Holmen to Start Promising Year Against Upsala

By Harvey Schiffer

The most formidable Lavender basketball team in many years will play its eagerly-awaited season-opener against Upsala College Saturday night, on the Gymnasium court.

Upsala, though possessing a team of holdovers, is not thought to be much of an obstacle to the auspicious beginning of Nat Holman's 28th year as Beaver court coach.

Seasoned Performers

The Beavers will boast a squad of talented and seasoned performers more promising than any in recent years. With an abundance of top material from which to choose, Holman will employ a two-team system at the outset. Height considerations will determine the shuffling around within that setup.

Co-captains Sid Trubowitz and Paul Schmones are the only sure starters against Upsala. The rest of the two-team manpower pool is made up of Lionel Malamed, Hilty Shapiro, and Sonny Jameson, regulars on last year's five; Ev Finestone, former stalwart back from the Army; Phil Farbman, transfer from Brooklyn College; and Irwin Dambrot, Mason Benson, and Joe Galiber, rangy freshmen.

All-American Truby

The return of Sid Trubowitz, All-Metropolitan and All-American choice of three seasons back, figures large in the hopes of the St. Nicks. Truby scored 240 points in the 1943-44 season to lead New York's sharpshooters. Rugged and hard-driving, he has been tabbed the man to watch on the point production front.

Trubowitz, Schmones, Farbman, Shapiro, and L. Malamed have worked well as a combination in recent practice sessions. Schmones, the only senior on the squad, is a consistent double-figure scorer, as

Mercury, Pulse and Sound and Fury Plan Publications

Mercury, the College's humor magazine, will go on sale this Monday to be followed early in December by Pulse, the inter-collegiate literary magazine, and Sound and Fury, the College's new diverse magazine, it was revealed yesterday.

"We'd welcome any contributions, literary and otherwise," Al Davis '47, editor of Mercury said.

According to the editors, Pulse will contain 40 pages of fiction, poetry, art work, and articles. The magazine will appear three times during the school year. Two more issues are expected, in March and June. Contributions and inquiries to the magazine should be addressed to Pulse, Box 50, Faculty Mailing Room.

Sound and Fury's inaugural issue will include contributions from faculty members and prominent outside authorities as well as articles by members of the student body. The magazine will contain literary and factual articles, cartoons, lithographs, and photos.

AJC Requests Prof Resign

Professors Otto Muller, Ephraim Cross, and Elliot Polinger and Dr. Pedro Bach-y-Rita who first hurled charges of anti-Semitism at the Department of Romance Languages in April 1945 appeared before the three-man BHE committee last Monday night. The results of the inquiry will be revealed in the near future.

The AJC Commission on Law and Social Action submitted their analysis of the dispute at the request of the BHE Committee. This committee, consisting of Howard C. Kelly, Mrs. Carrie K. Tigating the matter since last January is now reviewing the 60-page AJC analysis containing these latest charges.

The latest development in the dispute over alleged discriminatory practices in the Department of Romance Languages appeared last week when the American Jewish Congress called for the retirement of Prof. William E. Knickerbocker (Chairman, Romance Languages) because of a "philosophy and program of anti-Semitism on his part." A three-man Board of Higher Education committee which has been investigating the matter since last January is now reviewing the 60-page AJC analysis containing these latest charges.

Bikini Film Inaugurates Classical Film Series

Every Wednesday afternoon a free showing of favorite classic or documentary films will be given in 126 Main, running continuously from 3 to 5.

Starting off the season's big plans yesterday was "Bikini", a documentary film in technicolor presented through the courtesy of Prof. Louis L. Snyder (History).

"The aim of this committee is to present popular old films," stated Marvin Kristein '47, chairman of SC's Film Committee yesterday. He expressed hopes for a successful season.

Bolte to Address ISD Rally; Hampton Entertains Hoop Fans

Benny Beaver, Lomax To Appear At Rally In Main Gym Today

Lionel Hampton, Stan Lomax, and Stanley Frank, will highlight the basketball rally in the Main Gym at 12:30 today, when Benny Beaver becomes the first physical mascot in the history of the College.

