Three Groups Join Forces To Elect Democratic Ticket; Candidates Invited to Speak

Joining forces in the campaign for the creation of Averell Harriman for Governor of New York, the Students for Democratic Action, Young Democrats, and Young Liberals have invited Mr. Harriman to speak at the College according to the respective club presidents, Gil Robinov '55, Mois Goldstein '56, and Louise Strasnov '56.

In addition they have asked Representative Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., Democratic nominee for Attorney General, and Bronx District Attorney George B. DeLuca, who is running for Lieut. Governor on the Democratic ticket, to appear at the College as their guests. Mr. DeLuca is an alumnus of the College, class of 1909.

Plan Booth

"A booth where campaign literature will be distributed is to be set up opposite Knittle Lounge, in two weeks," Robinov said. "Students interested in working with us should volunteer their services at future meetings."

Although Young Republicans is supporting Senator Irving Ives for Governor, emphasis will be placed on the congressional campaign "because of its greater importance," announced Murray Yavneh '56, the club's president. In accordance with this policy, the club has invited Warren Schnur, Republican candidate to Congress from F.D.R. Jr.'s Twentieth District, to speak at the College today. It is also planning a debate with Young Liberals on whether Communists should be allowed to teach.

SFA's Plans

Rabbi Benjamin Schultz, head of The Joint Committee Against Communism, will deliver an address at the College on Nov. 18, as the guest of Students for Americanism, according to club president Dan Hodes '56. Rabbi Schultz's organization is a supporter of Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.), and has, in the past, held testimonial dinners for Dr. Joseph B. Cavallaro (Chairman, Board of Higher Education) and Roy Cohn, former counsel to Senator McCarthy's investigating committee.

Students for Americanism also plans to sponsor an educational drive this term which will explain the advantages of free enterprise over socialism.

Hygiene Dept. Gets Counsel To Appeal Increased Hours

By Francine Marcus

Counsel has been retained by members of the Hygiene Department to appeal a directive issued by Pres. Buell Gallagher which increased the working hours of hygiene teachers. Issued at the close of last semester, the directive makes three physical education periods equivalent to two regular classroom periods in computing teaching loads.

Sustain Directive

The Counsel, Mr. A. Mark Levin, who was hired out of private funds contributed by Hygiene Department members, appealed to President Gallagher in June to negate the directive. When the president did not do so, Mr. Levin appealed to the College's administrative committee on the Board of Higher Education. The committee sustained the president's ruling on September 15, and will issue a report on its findings to the BHE tonight.

Dr. Hyman Krakower (Chairman, Hygiene), has said that the department will instruct its lawyer to appeal to the entire BHE. If the BHE also sustains the directive, the Hygiene Department will then appeal to State Commissioner of Education Lewis Wilson.

In issuing his directive, President Gallagher had stated that it was "an honest attempt to equalize teaching loads throughout the College," and made his ruling on the basis that the average teaching time in a gym class approximates thirty-five minutes, instead of the usual fifty-five, since time is required for changing of clothing and showering.

Reaffirms Judgment

"While it is quite unusual for a department to hire a lawyer," President Gallagher said - this week, "it is not without precedent. I bear no animus toward the department, but I've made my judgment and I think it is correct. The administrative committee agrees that the ruling is reasonable and it found no evidence of any injustice."

Faculty Comm. Gets SC Help

Student Council has chosen three students as delegates to the committee of Five. Those selected were Ira Klosk '55, Student Council president; Barney McCaffrey '55, SC vice-president, and Edwin Trautman '55, class representative. Dudley McConnell '57, SC treasurer, will serve as first alternate.

According to Klosk, the student representatives will act in a non-voting capacity, but will serve as the resource from which the committee of Five will receive the student viewpoint.

The Committee of Five was created by the General Faculty to implement Pres. Buell Gallagher's recommendations for improved student-faculty relations.

