Baruch Warns College Military Review That Nation Must Prepare For Defense

By Mark Maged

Strength alone can deter aggression and strength alone can defeat it, Bernard Baruch '89, America's elder statesman, declared yesterday at the first spring military review held by the College in nine years.

Mr. Baruch spoke to 3000 students and parents, and to 1100 members of the College's Reserve Officers Training Corps at the review which commemorated the sacrifice of 307 of the College's students and alumni who died in World War II.

He warned that the nation "is still woefully unprepared" and asked that it "gird its loins" against the threat of the Soviet regime. As vital steps in the new build-up campaign, the white-haired adviser to Presidents urged the adoption of a universal military training program and economic controls of money and material to prevent inflation.

Accompanying Mr. Baruch in his week-long review of the College's ROTC corps, the largest in the country, were Vice-Admiral Oscar Badger, commander of the Eastern Sea Frontier and Robert Patterson, former Secretary of War.

Lashing out in his speech against those who are "concerned with petty profits and petty comforts" Mr. Baruch cautioned against wasting the time which is "being bought for us at so great a cost, half a world away."

While making no direct mention of the recent Presidential dismissal of General Douglas MacArthur, he obliquely commented on it by saying that the "enemy from abroad is aided at home by indecision, confusion, complacency and selfishness." Earlier in the week, Mr. Baruch publicly defended the President's action.

Earlier in the program Mr. Spero V. Soupios '44, chairman of the ROTC Memorial Committee, explained the purpose of the dedication and presented a scroll to Pres. Harry N. Wright.

Several Dances On Tap Tonite

At least six dances will be held at the College tonight and they are all free!

The regular social and square dances sponsored by the Hygiene Dept. will take place at the Main Gym and South Hall respectively.

An "All City College Dance," with music provided by a ten piece band will be held at 9:30 in Hansen Hall at the Commerce Center.

Pick and Shovel will hold a dance in Knittle Lounge and the Young Pidookies will collegiatize the Faculty Lounge. Army Hall residents will take part in a "Spring Fling" at the AH Lounge.

College Expects To Recondition Lewisohn Field

A $50,000 reconditioning will probably be given Lewisohn Stadium field sometime next term. Prof. Frank Lloyd (Chairman, Hygiene) reported.

The funds for the project will come from the capital budget annually allocated to the College for purposes of repair and renovation.

Reconditioning the field would include the removal of a large portion of the rocky top-soil, and the addition of better, rock-free dirt. About two inches of cinders will be added to the track to get it into better shape for future track meets.

Professor Lloyd also stated that initial steps have been taken for the procurement of a long-sought-for athletic field house at the College. Possible sites include Jasper Oval, Army Hall, South Hall, and the soon to be acquired Manhattanville areas.

The new Special Commission of Intercollegiate Athletics is to determine the part to be played by students in the Athletic Program and will soon be set up. It is believed that influential members of the administration, faculty, alumni, and students will be chosen as members by Pres. Harry N. Wright.

The Commission is to report directly and continuously to President Wright. It will meet during the summer months and attempt to have some recommendations ready by the beginning of next semester in September. Once its job is completed, the body will be dissolved.

College to Give Concert Finale

The College Orchestra and Chorus will present their final concert of the spring semester Saturday night at 8:30 in the Great Hall.

Two compositions will be introduced by members of the College's Music Department, Prof. Mark Brunswick, chairman, and Mr. Robert Kurka, a Guggenheim fellow, in addition to works by Mozart and Wagner. The choral group will perform excerpts from Schubert's "Mass in Eb" and Haydn's "Creation."

Tickets may be obtained in 306 Harris, at the booth in Lincoln Corridor, and at the Concert Bureau booth in the Cafeteria.

More Girls Next Term

Women are more plentiful, or so it will seem next September when an estimated 25% more females enroll at the College than did last year. The increase will seem minor at first with the full effect being felt in about 1955, according to Robert L. Taylor, Registrar. This percentage rise should give the College 443 coeds.

Last term 331 women were enrolled. The expected 1500-1600 enrollment in September will be composed of a ratio of 2 to 1 males to females.