The "Hamp" plans to bring his famous sextette, and will sing a new version of the school's "Hey-Bab-a-re-hab" song with Marty Pearlberg and Morty Hollander, its composers. Hampton made the original version of the song a national hit, and indications are the song will click in the college as well.

Listeners to the Lomax Sports Program will recall his plugging of the rally over the air, as well as its mention in the nightly programs of WOV's "Professor of Thermodynamics" Freddie Robbins. Stan definitely will be at the rally, and if Freddie can tear himself away from his sponsors he will also be there. Stanley Frank of the New York Post's Sports Page and former Campus writer, will also attend.

When the Beaverettes give Benny the Beaver to the college's Varsity men, frantic shouts of Adspice, Redspice, and Prospice will come not only from the student masses assembled there, but also from Nat Holman and the basketball team. Nat and his boys will also be on hand to harangue the multitude, as will Dr. Joseph Taffet (Economics) who will act as Master of Ceremonies. The rally was made possible through Beaverette sponsorship and the cooperation of the Hygiene Department.

Debating Society Makes First Radio Appearance, Opposes NYU On Voting

The Debating Society will oppose NYU on its first radio debate of the term today over station WNYC at 4:30.

The Society, represented by Robert Martin '48, Paul Beck '49, and Stephen Byrd '49, will take the affirmative of the question "Should 18-year Olds Have the Right to Vote?"

The first formal debate of the semester took place at the Sloane House YMCA last Thursday when "Should Labor be Given a Direct Share in the Management of Industry?" was discussed with Hunter College holding the affirmative view.

Kingsley and Safchik New Campus Editors

Nathan Kingsley '48 has been elected Editor-in-Chief by the staff of The Campus, it was announced yesterday by the Managing Board of the newspaper. Irwin Safchik '48 was chosen Managing Editor at the same time.

Kingsley and Safchik fill the positions left vacant last week by the resignations of Lawrence D. Weiner '47 and Robert Stein '47, following the refusal of the staff to institute impeachment proceedings against the sports, news, and features editors.

SC Elections Held Soon

Nominations for candidates for all Student Council offices, which will be contested in the semi-annual election to be held on January 8, will be opened on December 2, and will close on December 17, it was announced yesterday by Eugene G. Schwartz '49 and Leo Koppelman '49, co-chairmen of the SC Elections Committee.

Need Petitions

All candidates must present a short autobiography, including their classes, extra-curricular activities at the College, service, and any other qualifications, and must pay a charge of 35 cents. Candidates for the offices of SC President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and class officers must submit petitions bearing 75 student signatures, and candidates for class SC reps only need present SC names, but they must be of members of his own class.

Petitions should be deposited in a box provided for the purpose in 20 Main.

The elections will be preceded by a rally in the Great Hall a week earlier, Jan. 2. Alpha Phi Omega members will act as officials, and will print and count the ballots.

To Publicize Elections

The Elections Committee this term is exerting an effort to bring more election information to a greater number of students. Said Schwartz, "Detailed information will be given fullest publicity in extensive leaflet issues, posters, streamers, the election really itself, and announcements in all classes and to all clubs. We will try to make it possible for every student to become acquainted with those candidates who choose to run."

Czech UN Delegate Also Will Address St. Luke's Meeting

An International Students' Day rally will be presented today at 12:20 in St. Luke's Church, and will have as guest speakers Charles Bolte, National Chairman of the American Veterans' Committee, Enid Kass, Secretary of the American students delegation to Prague, and Gertrude Sekanenova, Czech delegate to the UN.

Promising Program

Following the singing of the Star Spangled Banner, an invocation will be given by the Rev. John H. Johnson D.D. Enid Kass, who is also president of the Student Council at Hunter College, and Charles Bolte, author of "The New Veteran," will be followed by Gertrude Sekanenova. Mrs. Sekanenova spent five years in a concentration camp, where her husband, who was also interned, died.