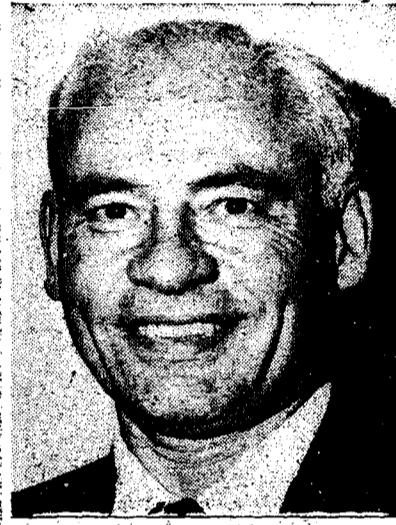

Klosk also expressed the hope that the Committee will accept the changes in the near future - the changes in the Student-Faculty Fee Committee, called for in last semester's student referendum.

The referendum, which advocated the reduction of faculty membership from five to three and the election of the student representatives by Student Council, were referred to the Committee of Five by Dean Daniel Brophy (Student Life), to give the problem "sufficient study."

Faith Needed, TV Audience Told by Pres.

By Sheldon Scherr

The belief that a "fighting faith" is needed to offset "the frustrations of the present day" was expressed by Pres. Buell G. Gallagher last Sunday on the television program, "Frontiers of Faith."

Dr. Gallagher appeared as a member of a three-man panel which discussed the topic "National Security and Individual Liberty." Other guests on the panel were Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark.) and Pauline Frederick, a reporter for the National Broadcasting Company.

Discussed Problems

The panel discussed several problems, usually giving each speaker a chance to express his views and then moving on to the next question.

"On the effectiveness of limiting the rights of communists, President Gallagher stated, "Any demulsion in the quality of freedom is rolling out the red carpet for communism. Controversy is a tool for freedom."

Notes Double Objective

The president also pointed out that in prosecuting subversives we have a "double objective of identifying the guilty and protecting the innocent."

In the past, Dr. Gallagher has gone on record as favoring the work of the Jenner Committee which, he said, "has shown meticulous regard for the rights of the innocent and has preserved the anonymity of many persons interrogated in closed session but found not subversive." He has also assailed the methods of Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.).

Elected

Prof. Hyman Krakower was elected chairman of the Hygiene Department on Friday September 24. He succeeds Prof. Raymond Purcell whose retirement will become effective as of tomorrow.

Professor Purcell was forced to leave the College last spring due to illness. He went to his ranch in Colorado to rest for an indefinite period of time. In his absence Professor Krakower served as acting chairman of the department.

First of Teas To Start Fri.

The first of this semester's Student-Faculty Teas will be held tomorrow afternoon in Knittle Lounge from 3 to 5.

This tea, first of seven to be held this term on a bi-weekly basis, is being sponsored by the faculty. Letters have been sent out by Miss Cynthia Benzing (Student Life) and Joseph DeMaio '57, chairman of the Student Council Social Functions Agency, to numerous student organizations inviting co-sponsorship with SC of future socials.

Mrs. Buell Gallagher has consented to pour tea at tomorrow's gathering. The wives of the deans have also been invited to join her in serving as hostesses.

The Webb Service Society, a newly-formed female service organization, has volunteered its assistance in serving at forthcoming Student-Faculty teas.

The teas were inaugurated last semester with the purpose of improving student-faculty relations. "They were quite popular last term," Miss Benzing noted, "and I hope their success will continue."

Police Shoot Thief in Park; Students Witness Gun Battle

About twenty students were eye-witnesses to a gun battle in St. Nicholas Park Monday afternoon at 1:40 when, after a futile attempt at a robbery of a store on St. Nicholas Avenue, Earl Brown was wounded by the police. He is now in critical condition at Harlem Hospital.

Brown had entered a store on 36th St. and St. Nicholas Ave. and forced the owner to hand over about 200 dollars in cash. He was spotted by patrolmen as he ran out of the store. They chased him into St. Nicholas Park.

As he reached the wall near the Main Building he opened fire on the policemen. They returned fire and shot Brown in the head and legs.