In order to meet the greater demands, the Hygiene Dept. plans these changes: The gymnasium will be open for the sole use of women on Mondays and Wednesdays and the pool will be available to them on Monday.

Sheldon Podolsky to Abandon 'Meseck' For Dip in River on Sunday Boatride

Sheldon Podolsky '54 will jump into the Hudson River this Sunday.

Sheldon, sprouting a novel crew cut, will make the leap from the rail of the John A. Meseck, the boat used for the annual College Boat Ride. Students may still purchase tickets for the trip today in 20 Main, and at the pier before sailing time.

This daring revelation was made while Sheldon was under the influence of his usual amount of beer and pretzels at the "Young Pidookies of America's" Easter Bunny Binge.

Imbibing from his stein, Sheldon was asked whether he was attending the Boat Ride. Sheldon, slightly light-headed as usual, answered, "Brother, I am not only going on the Boat Ride, but I will plunge

Sixteen Student Pickets Demonstrate at Review

Sixteen students staged a picket protest against the speeches of Bernard Baruch '89, and former Secretary of War Robert Patterson yesterday, while several hundred other students strenuously heckled the dissidents.

The sixteen circled in front of the main entrance to Lewisohn Stadium while the College's first Spring Military Review since 1942 was in progress. They carried signs which had slogans such as: Students of All Lands, Fight for Peace; Ain't Gonna Study War no More; and We Want Scholarships, but no Battleships.

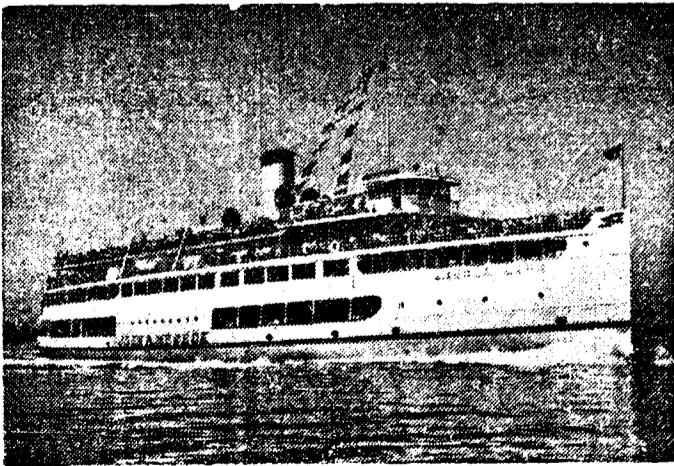

During the review itself there was virtually no heckling, and when Mr. Baruch walked across the stadium turf to personally inspect the more than 1,000 ROTC

Deferments

The deadline for filing applications for the draft deferment test has been extended until midnight of May 25.

Applications are no longer being processed for the May 26 testing, and no further admission cards are being issued for that date. Tests will be given June 16 and June 30. For Sabbath observers there is a July 12 substitute date.

from the highest rail in the most daring leap ever before attempted.

Sheldon, possibly relenting after his hangover, may still retract his statement. If this is the case, students are requested not to use force in order to keep him honest.

Baruch '89 Speaks

America's elder statesman declared here yesterday that strength is necessary for the preservation of our freedom. Before him stood a massed formation of 1,100 Reserve Officers Training Corps members. Certainly few will deny that his theme was valid, or that it was appropriate that the College's sons parade in their own show of strength.

Some of us, however, are disappointed that Mr. Baruch '89, speaking at the nation's third largest College, chose in his speech to only reaffirm what many people have said many times before, especially after having made headlines a few days ago with his defense of President Truman's dismissal of MacArthur at Virginia Military Institute. Perhaps we are too chauvanistic, but couldn't Mr. Baruch have designated the College—his College—for a speech of similar nation-wide importance?

Another show of strength, one Mr. Baruch probably never noticed, was held outside the Stadium before and after his speech. There, our so-called "progressive" elements made what seemed like a last ditch effort to get "publicity" for the College. We call it last ditch because they violated decency by trying to halt the speech of Robert Patterson. Free speech. The right of a person to speak his mind. All just principles taught at College. And out the window they went yesterday.

It's Your Baby

The College will have a baby on its hands next term, your baby.