Marvin Rosenberg '49, an outstanding member of Dramsoc, will recite Edna St. Vincent Milay's "Rape of Lidice." The College's Glee Club will provide added entertainment by singing the songs of the United Nations.

Shostak Chairman

The celebration, which is co-sponsored by Student Council, AVC, and member organizations of the council, will be chaired by Robert Shostak '48, Chairman of the rally, and former SC president who is now chairman of the AVC chapter of the College.

This is the first time that this rally has been held at St. Luke's Church. This action was necessary because of the lack of necessary facilities for such a meeting at the College. The church is located at Convent Avenue and 140th St., one block north of the College.

Unable To Attend

Although invitations were sent to several other speakers, prominent in their respective fields, many found it necessary to decline because of previous commitments.

Lock and Key Honor Group Accepts Members

Lock and Key, the senior honorary service organization of the College, is accepting applications for membership until December 6 at 5. Judy Feinstein '47, Chancellor, announced yesterday. Those eligible must be at least upper juniors to apply.

Applications may be left in the mailbox in the Student Council office, 20 Main.

Nothing but the Truth

In today's "Letters to the Editor" column, Campus is referred to as an exponent of the "Smear . . . sections of the press." And why?

Last week, while supporting the general idea of outdoor rallies, we mentioned that "We all know of the infiltration of small groups bringing what they call freedom and democracy, in American words, but which they define in terms of foreign ideologies." Is that a smear? The only ones who can object to calling a spade, a spade—are the spades, themselves.

It is the privilege of all to protest at anything the students' paper does. But that will not deter us from ferreting out those who would sail under false colors, or those who would confuse issues by screaming "Democracy," and "Freedom of Speech."

Our irritated correspondent refers to the liberal issues propounded at this semester's rallies. The Campus, and the College are proud of the forthright stands taken there. To follow this with a statement that therefore there exist no disturbing elements is a fallacy in logic. Philo 12 is not your course.

Smokescreens, while pretty, are not always effective. The Campus will continue to state that there are "Foreign ideologies-supporting groups" at the College. While these groups are small, they create an odor disproportionate to their size; and are very influential in "smearing" the Lavender and Black.

If presenting the facts is defined as smearing, we must plead guilty. Somehow, though, we feel a little proud.

Keep It Clean

There may be some who don't mind eating in a filthy, unsanitary lunchroom, but we feel that the City College student is not one of that group.

Conditions in the past may not have been conducive to keeping the lunchroom clean, but at present, with every effort being made by the staff to help the students maintain a lunchroom that would meet the sanitary requirements of the strictest regime, no excuse for a slovenly kept lunchroom is possible. It's up to all of us to help.

A little extra work on the part of each diner is all that's needed, so please dispose of your excess food and lunchbags.

"Love That Team"

When the talk in the cafeteria changes from the subject of the quality of the food to Nat Holman and his boys, it's evident that basketball has made another deservedly grand entrance.

There's no need for a lot of rah-rah by us. The quality of Holman's quintets has always precluded the necessity of going through intricate spirit-boosting. Anyway, we've heard enough laments about the paucity of tickets (and passes, too, by the way) for this Saturday's game. We can only hope that the season's opener against Upsilon launches Holman's "Dead End Kids" on one of the best campaigns in his coaching career.

Let's top a century of sports with a championship.

Letters To Editor

Dear Sir:

I heartily agree with The Campus position in favor of full academic freedom, including campus rallies, at the College. It is about time that we realized that our "bad name" is not a result of political activity, since, according to the American Jewish Congress, discrimination against our students began in 1925; eight years before extensive political activity began at our school. This discrimination continues to exist today, though for the past five years there has been much more political activity at "respectable" Columbia and Harvard. We have a "bad name" because over 90% of our students are either Negro, Jewish, or Catholic.

