, Jingle Bells was the most popular song.

College Seen As City's Center

To make the College "the cultural center of New York City," Professor Harry A. Overstreet (Philosophy Dept.) this week invited proposals for bringing the College closer to the community.

"As a city institution, the College should be the nucleus of New York's intellectual activity," Dr. Overstreet commented, adding that the public should be acquainted with the scholarly activities at the College.

Professor Overstreet, who is chairman of the College Committee on Public Relations, suggested that a lecture series, radio broadcasts and educational exhibits might be presented. Each would be open to the public.

Visiting speakers could deliver lectures supplementary to the curriculum, Professor Overstreet pointed out. He requested that students suggest possible subjects.

Upperclassmen will criticize their courses, in reply to a questionnaire to be circulated by Gibbs '39 for the Student Council Curriculum Committee Wednesday, January 4.

The questions are directed to seniors and juniors, and refer to their major studies.

Ask ROTC to Help Recruit Members

A letter coupling holiday greetings with a request to contact students who may enter the College in February, was mailed to every member of the College ROTC Tuesday by the Military Science Department.

The reason given in the communication for contacting high school graduates was that "many of them do not know about the ROTC, or some may have received a different impression than you have." The letter, written by Colonel Oliver P. Robinson, chairman of the department, stated that by these contacts, cadets can help build up a bigger and better unit.

Two Parties To Contest SC Elections

Third Party Also Reported to Enter Slate in Campaign

Two parties will definitely be entered in the Student and Class Council school-wide elections on January 6—one, the "Build City College" (BCC) Party with a complete ticket, and the other, the United Action (UA) Party with candidates for SC officers and SC Class Representatives.

The deadline for candidacies is set for today at 3 p.m.

The Campus learned last night from reliable sources that a third party, tentatively labeled the Progressive Students (PS) Party, will compete in the '40 Class, and possibly for other positions. The Campus could get no statements from those students allegedly connected with the PS Party.

Candidates for any office must supply the names of two students who will aid in distributing and tallying ballots, according to George Pecker '39, chairman of the SC Elections Committee. To become a candidate in the elections, he said, a student must have had a "C" average last term and must pay thirty-five cents to the Elections Committee.

For officers of Student Council (president, vice-president and secretary) candidates this term must be registered Lower Seniors, Upper Juniors and Lower Juniors, respectively; for president and secretary of the '40, '41 and '42 Classes, candidates must be from the lower half of their class, and for vice-president and historian, they must be from the upper half of their class. Candidates for '39 class officers and for the Student Council representatives in all classes can be from either half of their class.

Jack Fernbach '39, president of the American Student Union and former secretary of the Student Council, and William Rasky '40, secretary of the Student Council and Editor-in-Chief of The Campus, were chosen as the "Build City College" Party candidates for president and vice-president, respectively. Alan Otten '40, senior member of the Student Council, will run on this slate for secretary.

Martin Stecher '39, president of Avukah, George Schechter '40, president of the Politics Club and secretary of the Anti-War Club, Harold Lubin

'Mercury' Revival Set For Feb. 3, 4

The oft-postponed annual Mercury Movie Revival is now scheduled to be held on the evenings of Friday and Saturday, February 3 and 4, at the Pauline Edwards Theatre, 23rd Street and Lexington Ave., Arthur Block '39, editor, announced. Tickets are now on sale at twenty-five cents a person.

Pictures starring such old-timers as Mary Pickford, Charlie Chaplin and Will Rogers will be shown. An added attraction will be the Jeffries-Fitzsimmons championship fight pictures.

Beavers to Face McGill Five

Coach to Select Varsity Boxing Team

Justin Sirutis, varsity boxing coach, is a very perplexed young man these days. Although the mittmen have more than a month to go before engaging West Virginia in their first meet, Sirutis has a double problem on his hands.

He must keep the squad at the peak condition they have attained. In addition he is faced with the difficulty of making varsity choices in two divisions which have two or more aspirants battling for the privilege of facing the Mountaineers on Saturday, February 4.