Many students at the College had heard the shots while in their classes and thought they were crackshots. Others, seated at the Terrace entrance to the Main Building knew it was more than crackshots when they saw patrol cars pull up on the Terrace.

Televised World Series On View at Army Hall

Giants and Indians will invade the Army Hall Lounge today, sponsored by The Campus.

A television set tuned in to the World Series games between the New York Giants and Cleveland baseball teams will be on view in the lounge whenever the games are held during school hours. Chairs will be available for those wishing to relax while watching the games.

This marks the third successive year that the Series are being shown at the College.

Inning-by-inning scores will also be posted outside The Campus office, 15A Main.

Ugly Man Contest To Include Faculty

The close of this semester's Ugly Man Contest, to be held next Wednesday and Friday, will find two winners instead of the customary one, due to the addition of a new field of competition—faculty members.

Competing for the title of Ugliest Faculty Member in the contest sponsored each year by Alpha Phi Omega, will be Pres. Buell Gallagher, Dean Harold Abelson (Education), Dean James Peace (Student Life), Dean Morton Gottschall (Liberal Arts), and Dean William Allen (Technology).

Students representing four organizations will also take part. Votes are cast by dropping a penny in a jar labeled with the contestant's name, with all proceeds being donated to charity. An election booth will be set up next week in Lincoln Corridor.

College B.S. to Bronx DA Marks Career of Lt. Governor Nominee

By Matt Kaufman

An alumnus of the College last week was nominated to run for the second highest post in the government of New York State.

Mr. George DeLuca, who was graduated from the College in 1909, and is now serving as Bronx District Attorney, was elected by the Democratic State Convention to be the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor of New York.

Majored in Science

While a student at the College, Mr. DeLuca majored in science and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Upon his graduation he received a fellowship at the College. However, instead of teaching, he decided to enter Columbia University Law School.

"While I was an undergraduate student," Mr. DeLuca said, "politics were furthest from my thoughts. But my main activity was the College's baseball team.

Mr. George DeLuca

I was elected captain in my senior year. We had a student government then and many students were interested in it." Mr. DeLuca still follows the doing of the Alumni Association and tries never to miss the annual class dinner. For a while he was on the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association.

Admitted to Bar

In 1911 he was admitted to the Bar and a year later he was graduated from Columbia. He became an assistant district attorney in 1920. Ten years later he became a city magistrate. In 1937 Mr. DeLuca was appointed as an associate justice of the court of special sessions by Mayor LaGuardia. He became chief justice in 1946 and was elected Bronx District Attorney in the fall of '49, a post to which he was re-elected last year.

Commenting upon his chances for election to the lieutenant governorship, he said, "everyone seems to be saying it's a good year for the Democrats."

'Med Schools Needed'

Mr. DeLuca believes that more medical schools are needed in the state to meet the shortages of medical personnel. "Also, if the situation warrants, state aid to education should be increased," he said. "No one should be deprived of an education to the extent of his abilities for lack of funds." According to Mr. DeLuca, college students are more enlightened now than they were in his day due to the increase in media of information.

Mr. DeLuca, who just celebrated his sixty-fifth birthday, was married in 1916.

Poetry Competition Challenge to Bards

Students are invited to submit original verse for possible publication in the "Annual Anthology of College Poetry," on or before Nov. 5, according to Dennis Hartman, secretary of the National Poetry Association.

"The recognition afforded by publication reflects credit on the author and the college," said Mr. Hartman. Four percent of the works submitted have been accepted in past contests.

Entries must be typed, using one side of the paper only. The entrant's home address, the name of the college, an address must appear on each sheet. Theme and form depend upon personal preference, but shorter efforts are preferred. Poems should be submitted to the National Poetry Association, 3210 Selby Avenue, Los Angeles 34, California.

Mexico Offers Study Grants

Five undergraduate scholarships in Mexico for the academic year beginning March, 1955, are being offered by the Mexican government, announced Mr. Kenneth Holland, president of the Institute of International Education.