However, I feel that you defeat your own purpose and imitate the "Red" smear methods of certain sections of the press, when you warn of "infiltration . . . of foreign ideologies." What are these undefined ideologies at the College? Were they expressed in the Subsistence Rally, in the End Discrimination Rally, or only in the minds of our enemies; the Hearst "Red scare" press et al? But these people, in an earlier day, accused Tom Paine too, whose statement now heads your editorial, of being a "French agent" living on "Paris gold".

The fight for jobs and for a "good name" must be a united fight against discrimination and unemployment. They are the roots of the problem and not straw men under our beds.

Oscar Berland '49
Tom Paine Club, AYD
Vice-President

Dear Sir:

This is to take issue with your editorial on partisan political rallies on the campus. Even the attempt to resuscitate the ghost of Tom Paine will not serve what evidently seems to be your purpose, namely, to becloud the issue with emotional arguments regarding freedoms of speech and what not which have no bearing at all on the subject. There has been and there is no attempt involved to take anyone's right to free speech away. There is no suggestion made by anybody, as far as I know, barring anybody from speaking at the College on any subject under the sun. There are many rooms at the College which can be used for partisan rallies, which have been so used, and which should continue to be so used.

But as far as campus rallies are concerned, the real issue is this: Shall the overwhelmingly non-radical, non-Communist student body stand idly by while a tiny minority succeeds once more in discredited ideologies? Shall this College, supposedly an institution of higher learning, be transformed into an up-town version of Union Square? To answer "yes" is not democratic, nor is it liberal. It is rather suicidal in the sense that it shows either the unwillingness or the inability of the student body to recognize the dangers to their College and to act upon them.

The future of our College is in our hands. Shall we allow it to be destroyed by a tiny minority which seeks to misrepresent us in the name of freedoms in which they themselves do not believe, or shall we transmit it to those who come after us, in the words of the Ephebic Oath, richer and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us? I think there can be only one answer.

Dramsoc Play

Vets can get a reduction on tickets for "Home of the Brave" by buying tickets through the Vets Association. It will be presented December 21 and 22 by Dramsoc at the Pauline Edwards Theater, 23rd Street and Lexington Avenue.

Dance Survey

A survey to determine means of improving the Friday evening dances will be distributed at tomorrow night's dances by members of Alpha Phi Omega. The survey will deal with the possibility of having a band at the affairs.

Council Votes Participation In Youth Meet

The Student Council unanimously voted at its meeting last Friday to participate in the Chicago Student Conference to be held December 27 to 29.

An outgrowth of the International Youth Conference held in Prague last summer, the Chicago Conference will be devoted to the discussion of a possible National Union of Students. Also, an attempt will be made to form a permanent national student organization. Colleges and universities throughout the nation have been invited to attend the conference.

Number Undetermined

Miss Enid Kass, president of the Hunter College Student Council and American representative at the Prague Conference, will report to the delegates on the results of the International Youth Conference.

Although the College received an invitation to send representatives to Chicago, the exact number of delegates has not as yet been ascertained. As many as four students may make the trip.

Student Council plans to conduct a classroom collection to finance the trip to Chicago. Several other means of solicitation, as yet undetermined, will also be used.

5-Man Committee

A five-man committee to take charge of the necessary publicity and preparations for the Conference will be elected by SC at tomorrow's meeting.

Cafeteria Starts New Drive for Cleanliness

Preparations for the new clean-up drive in the cafeteria are in full swing, it was announced yesterday by George Fauerback, Dietician.

Included in the plans are provisions for tent signs on each table, and posters on the walls to remind the students to put away trays, push back chairs, and keep the lunchroom neat.

Survey Also Lists City, NYU, St. John's As Top Notch Squads

By Tony Shub

Basketball's biggest year in New York is forecast by a Campus survey, which indicates that all the metropolitan hoop aggregations are at their greatest strength since 1941. With ten former All-Metropolitan selections back in action, the fifty-five games at Madison Square Garden and innumerable gymnasium tilts are expected to provide the cage cognoscenti with top-flight basketball.