The 125 and heavyweight divisions are the chief sources of Sirutis' headaches. In the first group, Paul Graziano, Marty Kaufman and Paul Suskin are waging a terrific battle for the varsity nomination, while the heavyweight division finds Sid Emmer and Sid Turenshine, veterans, being pressed for the starting post by newcomers Phil Mayer and Stan Mintz. The only mittmen who are sure of starting berths are co-captains Victor Zimmet, 155 lb. division, and John Nemeth, 175 lb. battler.

Shep '39, Abbe '40 Spilt In Intramural Competition

Shep '39 and Abbe '40 broke even yesterday afternoon in their last two intramural contests of the year when the Shep basketball team registered a 25-12 win, while the Abbe volley ball contingent was scoring a 15-9 victory.

Abbe captured the House Plan volley ball title and will meet the Jitterbugs for the College championship on Thursday, January 5.

The Health Ed Soc and All Star court quintets also scored quarter-final victories yesterday afternoon to follow Shep '39 and Bowker '42 into the semi-final round, which will be played during the Christmas holiday. The two House Plan teams will meet at 10 a.m. Thursday, while the former duo of teams will meet at 11 a.m. Tuesday. The winners will play in the finals on January 5.

The Shep-Abbe court tiff was by far the best of the afternoon, despite the score. Paced by Stan Friedman, who scored eight points in the first half and two in the second to take scoring honors, the victors, coached by Iz Schnadow, got off to an early lead, which they held throughout the battle.

Jerry Goldin, of Abbe, and Mousie Schwartz, of Shep, tied for second ranking in scoring with five points each.

Limiting their rivals to three points, all scored in the first half, Lou Daniels' Health Ed Soc team romped to a 21-3 win over Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. The floor work of Bill Fleischman and Charley Covatti was a great help to the winners. Fleischman was the high scorer of the afternoon with eight points, while Chick Bromberg, with six, and Covatti, with five, were close behind.

Abbe Fischweicher and Moe Schwartz each tallied eight points to lead the All Stars to a 25-4 victory over the Varsity Club in the third game on the day's program. The speedy All Star five outclassed the losers throughout the game and had little difficulty in holding the Varsity Club to a field goal in each half.

The swim meet, scheduled for yesterday, has been postponed until January 5 and, thus, will be the third event on the Intramural Board's biggest day of the year. Entries for the meet will be accepted until 2 p.m. on

Scranton Fracas Scheduled for New Year's Eve

(Continued from Page 1, Col. 1) ten points. The College gym's size may be suitable to Wykes' set shots but if the Hol-men's aggressive play could squelch Laddie Gale of Oregon, the country's high scorer, in the Garden last week, the same aggressiveness seems to have a good chance of keeping the Toronto tossers under control.

After their fine job against Oregon last week-end, it doesn't seem probable that the St. Nicks will have much trouble with McGill, but Coach Nat Holman has kept the squad moving at top speed in scrimmages between the first and second teams and also against the Fire Department five.

The only man on the Beaver squad who has been relaxing is Co-captain Manny Jarmon. This relaxation is in the form of a rest cure for a sprained ankle suffered in practice on Tuesday. Whether Manny will start tonight is questionable but replacements will be available with Hal Kaufman, Bobby Sand, Lou Daniels and Izzy Schnadow ready to follow up their fine work in the Oregon game.

Tonight's probable starting line-ups:

Natators Prepare For Jasper Meet

The varsity swimming team encouraged by two victories, is priming itself for a third straight win against Manhattan College on February 3, in the Jaspers' pool.

Coach McCormick is pleased with the performances of such men as co-captain Connie Dalman, and Harry Liber, who always seem to come through in the pinches. The showings of Adolf Samoluk, co-captain Sam Wexler and Ted Zaner in the St. Francis meet have lightened the coach's worries about the free style races.

So, it is with hope and a good swimming team that the Beavers travel to the domain of the Kelly Greens.

Fencers Practice

The ring of clashing swords can be heard any day at the Commerce Center gym, where the College fencing team has been preparing for the pre-season Invitation Inter-Collegiate which will take place after the Christmas vacation.