For when the experimental liberal arts graduate program begins functioning in September, not only will it be small but its ultimate fate—whether it grows or withers, will be contingent on the reception you give it, since neither the city or the state is supporting it.

Students will pay $10 a point—and the graduate school faculty will be drawn from the undergraduate school staff. Only if it is demonstrated that the students want the program, and that the faculty can adequately present the advanced courses, will the program receive sufficient outside financing to expand it to a full, genuine graduate school.

Grad Exercises

Set for June 14

A total of 3,223 degrees will be awarded at the commencement exercises Thursday, June 14. 301 will be Master's degrees.

The principal speaker for the graduation exercises has not yet been chosen, but all other arrangements have been completed. The procession will begin at 8 P.M.

The invocation will be delivered by Rabbi Mordecai Kaplan '00. The Hon. Charles H. Tuttle, Chairman of the City College Administrative Committee of the Board of Higher Education, will administer the Epeheic Oath of loyalty to the City of New York.

LATE BULLETIN

Pres. Wright smilingly accepted a button from Gary Schlessinger, newly elected Secretary of Student Council, to become an honorary member of Young Pidookies, yesterday afternoon at a Government-Law Tea.

"I have heard about this organization and shall cherish this memento," he said.

Four Members of Faculty Plan To Leave Here In September

Four prominent members of the faculty are leaving the College in September. They are Profs. Walter A. Sharp (Chairman, Government), A. J. Goldfarb (Biology), Norman Wengert (Government), and Mr. Wilson Lehr (Public Speaking), Director of Theater Workshop.

Professors Sharp, Wengert and Mr. Lehr are leaving for jobs elsewhere, while Dr. Goldfarb is retiring at the mandatory age of 70.

Just prior to the institution of graduate work in international relations at the College, which he had strived for, it was reported by a reliable source, that Prof. Sharp is assuming a post on the Yale Faculty. The reasons stated for his acceptance of that job are that the position involves no administrative duties, as was here, and provides an increase in salary and a private office with assistant.

Prof. A. J. Goldfarb

After 41 years as a member of the College faculty, Dr. Goldfarb is retiring from teaching. He intends to continue at the post he has held since 1923 as general secretary of the Society for Experimental Biology and Medicine. His contract with the College began in 1895 when at the age of fourteen he enrolled at the Commerce Center. After being graduated in 1900 and receiving his Ph.D. from Columbia, he returned to the College as a faculty member in 1910.

Dr. Goldfarb has a distinctive method of teaching which he calls

Prof. Norman Wengert

"Scientific". He makes use of the Socratic question and answer form of lecture and does not give any written tests.

Professor Wengert, who formerly held a position in the Tennessee Valley Authority under David Lillenthal, is leaving for a post in the Department of Interior. He received his baccalureate degree from Wisconsin University and took graduate work at Harvard. He has taught at the College for three years.

Wilson Lehr, Director of Theater workshop for four years is taking a year's leave of absence to advance professionally. He intends to do some free lance directing, playwriting and television work. While at the College, he reorganized the courses in acting and directing in the Speech Department.

By Melton Weiser
 It's all over. No more long hours at the printers. No more weary nights putting the paper together. No more students rushing at me shouting, "I didn't see my name in the column this week. When are you putting it in?" Yep, it's all over and what a relief.

The term opened with a hot pep talk by the big boss, Vince Harding, who told the staff they'd have to work hard "because lots of things will be happening at the College." And they worked hard for Vince turned out to be quite a prophet.

The basketball scandal made weary nights wearier and long nights seemed even longer as an aura of shame and sorrow spread over us. The Campus staff could be found scurrying about in a desperate effort to give the student body full and fast coverage. But when this passes and tired editors obtained a brief rest period following the April Fool issue. Pale, ashen faces was the "sign of the times" in The Campus office.

Now let's brush off the student who have persistently demanded that their names appear in print... Larry Gralla '51 and Sandra Rosenberg '54 have read this column with hopeful hearts but have refused to be linked together. So we won't link them... Harriet Ruditsky '52 and Yvette Glickenstein '52 are two hard hearted girls when it comes to mooching a cigarette... No space.