While Nat Holman's Beavers loom large in the met picture, pre-season reports favor Long Island University as the local pacesetter. Clair Bee, who specializes in set shots and beanpoles, has two of the best in Automatic Jack Goldsmith and 6 ft-6 in. Dick Holub, both ex-All-Mets, in addition in veterans Hank Baletti and Ed Kassler, and freshmen Eddie Gard and Natie Miller.

Boykoff Back

The 1946-47 loaded roster of St. John's, is featured by a bigger and better Boykoff—Harry, that is. Left by the graduation of De Paul's George Mikan and Oklahoma A&M's Bob Kurland as the best big man in the country, high Harry will do most of the scoring for a Redman quintet that also includes holdovers Frank Frascella and Len Doctor, and returning vets Dick McGuire and Larry Baxter. The last two named are former all-city picks, McGuire having been most valuable player in the area in 1944.

New York University, an NCAA nominee the past two seasons, retains Sid Tanenbaum, Don Forman, Adolph Schayes, Tommy Kelly, Joe De Bonis and Marty Goldstein, all familiar figures on local hardwoods. To this sterling array, Howard Cann has regained Ray Lumpp, soph sensation of 1943, and Harry Leggat, reserve in '42 who later made good in a big way with Dartmouth.

Rams Rambunctious

Two Local Court Aces

Dick Holub (above), 6-6½, former '42 All-American.

is Fordham, which has been in an awful rut the past two years. Back from the five that paced the Rams to the '43 tourney are All-Met Tony Karpowich, set-shot Bob Mulvehill, and speedy Don Grahame. Coach Bo Adams also welcomes back Jerry Smith, an 18-point-a-gamer in '44, and Tom O'Brien of last year's quintet.

Both Brooklyn and Manhattan have new coaches. But the Kingsmen's new mentor, Julie Bender, is expected to be affected by the player shortage that has plagued the Brooks since the scandal. Red Norton of the Jaspers, on the other hand, has three of Manhattan's tournament stars back in John Veryzer, John Burke and rugged Zig Skronski. Several of last year's players will also be on hand, including Tom Hughes and John Cohane. The Jaspers' only real star of recent years, Dick Murphy, has turned pro.

Last, and probably least, St. Francis, with Hal Grady, Tom Labanowski and Joe Gallagher, expects to win a Garden game this year.

Truby & Co. Set for Upsala; Harriers Seek Final Victory

well as a defensive bulwark. He also captained last year's successful team.

Finestone Back

Finestone was Truby's teammate on the '42-'43 squad. He was considered by coaches and writers to be the fastest man on a metropolitan court. Military service hasn't slowed him down. He's slated to cover a lot of hardwood this year.

The team is fairly well equipped with out-sized operatives. Invading western schools, however, are sure to hold a big advantage in the height department. Biggest man on the squad is 6 foot 5 inch Mason Benson. Joe Galiber and Irwin Dambrot top the 6:3 mark.

Almost three-deep in experienced ballplayers, this crew is ideal for the Holman type of play. There is more than enough reserve strength to permit frequent substitution of fresh personnel without sacrificing the team's chances. Speed and more speed will be the formula.

Holman Tops As Player and Coach; Lauds '46-47 Club

BY DON COHEN

A rather odd collection of ballplayers, bearing an assortment of grey hairs and expanded waistlines took the floor for a five minute exhibition between halves of the recent NY Knickerbockers pro debut at Madison Square Garden. They were the world famous Original Celtics returning to the arena where they formerly ruled the basketball roost from 1921-28.

At one of the Celtic forward positions was the familiar figure of St. Nick's own Nat Holman. A bit on in years but in fine trim from his coaching duties, the former pro flashed some of his old time brilliance; his heady ball playing, adept give and go feed passes, all part of his "playmaking in action" style, which has stamped everyone of his Lavender hoop products, was very much in evidence as he, along with the other skilled artisans of the court trade, went through the paces.