The team, paced by captain Max Goldstein, foilsman, Berwin Cohen, top notch epee man, and Bertrand Cooper, saberman, should have a good season, according to Coach Montague. The rest of the varsity consists of Herb Spector, Marty Mendelsohn, Dave Guillard, and Louis Palliata.

After the Ball

"Dear Santa—" Or What Our Coaches Want For Xmas

By Philip Minoff

As Emily Dickinson once wrote, "Hope is a subtle glutton." I am reasonably sure that most of the College coaches and officials know in their heart and soul that the Santa Claus story is only a legend. But Christmas time has come around once more and, although they should know better, they cannot resist the temptation of idly throwing out a wish or two in the hope that somehow the old gent in the scarlet fittings will lend an ear and surprise them Xmas morning. And they all deserve it, because they didn't wait till the night before Christmas to be good.

Coach Radford J. McCormick (Swimming Team)—"All I want is a brand new pool out on 140th Street. The swimming team has had a swell season thus far and I feel that one good churn deserves another." (Just hang up a stocking, Mac).

Jimmy Peace (Director of Intramurals)—"I'd like to have a field house for College Intramurals, apart from the intercollegiate set-up, like they have out West. You know, an indoor football stadium and things like that. (Just hang up two stockings, Jimmy).

Lou Daniels (of the basketball team)—"One field goal." (Just hang up, Lou).

Dr. Daniel Broustein (Tennis Coach)—"An unlimited supply of tennis balls and facilities for indoor practice during the winter." (What would Spinoza say about this wishful thinking?)

Nat Holman (you know what he does)—"Dear Santa—I want a whip, or a cat-o-nine-tails, so I can get this team of mine to play the same spirited ball it played against Oregon." (You will find your present under the radio, Nat).

Lou Daniels—"One field goal."

Tony Orlando (Assistant Coach of the Track Team)—"I don't want much. All I ask is that the boys in the College who can run come out for the team." (Santa has assured me, Tony, that there will be a couple of runners on the sleigh, so your worries are over).

Professor Williamson (Director of Athletics)—"I just hope the basketball team keeps up the good work and continues to draw the crowds." (Even on Christmas the Professor thinks of money).

Lou Daniels—"One field goal."

Joe Sapora (Wrestling Coach)—"I could use a good wrestling coach uptown. We can barely get along without one." (It's in the bag, Joseph).

Carlos Wagner (Assistant Coach of the boxing team)—"A minimum of black eyes and an invite to the Eastern Intercollegiate. If we're not good enough they don't invite us. If we're too good they don't invite us. So I'm hoping for a good mediocre team."

The column—"A merry Christmas to both our readers. And we do mean Yule."

Sports Slants . . .

Although the Oregon affair is already almost a week old, the Beavers are still strutting around with their heads lifted as high as the bell tower . . . especially now since the Webfoot knocked off St. Joseph's . . . the Strand has been showing newsreels of the Oregon game all this week . . . with the result that Al Soupios and Babe Adler have set up temporary residence in the middle aisle of that theatre.

The Dorset Theater, 147th Street and Broadway, has been showing the pictures also . . . and we must admit the films make our heroes look even better than we thought . . . Tuesday, Coach Nat Holman had a private session with his gang, discussing the Oregon game, and running off motion pictures (slow and fast) of the same . . . Holman was not backward in declaring that Babe Adler is fast developing into one of the best men he ever had.

In a scrimmage against the Fire Department team Wednesday, the coach of the Smoke Eaters admitted that the Beavers get better with every performance . . . Soupios has been practicing his pet shot from the side of the court . . . and now can ring in four out of five . . . Harry Stein is fast growing poor betting the Greek Adonis on every shot "Soup" throws up.

Manny Jarmon may be sitting on the bench when the Beavers start the game against the McGill Red Birds tonight . . . the co-captain sprained his ankle Tuesday and has not practiced all week . . . Hal Kaufman will probably start in Manny's place . . . Sandy Bruckner, unofficial officiator of the basketballers, scouted the LIU-McGill game Wednesday night, along with the rest of the team and Maestro Holman . . . Sandy thinks McGill "should be stood in bed."