Recommended fields of study include philosophy, languages, and literature. Students with special previous training may study Mexican history, ethnology, archaeology, and physical anthropology.

Requirements for the awards include knowledge of Spanish, a good academic record, a valid purpose, and ability to pay incidental costs. The scholarships are designed to cover tuition and maintenance.

Applications must be filed no later than Nov. 1 at the Institute of International Education, 1 East Sixty-seventh Street, New York.

Sociology Department Boasts New Addition - Old Age Expert

By Allen Kraut

Although many professors at the College are experts in various fields, Prof. Milton L. Barron (Sociology) is probably the only one who can lay claim to being a gerontologist.

Gerontology, for the information of young college students, is the study of the aged.

Professor Barron, a new addition to the Sociology Department, spent the summer in Europe visiting projects which are doing research on problems of the aged. "Clinics and housing for old people are far advanced in Europe," he noted, "but we are far ahead in our programs of preventive geriatrics."

Isolation a Problem

Isolation is one of the primary problems of the aged, according to Professor Barron. "It is always a source of anxiety, and for New Yorkers it is even worse because the great size and impersonality of the city exaggerates their feelings of solitude," the professor said. This isolation is usually caused by loss of spouse and the mobility of their children.

"Another problem is the lack of employment opportunities open to older people," Professor Barron stated. "To the aged, a job is important not only economically

A consideration of the results of the special meeting held last week on the Friday Night Dance Committee will be the first order of business at the Student Council meeting this afternoon at 4 in 200 Main.

At last week's meeting a plan was presented for reorganization of the Friday Night Dance Committee with emphasis on a stronger vote for Student Council.

To Elect Reps

Two student representatives will be elected to the Dance Committee.

SC will also study a plan for teaching students at the College how to drive.

Representatives to the Student Council Finance and Fee Committees will be elected.

Veep to Report

SC Vice-president Barney McCaffrey '55 will report on personnel recruitment. Two hundred students have volunteered to serve on Student Government agencies. Fifty have enrolled in the SC leadership training program.

At last week's meeting, SC voted to hire a paid final exam chairman, a paid executive secretary.

SC President, Ira Klosk '55 said: "The greatest amount of contact between the student and Student Government is through the final exams program." He believes that a paid chairman would handle the project more efficiently.

Claims Depreciation
An appealing to the administrative committee, Mr. Levin argued the failure to give the same weight to all of the Hygiene Department's activities would cause depreciation of the quality of work in the department, and a lowering of the status of physical education teachers.

The point of status is probably "true," President Gallagher declared. "I pointed out to the committee that we are not depreciating the value of the department, of any of its parts.

Teachers at the College who do administrative work are credited with the latter on a two-for-one basis; that is, two hours of administrative work count for one teaching hour. That would mean that the president's job, which is all administrative, has the lowest status of all, which I don't think the department would do with exactly."

Booters Edge Alumni, 5-3, But Daoupars Steals Show

In their final scrimmage game before their season opener against Pratt on Oct. 2, the College's soccer team eked out a narrow 5-3 victory over the alumni at Lewisohn Stadium, Saturday.

It was not expected that a group of players, who, if they had ever played together at all had not been teammates for several years, would be able to put up much of a battle against the team which purports to have the best offense in the city. They wouldn't have either if not for the brilliant defensive work of all-American Lucien Daoupars. Time and again he was the one man between a Beaver attacker and the goal, but the ball rarely got past him. It was Daoupars also who was the spark plug of the alumni offense as he repeatedly followed up his saves with beautiful passes to mid-field and personally accounted for his team's third goal.

Ragged Quarter

Booter coach Harry "Doc" Karlin undoubtedly wished, as he watched the action from the bench, that the superlative Daoupars still had another year of eligibility left, for he would probably be just the man that could make the Beavers gell as a team. This was their most glaring weakness Saturday, their inability to work together as a unit. It was most obvious in the ragged first quarter in which some of the boys played as though they had never seen each other before. The tempo picked up later in the game, however, when the Beaver passing started to click, but they still missed excellent scoring opportunities repeatedly.