Burke Finishes First

George E. Burke, the first Beaver entry home, ran 54 in the field of 180 and turned in his best time of the season, covering the five mile, 400 yard course in 29:30. Placing 60 and 79, respectively, were Norm Zurecko, 29:50 and Albert Eltinger, 30:28.

The others that placed were Hal Feigelson, Ira Coren and Herb Benario, in that order.

New Soccer Squad Beats Queens, 9-2

The latest St. Nick varsity innovation, the Beaver soccer club, booted home its first victory over Queens College by a 9-2 count last Saturday at the Forest Hills HS field.

Coach Ira Zasloff's newly formed squad, in their debut, came up with a hard-charging, spirited game, to kick home three goals in the first half to Queens two scores.

In the second period, the Lavender squad found the scoring range for six more goals to insure victory. Beaver outside left, Freddie Kates, made the hat trick with three tallies followed closely by Edwin Tron, outside right and Bob Feuer, inside left, who bagged two points apiece. Dan Adler, and Murray Frankel completed the Beaver total with single counters.

Every cafeteria seat is used on an average of five times daily. Please leave your place as you would like to find it.

CITY COLLEGE CAFETERIA EMPLOYEES

Over the span of 27 years, Nat Holman's combinations have won 308 games while losing 111 for a .711 percentage. What the record book doesn't reveal is that Holman has put the college on the basketball map of the nation. His teams have taken the court against more than 350 top notch colleges and have thrilled millions by their fan-appealing brand of ball. Coast to coast promoters pester Holman all year long with booking requests. In short, the school's great hoop record has reached out to match its unparalleled scholastic achievements, a double-barreled asset for a municipal-controlled college.

It's hard to forget that Joe Davidoff captained the quintet of '31-'32 which nailed down a 16-1 record, or Tubby Raskin's '21-'22 outfit which bagged a 14-1 mark, and the '40-'41 powerhouse with Sonny Hertzberg, Bill Holzman, and Claude Phillips burning up the Met loop. Yes, good coaching breeds good players and Nat has no peer in that department.

And what about this Centennial ball club? Here's Mr. Basketball's reply: "The Dead End Kids, as I have named them, behave like a fine team. They operate on a team basis, and their competitive spirit is tops. In victory or defeat, the boys will always be colorful and TOUGH". By "tough", Nat means; Sid Trubowitz and Paul Schmones, two former All-Met selections; Lionel Malamed, the piano-built ballhawk; Hilty Shapiro, who stepped on the Violets last year; and Phil Farbman, up in the big time from Brooklyn College; and such top drawer reservists as Mason Benson, Joe Galiber, Irwin Dambrot, Evvie Finestone, Moe Brickman, Sonny Jameson, Sid Finger, Paul Malamed, Red Breenberg, Ike Dubow and Davey Williams. The green light comes Saturday night against Upsala.

Sand's Cagemen Face Commerce In Sat. Opener

Opening a 17 game schedule, Bobby Sand's jayvee hoopsters will face the Commerce Center's Evening Session five Saturday night, in a prelim to the Varsity's tilt against Upsala.

The Commerce quintet is composed mainly of high school stars who were unable to enter the day session this term, and expect to do so by next season.

Sand has not yet picked out a starting five, but he has designated eight of his boys who will carry most of the burden Saturday eve. They include three of last year's regulars.

BASKETBALL NOTICE

Tickets for home basketball games at the main gym go on sale on the week of the game. Due to the small amount of tickets available, NONE WILL BE SOLD TO NON-A.A. MEMBERS, and no tickets will be sold on the night of the game.

Eleven Loses 7th Contest

A listless Beaver eleven put an unhappy ending to a very unhappy season Saturday by losing the finale to the East Stroudsburg State Teachers, 27-0, at the Stadium.

The game was a complete rout, the Beavers entering the Teacher's territory only once, and then being stopped at the 45. Dan Roskos, the East's leading scorer, had himself a field day, scoring one of the four touchdowns, and romping off tackle from the single wing for several long gains.