The boys are still peeved at the slighting remarks directed toward them before the Oregon game . . . Stanley Frank, one-time Campus sports editor and now on the Post, has come in for some especially uncomplimentary statements . . . McGill has brought down a nine man squad for its campaign in the States.

The boys from Montreal don't go in much for basketball . . . hockey is their game . . .

Board Accepts Robinson's Resignation

Revises System Of Granting Leaves To Staff Members

The Board of Higher Education approved the resignation of Dr. Frederick B. Robinson as president of the College at its meeting Monday. The retirement, which goes into effect next June 30, had been unanimously accepted last week by the College Administrative Committee of the Board.

Changes in the system of granting sabbatical, maternity and sick leaves to teachers and administrative officers in the City Colleges were also adopted at the meeting.

Henceforth, those on sabbatical leave will receive half pay for a full year, or full year, minus the salary of a substitute, for half year. Applications for a sabbatical may be made only after seven years of service. The board, before acting on the applications, will consider their advantages both to the college and to the individual.

Restrictions were placed on the number of days of sick leave a staff member may take. The number of days allowed formerly was unlimited.

The Board also decided that special leave without pay will be granted to those who wish to devote their time to "study, writing, research, creative projects, public services of reasonable duration or restoration of health."

The Board committee which drafted the proposals included Mrs. Marion R. Mack, Mrs. Carrie K. Medalie and Mrs. Julia van Dernoort.

Locker Thief Given Suspended Term For Petty Larceny

Howard Bunn '42, who was arrested on November 10 for rifling lockers at the College, was convicted of petty larceny and given a suspended sentence of from six months to three years last week. Disposal of the case of Horace Ford '42, arrested with Bunn, was postponed to January 11.

The students were apprehended by Joseph Fynke of the College Custodial staff, who previously had become suspicious of Bunn's actions and followed him. Fynke saw Bunn and Ford on St. Nicholas Terrace, and, with Edwin Miller, also of the custodial staff, who has a permit to carry a gun, stopped and questioned them.

A search of Bunn's locker revealed a collection of locks, textbooks with the names of various people in them, gym outfits, and other articles.

Fynke was responsible for the arrest last spring of Lawrence Colligan, another locker thief. Together with Joseph Randolph, a fellow worker, he captured Colligan in the tunnels. He was sentenced to six months in prison.

Job Placement

In conclusion, Gibson advocated a city-wide campaign to convince private corporations of the purchasing power behind the "34,000 students of the City Colleges," and to persuade them to take on one College man a year.

Basketball Rally Planned By House Plan for January 7

"Beat St. John's" will be the war cry of a rally, sponsored by the House Plan, to create school spirit for the Beaver basketball team when they meet St. John's University at Madison Square Garden Saturday, January 7. The rally will take place Thursday, January 5, at 12:30 p.m.

A committee was appointed by the House Council, at its meeting Wednesday, to make arrangements for the rally, Frank C. Davidson, HP director, announced.

Nat Holman, basketball coach, will speak at the rally, if present plans go through, Mr. Davidson stated. The committee, headed by Victor Tchertkoff '40, vice-president of the Council, has secured Doremus Hall for the rally.

Here and There at 292:—Thornton Wilder's one-act, The Happy Journey From Camden to Trenton, was presented by the House Plan Studio Dramatic Group at a tea yesterday. In celebration of the Yuletide, the tea was held around the Christmas

Protests Against Abolition of THH Gaining Impetus

The movement against the proposed abolition of Townsend Harris High School gained impetus yesterday when Harris Alumni at the College met to organize protests against the proposal. Committees were formed and petitions circulated at the meeting.

The reason advanced by John T. Flynn of the BHE, for abolition of the high school is that it takes up space in the Commerce building which might better be used for students of the School of Business and Civic Administration.

The alumni, under the leadership of Harry Shpuntoff '39, plan to send petitions to the Board of Higher Education asking the establishment of the preparatory high school in a new location.

SC, Class Elections

(Continued from Page 1, Col. 6) '40, vice-president of the Philosophy Society, are respectively the candidates for president, vice-president and secretary of the Student Council on the United Action slate. The United Action Party has set up a committee to formulate its program.