This is the final issue this term and I wonder whether it's worth it. I doubt if the student body could ever appreciate the work that goes into turning out this paper. Sure, there is personal satisfaction and prestige but it can never match the work. I must admit that working with guys like Arnie Workman, Gabe Gelb, and Jerry Jacobson, all graduating, has been some compensation. Yep, it's over and must be a fool for if I could, I'd do it all over again.

Walpin Wins In Close Race

In a hotly contested election, Gerald Walpin '52, with a lead of only 43 votes over Irwin Schiffes, was elected Student Council President for the Fall term of 1951.

Marvin Drucker '52 topped his nearest opponent, Walter Urban '53 by 302 votes to win the position of Vice-President. Gary Schlessinger '54 was only 246 votes ahead of his nearest opponent, Leny Lederman '53, in the race for Secretary. Dolores Schwartz '53 was elected Treasurer with 1,516 votes over Gerry Kramer '53 who had 1,058 votes.

Cohen Award

A two hundred dollar Morris R. Cohen Memorial Scholarship award is open to any graduating senior at the College. The award, sponsored by the Cohen Houses of House Plan, will be given on the basis of scholarship, participation in extra-curricular activities and level of aspiration.

Liberal Arts Begins Graduate Program

Application for admission into the School of Liberal Arts Graduate program will be distributed to qualified seniors starting Wednesday, May 23, in room 121B Main, it was announced today by Prof. Oscar I. Janowsky (History).

The first course, to be given this fall, will be a pilot-experimental course in International Relations, limited to twenty students. The cost per credit will be $10 since the Board of Higher Education is not contributing any additional funds to the program.

The Liberal Arts Graduate Program will begin a new phase in the history of the College in which the authorization by the State Department of Education last March 14 will be put into operation. The Liberal Arts College will join the departments of Psychology, Education, Engineering and Business Administration.

 members he was greeted by a tremendous, standing ovation.

When Mr. Patterson arose to pay a brief tribute to the noted presidential adviser, the picketers stationed outside increased their activity. Shouting "they died for peace (a reference to the 307 City College World War II dead) let's keep it," the sixteen kept up a continuous moving circle.

None of the picketers would reveal their names or the names of any organization they were affiliated with, all claiming they were merely participating in a "spontaneous demonstration."

Maged Is Elected New 'Campus' Head

Mark Maged '52 was chosen Editor-in-Chief of the Campus for the Fall '51 term at staff elections held yesterday. Other Managing Board berths were secured by Vincent Harding '52, Associate Editor; Gerald Reice '53, Business Manager; Arthur Kohler '52, Managing Editor; Mel Stein '53, News Editor; and Bill Wanek '54, Sports Editor.

Thirty Column

It is customary at the end of each semester for the retiring Editor of The Campus to record in a Thirty column his praises and gripes and the general impressions acquired after several years of College journalistic work.

This term, however, Editor Vincent Harding has decided to wait until his last year at the College has ended before writing his Thirty column. For this reason until May, 1952.

Lavender '9' Bows To St. John's, 7-4

By Herb Sternfeld

The baseball team raked St. John's right-hander, Jack Gordon, for four runs in the first four frames of yesterday's conference clash at Dexter Park, but was baffled the rest of the way by the slow-balling slants of Jack Lang, and absorbed a 7-4 setback.

Neal Deoul, who extinguished a St. John's rally in the fourth, was the victim of an eighth-inning three-run uprising which broke up a 4-4 stalemate.

Hammerin' Hugo Ritucci sent the Beavers off winging in the first when he smacked a two-run circuit clout, a prodigious wallop that sailed over the right centerfield wall more than 360 feet away.

Fourth-inning safeties by Al Kahn and Larry Cutler and a two-bagger to right by starter Mel Norman accounted for two more Beaver tallies.

Deoul arrived in the fourth as the Redmen parlayed two Annie Oaklies and a pair of singles off Mel Norman into two runs. The Beaver side-armed matched goose eggs with Lang until the eighth.

The defeat eliminated the Beavers from the Met. Conference Crown race and lowered them into the sixth slot with a 3-4 mark.

'Knights' Demolish 'Triboros,' 37-32, For Intra Crown

By Meyer Baden, Joe Lev

The Knights beat a hard-playing Triboro team, 37-32, in the final game of the basketball intramurals in the Main gym yesterday.

