Tomorrow's Elections

Tomorrow is election day and youthful campus politicos me running around promising everything from deferring stidents from the draft to making final exams easier. We've heard the same desperate pledges in one form or another from the same well oiled mouths term after term after term. For that reason it comes as something of a revelation to find man who is not only a master of the spoken work, but who an also point to a record to back up his claims.

We refer to JERRY LEVINRAD.

LEVINRAD is running for reelection to the Student hungry Saturday night." Council presidency tomorrow. He, too, is making campaign promises. Among other things, LEVINRAD has promised to work for a liberalization of the present regulations pertaining to cutting classes. He wishes to institute a system smilar to Brooklyn College's, where a student may compile number of absences equivalent to three times the number of hours a week the course is given. LEVINRAD has also ncluded in his platform pledges to work for city financing of the college cafeteria, and its athletic program, and a plan improve the present program of freshman orientation and the establishment of a Big Brother committee.

Open Letter to a Thief

Dear Sir:

By now I have become somewhat reconciled to the loss, through your efforts, of one of my favorite pairs of pants and the articles in it. In case it has slipped your mind, I am referring to the loss incurred in the Hygiene building on Tuesday, Dec. 5.

The purpose of this letter is to tell you that if, by chance, you need the pants, money, and watch which you took more than I do then keep them with no qualms of conscience. I am sure, however, that you will agree with me when I say that I certainly need the wallet, credentials and keys more than you. Please be kind enough to return them by mail or to THE CAMPUS office, 15A Main. No questions will be asked.

Thank you,

LEVINRAD's record warrants his reelection to the presidency. But if SC is to continue to function effectively, its other executive officers must be of equally high caliber. For Vice-President, we can find no one of higher caliber than IRWIN SCHIFFRES. SCHIFFRES proved what we can expect of him by his excellent job as Secretary of SC during the past term. The race for Secretary is a bit one sided, as ABE LINN is the only candidate running for the post, but we would endorse LINN in any case. For LINN's past activities on SC have more than qualified him for the secretaryship.

The last of the executive posts, treasurer, is ordinarily a difficult job to fill. Keeping track of money always is. If ED STEINBERG is elected though, the position will rest in capable hands. STEINBERG has acquired the necessary experience through his membership on the Student Council fee committee and through his presidency of the class of '52. We have no doubt that his administration will be an exceedingly efficient one.

For Senior Class President we endorse MANNY MOS-KOWITZ, a man who has absolutely no political affiliations and whose only aim is to serve the class of '51. MOSKOWITZ has handled the senior prom ticket sale so efficiently this term that the affair finds itself oversubscribed, for the first

In addition to the major officers we must urge the support of two write-in candidates, IRIS AGARD and ARNOLD WORKMAN for the vice-presidency of the class of '52 and for Student Council representative, class of '51. None of the contestants for either of these positions on the ballot are qualified, in our opinion. In Miss AGARD, however, we find a former Secretary of SC, who will give the class of '52 the kind of executive ability it so badly needs.

WORKMAN, too, will be an attribute to his class. In the past two terms he has not missed a single Student Council session, though he never was a representative. As a reporter for THE CAMPUS, WORKMAN has been consistently in contact with student affairs. A write-in vote for WORK-MAN promises to be a write-in vote for an excellent represen-

Statements of Major Candidates

The following are the statements of the candidates for the Major Student Council offices.

President

William Betker

William Betker

Student Council should be abolished if lacks the self-control to concern itself with strictly school issues. Is Student Council such a Communist front organizaion that it must fear the ramifications of the McCarran Act? It is a pity that the mly students who are interested in good overnment are consistantly outvoted and ushouted by a small clique of irresponible students who use Student Council to wther their own political ends. I do not onsider strict adherance to the party me as a qualification for office.

We need a Student Council president who will stop looking at the world through colored glasses.