The program and slate of the "Build City College" Party was ratified yesterday by the YMCA, the Douglass Society, the American Student Union, El Circulo Fuentes, the Camera Club, Physics Society, Philatelic Society, Radio Club, '39 Class, Dramatic Society, Law Society and by the Caduceus Society. The Tech Seminar and the Baskerville Chem Society also voted yesterday to support the BCC movement.

The BCC party has as its platform the "Build City College" campaign which seeks to make the College more widely known and respected in the community in order to provide jobs for graduates and to expand the College facilities, the program states.

The proceeds from the dance will go to the Joint Distribution Committee, not the Jewish Distribution Committee, as was announced in the last issue of The Campus... In a letter to The Campus, Edward Felsenfeld '39, chairman of the dance, objected to the phrase "departing from its custom of refraining from taking sides in any controversial items."

Cadet Club Plans Theater Party To 'Big Blow'

The Cadet Club has already sold over 150 tickets to the WPA production of Big Blow, which it will see on Sunday, January 29. This theater party is to be the tenth successful affair held this term, according to Milt Wiener '41, social director of the club.

The Cadet Club dance, planned for Saturday, January 7 in the ROTC armory, Amsterdam Ave. and 140 St. will feature all the best swing band records available. Tickets are on sale now at thirty-five cents a couple, and forty cents at the door.

An end-term dance at the armory will climax the term's events. Tickets will be on sale Thursday, January 5, and may be purchased from the dance committee members.

Chem, Tech Grads Queried On Employment

Questionnaires concerning employment experiences will be sent out to Chemistry and Tech graduates during Christmas week by the Chem-Tech Faculty-Student Employment Survey Committee, Kalman Segalowitz '38, Tech Seminar representative on the committee, announced yesterday.

"The purpose of our inquiry," Segalowitz stated, "is, first, to determine how many of our technical graduates have gone into private industry and civil service; second, to compare the College's employment percentage with that of other colleges; third, to receive suggestions from alumni on how to improve our technical curricula."

The questionnaire was formulated by representatives of the Baskerville Chemistry Society, the Tech Seminar, the Chemistry Department, the Social Research Laboratory and the Personnel Bureau.

The committee plans to send questionnaires to leading industrial corporations and technical colleges and universities in an effort to obtain information which will aid undergraduates in preparing for employment.

Graduates who have registered with the College Placement Bureau since March are also being queried by mail. The mimeographed survey has been mailed to the alumni and replies are expected before the new year, Millard H. Gibson, Assistant Director of the Personnel Bureau, announced yesterday.

Avukah Conference To Start Sunday

Avukah's midwinter conference will take place at the ballroom of the Hotel Claridge, 160 W. 44 St., from Sunday to Tuesday.

Abraham Revusky, author of many books on Palestine and foreign editor of the Jewish Morning Journal, will address the conference on Sunday. His topic is the "Political Situation of Zionism."

The war situation will be discussed by Dr. Louis Hacker of Columbia University at 2 p.m. on Tuesday.

News in Brief . . .

'Mike' Sponsors Association

Microcosm is sponsoring a move to establish an Alumni Association of the '39 class, according to Stanley Lowenbraun '39, editor.

All seniors, whether holding Mike pledges or not, are requested to go to the Arthur Studios, 131 West 42 Street to have their pictures taken for the association's records. There will be no charge, Lowenbraun said.

Discipline Committee

The Faculty-Student Discipline Committee yesterday voted to ask Professor Arthur Dickson (English Dept.), chairman last term, to continue as its head. Professor Dickson has not as yet indicated whether or not he will accept.

Opportunity to Broadcast

A chance for students to broadcast and at the same time to learn about job opportunities in their particular fields is being offered by radio station WMCA, Al Rose, College employment manager, announced yesterday.

College students are invited to send letters telling what they intend to do in industry to Miss Frankie Basch, publicity manager of the station. The writers of the six best letters will be invited to speak and question guest speakers on the program, "Success Stories," on Fridays at 9 p.m.