Wagner, Top Scorer

The loss made the season record stand at 1 won and 7 lost. The St. Nicks rolled up 42 points to their opponents' 205. High scorer for the Lavender was Leo Wagner with 19 points. Next was Murray Berkowitz with 12, Dan Glassman with 6, and Len Teitelbaum, who accounted for 3 extra points, while the other two markers came as a Brooklyn College safety.

Choose Candidates For Campus Queen At Saturday Dance

After much difficult debate, the Varsity Club chose the ten semi-finalists of the Campus Queen contest, last Saturday night.

With two co-eds, Temmie Ross '47, Sunny Gridinsky '49, two male students, Lowell Greenbaum '49, Sonny Jameson '49, a faculty member, Dave Polansky (Hygiene); acting as judges a list of sixty five girls was eyed. The ten 'delicately delectable damsels' are in alphabetical order: Zelda Derow '50, Rita Goetz '50, Etta Grauer '49, Janet Karp '50, Stelle Kerstein '49, Bertha Pinsky '50, Anne Sabella '50, Reggie Singer '50, Gloria Stephenson '50, Eleanor Sterling '49, and Theda Tobias '47.

No Juniors

Of the ten contestants, six are frosh, three are sophs, and only one is a senior, while the Junior class has no representatives. "It seems as if the frosh are receiving more wolf calls than their upper classmates," remarked a bystander.

Three of the girls are active on Student Council; one is a staff member of The Campus; and two are active Beaverettes.

Finals will be held Saturday evening, December 7, at the eighth annual House Plan Carnival which is featuring such stars as Henry Morgan, Paul Robeson, and Betty Garrett, Hoopla's director announced yesterday.

Centennial Theme

Booths featuring the Carnival theme of 'City College 100 Years From Now' will be sponsored by the different student houses. The Douglass Society will present an Interpretive Dance Exhibition, while the American Square Dance Association will hold a demonstration in Lincoln corridor.

Tickets are now on sale at House Plan at $1 per person with reductions to U-card holders.

Willis Kelley to Provide Music For Junior Prom

Willis Kelly, orchestra leader of station WJZ has been engaged to play at the Junior Prom, which will be held on December 6 at the Park Central Hotel, Leonard Goodstein, class president, announced yesterday.

Tickets are priced at $5 per couple and can be obtained in 119 Main or from ny '48 class officer.

Leading Educators To Speak At Centennial Conference

Four leading educators will be the principal speakers at the first educational conference to be held in connection with the College's Centennial celebration, it was announced yesterday by Dean John Gray Peatman, chairman of the Centennial Committee.

The conference, "Education for Living in a Democracy," will be held today, tomorrow, and Saturday in the Faculty Meeting Room opposite the Great Hall.

This evening at 8:15 the first session of the conference will be held with President Harry N. Wright presiding, and an address by Dr. Paul Klapper, President of Queens College, on "The Liberal Arts College."

The plan was conceived by a veteran at MIT and has led to the formation of the Campus Sales Company, dealing in campus needs and accessories and various magazines through undergraduate representatives at the country's colleges. It applies only to veterans in their sophomore and junior years.

Students interested in acting as school representatives may apply at the College's Employment Bureau, or may write directly to Campus Sales Co., 1457 Broadway New York 18, N. Y.

EKN ELECTS

Eta Kappa Nu, the College's chapter of the national electric engineering fraternity has elected several new members from the junior and senior classes.

Dr. Nelson P. Mead, Senior Professor of the faculty of the College will preside at the conference's second session tomorrow evening at 8:15, at which time Dr. Francis T. Spaulding, State Commissioner of Education, will speak on "Education of a Business Man." Present as discussions will be Dr. Robert Calkins, Dean of Columbia University's School of Business, and Dr. Ralph Watkins, Market Research Service Director of Dun and Bradstreet, Inc.

Hammond Here

"Education of an Engineer" will be discussed at the third session, Saturday afternoon at 2:30, when Dean Albert B. Newman (Technology) will preside and Dr. H. B. Hammond, Dean of Pennsylvania State College's School of Engineering will speak.