Marvin Drucker

Marvin Drucker

This semester, I am running for office on the Lavender slate—a group of qualified people who have banded together because they feel that they have something to contribute to the College. One of my opponents, campaigning under the masquerade of deferring students from the draft, is naively being used as the head of a hodgepodge of LYL'ers, die-hard YPA'ers, and other assorted malcontents.

On the other hand, another candidate is running for re-election as president because he considers himself to be one of a select few who "really" know what the College needs. Still another candidate offers nothing, and will give nothing.

We have devised a program which we feel will help better our College. I believe that because of my past record of service to the school, I am highly capable of carrying out this program. Space limittations prevent my elaborating upon it

Will you help us?

Jerome Levinrad

Jerome Levinrad

Last term, when I ran for Student Council President, I promised that we would have an effective Student Government-a glance through the minutes of Student Council will show that this promise has

This term, Council set up a working relationship with the Alumni Association, and with the Athletic Association. The Presidential Forum has been reinstated.

This term the committees of Council have been working and working well. For example, the School Affairs Committee has prepared a list of all part time jobs available at the College, and, in addition, a list of all available student financial aids. The Freshman Advisory Committee, reorganized this term, is preparing an intensive freshman orientation program. The Social Functions Committee has improved the Eriday Night Dances, and is running the Stein Fund Dance this Saturday night.

But the job is not complete. To make We'd like to help better our College. Student Government permanently effective, these gains must be consolidated

Julian Ramos

Julian Ramos

In this article I want to deal with other aspects of my program, besides Draft Deferment.

I and the Defer Students from the Draft slate if elected will work for a Hunter College-type book lending system which will save the student immeasurable sums of money each term. We wholeheartedly support the present campaign for the admission of Women into the School of Liberal Arts. We believe that Student Council should be the vanguard of academic freedom on campus. Censorship of leaflets or abridgement of a school organization's right to distribute leaflets are undemocratic practices which should be opposed by student government.

In conclusion, Lagain want to stress the role that student government must take in the campaign for Deferment of Students. All our efforts to improve student conditions will be useless if sixty percent of our student body is drafted.

Vice-President

William Buchman

For a long time, THC has been supering successful activities in the School Technology. Among these is an active g Brother Committee and an Employnt Committee. In the past, Student buncil has been getting out committees that do nothing, while avoiding the estabment of working committees which would give immediate and much needed id to the students.

If elected, I promise that I will do verything in my power to establish such mittees on a working basis; to estabth tutoring in the courses which hit the ming students: to prepare lists of prosective employers. These things have aked in the tech school; there is no

Marvin Mazur

In order to maintain student government it is essential that there be a student body at the College. How will "Defer Students from the Draft" carry out that part of the program which deals with the deferment of Students from the draft? Student Council would initiate a national campaign for the formation of a national committee of Educators and Students which would work toward this end. This campaign could be worked similarly to "Operation Subsistence" which was initiated at this college and was successful.

I intend to enforce the National Student Association Bill of Rights. This Bill of this job. A comparison of qualifications Rights, which is also part of the SC Conon for their not working throughout stitution, has never been effectively enough candidate with this necessary backforced by either SC or NSA.

Irwin Schiffres

It is the job of the Vice-President of Student Council to see that Council com- or organizational responsibilities. I repmittees are functioning properly. I am resent my own way of thinking and nobody especially interested in seeing the Social else's. Functions Committee become a clearing house for all social affairs on campus. Clubs should be required to submit a calendar of social events before the beginning of each term, and the Social Functions Committee would then set up a schedule which would attempt to avoid conflict between dances, athletic events, and other shows.

Experience in working on many Student Council committees is essential for will show you that Irwin Schiffres is the

Walter Urban

I am INDEPENDENT and have no slate

I understand the responsibilities of the Vice President of Student Council and I will do my best to carry them out, the two major responsibilities being:

a) To try to represent the students' viewpoint at the Student Faculty Committee on Student Affairs.