Sparked by Mike Radman, the Knights jumped off to an 18-5 lead in the first quarter, but were outscored in the next two. However, in the crucial fourth period, with the Knights leading by only two baskets, Capt. Lou Arrastia came into the game to help check the pressing Triboros.

In the semi-final round of the softball intras, Nat Alvich hurled a 9-1 one-hitter for the Tribobites against Jaffee. Capt. Morris Freedman, Arnie Weinstein, and Sy Rapp led the Trilo attack. Meanwhile, the Aces and pitcher Ed Alfarose trimmed the Tom Jeffs, 13-1. The finals will be held next Thursday in Jasper Oval.

Nigro and Leone Homer for Frosh

The frosh baseball team closed its season last Wednesday, losing to a powerful Fordham team, 15 to 9, at the Ram's home field.

Frank Nigro, led the Beavers attack, blasting his first home run of the season in the fourth inning.

Wasserman Stars As Stickmen Stop Manhasset, 13-7

Fresh from a resounding victory over a fine Manhasset club, the lacrosse team will come up against a strong Adelphi squad at Lewisohn Stadium this Saturday afternoon at 2:00. In its last match Adelphi beat Lafayette.

If the team is to go on winning in as strong a fashion as it did last week, it will need the continued good play of Don Wasserman, the team's top scorer with sixteen goals to his credit. Last week, Wasserman added to his total by scoring five times.

Don's last score came on a stray ball which came flying past him. Catching the ball in his crosse, he flung it at the net, and was as surprised to see it go in as the goalie was to see it coming at him.

Needed additional scoring punch came in the person of little Fred Reeg, who scored four goals, and provided the spark that saw the Beavers score seven times in the second period to put the game on ice.

Track Games With Brooklyn Thurs.

Originally scheduled for this afternoon, the track meet with Brooklyn College has been postponed until next Thursday at 3:00. The meet will be held at Brooklyn College Field, Bedford Ave. and Ave. R.

In the Metropolitan Intercollegiate meet last Saturday, the varsity scored three points on Charley Fields' third place high-jump effort of six feet, five-eighths of an inch. Mel Cutler hurled the hammer close to ninety feet to register the lone freshman point.

Sport Slants

By Jerry Jacobson

To take up where we left off last week:

Assemblies every week for all students is a fine idea. Not only would they unify the student body, these meetings could be used to teach the students the new concepts of the City College Man or Woman.

- What would be some of the characteristics of this criterion?
- (1) A City College student practices courtesy at all times.
  - (2) He dresses in a manner that will reflect prestige toward himself and his college.
  - (3) He shows pride in his college by performing his duties towards it conscientiously and cheerfully. (See last week's column.)
  - (4) He speaks a cultured English before he graduates, because he must pass a rigid speech test.
  - (5) He is proud of his College because he knows that the traditions of the College, the alumni, and his fellow students reflect the highest aspects of democratic education.
  - (6) He will think twice before acting in a way that would bring defamation to the college—once for himself and his family and once for the thousands of fellow-students and alumni who are depending on him to reflect honor on City College.

How to make it work? Discipline. It worked at West Point. But, Academic Freedom!

Are you taking away academic freedom when you force a student to fill out a dozen forms at the beginning of the term, when you force him to attend classes, when you force him to come to class on time? No. These regulations actually are made to give the student a better education. If you force students to dress decently, to speak correctly, to take pride in their college, this will not merely give them a better education—it will improve the prestige of the college and actually increase the value of the City College diploma.

To review the program: 1. Students must live on the campus. 2. Students must give some service to school. 3. Alumni must give service or annual contribution. 4. Students must adhere to criterion of The City College Student.

And so even the sweet sorrow of parting has been denied me because I'm still knocking the old bean against the Campus wall trying to fix up Alma Mammy. You're battered and floundering, old College. You're half sunk in the morass of apathy and the slime of corruption. You're tied down by incompetence and your hollow halls echo the sporadic wails of your unheeded prophets. But y'know what, ol' girl? still love you.

Goodbye, my dear Alma Mater. Allagaroo.