All-American Johnny Koutsantanou looked sharp in registering a pair of goals and he was matched in the scoring department by co-captain Gus Naclerio. The fifth tally was notched by Wolf Wostl the big inside right. Co-captain Eddie Trunk played a beautiful game at the vital center half position.

The Beaver defense, except for a momentary lapse early in the first period when Manny Eckerman came in all alone on goalie Herschel Nissensen and scored the first alumni goal, was rugged.

Ex-Coach's Praise

The second goal was scored by ex-Lavender star and coach Werner Rothschild. After the game Rothschild commented that "the team looks great. They should go very far this year. They are a wonderful club and are probably one of the top teams in the East." Rothschild did not fail to notice that the Beavers were overlooking numerous scoring opportunities. "However," he added, "they will probably show a tremendous improvement after they have played together for a while."

Nimrods Take Aim Today For Opening Of Season Practice

The College's rifle team will hold their first practice session on Oct. 1, in an effort to improve upon their ranking of fifth in the city last season.

The marksmen's ranks have been cut sharply by the graduation of three of last year's four top scorers. They have lost Henry Brochhagen, their biggest point getter, Al Moss, their number two man last year and Walter Bickston and Bob Simon, their fourth and sixth high scorers.

Among the returnees who will be counted upon heavily if the nimrods intend to better their 1953 record of 11-4 are John Miller, Sal Sorbera and Henry Sikorski. Miller and Sorbera ranked third and fifth respectively last season. Other returning veterans are John Marciniak, Harvey Inventasch, Steve Madigan and Norman Hess.

According to rifle coach Sgt. Richard Hoffman, the toughest opposition will come from Fordham, last year's city champion and runner-up St. John's.

Cross Country Coach In Need of Material

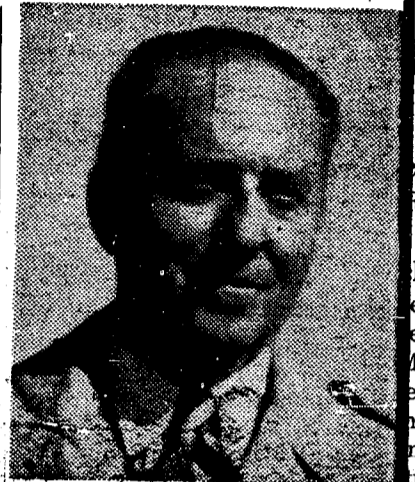

In years past, cross-country Coach Harold Anson Bruce virtually had to plead to get runners to come out for his squad. This season it's no different. The combined loss of Tommy O'Brien, Paul Pavlides, and Bob Armstrong has left the coach with a big gap to fill and his calls for fresh material have increased with intensity and vigor.

Earlier this month, Coach Bruce thought that the gap left by the trio would be ably filled by co-captain Gene Forsyth and Jim Spencer but both runners seem to be out of the picture temporarily.

Forsyth, who the coach thinks will develop into the bulwark of the hill and dalers squad this season, reported with an infected foot and has been unable to work out. As a result, Gene will not be ready for the opening meet of the season against Upsala.

As of early this week, Spencer hasn't reported for Bruce's workouts at Van Cortlandt Park, but has been working out by himself. Not having run cross-country before, Spencer requires a good deal of conditioning and the mentor does not think that he will be in top shape for the season's opener.

Still another disappointment to the coach is the fact that Joe Gold has decided not to compete this fall. Gold, one of the College's outstanding sprinters and broad jumpers, would make an excellent hill and daler, according to Bruce, but he isn't coming out. However, Joe stated that his decision was not definite. He may be out before the season is over. Beavers opening against Upsala Oct. 9, at the New Jersey team field. Eight other meets are slated, with the Brucemen playing host at only two of these. The home meets will take place Oct. 16 and 30, with Hunter and Fordham providing the competition. As in the past, Van Cortlandt Park will serve as the Lavender home field. Fordham, always known for its fine track team, should once more furnish the toughest opposition.