To coordinate the Student Council committees and to keep them functioning properly.

My interests are practical student needs and not political or international.

I am not going to correct all the existing wrongs, but I am going to do the job required of the Vice President.

Treasurer

Sidney Bernstein

Renewaer, Vote for Sid Bernstein for Student Council Treasurer

Ed Steinberg

The Treasurer of Student Council has two main functions.

First, he must administer the fees; he is an integral part of the machinery that distributes the Student Fees equitably to the various clubs, organizations and publications throughout the school. Therefore, the man for this position should have an active interest in school affairs and be willing and expecting to put in the time to do the job well.

The second is of no less importance than the first. The Treasurer, as a member of the Executive of Student Council, helps to determine policy of Student Government. Therefore, he must have the personal integrity to carry out the will of the Student Body, not only as it affects specific cases, but also (and even more important) as it affects the general philosophy and principles of Student Government.

Statements of Major Candidates

The following are the statements of the candidates for the Major Student Council offices.

President

William Betker

William Betker

Student Council should be abolished if it lacks the self-control to concern itself with strictly school issues. Is Student Council such a Communist front organization that it must fear the ramifications of the McCarran Act? It is a pity that the only students who are interested in good outshouted by a small clique of irresponsible students who use Student Council to further their own political ends. I do not consider strict adherance to the party line as a qualification for office.

This semester, I am running for office on the Lavender slate—a group of qualified people who have banded together because they feel that they have something to contribute to the College. One of my opponents, campaigning under the masquerade of deferring students from the draft, is naively being used as the head of a hodgepodge of LYL'ers, die-hard YPA'ers, and other assorted malcontents.

On the other hand, another candidate government are consistantly outvoted and is running for re-election as president a select few who "really" know what the College needs. Still another candidate offers nothing, and will give nothing.

We have devised a program which we feel will help better our College. I believe that because of my past record of service to the school, I am highly capable We need a Student Council president tations prevent my elaborating upon it

Will you help us?

Last term, when I ran for Student Council President, I promised that we would aspects of my program, besides Draft have an effective Student Government-a glance through the minutes of Student Council will show that this promise has been kept.

This term, Council set up a working relationship with the Alumni Association, and with the Athletic Association. The Presidential Forum has been reinstated.

This term the committees of Council have been working and working well. For because he considers himself to be one of example, the School Affairs Committee has prepared a list of all part time jobs available at the College, and, in addition, a list of all available student financial aids. The Freshman Advisory Committee, reorganized this term, is preparing an intensive freshman orientation program. The Social Functions Committee has improved of carrying out this program. Space limit- the Friday Night Dances, and is running the Stein Fund Dance this Saturday night.

But the job is not complete. To make We'd like to help better our College. Student Government permanently effective, these gains must be consolidated.

In this article I want to deal with other Deferment.

I and the Defer Students from the Draft slate if elected will work for a Hunter College-type book lending system which will save the student immeasurable sums of money each term. We wholeheartedly support the present campaign for the admission of Women into the School of Liberal Arts. We believe that Student Council should be the vanguard of academic freedom on campus. Censorship of leaflets or abridgement of a school organization's right to distribute leaflets are undemocratic practices which should be opposed by student government.

In conclusion, I again want to stress the role that student government must take in the campaign for Deferment of Students. All our efforts to improve student conditions will be useless if sixty percent of our student body is drafted.

Vice-President

William Buchmau

For a long time, THC has been superrising successful activities in the School of Technology. Among these is an active Big Brother Committee and an Employment Committee. In the past, Student that do nothing, while avoiding the establishment of working committees which would give immediate and much needed aid to the students.

If elected, I promise that I will do everything in my power to establish such committees on a working basis; to establish tutoring in the courses which hit the incoming students; to prepare lists of prosective employers. These things have the College.

Marvin Mazur

> I understand the responsibilities of the Vice President of Student Council and I will do my best to carry them out, the two major responsibilities being:

a) To try to represent the students' viewpoint at the Student Faculty Committee on Student Affairs.

b) To coordinate the Student Council committees and to keep them functioning properly.

My interests are practical student needs and not political or international,

I am not going to correct all the existrequired of the Vice President.

Treasurer

Student Faculty Fee Committee? What is that? It's the organization that decides how much money organizations receive from the Student Activities Fund, to which you contribute $1.50 whenever you register. The most important student on the committee is the SC Treasurer, because he is the pajor link between the committee and the organizations requesting funds.

As a member of the Student-Faculty and the Student Council Fee Committees, Student Council and its Executive Rules Committee, HP's Executive Committee and as Treasurer of the Tech Intersociety and Inter-Fraternity Council, I have learned the relationships between the campus organizations, the Fee Committee, and <sup>stud</sup>ent government.

Remember, Vote for Sid Bernstein for Student Council Treasurer.

Ed Steinberg

The Treasurer of Student Council has two main functions.

First, he must administer the fees; he is an integral part of the machinery that distributes the Student Fees equitably to the various clubs, organizations and publications throughout the school. Therefore, the man for this position should have an active interest in school affairs and be willing and expecting to put in the time to do the job well.

 $T_{\rm H\xi}$  second is of no less importance than the first. The Treasurer, as a member of the Executive of Student Council, helps to determine policy of Student Government. Therefore, he must have the personal integrity to carry out the will of the Student Body, not only as it affects specific cases, but also (and even more important) as it affects the general philosophy and principles of Student Government.

Can Roman, Warner and Video Seen Cutting Into Garden Attendance: Ompany be stopped twice in Is College Losing Out?-Winograd Won't Say

Television broadcasts of Madison Square Garden basketball games have serious effects on the entire 13-sport City College varsity athletic program, the CAMPUS learned yesterday. This was indicated by an analysis of ticketsale statistics and a poll of student sentiment on the question of live vs. electronic attendance.

Dr. Sam Winograd, faculty manager of athletics, said yesterday that he could not disclose whether the College receives a "cu?" of Garden TV fees. He said, however, that the problem of television's effect on Garden receipts-and its consequent effect on the Athletic Association's income-had been "under consideration" by the College authorities for some time.

Because basketball profits provide the major support for the athletic program, and because Garden appearances supply the bulk of the revenue, the College's position in the picture of changing receipts-from attendance to television sponsors-is a matter of den twin-bill reaches well over six million people. Although the figures have not been disclosed, the Garden's take for the twohour show must be quite good.

The issue of what is responsible for declining gates at the Garden is still debated by some. A CAMPUS survey indicated that, at least with regard to students here, television was the chief cause.

Seventy per-cent of the students chosen at random said they had not attended any games because of the TV showings. Of these, more than half indicated that they would probably not attend a single game this sea-

Gerald Sauler '54, voiced the opinion held by most of the students queried. He said, "It's silly to travel back-and-forth to the Garden, coming home at midnight and often having an early class the next morning. You can remain in the comfort of your home and get a fine courtside view of the action on television.'

Expressing the opposite opinion, held by

'Owning a television set didn't stop me from going to the Brigham Young and Missouri games, and I expect to attend many more, If you're not there cheering with the crowd," Galaid added, "you miss all the real excitement and color."

A.A. Card and ticket sale statistics revealed by Dr. Arthur H. DesGray, assistant faculty manager, indicate the trend Garden attendance may be expected to take.

Only 1,800 A.A. Cards have been sold this semester, and 300 more should go out in the spring. This falls considerably short of the near-3,000 total sold last year. With sales also have declined seriously. With similar allotments, the College has sold approximately 50% of the tickets that were sold for comparable games last season,

The drop in student sales will not serious ly hurt the College's income, for the "cut" comes from the total gate receipts. But the sale of 800 fewer A.A. Cards will hurt-and
